

Read Novel | Life After Prison Chapter 2081

Life After Prison Chapter 2081-However, Tobias was unwilling to let the opportunity of acquiring a royal paragon and divine combat techniques slip by! After all, it was why he entered the secret realm. Then again, since Soran had given up, Tobias was not Severin's opponent.

Tobias stood to one side. His eyes were almost bloodshot as he stared at Severin. He clenched his fists and looked gloomy and terrifying.

'Severin, just wait and see! Let's see how long you can keep acting all cocky like that!' he thought vehemently in his heart.

He did not have to struggle for long before he made his decision. He glanced at Severin with annoyance, then raised his hand and took away the eighth-grade alchemical pill in the ball of light.

The other prodigies's expressions were extremely complicated.

Gillian was furious when she saw Severin's determined look, and her eyes were filled with hatred.

"He thinks he's so powerful just because he's killed Uzair! Why! He's just a level eight supreme saint, and yet he's so cocky!" muttered Gillian to herself. She whipped her sleeves and left the place with a darkened expression. However, she took away another superior quality spiritual treasure before she left.

Meanwhile, Cowen, who came to fight for the royal paragon treasure Sky-Soil Zenith on behalf of Karl, glanced in Severin's direction and thought it was better not to offend him. After all, he had no idea just how powerful he really was.

Between letting Karl down and dying, he would rather choose the former. The image of Uzair getting killed was still fresh in his mind. He was extremely afraid of the domineering and treacherous Severin and did not want to stay there any longer than he had to.

Raymond and Celeste, who were not far away, looked complicated and unhappy. However, they did not dare to do anything to Severin. Instead, they took the rest of the treasures from the palace, turned around, and left.

Severin scoffed inwardly after looking at the changes in expressions on everyone's faces. After all, he had already mentally prepared himself to fight one against many.

Soran and the rest of the group had made the right choice, allowing Severin to obtain the royal paragon inheritance without any effort.

After watching Soran and the others leave, Severin deactivated his blazing energy before walking up to the only two light balls left in the palace. He then stretched out his arms and acquired the purple jade 1/2 +15 BONUS Holding the purple jade plaque in his hand, he used his divine sense to read it.

Instantly, a divine technique called Lotus Wildfire was engraved in his mind.

Severin was overjoyed after absorbing all the information in the purple jade plaque. He could not help but exclaim, "Yeah! I got a heaven-quality high-rank divine combat technique!" Lotus Wildfire was a divine combat technique created by a Wildfire royal paragon after breaking through the royal paragon level in the past. Its level had reached that of heaven-quality high-rank.

The Sky-Soil Heptagold Sword Energy that Severin cultivated so far was only heaven-quality medium-rank! Lotus Wildfire was not only of a high level but after successfully cultivating it to Small Success, its power would be beyond ordinary. Severin would be capable of burning mountains and rivers or even the entire ocean with only a wave of his hand.

In fact, he would be able to shoot down the stars and the moon, bring destruction to the earth's atmosphere, or ravage the heavens if he cultivated Lotus Wildfire to Great Success!

After putting down the purple jade plaque, Severin could not help but sigh. "But the requirements for cultivating this technique are too demanding. To achieve Small Success, I'll need to absorb two special spiritual flames from heaven and earth. To achieve Great Success, I'll need at least nine special spiritual flames!" Bluerealm possessed some naturally born spiritual flames. For example, some volcanoes contained molten flames, which was the favorite of many alchemists. Its characteristic was relatively peaceful and could help cultivators in the creation of alchemical pills and weapons without consuming much of their spiritual energy.

There was also the ten-thousand-year-old mysterious flames in the deep sea, which was bone-chillingly cold. There was the legendary flame of the phoenix, comparable to that of an immortal, and the fire of the sacred beast, Vermillion Bird.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 0 Average: 0]

Life After Prison Chapter 2082-For cultivators who cultivated fire—attribute skills, absorbing those flames would enable them to get twice the result with half the effort! However, those flames were also very difficult to find, and their values were comparable to the treasures of heaven and earth!

Therefore, Severin could not help but sigh when he learned about the requirements of cultivating Lotus Wildfire. He had not even cultivated his own Sky–Soil Heptagold Sword Energy to Great Success yet!

Cultivating Lotus Flame would only add to his burden since it would require a large amount of natural materials and earthly treasures.

“Oh well, I should wait until I’ve leveled up to seventh–grade alchemist and break into the realm of paragon before cultivating Lotus Wildfire,” said Severin to himself.

After thinking about it, Severin stored the purple jade plaque in his spatial ring and focused on the animal skin book.

“I wonder what top–notch skill the Royal Paragon cultivator left behind?” He scanned the book with his divine sense, and the words on the animal skin book seemed to come alive like wriggling tadpoles. They jumped up from the animal skin book and penetrated into his mind.

Suddenly, Severin felt the world change. The world around him seemed to turn into a golden light while the ground beneath his feet transformed into a vast expanse of sea.

Standing on the sea was a tall old man wearing a purple robe. Severin could not see the old man’s face, but his powerful cultivation distorted the surrounding space as if he had torn apart the air itself.

The old man stood in the golden sea like a supreme being. Even Severin felt a strong sense of oppression when met with those intimidating eyes. It was as if he was looking at the devil himself! The majestic breath of death lingered in the air as though he had fallen into a bottomless abyss of death.

At that moment, the tall old man's body suddenly shone with the light of thousands of mysterious runes.

The vast golden ocean beneath his feet seemed to come alive; a wave rolled up, pulling his body up infinitely.

Severin saw the gray sky being torn apart by the wave! There seemed to be a strange energy impacting the sky, evolving into countless earth, water, wind and fire. It was as if the tall old man had the sky in the palm of his hand, which he could destroy at any time!

"This is the power of heaven and earth!" Severin was shocked when he saw this strange scene.

Immediately afterward, he sat cross-legged with his eyes closed, falling into the golden ocean to comprehend the wisdom contained within.

Countless seawater was shaken by the fluctuations of his cultivation, creating huge waves tens of yards high. A huge vortex was formed around Severin after the waves came crashing down.

Severin, who was in the center of the vortex, was like a black hole, constantly comprehending the strange energy in the sky around him.

Soon, the power of heaven and earth around the old man suddenly collapsed.

His whole body turned into dots of spiritual light before he disappeared into the golden world.

In the end, the skill detailed in the book gradually crystallized inside Severin's mind.

"The Book of True Void Enlightenment! Use your own spiritual power to transform heaven and earth. Use your body as a raft to cross the sea of suffering, and cultivate solar aura. Open up your inner world, and you'll be able to cross to the other side of the Great Void to become an immortal!" Severin could not help but gasp after reading The Book of True Void Enlightenment.

The skill was extremely powerful. It focused on cultivating the body's vital energy and blood. When the vital energy and blood of the body had reached its rolling peak, it would stir up the primal spirit within to fight through the sea of suffering and transform into a solar spirit.

Thus, the spiritual energy would transform into the power of heaven and earth, subsequently opening up an inner world in the energy core, enabling Severin to step into the realm of royal paragon!

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 0 Average: 0]

