

After Prison 1571

Chapter 1571

“Haha. Did I do anything wrong? I don’t think so!” Meldrick laughed hysterically while showing himself to everyone else. I was only a guardian in Stormy Moon Sect but Unbeaten Wind Sect offered me to be their elder. It is a totally different level. People who are smart will choose the best choice, and clearly, I’m that kind of person.”

Sofia did not know Meldrick would rather betray the sect because she did not love him as he loved her. Luckily, no one knew Severin had given Birk third-grade high-rank alchemical pills, or the situation could be more chaotic than now.

“Meldrick, you are a jerk! A f*cking *sshole!” Sofia glared angrily.

Meldrick scoffed, “Sofia, I’m actually doing you a favor, don’t you know that? I can’t bear to see you marry Severin, an unaffiliated practitioner who already has two wives! Do you really want to share a husband with other women? Rather than marrying him, why don’t you marry Daniel? He’s more charming than Severin.”

Sofia was awestruck by what Meldrick said. It seemed like Meldrick was gradually getting better at groveling.

In fact, there were many elders and disciples of the Unbeaten Wind Sect who despised Meldrick. They worried Meldrick would betray them in the future for his own good, just like how he betrayed Stormy Moon Sect now.

However, the Unbeaten Wind Sect needed his help now, so they understood why Thomas would make this decision to take Meldrick in and make Meldrick their elder.

Severin looked at Thomas and said, “Mister Thomas, are you sure you want to accept someone who betrayed his sect without a hint of guilt? Aren’t you afraid he’s going to do the same thing to you in the future?”

Without a doubt, Thomas’ face looked sullen after hearing that.

Before Thomas would say anything. Meldrick held his hand up and promised, “Mister Thomas, don’t worry. Now that I have chosen to become a member of the Unbeaten Wind Sect, I would devote myself to the sect, train hard, and give the sect everything I have. Don’t listen to him.”

After a slight pause, he continued, “The only reason I joined Unbeaten Wind Sect is because I have faith in the sect. I believe the Unbeaten Wind Sect would become a first-tier sect and one of the

+15 BONUS

Frankly speaking, even Thomas thought Meldrick had gone too far with his bluffing. Never had he expected the Unbeaten Wind Sect would be strong enough to become a first-tier sect. All he hoped for the sect was to become the strongest sect among the secluded sects in this area

“Something is not right. Thomas! These guys are stalling! They are trying to buy more time!”

Suddenly, the Great Elder of the Unbeaten Wind Sect discovered as time passed, disciples would fly up to the sky and join the rest. Those disciples were the elite disciples with higher attainment That rang his bell, and realized Birk was stalling so more disciples could finish their training and come to join the battle.

Thomas thought and realized it was the truth. He glared at Birk. “Stop the blabbering! Hand over your daughter now and Severin too. After we destroy his attainment, he will work for us.”

That’s impossible. He’s a good son-in-law. I will definitely not hand him over Just look at your son. Do you think he’s worthy of my daughter? Stop dreaming,” Birk sneered.

“Dad, Dad’ Did you hear that?” Daniel said angrily with his gritted teeth.

Chapter 1572

Thomas balled up his hand and said, “Fine! If this is what you want! Listen up! Attack them! Kill everyone but Sofia and Severin. I want them alive to regret what they did!”

Meldrick gave it a thought and giggled, ‘Mister Thomas. Look at the three women behind Severin. They looked so pretty too. Maybe they are his wives. Hehe. Can you tell the disciples to be careful and not kill them? I want them.”

Thomas sneered and gave Meldrick a look. “I don’t know that you are into this. Haha. Okay. Listen. up, everyone. Do you see those three women? Capture them alive. Don’t kill them. It’s fine if you need to hurt them till they don’t have the power to fight back anymore.”

Elsa was speechless when she heard that. She did not know Meldrick would misunderstand and take her as Severin’s wife too, because she was standing together with Sheila and Diane. Then again, she had to agree Severin was a handsome man who, even as his apprentice, would sometimes fantasize about him. She really admired his alchemy skills and his power.

“Haha. Meldrick, you have made the worst and idiot decision,’ Severin chuckled.

Meldrick could not be bothered to talk with Severin anymore. Instead, he looked at Draven and asked, “Draven, do you want to join me? Don’t worry. I will always have your back if you join the Unbeaten Wind Sect.”

