

All For You Chapter 20

As soon as Fang Zhenyi opened her mouth, she saw Little Liu Liu take the initiative to poke her little head out of the blanket.

The feverish little face was red and flushed.

Turning his head towards Fang Zhenyi to look over

Everyone looked at this scene with surprise, even Fang Zhenyi felt that she was close to success.

The next second, her small mouth deflated.

“Wha...”

A heart-breaking cry instantly spread throughout the room.

Fang Zhenyi wanted to say something else, but before she could get close to Little Liu Liu, Little Liu Liu had already jumped into Yu Yue Han’s arms, hugging him and bawling like an abandoned child.

“So horrible”

“I don’t want her, I just want my pretty sister”

“Without Pretty Sister, Little Liu Liu is going to die”

“Nonsense!” Yu Yue Han’s heart jerked and his arms around her tightened silently, “With Daddy around, I won’t let anything happen to you.”

“It’s going to be sad to die without my pretty sister, sobbing,” Little Liu Liu’s small white arms lifted, wiping tears from her eyes in pity.

After two sobs, the tears fell down in a clatter.

Yu Yuehan: “.....”

“What are you all standing still for? Don’t go find Nian Xiaomu yet!”

“Young, young master, you mean, reintroduce Nian Xiaomu back to take care of little miss?” The butler was frozen by the yell, and then asked in a dumbfounded manner.

Yu Yuehan gave him a cross look, “Or else what?!”

Could it be that he really wanted to see his little princess sad until she died?

“Yes, yes, yes, I’ll go and invite right away!” The butler received his orders and hurriedly turned his head and ran.

As soon as the butler left, the atmosphere in the room seemed to lighten up.

When Little Liu Liu heard that Nian Xiao Mu was coming back, her tears stopped at once, bean-sized teardrops hung on her eyelids, saying that she would not cry.

He rubbed himself in Yu Yuehan’s arms, softly pampering himself, “Poa hug ~”

“.....”

Yu Yuehan looked at the little girl whose instant rainstorm turned to a sunny day and reached out to rub her brow.

“Take the medicine first.”

“No, want pretty sister to feed it.” Little Liu Liu buried her face into his chest, and refused in a milky voice.

He couldn’t take the medicine until he saw his pretty sister.

What if she took the medicine and then her big brother wouldn’t let her come back?

Yu Yuehan hugged the little girl that even he was wary of, not to mention how heartbroken he was.

“Call the housekeeper and tell him to bring Nian Xiaomu back to me in the shortest possible time!”

In the bachelor flat.

When she got home, she turned her grief and anger into sleep, and went to bed after washing up.

But I don’t know if it was because she was angry or because she couldn’t rest assured about Xiao Liu Liu, but she tossed and turned and couldn’t sleep.

I tossed and turned until midnight, when I felt a little sleepy.

“Dingdong...”

“Dingdong...”

“Ding dong – ding dong -”

The doorbell rang over and over again.

“What time is it? Believe it or not, I’m going to file a complaint against you for disturbing the public” Nian Xiaomu oohed and aahed as she pulled open the door of her room, and when she saw the person standing outside the door, the words that came to her lips stopped instantly.

The housekeeper, dressed in black and white professional attire, with a few bodyguards, was standing at the door of her house like a door god.

The look in her eyes burned as if she were looking at a lump of gold, making her shiver and shrink inward.

Was she dreaming, or had she seen a ghost?

“Miss Nian, it’s like this, I found your home address from your interview resume, this trip over is to hope that you can return to the Yu family and take care of our little miss.” The butler leaned down and spoke incomparably politely.

“..... inviting me back?” Nian Xiaomu pointed at her nose and asked once more with uncertainty.
