Chapter 1031 - You Call This a Music Class

With the promotion from several Maestros.

Many netizens who originally weren't watching the program were drawn in out of curiosity!

Xian Yu's kindergarten music class had maximized countless people's expectations.

Many of the newly joined audience even parachuted directly into this segment.

Meanwhile, at the kindergarten.

Several teachers were watching the program together.

One of the teachers asked, "Mr. Li, you are a music teacher, how do you usually conduct music classes for the children?"

"Huh?"

Mr. Li chuckled, "Of course, I sing nursery rhymes with the children."

That teacher asked again, "What do you think Teacher Admirable Fish will do for his music class?"

Mr. Li touched his forehead, "Don't compare me to Maestro; how would I know how Maestro conducts a music class?"

Everyone said, "Just imagine it."

Mr. Li uncertainly said, "He might create a new nursery rhyme to teach the kids, like during the outdoor class when he created a game song 'Drop the Handkerchief'. Maybe he'll come up with another nursery rhyme for this music class. That's the difference between us regular music teachers and professional players, nothing more to say."

"Another nursery rhyme?"

"No wonder everyone online is looking forward to this segment."

One teacher, while watching the show, kept an eye on the online activity:

"They are probably all here for Xian Yu's nursery rhyme creation."

"Definitely."

"Other music teachers teach existing nursery rhymes, Maestro's music class likely involves creating his own and teaching it."

"Everyone guessed it."

Chapter 1032 - Bloodbath on the Trending Searches

Although everyone was part of the program's recording, they didn't know about each other's work and were still puzzled as to why Xian Yu was able to get full pay despite the troubles from the production team.

At this point, after watching the music class, everyone was convinced!

"Damn!"

"Seven nursery rhymes!"

"That's too awesome!"

"It's like he's got cheats!"

“No wonder his pay is so high!”

“The effect of this music class is simply unbeatable!”

This kindergarten music class was like a show-off segment tailor-made for the representative by the production team!

Of course.

The show wasn’t over yet.

It was still Xian Yu’s screen time.

He still needed to help the children rest.

At this time.

The audience was still immersed in the shock brought by the kindergarten music class and didn’t pay much attention to Xian Yu putting the children to sleep.

The kindergarten dormitory.

The kids insisted on having Xian Yu tell them a bedtime story, mentioning the many fairy tales from “Fairytale Town.”

Xian Yu asked, “Do you know who wrote these fairy tales?”

Skipper blurted out, “Old rascal!”

Xian Yu: “...”

The audience burst into laughter at this scene.

The focus shifted slightly from the shock of the music class.

“Ha ha ha ha!”

“Fish Papa: You really need to be careful when choosing friends!”

“Classmate Skipper, this ‘old rascal’ you’re talking about is actually Teacher Admirable Fish’s good friend~”

“Will Fish Papa talk about the old rascal?”

“It’d be great to get some insider info!”

“Maybe reveal the old rascal’s address?”

“Wow, then the old rascal would really strike it rich.”

“Why?”

“He’d make a fortune selling razors!”

Chapter 1033 - Rainbow Farts

What was mentioned before?

Unless there is a guest who constantly breaks the audience’s expectations with surprises and accidents, it’s difficult for this show to blow up?

Well, now it has.

A prophecy from Qi people has come true.

Teacher Admirable Fish has met all the conditions.

At the start, designing a Werewolf game, Teacher Admirable Fish used his game designer identity to really show off!

In the first preschool class, Teacher Admirable Fish subdued the kids with his drawing skills and continued to flaunt!

During the second preschool class, Teacher Admirable Fish designed a children's game, made up nursery rhymes on the fly, still showing off!

The third preschool class was music, and Blue Star's youngest Maestro came online, switching full blast into show-off mode!

During the sleep-soothing segment, Teacher Admirable Fish flaunted an unpublished new book by Chu Kuang!

At parting, he brought out the "Happy Clapping Song", stirring emotions and flaunting his musical talent!

