

After Prison 1731

Chapter 1731

The next morning, at the break of dawn, Sheila pointed. "Look, there are two groups of people over there. They are so close to each other. Are they two friendly forces?"

Heidi took one look and shook her head, "Even friendly forces will not stay so close to each other. There is only one possibility, which is that the other sect has two keys in its hand just like us."

"No way, two keys again?" Sheila said in surprise.

Heidi smiled. "Yes, it was the Horizon Sect, so I guess the one coming over there is the Horizon Sect."

After Severin heard this, he could not help but frown, "Is Horizon Sect a friendly force to us? It should not be considered a hostile force, right?"

Heidi smiled slightly and said, "Of course they are friendly forces. The relationship between our two sects has always been very good. We used to support each other when hunting for treasures in the secret realm. When other disciples wanted to rob our disciples' treasures, the Horizon Sect lent a hand. Of course, the disciples of their sect will not rob us of anything."

Diane pondered it. She could not help but frown and said to Heidi, "However, that was before, when the two families still had a marriage contract. Now the relationship between Mister Frederick of Horizon Sect and Miss Gilda of our sect is not good anymore, the other party has also rescinded the engagement, and even slandered Miss Gilda. Does the Horizon Sect still perceive us as friendly forces? Can their disciples still be trustworthy?"

Heidi frowned instantly when she heard this. She was not certain about this either.

After thinking about it, she could not help but say, "It should not be the case. The friendship between the disciples on both sides has been established for a long time, so it cannot be destroyed so quickly, right? At that time, Mister Frederick was probably too angry, so he acted impulsively, and then said such things about Miss Gilda. Perhaps he would be better after calming down. After all, Miss Gilda did not do that on purpose, it was out of necessity."

"Right? If Mister Frederick keeps fussing over this matter, that would be too petty of him. Miss Gilda only behaved this way because of her condition. Otherwise, she would die. I am sure that other women will make the same choice in such circumstances too. It is impossible that one would risk their life for their first time', right?"

Kara, who barely spoke, could not help but say, "I wonder who is the man that took away Miss Gilda, and what does he look like?"

A female disciple also immediately became interested and said, "Yes, a person with such a physique leader knows. If he does not tell us, we will not know who it is, not even Miss Gilda will know."

Kara then pondered, she could not help but frown and said, "It is strange. Our disciples patrol every day. If a stranger comes, they should know about it, right?"

The female disciple said directly, "What is so difficult about this? Our sect has many disciples, and we were recruiting new disciples some time ago. If the sect leader wants to bring someone in, he can just find a set of disciples' clothes. It would be easy to bring the person in, would it not? Besides, if the sect leader wants to bring someone into the sect, would any of the patrolling disciples dare to question him?"

Kara nodded and said, "I am just a little curious about that person's name and what he looks like."

Chapter 1732

Heidi smiled bitterly and said, "If I were Miss Gilda, I would definitely want to know what the person looks like, but I am also afraid of knowing what the person looks like. What if he is an ugly and fat man? It must be disappointing for your first time to be taken away by such a person."

After hearing this, Kara nodded in approval. "Yes, if it were a fat and ugly man, I think I would be depressed. It is better not to know."

Severin could not help but smile bitterly when he heard the chattering of these female disciples.

After thinking about it, he reminded everyone, "Everyone, remember, no matter what, the relationship between our Skyblue Sect and the Horizon Sect is no longer what it used to be. After entering, even if we do not rob the treasures on the disciples' bodies, we must also keep a distance and be more prepared, understand? After all, human behavior is unpredictable. Some disciples may show mercy, but some disciples may think otherwise."

"Yes, Mister Severin is right. Everyone should be more vigilant. do not let your guard down completely. Do you understand?" Heidi also felt that what Severin said made sense and immediately reminded the people in her team.

Severin asked Heidi after pondering. "Then do you think the man who took Miss Gilda's virginity should be killed? If you know who he is, will you kill him?"

