Chapter 581 - Good Luck Comes

The show ended!

Countless discussions online!

"I'm DONE!"

"Why is it Madam Haoyun again!"

"All the audience's misfortune, just to bring good luck to only Madam Haoyun!"

"As expected of Madam Haoyun, bumping into Admirable Fish twice, this luck is too amazing!"

"One woman's luck, backed by the bad luck of countless men!"

"Is there going to be a new square dance song?"

"You better not come here (fierce)!"

"Wuuuuh, I feel sorry for myself!"

"...."

Composers who pick out singers incompatible with their style would always grumble:

The luck was too bad.

Only when Admirable Fish picks Wei Haoyun, will the audience vehemently spit out:

The luck is really bad!

Audiences feel their luck is too bad!

The show's arrangement to them is no different than shouting:

Face the storm!

But not all the audience think so...

The Lin family.

The mother cooked a table of good food, seeming to celebrate, "We're really lucky, it's Wei Haoyun again, Wei Haoyun's singing is really nice!"

"I understand..."

Lin Yuan glanced over at Mother's phone: "Can we turn off the music while we're eating?"

Mother was playing the "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style".

The house has been brainwashed by this song recently, Lin Xuan couldn't take it anymore.

Lin Yao recently stopped studying in the living room and returned to her own bedroom, slamming the door shut.

Even Lin Yuan couldn't stand it anymore.

It seems they can't assign similar songs to Wei Haoyun anymore.

Anyway, the "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style" has already been representative enough, Lin Yuan doesn't need to repeat it.

Wei Haoyun's voice can sing more than just this kind of song.

Other genres, Wei Haoyun can also handle, her simple voice, without too many technical embellishments, naturally brings a very sincere feeling.

Very down-to-earth.

Also very personable.

So even though she is the same singer, Lin Yuan wanted to bring something different, as if to help Wei Haoyun further expand her repertoire.

As for the comments on the web, Lin Yuan had also seen them.

It seems everyone strongly resists another brainwashing divine song...

In fact, Lin Yuan didn't know about a characteristic called "Tsunidere".

There's a saying, "The mouth says no, but the body is very honest".

No matter if others believe the netizens' words.

Anyway, he believed.

Therefore.

When he came to the production team the next day, he handed Wei Haoyun a very special song.

"Teacher Admirable Fish..."

The moment Wei Haoyun saw the song title, her voice began to tremble!

When she received "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style", after Wei Haoyun went through the melody in her head once, she was very certain that it was a song in her style.

But this time, the song that Admirable Fish brought out, Wei Haoyun did not even need to look at the melody!

Just a song title lay before Wei Haoyun, she was one hundred percent certain:

This song was made for her!

Teacher Admirable Fish custom-made a song for her—

Because this song is called:

Good! Luck! Is! Coming!

Perfectly fitting Wei Haoyun's name!

Even if Admirable Fish said that the song title was just a coincidence, Wei Haoyun would not believe it!

Wei Haoyun, "Good Luck is Coming"!

How could there be such a coincidence in the world?

Even!

Wei Haoyun was very certain!

This song was written by Admirable Fish recently!

Because the collaboration between Teacher Admirable Fish and herself was accidental, neither she, Admirable Fish nor anyone else could have anticipated it, so the only possibility was that Admirable Fish had written such a song specifically for her these days!

Maestro Junior...

Actually wrote such a song for her in a variety show?

The song title is her name!

What kind of treatment is this?!

Wei Haoyun's gaze flickered, even showing a hint of crystal-clear emotion.

Suddenly.

In her mind, she had an unprecedented impulse, and she made a big decision.

But she didn't say anything, she just got up and bowed deeply to Xian Yu.

...

Lin Yuan had no idea how the song "Fortune is Coming" he suggested had shocked Wei Haoyun, and what decision it had induced her to make.

It was quite a coincidence.

The song's title was quite fitting for Wei Haoyun.

Wei Haoyun happened to be able to sing this kind of song with a rustic voice.

Under these circumstances, Lin Yuan had no choice but to suggest this song.

Moreover, he had no intention of retreating permanently from the path of catchy eye-grabbing songs.

This is the interesting part of "Our Song".

If it were on "The Masked Singer".

The songs that Lin Yuan currently suggests are quite risky.

They might even get eliminated.

But "Our Song" is aimed at the general public, and the judges are just ordinary audience members.

There's no Maestro.

There's no judging panel.

And there's no discerning music enthusiast audience.

The most popular music among ordinary people, young and old, is easily accepted on this stage!

This is what provided Lin Yuan with the opportunity to suggest such songs.

Of course.

If one were to perform a show-stopping song like "Exaggerated" on this stage, the effect would be outstanding as well.

But there's no need for that yet.

Wei Haoyun is not a show-stopping type of singer, she has her own unique style.

The following few days were spent in rehearsals and such.

And when the fifth match began and the performance order was announced, the audience was stunned!