It's safe to say:

80% of the highlights of this episode were all on Teacher Admirable Fish!

He was already very popular, and his radiant and scene-stealing performance in the show, continuously shattering the audience's imaginations, was practically a drama in itself.

Watching his fancy moves in the preschool part, the audience reached their climax!

How could such a show not ignite?

It's like a contest, where Tong Shuwen, the coach, didn't even come up with any impressive strategies.

The Yu Dynasty just entered the field.

And no matter how good the opponent's tactics were, Teacher Admirable Fish easily broke through, putting on a one-man show.

What is this called?

This is called power breaking technique.

This is called overwhelming force with power.

Basically, no need for any fancy stuff; just keep shocking the audience with the program group and it's all settled!

“Not abiding by martial ethics!”

“Tong Shuwen really doesn't abide by martial ethics, a disgrace to our variety shows, casually designing a reality show where rules and gameplay are nothing remarkable, just relying on the guest's performance!”

“Damn it!”

Chapter 1034 - Derived Heat

Teacher Admirable Fish created a total of eight children's songs for the program!

During the recording, they even collaborated with the kids from Beihai Kindergarten.

Many parents who had not seen “Fish Walking with You” were caught off guard by these children's songs.

What's going on?

Why had Teacher Admirable Fish suddenly released so many children's songs?

No Maestro had ever written so many children's songs all at once.

They tried playing these songs for their children at home.

At the same time,

The parents who had watched the program didn't hesitate to have their children listen to these songs!

As a result,

The kids loved them right away!

Parents were overjoyed; the eight children's songs received rave reviews instantly!

"No wonder they were written by Maestro; my daughter really likes them. The lyrics are positive and the melodies are very pleasant. Thank you, Teacher Admirable Fish, for creating these songs for the children!"

"My son loves them too!"

"Not just my child, but I, as a mother, find these children's songs very pleasing to listen to, especially 'Happy Clapping Song'. My child and I sing and clap together; this song is so interactive!"

"I think 'Pull the Radish' is the most fun."

"I sang 'Two Tigers' to put my baby to sleep at night. My baby hasn't even started kindergarten yet; these songs are positive and quite suitable for early education."

"Kindergarten teachers are recommending these songs to parents in our group chats."

“I heard these songs were created for a variety show by Teacher Admirable Fish, so I specifically went to watch it. I was immediately hooked, especially by the music lesson segment; it was mind-blowing!”

Chapter 1035 - Guests

The Yu Dynasty gathered at a certain hotel.

The chat group was bustling with activity.

“Tomorrow we’re definitely recording on Mount Wudang.”

“Why?”

“Do you even need to ask why?”

“Mount Wudang is right near this hotel.”

“So do we have any guests this time?”

“I don’t know, our show is so popular, if we really wanted guests, any big name would be willing to come on.”

“Some people online say our show lacks creativity.”

“That’s just sour grapes from people in the same business, don’t mind them; our popularity is solid.”

Lin Yuan was reading the chat in the group.

Suddenly, he heard someone ringing the doorbell outside.

When he opened the door.

It turned out to be Director Tong Shuwen and screenwriter Zhu Lei looking for him.

“Please come in.”

Lin Yuan let the two in.

Tong Shuwen said with a smile, “The first episode was such a hit, now we as the director group for the second episode are under a lot of pressure, to make this episode even more suitable for Teacher Admirable Fish to show off her skills, we specifically chose Mount Wudang, a location personally picked by Teacher Admirable Fish. What plans do you have?”

“Me?”

Lin Yuan was stunned.

Zhu Lei couldn't help but laugh, “In our first episode, we didn't arrange any eye-catching game segments, which led to a lot of people criticizing our show for a lack of creativity, but you're a game designer, you should have some insights in this area, so we want to learn from you. Could you help design some innovative and creative game segments?”

“Oh.”

Lin Yuan understood.

Playing games was indeed an essential element of reality shows.

Chapter 1036 - Heartbeat Game

Xia Fan laughed the hardest.

