

After Prison 531

Chapter 531

The faint-hearted look on Quintus' face had Severin put on a contemptuous smirk on his face. "Aren't you going to have your men beat the hell out of me? Where are they? Those people over there? Are there more men? Gather every man you got. I look forward to seeing if they can beat the hell out of me like you said!"

"Are you sure?" Quintus was relieved and immediately felt ecstatic knowing he did not have to fight Severin by himself.

'Does this guy know what he's talking about?' he wondered.

Those bodyguards who came here with him were strong fighters. At least three or four of those men were profound masters and were entrusted to be the captain of their teams.

At that moment, Quintus had no idea how strong Severin was. He gloated and said, "Severin, remember what you said. You better not seek help from the Ballards if my men beat the hell out of you later."

All Severin did was sneer coldly after hearing that. "Haha. Fine. I'm not going to let you go if they failed to accomplish your instructions. They are going to end up dead and you can say goodbye to your balls. It's only fair to me for doing that."

"You..." The corner of Quintus' mouth twitched. He was not married yet but he was already engaged. What was he going to do if he lost his balls?

"What's wrong? I'm nice enough to give you a chance. An attempt for your men to defeat me. You should know I'm not obliged to give you any chance at all!" Severin smiled faintly.

What he said nearly prompted Quintus to have a meltdown.

"Fine! I don't believe you are that powerful! I have high confidence in my men's ability. They are with the Stones now. My fiancée and I are going to get them here now. Heh! Do enlighten me later on how you are going to kill them later!" Quintus said with his gritted teeth.

Immediately, he was ready to leave with Jada back to Jada's house to gather his men.

Nonetheless, Severin was quick to stop him. "Wait!"

"What is it? Are you afraid now? Are you regretting what you said?"

Quintus was delighted when Severin stopped him. In his point of view, Severin was just trying to scare him by acting and speaking tough. That plan failed when he was not intimidated by Severin's speech. Severin smiled faintly, "You stay back and ask your fiancée to gather your men. I'm afraid both of you are going to run away if you two leave now. I'm too lazy to go after both of you if that happens."

"Fine!" Quintus gritted his teeth and talked to Jada, "Jada, go home and bring those men I brought from Riverson here. I refuse to believe those elite fighters and those captains are not his match!"

They were not the average captains of the teams. They were the notable and top-rank fighters among the bodyguards. The only people who could easily out beat them were the guardians of the family.

Quintus strongly believed Severin was a grandmaster and that his men could easily defeat Severin.

“Okay!”

Jada frowned. Though she was worried, she had no choice but to head home as she was told.

Chapter 532

After Jada left, Quintus said to Zachariah, “Mister Zachariah, I believe you will not interfere with the fight. later. Am I right?”

Zachariah scoffed and said calmly and confidently, “Don’t worry. I won’t interfere especially since you two have reached an agreement. I’ll only bring shame to myself if I interfere.”

“Haha! Great!”

It was relieving when Quintus received a solid promise from Zachariah as he was afraid Zachariah would send his men to help Severin when Severin was in danger. That would increase the difficulty for his men to kill Severin.

No one picked up the phone despite Lucy tried calling twice. She frowned and said, “Cain, I have a bad feeling. I think most likely Theo is dead. No one is picking up the phone!”

“That’s impossible! He’s a level nine profound master!”

Cain looked shocked and found it hard to accept what Lucy said. “If that’s the case, it means Severin is at least a level one or level two warrior king! Is that possible?”

At first, Lucy was displeased with the outcome. Yet, that feeling changed when she thought about the three milion dollars she got from Theo last night.

Now that Theo was dead, no one was going to find out she had slept with Theo last night and the money. she received. As long as she kept the secret to herself, Cain would never find out about it.

Despite the delighted feeling, she pretended to look disappointed. “Sigh, I didn’t know Severin is so powerful. Theo brought so many elite fighters with him and yet, that was still not enough to kill Severin. Theo must be dead now. What should we do?”

Cain said, “What if he’s not dead? We didn’t have any information and was just making up assumption.”

Lucy replied, “Theo said he will make his move yesterday evening and bring Severin’s head over for you after he killed Severin. But he’s not picking up his phone now! I’m sure he’s dead!”

