

After Rebirth, Mrs. He Dotes On Her Husband chapter 12

Chapter 12: The Runaway Wild Horse

Translator: Dragon Boat Translation Editor: Dragon Boat Translation

When He Qiu Shan heard this, he was even more furious, "You still have the face to say that? Who gave you the guts to hit my daughter? You're doing this on purpose, aren't you?"

"Who said I did it on purpose? He Yeli was the one who disrespected Second Sister-in-law first. Father, don't you want to hear what the eldest daughter of the He family has to say before you teach her a lesson?" Chen Wei'er crossed her arms in front of her chest, not the least bit intimidated by He Qiu Shan's imposing manner.

"I didn't say anything!" He Yeli naturally could not admit it, so she kept crying in He Qiu Shan's arms.

Chen Wei'er sneered. "You didn't respect Second Sister-in-law. You used a lecturing tone and said that Second Sister-in-law is merely a guest and not a member of the He family. Isn't this what you said?"

He Yeli's body stiffened, and she subconsciously shouted, "No, I didn't!"

He Song's face turned cold. "Bi Xinduo, did she truly say that?"

Bi Xinduo had a gentle personality and had never said anything about He Yeli. But now that Chen Wei'er had exposed her, there was no need for her to hide it. "Yeli is still young and insensible. It's okay."

"Dad, did your daughter not treat us as part of the He family? How does this count?" He Zui was originally standing behind his two younger brothers. It wasn't appropriate for him to interfere in the matters between women. But now, when he heard Chen Wei'er's words, he was immediately enraged. He was the eldest brother, and he had protected his younger brothers since they were young. Now, someone was strictly standing right in front of him and bullying his younger brother and sister-in-law. How could he tolerate this?

At first, he thought that Chen Wei'er was deliberately looking for trouble to fight with He Yeli. After all, Chen Wei'er had too many "criminal records", so it was hard not to be suspicious. But now, the character was completely different.

He Qiu Shan had always been afraid of his eldest son. After all, when he had married Luo Qionglan, his eldest son had already become capable. Yet, he had still made him a mere figurehead without even batting an eye! So after He Zui spoke, he didn't say a word.

Upon seeing this, Luo Qionglan immediately wiped her tears and said, "It's my fault as a stepmother. Ever since I married into the He family, none of my sons respected me, and I didn't mind. But now, they actually ganged up to bully me and my daughter, I..."

"You're too noisy!" He Xun's eyes were as cold as ice, and Luo Qionglan couldn't help but shiver.

"It's truly wrong of me to hit someone, but I'm He Yeli's Third Sister-in-law. Since Father and Aunt Luo didn't teach her to respect people, we have the right to teach her." Chen Wei'er's face had an unruly expression, and her aura was sharp.

Luo Qionglan glanced at her, but she could not say anything.

"He Yeli, apologize to your second and third sisters-in-law!" He Zui's tone was unfriendly.

He Qiu Shan could only negotiate with He Zui, "Yeli is still a child. You're both adults. Why are you still arguing with a child?"

Chen Wei'er laughed directly. He Yeli was only a year younger than He Xun, but she was still a child? Chen Wei'er picked up He Youyou, who was standing beside Bi Xinduo, and rubbed her chubby little face. "Your aunt and your mother are being bullied by Aunt Yeli. Youyou, do you want to help us?"

Although He Youyou was only three years old, she had seen how He Yeli had bullied her mother upstairs. Her aunt had helped her mother, so she nodded her head firmly. "Protect Mom!"

Chen Wei'er laughed. "Then, Auntie will say a word, and Youyou will say a word too, okay?"

He Youyou nodded. "Sure!"

Chen Wei'er curved her lips and raised her eyebrows, "Aunt Yeli is uneducated!"

"Aunt Ye Li has no manners!" He Youyou followed suit.

"Grandpa and Grandma didn't teach you well!"

"Grandpa and Grandma didn't teach you well!"

Although He Youyou was young, her pronunciation was clear. Her childish voice spread throughout the hall, and no one dared to speak.

Scolding someone in front of them was truly ruthless!

“Chen Wei’er, what are you doing?” Luo Qionglan’s eyes were red with anger.

“Oh? Aunt Luo, you’re already so old, yet you’re still arguing with me, a junior. Now, you’re even arguing with Youyou, a three-year-old? Didn’t Father just say it? Don’t be calculative with a child?” Chen Wei’er said calmly.

However, the others were not calm at all. Luo Qionglan pointed at the person and could not say a word. She was so angry that she was trembling.

He Qiu Shan’s face darkened as he was being lectured in front of everyone for not being able to teach his daughter well. “Third Eldest’s wife, you’re too unruly!”

“Youyou is her name. But she’s considered rude? Could it be that according to Father’s partiality, a 23-year-old should be called a child and a 3-year-old should not be called a child?” Chen Wei’er continued.

He Qiu Shan’s eyes rolled back in his head. This was the daughter-in-law whom he had carefully selected and thought was easy to control? How could this be easy to control? She was completely out of control! Whoever touched her would be angered to death!

He Song walked over and carried He Youyou back. “Youyou, thank your aunt.”

Visit n0velbin.NET for the best novel reading experience

“Thank you, Auntie,” He Youyou said with a smile.

“No need to thank me.” Chen Wei’er really liked chubby children and couldn’t help but pinch her face again.

“Dad, since the He family doesn’t welcome us, we won’t be staying any longer.” He Song held his daughter and held Bi Xinduo’s hand. They were his two most important women. Now that his family had called them guests, it was fine if his family did not come.