Chapter 31

"I have no wish to harm you, cousin," Master Damien said calmly. "If you try to fight with me again, we will take you to the Administrators."

Suddenly, two other men showed up at the aggressor's sides. They cajoled him and pulled him back inside the building. They apologized and bowed their heads to my companions as they stepped away. We continued our walk home without further incident.

As we walked back to the compound, I wondered about what the man had said. Thinking back on the day, I didn't remember seeing anyone that would have passed for female that wasn't a slave. By what I'd seen, all the slaves seemed to be aliens here. Where were the native women?

I heard my mother's voice in my head, in one of her few sober moments, recommending I be patient. "ALL things in good time," she would say to me. That seemed like good advice for now.

Back inside the Warrior's compound I felt much more comfortable walking around in my outfit, even if it was mostly see through. Master Evan nudged Master Damien and pointed to a group of men standing by the wall. Master Damien turned and walked toward them calling out a greeting.

I remembered before and kept my head resolutely down. I was a little disappointed when I didn't see a little set of feet with the men. I would have enjoyed talking to someone.

I was distracted by the pink plants lining the wall. A little silver thing shaped like a fly was zooming around them. Without warning one of the plants shot out a tendril and caught the fly. The tendril dragged the bug into the depths of a tiny pink vase. It was fascinating. Bugs seemed to like to land on the leafy base of the pink plant, but if they flew above it; they got nabbed.

My new name was suddenly booming into my ears and I jumped up turning around. Master Evan's roguish face was inches from mine. Inadvertently, I had crouched down to watch the funny little plants; when I bounded up he was leaning over me. Any closer and I would have been kissing him.

He reached forward and pulled the strips of fabric back over my breasts, making a point to brush my nipples. He smiled down at me impishly.

"You are irritating Master Damien by not listening to him, go apologize," he whispered in my ear.

I snuck a glance past Master Evan's shoulder to see Master Damien standing several feet away looking annoyed. Everyone else also looked a little put out. I walked toward them with my head down and thought about what to do. They didn't like it when I acted scared, so I had to act apologetic without being wimpy.

I remembered what Master Damien had told me. They wanted me to touch them without fear. It was decided, I would do what they wanted.

I looked up into Master Damien's eyes as I approached him and put my arms lightly around his waist. "I'm sorry I didn't listen to you, Master Damien," I said leaving my face tilted to his. I prayed he wouldn't strike me or push me away.

The men from before were still standing around and they commented as I touched Master Damien. I just left my eyes on him. He kept his arms folded across his chest as he leaned down.

"Apologize to my brothers, just as you have to me," he said and returned to his former position.

I apologized to Master Bane and Master Kein the same way. I approached Master Christof, slower. There was no way not to do this now. I slowly wound my arms around his waist and looked into his brilliant purple eyes; they looked wild.

'You don't Like me to use words from my first Language," | stuttered slightly unnerved at how close his face was. "Just this word, then," he said considering, "tell us what it is." "It is a hug, Master Evan, it is a sign of affection," | told him.

He didn't move or say anything, so | apologized like | had to his brothers. | tried to move away but he stopped me and grinned wickedly.

"You should kiss me to prove you're sorry," he said with authority pulling me closer. "Brother... | heard Master Christof say and | could hear the warning in his voice.

| had to get on my toes to reach Master Evan's mouth. His Lips were full and perfect for kissing, so | did. Master Evan's blue eyes looked a little surprised when our lips touched. | loved the look of shock when | ran my tongue over his bottom lip, he wasn't the only one that could taste.

| felt Master Damien pressing up against my back as he wove his fingers into my hair and pulled my head back slightly. "We were going to play a game of chuke, Ciara. You will come and watch us. That is, if you are done apologizing to my brother."

"Yes, Master Damien," | said smiling. The look on Master Evan's face was priceless. Women must not kiss them | surmised. ninjanovel.com

The men walked me out of the courtyard and into a vegetated area. It resembled grass, but was lighter in color. They Left me kneeling in a small tent with several other slaves. | was told to stay on my pad in the grass.

