

After Prison 581

Chapter 581

“Rory, are you certain that you are allowing him to try to save your father? What if he’s from one of the rival gangs? Even if you kill him later, that won’t help with anything. Your father’s life is more important than his life.”

The man dressed in white expressed his concern.

Rory looked at her father, Freddie. His face looked pale and painful. “What if he’s telling us the truth? It’s a risk that I need to take. Call 911 just in case anything happens.”

There was nothing more the man dressed in white could say to change Rory’s mind. He walked away and called 911. On the other side, Severin quickly gave Freddie a massage and took out his needle to perform dry needling. Once that was done, he placed his hand on Rory’s father’s head.

At first, Freddie suffered tremendous pain. When Severin started to treat him, he was obviously gradually healing and in less pain. By the time, Severin took his hand away, Freddie looked healthier than before. His eyesight returned to normal and he could see clearly what his savior looked like.

*Thank you for saving me!” Freddie stood up and expressed his gratitude.

Severin smiled faintly. “When I was in Brookbourn, an elder man from a first-tier upper-class family suffered from a sudden cerebral hemorrhage too. Luckily I was there to save him and so were you. You’ll never going to make it if I’m not here.”

When the man dressed in white returned, he was shocked to see Freddie standing there safe and sound. He rubbed his eyes numerous times. “Seriously? Freddie is fine now?”

“Thanks to this young man here. I’m fine now. What’s your name, young man?” Freddie smiled and asked.

“My name is Severin Feuillet. I’m staying in Lupool for one night and I’m going to the mountain tomorrow,” Severin replied honestly with a smile.

“Are you seriously thinking about going into the mountain? Do you know what mountain that is? The mountain is very steep and no one has ever conquered the mountain before. Thanks to that mountain, those fierce wild animals from the forest could not enter our city.”

The man dressed in white continued, “I overheard a case. Three level one or level two profound masters went into the mountain to seek a type of herb. But no one has ever seen them after that or anyone heard of them returning from the mountain. People said the mountain must have taken their lives. Three profound masters went together and none of them returned. Is that enough to tell you how dangerous the mountain is?”

Despite that, it did not scare Severin. “That’s the closest route if I want to get to the sea. Otherwise, I won’t choose to go there too.”

“What? You’re heading to the sea? That’s certainly not the best way. I heard there are two fishing villages after the forest. Most of the people in the villages are fishermen. But they only have small boats so they didn't dare to go too far out in the sea. Most of the time, they fish near the coast to put food on the table. I have never been there before. But some people in the city are badass and bold enough to explore for the sake of the treasure in the forest," Freddie explained.

With a smile, Severin said, "I'm going to be fine. Just think that I'm like those badass people"

Freddie's eyes lit up when he heard that. All of a sudden, he had much admiration for Severin. Very often, he heard those who had the ability to undergo special training are never bounded by life and death. Only badass like them were able to reach higher grounds. Severin definitely was one of those badass people.

"Young man. As a reward for saving my life, I'm going to give you a-million-and-five-hundred-thousand dollars."

Chapter 582

After some thinking, Freddie decided and said that.

"Freddie. Isn't a-million-and-five-hundred-thousand dollars too much? Who knows if you really had a sudden cerebral hemorrhage? What if it was something else and you will eventually be fine by yourself without his help?" The man dressed in white decided to step in when he heard that.

Immediately, Freddie gave the man dressed in white a cold glare. "Are you saying my life doesn't worth as much as a-million-and-five-hundred-thousand dollars? This is my body. I know it better than you!"

"That's right. Keep your opinion to yourself." Rory also glared at the man before smiling at Severin.

"Thank you, Mister Severin. Can you please give me your bank account? I'll transfer the money to you now. Luckily you are here to save my father."

Severin smiled faintly. "You don't have to. I'm going back to my hotel now, I'm leaving early in the morning. It just happened that I'm there to lend a helping hand. The ambulance is here now. If you are still worried, you should bring your father to the hospital to check his body and ask the doctor to prescribe some medicine."

After that, he did not wait for them to reply and just left.

"What? He refuses the money?" The man dressed in white was shocked.

"I guess he's a real savant. Money is nothing to people like him. They are only into treasures that could help them in their training and very often, those treasures are the only thing that they are after," Freddie said respectfully.

"Dad, the ambulance is here. Let's go to the hospital to check your body," Rory said.