“Gosh, it’s all my fault. I sent my buddy to death. My best buddy is dead because he was seeking revenge for me!”

Grief and sorrow overwhelmed Cain when he thought of his friendship with Theo. “If I know Severin is so powerful; if I know this is the outcome, I will never ask him to help me!”

Lucy was angered when she heard that. "Cain! What are you thinking of? How could you say that you don't want to take revenge after what Severin did to cause you in such a terrible situation? What kind of joke is that? We can't just let it go easily!"

After giving it much thought, another worrying issue appeared in Cain's mind. "Hey, do you think Theo and the others would bring samurai swords with them when they tried to kill Severin? The Slasher Gang often uses samurai swords during their fights. It's going to be very troublesome if Severin saw it."

"Why?" Lucy gazed at Cain with a puzzled expression because she did not get why that would bring trouble to them.

Cain explained, "Because the samurai sword is the signature weapon of Cherridom. Everyone loves it. Severin will know Theo is from Cherridom if he saw the samurai sword Theo carried. Especially when Severin knew that I'm a member of the Slasher Gang of Cherridom. He's going to relate Theo with us if Theo and the others are dead. By that time, do you think he will come to kill us?"

"Oh my gosh!" That possibility brought so much fear to Lucy that her face looked terrible. How were they going to fight back when Theo and those elite fighters could not even do it? They would be defenseless if Severin found them and had the intention to kill them.

Cain pondered and said, "Babe, I think we should transfer to another hospital. What do you think?"

Without even considering it, Lucy nodded her head immediately. "You're right! We have to do it now!"

Chapter 533

Without any delay, Lucy was in a hurry for the procedure to get Cain transferred to another hospital.

Suddenly, a thought struck her. She asked worriedly, "Severin is very close with Draco Hall, the Ballards, and also the Longhorns. No matter which hospital we transfer to, he's bound to find us. Should we just leave Brookbourn and transfer to a hospital in another city?"

However, Cain did not agree. "Another city? Where? It's going to be troublesome if we have to leave for a further place. Besides, look at me now. I'm not in a condition to travel far."

Lucy thought about what Cain said and decided, "Then let's just transfer to another hospital. He has no evidence to prove that we are the ones behind it. Even if he found us, there's nothing he can do about it if we insist we are not the mastermind. We were not there and he doesn't have the evidence to say you were the one who asked Theo to go kill him."

Cain thought Lucy's words made sense. He nodded. "Yes, you're right. He can't possibly blame us when we insist we weren't the ones behind it. Anyway, we will just pretend that we don't know anything when he questions us.

Regardless of that, Lucy still went on to expedite the process to transfer Cain to another hospital after they seemingly consoled themselves nothing was going to happen to them. Yet, the worrying feeling continued to remain in their heart even when they were at the new hospital.

Lucy was worried Severin would go to her house to look for her. To avoid that, she went back home to pick up her parents and brought them to the new place Cain bought for her. After that, she was slightly less worried.

“Lucy, did you offend anyone? Why do you force us to move?”

Lucy’s father, Landon wondered and asked after they moved to Lucy’s new place.

Lucy answered, “Who else do you think I offend other than Severin that jerk?”

“Him? That b*stard! I still remember how he ruined your wedding! Now we’re forced to move because of him! Argh! He’s so terrible! I really hope I can hire someone to kill him!”

Once, Landon found out Severin was the reason, he was engulfed and grasped his fist tightly.

Lucy rolled her eyes and said, “Dad, you can cross that thought off your mind. We tried hiring many killers before but all of them failed and they lost their lives too. That guy is not an average guy. It’s an extremely hard task killing him.”

Landon sighed. “Damn! His life is much better than before!”

Helga joined the conversation. “Look at his family. They are so much better off now. Severin is also very rich now!”

She looked at Lucy and said regretfully, “Sigh. You should have waited for him. If you are with him now, I bet we will be living a good life now too.”

She paused for a while before continuing, “He really loved so much in the past. He even crossed Easton because of you. You should have waited for him!”

