You Something Interesting Later Chapter 1391 I'll Show You Something Interesting Later

And she wouldn't say a word to the Turner family. Knowing her temperament, no one dared to keep an eye on her all the time.

So every time she caused a big uproar, not only her enemies, but also those close to her were frightened. Selena observed Osvaldo's expression and breathed a sigh of relief after confirming that the man showed no signs of anger.

She never expected that Nicholas would dare to attack her so openly in front of so many people.

His level of viciousness and shamelessness exceeded everyone's expectations.

Or maybe Nicholas had something to rely on and was completely fearless?

Thinking of Manny, who was slapped by her and left early, Selena's eyes flashed with cold light.

Selena held Osvaldo's arm and her icy gaze fell on Aurelia's pale face. "Miss Bennett, do you think your explanation is reasonable?"

Aurelia met Selena's sharp eyes and shook her head with a lack of confidence. "I just wanted to know the reason, I definitely didn't mean to harm Miss Turner."

Seeing that Selena's expression didn't relax at all, Aurelia trembled and looked at Osvaldo standing next to Selena. She spoke softly, "I'm new to the capital, and I have no grudges with Miss Turner. I come from a humble background and have no prominent family background or wealth. How could I dare to offend the young lady of the Turner family?"

"I have been studying gambling for more than twenty years, and I have been obsessed with this path for the first half of my life. I was unwilling to lose to Miss Turner, so I misspoke and said the wrong thing."

"Miss Turner, this whole thing was my fault alone. Please forgive me."

After speaking, she deeply bowed to Selena.

A hint of amusement appeared on Selena's face.

Undeniably, Aurelia was a smart person.

She didn't rush to deny like everyone else, but instead took all the blame for herself.

She even found a plausible reason, so if Selena got too angry, it would seem like making a big deal out of nothing.

Nicholas looked at Aurelia with increasing satisfaction. The hostess of a wealthy family needed to be someone with this kind of resourcefulness, who understood the advantages and disadvantages and could handle things.

Those without means or too foolish were doomed to die soon.

In the silence, Selena gave a smile. "So, Miss Bennett, do you admit that you can't afford to lose?"

Aurelia's slender body trembled with anger.

She raised her head, stared at Selena with a sharp gaze, and gritted her teeth. "Miss Turner, I haven't lost yet!"

She still had the biggest trump card!

Selena looked at her playfully. "Oh?"

"The crime of disrespecting Miss Turner, I will personally go and apologize to her later, but..."

Aurelia straightened her body and looked Selena in the eye. "I haven't lost to you yet!"

The huge stone she bought for seventy million dollars was her capital for a comeback.

The Bennett family had been dealing with stones their entire life and rarely made mistakes.

Besides, she had known the purpose of today's gambling stone event early on.

She had carefully selected that stone as a token of love to give to Alfie.

It was related to whether she could win that man's heart and whether she could make a stunning appearance and firmly establish herself in the capital. To ensure that there were no problems, she had Wyatt check it ahead of time.

Unless something unexpected happened, that stone was sure to yield a mutated jadeite of emperor green. The mutated jadeite of emperor green was enough for her to make a comeback. Selena looked at the woman with ambitious eyes and her tone became a bit subtle, "Let's continue then."

Leia was a bit unwilling to let Aurelia off the hook so easily. "Madam Selena..."

That woman had clearly had ill intentions and deliberately tried to harm Selena. How could they just let it go so easily?

The Soo family and Aurelia were getting off too cheaply! Selena smiled meaningfully, "Don't worry, they won't get off cheaply."

Aurelia's heart, which she had been holding, finally dropped. She thought the matter had been resolved and her expression regained its gentle and dignified composure. She focused her proud and determined gaze on the only huge stone left in front of her. "Let's open this one!"

As soon as Aurelia spoke, everyone's spirits trembled with excitement.

They all focused their attention on the stone. This stone was larger than all the stones before it combined.

If they really opened a piece of emperor green of this size, even if Aurelia couldn't make a comeback today, she wouldn't lose too badly.

If luck was better and they opened a piece of mutated jadeite of emperor green this large, then Selena's eight pieces of mutated jadeite of emperor green wouldn't mean much. As soon as everyone thought of the consequences, their spines tingled.

With her gaze fixed on the huge stone, Selena watched as several men worked together to lift it onto the largest stonecutting machine.

Taking advantage of the moment, Selena tugged on Osvaldo's sleeve. "Why did you suddenly come?" she asked.

Osvaldo, with his long, jade-like fingers, pinched her nose. "If I didn't come, they would bully you," he replied.

Selena blinked.

She wanted to say that she wasn't that easy to bully, but she remembered Nicholas' actions just now and swallowed her words.

She looked at Osvaldo and smiled. "I'll show you something fun later."

Selena was always one to retaliate for any slight. How could she not get back at Nicholas for what he did to her?

Selena seemed to remember something amusing, and her smile revealed a hint of dark mischief.

After hearing that Selena had gone to the Soo family's gambling stone competition, the Turner family had been keeping a close eye on the event.

When they heard that Nicholas had dared to openly order his men to harm Selena, Patrick's eyes turned icy. "Does Nicholas think the Turner family won't touch him?"

Oscar tapped his chair arm with his long fingers, his tone even. "Nicholas only cares about one thing in his life, and that is the rise and fall of the Soo family."

From his treatment of Alfie, one could guess that in Nicholas' heart, the descendants of the Soo family were merely stepping stones to help the Soo family climb higher. Unless the Soo family fell completely and there was nothing left to make him feel heartache and regret.

Patrick heard something in Oscar's words and turned to him. "Father, what should we do?"

Selena couldn't just be bullied by the Soo family like this.

"That girl probably has her own plans." With Osvaldo by Selena's side, Oscar wasn't too worried about her. Others might not be able to do it, but Selena definitely knew how to make Nicholas pay.

Compared to Selena, he was more concerned about something else.

Oscar pondered for a moment before speaking up.

"Don't you think something's off about the Riddle family?"

Patrick was taken aback.

Oscar rarely spoke with such a doubtful tone.

Usually, anything he said was already a confirmed fact.

Due to the coldness and cruelty of the Riddle family towards Selena and Nevaeh, Patrick was very disgusted with the Riddle family and didn't pay much attention to them. After hearing Oscar's words, he thought carefully for a moment and asked, "What's wrong with what my father said?"

"Many things," Oscar replied calmly. "The death of the Riddle family's second young lady, their disregard and ruthlessness towards all their daughters, the second young master suddenly taking another wife, and Maddox suddenly agreeing to marry into the Soo family... none of it makes sense."

Although the old couple from the Riddle family were never good people to begin with, their mistreatment of Nevaeh made it seem almost inevitable that they would also mistreat Selena.

But Oscar still felt that there were many things that didn't add up.

Patrick frowned. "Selena was close to the Riddle family's young lady, and she should know something about the second young lady's death."

Oscar remembered how the Riddle family had brazenly brought their mistress and illegitimate daughter to the gambling convention today, and how Selena had beaten up the woman. After a moment of contemplation, he instructed, "Keep an eye on her for a while."

Patrick knew that "her" referred to Selena. The woman Selena had beaten up was not likely to let it go easily, given how vicious she was.

He nodded. "I'll go pick up Selena after the gambling convention is over."

As for the abnormalities within the Riddle family, the Turner family didn't have the standing to pay too much attention to them, and could only rely on Leon to investigate.

