

After Prison 1461

Chapter 1461

At that moment, Sofia's shyness attracted Severin to do the things he wanted even more. He quickly went over and embraced her into his arms and kissed her lips.

Then he looked at her with his gentle and charming eyes. "Can you blame me when my third wife is so sexy? I'm going to search for the location of the Devil Gang tomorrow and who knows when will I come back? I just want to spend more time with you tonight before I leave tomorrow."

Even though Sofia was glad to hear that, she pretended to feel disgusted and rolled her eyes. "Gosh, I'm so impressed with you. You can always find the right excuse!"

"Ahem. It's getting late. Why don't we take some rest now?"

Severin had his fingers going up and down Sofia's back while kissing her. Then they headed to the bed.

The next morning, Severin was already waiting in the yard when Sofia woke up.

"You scare me! I thought you had already left," Sofia said when she found out Severin was in the yard.

Severin said, "I can't bear to wake you up because you were sleeping soundly. I was going to leave but I thought I should wait until you wake up and say goodbye to you."

After that, he gave her a third-grade medium-rank alchemical pill. "This is a third-grade medium-rank alchemical pill. Now that you are in a stable stage, maybe this pill can help you break through and become a level six warrior emperor. I have faith in you. Maybe it's going to take just a few days or even faster than I estimate."

Sofia stored the alchemical pill in her spatial ring and said, "Okay. Don't worry, I will train hard and wait for your return."

He rubbed her head and kissed her before forcing himself to leave. Then he flew up into the sky to head back into the forest.

"I'll be here waiting for you!" Sofia said as she watched Severin fly off and disappear into the thick fog.

She stood there thinking for a while. Then she went back to the room to call her father.

"Hahaha Baby girl. Why did you suddenly think of calling me?" Bick asked when the call was connected.

He teased, "How are you? Did you find him? It has been half a month now. What's the progress?"

Sofia was still feeling so in love and wanted to tell her dad the good news. However, she felt awkward and embarrassed when Birk asked her.

Chapter 1462

Sofia bit her lips and kept silent for several seconds.

"What do you think? Do you know how beautiful your daughter is?" Sofia asked in return.

Birk chuckled. "Haha! Are you trying to tell me you have made a huge progress? So which stage are you two at now? Holding hands?"

Sofia blushed and felt embarrassed. "Dad! I'm his third wife now. He has already told the members of Capra Hall that I'm his third wife. But I'm too embarrassed to tell you which stage we are now."

Birk was dumbfounded. After a while, he said, "My god! Honey, please don't tell me you two had slept together. Don't you think you are being a little too easy? He's not going to cherish you if you don't let him fight his way to gain your love. I did ask you to pursue your happiness but not to this extent. This progress is just too..."

Without a doubt, Birk was really shocked by the news. It caught him by surprise

Sofia explained, "Dad, don't worry. He's worth it. He promised he would take care of me. Besides, I mean it was really hard to control when you were in that moment. So that's that Gosh! This is so embarrassing!"

At this point, Birk gave in a little. "Alright. Just make sure you don't regret this decision and it makes you happy. Bring him. over when he's free. He got my girl and I don't even know what he looks like. Other than knowing he's good at alchemy and a talented person, I know nothing about him."

Sofia smiled. "Dad, it makes more sense to say that I'm the one who tricked him into being with me. There are so many beautiful women who would die to marry him. It's not easy for me to get this spot."

"Oh, my god! Are you really my daughter? You used to be so proud. Do you remember how many geniuses try to win you over? But you don't like anyone. Why are you so humble and petty now?"

Birk exclaimed, "Honey, you're also a wonderful woman. You are not any lesser than him. It's an honor and blessing for him to have you as his third wife too."

Sofia said, "I don't think so. He's a third-grade medium-rank alchemist now and there is no saying how soon he's going to be a third-grade high-rank alchemist. I'm too ashamed to compare myself to him. We are totally on a different level."