Those words only brought much anger to Lucy. With an angry look, she said, “Mom, what are you talking about? Am I the only one to blame for this? Do you still remember what did you guys tell me when Easton was courting me? You said I’ll be old when Severin finished serving his ten years sentence. And he will have no money when he finished his sentence. No one will want to hire him because he was in jail before!. You guys were the ones who said that!”

She gripped her hand tightly. “When Easton started to court me, I refused him. At that time, you guys tried to change my mind and helped Easton to convince me! Do you still remember how happy you guys were when you received gifts from Easton without me knowing? Why are you blaming me for all of this now?”

Helga looked down at her feet while feeling guilty. “I-I thought that was the best choice you got. It never occur to me that Severin would become a totally different person after he was released. Who would have known he would be so successful now?”

“Don’t worry. I’m rich now!”

At that moment, Lucy sneered, “I’m Cain’s girlfriend now. Severin broke his leg and there’s a chance that he will walk with a limp in the future. But he’s rich. Very rich!”

“Limp!”

Lucy's parents were speechless. Their daughter was always known to aim high. Why would she be willing to settle with a guy who might walk with a limp?

They got their answer immediately. Lucy took out a bank card and handed it over to them.

"There are three million dollars saved in this bank card. Take it and buy anything you two want. The pin number is six's sixes."

Chapter 534

"Are you kidding me? Three million dollars?"

Landon was thrilled knowing the available amount of money saved in the bank card.

"Gosh! Lucy, you finally found yourself a rich guy this time. This is so great. I always know you are very capable! A rich and wealthy guy this time around!"

A smile bloomed on Helga's face. Three million dollars! They were never in possession of that amount of money in their life before!

Lucy sneered secretly. As a matter of fact, Cain did not give her that money. She earned it while sleeping together with Theo but of course, she was not going to tell her parents the truth. Since it was easy money, she decided to give it to her parents. The money that Cain gave her was enough to last her for a while even after she had spent some yesterday.

"Alright. I need to go find Cain now. Severin beat him and now he's still in the hospital. Bye!" Lucy smiled.

"Okay. Go take care of him. You don't have to worry about us!"

With the bank card in his hand, Landon grinned cheerfully.

At the same time, Jada was accompanied by a group of people and her father.

Severin. Jada told me you're requesting to fight with the elite fighters from the Novaks," Victor sneered.

He was there to witness the fight. Although, Quintus only brought twenty men with him this time. Some of them were extremely powerful that even the guardians of the Stones were not as powerful as them.

It brought great joy to him to witness those men from the Novaks killed or caused severe injury to Severin..

ster

Severin smiled faintly, "Mister Victor, this is not a fight. You either win or die. And I'm planning to kill all of them!"

"Haha! Good!" Victor burst out laughing. "Let's see if you have got what it takes to do that!"

Severin sneered, "Take the chance and laugh now when you still can. After all, you're going to find it difficult to laugh later."

“Stop talking! Break his limb and make sure he can never fight anymore in the future! And cut off his balls! “Quintus instructed his men while pointing at Severin.

Severin specifically said he would cut off Quintus’ ball after he won the battle. Thus, Quintus was repaying back by instructing his men to cut off Severin’s balls too.

“Yes, sir!”

The bodyguards exchanged looks with each other and charged toward Severin.

“Hey, we will use numbers to our advantage if that’s what it takes!”

A level two profound master was the first one to reach Severin. Without any delay, he threw his fist at Severin.

Chapter 535

“Haha!” Severin laughed out loud at his enemy’s arrogance.

Gripping his fingers together, he too, threw a punch at his enemy in the speed of lightning. The man was sent flying away where his knuckles shattered. In the meantime, his body knocked off a few other bodyguards that were charging toward Severin and broke their ribs.

“What? That’s impossible!”

Obviously, Quintus was aware of how strong the man was. His face turned pale knowing that man failed to beat Severin.

“Mister Quintus, the clock is ticking. You can say goodbye to your balls soon!” Sheila was glad to see Severin beat those men so easily. With her arms folded, she provoked Quintus pleasingly.

“Punch! Punch! Punch!”

Severin hold back no more and threw his punches at the Novaks’ elite fighter. Soon, none of them were alive.