...

At the gambling convention.

Everyone held their breath and stared unblinkingly at the stone-cutting machine.

Aurelia pointed to the spot where the green emerged and said confidently, "Start cutting from here."

This was an emperor green jade of considerable size, and most stone-cutting masters wouldn't dare to touch it lightly.

The stone-cutters wiped the sweat from their foreheads and, with the help of a few assistants, began to cut the stone.

As the sound of the cutting grew louder and louder, everyone's hearts grew tighter and tighter.

Aurelia took the opportunity to glance at Selena. After all, such a large piece of emperor green jade was something that no one could afford to ignore.

And this is also the only stone that Selena has ever fought with her for.

Aurelia didn't quite believe that she was only doing this to retaliate against Edith's disrespect. She was more inclined to think that Selena was also interested in this stone, but gave up because she wasn't sure if it could yield an imperial green.

Aurelia originally thought she would see Selena nervous and uneasy, but she didn't expect Selena to be talking to her boyfriend, not even glancing in her direction.

This dismissive attitude made Aurelia feel inexplicably uncomfortable. The stone she got before was no match for Selena, which made her feel particularly frustrated, as someone who had never been defeated.

At the critical moment, the fact that the other party still didn't regard her as an opponent at all, made Aurelia feel a painful blow to her self-esteem.

Unable to bear it any longer, Aurelia spoke up, "Miss Turner, won't you come and take a look at this stone?"

Selena was originally talking to Osvaldo. When she heard Aurelia's words, she turned to look at her and said, "There's nothing worth looking at."

Naturally, there was no need to pay special attention. Aurelia held back for a moment, but couldn't resist anymore, "Miss Bennett, are you looking down on me?" She had thrown the gauntlet at Selena to challenge her, but the other party had such an attitude. It was unpleasant to think about it.

Selena didn't intend to pay any attention to Aurelia, but the latter's persistence interrupted her conversation with Osvaldo.

Selena smiled and finally turned her attention to the stone that Aurelia was opening, her expression becoming playful.

"Since Miss Bennett is so sincere in her invitation, I guess I can take a look," she said in a domineering tone, making Aurelia clench her fists in anger.

She smiled, "I hope you can still be so confident later."

Selena glanced at her and her playful expression intensified, "Thank you, Miss Bennett."

Aurelia turned to her own mother and ignored Selena, focusing all her attention on the stone.

Hattie looked at Selena's calm expression, although she had confidence in Selena, but this stone...

She had asked her brother and it was highly likely to yield the best imperial green.

Hattie held Selena's hand and couldn't help but tighten her grip.

Selena sensed she's anxiety and stroked her hair, "Don't worry, everything will be fine."

Hattie whispered, "Thank you, Selena."

She knew that if it wasn't for her, Selena wouldn't have come to the Soo family's territory, let alone gamble on stones.

If Selena lost today, the Soo family would definitely use this opportunity to mock her and let Aurelia step on her to take over.

Selena said with a smile, "It's okay, don't worry."

Although Selena said this, she couldn't control her nerves. She opened her eyes wide and watched as the huge stone was peeled away.

In the suffocating silence, the stone cutter made the first cut.

Because the cut was made next to the imperial green that had been exposed, Aurelia had high hopes that this cut would reveal some green.

But to her surprise, nothing appeared.

The green remained the same, without any additional hue.

Aurelia gritted her teeth and said, "Continue!"

It was not realistic to expect the entire stone to contain green, so perhaps they needed to make more cuts. The stone cutter heard her words and continued cutting.

After several more cuts, still no green appeared.

Aurelia's face began to show her frustration.

She looked at the exposed imperial green and noticed that it extended from the middle. She said, "Continue cutting along this area."

The stone cutter wiped the sweat from his forehead and, together with a few other people, rotated the stone and continued cutting.

Aurelia watched closely.

After a few more cuts, the area where green was most likely to appear still remained the same.

Aurelia's heart began to panic, and the people around her also became anxious.

"Why isn't there any green?"

"We've made so many cuts already. Even if we do find some green, it probably won't be as good as Selena's..."

"With so much of it exposed, it's impossible for there not to be green. Mutated jade is usually small in size.

You can see that from what Selena opened."

Aurelia panicked at first but then calmed herself down after hearing the last sentence.

Yes!

That must be it!

Mutated jade is usually small, so it's normal not to find any green. After comforting herself, Aurelia turned to look at Alfie, hoping for some support and comfort, but he was not looking at her.

He kept his eyes down, avoiding everyone's gaze.

Aurelia's eyes began to turn rosy.

Chapter 1393 Rare Treasure

Aurelia looked at Alfie with resentment and then back at the stone she had carefully selected. Despite being cut smaller and smaller, there was still no hint of new green.

Aurelia's heart sank with it.

When the stone was only half its original size, the stonecutter stopped subconsciously, hesitating whether to continue cutting it.

Aurelia stared at the stone and said in a hoarse voice, "Keep cutting!"

The cheers and flattery from those who sought Aurelia's favor gradually faded away as the stone got smaller and smaller.

In a moment of silence, the stone that was once the size of a table was finally fully cut. But there was no green left except for the palm-sized emperor green on the exposed corner.

It was a complete waste stone!

Aurelia's vision went black, and she trembled, almost fainting on the spot.

She had spent seventy million dollars on a waste stone! Other than the top-quality blood beauty she had opened, the other jadeite she purchased were all ordinary, making it impossible for her to recover her investment.

Roughly calculating, she had lost over a billion dollars! This was a real bloodbath!

Wyatt looked at Aurelia's devastated look and patted her shoulder, then turned his investigative gaze to Selena's face.

Gambling on stones was all about luck, and making mistakes was normal.

Compared to Aurelia's failure, he was more interested in how Selena managed to have a one hundred percent success rate.

"Miss Turner, it's your turn."

With Wyatt's words, everyone's attention was drawn to Selena.

Obviously, Aurelia had lost in this gambling match!

Even if Selena's last stone was also a waste stone, she could still thoroughly crush Aurelia and the Soo family's face with the eight mutated jadeites she had opened.

Nicholas' face was now black and frightening.

Amid the various expressions of the onlookers, Selena took a step forward while holding Osvaldo's hand and pointed to the only stone left on the ground in front of her. With a sweet smile, she asked, "This is the gift I picked for you. Do you like it?"

Everyone's gaze then fell on that stone, and they exclaimed in surprise. "Ah, isn't this the 'turtle'?! That was the first stone Selena picked, and many people used it to mock her."

But looking at the jade that Selena brought out and thinking about Miss Turner's picky nature, how could it be simple for her to choose a stone that caught her eye at first glance and give it to her boyfriend?

At once, everyone's gaze on the stone became nervous and uneasy.

Aurelia trembled as she moved her gaze away.

How could such a misshapen stone produce good jade?

This contradicted the knowledge she had gained over the past twenty years, so Aurelia couldn't imagine what kind of good jade could come out of this stone.

Osvaldo glanced at the "adorable" turtle and his lips curled slightly. "I like it."

He knew how high his wife's standards were.

Anything she chose to give as a gift must be good.

Selena's smile became even sweeter as she pointed to the middle line on the back of the stone and said, "Cut along it and be gentle with the knife."

As soon as she spoke, the young man helping Selena to extract the jade immediately started working and moved the stone up.