"What did you say?" Birk gasped and wondered if he heard it right.

He did not think Severin would be able to have a breakthrough so quickly.

"Genius! He's really a genius! Third-grade medium-rank alchemist! My god! I guess I'll need him to protect me in the future!" Birk exclaimed shockingly.

As he thought for a while, he joked, "Honey, you're my precious daughter. My one and only daughter. I can't let him get you. so easily. I'm alright if he doesn't give you a wedding but at the very least, he should have some action to show me that he really wants to be with you."

Sofia frowned, "Dad, what are you talking about? I'm his woman now and I'm very satisfied. I don't care about all the other stuff. Do you seriously want to ban me from being with him after I slept with him? I don't care what you think or say. I'm going to be with him and that's all"

Chapter 1463

“Abem, it is what it is. If I say I don’t agree, is that okay?”

Birk coughed twice in embarrassment, and then said, “What I mean is that he is already a third-grade intermediate alchemist, so giving ten third-grade low-rank alchemical pills as a gift is weird right?”

Sofia almost fainted. It turned out that his father wanted to get some alchemical pills here.

After knowing his father’s thoughts, Sofia also deliberately joked with Birk, “What? Ten pills, Dad, are you too greedy? A third-grade low-rank pill is already considered a treasure among treasures., you actually want ten pills like this, that’s too much. Are you selling your daughter to afford it?”

Birk was so angry at Sofia’s words that he almost explaited on the spot, and immediately said angrily, “Sofia, I only have a daughter like you, aren’t you worth ten third grade low-rank alchemical pills? Have you forgotten your parents since you got with that boy?”

Sofia then covered his mouth and laughed, “Haha, dad, I’m just teasing you. Don’t worry, he is a very generous person, and he will definitely not let you down when the time comes.”

“You damn girl, you actually joked with my dad about such a serious matter.”

Birk pretended to be angry.

“Okay, dad, I’m going to practice. Severin just gave me a third-grade intermediate pill. He asked me to break through some levels first. I won’t talk to you anymore.”

“A third-grade intermediate alchemical pill, do you want me to envy you to death?”

Birk happily hung up the phone. He couldn’t help but smile and say, “Tsk, ts, third-grade intermediate alchemical pill. My daughter can now use such a treasure to practice. Her strength has not yet breached the fifth or sixth level. Warrior Emperor? If this continues, it won’t be long before my daughter’s power will catch up with mine.”

At this time, Severin had arrived in the forest alone.

After releasing his mental power, he could clearly see the area covered by his mental power.

“Not bad, I can sense a spiritual herb.”

Severin soon discovered a third-grade low-level spiritual herb. How serendipitous for him.

As for the people in Capra Hall, for the sake of everyone’s safety, Severin has told them not to look for spiritual herbs in the past few days. He flew over and was about to pick the spiritual herb when a two-headed fire tiger rushed out of the bushes not far away

The two-headed fire tiger let out a deafening roar, it had the power level of a second-grade Warrior Emperor. A spiritual beast with the rank of a second grade Warrior Emperor is already considered an extremely powerful existence in this forest.

However, for Severin, he wasn’t scared at all. He turned around, Hew up with a sweeping kick, and then slammed his bag down on the two-headed flaming tiger. Before the Fiery Tiger could spit out the fire from its mouth, it was hit by Severin's leg. The next second, it flew out like a cannonball. After breaking two or three ancient trees, it fell to the ground.

Chapter 1464

The Tiger's mouth was bleeding and he was no longer breathing. Severin didn't even bother to look at the Fiery Tiger. He squatted down and plucked the spiritual herb. Because of his high attainment level and strong mental power, Severin had no difficulty at all in this misty forest, which was very hard for others.

At the end of the day, almost eighty spiritual herbs have been found, and they also include some fourth-grade low-level and fourth-grade intermediate spiritual herbs.