The men all stripped, leaving their clothes in piles. The only thing they wore out onto the field was a small cup over their privates. Oddly, | didn't see anything holding the cup on, it just stayed there.

The twenty or so men already on the field cheered their arrival.

"Hello again, cousin," came cheerfully from my left.

| grinned, glad to see a familiar face. "Hello Fuji, it's nice to see you again."

"Cousin, you can talk with us, but keep your eyes on your Warriors," the warning came from my right.

| readjusted my gaze to see Master Bane looking over at me. He went back to the game a moment Later.

"How do | know when they make a point?" | asked watching the confusing display in front of me. It looked like there were multiple balls in play and the men were running all over the place.

"Just cheer when your men cheer," was the answer from farther right, "I've been watching this game for ages and | still don't understand it."

ALL the women in the tent laughed at that. Suddenly, Fuji rose up and jumped around, when she was done she knelt back down. Some men on the field had also been cheering.

| saw a ball pass to Master Evan and he threw it in the air shouting.

The rest of my men also made a lot of noise. I'd played drums in the marching band, so I'd cheered in many football games. | hooted and hollered like back then.

“Perfect,” the voice from my right said, “they Loved that! I’m Rose by the way.” Rose?” | asked questioningly, “Didn’t they re name you?”

“Yes, they asked for the name of the most beautiful thing on my home planet and that was the first thing that came to mind. | was so scared, it’s a wonder | didn’t end up with some horrible name. What did they call you?” she asked.

“It used to be Rachel, but | guess it’s Ciara now,” | answered her relaxing.

“Oh,” Rose sighed, “whatever you do, don’t say that again. They get really angry if you talk about your home planet.” “Yes, thank you,” | answered staring blankly ahead.

Survival may be more difficult than | thought.

The conversation was pleasant with my new counterparts. | didn't look over so | only knew Rose, Tamia, and Shi by the sounds of their voices.

Out of the five of us only Rose and | were from Earth.

| learned being from Earth had protected me from being sold onto a planet where slaves were worked to death. That didn’t take long for a human. Earthlings were too frail for most other planets. Our needs for oxygen and water made us difficult to keep.

Planets like Pateria would pay huge prices for us. We were everything they wanted in a sex slave. Weak, intelligent, mostly hairless, and with compatible sex organs.

The men hadn't been lying about me never going home. The dimensional portals the slavers used had trouble operating on earth, something to do with the atmosphere. It was getting harder and harder to acquire an earthling.

Pateria had developed a similar shield against the portals. At one point, before the shield, the slavers had tried to steal slaves back.

Rose shuddered when she talked about it. The Warriors were fearless and deadly. The slavers that came had been massacred.

Crouching in front of me he continued to grin. His mouth looked wicked and | couldn't stop gaping at it. "Do | frighten you, Ciara?" he asked teasingly running a finger down my arm.

I lied, "No, Master Evan," as my breath caught in my throat.

He brought his face to within an inch of mine. "Will you kiss me now, human?"

| caught the dare in his eyes and just couldn't back down. | placed my lips against his and closed my eyes. He didn't attack me, so | continued to kiss him.

| forgot about my new friends sitting Less than a foot away and got bolder. | slipped my tongue between his lips and touched those evil looking teeth. Master Evan didn't move so | continued to explore his mouth and brushed his tongue with mine.

| pulled back to look at him and he was absolutely shocked. Master Damien was behind him a second Later asking if he was planning to come back to the game or not. Still Looking unnerved Master Evan followed him back to the field, throwing glances over his shoulder the whole way.

“Oh,” Laughed Rose heartily, “you'll do just fine here, Ciara.” “I swear to you he grew a mouthful of fangs, I swear it!” I muttered back to her still surprised by Master Evan’s appearance.