Given Selena's reliability, she had specifically instructed him to be gentle, so the young man was extremely light in his movements.

As the first cut was made, a bright black light shone into everyone's eyes.

The eyes of the crowd were momentarily dazzled by the light, and they instinctively closed their eyes and looked away.

Then, the group suddenly reacted and all turned their gazes back to the stone, their eyes becoming extremely hot.

What entered their eyes was a pitch-black black color. This black was very special, as if the whole sky had darkened, but it was also particularly transparent. Even though they were so far away, they could feel the indescribable transparency of that color.

"This is--" Even Wyatt, who had been unchanging in expression, took a few steps forward in a panic. Aurelia trembled all over.

The young man extracting the jade breathed heavily, and his hands trembled a bit.

With the first cut revealing the jade, he didn't dare to use the jade-extracting machine, so he simply took a knife and ground it down bit by bit.

As the young man worked, more and more black spread out before everyone's eyes. Although no one at the scene recognized what kind of jade it was, everyone who saw it had one thought in their minds. A rare and precious treasure!

Everyone stared without blinking until the black jade was completely extracted.

The young man held it in his palm and walked up to Selena, his voice trembling uncontrollably, "Miss Turner, your jade..."

Selena took the jade, observed it in her hand for a moment, and after confirming that it was good, she looked up at the man behind her and asked, "Would you like me to make a bracelet for you with it?"

Oswaldo had nice hands.

Selena imagined how handsome he would look with a bracelet made from this jade on his wrist.

Oswaldo stared at the black jade, not reminding his wife that this type of jade was usually used for making Buddhist prayer beads.

The man lowered his dark lashes and smiled indulgently, "Okay."

"I have seen this type of jade before," Wyatt's admiring voice suddenly came through, "in a very old and large family.

There were a total of eleven, some large and some small."

"It was considered a family heirloom, and they called this type of jade 'Sky Pearl.' I never thought that I would be able to see it opened in my lifetime."

Selena handed the black jade to Leia to put away, then looked up at Wyatt and said, "You flatter me, Mr. Bennett."

She glanced at Aurelia, whose already pale face had turned even paler, and then her gaze fell on the "turtle" on the ground, which had a piece of black jade missing from its back. She said with a smile, "I can only say that I'm lucky enough."

The young man who had extracted the stone looked at the "turtle" on the ground, with only a piece missing from its back, and asked, "Miss Turner, do you want to continue?"

Selena shook her head, "No need."

Even though Selena had seen many treasures, she couldn't help but sigh at how well this "turtle" had grown. Other than the missing piece of black jade on its back, everything else was empty. It truly concentrated all its essence in one place.

Hearing Selena's words, the hearts of the group of people who had been holding their breaths finally fell back into place.

It was fortunate that only a small piece was extracted. If an entire piece had been opened, someone might have been unable to resist the temptation and had some sinister thoughts.

Wyatt fixed his sharp gaze on Selena's face and asked, "Miss Turner, can you tell me how you picked this stone now?"

Rebirth by Olivia Marsh Chapter
1394 The Reason
Chapter 1394 The Reason

With just a few words from Wyatt, the tense atmosphere in the room immediately tightened again. All eyes fell on Selena's face, unable to hide their greed and heat.

Aurelia's gaze was particularly intense.

Selena's ability to pick stones was simply incredible! Everyone knew that there must be something fishy about it.

And Selena had said that she would reveal her method of picking stones to everyone after the gambling was over.

Facing the intense and excited or anxious gazes in the hall, Selena looked at Aurelia and smiled slightly, "Miss Bennett,

are you admitting defeat?"

Aurelia's face was ashen.

She didn't want to admit defeat!

But in the situation where she had lost all her money, she had no other choice but to admit defeat.

Aurelia turned to look at Alfie.

The man was looking at Selena from beginning to end and had never looked at her.

A look of sadness flashed in Aurelia's eyes, and she looked at Nicholas with an apologetic gaze, "I'm sorry, Mr. Soo..."

Nicholas' face was stiff. Although he felt disappointed with Aurelia in his heart, he couldn't explode in front of everyone.

He said in a low voice, "Winning and losing is a common thing in war. One defeat doesn't mean anything. You can win it back in the future."

Aurelia felt even more guilty after hearing this, and she deeply lowered her head. After a moment, she raised her head and looked at Selena, gritting her teeth, "Yes, Miss Turner, I lost today."

And with Aurelia's admission of defeat, it meant that the Soo family had lost as well.

Sure enough, after Aurelia said these words, the members of the Soo family faction looked even more unhappy.

Selena's smile became even more prominent, "I really love hearing those words..."

Leia happily clapped her hands, "Weren't you guys just shouting and asking the inheritor of the Jade King to come and humiliate Madam Selena? And what happened? You lost billions with just one move, and the carefully selected token of love turned into a pile of waste and debris... serves you right!"

Leia's words made the Soo family faction even more embarrassed and angry, and they glared at Selena, wishing they could eat her alive.

Aurelia trembled all over and wished to find a hole to hide in and never come out.

Nicholas grinned with a smile. "Aurelia has already admitted defeat. Selena, now you can tell us how you picked your stone, right?"

Selena looked at Nicholas with a cold and playful gaze. "Since Nicholas has personally admitted defeat on behalf of the Soo family, there's nothing that can't be said."

Nicholas' hand on his cane almost deformed as he struggled to maintain his smile in the face of Selena's taunts.

As everyone watched in suspense, Selena's slender fingers brushed over her eyes. She smiled casually and said, "It's not a very difficult answer to guess."

"Years ago, Lab 717 developed a type of invisible contact lenses, which didn't have any other practical use other than allowing one to see through objects."

"When I received your invitation and learned that the Soo family was holding a stone gambling event today, I made a special phone call and had my teacher send them to me."

"I just wore them and picked my stone..."

Everyone who knew that Selena would say something shocking was stunned...

Oswaldo looked at his wife, who was full of joy in his arms, and the curve of his lips deepened.

Leon's lips twitched heavily.

Alfie lowered his eyes to conceal his amusement.

Aurelia froze.

Nicholas' face turned dark and frightening.

Even Wyatt, who was usually unflappable, was shocked by this absurd answer.

The hall fell into a strange silence.

Everyone was shocked and couldn't think straight by Selena's unexpected answer.

They had come up with countless reasons, such as Selena having incredible luck or using some means of investigation, and some even suspected that Selena was cheating...

But they never expected her answer to be so simple.

Invisible contact lenses?!

If Selena was wearing invisible contact lenses, then all the stones on site would be transparent to her?!

She would know immediately what kind of jade was in each stone just by glancing at them?

The people who knew this fact felt their faces twitching violently.

They finally understood how she managed to pick out so many good jade pieces with 100% accuracy!

Aurelia's luck was against her, no matter how good her skills were, could she still compete with Selena who had such an unfair advantage?

The group glared at Selena, feeling angry, anxious, and regretful, as if they had suffered a heart attack.

Because the answer was so unexpected, no one knew what to say. Even Wyatt was speechless in the face of this answer.

Nicholas' face had never been so dark. He glared at Selena fiercely. If Osvaldo hadn't come here, he would have wanted to kick Selena out immediately!

Among them, Aurelia was undoubtedly the most unacceptable. She stood unsteadily in place, staring at Selena with a pale face and a mix of anger and frustration. She couldn't even speak properly, "Miss Turner, you... you're cheating!"