"What a bountiful harvest, but the sky is already dark. I met several people today, all of them are rogue fighters, and I didn't meet anyone from the Devil Gang"

Severin looked at the sky and found that it was already very dark, so he found a cave and hid in it. However, he was bored so he spread some weeds to make a bed in the cave, went out to find some firewood, killed a hare, and then barbecued it alone in the cave. What Severin didn't expect was that just when the barbecue was about to be cooked, a figure rushed in from the outside, looking a little embarrassed.

A woman immediately spotted Severin and couldn't help but exclaim in surprise, "It's you!"

Severin was ashamed. He didn't expect to meet Stephanie again here. But now Stephanie no longer had the calmness of that day. Her hair was a little messy, and the clothes on her back were torn several times. Blood flowed out from there. Her face was pale and she looked very embarrassed.

Severin looked at this woman and frowned. "No way? You are a high ranking Warrior Emperor. In this forest, it is unlikely that you will be injured. How did you get injured like this?"

"I don't want you to worry about it!TM

Stephanie rolled her eyes at Severin, then sat down in another corner, took out a healing pill and swallowed it.

"Damn it, there's too much bleeding, and the healing effect of this alchemical pill is too slow."

After taking the pill, Stephanie still felt a little dizzy due to excessive bleeding.

She was a little scared. If she really fainted, this man who she had met two or three times before would do something wrong to her. After all, she has such a good figure and a beautiful face, and she is in a cave in such a dangerous place. If Severin really does something and kills her before leaving here, nobody would know.

Thinking of this, she was even more speechless. She saw a cave here and hid in it. Unexpectedly, there was someone inside.

"Your alchemical pill is not good, but the one I have here is pretty good. You have three wounds, and they are quite deep. If you don't stop the bleeding in time, I'm afraid you will bleed to death."

Severin glanced at the other party, and then slowly spule, he took out an alchemical pill with his hands, and walked towards the uthr party.

“How do I know if your pill is an alchemical pill? If it has any other effects after you take this medicine, I can’t believe your les by then.”

Stephanie glanced at Severin and did not dare in take the pill handed over by Severin.

Severin smiled bitterly. “Beauty, you don’t have to guard against me. Although you are indeed good-looking, 1, Severin, am definitely not someone who takes vanture of others. Besides, with the current Injury, I really want to do this to you. What, why waste a pill? Do you think I can’t full you down in your current situation?!

Chapter 1465

At this time, Stephanie also felt that her head was getting dizzler. She looked at Severin, then she gritted her teeth and swallowed the pill in Severin’s hand.

Sure enough, as Severin swallowed the alchemical pill, Stephanie instantly discovered that the wound on her back healed faster. The effect of this alchemical pill was similar to the ones she had that were more refined. The healing effect of medicine is several times greater.

“This speed is still not enough. Although you took the alchemical pill I gave you, which can protect you from death, the wound will definitely heal, but by the time it heals, you will probably have fainted.”

Severin glanced at her again and said to her. Stephanie knew that she had misunderstood Severin. Severin was indeed not that kind of villain.

After thinking for a while, she said to Severin, “Could it be that you have a better way?

Severin palmed his hands, took out a small porcelain bottle, and said to Stephanie, “This has the best effect. I also have some healing powder here. You need to lie down, I will help you sprinkle some on it, but it may hurt a little, so you need to bear with “No, in that case, wouldn’t my back be exposed to you?”

Stephanie suddenly thought of something, and couldn’t help feeling shy. Wouldn’t this be an advantage for Severin?

Severin smiled bitterly and said, “Is your life more important, or is it more important for me to look at your back? You choose for yourself...

After finishing speaking, Severin stood up to leave. Sering Severin about to leave, Stephanie panicked instantly and hurriedly said to Severin, “Wait, don’t tell anyone, otherwise, 1, I will kill you.”