Because she, Jian Yi, and Lin Yuan had been close since they were young.

However, neither Xia Fan nor Lin Yuan had known beforehand that Jian Yi would come over as a guest this episode.

“Ladies and gentlemen.”

Jian Yi had already stood up, making a show of fist-greeting everyone, “The thieves are too strong, we are no match for them...”

The crowd jeered, “They haven’t even made a move, and you’re already going down.”

Because of the relationship between Lin Yuan and Xia Fan.

The Yu Dynasty was also very familiar with Jian Yi.

Jian Yi rolled his eyes, “Because I didn’t expect the Yu Dynasty to be so cold-blooded, to see death without helping!”

Everyone laughed.

Jian Yi then moved on to the main topic, “The Black Wind Guild leader is getting married in five days, we still have a chance, as long as we climb Mount Wudang and learn skills, we can return a hero and save the beauty!”

Wei Haoyun couldn’t help but laugh, “By the time you learn, the beauty’s kids will be old enough to fetch soy sauce.”

“You don’t know!”

Jian Yi tried to hold back his laughter, “Wudang has a unique skill called ‘Tai Chi’. If your martial instinct is strong, you can learn it in one day; once you’ve mastered it, we will be invincible. Then, we can descend the mountain, save the beauty, and flatten Black Wind Guild in the blink of an eye.”

Wudang.

Tai Chi.

Is this episode a crossover with “Heaven-Reliant Dragon Slayer”?

Sun Yaohuo had read the original novel, “I think it’d be faster to find the Dragon Saber.”

“Then I’ll look for the Heaven-reliant Sword.”

Zhao Ying Ge spoke up, having also read the novel.

In fact, there was nobody in the Yu Dynasty who hadn’t read Chu Kuang’s wuxia novel.

“Don’t change the subject!”

Jian Yi pulled out a task card, “I have a letter of recommendation, as the son of destiny in the martial world. You follow me to Wudang to learn the legendary Tai Chi; this is a great fortune!”

This guy has been reading too many novels.

Especially the vocabulary commonly found in Xianxia novels, like “destiny” and “great fortune,” he could spout it without hesitation.

“What does the letter of recommendation say?”

“Climbing Mount Wudang is divided into several stages. We have to play a game. In the first stage, the winners get to ride a car up the mountain, and the losers must climb the first part of the mountain themselves.”

Chapter 1037 - The Great King Summoned Me to Patrol

Lin Yuan, Jiang Kui, Wei Haoyun, and Xia Fan were taking a car up the mountain.

The remaining group of four, Jian Yi, had sullen faces; they had lost the game and had to walk up the mountain.

Amidst sighs and groans,

the four began their ascent.

Jian Yi muttered, “If only we had a horse.”

Sun Yaohuo joked, “You think this is ‘Journey to the West’? You want a White Dragon Horse?”

Chen Zhiyu tried to make the best of the situation by singing, “You carry the load, I lead the horse, to greet the sunrise and bid farewell to the sunset twilight...”

All four of them together, were like the Tang Monk and his three disciples.

Jian Yi had a natural talent for variety shows, and with the experience from the first episode, everyone else was becoming more open and relaxed. Despite the tiring hike, the laughter was constant.

“Zhu Lei” followed them, snickering at their antics.

Inside the car,

Jiang Kui was laughing too, “They’re singing ‘Where is the road?’ Are they on a pilgrimage to the West?”

Xia Fan chimed in, “Then do we become the monsters that hinder their group of four disciples?”

Wei Haoyun laughed, “Looks like today we’re the ones crossing Chu Kuang.”

Mount Wudang and Tai Chi represent the novel “Heaven-Reliant Dragon Slayer,” which is by Chu Kuang.

And the reference to Journey to the West also comes from Chu Kuang's novel "Journey to the West."

"When you think about it, it's just not fair."

Xia Fan nudged Lin Yuan's arm, "Look, the 'Journey to the West' is all about singing the praises of the Tang Monk and his disciples. Why aren't there any songs about us monsters?"