No matter how lucky Aurelia was or how good her gambling skills were, she couldn't possibly compete with someone who was "cheating" like Selena!

Selena blinked in apparent confusion, "Is there a rule in gambling that cheating is not allowed?"

Aurelia choked and couldn't answer.

Because gambling wasn't a competition, there really was no one to stipulate that cheating was not allowed!

But losing to Selena like this, Aurelia was extremely unwilling and felt so wronged that she was about to cry, "But... no one is like you...

bullying..."

Selena smiled, but her tone was cold, "Miss Bennett, isn't your existence itself a means of cheating?"

Selena continued, "You were invited by the Soo family as a gambling expert, specifically to use your skills to pick stones for the Soo family to beat me."

"And besides you, almost everyone from the noble families present has invited gambling experts to help pick stones. Are they not cheating?"

For those who didn't know anything about gambling, they would hire someone who did to help them pick stones. It was a common practice in the gambling world.

Wyatt's reputation as the "Jade King" came from this.

Therefore, no noble family present dared to deny, with a clear conscience, that they had not cheated.

The only difference between Selena and them was that she did not hire an expert, but used high technology instead.

Aurelia was so angry that her vision went black, but she couldn't come up with a refutation.

Faced with Selena's question, everyone felt choked up and uncomfortable, unable to find any reason to refute her accusations except to glare at her.

Selena said in a calm voice, "When it comes down to it, gambling is about who has the best skills, excluding the element of luck, isn't it?"

Chapter 1395 Call Me Brother-in-law

"Others have no right to question the methods she uses to select the stones." Although that was said, Selena was no longer cheating, but rather openly smashing the scene! Everyone guessed that Selena must have used some means, but no one could have expected the answer to be so outrageous.

If Selena were an ordinary person with no background, the Soo family might still be able to force her to leave all the jade behind in this situation.

But Selena was not!

Oswaldo stood behind her, and with this man present, no one dared to openly touch Selena.

Therefore, even if they were unwilling and angry, they could only swallow their anger!

Even Nicholas, who had been through a lifetime of battles, was almost pushed to lose his temper by Selena's unconventional means. But he looked at Oswaldo and barely managed to suppress the anger that had risen to his throat.

No matter how angry she was, Aurelia had lost to Selena.

In this situation, the Soo family had no face to continue to bring up Selena and Alfie's marriage.

But it didn't matter. Selena had made the Soo family bleed, and if they weren't happy, she had plenty of ways to make them even more unhappy!

Did this girl really think she could turn the world upside down with cleverness?

A smile squeezed out on Nicholas' gloomy face. "Now that the stone gambling is over, let me announce the other reason why the Soo family invited you all here today."

Selena's long eyelashes trembled slightly as she looked up at Nicholas with a resolute and determined gaze.

Nicholas also looked at her with undisguised ambition and coldness in his eyes, but he was smiling. "Today, in addition to attending the stone gambling, we also have some good news to announce in public."

He then waved his hand. "Cameron, come over here."

Cameron's face was stiff, but under Nicholas' threatening gaze, he still took heavy steps and walked over.

Nicholas finally said with a smile to everyone, "This is my second grandson, Cameron. He's not young anymore, and I have prepared a marriage for him."

After speaking, Nicholas' gaze fell on Hattie.

Hattie trembled under his gaze and nervously grabbed Selena's hand.

Nicholas' gaze was like that of a venomous snake, sticky and cold, making she feel scared.

Selena held her hand and looked at Nicholas with a cold and playful gaze.

Leon stepped forward and blocked Hattie behind him, his eyes filled with coldness.

With Hunter present, Nicholas didn't care about Leon's attitude and said with a smile, "The Soo family is interested in forming an alliance with the Riddle family. Cameron and --"

Selena suddenly spoke up, interrupting Nicholas, "Nicholas, I forgot to mention something earlier."

Nicholas turned his cold gaze back to Selena's face, seemingly enjoying her struggle, "Are you interested in the affairs between the Riddle family and the Soo family?"

Selena patted the slender shoulder of she soothingly and said playfully, "I'm not interested in the affairs of the Riddle family."

Nicholas asked with interest, "Oh? What do you want to say then?"

Selena looked straight into Nicholas' gloomy eyes and smiled slightly, "I have applied for a patent with 717.

Later, these perspective glasses will be available at the H Country Institute for anyone to purchase without any restrictions."

Nicholas' smile froze suddenly.

Aurelia's face turned pale as she stared at Selena in horror.

The scene instantly erupted.

Unrestricted purchase of perspective glasses, what does it mean?

It means anyone can wear them to pick stones in the gambling stone world!

One pair of perspective glasses is already so terrifying. If there are a few more...

The Soo family will have to pay to the point of bankruptcy.

Once the glasses with perspective function are launched, the so-called "Jade King" and "Gambling Master" will no longer be coveted.

Most of the gambling industry in H Country is owned by the Soo family's industrial chain. It can be imagined that the impact on the Soo family's gambling business will be enormous.

Although the Soo family's business system is huge, whether it is antiques or other things, they are no longer as popular as they were in the past with the development of the times.

In this case, the gambling industry occupies almost half of the Soo family's business.

Once this gambling industry is disrupted, the losses to the Soo family will be immeasurable!

Nicholas stared at Selena with a murderous look, finally unable to control it.

Selena met his gaze without fear, and the threat was so obvious.

Everyone looked at this scene where they were at loggerheads and held their breath.

Everyone knew that Selena did this to stop the alliance between the Riddle and Soo families.

More precisely, it was for the Riddle family's young lady.

The Soo family's marriage with the Riddle family would gain support from the Turner family in their battle.

But once Nicholas acts recklessly, what the Soo family will lose is the entire gambling stone industry market.

Which is more important?

In the silence, Leon suddenly spoke up, "How are you so sure that you can get the Riddle family's support just by controlling Hattie's marriage?"

Looking at Nicholas' gaze, Leon smiled, his eyes full of coldness. "Perhaps it's not support, but a knife to hasten the Soo family's death?"

"My sister can't be threatened by anyone!"

As soon as Leon said this, the atmosphere on the scene suddenly became even more tense. Everyone understood what Leon meant: two elders of the Riddle family agreed to have their daughter marry into the Soo family, but Leon disagreed.

And from the situation today, the Riddle family's power had already split. It was impossible for Nicholas to gain the full support of the Riddle family.

Mr. Riddle had been in charge of the Riddle Corporation for many years, and his power was definitely not less than that of Maddox and the second branch of the Riddle family.

And Leon's meaning was clear: once the Soo family set their sights on the Riddle family's daughter, the Soo family would become Leon's enemy!

As soon as Leon finished speaking, Hunter on the opposite side became angry and shouted, "Hattie is my daughter. I, as her father, have the final say on her marriage. It's none of your business, outsiders!"

Hattie stared at Hunter with a look of hatred.

But neither Selena nor Leon paid any attention to Hunter's words. The so-called blood relations were a joke at this moment, especially when the object was a well-known man who had killed his wife and abandoned his daughter!

Nicholas looked at Leon and then at Selena, with veins popping out on his forehead. And at this moment, a slender and fair hand suddenly fell on Hattie's head and rubbed it casually. Then a voice, devoid of any emotion, echoed through the entire room. "Call me brother-in-law."

Chapter 1396 Congratulations

Hattie looked up and met the man's gaze as he looked down on her from above.