Heidi fell into deep thought. After a while, she said, "Probably not. After all, the sect leader asked him to do this. If he did not do it, Miss Gilda would die. In a sense, it can be regarded as saving Miss Gilda's life. More importantly, if he did not do that, the sect leader may threaten him and kill him."

Kara also nodded, "Yes, it is not like he proactively forced Miss Gilda into this, but the sect leader asked him to do it. Everything is normal from their standpoints. The sect leader could not just watch his daughter dying either, so all of this is God's will and cannot be helped."

"Haha, but that boy could get the body of Miss Gilda, it was worth it for him."

A female disciple chuckled and said, "Miss Gilda is gorgeous, has such a good figure, and has a good personality. That kid was really lucky,"

Sheila felt slightly unhappy after hearing this, and could not help but stand up for Severin. "That is not necessarily the case. The man's body is a Sun-Heart Constitution, so he may also be a genius, and very handsome. We will not know who is the lucky one in this situation, will we?"

"Haha, I am afraid that will be difficult. With Miss Gilda's beauty and status, there are not many men who can match her," The female disciple immediately laughed, obviously not buying it.

Sheila was speechless and could only give up. At this time, the two teams of Horizon Sect arrived and settled not far away.

Chapter 1733

After a while, a man and a woman came over with a smile. Severin looked at them from a distance and realized that they were all level nine saints. They should be the cream of the cream among the level nine saints, and must be the leader of the two teams.

"Haha, you people from the Skyblue Sect came so early."

The

man laughed, then narrowed his eyes and asked, "Everyone, who are your leaders?"

Heidi immediately stepped forward, and said, "My name is Heidi, and I am the leader of this team. That person over there is Severin, the leader of another team."

Severin walked over and stood next to Heidi. "Pleasure."

The man looked at Severin and frowned. "My name is Wilson Feuillet, and this is Heather Tanner. We are the leaders of the Horizon Sect."

"Wilson Feuillet, is he the little genius, Wilson? I heard that he is young. I did not expect to see him today."

"Is she Heather Tanner? She is really amazing. She looks like she is only eighteen years old."

Many of the disciples of the Skyblue Sect could not help but chattered excitedly when they heard their names. It was obvious that they knew these two geniuses very well.

Wilson obviously enjoyed such attention, and wore a warm smile on his face..

He quickly looked at Severin again and could not help but frown and said, "We have heard of Heidi before.

How come we have never heard of Severin before?"

Obviously, the other party looked down on Severin a little, but he still said politely. “It seems that your Skyblue Sect has a lot of geniuses. There are many geniuses, but they are usually inconspicuous.”

Severin smiled and said, “Thank you. If we meet in the secret realm, I hope we can take care of each other.”

Heather immediately smiled and said, “That is right. The relationship between our two sects has always been very good. It is best for everyone to take care of each other in the secret realm.”

Wilson also smiled. “That is true. If we meet in the secret realm, we should really take care of each other.”

Many disciples of the Skyblue Sect felt faintly happy when they heard these words. It seemed that the disciples of the Horizon Sect still regard the people of the Skyblue Sect as friendly forces just like before. This way, everyone would feel safer in the secret realm. After all, Horizon Sect was the most powerful top

Chapter 1734

Heather and Wilson chatted with Heidi for a while before walking back to their team.

Kara also smiled slightly and said, “It seems that our treasure hunt will be much smoother this time. The total number of people from our two sects accounts for one-third. Moreover, the disciples from Horizon Sec are very strong.”

“They are indeed quite strong. They have indeed more people of level nine and level eight venerable cultivation than we have here.” Severin glanced at the people over there, and then said lightly.

Kara was stunned for a moment, and said in surprise, “Mister Severin, are you so powerful? They have not used spiritual energy yet, and they do not have much spiritual energy fluctuations now. You can actually see through all their cultivations?”

Severin nodded. “Well, I can indeed see through their cultivation. However, our sect’s overall strength is stronger than theirs.”

“No way, we do not have that many people with high cultivation levels. Kara frowned, with a look of astonishment on her face.