“That is what happens when they get excited. They have a secondary set of teeth that grow,” Fuji answered happily. “Didn’t they have sex with you today?” she asked curiously.

I wasn’t really comfortable discussing that with four new friends and they thought that was hilarious. “If you haven’t noticed they aren’t really inhibited here, they are only wearing the cups to keep themselves protected,” said Rose.

“Yes,” I finally answered embarrassed, “but I wasn’t looking at their mouths then, They had me on my hands and knees facing away from them.”

“Oh, that’s rich!” Laughed Rose. “I had forgotten about how paranoid they are at first. They think you’re going to bite them. They act like your nails are daggers. It gets old really fast. Just when you think you’ve got them cured, they go to a coupling and come back twice as crazy.”

ALL the women were chuckling at the inside joke. “What’s a coupling?” I asked trying to understand.

“This is going to sound odder than anything else you’ve heard today, so be prepared. The women native to this planet are...there isn’t even a word bad enough to describe them. They stand about nine feet tall and are covered in thick hair. Those fangs you saw on your Master are nothing compared to what the women carry and the women’s don’t retract.

They also have vicious claws. To top it all off they can fly. They have these awesome leathery wings. The women here terrify the men.

I sat watching the game stunned. Master Damien’s earlier comment made complete sense now. He didn’t mean I shouldn’t be afraid of them. His comment was that they could enjoy me without being afraid of me.

When I didn’t say anything Rose continued to talk. “The men here take turns with the women. Your Masters will leave you for several day cycles to go service the native women. All the men have to go at some point, there is a schedule. Sometimes the men here are kidnapped and held by gangs of women.”

“The Warriors protect the village we are in from other villages, but also from women seeki foytakemmeh

Chapter 35

“My Masters say he refused to go the Last coupling. His brothers had to go without him. It was a disgrace to them, but they won't talk about it. He was punished for refusing to go, if he refuses again my owners say he may be killed,” Tamia chimed in.

| saw Master Bane jumping up and down on the field so | clapped my hands and hooted. This conversation had to end soon, obviously it wasn't something they wanted spread all over the compound.

“You called them brothers, but they don't look anything alike,” | said hoping it would change the subject.

“Oh, no it's the markings they have that make them brothers. It is probably the same mark they put on your stomach. They think they must be born with it.

When the mothers bring the sons back they all have them. When the Child Keepers notice similar marks they put the children together. They grow up that way,” Fuji answered.

| was relieved to see the Warriors all heading back toward us. | had enjoyed talking to the women, but the talk about Master Christof had bothered me twofold. | didn’t want to get into trouble mainly.

Secondly, he had problems, that much was obvious; being a big mouth about it wouldn’t help. | would never bring that subject up in public again.

“Did you enjoy talking with the other slaves?” Master Damien asked as we walked back toward the courtyard. “Yes, Master Damien,” | answered politely watching his heels. “Did you learn anything interesting?”

“Yes, Master Damien,” | answered again keeping my head down but trying to use my peripherals. There seemed to be a lot of people milling about.

He turned to face me and | ran into him. None of the men had redressed after the game. | was looking into his sculpted chest with it’s sprinkling of dark hair. | tilted my face up to look in his eyes.

“Ciara, what did you learn?”

“The women here are mean and you have to have sex with them. Your teeth grow when you’re excited. The slavers won’t get me again. I’m Lucky I’m human or the slavers would have sold me a worse place...” | trailed off and Master Damien smiled.

“We are going into the public bath. When we get inside we will remove your ornamentation and you will join us. You will bathe me,” he said.

| nodded unhappily. | had gotten used to being sort of dressed in public. He noticed the look and raised an eyebrow at me. “| don’t like to go without clothes in front of other people, Master Damien,” | complained quietly. “Are you disobeying me, slave?” he asked.

| could feel his brothers surrounding me. Now seemed like a bad time to make them angry.

“No, Master Damien,” | said meekly Looking down.