After that, everyone looked at Draven, which left him speechless. After hesitating for a few seconds, he smiled bitterly, “No. I’m really grateful that Stormy Moon Sect is willing to let me join. I can’t betray them.”

“Haha. Then don’t blame me when you get killed in the battle because we are not on the same side anymore, Meldrick scoffed

He thought of giving Draven a chance, but since Draven did not appreciate his gesture, he could not be bothered to persuade Draven at all.

“Attack now!” Thomas commanded.

Having seen two more disciples from Stormy Moon Sect join the rest, he knew he should not waste more time. He waved his hand and gave out the attacking command.

“Charge!”

With a thought, Severin dashed to the front and took out Blood Fiend Sword.

The Great Elder from the Unbeaten Wind Sect saw it and had the thought of snatching it for himself. “That must be a spiritual weapon. I wonder what grade it is “Don’t kill him. We want him to work for us. He’s a third-grade medium-rank alchemist, after all,” Thomas reminded because he worried the Great Elder would accidentally kill Severin.

Severin sneered, “Thomas, I’m your opponent and I have decided to kill you and him!”

A strong wave slowly dispersed out from his body.

Chapter 1573

“Haha! You’re dreaming!”

After hearing what Severin said, Thomas and the Great Elder laughed out loud. From their information, Severin held no threat to them because they thought Severin was just a level seven warrior emperor. Thus, why would they be scared of Severin when they were level two saints?

However, their smiles quickly disappeared when they sensed the terrifying vibe Severin unleashed into the air. Gradually, they realized they could be wrong about Severin’s attainment.

“What is this? This feeling. This wave. Is he a level three saint?”

The Great Elder had a sullen expression on his face. It took much effort and time to reach a new level for a saint. Once you entered a new level, the level of power you possessed was totally different from the previous level

“What are

re you afraid of? We are members of a secluded sect and he is just an unaffiliated practitioner. Maybe he used a lot of alchemical pills to build up his attainment. So I believe his attainment is not as stable as ours.” Thomas said as if he was trying to convince himself and boost his confidence.

He also took out a sword and held it tightly in his hand

The Great Elder said, “You’re right. Even if he’s a level three saint, he’s still an unaffiliated practitioner. His attainment technique and combat technique are definitely weaker than ours Perhaps, I can even kill him without any trouble.”

“Haha. Is that really how you think?” Severin knew his opponents were just pretending.

He waved his hand to attack with Rose–Petal Rain.

“What combat technique is this?”

Thomas and the Great Elder were dumbfounded as he looked at the Rose Petals in the sky. This was the first time they had seen such a pretty combat technique.

“I don’t know. I have never seen anything like this before. But we should not let our guard down.”

Thomas said after much consideration.

He quickly inserted spiritual energy into his sword. As he waved his hand, several razor–like attacks flew out targeted at Severin.

+15 BONUS

“Dic!” The Great Elder punched. A massive tide created by the spiritual energy went dashing at Severin...

Severin snorted, and his fighting spirit increased. After all, this was the first time he had to fight two level two saints at once.

“Go!” As Severin pointed to the front, the rose petals flew at great speed to the opponent.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Explosion sounds were everywhere. As expected, Severin easily tackled two level two saints.

“Damn it! How is he a level three saint?”

Meldrick was dumbfounded when he knew Severin was a level three saint. That was something he really did not expect. In this case, the odds of winning for the Unbeaten Wind Sect had greatly decreased.

After Sofia killed a level three warrior emperor, she found Meldrick and approached him. She looked at him coldly and said, "Meldrick, I'm really disappointed with you. Today is the day I'm going to teach you a lesson for betraying us!"

Chapter 1574

After that, Sofia remembered something. "No. You're an elder at Unbeaten Wind Sect now. I should call you Mister Meldrick, the elder, now."

"You attainment... Did you have another breakthrough?" Meldrick exclaimed surprisingly.

His expression looked terrified when Sofia was targeting him. He did not have the chance to use the third-grade medium-rank alchemical pill yet after getting it from the Great Elder. Thus, as a level four warrior emperor, he was no match for Sofia, who was now a level six warrior emperor. Sofia looked at Meldrick and sneered, "My attainment has always been higher than yours. What's wrong? Are you afraid now? Do you know what an idiot decision you have made?"

"Mister Thomas! Birk is a level two saint"

A level one saint member of the Unbeaten Wind Sect had fought with Birk. He got blasted away by Birk Blood gushed up his throat, and he vomited it out. When he sensed Birk's attainment was higher than him, he was so scared that his face turned pale.