Severin smiled slightly and reminded Kara, “Did you forget something?”

Kara was stunned for a moment, then she realized what she was doing and smiled, “Yeah, I almost forgot.

Heidi also understood it instantly. After all, those with higher cultivation levels on their side had fourth-grade high-level elixirs given by Severin. Once they entered the secret realm, those who had the elixirs only needed to find a cave and hide immediately. Then, they could break through to the First-Level Royal Saint. When the time comes, they would be able to gain the upper hand in the secret realm. After all, a Level Nine Royal Saint and a First-Level Royal Saint were two different things.

However, Kara soon frowned and said to Severin, "No, Mister Severin, they must still be much stronger than us. I almost forgot that the reason why the Horizon Sect is so powerful is because their sect also has got fourth-grade high-level alchemists. So those with higher cultivation levels probably have fourth-grade high-level elixirs in their hands, waiting to be used after entering the secret realm."

Having said this, Kara paused and smiled again. "However, there is nothing to worry about. This is a good thing. After all, they are friendly forces with us."

Severin smiled bitterly and said to Kara, "Remember what I say, no matter what, you must be careful when you are in the secret realm. You cannot have too much trust based on their facade."

Severin always found it odd that the other party had taken the initiative to show their kindness just now, and they seemed a bit too enthusiastic. This made him have to suspect that the other party said this deliberately. In fact, the main purpose was to cloud their judgment.

Time ticked by, and finally, the dark clouds on the top of the mountain became more and more dense, and huge lightning bolts kept thundering

"Tsk, tsk, the fluctuations here have become more intense. It seems that the door to the secret realm is about to open. The owners of the other keys will probably come over soon and bring their people in."

Heidi looked ahead, with a bit more solemnity in her eyes. After all, she had never been in the secret realm, so she could only try her best to understand the situation inside from the descriptions of some senior brothers and sisters who had been there before.

Severin pondered for a while, he smiled at Heidi and said, "By the way, pretty Heidi, how can we get in after the secret realm is opened? I see that there is a hill in front of us."

Heidi was speechless. She did not expect that Mister Severin was busy refining elixirs every day and really did not ask anything. The secret realm would be opened in no time. Why did he only think of asking such a question now?

Chapter 1735

Heidi smiled bitterly, and then said to Severin, "It is very simple. After a while, a colorful ray of light will shoot down from the black clouds, and then cover the entire mountain. A huge red vortex will appear on the cliff. That will be the gateway to the secret realm.”

Having said this, Heidi paused and then continued, “At that time, those of you holding the twelve tokens in your hands will take out the twelve tokens and throw them into the sky. This secret realm will have a connection with the tokens once it senses them. At that time, each token will become larger and you only need to stay in groups of one hundred people, hide under the token, and then follow the tokens to fly inside together. Remember, the group cannot be too large, otherwise, the extra people will not be able to get in. You could have less in a group, but not more. A token can only hold up to a hundred people.”

Kara reminded, “Because the lightning above will continue to fall at that time. The token above your head can shield the attack of those lightning. If there are more of you, the extra ones will be squeezed out at the entrance, and they will be struck to death by the lightning.”

Hearing this, Sheila and Diane looked at each other, both shocked. They did not expect that the rules for entering this secret realm were so strict. If they did not do this, they might not even enter the secret realm and would be already struck to death by lightning. If they died like that, it would be an unjust death.

After hearing this, Sheila swallowed her saliva and said, “No wonder, no wonder before we set off, the sect master divided us into teams, one hundred people in groups, and each group had a token in their hand. It turned out to be this reason.”

“It seems that in order to understand this secret realm, they probably had to test it many times before to realize that one token can only bring a hundred people in at a time. This must be the conclusion after a lot of painful deaths.”

After Severin heard this, he felt quite emotional in his heart. The older generation had sacrificed for the greater good of the future generations.

