

Read Revenge On Love Rats After Rebirth (Selena) novel chapter 28 online free

Chapter 28

Having said that, he helped Cyril to go upstairs to rest.

Although his attitude was colder, the aura was much better than the aura Dominic showed.

Dominic's already pale face was now even more gloomy after this incident.

The matter had come to this point, he no longer bothered to look at his parents' faces, slowly turned his head and stared at Selena, narrowing his eyes, his voice full of coldness, "Selena, you did that on purpose?!"

Deliberately making a big deal out of it, disgracing him at Cyril's birthday banquet, working together to make Cyril disappointed with him and leave in anger.

This woman is getting back at him!

When this thought broke into his mind, Dominic was stunned and his first reaction was that it couldn't be!

Selena couldn't possibly retaliate against him, she obviously likes him so much.

Selena smiled as if the hysterical emotions she had just felt had not been present.

She met Dominic's startled and puzzled eyes.

Dominic was a stranger to her, and because of the soft, kind-hearted Selena, who shared her name, she was even extremely disgusted with him

After having questioned that one sentence on behalf of the real Selena, naturally there would be no more major mood swings.

When she heard Dominic's cross-examination, she didn't even show a hint of anger, she just tilted her head gracefully and looked at Dominic as if she was looking at a clown.

She didn't say anything, but those in the scene, looking at a beauty being accused of bullying by a man, some couldn't help themselves.

"Mr. Walson, you're going too far with that. Did Selena make Leah play a trick to drive her out as soon as she entered?" "Not only that, after Selena stepped in and calmed things down with Cyril, was it she herself who allowed you to block her outside the gate and verbally humiliate her?"

"Do you still want Mr. Jordan to hear his company's shareholders being abused by you and have to play deaf and dumb and pretend he didn't hear anything?"

Dominic was holding in his anger, especially at this moment, Selena's distant and cold eyes made him feel even more uncomfortable.

He thought carefully, he hadn't done anything wrong today, apart from accusing Selena.

All the disputes were clearly started by Selena!

Distracted to the extreme, he glared viciously at Selena, as if trying to stimulate her to show some of her aggrieved expression, "Selena, it's your fault!"

Those who gathered around frowned, thinking that Dominic was genuinely lost his mind.

Selena sneered, "Today is already considered very good, at least there is a reason. In Mr. Walson's heart, it is my fault that Leah fell down, it is my fault that Leah cried, even her casual frown is my fault, even if Leah did not do well in the exam, it is still my fault. Compared to so many incidents in the past, this little accusation is nothing."

Dominic's gaze flinched and he shouted angrily, "Selena, shut up! It is obvious that you have been relying on your status and can't tolerate Leah and have been bullying her!"

Selena's gaze was icy as she nodded.

“Well, I’m orphan girl whose father cheated on my mother, and my mother has gone, so I have no one to back me up, and every time you come across I bullying Leah, who has a father and a mother, the coincidences are so many that you are used to them, and most importantly, as a woman who was bullied by me, she not only managed to take away everything from me, but ended up with a beautiful reputation. I have really made contribution to what she got!”