"Mister Thomas, why do they have three level two saints?"

What a terrible time to discover two grand-elders of the Stormy Moon Sect had their breakthrough and became level two saints.

"What? No! That's impossible!"

Meldrick's expression revealed how terrified he was. He quickly looked for the Great Elder, Second Elder, and Third Elder of the Stormy Moon Sect consecutively and realized they were now level one saints.

"How did this happen? They were not saints yesterday!" he thought

Furthermore, he discovered most people who used to be level seven warrior emperors had now become level nine warrior emperors. These were just too crazy!

How did these people have a breakthrough? The odds had totally turned.

Sofia chuckled and said, “Haha. This is a surprise to you, right? They had taken third-grade high-rank alchemical pills. My husband is not a third-grade medium-rank alchemist. He’s a third-grade high-rank alchemist. Luckily you were not around when we had the meeting. Otherwise, how would we know you had the intention to betray us?”

Meldrick’s mouth twitched and looked terrible.

Many members of the Unbeaten Wind Sect were killed in the battle. From the very start of the battle, the Unbeaten Wind Sect was destined to fail.

‘Die!’

Once Meldrick knew the situation was unfavorable to him, he unleashed a spirited energy beam. and was going to run for his life. He had become the first one from the Unbeaten Wind Sect to run. As he turned around, the Fourth Elder of the Stormy Moon Sect stood in front of him and gave him a cold glare. “Meldrick, I can let the others go but not you!”

Immediately, the Fourth Elder, who had a breakthrough to level nine warrior emperor, charged at Meldrick

After a few explosions, Meldrick was dead and fell down from the sky.

“Fourth Elder! I can totally handle him by myself. You’re stealing my target from me!” Sotia flew over and said helplessly.

The Fourth Elder smiled embarrassingly. “I know you can but I really want to kill him. He’s too damn annoying!”

Chapter 1575

Over at Severin’s side, the rose petals exploded continuously and destroyed whatever was in their way.

“No! How is that possible? Why are these petals so strong?”

Thomas and the Great Elder were terrified. Even when they attacked together, they were still unable to defeat Severin.

All it took for Severin was over forty rose petals to diminish their attacks. The rest of the rose petals continued to fly toward Thomas and the Great Elder.

“Thomas, we’re dead. Look over there. The Second Elder and the others are dead. Damn it. Why the hell do their attainments increase all of a sudden? They have a total of six saint fighters now!”

The Great Elder looked despaired. Yet, he continued to attack with several spiritual energy beams because that was his fastest attack. However, those attacks did not affect the speed of the rose petals. Each spiritual beam could only block one rose petal, and many more rose petals were closing in on them.

“No! I don’t want to die!” Thomas shouted out loud.

He knew the battle was coming to an end when many elders and guardians of his sect were killed, and many disciples were fleeing

“I surrender! I surrender! Please spare me my life,” the Great Elder continued to defend himself and yelled out.

However, Severin had no sympathy for people like him. Besides, they had already killed many members of the Unbeaten Wind Sect. If Severin or the Stormy Moon Sect spared them their lives now, that could pose a potential threat in the future.

“When you try to take my wife away from me, you have set the ending for yourself.”

Severin sneered with his cold and cruel eyes while he continued to control the rose petals with his telekinesis to attack Thomas and the Great Elder.

Eventually, after a few explosions, Thomas and the Great Elder were killed and fell from the sky. The rest of the members of the Unbeaten Wind Sect had lost their morale to fight and were terrified of what was going to happen to them.

“I surrender! I surrender!”

Many weaker disciples knelt in the air while holding their hands up to give a sign that they were surrendering.

“Stop!”

Birk realized all the stronger fighters of the Unbeaten Wind Sect were killed. The remaining members were the weaker members, and only nearly a thousand of them survived the battle. Thus, he ordered everyone to stop fighting.

The Stormy Moon Sect’s members gathered all their remaining opponents and surrounded them.

Chapter 1576

Birk approached and said, “Surrender your spatial ring and weapons. From today onward, the Unbeaten Wind Sect no longer exists now nor in the future. Do you understand?”

“Yes!”

“Thank you, Mister Birk! Unbeaten Wind Sect does not exist anymore!”

Having their lives spared was what they wanted the most now. Winning the battle was not their concern anymore. Thus, they quickly surrendered their weapons and spatial rings as told and fled the scene.