Time passed little by little, and finally, after another hour, a colorful ray of light shot down from the dark clouds, shrouding the entire mountain in it. On the cliff in front of it, a huge whirlpool appeared, and the whirlpool kept spinning, giving people a somewhat eerie feeling.

“Great, the secret realm is opened!

However, looking at the huge whirlpool, many disciples showed excitement on their faces. Although the Paradise Secret Realm was very dangerous, there were also many opportunities awaiting. Many disciples came out alive after, and they would be able to make impressive progress in three months. Some would even make a qualitative leap, and become really different from who they used to be.

+15 BONUS Severin stood up. When everyone looked at the whirlpool, there was also a little more excitement in their eyes.

“Get ready to launch it!”

At this moment, the members of a sect could no longer bear it. The leader ordered, and there were twelve tokens launched into the sky. Suddenly, a strange wave was heard. The secret realm felt it, and the twelve tokens spun instantly, with golden light shining, and a very golden light shrouded them below.

The people from that sect immediately divided into twelve teams, each with a hundred people. Under the shroud of golden light, they quickly rushed in and disappeared from everyone’s sight. Although there were many people during this period, terrifying bolts of lightning landed, after they landed on the token, they were all blocked by the token and could not cause any harm to the disciples below.

“Hurry, Mister Severin, it is time for us to set off too!”

After seeing and another team entering, Heidi could not help it anymore and said to Severin.

Severin nodded, and after watching the pair of them go in, he asked everyone on his side to take out their tokens, and then threw them out.

Chapter 1736

When the token became larger, Severin looked back and found that in the distance, the sect with other keys also started to rush in with their people. It seemed that what Heidi said before was right, some sects at owned the key might have been afraid of being robbed of the key, so even though they had arrived a long time ago, they did not rush over immediately. They only waited for the secret realm to open before rushing over.

“Set off!”

Following Severin’s order, everyone immediately hid under the token, and then followed the enlarged golden token and rushed into the whirlpool.

After rushing in, Severin felt his eyes dazzled and soon came to another space. In this space, the gravity was obviously much heavier, and the space was more stable than the previous space. Therefore, as soon as Severin came in, he felt his body dropping. Fortunately, he reacted quickly, and he stabilized his body in a second or two and began to observe the surroundings.

The spiritual energy here was indeed much richer than outside, and he appeared above a forest. In front of him, there was also a forest that could not be seen to the edge. The people who originally followed him seemed to have disappeared without a trace. The huge token that he threw out also shrank to its original size and fell to the ground.

Severin immediately used his mental power to control the token, made it fly up, and held it in the palm of his hand. After putting away the token, Severin slowly released his mental power, and then investigated the surrounding situation.

“Level four low–rank spiritual grass, haha, I did not expect that there would be such grass outside this forest. This Paradise Secret Realm is indeed a Paradise Secret Realm!”

Severin chuckled, immediately flew over, and quickly picked off a level four low–rank spiritual grass.

Although his main task when he entered this secret realm this time was to find the small black tower, and there was no need for him to waste time on low–level spiritual grass, the level four low–rank spiritual grass was also suitable for alchemy. However, there was no need to let it go.

After putting away the spiritual grass, Severin took out the Soul Compass that Wuhlricht had given him before.

A drop of blood essence was dripped onto the Soul Compass, and a trace of spiritual energy was injected into it, and the Soul Compass began to flicker.

Severin soon discovered that the palm–sized Soul Compass began to flash and scan continuously, and it

“It seems that the Little Black Tower should be in this direction. This Soul Compass is indeed magical. Although it shows that the Little Black Tower is not within the range of a hundred miles, it has begun to show the general direction. Then I will go in this direction, hopefully to find it.”

Severin smiled slightly and flew in the direction of the arrow.

Chapter 1737

In the secret realm, terrifying beasts roared one after another, making people unconsciously feel a little nervous. Even though Severin’s cultivation level was not low, he felt a hint of threat when he heard the roars of some beasts.