Their worst fears had come to life!

Madam Haoyun was opening the show today!

If Madam Haoyun were to sing a song like "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style" today, how would they watch the rest of the show?

It would be impossible to watch!

Everyone would be brainwashed!

Everyone would be stuck in the rhythm of the captivating song and not be able to escape!

Backstage.

The singers were all dazed.

"Madam Haoyun is opening the show!"

"I'm following Madam Haoyun??"

"How do I follow Madam Haoyun's act!"

"After she finishes singing, everyone will be captivated by her song! Stuck! In it!"

"They simply won't be able to get out!"

"This program team, disgusting!"

The songwriters were all equally stunned.

With Madam Haoyun opening, wouldn't she take everyone straight to the square dance scene?

What other songs should be sung afterward, and what kind of competition would there be!

Might as well go straight for square dances!

But her song this time was quite emotional and required the audience to calm down to be able to appreciate it.

But after Madam Haoyun's performance, could the audience really calm down?

Madam Haoyun, the reason why she is called Madam Haoyun, is because she brings misfortune to everyone else!

Only Wei Haoyun, blissfully stepped onto the stage. Her glowing face made the audience shudder!

Someone even screamed out a popular joke online:

"Don't come over!"

Wei Haoyun actually responded, "I insist on coming over."

Ha!

The entire venue burst out laughing!

The song hadn't even started to play yet, but it already had a certain flair!

However.

When the music started and the words "Fortune is Coming" appeared on the big screen, the whole audience was already more than just laughing!

They were bending over in laughter!

They were falling all over each other!

Everyone, upon seeing the title of the song, laughed so hard they couldn't catch their breath. The whole internet said 'Don't come over,' and yet you insist on singing "Fortune is Coming"!?

We told you not to come over!

But you insisted!

Your presence on stage, is fortune coming?

This is clearly misfortune coming!!

Chapter 582 - Absorbing Aura

Not just at the scene.

Even the audiences in front of the screen couldn't handle it anymore, especially after hearing such festive and noisy music. They could almost imagine what this song would be like!

"You're already opening the show, and you're still saying 'Good Luck Is Coming' to us?"

"Wei Haoyun is so lucky, she's met Fish Papa, such a warm-hearted person, twice. He's willing to play along with her, but we the audience is really unlucky!"

"Xian Yu is amazing, making up such a funny song title. It's truly made-to-measure!"

"Fish Papa is gone down the silly route and can't get back."

"Fish Papa, you are a god. Don't often come to earth to tease us mortals!"

"Close the door, no one is allowed to leave!"

"We have welded the car door shut! No one can get off the vehicle!"

"Everyone's doomed!"

"..."

Come at me!

Who's afraid of whom!

The audience pushes their limits, they have endured through 'The Most Dazzling Ethnic Style', what else is there to fear!

The Bear Clan fears nothing!

Both on-site and in front of the screens, everyone shows a ready-to-die expression!

On the stage.

Wei Haoyun picked up the microphone, and with her familiar loud and resonant voice, she flawlessly brought out a delightful melody:

"Good luck is coming, wishing you good luck

Good luck brings joy and love

Good luck is coming, we are wishing for good luck

Welcome to good luck, prosperity, success and wide connections..."

Swipe, swipe, swipe.

The audience was dumbfounded.

Instead of being brought to a square dance by the song, they felt like they were watching a harmonious spring festival gala?

Everyone looked stunned.

This song...

Doesn't seem to be what we thought it was?

It really is 'Good Luck Is Coming', the 'luck' of 'good luck'!

Celebratory!

Joyful!

Warm!

The sudden pleasantness caught everyone off guard!

No one found this song tacky; on the contrary, they thought it was very pleasant to listen to!

It's so likable!

Wei Haoyun continued to sing:

"Make a thousand origami cranes, tie a red ribbon, wish good people good luck every day, your hardworking life is beautiful, your health is always in spring, your life's hard work is for smiles to bloom..."

Beautiful!

Truly fragrant!

Wei Haoyun's simple and unpretentious voice seems to send the most beautiful wishes to all the audience!

Wei Haoyun continued to sing:

"Knot a lover's knot, ask the spring breeze to cut the ribbon, wish Blue Star's sun, moon, and year will be lucky every year, you dance in the peaceful year, you soar in the new era, your happy home welcomes blooming flowers!"

Backstage.

The singers looked at each other.

The composers also glanced at each other.

"She changed her style!"

"This song is also amazing!"

"The melody is simple, but the content is sincere!"

"This song is not tacky or brainwashing at all, but it leaves a deep impression on people after they listen to it."

"Xian Yu truly knows how to play!"

"..."

She really knows how to play!

Everyone thought they would be taken to a square dance scene, but they ended up landing at the 'Spring Festival gala' scene!

"Damn..."

"I think I'm becoming a fan of Madam Haoyun?"

"Is it still possible to leave now?"