“Hahaha! We won! We won!” Sofia laughed out loud.

The elders instructed the disciples to collect the loot, handle the dead bodies, and inspect any damage to the sect.

Severin looked down and said, “Not bad. Our death toll ranges from thirty to forty people. Most of the members only suffered minor injuries”

Birk nodded. “That’s because you requested the weaker members to stay out of the battle.

Otherwise, the death toll won’t be so low. Although we have fewer numbers, our fighters are much stronger than them. Plus you killed two of their strongest very quickly and that had put off the fighting spirit. Otherwise, I don’t think the battle will end so soon.”

Sheila looked very happy. “Haha. I feel so great. This is the first time I enjoy battling!”

Severin frowned and looked unhappy though. “Why did you and Diane join the battle? It’s very dangerous because you two are not strong enough yet.”

Sheila pouted and said, “Nothing happens to us, isn’t it? Besides, we can use our Mind’s Eyes to look for fighters who are lower or similar to us.

An elder smiled. “Don’t worry. We had our eyes on them when they were fighting. If anything bad happened to them, we would rush over to help immediately. After how you help us, it’s the least we can do.”

Severin cupped his hand. “Thank you very much.”

The elder replied, “You’re welcome. Without your alchemical pill, there’s no saying when we can have a breakthrough. This time I managed to go up two levels and this is something that I never “Alright. It’s about time. Let’s go get some rest. It’s a good day today. Those who are hurt, please take care and recover. We shall celebrate our victory tomorrow!” Birk announced cheerfully.

All the while, the Unbeaten Wind Sect had been eyeing and targeting them for a long time. By beating the Unbeaten Wind Sect today, they were able to receive more training resources to help the sect move on to a greater future.

Now, the Stormy Moon Sect has become the strongest sect in this area. When the other sects knew how easily they defeated the Unbeaten Wind Sect, none of them would dare to offend or even step on their toes easily.

“You girls must be tired too. Come on, let’s go get some rest,” Severin looked at Sheila, Diane, and the rest and said.

Birk said, “Hey, my wonderful son-in-law. I’ll ask the Great Elder to bring over the spiritual herbs for you later. Take a look and pick out the ones that you want.”

Severin frowned. He did not have the intention to join the Stormy Moon Sect, so it did not seem right to be the first one to choose the spiritual herbs from the loot when there were two other alchemists in the sect.

After giving it a thought, he said, “Let’s do it this way. Just send fourth-grade spiritual herbs to me. Other than that, give them to the two grand-elders and let them pick out what they want. They need those more than me. I still have a lot of second-grade and third-grade spiritual herbs and they could last me for a while.”

Birk nodded. “Alright. Then I will send the fourth-grade spiritual herbs to you. Maybe with more. practice, you could be fourth-grade alchemist very soon.”

He added, “Oh. If that day comes, don’t forget to give me an alchemical pill.”

Chapter 1577

After hearing that, Severin could not decide if he wanted to cry or laugh. It was funny that his father-in-law was already thinking about getting his hand on one fourth-grade alchemical pill when he had not even tried to produce one yet.

He replied with a chuckle, “Don’t worry. I won’t forget you. But one is not enough so I’ll prepare at least ten for you! Haha.”

Birk’s eyes widened. He said excitedly, “Really? You better not forget what you said!”

His reaction made Sofia roll her eyes at him. “Dad, you are so greedy! Severin hasn’t even tried producing it yet. Do you know how hard it is to progress from third-grade high-rank to fourth-grade? It’s a huge improvement and many people cannot achieve it their whole lives. I know he is very talented but you shouldn’t rush him.”

Birk smiled embarrassingly. I wasn't rushing him. I only wanted to book ahead. Anyway, I have confidence in him and I believe he will become a fourth-grade alchemist in no time."

Severin chuckled. "Haha. Thank you very much. That's what I'm hoping for."

Sofia said, "Dad if you want that to happen, you should prepare more fourth-grade low-rank spiritual herbs for him. The type of spiritual herbs that are suitable for alchemy."

Birk patted his chest and promised, 'Of course. If I have them, I will give them to Severin. And I will release more missions to the disciples. Any disciples who find fourth-grade low-rank spiritual herbs can receive a big reward."

Everyone chuckled after hearing that. When Sofia brought Severin back last night, everyone was anxious Stormy Moon Sect would be destroyed by Unbeaten Wind Sect because they were not as strong as Unbeaten Wind Sect.