This place was indeed more terrifying than the dangerous grounds. Although there were spiritual beasts in the dangerous grounds, their levels were not too high. However, in this Paradise Secret Realm, the spirit beasts with high cultivation had actually attained the royal–ranked of cultivation. Such spiritual beasts were not something that ordinary people could conquer.

After flying for about a few minutes, Severin began to hear the sounds of fighting. Obviously, in this secret realm, people were already fighting with each other to compete for the treasure.

“Damn it, what a waste if I do not want this level four high–rank spiritual grass.”

After a while, Severin discovered another level four high–rank spiritual grass. He had met a second- and third–grade spiritual grass before. Although he wanted it very much, he pretended not to see it.

Sometimes he even met a fourth–grade low–level spiritual grass. As long as it was not a material that could be used for alchemy, Severin ignored it and pretended not to see it.

However, he could no longer pretend to turn a blind eye to this fourth–grade high–rank spiritual grass, which was also suitable for alchemy. As soon as he arrived not far from the spiritual grass, Severin’s mental power detected that in a huge cave next to the spiritual grass, a huge python was lurking inside.

Severin smiled slightly. “The giant python is comparable to the cultivation level of the fifth–grade Warrior Emperor. I really did not expect to come across such a powerful spiritual beast shortly after I came in. Such spiritual beasts are rarely seen outside.”

Sighing, Severin quickly flew towards the spiritual grass, and with a flick of his hands, he also had the aura blade in his hand. Sure enough, when Severin was not far from the spiritual grass, there was a roar, and a giant python rushed out from it, opened its bloody mouth, and charged towards Severin.

“Haha, looking for death!”

Facing the huge python, Severin did not care at all. With a flick of one hand, the aura blade flew out directly. The aura blade was very sharp, and it rushed out in a flash, splitting the giant python in half from head to tail in the next second.

The giant python fell directly to the ground, blood was oozing all over, and it was already dead.

Severin did not waste any time, rushed over, picked off the spiritual grass, and then put it away.

“Tsk, tsk, level four high–rank spiritual grass, not bad.”

Just as Severin put away the spiritual grass, a sinister voice came from behind him, and a man appeared not far away, looking at Severin with a smile.

Severin looked back and immediately frowned. The other person was a disciple of Highworld Sect, and his cultivation level was not low. He actually attained the cultivation level of a fourth–grade venerable.

It could be said that such a cultivation level was considered to be relatively high among those who came in. Obviously the other party did not know Severin and did not know how powerful Severin was, so he did not take Severin seriously.

“Highworld Sect seems to be a hostile force to us!”

Chapter 1738

Severin smiled slightly and said to him, “What is wrong? Brother, you are not eyeing that spiritual grass too, are you?”

The man was slender. He smiled calmly and said to Severin, “Simple. Give me the spiritual grass and I will spare your life. After all, we just came in not long ago, and I guess you do not have much spiritual grass on you anyway. Just give me the spiritual grass.”

After hearing this, Severin could not help but laugh. “Haha, based on what you just said, if I had been here for a month or two, I would have to give you more than just this stalk of spiritual grass. After all, if I were here for a month or two, I should have collected enough treasures, right?

The man folded his hands on his chest and nodded. “You are very smart, do not waste time, either give me the spiritual grass, or let me kill you and take away your spatial ring.”

Severin held the sword in his hand, then pointed at the other person and said, “I am sorry, my choice is to kill you and take away the spatial ring on you.”

“Haha, that is interesting. Let me see if you can!”

The other party laughed and flicked his palm, a sword appeared. The sword shone with light and flickered sharply.

Severin looked at the opponent’s sword and could not help but smile lightly and said, “Fifth-grade spiritual weapon? Not bad. If you take it back, it would be a good present for the disciples with lower cultivation

After speaking, he injected spiritual energy into the sword in his hand, and the sword instantly made a terrifying sword cry. The flickers were much more powerful than the flickers of the sword in the opponent’s hand.

“Ninth-grade spiritual weapon. This sword of yours is actually a ninth-grade spiritual weapon.”