"After listening to so many songs of Madam Haoyun, this one exceeds all!"

"...."

Not sure who started it.

Suddenly, countless wishes appeared in the live chat:

"Madam Haoyun bless me to draw a rare card tonight!"

"I wish to pass the civil service examination next month!"

"Pass the professional course with high scores!"

"Madam Haoyun, bless me to pass the interview tomorrow, I'll go to the interview while listening to this song tomorrow!"

"Absorb absorb absorb absorb!"

"Absorbing Madam Haoyun's luck, confessing to my crush tomorrow!"

"Good dizzy milk, wish you good dizzy milk!"

"The wish from the person above is the most sincere wish I've ever heard!"

"..."

If "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style" is a song that aunties love;

Then "Good luck is Coming" is a song that many people enjoy!

Its composition isn't complex.

Its singing doesn't show off any particular skills.

But the emotions and wishes it expresses can be conveyed to people's hearts in an instant through simple lyrics and melody!

It fits perfectly with Wei Haoyun singing this song!

No one is more suitable for this song than Wei Haoyun!

Whether it's in terms of voice or even the singer's name, it's all true!

The audience is on fire!

Some people even clap their hands!

These applause, combined with the catchy rhythm of the song, enhance the atmosphere of the song!

The singers backstage are stunned!

"The audience is so responsive!"

"Madam Haoyun is truly exceptional this time!"

"Fish Papa can really play any song!"

"I want to snatch some luck from Madam Haoyun!"

"Fish Papa has paved a new musical path for Madam Haoyun!"

"..."

The song is too simple.

Some singers can't help but sing along.

At the final climax, almost the entire audience joins in:

"Good luck is coming, I wish you good luck, bringing joy and love, we are fortunate, facing luck, prosperous and thriving across the world!"

Madam Haoyun winds up.

Three concise words:

"Good! Luck! Comes!"

Wei Haoyun's actions, simple and straightforward, eyes firm, the microphone suddenly skewed to the side of her face, as if frozen in time.

At the same time, the music stops!

Compared to "Stay".

This "Good Luck Comes" is beyond criticism!

Applause breaks out!

The venue erupts with countless applause!

Wei Haoyun takes a deep breath, turns her head to look at Lin Yuan, her smile broad and generous.

Lin Yuan gives a thumbs up.

This song, Wei Haoyun really sang it well, as if this song was inherently meant for her!

The atmosphere on site!

The audience interaction!

This is the highlight of the show!

Host Anhong walks onto the stage, his voice full of laughter, "Good luck is coming, I wish you good luck, did you all get the blessings from Madam Haoyun?"

"We got it!"

The audience shouts out.

Some are moved to tears.

Finally, Fish Papa isn't messing around anymore!

Finally, Fish Papa has gotten serious!

Although this song is still quite different from Xian Yu's previous works in style.

But who doesn't like such a positive and harmonious song!

And on the screen.

Some audience members have already dragged the progress bar, replaying "Good Luck Comes", and began to draw cards!

"Good luck comes!"

"Good luck comes!"

Snap, one audience member draws an SSR!

This audience member immediately shows off online: "This song is so awesome, I'm now a die-hard fan of Madam Haoyun, I must summon Madam Haoyun when I'm drawing cards!"

Following this.

Whether serious.

Or joking.

More and more people join in: "I'm here to fulfill my vow, just listened to 'Good Luck Comes' and confessed to my goddess, she agreed!"

"Madam Haoyun rocks!"

"Brothers, get her!"

"No, I'm dizzy!"

"..."

Talking about looks and figure, Madam Haoyun is considered above average in the entertainment industry, and she might be a bit off when standing next to beautiful female stars, but she has met the standard of beauty for ordinary people.

The most important thing is:

Madam Haoyun's assets are quite substantial.

Bouncing along with every step she takes!

So, inducing some teasing was expected.

But these teases are actually without much malice.

Everyone loves this song!

And because of this song, many people have started to like Madam Haoyun, and even directly became her fans because of this song!

Chapter 583 - Good Luck Doesn't Favor Fools

After the show ended.

The song "Good Luck is Coming" was now a hit!

Especially among the elderly in the audience, they absolutely loved this kind of song!

After the competition.

The production team released an official voting statistic:

Those who voted for "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style" were mainly dancing grannies from the square.

But those who voted for "Good Luck is Coming" were mainly the elderly men and women...

Having an elder at home is as good as having a precious gem.

If we can say, the grannies are the decision-makers of the households;

Then the elderly men and women are the supreme emperors of the households!

The supreme emperors don't often speak, but when they do, who dares not to listen at home?

Furthermore...

The elderly men and women enjoy this song; many young audiences actually also really like this song.

Especially after everyone listened to "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style".

Compared to that dance craze song, this song is much more sincere and filled with positive energy!

Fish Papa is making some noise!

So...

Either actively or passively...

