Chapter 1041 - Average 25 Per Person

As the announcement blared through the director's megaphone, everyone on the Blue Team tensed up!

Sun Yaohuo, speechless, said, "Eliminated so soon?"

Zhao Ying Ge sighed, "I knew Jiang Kui was the weakest, now it's going to be tough for our Blue Team!"

"Damn you..."

Jiang Kui's face fell as the director's team led her away.

Jian Yi gradually calmed down, glaring at Lin Yuan, "Now there are only three of us left on the Blue Team, and one of them is a mole!"

No mole alert.

That meant Jiang Kui was innocent!

Yet Lin Yuan stared at Jian Yi, "I suspect you're acting. Maybe you are the mole on the Blue Team. How about this, if you tell me who the mole on the Red Team is, I'll let you go."

"It sounds like you could tear me up."

Jian Yi chuckled, ready to put up a final fight, "Today, you'll see just how agile Spiderman really is."

Lin Yuan shook his head, "Have you forgotten?"

Jian Yi paused, “What?”

Lin Yuan said coolly, “I’m the creator of Spiderman.”

Chapter 1042 - Average 25 per Person_2

there was someone running over in the distance, shouting loudly, “Help!”

Everyone looked and rushed forward to assist.

It turned out that Jian Yi was chasing after Xia Fan.

Now each side had three people.

Only Wei Haoyun was missing, probably off playing somewhere.

Xia Fan looked around and wondered, “Where did Madam Haoyun go?”

“She might be the mole.”

Zhao Ying Ge said, “She’s probably waiting for us to turn on each other, and then she’ll reap the benefits.”

Xia Fan was annoyed, “Can’t you find a better comparison? You’re the dog!”

Well, well.

As soon as Zhao Ying Ge spoke, everyone became dogs.

“Get ready to tear into each other.”

Sun Yaohuo spoke; he didn’t want to wait for Wei Haoyun to show up.

Now it was three against three, not too bad a situation.

“We’re going to fight.”

Lin Yuan also spoke.

Chapter 1043 - Average of 25 Per Person_3

Lin Yuan said, “I pretended to be the mole, but whether I am or not, if I’m not mistaken, the real moles should be Chen Zhiyu and Zhao Ying Ge, otherwise Zhao Ying Ge wouldn’t have cooperated with me so seamlessly. She’s using a strategy within a strategy.”

“Are you trying to deceive us again?”

“Whether it’s a deception or not, we’ll soon find out.”

Lin Yuan said with a smile, “Let’s just wait here for the results.”

Jian Yi was restless.

At this moment, the loudspeaker broadcasted:

Jian Yi sighed, “So the mole in our blue team really is Zhao Ying Ge. Then, between you and Chen Zhiyu, one of you must be a mole.”

“I don’t believe you.”

“Then I’ll team up with you to eliminate Chen Zhiyu in a bit.”

“Really?”

Chapter 1044 - Tai Chi Chuan

“Teacher Admirable Fish’s solo performance.”

Zhu Lei was also laughing, “He falsely accused Jian Yi of being a spy, which caused Sun Yaohuo to never fully trust Jian Yi. As a result, the Blue Team was internally unstable. And in front of Sun Yaohuo, he purposefully exposed his back to Chen Zhiyu, gambling that Chen Zhiyu wouldn’t dare reveal his identity so early. Because once he did, Zhao Ying Ge would be exposed too, and then the spies would have no chance of winning.”

“The most brilliant part was him pretending to be a spy!”

“The real spy, Zhao Ying Ge, was very cooperative, trying to use their strategy against them!”

“Sun Yaohuo and Jian Yi were the strongest duo. After resolving them, the rest of the problems were easier to solve.”

“In the end, Jian Yi knew it was Xian Yu’s strategy but still cooperated with Xian Yu to rip off Chen Zhiyu’s name tag.”

“Because he could still cooperate with the remaining spy, Zhao Ying Ge, there was still a chance for victory.”