However, it was a totally unexpected turn of events. Everyone was feeling extremely happy today.

When Severin returned to his residence, it was already evening. Since there was nothing he needed to do, he decided to bring the girls out for shopping. When it was almost time for dinner, he searched for a restaurant to have their dinner.

On the way out, many members saw Severin and quickly greeted him respectfully. To them, he was the reason their sect could resolve the crisis with just a small sacrifice. Something that they did not think was achievable. Yet, Severin showed them it was possible.

"Haha It looked like you are famous now," Sofia chuckled.

Severin felt helpless and said, "Well, it's not like I wanted this. They are obviously here to take you away from me so I don't have a choice."

Sheila chuckled too. "That's right. If you didn't do anything about it, you can say goodbye to Sofia.

That fat guy peed himself before he died. It was so embarrassing."

Diane smiled too. "Yeah! I know everyone is afraid to die but as someone who trained for so long, he should be prepared to die anytime. So many people died today but he's the only one who peed himself."

All of a sudden, Sofia became emotional. "I had no idea what a disgusting person Meldrick was. 1 knew him since we were a child and I never knew he would betray us."

Chapter 1578

Severin frowned. “You’ve known him since you were small? So are you saying he met the requirement to join the sect when he was a child?”

Sofia explained, “No. My dad was the one who brought him back. He went treasure hunting somewhere and accidentally saw Meldrick’s family killed. So he rescued him. Meldrick was only twelve at that time. Dad felt sorry for him, and he thought Meldrick had the talent. That was why he decided to bring Meldrick back to the sect, and that was why I knew him since I was a child.”

Elsa felt angry and said, “No way! He’s so bad! Your dad saved his life and raised him to where he is now. How could he be so cruel and vicious? Was it really because he wanted to be an elder so badly? He was really an ungrateful person!”

Sheila explained, “I don’t think that was it. The reason he betrayed was because he loved Sofia. So he was trying to avenge Sofia because Sofia did not love him back.”

That explained a lot of things for Elsa. This was the first time she knew about this complicated relationship. “Sigh. What was wrong with him? Doesn’t he know he shouldn’t force anyone to love him? Besides, didn’t he feel ashamed of himself when he found out the person Sofia liked was so great?

Diane answered that question. “That is how it is for some people. He won’t allow other people to have it if he can’t have it. That was why he chose to betray Stormy Moon Sect. But he didn’t know Severin’s attainment nor the elders were given third-grade high-rank alchemical pills to help raise their attainments.”

Sofia smiled bitterly. “Alright, enough with that guy. I was just a little surprised. Let’s enjoy shopping.”

After shopping for a while, Sheila gulped. “The smell from this restaurant is so good. I wonder what their foods taste like. It’s almost full. Should we try this restaurant?”

Once Sofia heard that, she chuckled. “Sheila, you have good taste. This restaurant does serve pretty good food. Many members of the sect like to come here. Sometimes, I would come here too.”

Severin chuckled. “Haha. You finally discover Sofia’s superpower. She has the nose of a dog.”

Sheila smiled. “Geez. Let’s go in then!”

They went in without any hesitation.

“Hi, sir!”

“Mister Severin! Miss Sofia!”

As they walked into the restaurant, many members of the Stormy Moon Sect saw them and quickly greeted them with respect.

“Good evening. Welcome to the restaurant,” a waiter greeted with a smile and led Severin and his group to a private room.

“Wow. Miss Sofia, how nice to see you.” A middle-aged woman smiled when she saw Sofia.

Then she saw Severin, “Is this the handsome hero, Mister Severin? It’s an honor to have you patronize us. Please walk right in. The dinner is on me tonight” humbly and

Severin did not think someone would actually call him a hero. He cupped his hand and said, “You’re too kind. I don’t think I deserve to be called a hero. My father-in-law is the Sect Leader of the Stormy Moon Sect. As his son-in-law, I’m kinda part of a member of the sect too. So of course, I should help the sect when the sect is in trouble”

“Haha. Miss Sofia, your husband is so humble. Alright, what do you want to eat? Just order anything you want. The bill is mine today.” The pretty lady boss chuckled.

However, Severin was not going to let that happen. “No. You’re running a business and I shouldn’t accept a free meal.”

The lady boss chuckled. “No! I insist! Due to your alchemical pill, my son is able to move on to the next level. He’s now a level four warrior emperor and I’m really grateful to you.”