When the man opposite saw the sword, he immediately felt happy, and there was a hint of greed in his eyes. If he could get such a weapon, his combat effectiveness would definitely be improved a lot. However, he quickly regained his composure and began to frown.

After all, such a treasure was not something that ordinary people could have. A disciple who could hold such a treasure, even in their sect, must have at least a seventh- or eighth-grade venerable disciple to be qualified to hold it. Other cultivators of lower level disciples would have it easily snatched away.

“What is your cultivation level?”

The man began to feel a little worried, worried that he had met a genius from the Emerald Cloud Sect. Severin smiled faintly. “Do you not think that it is really stupid for you to ask this stupid question now? If you did not intend to rob me just now, maybe I would spare you. Since you wanted to kill me and grab it, then you are destined to be doomed!”

After saying that, Severin slashed forward with his sword. Suddenly, a hundred-foot-long aura blade appeared, which was saturated with thick spiritual energy. The flickers were so strong that it sent chills down people’s spine.

“No way! This, this attack!”

When the man saw this attack, his face turned pale with fright. He could already see that such an attack was not something he could handle. However, the man came to his senses and immediately used his most powerful martial arts skills, hoping to withstand the blow and gain a chance to escape.

It was a pity that his attack had no effect at all under Severin’s sword energy slash, and was directly destroyed like a torrent.

“No!”

Seeing the remaining aura blade heading straight towards him, the man let out a final roar and was split into two pieces by Severin’s attack and fell from the air.

Chapter 1739

Severin quickly picked up the other party’s spatial ring, and then looked inside. In addition to the sword, there were several spiritual grasses. Severin collected them all, and then took the spatial ring. The ring was thrown carelessly on the ground.

“Hey, I indeed do not have any treasures on me for being here such a short while, and I do not have many spiritual herbs. I am kind of poor.”

Severin could not help but sigh, but soon a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, "I think I would better focus on looking for the Little Black Tower and see if I can find Diane and the others early. Their cultivation level is not high. It is a bit too dangerous. As for the spiritual grass, I could just give it two months for the disciples of Highworld Sect to search for more, and snatch it from them."

"However, my cultivation level should be improved first. After improving my cultivation level, not only will it be much safer, but also, with the improvement of my cultivation level, my flying speed will become much faster. When the time comes, it will be easier for me to find The Little Black Tower. I can also find Diane and Sheila quickly."

Severin pondered. He scanned using his mental energy, and soon discovered a cave.

The cave was quite hidden. After Severin hid in, he sealed the entrance with some weeds, then sat down cross-legged with peace of mind, preparing to refine the energy in his body first.

At this time, in his diaphragm, the huge spiritual sphere vortex was still spinning.

After calming down, Severin used his mental power to control the sphere, gradually slowing it down and starting to rotate it in the opposite direction.

Sure enough, as the rotation changed, the terrifying spiritual energy began to disperse quickly.

Severin immediately started to use his skills and began to absorb them crazily. There was too much spiritual energy. If he did not quickly control the energy, rotate it quickly using his skills, and transform it, Severin was afraid that he would be overwhelmed by these spiritual energies.

Time passed by slowly, and Severin's cultivation level was also rising rapidly, and soon he broke through to the cultivation level of a first-level royal saint.

After breaking through to the first-level royal saint, Severin breathed a sigh of relief. At this time, the spiritual energy had been reduced a lot, and after his cultivation level broke through to the first-level, his entire physical body became much more powerful. It could withstand much harsher attacks. The Impact was even greater, and it was of course impossible for the remaining energy in his body to burst him.

The man began to feel a little worried, worried that he had met a genius from the Emerald Cloud Sect.

Severin smiled faintly. "Do you not think that it is really stupid for you to ask this stupid question now? If you did not intend to rob me just now, maybe I would spare you. Since you wanted to kill me and grab it, then you are destined to be doomed!"

After saying that, Severin slashed forward with his sword. Suddenly, a hundred-foot-long aura blade appeared, which was saturated with thick spiritual energy. The flickers were so strong that it sent chills down people's spine.