Whether in terms of competitiveness or playability,

This game did not disappoint the directors!

Apart from Jiang Kui being eliminated right at the beginning, everyone else performed very well.

And with this experience,

Jiang Kui should understand the essence of this game in the future.

Madam Haoyun is still the same Madam Haoyun; from beginning to end she was kept in the dark and bizarrely ended up winning by lying low.

Chapter 1045 - Tai Chi Chuan_2

It was called Wudang View.

At this time, in the Wudang View,

quite a few Taoist monks had heard a piece of news:

“It’s said that Teacher Admirable Fish has created a real-life version of ‘Tai Chi Chuan’ and is planning to shoot it at our Wudang View!”

“Zhang Sanfeng’s Tai Chi?”

“Isn’t that just some fanciful invention from the novels? He really wants to create such a martial skill?”

“That’s totally absurd.”

“To be honest, though, the novel is quite a good read. It portrays Mount Wudang in such a positive light. It’s just a shame that Zhang Sanfeng is a fictional character. It would be great if our Daoism actually had such a powerhouse.”

“Novels should be just novels, and reality should remain reality.”

“Teacher Admirable Fish wants to use the variety show’s influence to popularize Tai Chi Chuan? That’s just laughable. Our Wudang’s Daoist heritage is ancient and profound, and we’ve passed down our practices. Why would we need to make something up based on a novel’s description?”

“Check your phones, the priest has spoken!”

“Oh wow, our Mount Wudang’s many monks are to go and watch Teacher Admirable Fish perform Tai Chi Chuan?”

These days,

Chapter 1046 - Fun Travelogue

However, faced with this grand setup, Lin Yuan was not nervous.

Tai Chi had been passed down through generations in the Celestial Dynasty, not just by some false movements.

Nearby.

The photographer had already set up his camera and looked at Lin Yuan somewhat strangely, “Teacher Admirable Fish, when shall we start?”

“Now.”

Lin Yuan uttered.

Nearby.

The Taoist priests squinted their eyes.

The experts remained silent.

The people of the Yu Dynasty looked worriedly at Lin Yuan.

Under the camera.

Lin Yuan stood with his feet together, all joints and muscles relaxed, breathing naturally.

This was an extremely peaceful state.

Suddenly.

Lin Yuan moved.

His feet stepped half a step to the left, shoulder-width apart, and his arms slowly raised forward to shoulder level.

Chapter 1047 - Journey of Mirth_2

“This is clearly a very superior martial art!”

“How did he research and create this!?”

“That move just now, it was clearly about using the opponent’s force against them!”

“His movements are elusive and unpredictable, making it hard to guess his next move.”

“This is using softness to overcome hardness!”

“The martial arts skill of using ‘four ounces to move a thousand pounds’ has been utilized to the extreme!”

“This martial art likely has significant practical combat effectiveness, its mechanics of converting and releasing force are too well-designed.”

“Converting force relies on body movement, releasing force happens in the shaking motions. What seems like a slight sway actually hides a force of a thousand pounds!”

“Although his movements are slow, this is only for demonstration and teaching purposes. One can see that the techniques contain many characteristics of martial arts. Did you see? The move just now incorporated grappling techniques, and the method of generating force for throws and leans is also very distinctive. It’s an approach based on supporting yourself with your legs and generating power with your waist. Especially the straight punch movements, they are based on the same principles as Chinese boxing punches!”

This set of martial arts is not simple!

In modern times, no matter what martial art people practice, it's not for the purpose of fighting but for physical fitness.

Fighting is illegal, and in this peaceful era, there is no need for lethal techniques. People who study martial arts never mythologize it, but they don't deny its value either.

Many martial arts that have been passed down for hundreds of years even have their practice arranged by the military in Blue Star.

This in itself proves that martial arts truly exist, just not as mystical as depicted in martial arts novels.

Before, everyone thought Lin Yuan was just showboating.

However, at this moment.