Chapter 1038 - Xian Yu Should Take Medicine

Many netizens are still in the dark.

Some fans of the show are chatting.

"Speaking of 'Fish Walking with You,' it should be time for the recording of episode two, right?"

"What's the play for the second episode?"

"The first episode was so much fun, but some people on the internet said that the allure of the first episode was all thanks to Xian Yu's performance. The creativity and the games they played were pretty average."

"Such high demands. As long as it's fun to watch, that's all that matters."

"It indeed was fun to watch, but it would be great if the Yu Dynasty could play together. Always being separated isn't so nice."

"Sitting here waiting for the second episode."

"Without 'Fish Walking with You,' I'm so bored I could die. It's a pity the second episode won't be broadcast for a few more days."

Suddenly.

Someone came running to announce, “Who says it’s a few days till the second episode? Search for Chenxing on Penguin Live and watch it early. That host caught the Yu Dynasty on the set of the variety show recording!”

Holy crap!

For real?

Netizens searched with a half-doubtful mind, and then their eyes widened, “It looks like it’s really the Yu Dynasty recording the show, and Jian Yi is there too. Is he the guest for the second episode?”

Swoosh swoosh swoosh!

In less than five minutes!

The audience count in Chenxing’s live stream went through the roof!

Countless people are watching the live broadcast!

And that number is still climbing ferociously with no sign of slowing down!

Fireworks, sports cars, airplanes!

Even rockets, the most top-tier gifts in a live stream room, started popping up!

Countless expensive gifts that would excite any host if they appeared even once made Chenxing’s live stream explode today!

Chenxing, trying to calm her wildly beating heart, began to commentate for the audience:

“Little sister is very grateful for all the gifts from the bosses. The next segment being recorded should be the Yu Dynasty playing a game. The winners get to take a bus up the mountain, and the losers have to climb up on foot...”

At this point.

Chenxing said, "Let's watch the recording."

...

Chapter 1039 - Tearing off the Name Tag

He seemed to have really gotten into it.

His expressions became more animated:

"Ah sis ded da lie ded da lie ded da lie, ded da lie ded di du ded da lie ded da lie, di da lie ded di da lie ded di da lie ded, di da lie ded di da lie di ded di da lie ded da lie"

"Ah ya yo"

"Ah oh a"

"Ah ah ah ah"

"Ah ah ah ah yo"

Lin Yuan was different from Jian Yi.

He had no idol baggage to worry about.

The onlooking tourists were falling over themselves in laughter!

The entire place burst into laughter!

Calm down, will taking your meds help?

Xian Yu, are you trying to soar up to the sun and stand shoulder to shoulder with it?

Jiang Kui was laughing so hard, she doubled over!

Clutching her stomach, she cried out in collapse:

“How am I supposed to learn this!?”

There weren't even proper lyrics!

Chapter 1040 - Tearing off Name Tags_2

No way around it.

Tong Shuwen could only let the staff pull up a screen for privacy.

The round hadn't ended yet.

Next,

everyone went through another two rounds.

The ones with more wins could ride in a car.

The ones with the fewest wins had to climb the mountain.

The funniest part of this was:

Jian Yi actually won!

Can you believe it?

Even he hadn't expected it.

Because by the second round, he was out of tricks.

Facing Xia Fan, he just sang “Big Fish” like normal.

Yep.

Completely normal.

And he sang it damn seriously, too.

But then...

This guy sang so off-key!

And according to the rules of the game, the opponent had to copy him!

Imagine Xia Fan singing “Big Fish” properly, he’d crush Jian Yi!

But you ask Xia Fan to imitate Jian Yi’s off-key version of “Big Fish”?

Xia Fan couldn’t do it!

Without him saying so, who could tell he was singing “Big Fish”?

Even professional singers got confused by him and couldn’t sing!

“I might as well have lost!”

Amidst everyone’s laughter, Jian Yi collapsed!
