Chapter 9

“Half a billion? Did I mishear?!”

“Didn’t they say the VIP room on the second floor was closed today? How come there’s someone up there?”

*Spending 500 million on a diamond. Who spent like money like that?!”

The women looked at the dignified and beautiful figure with fascination and madness, asking each other anxiously.

“Who is that man?”

“He actually asked all the nobles in the city to clear the place for him! What exactly is this man’s status?!”

“And who is the woman he is with?”

Leah’s face was white.

She lifted her head and stared deadly at the two upstairs, clenching her fists in resignation and annoyance.

Half a billion!

It was almost half of Dominic’s fortune, and for Dominic to spend half of his fortune to buy a diamond for her?

That’s never going to happen!

Leah stared jealously and resentfully at the figure upstairs that had taken her place as the centre of attention, gritting her teeth in anger.

Upstairs.

For the sudden call for action by Osvaldo, Selena had a slight surprise, “Actually no need.”

She doesn't have much of a taste for diamond jewellery or anything like that.

The corners of his mouth rose slightly, and his voice was compelling, "The most vicious revenge against one person is to snatch away everything she cares about."

Most importantly, it was the only way to say that she would not refuse the gift he gave out.

Selena's long eyelashes trembled gently, and her expression was more than icy.

Isn't that how Leah, piece by piece, snatched away all of Selena's things?

Thinking of this, Selena's original words of refusal disappeared into her throat, and she turned to Osvaldo with a grateful smile, "Thank you." She could almost anticipate how those two people look like when she appeared in front of Dominic and Leah wearing this diamond.

After resting in the castle for two days, and after the bruise on her forehead had almost healed, Selena drove to the Olympus Group.

Luke was informed in advance that she was to take up her official duties today. Fearing that she would be accused because of rumours, Luke sent a team of assistants to wait outside the gate personally.

As the black Bugatti pulled up, Luke's lips curled into a smile and he stepped forward to open the door in a gentlemanly manner. Selena got off and looked at the demonic and elegant looking man across the table, revealing a smile, "Hello, Mr. Jordan."

Luke froze.

The wife that Osvaldo married was Selena?

It was hard for him not to know about Selena's messy reputation in Creephia.

Selena, whose marriage was ruined by the Walson family in public because of her "promiscuity", is the good woman that Osvaldo spoke of?

Even though Luke had always been calm, he was so shocked that he almost bit his own tongue.

In the past two days he could not help but secretly wonder what kind of woman could make a man like Osvaldo like her.

After seeing the real person with his own eyes, Luke suddenly felt that Osvaldo's vision was really beyond the reach of others!

"Miss Riddle, you are really out of everyone's expectation."

Knowing his doubts, Selena just smiled and extended her hand towards him, "In the coming period, I may need your help, Mr. Jordan."

Luke shook her hand and curled his lips into a smile, "My pleasure, President. This way, please."

Selena shook her head and said with a straight face, "No need, I'm here to deliver the script, as for Olympus Group, Mr. Jordan, you are needed" After getting justice, she will soon return to her home.

There is no energy or time to run and manage a multinational company.

Luke thought the girl was afraid and comforted her, "Miss Riddle, Olympus Group is a bride-price from your husband, you can receive it with peace of mind, and I promise, no one will dare to speak out against it."

"It's not that case," Selena winked and said playfully, "I'm a college student who hasn't graduated yet, not to mention whether I can run managing such a big company well or not, just in terms of the level of hard work, I can't afford it."

This explanation makes sense.

Luke finally knows why Osvaldo tied him up here as a vice president

It turned out that he could not have his wife to work hard but continued to squeeze his surplus labour

Shit!

From now on, he will not only be in charge of the Olympus Group, but will also have to carefully protect this woman.

Luke's eyes were distinctly off, but he was still smiling demonically, "Miss Riddle, please

Selena knew he was agreeing, and there was more gratitude in her eyes, "Thank you, Mr. Jordan."

Having said that, she stepped on her high heels and took the lead in the direction of the Olympus Group's gate.

Luke took a half step behind her, hands in his trouser pockets, as he observed the woman in front of him.

As the president of Olympus Group, a position of power, not just anyone can walk in front of him with peace of mind.

And this Selena's pace light and calm, carrying an elegant and introverted aura, not a hint of shrinkage in sight.

He can't even call her arrogant, because her movements are so natural, like some kind of habit and instinct engraved in her bones.

It was as if, she was born to walk in that position.

It has nothing to do with the legendary cowardice and brutality.

What an interesting woman!

About the script stolen by Leah, Selena spent two days rewriting it silently.

She had no outline or script, and could only integrate herself into Selena's memories and feelings to fully restore what the girl wanted to express. She sat lazily in the sunny warmth of her office, pushed the script in front of Luke and said without haste, "Mr. Jordan, here is a script, I want to make it as fast as possible,"

"You're the president, you're in charge at Olympus Group, if you're going to be the director for a TV series, no one will dare to make a movie," Luke curiously took the script and flipped through two pages, his expression more than interested, "This script is really well written."

Selena looked him in the eye and said bluntly, "This drama will definitely be a hit if it is cast and produced, but there are many storms in the middle of the process, and it might even get into trouble."

A touch more cynical playfulness appeared on Luke's face, "You mean we may lose money?"

Selena tilted her head and smiled, her gaze clear, “I never make a loss-making deal, and if someone makes me lose money, I will make him go bankrupt.”

For example, if Leah dares to despicably steal Selena’s heart and soul, then it will not be as simple as just returning the script, she will have to pay more for her actions.

Luke smiled, “That’s good, I love watching the drama, Miss Riddle, I’m looking forward to it.”