We walked into a huge hall, the ceiling had to be up two stories. The public bath was bigger than the public gymnasium at home. It was at least half a football field long. There were Warriors already there, lounging and swimming. Slaves were interspersed in the men. The content is on Read the latest chapter there!

Chapter 36

“The support you asked for Ciara,” Master Evan laughed placing them beside my sandals. Come to think of it my breasts had Looked really perky underneath the gauze.

Once | was back in just my cuffs and collar, they removed the pieces covering their genitals. Master Kein and Master Bane raced to the pool and jumped in making a splash. | walked with the other men who took a more dignified entrance into the water.

The water felt surprisingly good. It was a little on the warm side, but very comfortable. Remembering my instructions | wasn't surprised when a silky rag and a slippery bar were handed to me. | stood in the water and did as instructed.

| gently scrubbed Master Damien he sat in the shallow water at one end.

He was powerful man and | felt the tension in some of the muscle of his back. | rubbed a Little harder and felt the muscle ease under my palm.

“Lower down,” he instructed, “do the same thing you just did.”

Using the soap like massage oil | found the knot that must have been bothering him. After a moment it released in response to the gentle massage.

“Wash all of me like that,” he instructed.

It was to be a full body massage, then. | rubbed and cleaned him thoroughly. On his right shoulder, | noticed the intricate mark he carried. Comparing it to my the insignia on my cuffs it was virtually the same. Except for scars, this tattoo was the only other mark on his skin.

Once | was done with Master Damien, Master Evan demanded the same attention. | started to massage him and he shook off my hands. He just wanted me to bathe him.

“Rub me with soap and wash it off,” he said brusquely. | did as he asked and gave him a perfunctory bath. After washing him he also told me to wash his hair.

| sat behind Master Evan on a step and cleaned his hair. | remembered the one time mom and | had gone to a fancy salon. The Lady had run her nails over my scalp. It had felt really good, so | did that gently.

“More of that,” came the soft response.

ninjanovel.com

| started to massage the scalp in front of me and Evan groaned very low in his throat. “Like that,” was the guttural comment, so | kept at it.

Evan moved only once as | worked on his hair. He jerked me around so | sat on the bench beside him. Flipping his legs up on bench he laid back with his head on one thigh.

“You may continue,” he said settling down.

As | worked, | heard my other owners walking away. A game was being played on the other side of the pool and it had their attention.

Eventually, Master Evan's hair was clean but he didn't move. I just kept rubbing his scalp and playing With his hair THOLEhY locks were a temptation. I spread them out over my lap and experimented with braiding them. The content is on Read the latest chapter there!

"To what honor do I owe the attention you are paying my slave, gentlemen?" he asked never opening his eyes.

I started to look up, but stopped when I saw several sets of masculine legs standing at the edge of the pool beside us. I stilled my hands in Master Evan's hair and waited.

"Just noting how strange it is you all were permitted to keep a slave when your family cannot be trusted to follow the coupling schedule," the man said. "Will Christof be well enough to accompany you this time or does illness still plague him?"

I could hear the sarcasm dripping over the man's words. My heart went out to poor Master Christof, it wasn't his fault something terrible happened to him. He had been kidnapped and probably abused. He was too scared to even have sex with me. ALL that and he gets crap from these guys, too.

Men on this world were just like the men on my world. They wouldn't give anyone a break. Their attitude irked me. "Master Christof is fine," I said defensively without really thinking about it.

Master Evan looked up at me with one eye open, "Who are you talking to, slave?"

"You, Master Evan," I said realizing my mistake.

He continued to look up at me for a moment and then returned to his resting position. "Christof will join us next time," he said closing his eyes again.

I watched the men's feet as they moved away. Slowly, I went back to playing with Master Evan's hair. It entertained me and kept me from looking around.

Water splashed up around us as Master Kein and Master Bane rejoined us.

The shampoo job must have been good because they made Master Evan move and I washed both of their short hair. Master Evan stood casually by playing with a tiny braid I'd forgotten to take out.