Oswaldo glanced at her, and in his devilish eyes, there was neither the tenderness he had when looking at Selena nor much indifference.

She was stunned for a moment or two before she decisively turned around and hugged the thigh that had descended from the sky.

"Brother-in-law!"

Selena had forgotten about this.

Leon: There was no need to be so affectionate...

Oswaldo reluctantly showed a bit of a gentle mood to Hattie, "Good girl."

Then, he turned his gaze back to Selena.

And Hattie's sudden "brother-in-law" once again shocked everyone.

Everyone looked at Osvaldo, then at Hattie, and a question came to their minds simultaneously.

Why did they just realize that there was such a weird relationship between the Riddle family's young miss and the Anderson family's young master?

The Turner family's young miss was the blood sister of the Riddle family's young miss, and the Anderson family's young master was about to be engaged to the Turner family's young miss. It was only natural for the Riddle family's young miss to call him brother-in-law!

It also meant that it was only natural for the Anderson family to get involved in the Riddle family's young miss's affairs!

In the face of the Anderson family's open intervention, if the Soo family continued to force the Riddle family's young miss to marry, wouldn't they be giving the Anderson family a reason to take action against the Soo family?!

Nicholas clearly didn't expect the Anderson family to suddenly intervene, and he was extremely angry.

The men of the Anderson family were cold-hearted and indifferent, and they wouldn't interfere in other people's affairs!

In the end, it was all because of Selena!
Nicholas could hardly maintain the smile on his face and turned his head to look in the direction of the Riddle family,
"The marriage of the Riddle family's daughter is not for outsiders to decide when her father, mother, grandfather, and
grandmother cannot make the decision."
Hunter was stung by these words and his self-esteem was hurt. He glared fiercely at Hattie, "Hattie, come over here!"
Hattie snorted and didn't even look at him.
Maddox took a deep look at the three descendants of the Riddle family standing opposite him and asked in a calm voice,
"Hattie, you don't want to be betrothed to Cameron?"
Maddox had never asked her this before!
Finally, he remembered to ask her on this occasion!
Hattie's eyes turned rosy, and she replied coldly,
"Cameron likes Penelope, and I'm only thirteen!"
Maddox's expression remained unchanged. "Penelope has already been expelled from the Riddle family. She may never have a chance to come back in her lifetime."
"Cameron is a good match for you in terms of social status and character, and he watched you grow up...
don't you want to give it a try?"

Daphne heard Maddox's words about Penelope never having a chance to come back and covered her chest in pain.

She looked at Hattie angrily, "Hattie, Grandpa and Grandma are also doing this for your own good. What's wrong with Cameron?"

"Don't let Selena fool you into thinking that everything Grandpa and Grandma do is to harm you."

"No one is forcing you to be with Cameron right away."

"Just make the engagement official, and if it doesn't work out, we can cancel it."

"Your mother is gone, and Grandpa and Grandma love you so much. How could we harm you?"

If it weren't for Penelope's situation, Daphne probably wouldn't have agreed to switch Cameron to Hattie.

Hattie found all this persuasion ridiculous. She was only thirteen and didn't even know what love was. How could the Riddle family elders dare to say such things in the name of doing everything for her own good?

Hattie said coldly, "I don't want to. If it's really that good, why don't you find someone for Kaitlyn to try?"

"She's even a year older than me!"

But that depends on whether the Soo family would be interested in Kaitlyn!

Kaitlyn was an illegitimate child, which high-society aristocrat would marry an illegitimate child?

Daphne looked at Hattie in despair and felt that Selena was inciting her to oppose everything. Kaitlyn stood beside Daphne, feeling guilty for Hattie's words.

Since the parties involved had clearly refused, if the Riddle family and Soo family continued to entangle themselves, they would inevitably be criticized.

In fact, from the moment Nicholas raised the issue to the Riddle family, he had already made his decision.

Even if Nicholas could temporarily disregard Leon and Osvaldo, Selena's threat alone was enough for the Soo family to be in trouble.

Marrying the daughter of the Riddle family could bring many benefits, but it was uncertain.

But once Selena is offended, the Soo family's gambling stone industry will be over immediately! Nicholas is a shrewd businessman and naturally would not make such a loss-making deal.

Therefore, upon hearing Hattie's words, Nicholas immediately said, "Since Hattie is unwilling, let's pretend that I never said those words before."

Both Hattie and Cameron breathed a sigh of relief.

Selena smiled slightly.

Hattie looked up at her and said, "Thank you, Selena."

She knew that Selena came here today specifically for her.

Selena held onto the Soo family's hard handle, and as long as she was there, Nicholas would never dare to have any crooked thoughts about her.

With the Soo family's loss, it was unlikely that other aristocratic families would dare to do so either.

This provided the greatest guarantee of freedom for Hattie's future growth.

Selena touched Hattie's hair.

Others were speechless when they saw this scene.

No one expected that Selena would help Hattie so lightly to solve this trouble.

In the future, Miss Riddle would be truly free in the matter of marriage.

The young ladies on the scene couldn't help but envy Hattie when they saw her eyes. If they also had such a powerful and beautiful elder sister, how could they have suffered so much in major life events?

Seeing that the matter seemed to have come to a close, Nicholas was about to speak and send off the guests.

Oswaldo, who had not spoken much, suddenly spoke up, "If this marriage cannot be made, doesn't the Soo family have another marriage proposal?"

Upon hearing the man's voice, everyone present was stunned.

Alfie's face suddenly darkened.

Selena looked at Osvaldo in surprise. But Osvaldo didn't look at her, he stared at Alfie with a touch of coldness in his eyes, "Hasn't the Soo family already announced the engagement of the young master? Selena and I came here today with gifts to congratulate Mr. Soo and Miss Bennett on their marriage."

Aurelia was taken aback to hear her name from Osvaldo's mouth and raised her head.

Nicholas looked at Osvaldo, feeling a bit unsure of what he was up to.

Osvaldo was not someone who liked to meddle in other people's business.

That he made an exception to take care of Miss Riddle had surprised everyone.

Revenge On Love Rats After Rebirth by Olivia Marsh Chapter 1397 Mr.

Anderson'S Power

Chapter 1397 Mr. Anderson's Power

What does he want to do now?

Everyone looked confused.

Only Alfie seemed to have figured something out, his eyes turning unusually cold.

Osvaldo kissed Selena's hair gently and looked at Alfie, sneering, "Come in."

More than a dozen employees of a certain brand's bridal shop walked in one by one, all dressed the same with a smile on their faces, each holding a model dummy.

The dummies wore dresses of various colors, ranging from wedding dresses to traditional Chinese bridal gowns.

Aurelia looked at the dresses and gowns presented to her, but there was no joy on her face, only panic and unease.

The others finally realized what was going on.

This was all about Aurelia trying to steal Selena's bridal gown!

The Anderson family's prince was here to settle the score!

Oswaldo was laughing, but his eyes were cold. "Mr. Soo already has a fiancée, yet he is too stingy to prepare even a single bridal gown for her, and he wants his fiancée to steal someone else's gown."

Aurelia's face, already pale, became even more embarrassed.

She looked hopefully at Alfie, hoping he could help her out of this predicament.

But Alfie never looked at her once, only staring at Oswaldo. If one looked closely, they would notice that his hand was tightly clenched under his long sleeves.