“No-! No!”

Looking at the dead bodies, Quintus found it hard to believe. A chill climbed up his spine. It only took one punch from Severin to kill every single of one his bodyguards.

“What do you think? It’s time to accept your defeat! As you wish the Ballards did not interfere. Where’re your guts now?”

Severin gave Quintus a cold glare.

Judith and Maurice were afraid the scene was too bloody for Selene. Thus, before it happened, they already brought Selene back into the house, “Se-Severin. I’m sorry. I beg you. Please have mercy on me. It won’t happen again!” His legs gave way and he ended up kneeling on the floor.

Jada was terrified too. What was going to happen to her married life if Severin really did cut off Quintus' balls? What was the purpose of her marrying Quintus if Quintus lost his balls?

Thus, she went over and also knelt on the ground to beg. "Severin, please forgive us! My fiance knew he had done a terrible mistake! Please have mercy on him! We, we can give you lots of money!"

Victor no longer looked as arrogant as before. What he had just witnessed was too surreal for him to accept. Severin was just too strong. Based on what just happened, Severin was much stronger than the guardian of the Novaks. Not even the guardians from the Novaks could easily kill that amount of people. in that kind of situation.

He too also approached Severin to plead for mercy. "Severin. Victor and my daughter realized they had done a huge mistake. We can give you any amount of money you want. Just name the price."

Severin sneered. "Money? It's too late now!"

After a pause, he continued, "Over and over again, they kept on attacking me and wished that I'm dead. Do you expect me to stand there and allow them to do whatever they want to me? I have shown mercy on you once, Quintus. You harassed my wife yesterday, did my wife kill you? All she did was teach you a lesson. But you never learned from it. Once again, you tried to kill me. You have yourself to blame for this!"

"Yes! You deserve this! It's too late for you to own up to your mistake now! And how dare you harass Diane?"

Chapter 536

After chatting for a while, Adrien poured a glass of water for Abel and humbly sought his advice on work methods and experience. After all, running a conglomerate was not something one could learn in a short time.

Adrien quickly felt overwhelmed by the amount of information.

"Ah, forget it!" He waved his hand. "Let's end here today and take a break, Abel."

Seeing Adrien constantly rubbing his temples to the point where they became apparently red, Abel knew that entrusting the vast conglomerate to him would be a challenging task. However, with no way out given. by their grandfather, his role was to do his best to assist Adrien.

The two brothers were taking a break, sipping water, when the phone on the main table rang.

Abel got up from the sofa and instinctively went for it. Then, he realized that he was no longer in charge and sat back down. He said to Adrien, "You answer it; you're the boss now."

Adrien sighed and reluctantly rose from the sofa, walking to the main table to pick up the handset.

"Hello, who's this?"

There was a brief pause on the other end, and then Adam's voice came through. "Adrien, you've already taken up the position?"

"I've been thrown in at the deep end, now haven't I?" Adrien said with a wry smile. "I'd be happy to let you do it."

"No, thanks!" Adam grumbled. "I'd like to live a bit longer!"

"Why have you called then?" Adrien felt a bit let down. He had hoped for some comforting words from his elder brother to mend his wounded pride.

"I want to invite Abel for dinner. Why don't you join us?" Adam said.

"Sounds good," Adrien said before turning to Abel. "Adam is inviting us for dinner. What do you say?"

Before Abel could respond, Adam added, "Bring Lizbeth and Emmeline along. I'll be bringing Ysabel on my end."

Abel became concerned at once. It didn't matter if Lizbeth would show up for lunch, but it was a whole other story for Ysabel to be there as well, for his dear wife wasn't a fan of the woman.

Then, Adam added, "You all have wives. I can't be the only single one, so I'm bringing Ysabel along."

Abel could only agree when Adam had put it that way. "I'll let Emma know."

"Emma will surely agree!" Adam said confidently. "I know she's open-minded and won't hold grudges!"

Well, he wasn't wrong.

Abel nodded. "You guys pick the place, and we'll join you later. We should get together."

"How about the Seashell Hotel?" Adam suggested. "It seems like both Emma and Lizbeth like it, and Ysabel enjoys it too."