“No wonder you have a big smile on your face. Then we shall not reject your kind offer anymore,”

Severin accepted the offer with a face once he found out the reason behind the free meal and knew the lady boss was a generous person

After they sat down, Sheila started ordering. The food she ordered ranged from alcohol to many dishes cooked with monster’s meat.

When the dishes were served, Sheila took a sip of the alcohol and ate the meat. “This alcohol is so good! Try it! And the food is so great too! I’m going to believe Sofia’s taste buds from now on!”

“Of course. I’m a local here.” Sofia smiled happily.

After some thinking, Severin said, “Hey, Sofia, if you are free these few days, you should spend more time with your father. I’ve already informed Larry to call me when they found the remaining two halls. We will need to go to look for my uncle—master, and I don’t know when we will come back here. Oh, you should tell him about this too.

Sofia nodded. “Okay, I understand.”

Severin smiled. “I have some spiritual herbs and the Great Elder is going to bring me some tonight. Since I’m going to be free these few days, I’m going to use the time to produce more alchemical pills and give them to your father. I also need to prepare some for the members and guardians of the Dracodeus Temple.”

“Yes. If we are free, we will use the time to train too, especially me and Sheila. Both of us are too

Sofia smiled bitterly. “Oh, come on. My attainment is not that high as well so I need to train hard to become a saint soon.”

Severin smiled. “Don’t worry. I can tell all of you are very stable for now. I will give you girls some alchemical pills tomorrow morning.”

Elsa’s eyes lit up. “What about me? I feel like I’m very stable too. Are you going to give me an alchemical pill too?”

Severin looked at her and said. “When I say you girls, I’ve included you too.”

“I see. Thank you, Master. You’re the best Master. You’re the best man in this world!” Elsa quickly pleased Severin.

At this very moment, no one can relate Elsa to the high and mighty Director that she usually was, for she behaved as if a damsel falling in love.

Sheila could not help herself and teased Elsa, “Elsa, since you know that he’s the best man in the world, do not let this chance pass you by, you should go for him, otherwise you might regret it deeply.”

Chapter 1580

Elsa blushed from cheek to ear. “Sheila! That isn’t funny, he is my master!”

“What if he’s your master? No one said you can’t fall for your master. Besides, a disciple falling for her master isn't uncommon," said Sheila.

Severin glared at Sheila "Little foodie, start eating and stop talking. Enjoy the delicacy."

Sheila shrugged her shoulders and raised her glass. "Cheers everyone! Let's have a great time!"

Everyone left and went back after the dinner. By this time, the sky was getting dark.

When they returned home, the elders brought along the spiritual herbs. Among the herbs, other than the expected fourth-grade low-rank and medium-rank spiritual herbs, to Severin's surprise, they consisted of a few fourth-grade high-rank spiritual herbs

Obviously, these have been selected and approved to be suitable for producing alchemical pills by the grand-elders.

Severin took in the herbs jovially and saw off the grand-elders in an elevated mood. He proceeded to prepare for the production of the alchemical pills just as soon as he closed the door.

However, after giving it a slight thought, he decided to call for Elsa to observe and learn by his side.

Although Severin was going to produce third-grade alchemical pills, the process was almost the same. Elsa would be able to learn some tips while observing how Severin produced the alchemical pills. After all, she would eventually reach this stage someday in the future.

"Wow, Master is so highly skilled! Such a pleasant enjoyment watching him practice alchemy!" Elsa thought to herself as she could not take her eyes off Severin. She knew that he was good-looking; however, he became even more charming when he was attentively working

After a while, Severin stopped his work and asked Elsa, "So? Did you learn anything?"

Elsa smiled and nodded. "Indeed! You're super cool with your graceful motion! Also, I'm so impressed by your telekinesis in controlling the flame! Not to mention the high quality of the alchemical pills!"

"Is that all you learned?" Severin felt somewhat embarrassed.

"I am nowhere near being capable of producing such high-quality pills. Having said that, by observing you, I have acquired some insight, that's for sure." Elsa said awkwardly.

Severin thought about what she said. I'm sure you have the necessary ingredients for producing alchemical pills. Try producing some pills and show me, so I can give you pointers."

Elsa's eyes lit up after hearing that. "Okay! Let me show you!"

After a while, Elsa finished producing. It was a success, but the quality of the alchemical pill did not look great.

“How is it? Did I do good? I think I’m pretty good, considering that I successfully produced it on my first try.” Elsa giggled while holding the alchemical pill