"Our slave is quite mouthy," he commented to his brothers.

I'd forgotten about my Little indiscretion, but he hadn't. My face was hot and I let my hands drop in front of me when Master Kein turned to face me. "What did it say?" he asked.

"Andre and his brothers came to ask if Christof was well and our slave informed them that he was," Master Evan said. Glancing up, I could see Master Evan grinning ear to ear like a devil. Master Damien was standing beside him now listening intently.

"When did this happen?" he asked hotly.

"While you were talking to Basin and his brothers," Master Evan answered smirking broadly. "Must have been quite a conversation to have so distracted you."

Time seemed to freeze for a moment before everything moved at once. I found myself perched on the entrance to the bathing hall before I knew what had happened. I was slung over Master Damien's shoulder as he marched out into the cooling night. The content is on Read the latest chapter there!

“You have defied us all day, slave,” Master Damien said. “We place you at the mercy of the compound and see how long your disobedience Lasts.

When we find you more obedient we will return for you.”

It took a minute for the situation to register. | was outside, bound and nude, in the middle of the courtyard. | looked up at my wrists and noted the lack of the metal cuff. Looking down, the cuffs had also been removed from my ankles. | moved my head around, | realized | didn’t have a collar on.

Did this mean | wasn’t a slave anymore? | wondered. The answer struck me and was breathtaking. | was still a slave. | just wasn’t being claimed by an owner.

Master Damien and his brothers told me their mark protected me and now it was gone. | wondered what would happen to me, although my exposed position spoke volumes. Anyone could do anything to me.

It took my eyes some time to get used to the gathering darkness. | couldn’t decide if it was Lucky or unlucky that several torches Lit the area. | prayed nobody would notice me up here, but | knew that wasn’t the purpose of this exercise.

My situation seemed to be gaining an audience. Warriors strolled past my platform and clucked their tongues at me. Several brought their slaves out to see me.

| was shocked when the first group of Warriors jumped up onto the platform. They looked mean and still had their formidable weapons strapped to their waists. The men twisted and pinched me everywhere. | cried and screamed when they touched me between my Legs. | heard Master Kein speaking behind me and they left.

It went on for hours. My hands had gone numb and some point and every joint in my upper body was cramping. Groups of men would come onto the platform and touch me cruelly until one of my Warriors showed up and shoed them off.

The men that came onto my platform weren't hesitant or nice to me.

Thick fingers invaded my most private parts. They were not gentle as they explored my body with rough hands. Most of them Laughed when I yelled at them. Everything I did spurred them to be crueller and harsher.

Eventually, I started to recognize the pattern. The attacks usually happened when I Looked at the Warriors down in the courtyard, which was hard not to do from my elevated position. I closed my eyes and the attacks subsided mostly. I stayed silent and finally they stopped coming up altogether.

I felt warm bodies surrounding me, but I didn't dare open my eyes.

Looking at them definitely made the manhandling worse.

"Who do you speak to, Ciara?" I heard Master Damien ask me.

"Only to you and your brothers, Master Damien," I answered him keeping my head down and my eyes shut tight. "Is it wise to look at other men, Ciara?" he asked me pulling my feet away from the posts.

"No, Master Damien," I sobbed as my arms were released.

It felt like lightening was shooting through my hands and I slumped into whoever was holding me.

My owners carried me through the courtyard and up the stairs to their dwelling place. The first thing t

If | had more energy, | would have been having a breakdown. As it was, | just slumped lower and found myself inadvertently Leaning on Master Evan's legs. My Life was over.

My old life was over, a small voice whispered in my head. | was not dead. These men wanted a healthy, happy slave. They didn't want to hurt me. When | followed their rules, they treated me well. It was not the same, but it was something.

| had only one choice left to me. The first option was to fight them every step of the way. | could make it as difficult on them as it was on me. The alternative was to make the best of what | had left. Neither option was unflawed.