"These are the wedding gifts that Selena and I give to both of you. We wish you both a happy marriage and hope that you will cherish the gift that Selena has worked so hard to achieve."

Aurelia stood trembling in place, feeling humiliated as never before.

Nicholas was also ashamed and angry. He glared at Alfie before turning to leave with his cane.

Alfie's face remained expressionless as he stared at Osvaldo, his eyes filled with a chilling anger.

Osvaldo leaned close to Selena's ear and whispered, "Are you jealous, Selena?"

Selena, who had been staring blankly at the gowns, shook her head unconsciously. "No..."

She had given Lady Lauren's bridal gown, which had been prepared for her, to Aurelia on her own initiative.

She had not thought much of it at the time, but now, hearing Osvaldo's words, she felt inexplicably guilty.

Osvaldo looked at her tenderly and seriously. "I will give you the best."

Selena smiled, her eyes lighting up. "Okay."

Nicholas felt that he had lost dignity. He pounded his cane on the ground, ready to leave once again, but suddenly,

Osvaldo spoke up. "There's one more thing."

Nicholas was about to ask what was going on, but he saw Osvaldo suddenly look up and his deep black sinister eyes lock onto him.

Nicholas met the pair of eyes filled with malicious intent and suddenly realized it was not good. He subconsciously wanted to retreat behind the crowd.

As Nicholas stepped back, Osvaldo suddenly grabbed Selena by the back of her head and turned her face towards him, leaning in to kiss her. With his other hand, he picked up a steel fork from the table and threw it straight towards Nicholas' eyes.

The steel fork gleamed with a cold light and flew straight through the air. Just as it was about to pierce Nicholas' eyes, a pair of hands reached out next to him, grabbed his sleeve, and pulled him hard.

Nicholas' body tilted to the side and the fork brushed past his ear, flying straight into the wall behind him and making a buzzing vibration sound.

Half of Nicholas' body fell to the ground, gasping for air while holding his cane, staring at Osvaldo with a dark and ferocious gaze. If it weren't for Alfie pulling him away at the critical moment, he would have at least lost one eye.

Oswaldo let go of Selena, but still did not allow her to turn around. He looked at her tenderly, but his words were directed at others.

"My wife is precious and cannot suffer even the slightest grievance."

"When she goes out, show her respect."

"If anyone dares to harm her in any way--"

The man looked up, his pitch-black eyes sweeping across the entire room, filled with cruelty. "I will make the wrongdoer pay tenfold!"

Everyone he looked at trembled.

Finally, after Oswaldo left with Selena in his arms, it took a while for the others at the scene to react to what had happened, and screams suddenly erupted.

It wasn't until Selena was seated in the passenger seat that she realized what had happened. She looked at the man who was gently fastening her seatbelt, leaned over, and rubbed his forehead. "Oswaldo, don't be angry."

Normally, Oswaldo wouldn't have been so rude as to lay his hands on an old man, let alone intimidate and warn others so brazenly.

It must have been Nicholas who openly laid hands on her, which scared him.

Oswaldo looked at the sweet-smiling girl, remained silent for a moment, raised his hand and touched her hair, "Next time when you meet the Soo family and the Riddle family, make sure to tell me in advance."

Selena breathed a sigh of relief when she saw he showed no signs of anger, and kissed his forehead, "Okay."

Oswaldo smiled slightly, pinched Selena's chin, and kissed her back.

His wife was a woman of her word.

Since she promised to tell him, she would definitely do it.

It took nearly three minutes for Oswaldo to help Selena fasten her seatbelt, then he drove her back to the villa.

The incident at the Soo family's gambling stone meeting had spread throughout the entire capital in the blink of an eye.

As soon as Selena returned to the villa, the old scholar from the research institute couldn't wait to call and ask for information about the perspective glasses.

Selena lazily sat on the wicker chair, said a few words, and hung up the phone.

She sat on the chair, holding her legs and staring at the blue sky above, lost in thought for a while.

The perspective glasses were invented by her when she was twelve years old. After it was deemed not very useful, it was forgotten and she didn't know where it went.

When she called Bruno, he helped her find it.

Thinking that all her things in Lab 717 had been carefully preserved by her teachers.

Selena closed her eyes slightly, leaned her slender body against the wicker chair, picked up the book on the table, and read it carefully.

In the evening, Leia ran back from outside, "Madam Selena!"

Selena heard the joyful voice, looked up, and saw Leia and Hattie running over together.

Selena held the book, knocked on each of their heads, and asked, "What's up?"

Leia squatted in front of Selena, holding her chin, and said happily, "Hattie and I have struck it rich too."

"When we took the jade that we won, the Soo family looked like they had lost a fortune, and the envy in the eyes of the people around us... Hmph, it's so joyful to think about it!"

At any time, having money can make people happy.

Today, the two girls had earned a lot of money and had become true rich women.

Chapter 1398 Trial Court Chief

Selena laughed.

Suddenly, Hattie seemed to remember something and frowned as she said to Selena, "Oh, by the way, Selena, my brother asked me to tell you to be careful lately. It's better to have Osvaldo accompany you when you go out."

Remembering Manny, whom she had beaten, Selena smiled meaningfully and said, "Don't worry, nothing will happen."

After hearing Selena's words, the two girls stopped worrying and began to calculate how much money they could earn today.

After the results of the gambling conference came out, not only did the Soo family lose everything, but their family reputation was also ruined.

It was more humiliating than being rejected by the Turner family last time!

Nicholas was furious, and the servants of the Soo family didn't even dare to make a sound when they walked.

Alfie returned to the Soo family and locked himself in his study.

Aurelia waited outside and waited until it was dark, but Alfie didn't come out.

Heartbroken, Aurelia returned to her own courtyard alone.

As soon as she closed the door, Aurelia knocked all the teacups off the table, unable to control the resentment on her dignified and beautiful face.

She was so humiliated and wronged, but Alfie didn't even comfort her...

This fact made Aurelia heartbroken and indignant.

She lay on the table and burst into tears.

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door.

Aurelia wiped away her tears and got up to open the door. Wyatt walked in.

Aurelia respectfully called out, "Grandfather."

Wyatt looked at her swollen eyes and said, "The situation in the capital is not something the Bennett family can handle.

That man doesn't love you, and staying here is not good for you."

When Nicholas first came to the Bennett family because of Aurelia's fate, Wyatt had refused.

But Aurelia was stubborn and insisted on going to the capital, so he had no choice but to agree.

Aurelia couldn't control her tears and said, "But Grandfather, I love him..."

Wyatt saw her persistence and frowned, "Why be so persistent for a man who already has someone in his heart?"

Aurelia opened her mouth but couldn't say anything. Wyatt said in a deep voice, "Don't tell me you haven't realized this!"

How could Aurelia not have noticed?

She had already discovered it when Alfie took Selena's wedding dress as his own. She just didn't want to give up.

Aurelia looked up at Wyatt with tearful eyes and said, "He doesn't love me now, but he will in the future. As long as I become his wife, his heart will return to me someday..."

Wyatt looked at her disappointedly. "I agreed to the Soo family's proposal of marriage because you said you liked him.

But he's not interested in you at all. Despite this, you still refuse to give up?"

Aurelia knelt in front of Wyatt. "Grandfather, I really like him. If I give up now, I will regret it for the rest of my life..."