The moment Severin returned to his hotel room, he went to his bed and dozed off. When the sun was rising in the morning, he was all ready to head to the mountain.

Since he was unable to drive his car to the mountain, he hailed a taxi and requested the taxi driver to drop him off near the mountain.

"Hey, handsome, are you going into the mountain to hunt for treasure?"

Not long later, he heard someone talking to him from behind.

He looked back and saw there were six people standing behind him. An old man with grey hair, a pair of beautiful twins, two muscular men, and one thin middle-aged man.

The one who talked to Severin was one of the twins. She smiled at Severin and approached him. "Are you going on a treasure hunt? Let's go together. It's better to travel together. I heard the mountain is very dangerous. We can look out for each other!"

"I suppose I am!" Severin nodded.

Technically speaking, he was on his way to Dracodeus Isle because of the old wacko. It was quite similar to the treasure hunt the girl mentioned.

Chapter 583

"Do you hear that? My guess is correct. He's going into the mountain to hunt for treasure too. Let him join us. The more the merrier, isn't it?" One of the twins giggled.

However, the thin man thought otherwise. He sneered and gave Severin a contemptuous look. "Look at how thin he is. I don't think he's a powerful person. Are you sure he's going to help us instead of being our burden?"

The twin's sister gave Severin a sympathetic look. "But it's going to be very dangerous if he enters the mountain by himself. Let him tag along with us. There are too many wild animals in the mountain. He's not going to survive if he goes on by himself."

The old man gave it a thought and said, "Young man. Are you a profound master? If you are not, we can't have you tag along with us."

Severin smiled awkwardly. "That's for sure."

"Do you hear that? He's a profound master. That means he can come with us, right?" The eldest twin sister came running and smiling at Severin. "It's nice having a handsome guy going on an adventure with us."

Her sister teased back. "Sis, can you act like a lady?"

The old man stood beside Severin and said, "My name is Saul Lanier. It's a coincidence for us to meet here before we head inside the mountain so why don't we go explore together?"

The thin man sneered. "I'm Dennis Washburn.!"

The elder twin sister extended her hand out to gesture a handshake with Severin. "I'm Daphne Hine. This is my sister, Shonna."

The bald-headed muscular man looked like a nice guy. "My name is Morris Dugan."

The last man had his hair shaved. His voice sounded very rough. "I'm Steven Lozano."

Severin looked at them and said, "I'm Severin Feuillet. It's definitely a good thing to have company while exploring the mountain. But I think I'm heading a different way than you guys. Because I'm going to go straight all the way until I'm at the other end of the forest."

Dennis scoffed. "Hahaha. Are you kidding? Who do you think you are? I'm not going to lie. I once heard a level six or seven warrior king tried to do that and he failed. Do you think you have what it takes to accomplish that?"

After hearing that, Saul also thought Severin was bluffing and too bold. "Are you really going to try your luck? Have you been to that forest before?"

Severin shook his head. "Truth be told, this is my first time. I have never been to that forest. Do you know anything special about that forest? Someone told me there are many ferocious wild animals in the forest."

As soon as he finished talking, everyone had a weird look on their faces.

Daphne frowned. She was the most enthusiastic among the others when they saw Severin. "Are you serious that you want to get to the other end of the forest when you have never been there before? It's the same as killing yourself."

Morris rubbed his bald head and said, "Come on. We can talk more and explain to him about the forest while we head to the mountain."

Chapter 584

"Sure. Let's hit the road and talk on the way!" Saul nodded and continued talking, "Severin, is it? Do you know the name of the forest? You might have heard it before. It's called the Forbidden Forest."

"Forbidden Forest?" Severin frowned. The name of the forest itself was enough to scare many people away.

Though, he knew it was not going to be a problem for him to reach the other end of the forest. Yet, he was feeling curious about the forest and wanted to know more. As they walked and talked along the way, Severin finally got to know what had been stopping many people from stepping foot into the forest.

It was less dangerous on the outskirts of the forest. While there were still many wild animals lingering around, those wild animals were huge in size and common. Overall, those wild animals were about the same level as a grandmaster. It was a different situation if you went a little bit deeper into the forest. One could easily bump into a half-monster. A half-monster was a creature that was close to becoming a monster. Their strength and power were as strong as a profound master.