"Seashell Hotel it is," Abel replied into the handset. "You guys go ahead. Emma and I will join you in a bit."

"Alright!" Adam agreed. "I'll be waiting in the private room."

They ended the call, and Adrien seemed somewhat emotional. He muttered, "Abel, is Adam holding a farewell dinner or something?"

"Where are you getting that idea?" Abel chuckled. "Just because I'm not running Ryker Group anymore. doesn't mean I'm not a Ryker by name. Wherever we go, we're still brothers!"

"That's all I needed to hear!" Adrien sniffled. "You go pick up Emma, and I'll get Lizbeth. We'll meet at the Seashell Hotel."

"Alright!" Abel nodded. "See you later!"

Half an hour later, the three couples met in a private room at the Seashell Hotel.

As they entered, Ysabel greeted them with a smile, "Emma, Liz, you've come! Come, take a seat!"

She was both welcoming and attentive, helping Emmeline and Lizbeth pull out their chairs.

Seeing her like this starkly contrasted her previous arrogant and domineering demeanor. Emmeline and Lizbeth exchanged a knowing look, their eyes filled with amusement. Has this girl changed her ways?

Adam seemed to have noticed the thoughts of the two women and said with a smile, "No need to be surprised, Emma, Lizbeth. Ysabel said that if she wants to enter the Ryker family, she must learn from both of you and eliminate her bad habits!"

"Learn from Lizbeth," said Emmeline with a chuckle. "Don't bother learning from me."

"Why not?" Adam teased. "Grandad might have chased you out in a fit of anger, but it proves that you're the real deal! The little cafe owner turns out to be the boss of the Adelmars and a proud disciple of the Adelmars. You have half of Osea backing you. Who'd dare underestimate you?!"

Chapter 537

Quintus felt a deep humiliation. Yet, he suppressed his anger and cocked up his head to force a smile on his face. "Thank you for forgiving me. You're right. I'm that cheap!"

"Haha! It's good that you know how much you are worth!" Severin laughed out loud.

If Diane did not plead for Quintus, he would have killed Quintus with a smack right now.

Soon, Jada transferred the money to Severin and asked her bodyguards to clear the scene as Severin requested.

"It's done. Are we allowed to go now?"

Finally, Quintus got up from the ground after kneeling for a long time. His eyes looked calm and peaceful without any anger like before. However, the place where he knelt was wet. He wet himself because of the fear he felt.

"Scram!"

Severin waved his hand to show they had his permission to leave.

Very quickly, Victor and the others left the place.

"Severin, you're so powerful! Screw that Quintus! He's never on the same level as you!"

Sheila quickly ran over to Severin and said proudly, "I know the man I choose is a great man! My Prince Charming and my idol!"

What an exaggerating statement that nearly had Severin passed out. "Prince Charming is often invisible in fairy tales. I'm definitely nothing like Prince Charming. Even a piece of dung he picks from the street could be a priceless possession!"

Sheila rolled her eyes and said sarcastically, "Why can't he pick up something else? What kind of idiot will pick up a piece of dung anyway?"

"Haha, maybe it was a piece of dung from god?" Severin joked.

"Bahaha!" The ladies could not hold it in and burst out with peals of laughter.

"I don't care. You're my Prince Charming! My strong and powerful Prince Charming!" -

Sheila looked down. Her cheek blushed. "That's why I like you, isn't it?"

"Yes! He's exactly what a Prince Charming would look like in real life. I really admire him a lot!"

Zachariah did not forget to root for his daughter. "If you don't mind, I will be extremely happy if you will take my daughter's hand. Everyone could tell how much my daughter is fond of you!"

"That's right! Look, Severin, my father has agreed and gives us his blessing. I'm a good daughter and because of that, I should abide by my father's decision!"

Sheila looked down while her cheeks were feeling warm from the shyness and sweetness that overtook her feelings.

On the other hand, Severin was not sharing the same feelings. With a weird expression, he said, "I remember you did not listen to your father when he disapproved of me and thought I was not worthy of you. When did you suddenly become a good daughter?"

Chapter 538

It was followed by another outburst of laughter from Diane.

Just then, Maurice and Judith were walking out of the house with Selene. They also found what Severin said very amusing.