Everyone unanimously voted "Good Luck is Coming" as the first-place song for this period!

However.

The impact of this song is not just limited to a variety show.

The next day.

Lin Xuan rarely took Big Yaoyao out shopping.

During their shopping trip, they were surprised to find out that many supermarkets and other places were all playing the same song:

"Good luck is coming, wishing you good luck..."

They finally changed places, but they were playing the song here too:

"Good luck is coming, bringing happiness and love..."

Even though it's her precious younger brother's song, Lin Xuan felt exhausted from listening to it.

She changed places again and once again the song is playing:

"Good luck is coming, we're welcoming good luck, thriving and prospering all over the place..."

Oh my God!

It's still not over, isn't it!

This good luck is coming, it can't be chased away, nor can it be avoided!

After shopping, Lin Xuan and Lin Yao almost had an entire day of "Good Luck is Coming", to the point of having their minds thoroughly washed!

Finally done with the shopping trip, Lin Xuan drove home.

While waiting for the red light, Lin Xuan sighed: "Finally, I don't have to be ruled by 'Good Luck is Coming'."

Big Yaoyao nodded deeply in agreement.

However, when the two of them drove past a plaza, an even more horrific song suddenly rang in their ears:

"The vast horizon is my love, at the foot of the rolling hills, flowers are blooming!"

It's "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style"!

Lin Xuan: "..."

Lin Yao: "..."

Please spare us!

Can't we continue listening to "Good Luck is Coming"?

Lin Xuan was on the verge of a meltdown.

Before Lin Yao rolled up the car window, she heard her brother's voice coming from the loudspeaker:

"Stay!"

With both "Good Luck is Coming" and "Stay", Lin Yao was also on the verge of a meltdown.

On this day.

The experience of Lin Xuan and Lin Yao was definitely not an isolated event——

Just on this day.

Almost everyone who went out was thoroughly ruled by "Good Luck is Coming" in the streets and alleys!

Even if they escaped "Good Luck is Coming".

There's still the dance craze "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style" waiting for them.

It's as if the entire world is filled with Madam Haoyun!

As a result, everyone's minds completely broke down!

Swipe, swipe, swipe!

Complaints might arrive late, but they never fail to show up——

"Our local market has been completely occupied by 'Good Luck is Coming'!"

"Supermarkets are playing it, restaurants are playing it, even clothing stores are damn playing this song!"

"Even the best song, if you make me listen to it all day, I can't stand it!"

"Who was it that said 'Good Luck is Coming' isn't a brainwashing song, stand up, I can't even read these three words now, just looking at them makes me automatically start singing!"

"This too is a brainwashing song!"

"Madam Haoyun is everywhere!"

"We're surrounded by Madam Haoyun!"

"Stop it, Fish Papa, Madam Haoyun is everywhere outside!"

"Fish Papa, look at what you've done!"

"What a calamity!"

"..."

Netizens finally experienced the fear of being ruled by a street song!

This song is simply more ubiquitous than "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style"!

The scariest thing is...

When someone opened a live streaming website, intending to watch a streamer playing a game, the streamer nervously rubbed his hands.

"Guys, the game official is doing a skin drawing event, I plan to draw five thousand dollars' worth of skins in today's live stream!"

In that instant.

Many viewers in the live stream room had a bad premonition.

Just as they thought!

The next moment, the streamer opened the player and started playing "Good Luck is Coming"!

Along with the song.

The streamer was excited to the point of turning red:

"The battle song has already started, Madam Haoyun bless, I must draw the Epic Dragon Blind in this round!"

The bullet screen instantly exploded——

"Please spare us!"

"Streamer, be a human!"

"One more time and unfollow!"

"One more time and suicidal!"

"I'm going to puke, excuse me!"

"My god, I finally understand today what it means to listen to a song until you're sick of it!"

"..."

Getting sick of it is not going to help.

The streamer has already entered the zone!

What's even scarier is that with the help of this song, the streamer is getting everything he wants!

In the end, the streamer was almost on his knees:

"Madam Haoyun, forever a god!"

The bullet screen looked dumbfounded, and some even had sinful thoughts:

Should...should I try it too?

After another day, along with the explosion of "Good Luck is Coming", even the ribbon-cutting ceremonies at some stores started to play this song!

Why?

This song is festive!

This song is auspicious!

Aren't businesses hoping for a booming business and continuous good luck when they open?

Bang!

This song had completely exploded!

In just a few short days, it had enabled countless people in Qin, Qi, Chu, and Yan to be thoroughly familiar with this song!

But it's not over yet.

Just when everyone thought they could bear through the heat wave of this song in a while, Blue Star Television dropped a bombshell news——

The Spring Festival Gala team intends to invite Madam Haoyun to perform "Good Luck is Coming" on stage!

Yes!

The Spring Festival Gala is inviting Madam Haoyun!

At this moment, netizens completely lost it:

"So I have to listen to this song until Chinese New Year?"