The danger level increased tremendously in the deepest part of the forest. Monsters actually existed in that part of the forest and they were as strong as a warrior king. It required at least a level five warrior king to reach the other end of the forest without losing his life.

When Daphne and the rest said they were treasure hunting, they would only be exploring around the outer perimeter of the forest and avoided entering the deeper part of the forest.

The risk they took entering the outer perimeter of the forest was all they could take. For, the forest was a great place to find spiritual herbs and other precious treasures. If they could just find one treasure, it was going to be a tremendous help to their training.

When they had told Severin everything about the forest, Saul said, "Do you get the picture of how dangerous the forest is now? We form a team because we are stronger that way and we can look out for each other."

They thought Severin would change his mind. Yet, Severin smiled and said, "Ok, thanks for the information. But I still need to get to the other side of the forest because I need to go out to the sea."

*Haha! Fine. So be it. We're not going to stop you anymore. You can leave the team anytime you want!" Dennis scoffed with disdainful looks in his eyes.

It did matter to him whether Severin is dead or alive. He admired Severin for being a profound master at such a young age. Yet, it was an impossible mission for Severin to get to the other end of the forest without losing his life.

Daphne sighed. "Sigh, that's too bad. You're such a handsome guy."

Dennis smiled evily. "Daphne, are you desperate to find yourself a man? Hehe. I don't mind being your man if that's what you want. Don't worry, I guarantee you'll be very satisfied at the end of the day."

Instantly, Daphne gave Dennis a deadly look. "Dennis Washburn! What the hell are you talking about? If you continue with that nonsense, I'll make sure you're going to beg for mercy!"

"Haha. It's just a joke. Don't be so tense!" Dennis laughed.

Shonna asked, "Severin, why do you want to go out to the sea? It's really a dangerous thing to do!"

Severin smiled faintly. "Because I need to get to a place before August 15th. I only have two days left and I can't change my route now."

Chapter 585

Morris thought of it and said, "What if he gets lucky? Maybe he'll survive. Haha. I remembered there was a guy who accidentally entered the deeper part of the forest. He found a second-grade spiritual herb there. What a lucky guy!"

"A second-grade spiritual herb!"

Everyone's eyes lit up when they heard that. Spiritual herb was a herb that had the ability to absorb spiritual energy from heaven and earth and the essence of the sun and moon. They were hard to come by and were extremely rare.

It was categorized into nine different grades with nine being the rarest among all. In this modern world, even a first-grade spiritual herb was hard to come by. People would be fighting all over each other just to get their hands on a second-grade spiritual herb.

First-grade spiritual herb was suitable for people during their profound master level. Whereas, the second-grade spiritual herb would provide a terrific result when consumed by a warrior king. Needless to say, the superb result a profound master could anticipate when he consumed a second-grade spiritual herb. It was highly possible that he could find himself easily breaking through many levels.

Morris continued, "Yes. The risk you take and the opportunity you gain along the way coexist together. If you are bold enough, then you could enter the deeper part of the forest. It's a gamble. If you win, then you are able to move on. If you lose, then that's death for you. Haha!"

"I'm actually impressed with your bravery. Are you a savant? I wonder what level you're at now," Steven said in his rough voice.

Before Severin answered his question, Daphne glared at Steven and cut in. "Steven, have you forgotten we're not allowed to ask about someone's level directly? Did you do it on purpose because this is the first time he's entering the mountain?"

"Haha. He's just tagging along with us for a while and he's not here for the treasure anyway. That's why I think he won't mind me asking. What if he's really savant and is much stronger than anyone of us here?" Steven said cheerfully, "Oh, come on, Daphne. Don't tell me you have fallen for him already. If it's love at first sight, why don't you go with him? You two can go to the other side of the forest. If you two are lucky enough to survive, it's going to be a good story! Haha!"

Finally, Severin realized there was not much trust between these six people.

"I can't be bothered to argue with you!"

Daphne dragged Severin away from them and to the other side. "Come here with me. I have something to tell you!"

Severin did not know what was Daphne trying to do. Yet, he could tell Daphne was a kind person that actually cared for him. Therefore, he followed her.

Once they were far away from the others, Daphne said, "We're actually strangers to each other. Those who wish to head into the mountain to hunt for treasure often gather in a square in Lupool. We will find other people to form a team to look out for each other during the treasure hunt. You need to be at least a level four profound master to join a team and have the bravery to embark on the treasure hunt!"