Severin thought to himself, “Why is this Stephante more conservative than Sofia? Isn’t it just looking at her back? Not like he could view her front,”

However, Severin still said to the other party, “Don’t worry, I don’t need to talk about this kind of thing everywhere.”

Stephanie’s head became increasingly dizzy, she bit her red lips, and then she lay down obediently.

Severin saw that the clothes on the other party's back were sticking to his back, making it difficult to apply the powder, so he couldn't help but tear open some of the other party's clothes with his hands, exposing almost all of his back.

Stephanie was even more shy. She closed her eyes and felt extremely nervous.

"Ah!"

Soon, pain hit her back, and Stephanie couldn't help but let out a cry of pain. Perhaps it was because there was too much bleeding. Finally, after Stephanie screamed several times, she couldn't help but faint.

Just after Severin spread the medicine, he found that the other party had fainted. He immediately smiled bitterly and said, "It seems that your perseverance is not good enough. You still fainted. You thought you could persist until the end."

If Stephanie heard this, she would probably jump up and strangle Severin to death. She passed little by little, and when it was dawn, Stephanie woke up from her sleep.

Chapter 1466

At this time, the wound on her back had completely healed, and new flesh had grown, not even a scar was left, and she looked perfect. However, there were still a lot of dried blood scabs on her back, which seemed to prove that she had suffered serious injuries yesterday,

After Stephanie woke up, she felt a slight chill on her back and felt a little worried. She couldn't help but look at Severin, and then said, "You, why didn't you say last night that I would faint? You didn't do anything to me, right?"

Severin was ashamed and smiled bitterly. "How can I judge so accurately? Besides, you fainted, which means your perseverance is not as good as I thought. As for whether I have done anything to you, don't you know yourself?"

Stephanie felt it carefully, and it seemed that there was nothing strange about her body. Then she rolled her eyes at Severin and said, "Thank you very much for last night. It seems that you are indeed a gentleman "

After finishing speaking, she looked at Severin again. "I, I want to change clothes now, why don't you go out for a while?"

Severin smiled bitterly, then stood up and said to the other party, "Although your wound has healed, there is still a lot of dried blood and a lot of blood scabs on your back. Do you want to wash it?"

"But there aren't any lakes here. Besides, this misty forest is so dangerous. It's not good to be exposed."

Stephanie lowered her head and thought for a while, then raised her head and smiled at Severin. "How about you help me stand guard and prevent others from getting close?"

Severin was ashamed. This girl was afraid that he was a pervert before, but now she asked him to help guard her?

Severin smiled bitterly and said, "I do know that outside the cave, and by walking a mile to the left, there is a small take. If you want to wash, you ran go there to wash. But, aren't you afraid that I might peek?"

Stephanie bit her red lips. "I believe you are not that kind of person. Besides, I won't finish taking off my clothes. I will just go down and wash my back. It's not a big problemn."

"Hey, okay!"

Severin nodded helplessly. "It's unlucky for me, I have to work as a free coolic

After saying that, Severin took the other party to the lake. After Stephanie finished washing, he hid in the herb and changed into a skirt.

After changing, Stephanie walked out, blushing. Although she felt that Severin would never peek, when she was cleaning her back and changing clothes just now, she felt extremely nervous.

Severin looked at the other party and then said, "By the way, your attainment level is so high. How could you be injured if you are an eighth-rank Warrior Emperor? Could it be that you met the ninth-rank Martial Emperor?"

After thinking about it, Severin directly denied it. It shouldn't be possible. Judging from your wound yesterday, it looks... could it be that you met a powerful spiritual beast?"

Stephanie nodded. "Well, I found a treasure. Unfortunately, there is a Hurricane Walf guarding there, and the beast had power comparable to the attainment level of the ninth-grade Warrior Emperor. I am no match."

Severin looked ashamed and said to the other party, "Then, have you got the treasure

Stephanie shook his head helplessly. "No, that spiritual beast was too powerful and couldn't get close to it. After it injured me. I ran away iminidiately. If I hadn't run fast, 1 would be dead by now."