"It's still several months until Chinese New Year!"

"I never thought that by the end of this year, there would be a woman singing to me tirelessly!"

"She sings to me when she crowds at the market, she sings to me on the plaza, she even sang to me downstairs of my house last night!"

"Madam Haoyun, don't come over here!"

"Madam Haoyun: The door is welded shut, no one is getting out, take off your pants!"

"A petition signed in blood by ten thousand people, don't let Madam Haoyun get close to Fish Papa next episode!"

"If the production team dares to let Fish Papa and Madam Haoyun cooperate again, I'm going to blow up the auditorium!"

"Fish Papa, save your child!"

"..."

More and more viewers can't stand it anymore!

But it's weird if they're not being masochistic...

These people say they can't stand it, but when they themselves go play games or draw prizes, they will also play this song.

Muttering something to themselves, as devoted as they can be:

"Blessings from Madam Haoyun!"

Unfortunately, not everyone can benefit from this tactic.

In response to this, some netizens teased:

"Good luck doesn't favor fools."

Chapter 584 - Koi Carp

Wei Haoyun is on fire!

Following the success of "Good Luck Comes", people are not seeking the deities anymore; they are worshipping Madam Haoyun!

Wei Haoyun herself is flabbergasted...

She thought "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style" would be her magnum opus.

Little did she know that she would follow it up with "Good Luck Comes"!

Wei Haoyun doesn't know whether to thank her parents for giving her such a fortuitous name or to thank Teacher Admirable Fish for giving her such a great song...

The song has even caught the attention of the Spring Festival show production team!

You have to understand!

For singers, male or female, it's not easy to get onto the Spring Festival program.

Yet Wei Haoyun, a controversial top tier singer, has managed to get there with "Good Luck Comes"!

It's the Spring Festival show!

After one performs on such a stage, who would dare to call their songs vulgar?

That's not vulgarity!

That's the epitome of popularity!

It's time!

An ambition sparks in Wei Haoyun's eyes!

She once felt lost about her musical path and disappointed in her career.

But now, she has found her life direction!

With this in mind.

Wei Haoyun logs into her fan club.

The number of comments on her fan club is hundreds of times more than it used to be!

All of this happened after she sang two songs by Admirable Fish.

She opens the e-shop.

Wei Haoyun pays one hundred yuan and buys a name changing card.

Her original name was Wei Haoyun, but now she has changed it to:

Lucky Koi!

From today onwards, Wei Haoyun is not just Wei Haoyun, she is also Lucky Koi!

Yes.

Wei Haoyun has decided.

She will follow closely behind Teacher Admirable Fish in the future. She wants to join the Yu Dynasty!

Changing her name now is just Wei Haoyun's way of expressing her resolution.

Wei Haoyun is now the focus of attention.

As soon as she changes her name, the netizens take notice.

Not all celebrities use their real names for their Weibo accounts, many come up with creative nicknames. So, this is nothing unusual.

But...

The name Wei Haoyun changed her name to is so special!

Lucky Koi!

This is clearly a fish!

Even if people try not to think about it, it's hard to avoid the connection—

"Madam Haoyun changed her name to Lucky Koi?"

"Is she going to join the Yu Dynasty?"

"The members of the Yu Dynasty who appeared on The Masked Singer all adopted fish images. Madam Haoyun also gave herself a fish name, which shows her loyalty to Fish Daddy!"

"It's over. Madam Haoyun is completely captivated by Fish Daddy. She's outright offering her allegiance!"

"Fish Daddy, stop your sorcery. Don't let Madam Haoyun join us!"

"Madam Haoyun is terrifying. She's everywhere!"

"Congratulations to the Yu Dynasty on gaining a new general!"

"..."

The currently recognized members of the Yu Dynasty are these five:

Sun Yaohuo, Jiang Kui, Zhao Ying Ge, Xia Fan, and Chen Zhiyu.

Many people thought the members of the Yu Dynasty would never change.

But seeing Madam Haoyun's current trend, could she also be joining the Yu Dynasty in the future?

The Yu Dynasty is expanding!

Meanwhile.

Many people are starting to sense something.

They have witnessed the process of Admirable Fish capturing Madam Haoyun's loyalty.

The way things are going, it's practically a done deal!

Everyone knows:

Madam Haoyun's success can be completely attributed to Admirable Fish.

Everyone saw it live.

So, honestly.

If anyone else stood where Madam Haoyun is standing now, they would be won over by an impressive composer like Admirable Fish too.

And not merely won over, they'd be sincerely convinced.

Because what Admirable Fish gave to Madam Haoyun was not just two songs.

What Admirable Fish gave Madam Haoyun was a direction in life, and as a songwriter, his respect towards a singer, among other things.

Lin Yuan was unaware of Wei Haoyun's name change to "Koi".

He only found out when his elder sister mentioned it after he had come home that night.