At this point, she paused for a while. "Although we are a team, it's normal to kill each other or steal from each other when we found a treasure. It's not the first time it happened so most of the time we will be cautious of the other people and we won't disclose our level to them."

That explanation cleared the questions in Severin's mind. He nodded. "I see. Thank you for this information. I have no idea about this if you didn't tell me."

Chapter 586

Daphne smiled. "Other than my sister, I only know those people today. So remember, don't tell anyone your true level. Of course, you're allowed to lie to them when they ask you. They won't know it if you're lying to them either."

After hearing that, Severin's had a weird expression. Unlike the others, the old wacko had taught him a secret technique. With that secret technique, he could easily tell the other people's level. However, there was an exception. When the person's level was higher than Severin's and if the person deliberately hid his strength, Severin would not be able to tell the person's level in that situation. Despite that, there were not many people that were at a higher level than Severin. Nonetheless, the six people who invited him to join the team were quite strong.

"I got it now. Thank you for your information," Severin said with a smile.

Daphne continued to say seriously, "Do you really have to go to that place? Honestly speaking, it feels bad to see you risk your life to get to that place."

Severin nodded. "Haha. I don't have a choice. This is an order from my teacher. I have to go."

"Let's go, little girl!" Severin smiled and said.

"I'm not a little girl!" Daphne was offended and followed behind Severin.

When they reunited with the others, Shannon approached her sister and walked along with her, and said, Daphne, have you fallen for that guy? Why are you so nice to him and pull him to the side to tell him those?

Daphne's eyes sparkled. "I didn't! Steven doesn't look like a good guy. It's so obvious that he's trying to find out how strong Severin is. Nothing is going to happen if Severin did not find anything. But what if he does? If Steven knows Severin is weaker than him, Steven will surely attack Severin and steals the treasure away from Severin. Everyone including us is hiding our real power to protect ourselves from being attacked when a person finds a treasure."

Shonna rebuked. "Stop pretending. You are correct, but I'm your twin sister. We have been with each other since we were in Mom's womb. Do you think I don't know what you are thinking about?"

At that moment, Daphne felt embarrassed and said, "Well, he's really very handsome. It's a pity if he's dead. Maybe I can get his contact number if we can go back to the city together after the treasure hunt. Isn't it normal to fall for a guy as handsome as him?"

Shonna covered her mouth and giggled. "Hehe. You're finally telling the truth. But I must admit that he is really very handsome. If I see him again, I'm going to ask for his contact number too!"

"Hey! He's mine!" Daphne gave her sister an angry glare when she heard that.

Chapter 587

At that moment, the team reached a dead end. The path was blocked by a dominant cliff. Saul stopped walking.

"Saul, where are you bringing us? There's no road ahead!" Dennis scolded as he looked at the cliff.

The cliff was about twenty feet tall.

Saul smiled and pointed in a direction. "We can go in that direction but that's going to be an extra hour long. We can take the shortcut by jumping up this cliff. It's an easy job for a level four profound master. If anyone here is not a profound master that is level four or higher, he's only going to be a burden to us later.

“Haha. If this is going to save us some time, I don’t mind it!” Morris smiled and looked at Severin. “Not everyone here is here to look for treasure. If he can’t jump up the cliff, he could take the long way. No one here is obliged to protect him along the way.”

Severin’s mouth twitched a few times. This path could be a shortcut but Saul was actually trying to test their levels.

If someone failed to reach the top of the cliff, it meant he or she was not a level four profound master yet. Therefore, anyone who succeeded in jumping up the cliff was at least level four or above.

“Haha. Fine with me!” Daphne smiled with her hands folded.

Severin could not be bothered about the others. He walked to the cliff, bent his knee, and took a leap up the cliff. After that, he turned around and looked down the cliff. “Let’s go. Saul is right. This is the closest route. Let’s not waste time. There are two more cliffs similar to this one. We can save a lot of time if we take this route.”

“Haha! Not bad, kid!”

Dennis curled up his lip when he discovered the cliff was nothing to Severin. He too walked over and jumped up to the top of the cliff.

As a matter of fact, everyone on the team was very strong. With Severin’s secret technique, he could tell Steven and Shonna were the weakest among them. Despite that, they were already level eight profound masters. Hence, the cliff was no challenge to the team. By noon, they had reached the peak of the mountain since neither of them was a burden.