After Severin thought for a while, he said, "It seems that the treasure is not simply attained Could it be a fourth-grade spiritual herb! Otherwise, you know that the sparitual beast is so powerful, and you still want to grab it... must be a lacle silly. Unexpectedly, Stephanie smiled and said, "That treasure is not a fourth-grade spiritual herb, but a fifth-grade spiritual Imult!"

Chapter 1467

"Fifth-grade spiritual fruit!"

After hearing this, Severin couldn't help but take a breath. Such a treasure is indred very tempting. No wonder Stephanie takes such a risk and wants to give it a try.

However, it is obvious that even if her fighting power is not weak, she cannot be the opponent of a spiritual beast with the attainment level of the Ninth-Rank Warrior Emperor. After all, spiritual beasts are inherently much more powerful than human bodies. The spiritual beasts of the Ninth-Bank Warrior Emperor, even if they are first-level, It can be hard to take down

Was Stephanie about to say that Severin’s attainment level was not a saint one? However, then she remembered that the last time she fought with Severin, she was wearing a mask,

So, in the middle of her words, she immediately changed the subject and said, ‘By the way, what is your attainment level? Your attainment level should be higher than mine, right?’

Severin naturally knew what the other party was thinking, and couldn’t help but smile slightly and said, “I am a second–grade saint.”

“That’s great. If you go, you can definitely take down the spiritual beast easily.”

After learning about Severin’s attainment level, Stephanie showed an excited expression

However, unexpectedly, Severin touched the bridge of his nose and said slowly, “Beauty, before you want to take a bath or something, let me help you guard it so that no one else sees it. This is a small matter, but this battle with a spiritual beast is still a spiritual beast with the attainment level of a ninth–grade Warrior Emperor. Haha, this is quite difficult. If there is no benefit at all, I’m afraid it can’t be justified, right?”

Stephanie rolled her eyes at Severin. “I knew you wouldn’t help so easily. Don’t worry, the benefits will be yours The spiritual fruit on that tree is called the Golden Sky Sperli Fruit. There are three of them in toll. They belong to me.” I found it yesterday, and I was injured, so I have to ask for two If you help pick out the Treasure, I can give you one, how about it?”

“Just give me one? Shouldn’t you give me two?”

Severin touched the bridge of his nose and felt that Stephanie’s allocation was obviously unreasonable, Unexpectedly, this woman said, “But, I was so seriously injured yesterday that I almost died. Besides, I discovered that thing. Men are so greedy.”

Severin was ashamed. He didn’t expect that this would involve both men and women.

“Okay, okay, you take me there. When it’s done, you get two and I get one!

Severin shrugged helplessly and finally compromised.

“That’s pretty much it

Stephanie felt happy, and then walked in front, “Go this way, just follow me.”

Sure enough, it didn’t take long for the two of them to arrive in front of a small valley. On the cliff not far from the valley. there was a golden tree

Not only the entire leaves and trunk of this Golden Sky Spirit Tree are golden, but even the three Golden Shy Spirit Fruits on it are golden

Looking at the three fruits on it, even Severin swallowed. This was a fifth-grade fruit, and the aura beside was very rich and mild. He estimated that if he ate such a fruit, its attainment level would break through to that of a ninth-grade saint. However, at this moment, there is a huge Hurricane Wolf lying down below. This Hurricane Wolf is estimated to be seven or eight feet tall. Even lying there, it gives people a strong sense of intimidation.

Just when Severin was about to approach, the Hurricane Wolf also sensed Severin's presence, stood up suddenly, and let out a deep roar.

Chapter 1468

A pair of eyes stared at Severin with a violent aura. Severin smiled coldly, took out a sword with his hands, and then held it in his hand.