His sister asked curiously, "Do you agree with it?"

Lin Yuan was taken aback, "Agree with what?"

His sister said, "Of course, it's regarding Wei Haoyun joining the Yu Dynasty."

Lin Yuan: "..."

The Yu Dynasty was a label largely attributed by outsiders.

For Lin Yuan, it was simply a group of singers who got along well and hung out together.

If Wei Haoyun wanted to be friends with him and Sun Yaohuo and the rest, Lin Yuan had no objections.

But ...

Considering the members of the Yu Dynasty, Lin Yuan would have to write songs for them. Hence, he felt that they couldn't just let anyone join in the future. This small group should have some entry criteria.

More members would mean a heavier burden.

Let's just consider it a fun group.

When Lin Yuan was a kid, he, Jian Yi and Xia Fan referred to themselves as the "The Three Musketeers".

To Lin Yuan, "The Yu Dynasty" was no different.

It was an upgraded version of "The Three Musketeers" from his childhood.

Ten members seemed just fine...

Lin Yuan seemed lost in thought.

In the Yu Dynasty, apart from himself, there were ten singers, which he could manage.

The group was not too big at the moment.

Letting Wei Haoyun join would just increase the number to six.

Lin Yuan suddenly thought of One Piece...

In the beginning, only Zoro was on Luffy's ship.

All the other crew members joined through countless encounters.

Like Nami.

Like...

It seemed like he was playing the role of Luffy now, thought Lin Yuan. He found it quite amusing.

However.

He probably wouldn't encounter Wei Haoyun anymore.

In this competition, the probability of drawing the same person twice was already very low.

Three times?

Even if the program group tried to demonstrate fairness, the audience would definitely not believe it.

Lin Yuan didn't want to continue collaborating with Wei Haoyun in the next round, not because he wasn't fond of him, but because if he continued to collaborate with Wei Haoyun, the style of music would have to be repeated. The audience needed novelty, or else his popularity wouldn't rise rapidly.

Lin Yuan hadn't forgotten his goal.

He couldn't slack off in accumulating popularity.

However, in the next show, there would be no competition involving Lin Yuan.

Lin Yuan had to wait until the show after next.

This gave Lin Yuan some free time to deal with some other things -

The matter of the movie!

Some time had passed since the end of "Spiderman", and the crew received adequate rest.

Lin Yuan was ready to start filming a new movie.

The new movie was called "Life of Pi".

Yes, it was this movie.

Having delayed the release twice since the script was out, Lin Yuan no longer had to procrastinate.

The preparations at the company were complete.

So.

Just a few days later, Lin Yuan appeared on the set to begin the official shooting of "Life of Pi"!

However...

This time Lin Yuan did not choose Director Yi Chenggong to continue. The reason being that "Life of Pi" posed high demands on the director.

Even if his script specified how to film, there were many challenges that remained.

Under these circumstances, Lin Yuan could only opt for another director to collaborate with.

This director was one the company had poached from Qi Continent early on and was the top director within the company...

Du An!

Du An followed the director-centered approach and shouldn't have collaborated with Lin Yuan in theory.

But for some reason, Du An was willing to let go of his ego and center the movie around Lin Yuan's script to make this new film.

Lin Yuan gladly agreed, of course.

Leaving aside the issues with the director-centered approach, Du An's directorial abilities were indeed very strong.

As a result.

When the playgroup decided on the project, Yi Chenggong, who had not been chosen as the director, was left feeling lost and distraught.

It seemed like Mr. Lin no longer needed him...

Chapter 585 -It's Impossible to Work for Others

Lin Yuan had developed a go-to crew through the few films he had directed.

The core members of this movie crew remained constant, especially the producer Shen Qing and the director Yi Chenggong.

However, when Mr. Lin announced the new movie project, although the crew stayed mostly unchanged, the director position shifted from Yi Chenggong to Du An, leaving Yi Chenggong inevitably disappointed.

Though Yi Chenggong understood deep down:

In terms of directing capability, he certainly wasn't as accomplished as Du An, the great director Mr. Lin had specifically hired from Qi Continent.

Moreover...

Du An even agreed to become a tool for Mr. Lin, in order to serve as the director of "Life of Pi". This was indeed a huge sacrifice.

Because under normal circumstances,

A director of Du An's caliber would not accept a subordinate position.

So, not only was Yi Chenggong upset, Du An was likewise aggrieved.

Shen Qing kept his position.

But seeing Lin Yuan's new movie go forward with Du An instead of Yi Chenggong, Shen Qing also felt somewhat strange.

After all, they had been working together for so long, and Shen Qing had built a good rapport with Yi Chenggong. Therefore, he accompanied Yi Chenggong for some drinks to comfort this old friend:

"I think Mr. Lin must have felt this film's style is more suited to Du An. When there's a movie more suited to your style, he'll approach you again for collaboration. I'll also talk to Mr. Lin about this..."

"No trouble."