“You’re so amazing! I don’t see you sweat after all those jumping and hiking!”

Shonna had sweat all over her forehead. Hiking up the peak of the mountain was hard and everyone was worn out from it. Yet, Severin looked the same as before, still so calm and full of energy.

Among the group, the journey was less tiring for Saul and Dennis. This time around, the way they looked at Severin was obviously different from previously.

Severin smiled faintly and explained, “I always enjoy good training so I have a stronger physique.”

That explained everything. Some people could have a stronger body and endurance because they liked to train their bodies and not because they had a stronger level. Maybe Severin was one of those people. Morris squinted his eyes and was dubious. He also loved a good body work out so he knew those who trained their bodies often looked muscular and bulky. Severin did not match the criteria.

“Let’s rest for a while. Going downhill is easier. No walking is required. We can just jump off from here. It’s going to take just several minutes before we reached the bottom and from there we can see the forest.”

As they looked down, the thick layer of fog hover around the upper canopy of the forest leaving the forest looking foggy and hazy. That did not stop the group from feeling enthusiastic. After having their rest, the group continued with their journey.

Severin was the first to jump off the mountain. His speed was blazing fast.

“Gosh! He’s so fast. I really wonder how strong he is!”

Saul was shocked as he watched Severin jump off. Based on Severin’s speed, he reckoned Severin was at least a level nine profound master. That being said, it would be a pity if a talented person like Severin end up dead in the forest. After all, it was rare to see such a young level nine profound master.

Chapter 588

“Is he trying to show off how strong he is because there are two beautiful girls looking at him? Haha. We’ve been avoiding showing our real strength. Pft, this guy is such an idiot!”

Dennis deliberately slowed down his speed and was the last to follow. Within five minutes, the group reached the bottom..

“Come on, let’s go!” Saul said.

Dennis had an idea. “Why don’t we split up? We can cover a larger area. But let’s make a pact. The treasure belongs to the one who found it and we cannot fight over it. If someone encounters a strong half- monster that he could not defeat, the others have to go help him.”

“Alright, alright. We had talked about this before we came.”

Morris headed in a different direction impatiently. Soon, everyone was in the forest.

“Wow! A first-grade medium-rank spiritual herb!”

Not too long later, Daphne found and harvested a first-grade medium-rank spiritual herb with her eagle eyes. It was good enough to have everyone looking at it with envious eyes.

“Daphne, you’re very lucky!” Morris commented.

Daphne quickly put away the spiritual herb and said, “I guess I’m good. Look carefully and don’t let any treasure slip away!”

Quickly enough, they were further away from each other. Occasionally, they could hear monsters roaring in the forest. It had everyone putting their guard up.

“Wow! A second-grade low-rank spiritual herb!”

After not long, Daphne discovered another spiritual herb and was extremely excited about it. She looked around to see if there was anyone around her. Nervously, she squatted down to harvest it.

Suddenly, a red python appeared, hissed with its mouth open wide, and charged at her. The python was extremely long.

“What?”

When Daphne looked up, there was no time for her to escape. Her face turned pale.

‘Oh, my god! I’m going to die!’ she thought.

All of a sudden, a light flashed out and shoot out from a bush not far away from her. It struck right through the python's head.

Chapter 589

The python fell down and was dead. Daphne exhaled deeply and harvest the spiritual herb before she stood up. Severin smiled and walked out from the bush.

"It's you! You can shoot your spiritual energy like an arrow! You! You're actually a warrior king!" After the frightening moment, Daphne's face looked terrible

"I heard a monster roaring so I decided to come over to take a look."

Severin smiled. "This is a second-grade medium-rank spiritual herb. It's definitely very enticing. But you have to be careful. Normally, a guardian monster will stay around this type of spiritual herb to protect it. Although this python is a half-monster, its strength is nearly the same as a level nine profound master!"

Daphne thought about it and took a step forward to hand out the spiritual herb to Severin. "Take it. You save my life. Without you, I'll be dead by now. You can still get more benefits from it even if you are already a warrior king."

Severin was shocked because this was not an ordinary spiritual herb. It was a second-grade spiritual herb. The spiritual herb would do more good for Daphne if she consume it. Breaking through the next ranking would not be a problem at all.