Wyatt's face turned colder. "If the Soo family were an ordinary family, it would be fine. But you've seen it today. The Soo family is lacking in familial affection and full of ambition. If you marry into such a family without your husband's favor, it's like throwing yourself into a pit of fire!"

Aurelia cried and shook her head, but her eyes were firm. "Grandfather, please fulfill my wish!"

Wyatt looked at Aurelia's determined face and closed his eyes. "Remember, this is your own choice. No matter what happens in the future, you can't blame anyone else."

"You're willing to bet everything for your own future, but I can't let the Bennett family gamble with you."

"Tomorrow morning, I will find an excuse and take Edith back. From now on... take care of yourself."

Aurelia gritted her teeth. "Thank you, grandfather."

Wyatt left.

Aurelia walked to the table and remained silent for a long time. Suddenly, she went to the bed and pulled out a black wooden box from under the pillow.

She opened the box and stared at its contents for a long time before a smile appeared on her lips. "If that woman is gone... how could he not like me?"

...

The car stopped outside the Turner family's gate, and Patrick got out of the car and opened the door for Selena.

Selena walked out and called out, "Patrick."

Patrick led her inside and spoke gently. "Nicholas lost face yesterday. He won't let it go easily. Be careful from now on."

It wasn't just Nicholas who lost dignity yesterday.

There was someone even more malicious.

Selena smiled. "It's okay."

Patrick led Selena to the dining table, where Oscar was waiting.

After Selena sat down, she asked, "How's Uncle's recovery?"

Oscar smiled faintly. "Very good."

Without any surprises, he may be able to stand up and start rehabilitation soon.

As soon as the butler saw that all the masters had gathered, he immediately ordered the kitchen to serve the food.

The Turner family was small and rare to have the whole family together for a meal.

After the meal, Oscar asked about the Riddle family.

Selena recounted what Hattie had seen earlier and then said, "It's a bit strange."

"But the Riddle family is in great danger now, and Leon is busy fighting for power. He doesn't have the energy to investigate other things for the time being."

Pausing for a moment, Selena laughed again, "If the place where that woman is located is too peaceful, it's abnormal."

After thinking for a moment, Oscar agreed with Selena's view.

Mainly because the Riddle family is shrouded in mist now, and outsiders cannot see what is happening inside until the result of the power struggle comes out.

After all, it's the Riddle family's own affairs, and it's not easy for either the Turner family or the Anderson family to intervene.

It's not just the Riddle family; the Soo family is also bound to be unsettled in the future.

Selena thought of the recently stabilized Poole family, feeling indescribable.

The power struggle of the aristocratic families always involves bloodshed.

It depends on... who will die in the end!

Selena temporarily put this matter aside and said to Oscar, "By the way, Uncle, is there anything special happening in the court recently?"

Oscar looked at her and asked, "What do you mean?"

"The mysterious president in the court, are you familiar with him?"

A hint of something flashed in Oscar's eyes, "Why do you suddenly ask about this?"

He didn't say he was familiar with him, but he didn't say he wasn't either.

But it was certain that they knew each other.

Selena smiled, "Nothing else, just a friend of mine gave me a call and said that if I have any problems in the capital, I can go to him for help."

"But that court president has been away for years and hasn't even been seen since he returned to the capital. I can't find him even if I want to."

Patrick spoke up and asked, "What do you want him for?"

Selena thought for a moment, "I don't know yet, but I will definitely need him in the future."

Compared to this, there was another thing that she was more curious about.

Oscar lowered his eyelashes and said after a moment, "The court president has a good relationship with the Turner family. As long as it's not something harmful to the people, he will help the Turner family."

Revenge On Love Rats After Rebirth by Olivia Marsh Chapter 1399 Storm Brewing

Chapter 1399 Storm Brewing

Upon hearing Oscar's words, Selena understood immediately.

In fact, Selena had asked the question suddenly because she had called Margot last night, and Margot had told her that she would come to the capital to find her soon.

And she even specifically mentioned that Mr. Chambers had asked her to tell Selena that if she needed help, she could go to the court president, and they would unconditionally assist her.

As Selena had just returned to the Turner family, she took the opportunity to ask Oscar.

However, Oscar's answer made Selena feel relieved and at the same time, a bit suspicious.

For the court president to help her because of her family's identity and to unconditionally help her were two different things.

What was Mr. Chambers thinking?

Selena frowned and pondered. She remembered that the court president had helped her a lot since she came to the capital. But apart from Margot, she had no other connection with the court president, and it was unlikely that he would protect her so unconditionally.

No free lunch in the world!

"I have a feeling... that he has ulterior motives," Selena said with a slight frown.

Patrick looked at Selena's serious expressions and was amused, "The president Mr. Chambers is a good person."

"Is he?" Selena blinked her eyes.

Patrick laughed and explained, "The court president won't do anything harmful to the Turner family."

After pausing for a moment, as if he had thought of something, he added, "Rest assured, he won't hurt you."

Patrick thought that Selena was worried that the court president would harm her after her identity was exposed.

Selena knew that Patrick had misunderstood her, but she couldn't figure out what made her feel uneasy, so she put aside her doubts for the time being and said, "I don't need to find the court president for now. I'll wait until he comes back."

The underground virus vaccine was about to be released, and the capital would continue to be in chaos. The fact that the head of the court president had released Margot at this time showed that he had been paying attention to the capital's situation.

Selena suppressed her doubts for the time being.

"Uncle, Patrick, I'm going upstairs now."

After Selena left, Patrick turned to Oscar with some confusion, "When Selena returned home, Matilda once sent her a gift on behalf of the head of the court president."

"Afterwards, the court also helped Selena and released the group of people from the research department. I thought Selena knew Mr. Chambers, but now it seems.."

Selena clearly didn't know him. And for the court's several acts of kindness, she was surprised. Oscar thought for a moment, "Don't worry, he has no ill will towards her." That's enough.

Patrick also thought so. As for why the court is so abnormal in protecting Selena, when that person comes back, the answer will naturally come to light.

In the next few days, Selena was shuttling between the research institute and the Capital University laboratory. The power struggle between the Riddle family and the Soo family finally caused turmoil among the major families in Capital.

If the heads of these two families could still maintain surface calm before, after the gambling stone competition, internal conflicts were almost forced to be put on the table. Nicholas originally wanted to gather those families who had grudges against the Turner family to make a move against them, but he was beaten to the punch by Alfie and his own family began to fight first.

It was said that Nicholas was so angry that he almost vomited blood.

If the Soo family's internal conflicts were not obvious outside due to their low-key and introverted nature over the years, then the power struggle within the Riddle family was clear to everyone.

Leon took power at the age of twenty and within five years, the Riddle consortium had risen several floors under the hands of this young master.

Almost everyone assumed that he was the heir apparent. But no one expected Maddox to suddenly change his mind and support the illegitimate son of the Riddle family's second room to take the throne!

When this news came out, the entire upper class circle in Capital was in an uproar.

Everyone thought that Maddox and Daphne were probably crazy, otherwise how could they do such ridiculous things one after another?

Not to mention the difference between the illegitimate son and the young master, just the fact that Leon is a healthy young man while the second young master has a heart disease, it's crazy to hand over the family power to such a person.

But the two old men of the Riddle family and the people from the second room of the Riddle family do not think so. They openly supported the illegitimate son to take the throne, and they want to pull Leon down from the highest position.

Moreover, the second room of the Riddle family also publicly released the news that Hunter had already divorced the late second lady of the Riddle family.