Everyone was stunned!

Director Tong Shuwen was also stunned!

Chapter 1048 - With the Help of an Expert

"This one's called 'Journey to the Laughs'?"

"Does it have anything to do with the Journey to the West?"

"Weren't they filming at Mount Wudang?"

"Shouldn't it be called 'Heaven-Reliant Dragon Slayer'?"

“Who cares.”

“That part in the live broadcast got everyone excited!”

Online, a multitude of netizens were discussing, who knows how many times some people watched that part of the live broadcast, finding it very interesting.

The variety show circle.

Equally numerous eyes were watching!

“Does the second episode still want to win by relying on the performance of the guests?”

“Tong Shuwen is getting off cheap.”

Chapter 1049 - With the Help of an Expert_2

“This round, Teacher Admirable Fish was incredibly slick, controlling the game’s pace from beginning to end. I hope we can play these games again, especially the Name Tag Tearing part—it’s one of the ultimate classic variety games!”

...

Music composition industry.

You’ve got to understand—many composers are watching this show since Xian Yu is the youngest Maestro at Blue Star. The music circle is paying close attention to him.

“This Xian Yu has really turned music on its head.”

“The composition of ‘The King Asked Me to Patrol the Mountain’ uses very common chords, but paired with the lyrics and Journey to the West material, it suddenly becomes intriguing.”

“The following ‘Nervous’ is just chaos.”

“The previous episode had a bunch of children’s songs, and now there are two comedic songs this episode. It seems like Xian Yu isn’t planning on composing seriously anymore, traveling further and further down the path of a jester.”

“After twelve consecutive wins, does he no longer desire anything?”

“Does it sound a bit like a master’s loneliness, as if proper composition no longer excites him, so now he’s delving into bizarre experimental music, even composing children’s songs?”

Testing heart rates!

Singing competition!

Tearing name tags!

These three games this episode directly captured countless viewers.

And the entire hiking process was filled with endless laughs, particularly thanks to those two utterly absurd songs from Xian Yu!

At this moment.

Suddenly, a Maestro stated online, “Many people in the comments think ‘Nervous’ is experimental music, purely for comedic creation, but if you listen carefully, you’ll find the song includes elements like violins, dulcimers, and folk music, among others. If you’re reveling in this song, then that’s exactly right. That’s the composer’s intention. It contains great depth and vitality.”

Some agreed.

Some disagreed.

Those who agreed genuinely thought the song was interesting. Those who disagreed thought that some Maestros were just hyping up Xian Yu, since a composer of his caliber can easily be overinterpreted.

However.

Whether they agreed or not, the fact that this episode was brimming with fun is undeniable!

Chapter 1050 - Lin Tai Chi

So many people watching!

Many in the audience, who initially thought this segment might just be a comedic act, began to feel nervous. Do you have to be so serious?

Of course.

Most people didn't believe it.

"There must be a twist coming up, it's probably just for laughs, right?"

"The production costs for this segment seem pretty high."

"Right."

"They can't possibly be doing a whole Tai Chi Chuan routine."

"In fantasy novels, there are dragons too. If this episode is going for a fantasy theme, are they going to make Xian Yu play a Dragon Rider?"

“Old rascal should die!”

Old rascal: “I didn’t expect to be dragged into this.”

Chatting continued.

And so did the nonsense.

The expression on the audience’s faces was:

I’ll quietly watch your performance.

Yes.

Even though the scene was very serious and felt real, the majority of the audience still thought this part was just part of a variety show script, definitely, there would be some bizarre twist!

Maybe Xian Yu suddenly acts cute or goofy?

Or perhaps the production crew had Xian Yu rehearse a sequence of moves, add some special effects, and even possibly include a wire-hanging stunt, presenting it as a martial arts film.

While everyone was casually chatting.

On the martial arts stage.

Xian Yu, with a serious expression, faced the camera and made a gesture of clasping his fists.

The Tai Chi Salute!