After the Hurricane Wolf felt the threat from Severin, he suddenly let out a roar, and then his body suddenly shook. A series of spiritual blades appeared, and they flew towards Severin.

"This attack is not easy."

Severin couldn't help but frown when he saw it. This was the first time he had encountered a spiritual beast with the level of a ninth-grade Warrior Emperor. Most people couldn't handle the attack of this spiritual beast.

After Severin finished speaking, he poured spiritual energy into the sword in his hand, and then threw the sword forward, "Rain of roses!"

As his words fell, pieces of rose petals flew out.

"This Warrior art looks so beautiful!"

Looking at the flying rose petals, Stephanie's eyes showed a hint of excitement, feeling that this was too romantic. Moreover, what she didn't expect was that the attack power of these rose petals was not simple, and they defeated all the spiritual blades in a moment. When the huge hurricane wolf saw this situation, its eyes widened with fright. The surprised expression was not too obvious.

Obviously, this spiritual beast, which has reached the level of the ninth-grade Warrior Emperor, has a very high spiritual intelligence, and instantly knew how terrifying Severin was.

After knowing how terrifying Severin was, this guy roared again and created more hurricane blades. After those hurricane blades flew towards Severin, it turned around and rushed into the mist, almost running away.

Severin's rose petals easily destroyed the opponent's attack

"Damn it, this wolf can run really fast."

Seeing the beast running away, Stephanie stomped her feet angrily. "You! Why don't you chase it and kill it to avenge me?"

Severin was ashamed and said with a wry smile, "That guy can use the hurricane blade. After rushing into the mist, it is even more difficult to deal with. Besides, if I catch up to avenge you, what will happen to these three Golden Sky Fruits? What if? You picked them all off and you ran away, where can I find you?"

Stephanie was speechless and couldn't help but rolled her eyes at Severin and said, "Am I that kind of person? You are still guarding me. We agreed before that I would definitely give you one."

While talking, Stephanie also flew over, picked off the golden Tianling, Fruit, and then threw one to Severin. After Severin took the fruit, he couldn't help but smile and said, "Haha, beauty, I'm not really friends with you, so I don't dare to risk it."

"Yes, we got the fruit!"

However, just when Stephanie and Severin put the spirit fruit into the storage ring, five people passed by not far away and happened to see this scene.

One of them raised his eyebrows, with his eyes glinting.

Chapter 1469

The person who spoke seemed to be the leader among these people. His eyes glanced at Severin, full of greed.

"Captain Michael, this is a fifth-grade spiritual fruit. If this is dedicated to the Supreme Leader, we will definitely get a lot of rewards!"

Severin frowned when he heard the other party's conversation. He quickly thought of something. Could it be that these people are from the Devil Gang? Thinking of this, he couldn't help but feel happy.

The leader nodded and waved his hand, and the five people flew over, surrounding Severin and the others. Obviously, they didn't seem to know that this fifth-grade spiritual fruit was guarded by such a powerful spiritual beast before, and they didn't even know how Severin obtained this spiritual fruit,

After the leader came over, he couldn't help but smile evilly, looked at Stephanie, and then said, "Tsk, ts, not bad, there is such a beauty here, I can enjoy her for a while."

However, a middle-aged man behind him frowned and persuaded the leader, "Captain, let's just grab the treasure. There is no need to do that kind of thing, right? Isn't that too much?"

It's a pity that Captain Michael slapped the opponent with his backhand, which made the opponent's face turn red. "Am I the captain or are you the captain? Damn it, we people in the Devil Gang live day to day. Well? If I have the chance to meet such a beautiful woman, why shouldn't I just be happy?"

"Billie, are you okay?"

At this time, a woman in her forties next to her immediately walked over and grabbed the arm that had been slapped before, frowning and looking ugly.

"Billie? Could it be?"

Severin's heart suddenly skipped a beat, Billie... as in Moreno? Isn't this the name of Tara's father? Could it be that this couple is the parents of Tara and Lina?