"What do you mean I suddenly become a good daughter? I have always been a good daughter to my father!"

Sheila gave Severin an angry look.

Severin smiled and expressed his gratitude. "Mister Zachariah, I appreciate your help. If you didn't bring them over, I didn't know they were planning to attack me!"

Zachariah smiled. "Haha. You're welcome. Based on our relationship, it's something that I should do. Besides, there's a high possibility that you will become my son-in-law since my daughter likes you so much. Helping you is helping myself too."

No one could understand how speechless Severin was feeling now. In the first place, Zachariah thought Severin was a scammer and was not worthy of his daughter. What a dramatic change now that Zachariah actually dreaded Severin to be his son-in-law.

Not to mention that Severin had deliberately changed the subject. Yet, Zachariah refused to go along and continued the topic instead. At that moment, Severin had no idea how to react.

Since it was still early, he smiled and decided. "You do know how to tell a good joke. Let me bring you guys out for lunch since you guys are here and also to show my appreciation to you for helping me."

Before Zachariah said anything, Sheila beat her father and accepted the invitation. "Great! This is the first time you invite me to have lunch together!"

Severin's mouth twitched a few times. As a matter of fact, he was just being polite. He thought Zachariah would reject the invitation since it was too early for lunch. It never crossed his mind that Sheila was so delighted with his invitation.

Zachariah chuckled. "Haha. I'm delighted to have lunch together with you!"

After that, he had some of his bodyguards return and only left two to three of the stronger men with him.

At the same time, Quintus was back at the Stone's residence. He balled up his fist and ground his teeth angrily.

"Quintus, are you alright?" Sheila approached and asked him when she could tell Quintus was in a bad mood.

He looked at Jada and said angrily, "Jada, what was that? Am I really that worthless to you? How dare you told Severin that my balls are just a-hundred-and-fifty-thousand dollars? They are so important that a-hundred-and-fifty-thousand dollars do not justify their values!"

"Are you an idiot? Do you still remember Severin is our enemy? The more I suggest, the merrier he would be! You're free to give him as much as you want. But what is the point? What's wrong? Did your pride got hurt because of the amount I suggested?"

By then, Quintus realized he had been using a heavy and angry tone to talk. Immediately, he relaxed his tone and spoke softly. "I don't mean that. But didn't you just give Severin a chance to mock me? I'm the young master of the Novaks. A night out in the city would cost more than a-hundred-and-fifty-thousand dollars!"

"Put that sad pride of yours away. After what Severin did to us, I refuse to give him more money!" Jada said.

Quintus balled up his fist and said angrily, "Damn him! I swear I'm going to kill him one day!"

"Quintus Novak! Are you still thinking of getting your revenge? Haven't you learned your lesson yet? Didn't you see how easily Severin kill your men? You know how strong they were and even they failed to kill Severin when they clearly outnumbered him. We should just let it go."

"Let it go?" Quintus gave Jada a confusing look. "Jada, didn't you swear that you won't stop until Severin is dead? What has gotten into you now?"

Chapter 539

Jada scoffed. "What has gotten into me? Haha! I'm scared! I'm terrified after witnessing how powerful Severin is! We had crossed him three times and he had been merciful enough to let us go. We also promise that we will never plan anything despicable at him and walked in another direction so he won't see our faces. I think we should honor our words."

"Do you really think he let us go because we begged for mercy and he was feeling sorry for us?" Quintus sneered.

With a frown, Jada said, "What do you mean? Isn't that what just happened? If Diane was not kind enough to help us, Severin was never going to let you go. Most probably, you no longer have your balls intact anymore!"

Quintus let out a rueful smile. "He's just bluffing and scaring me! Do you think he really dares to do it? There were afraid because my cousin is a junior general! Plus, he is under Mister Arthur, the senior general and a close confidant of Mister Arthur. Do you think I will be afraid of Severin?"

"Sigh. Quintus, I'm still scared. Severin had always managed to surpass our expectations. Zachariah also mentioned how closed Severin and Mister Valerian were. Mister Valerian also promised that he would attend Severin's wedding. What if what Zachariah said was the truth? What are we going to do if Severin has Mister Valerian's strong support? It's going to be useless even if your cousin or Mister Arthur is there to help us!" Jada said with fear.