Fighting was the honorable way to go. | would be tortured however they wished for as long as they wished. If | kept fighting they may just kill me. However, | could be proud | stood up for myself.

Submitting was the other option. There was no honor in that, but | would probably live Longer. | wondered if it was worth it.

The submission they demanded was complete. | hated kneeling on a pad on the floor. Eating from their hands was demeaning. My brain rebelled against the ideas | couldn't even look at another male without being punished, but | wasn't ready to die yet.

| heard the men shuffling around and | looked up to find Master Damien watching me. "Who takes care of you, Ciara?" he asked.

| knew they had put me up on that awful platform and | knew they would put me back if | did not please them. Now was the time to make my decision. Did | want to live like this or did | want to die?

"You do, Master Damien and your brothers," | answered politely. | would learn to live like this. There had to be a way to find happiness here. | just needed to Look.

Master Damien smiled benevolently down at me before he picked me up off the floor. He walked into their bedroom, which was quiet and much darker than the main room. Carefully, he placed me on their bed so | was laying on my hip.

"I'm glad you are learning, Ciara. Our mark protects you because we protect you, never forget that. You are worth nothing to the other men here. They will use you as they want, without consideration. Only your owners will care for you," he said as he moved away.

| walked quickly to the bathroom and Master Christof followed. Once we were inside, | sat down facing the wall.

Master Christof stood and used one of the receptacles next me. | had used the Ladies room when other ladies were in there. It was different with a guy right next to you.

Christof cleaned me silently. As we made our way through the kitchen area | pointed hesitantly to a jug on the table. | found my kneeling place and waited. Master Christof let me have a long drink and then took one himself. it with me?" he asked quietly.

"Of course, Master Christof."

| followed him into the lower level of the room. | admired him as he walked in front of me. He had a runner's body, long and lean. Above the Linen shift he wore, he had several scars that sliced across his back.

Life was hard for everyone here, | surmised.

| noticed Master Christof kept his hair a Little shaggier than the rest of the men, not quite long, not quite short. It would have irritated my mother the way it fell over his eyes on the left side. | smiled sadly thinking about mom.

Master Christof sat down on a long chaise. | looked around for my kneeling pad. Chuckling softly, he pulled me to sit on the furniture with him. Master Christof laid back and pulled me to snuggle up next to him.

We lay silently for a bit. Master Christof just idly traced patterns over my arms. Finally, he spoke. ninjanovel.com

"You were very brave to speak to another man on my behalf, Ciara," he whispered into my ear, "thank you." "You're welcome, Master Christof," | replied softly.

"I am sorry," he said quietly, "if | have caused you to fear me..."

I lay quietly and listened to his breathing for a moment before he spoke again.

"| know you are female," he said so quietly | almost didn't hear.

"After seeing you at the posts, | realize you are not dangerous. It would be simple to overpower you..."

I agreed, but didn't say anything else. It wasn't clear to me what I should say to him. He was right and I understood why he feared females.

Fearing me was admittedly pointless

Master Christof wasn't like the others. He was afraid of something that had taken and used him. Honestly, I felt a connection to him.

He seemed different than he had been earlier today. He absent!

He rubbed my arms. He didn't touch my hips. Master Christof was relaxed and, for some reason, I didn't mind the touching. The content is on Read the latest chapter there!

It had been a long day and I drifted, half asleep. Slowly, Master Christof shifted so I lay against him and he was on top watching me. I didn't stop him as he ran a hand over my chest. The content is on Read the latest chapter there!

Master Christof's fingers were explorative, tentative. He seemed to be gauging my reactions. I made no sound of protest as the contact became more sexual.

He touched the entirety of both breasts before brushing his fingers over the nipples. I was arching into his hand by the intimate. He teased the point. The pain from before was gone and his light wispy touching was driving me wild. When his hand strayed lower I spread my legs for him, accepting this as my duty here. The content is on Read the latest chapter there!

"You don't have to, if you don't want to," he whispered in my ear.