If this is the case, this luck is really not that good. He looked at Billie carefully. Not to mention, there were so many similarities between his eyebrows and Tara's. It seemed that the couple in front of him were Billie and Lulu

At this time, Captain Michael looked at Lulu again, and then said with a smile, "Billie, I haven't touched a woman for a long time. Are you kind-hearted? Okay, I'll just kill them. Take away their fruit and don't mess with this little beauty, but can you let your wife play with me? Otherwise, I will be lonely and empty, do you understand?"

Billie clenched his fist angrily, glared at Captain Michael, and then said, "Michael Lusted, don't go too far."

Michael smiled coldly and said, "What's wrong? Are you angry? Not happy?"

At this point, Michael paused, then continued with a cold smile, "Since you are not happy, then you should mind your own business. You are just a low-level team member. You have angered me."

"Captain, no, Billie knows he was wrong. I will apologize to you on his behalf."

As soon as he heard that the other party was going to punish the two of them, Lulu panicked instantly and hurriedly knelt on the ground and said to Michael.

Stephane sneered, "Haha, you are so courageous. You think you can take my treasure and even tape me? Look at how fat you and

Then Michael suddenly smiled evilly and said, "Haha, looking at you two, you are probably also rogue fighters, right? What's wrong? Is my fourth-grade Warrior Emperor attainment not enough for you?"

Chapter 1470

Speaking of this, Michael looked at Stephanie's long legs and couldn't help but gulp down his saliva and said, "Little girl, you're quite sexy. I like hot women like you. I'll let you go in a moment, how a fat guy can feel like."

The other two men immediately said, "Captain, after you finish playing, let us enjoy her too."

Another one also said, "Yes, captain, let us also feel it. We haven't touched a woman for a long time."

Michael nodded. "Okay, you can keep this man, capture him and let him become a slave of our Devil Gang and work for us. As for this woman, kill her after you have fun with her. If you bring her back, the Supreme Leader and several elders will keep her for themselves."

Stephanie gritted her teeth angrily. She was considered a very important and noble person in her own sect. She didn't expect to meet such disgusting people.

“Haha, I see you are really tired of living.”

After finishing speaking, Stephanie clenched her fist, and spiritual energy surged from it.

When Severin saw that Stephanie was about to take action, he reminded her, “These three people can be killed, but don’t kill this couple yet.”

Stephanie was stunned, wondering why Severin still helped the other party to speak, but when she thought about the man’s comment earlier who had tried to ask the Captain to stop, she nodded. Several roars sounded in succession, and a moment later, the three people were all lying on the ground.

“This this.....

Before Billie and Lulu could react, they found Captain Michael and the other er three dead. They are only the first-grade Warrior Emperors, and compared to the other three, their attainment level is considered the worst.

Unexpectedly, Captain Michael died so quickly, and they were so frightened that they didn’t know what to do.

Lulu knelt on the ground. “Please forgive us two seniors. We didn’t do it an purpose. We had no choice but to join this Devil Gang. Please let us go.”

Stephanie shrugged. “Haha, you are also with them. If it were me, you would be dead by now. However, this Severin saved me yesterday. He doesn’t seem to want to kill you, and I can’t help it.”

Severin looked at the middle-aged woman, and then said, “Are you Lulu?”

Lulu looked stunned, looked up at Severin and said, “You, how do you know

mny

After receiving, the other party’s confirmation, Severin felt even more happy. He couldn’t help but smile and said, “It seems that I’m lucky. I’m just here to find you. I promised your children Tara and Lina that I would try to find you.”

Upon hearing this, the two people’s eyes instantly turned red.

Lulu teared up. “Really? Are they, are they okay?”

Severin smiled and said, “They miss you very much. They will be fine when you go back.”

Billie sighed, als eyes full of despair. “Go back? It’s a pity that we can’t go back, otherwise, we will die.”
