

Revenge On Love Rats After Rebirth by Olivia Marsh Chapter 1323 Exposure

Chapter 1323 Exposure

"Don't worry about what happened at the banquet yesterday, Selena. And don't pay attention to any rumors that might come out from outside," Patrick said.

Selena blinked in confusion and asked, "What happened at the banquet yesterday?"

Patrick was taken aback. He stared at Selena for a moment, and then chuckled softly when he realized that she really didn't remember anything. "It's nothing. It's just that the Shaw family might spread some rumors about you because they're upset that you stole Vivian's thunder. But don't worry about it, Selena."

Selena naturally wouldn't take such a trivial matter to heart. She was about to speak, but her phone on the table suddenly vibrated.

Patrick looked at the number, answered the call, and Principal Chow's voice came through immediately. "Patrick, has Selena arrived at the Turner family's residence?"

Patrick looked up at Selena, and she reached out her hand. He handed her the phone, and Selena spoke in a calm tone, "What's up, Mr. Chow?"

Principal Chow's tone immediately softened quite a bit. "Well, Selena, it's like this. Capital University has a lecture scheduled for today, but the professor who was supposed to give it has some last-minute issues and can't come. Do you have the time to come and give a lecture to these students?"

Selena was taken aback for a moment, and then she remembered that she had promised to give a lecture to Capital University students before. She smiled and replied, "Sure, I don't have anything else going on today. I can leave now."

"Great!" Principal Chow's excitement and joy could be felt through the phone. "I'll have them prepare right away."

Before Selena could say anything, the call was already disconnected.

Selena laughed, stood up, and said to Patrick, "Patrick, I'm going to Capital University."

Patrick looked at the busy girl in front of him and personally sent her off to the car.

Forty minutes later, Selena's car stopped outside the gates of Capital University. She walked towards the auditorium with Leia. As soon as she walked through the door, she was stunned by the sea of people inside.

The auditorium, which could hold a thousand people, was now packed to capacity. Even the surrounding areas were filled with people standing.

With a quick glance, Selena noticed that there were not only students but also many professors and teachers in the audience.

Selena calmly walked up to the lectern, looked at the many students who didn't have seats, hesitated for a moment, and then said directly, "You don't have to go through so much trouble. We can record a video, and you can watch it later."

As soon as she finished speaking, there were immediate responses from the audience below.

"How can watching a video compare to the excitement of watching a champion in person?"

"Professor Turner, you don't need to worry about us. Being able to attend a lecture by a beautiful professor like you is an honor for us!"

"Selena, we've been waiting for this opportunity for so long. You have to talk more today!"

Since it became known that Selena only read the information Callum left behind twice and learned the technique of artificial blood vessel replacement, all the medical students at Capital University have gone crazy.

Selena was appointed as a professor at Capital University, which was the result of their collective petition.

Selena stood tall on the podium, looking at the expectant eyes with a smile. Before coming, Principal Chow had already sent her the topic for today's class.

Selena had experience teaching at the research institute, and she performed without any abnormalities.

In the quiet auditorium, her gentle and pleasant voice echoed.

All the students were focused, fearing that they would miss any details.

Two hours later, Selena put down her whiteboard marker and smiled slightly, "That's all for today's class, you're dismissed."

After she finished, she nodded at the students and walked backstage.

The students behind her wanted to express their unfulfilled feelings, but were suddenly glared at by the surrounding girls.

The group of students had to control their emotions and watched Selena disappear in front of them.

After Selena left, the girls spoke up, "Did you forget what the principal said?!"

"Exactly, Selena spoke for two hours, which is already a lot. Are you trying to tire her out?"

"Just based on today's content, it's enough for us to study for a long time. Be content, you bunch of singles!"

Everyone was speechless. It must be said that Selena's popularity among the girls was unmatched by anyone else.

Selena returned to the backstage, and Leia immediately handed her a glass of water.

After Selena finished drinking, she rested for a while, and when it was almost time for lunch, she walked out.

As soon as she walked out of the auditorium, she was caught by the two Cooke sisters who had been waiting for her.

The two girls didn't like to study, and Selena occasionally helped them, so they generously gave their chance to see Selena to others.

When Nova saw Selena, she ran over, "Selena, Selena, do you want to have lunch with us today?"

"I found a very delicious restaurant, and I'll treat you!"

Since knowing that Selena had never been to an amusement park since she was a child, Nova often brought her some delicious and fun things.

Selena looked at the girl's excited face and turned to ask Leia, "Will the young master come back at noon?"

Leia shook her head, "The young master called and said he'll come back at night. Madam Selena, you can go out and have fun."

Encouraging Selena to be playful was also the common goal of everyone in the castle.

Selena agreed, "Let's go."

The Cooke sisters cheered and took Selena to the car.

Leia drove, and the three girls sat in the back seat and headed to the restaurant Nova mentioned.

Along the way, Nova said to Selena, "Selena, you didn't care about what happened online. You did the right thing, and no one dared to curse at you..."

Selena raised her eyebrows and turned her head to ask, "What happened online?"

The last time she went online was a month ago, but she hadn't seen any major news recently, so there shouldn't be any problems online...

Leia realized it was not good the moment Nova spoke, but before she could change the topic, Nova had already said, "It's that video..."

Selena frowned and subconsciously reached for her phone.

Leia watched this scene and felt like dying.

Although she knew that she couldn't hide it forever, she thought of Selena's possible reaction after knowing that her image had been ruined...

Leia trembled and drove silently, trying to minimize her presence. During the moment Selena was looking for her phone, Candy also spoke up, "Selena, you did nothing wrong. When it comes to dealing with a woman who wants to steal your boyfriend, you can't be polite!"

"You were still too good to that woman. If it were me, hmp!"

Selena paused her search for her phone and looked up at the Cooke sisters, "What woman?"

From the Cooke sisters' words, it seemed that she had a conflict with a woman, and the source of the conflict was still Osvaldo...

Selena listened and her expression became inexplicably unpleasant.