"You're giving me such a precious treasure?" Severin asked curiously and did not accept it.

Daphne nodded seriously. "What's more important than my life? I know it's very rare to come across this spiritual herb. Despite that, I want to give it to you. If you consume it, your power will increase and there are more chances for you to reach the other end of the forest safely. Your purpose to be at the other end of the forest, isn't it?"

Severin was touched after hearing that. Based on what Daphne said, she did not just decide to give him, the spiritual herb because he saved her life but there were other factors too.

Severin smiled faintly and said, "It's alright. You can keep it for yourself. I don't have the time to train. I need to get moving or else I'm going to be late. This spiritual herb is more useful to you."

"Gosh! A second-grade medium-rank spiritual herb? Am I seeing it right?"

All of a sudden, Dennis came out from the other side. His eyes sparkled when he saw the spiritual herb in Daphne's hand.

Daphne was in awe when Severin refused the spiritual herb. When Dennis was walking toward them, she quickly put it away. "Yea. I guess I was lucky to find a second-grade spiritual herb here when we're not in the deeper part of the forest yet."

Dennis looked happy as he walked over. "You can't find this treasure anywhere you want."

Daphne's instinct had her keep her guard up. However, she was less scared when she knew Dennis did not know how strong she actually was. "Yeah. Since I can find one here, maybe you can find one somewhere else too!"

"Tsk, tsk. I do hope so. But it's not that easy. Other than entering the deeper part of the forest, it's really hard to find one around here. Plus, we're not daring enough to venture into the deeper part of the forest, right?"

As he finished talking, he quickly threw his fist at Daphne.

"Damn, you!" Daphne frowned immediately. Luckily she was well-prepared. She clenched her hand and covered it with her spiritual energy to tackle Dennis' punch. However, Daphne was sent flying into the sky the next second their punches met.

Chapter 590

Severin moved and appeared behind Daphne. He grabbed her waist and landed on the ground. Even so, Daphne grunted in pain and there was blood coming out from the corner of her mouth.

"Level nine profound master! Not bad! Haha!"

After being stunned for a moment, Dennis let out a wave of laughter. Daphne looked surprised! "You're actually a warrior king!"

After that, she said angrily, "When we were forming the team, you said you're a level seven profound master. I bet you were deliberately being the last person to jump off the mountain just now!"

Dennis said, "Girl, why are you so stupid? No one will tell the truth at the start. Precautions are necessary, isn't it? Hand over the spiritual herb and I can spare you your life!"

"He's a level two warrior king!" Severin said after letting go of Daphne.

"You! How did you know? Not bad. I tried hard to hide my real strength just now!" Dennis frowned, "But it's useless. I'm taking the spiritual herb no matter what!"

He took a look at Daphne's long leg and continued, "I'm going to kill him first and have you pleasure me before I take away your spiritual herb. Don't worry. I'm going to spare your life if you bring lots of pleasure to me."

"You shameless jerk! Aren't you afraid that my sister or the others might come over?" Daphne asked with her gritted teeth and angry glare.

That did not scare Dennis. "Haha. Of course, I'm not scared because they had headed in the other direction. Even if they heard the sound and come over to help you to fight me, I'm still not afraid of them. They can never defeat me because I'm a level two warrior king!"

"I don't mind sending you to hell for being such a shameless guy!" Severin said faintly.

When they were heading to the forest, he sensed that Dennis was acting well. Very often, he found Dennis secretly peeking at Daphne's and Shonna's bodies. His assumption was right. Dennis had finally shown his real j*ckass personality.

Severin took out a black pill and gave it to Daphne. "This is a healing pill that I made myself. It will take just a few minutes to heal your injury. Leave this pervert to me!"

Daphne had no idea which level of warrior king Severin was at but she knew Severin was already a warrior king. She nodded, swallowed the pill, and sat on the ground with her legs folded to heal her injury.

"Haha! So exaggerating. I get that you are a warrior king too if you dare to say that. How rare to see such a young warrior king!" Dennis said while staring at Severin.

"It doesn't matter if I'm a warrior king or not. I just need to be strong enough to kill you!" Severin said with a cold smile.

"Haha! You're so good at bragging. Or are you trying to scare me because you think I don't know what rank you're at? Do you seriously think I'm going to believe that crap?"

Dennis laughed out loud because he thought Severin was trying to trick him.
