

Revenge On Love Rats After Rebirth by Olivia Marsh Chapter 1332 Do You Miss Me?

Chapter 1332 Do You Miss Me?

With the cold and ruthless treatment that the Riddle family had shown Nevaeh and Selena, it was already the best outcome that Selena didn't retaliate against them.

Trying to make her be the Riddle family's granddaughter again and treat the Riddle family's elderly as her own family... Was that a joke?

Hattie looked at Selena's expression and breathed a sigh of relief only after she was sure that Selena wasn't angry. She lay on Selena's lap and told her about recent events in the Riddle family.

In the evening, Selena sent Hattie back to the Riddle residence. Then, at the gate, she saw Leon waiting there to pick up Hattie.

Leon stood elegantly by the roadside, watching as the car stopped in front of him and Hattie jumped out of the back seat. Then, she turned back to talk to Selena.

As Leon watched the two sisters say their goodbyes, a hint of complexity flashed in his eyes. After Selena's car left, Hattie's face instantly turned cold. She looked up at Leon and said coldly, "Grandfather followed me today and met Selena, which made Selena angry."

Although she was too far away to hear exactly what Selena and Maddox had said, it was clear that the two had fallen out. Moreover, it was easy to guess why Maddox had come to Selena at this critical moment.

Leon's brow furrowed immediately. "What did they say?" he asked.

Hattie shook her head. "Selena wouldn't let me listen, but I can guess..."

She paused for a moment and her tone turned even colder. "Grandfather and grandmother have been spoiling Penelope with all their heart for the past decade or so, and they can't even remember that they have a granddaughter like Selena!"

"Now that they see Selena has become powerful, they are eager to use the blood relationship to force her to recognize them and recognize the Riddle family..."

"Brother, don't you think their behavior is just too ugly?"

Even Leon, when it came to how the Riddle family treated Selena and Nevaeh, could not defend the elderly Riddles. After all, their treatment of Selena and Nevaeh had been too cruel and hopeless. Especially now that Lady Selena was so powerful...

Leon ruffled Hattie's hair. "Don't worry about them."

If at this critical juncture, the Riddle family's elderly couple still couldn't discern the truth and used their familial relationship to seek attention from Selena, no one would be able to save them.

Hattie's face only became slightly better when she saw that Leon wasn't biased towards Maddox and Daphne. Holding Hattie's hand, Leon walked towards the building.

"Brother, tomorrow morning is the election for the new dean of the research institute. Can Selena help us regain the Turner family's sovereignty in the institute?"

Leon looked at Hattie's dark eyes, not sure how to answer the question. After all, the research institute was the territory of the Poole family and the Shaw family.

They had been dominating for many years and had enormous power.

Furthermore, according to the information he received, the Shaw family had already cooperated with Cassius. The Turner family's bloodline had declined, and except for Selena, there was no other support within the institute.

Even if a 19-year-old girl was very powerful, it would be too difficult for her to sit in that position and fight alone under the threat of wolves.

But seeing the hope in Hattie's eyes, Leon couldn't bear to see she disappointed and comforted her with a smile, "When has Selena ever lost?"

"She has turned defeat into victory so many times, and she will definitely succeed tomorrow."

Selena's cold face suddenly showed a smile, and she asked, "Then brother, if grandfather asks you to make a move against Selena, will you agree?"

Leon laughed and patted she's head, "Do I look like such a stupid person?"

Hattie's eyes didn't move as she stared at him. She was clearly asking for a definite answer!

After a moment of silence, Leon asked unpleasantly, "What if I decide to go against her? What will you do?"

Hattie's face immediately turned cold, she retracted her hand, and looked up at Leon, "Then I will give all the shares within the Riddle's, my mother's and my own, to Selena, to support her to compete with you for the Riddle family's inheritance!"

Leon: This little traitor...

Leon rubbed her head heavily, and seeing Hattie's worried expression, he said with a smile, "Don't worry, there's a wolf watching over Selena. With him around, it's hard for her to fail."

Hattie thought of Osvaldo, and muttered under her breath, "Osvaldo hasn't been doing well lately, letting Selena get into trouble with that woman from the Shaw family..."

Leon remembered the recent news he had received, suppressing some unknown emotions in his heart, and took Hattie's hand, leading her towards the brightly lit hall. "Everything he does is for her good..."

At six o'clock, Selena returned to the villa.

Dinner was already laid out on the table, and the maid greeted her as she walked in, helping her take off her coat while saying, "Madam Selena, young master just called. He'll be home in three minutes."

Selena's dark eyes lit up immediately.

She had been busy these past few days, and Osvaldo had been busy as well.

They slept in the same bed at night, but hardly had time to eat together.

The man had clearly taken time out to come back and have dinner with her. Selena smiled sweetly and sat at the table, looking expectantly towards the door.

Osvaldo never broke his promises. He said three minutes, and he would not be a second late.

Sure enough, three minutes later, he appeared in Selena's sight. Selena happily went up to greet him, "You're back."

Osvaldo looked at his girl, just like any other wife waiting at home for her husband to return, with a happy expression on his face, touched in his heart. His deep black eyes suddenly became full of tenderness.

He lowered his head and kissed her rosy lips, watching as she covered her cheeks, looking sweet and shy, and his heart grew even softer. "Selena, did you miss me?"

Selena blinked her eyes, shy, "I did..."

Even though the man was right beside her and hadn't been away from her for too long, there was an inexplicable yearning.

Osvaldo's thin lips curved up slightly, he was hugging her arms even tighter, "If you miss me in the future, give me a call."

Selena never took the initiative to call him unless there was something wrong. No, even if something happened, she wouldn't call him.

She was always afraid of delaying his important business because of her.

She was so obedient and sensible that it made people feel sorry for her. This kind of thinking was deeply ingrained in Selena's mind and would take a long time to change.

But she had learned to say she liked him and missed him.

She had already tried to open up to him and actively touch his things...