Yi Chenggong responded with a bitter smile, "I don't blame Mr. Lin, he's already done a lot for me. I wasn't chosen this time because of my own inadequacies. I hope that Mr. Lin's film achieves the best results possible. In the meantime, I'll aim to improve my skills to keep up with Mr.

Lin's pace."

Obviously,

The scale of Mr. Lin's future movies will undoubtedly become larger and larger, demanding higher skills from the director. If Yi Chenggong's abilities stagnate, his being left out would only be a matter of time.

Just then,

Yi Chenggong's phone suddenly buzzed. He took a look and instantly sobered up from his slightly tipsy state. Shen Qing blinked at the unexpected call.

The call was from Mr. Lin.

Yi Chenggong cleared his throat and answered the phone.

He subconsciously thought Mr. Lin was calling to comfort him, but the words on the phone left him stunned. So much so that he was a bit confused when the call ended.

"So? "

Shen Qing smiled, "I told you Mr. Lin hasn't forgotten you. He's not the type to proactively comfort people. If he did, it simply means he values you."

"No, it's..."

"Then what?"

Yi Chenggong took a deep breath, exhilarated, "Mr. Lin said he's got a new script for me to direct, he'll send the script to me in a few days. His two films will start production in sequence!"

"Wow!"

Shen Qing was shocked, then overjoyed:

"Congratulations! Mr. Lin wrote a new script specially for you as compensation, he must think highly of you!"

"Yes!"

Yi Chenggong could hardly contain his excitement, the joy of the alcohol returning, "I'll definitely make the new movie perfect, I can't let Mr. Lin's hope for me go unanswered!"

...

In fact, it wasn't just to comfort Yi Chenggong, but mainly because Lin Yuan predicted that the "Life of Pi" could take quite some time to produce. The vacuum period could be quite long, so he wanted to let Yi Chenggong direct another movie during this process.

Based on the difficulty of shooting, the premieres of the two movies can be staggered.

However, Lin Yuan still had not decided what movie to shoot next, he planned to take a good look at his film library.

The next day,

Lin Yuan spent a rare day in his studio drawing comics.

At this point, the serialization of "Death Note" was in its latter stage and was projected to wrap up by the end of the year.

After spending a few hours on the comic,

Lin Yuan continued to write "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes".

The serialization of this novel has been proceeding in an orderly manner. The update progress is consistent with the original Poirot series, and under the steady serialization, Holmes' influence has gradually spread. More and more people are putting Holmes in a position equivalent to Poirot.

This made Lin Yuan breathe a sigh of relief.

The concept of "first impressions matter" is quite powerful. If the readers of this world have accepted Poirot first, it would not be easy to let them recognize Holmes again; but facts have proven that Poirot does not overshadow Holmes' brilliance. Due to their relationships in the series, both characters have somewhat complemented each other's success.

It's also part of Lin Yuan's master plan.

In the serialization of "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes", he often has Holmes mention Poirot, linking the two characters more closely together through Holmes' admiration for Poirot.

Finishing the novel.

It was already dark.

Jin Mu made a cup of tea for Lin Yuan, and then sat on the sofa opposite Lin Yuan and said, "Boss, the serialization of The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes series hasn't reached halfway yet, has it?"

Lin Yuan nodded.

Jin Mu understood. "We probably won't be able to catch up then."

"Catch up with what?"

"The Ultimate God of Fantasy Fiction selection starts at the end of the year and will announce the list in the early of next year. Boss is already barely meeting the qualification for the nomination, but because you've been serializing detectives these two years..."

Ultimate God?

Lin Yuan was slightly taken aback.

He remembered that he had won the GOAT award in the fantasy field.

And above the GOAT award, there was actually an Ultimate God selection.

However, due to his qualifications at the time, Lin Yuan did not become the Ultimate God.

Now according to Jin Mu, it seems that his qualifications have barely reached that threshold.

"Is there anything to say about this?"

"Of course."

Jin Mu smiled and said, "The Ultimate God is considered the top tier in the fantasy field. Not to mention Qi Continent, we only have four Ultimate Gods in Qin Continent alone, which shows how demanding this honor is. Therefore, I highly recommend that the boss consider the possibility of writing fantasy literature for his next novel.

With one or two more excellent fantasy novels, if you successfully become an Ultimate God, I can also negotiate terms with Silver Blue Books..."

"Like what?"

"Shares!"

Jin Mu said seriously, "Boss, your current share of novel revenue with Silver Blue Books is already very high, and it's almost impossible to go any further in terms of conditions and treatment. But if the boss can get the title of Ultimate God, I think we can discuss the possibility of equity investment with Silver Blue Books.

The development of Silver Blue Books has been very good in recent years, and its development momentum can be considered as the number one publishing company in Qin Continent. If you can get equity in this company, the speed of making money will definitely be much faster than the share of novel sales!"

Lin Yuan's eyes lit up!