Manny is the true second young lady of the Riddle family, and the Riddle family's twins have become the legitimate young master and young lady!

As for the original eldest daughter of the Riddle family, she naturally became the second young lady! When the news reached Selena's ears, she had just finished lunch.

Leia said angrily, "Are the people in the Riddle family crazy? They are completely insane!"

Selena put down her spoon and wiped her fingers with a handkerchief, "So, Manny is now in charge of the second branch of the Riddle family?"

Leia said, inquiring about the news, "Yes, now the second branch of the Riddle family is completely run by that woman, and the second master of the Riddle family is just a yes-man!"

"The one who is fighting for power and profit with Mr. Riddle is that woman!"

Selena gave a smile, "Very good." She had no interest in the power struggle within the Riddle family before, but now she had changed her mind.

She didn't mind wading into the muddy waters of the Riddle family's internal affairs.

After all, what could be happier than seeing someone she despised lose completely in her own hands?

Selena stood up, "Has Hattie called?"

"No," Leia shook her head, "Miss Hattie has not said anything other than occasionally calling you to report her safety since she returned home last time."

"But Miss Hattie is now with Mr. Riddle, and she has someone protecting her, so there should be no danger."

Leon was having a hard time lately, and Hattie being by his side would surely allow her to learn a lot.

Selena saw she's determination and naturally wouldn't call her back to protect her under her wing. "Keep an eye on her."

"Yes, Madam Selena."

Selena walked outside.

Leia followed her, "Madam Selena, where are we going?"

"The research institute."

Leia immediately went to drive and took Selena to the research institute.

The Capital University laboratory had reached the most critical juncture, and at this time, no mistakes could be made, even Selena had not been going there much recently.

As the newly appointed dean of the research institute, Selena was naturally busy beyond measure... Inside the Riddle

Building, Leon stared at several pieces of data on his computer, and after confirming something, he turned off the computer.

Chapter 1400 A Huge Game Board

Leon turned to look at Hattie beside him and patted her hair.

Hattie was completely engrossed in her work and didn't notice him.

Leon signaled to his assistant, who came forward and took away the materials in front of Hattie. "Miss, it's time for lunch," the assistant said, and then brought two servings of food to the table.

Leon rubbed Hattie's head and said, "Take a break for a while."

Hattie obediently went to wash her hands, then came back and sat on the couch to eat.

The people in the office couldn't help but feel a bit sad when they saw this girl, who was forced to sit here day and night with them, working tirelessly like an adult.

After the death of the second young lady of the Riddle family, her shares in the company were taken over by the second branch of the Riddle family.

Although Leon had thought of helping Hattie get them back, Manny seemed to have decided to keep them for the Riddle family, or maybe she just wanted to see the daughter of the Riddle family suffer. She used Hunter's status as the legal first heir to firmly control those shares, which became a bargaining chip in the battle between the dragon and phoenix twins and Leon and Hattie for the position of the Riddle family's successor.

In addition, when Hattie was born, the Riddle Group separately gave her a share. However, because she was young, according to the law, she could only inherit that share when she turned 18.

Currently, that share is also in the hands of the man she called father.

Hattie wanted to regain the shares that belonged to her and her mother, which was why she worked so hard.

Leon sat on the couch with his utensils, eating with Hattie.

The assistant came forward with some documents and looked at Hattie with some hesitation. Leon put down his chopsticks and loosened his tie, "Say it!"

The assistant said solemnly, "The shares held by the second young master are somewhat unexpected."

"Second Madam and Miss Hattie's shares, plus... when Daphne and Maddox were brought back, according to tradition, they were each given five percent. Together, the total exceeds 35 percent."

Hattie's hand holding the spoon stopped, and her slender fingers trembled.

When the twins were brought back, her mother had just died, and Hattie was suffering in the juvenile detention center.

Under such circumstances, Daphne actually gave them five percent of the shares...

The assistant looked at Hattie, worried that the young girl couldn't handle the blow.

But soon, Hattie regained her composure and continued to eat as if nothing had happened.

Leon's eyes were cold.

Thirty-five percent was a dangerous number.

As the head of the Riddle Corporation, Leon only had forty percent.

Maddox held ten percent, Daphne held five percent, and the remaining ten percent was in the hands of other shareholders.

If Maddox and Daphne make another mistake, the head of the Riddle Corporation may really have to change.

Leon smiled.

It really was a big game!

They had been planning to become the true owner of the Riddle family for more than a decade, and had quietly arrived at the current situation.

The existence of the twins was probably to be able to openly occupy the Riddle Corporation!

Leon turned to Hattie, "Go and find her, relax, okay?"

"No!" Hattie put down her chopsticks, "Brother, I'm full, I'm going to continue read the materials."

The assistant looked at Leon, "Young Master, should we consider sending Miss Hattie abroad for a while?"

This kind of struggle was too cruel for a child.

Especially since her mother died, and her father wanted her dead.

Leon took a sip of water and said calmly, "Hattie doesn't want to leave."

The assistant sighed and regained his composure.

"Young Master, what should we do next?"

Once the other side has so many shares, if they can persuade Daphne and Maddox to transfer their shares to them, they will have the qualifications to convene a shareholder meeting and officially overthrow Leon, openly making the Riddle Corporation change hands.

Leon smiled, but his eyes were cold, "The Riddle family's fortune is not for outsiders to covet!"

In the evening, Selena left the research institute and returned to her villa.

Later, Leia delivered a document to Selena.

It was the information that Selena had asked Leia to investigate before she left at noon.

Selena carefully read it and smiled, "What a big game of chess..."

Leia didn't understand, "Madam Selena, what chess?"

Selena looked at the information that showed the current situation of the Riddle family, "I'm talking about a woman who spent more than ten years playing a game of chess just to get a status..."

She had been curious all along why the other party wanted to marry Hunter, such a man, and even gave birth to the twins for him.

All of this was just for one purpose! She wanted to become the true master of the Riddle family!

Because Nevaeh was the true bloodline of the Riddle family, did she also have to have what Nevaeh had?

She would pay any price for this!

She was indeed a disgusting madwoman!

Selena threw the document aside, clapped her hands, and began writing a letter with a pen.

Leia was worried, "Madam Selena, I asked Mr. Jordan, the current situation of the Riddle family is very unfavorable for Miss Hattie. Can we help her?"

Although she knew that Selena couldn't just ignore Hattie, she couldn't help but want to rush to the Riddle family and kill that pair of adulterers and traitors when she thought about the girl's current situation.

Selena was writing the letter seriously and didn't answer Leia's question.

After Selena finished writing the letter and put it in an envelope, she handed it to Leia, "Let someone deliver it to Leon."

Leia looked at the envelope in front of her and was dazed.

Her first reaction was why Madam Selena didn't call Mr. Riddle and had to send a letter?

But soon, Leia realized what was going on and took the letter, running out, "I'll personally deliver it!"

Selena always had a purpose in what she did.

This letter was obviously to help Leon with Hattie.

After Leia left, Selena sat at the table and pondered for a moment. She soon stood up and walked downstairs, staring blankly at the sky in the distance in the garden.

A pair of slender arms wrapped around her waist from behind. Then, a gentle voice fell in her ear, "Leon is not easy to deal with. That girl will be fine."

Selena smiled, "I know, I'm just thinking about how his ambition dares to be so great..."