Then she added after a pause, "Do you seriously think Mister Arthur will help your cousin if he is in trouble?"

"What nonsense are you talking about? Nothing bad is going to happen to my cousin!" Quintus said.

After a pause, he continued, "Obviously Zachariah was just bluffing to trick us. How could Mister Valerian attend Severin's wedding? How could someone who spent the last five years in prison be in contact with Mister Valerian?"

Jada thought about it and nodded because she agreed with Quintus. "Yea, you're right. But he had let us go three times. You knelt down and told him you will never do it again. I think let's just forget about it. We should keep our promises."

Quintus became red with anger and said angrily, "Jada, it's no longer just some kind of feud between you and him! It's between me and him now! It was a measure of expediency. Do you get it? As a man, I know when it is time to bend my back."

Jada did not retort immediately. Instead, she gave Quintus a solemn glare. "You better have strong confidence that you can kill him the next time you plan an act of revenge. Otherwise, he is never going to let you go and will definitely kill you without hesitation!"

"Don't worry. I know he's very powerful. I doubt the guardians of my family are his match. So I won't take any risk this time. I'm going to head back to Riverson for now. When my cousin is back, I will seek his help. He's a warrior king. Killing Severin is going to be a piece of cake for him," Quintus said with a smile.

"Warrior king? Is he very strong?" Jada asked curiously because she had no idea about the fighter's ranking.

Quintus said, "Geez, I don't know how to explain it to you. Anyway, the warrior king is a lot stronger than the profound master. At least, from what I see, there is no warrior king living in Brookbourn. As for Riverson, I have no idea if there's any warrior king protecting the first-tier upper-class family. After all, no one is daring enough to cross them."

Quintus, you're my fiance and we're getting married soon. I don't want anything bad to happen to you. What happened today really terrified me. I used to be very arrogant in the past too. But now I'm really scared. What if Severin really did kill us today? Even if your family and your cousin avenge you, we are already dead. No one can revive the dead.”

Quintus nodded and was touched. “Don’t worry. We’re going to succeed the next time. If my cousin is willing to help us, Severin will be dead for sure. We can’t let him live. He’s too dangerous to us!”

During the afternoon, Severin, Zachariah, Sheila, Zenoah, and the others had lunch together. After lunch, Sheila, Zachariah, and the rest left even though that was not what they wish to do.

Severin was holding Selene in his arms as he asked, “Selene, I’m free this evening. Do you want to go to the amusement park?”

Chapter 540

“Yes!” Selene’s eyes lit up instantly. “Daddy, are you really bringing me to the amusement park?”

Severin chuckled. “Of course. But you have to give me a kiss first.”

“Okay!” Very happily, Selen kissed Severin on the cheek and said, “Pinky promise?”

“There’s no need for that. I’m going to bring you and Mom to the amusement park now!” Severin said with a smile.

“Oh, yes! We’re going to the amusement park!” Selene clapped her hand excitedly.

Severin looked at Maurice and Judith. “Dad, Mom, why don’t you two come along too?”

Maurice giggled, “Nah, we’re not going. I’m a little tipsy. I think I drank too much. I’m going to head back. home to take a nap!”

Judith said, “I’m not going too. You three have fun!”

Severin nodded and said to Abigail and the rest. “Abigail, send my parents home. You girls don’t have to come with us.”

“I know. We don’t have to protect Diane since you are with her!” Abigail smiled and felt envious.

She had trouble sleeping after Severin helped to extract the poison out of her leg with his mouth. Her mind could not stop thinking about it.

Very soon, Abigail, Lillie, and the other bodyguards had the task to send Maurice and Judith back home. While Severin and Diane brought Selene to the amusement park. After an evening in the amusement park, Selene had a lot of fun. Three of them left the amusement park when the sky was turning dark. After dinner, Severin went upstairs to take his shower and waited for Diane to go back to the room.

When Diane entered the room, she realized Severin was already in his pajamas. Her face reddened. “Gosh, are you in such a hurry? Taking your shower so early?”