So after maximizing the share, you can still fight for the equity of Silver Blue Books. This made him start to feel eager.

There are too many works in the system.

Lin Yuan is spending money to exchange for songs, even if these are songs that he doesn't need in the near future, he still actively exchanges them. This has led to some of Lin Yuan's money being deducted by the system.

Still short of money!

So why not strive for the shares of Silver Blue Books and make more money?

If you get the shares, your cooperation with Silver Blue Books is not just working for them anymore.

In some sense.

The current Lin Yuan is a king of workers.

Whether it's Xian Yu or Chu Kuang, they both work for the company. Although they are cherished by the bosses, compared to equity, being a worker seems less appealing, right...?

"Are you interested?"

Jin Mu discerned Lin Yuan's interest and laughed, "Indeed, it's more suitable to be a shareholder than a worker. If other authors have this idea, Silver Blue Books would definitely disagree. But for the boss, the difficulty is not high. The Ultimate God is our letter of intent for negotiations.

They have no reason to refuse as countless publishers are lining to cooperate with us as far as the Han Continent. It's just a matter of how much shares we can get."

Lin Yuan nodded firmly!

To satisfy the system's appetite, being a worker is impossible. There's no way he could be a worker in this life. He couldn't run a company as a boss. He could only be a shareholder struggling to make a living like this...

Chapter 586 -How Can Forget Journey to the West

In fact, Lin Yuan had plans to continue writing fantasy novels from the get-go. It's just that he has been writing detective novels in the recent years, the kind with lengthy plots, taking up much of his time, so he simply hadn't gotten around to starting on it.

But now...

With the temptation of being an omnipotent deity and the enhancement of his shares within sight, Lin Yuan felt he could do it anew!

So what if it's a fantasy novel?

Write it!

Not only does he need to write it, but he would also need to write an influential enough piece. After all, becoming an omnipotent deity is no easy task. Even Jin Mu had only said he'd barely met the threshold. To become an omnipotent deity, he still needed one or two fantasy novels.

One to two novels implies that even one novel could hold the promise of success. However, this one novel must have the quality worth that of two!

Besides, if the novel isn't good enough, how is one to negotiate terms with Silver Blue Books?

With this in mind, Lin Yuan began to consider what sort of novel he should start writing recently.

Western?

Or Eastern?

Lin Yuan hesitated briefly, then decided to continue writing Eastern fantasy novels because all of Chu Kuang's fantasy novels had been Eastern style so far.

The reason was simple.

After writing Western-style detective novels for such a long time, Lin Yuan was growing somewhat weary of it.

In terms of personal reading preferences, Lin Yuan was certain that he liked the Eastern artistic style better.

With that thought, Lin Yuan began to have a sense of direction.

Nevertheless, Lin Yuan solicited the opinion of his agent Jin Mu:

"What kind of fantasy novel is the most popular at the moment?"

"..."

Jin Mu's heart pounded.

He always had the feeling that he'd heard this question before.

Initially, Lin Yuan had asked him a similar question, and his answer then had been "detective novels".

At the time, Jin Mu had assumed it was nothing more than idle chatter. However, he never expected that right after he gave his response, his boss would dive headfirst into the realm of detective novels without looking back...

So, this question may be more important than he thought!

Under such circumstances, Jin Mu had no choice but to think carefully.

After several minutes, he finally responded hesitantly, "Various themes in the fantasy domain are all quite popular. But in recent years, the most popular genre is Xianxia which you pioneered..."

"Xianxia?"

"Yes."

Jin Mu explained with great familiarity, "Ever since you pioneered the Xianxia genre with 'Zhu Xian', an increasing number of fantasy writers have started to revolve their works around this theme. Currently, among the top six best-selling fantasy novels, three are Xianxia, and three others are adventure novels set in different worlds.

The remaining spots vary, with different genres having the chance to make the list..."

Lin Yuan suddenly asked, "Has anyone written the origin of Xianxia?"

Jin Mu paused, "Origin? You mean, the creation myths recorded in the 'Classic of Mountains and Seas'?"

Lin Yuan nodded.

Jin Mu laughed and said, "Haven't the past generations summarized it already? Starting from the 'Classic of Mountains and Seas', and then progressing to the Primordial Chaos series and the Investiture of the Gods series..."

Lin Yuan nodded, realizing it afterward.

Based on what Jin Mu said, it seemed as if Blue Star already had a complete Primordial Chaos system.

If there wasn't one, Lin Yuan would consider writing on the theme of the Primordial Chaos, which was the motivation behind his inquiry.

Jin Mu was left somewhat confused.

Unexpectedly, his well-read boss didn't even know this basic common knowledge...

Was he toying with him?

Jin Mu assumed that must be the case.

Lin Yuan didn't continue the idle conversation with Jin Mu, as he had turned on his computer to search for novels based on the Primordial Chaos.

Half an hour later.

Lin Yuan nodded slightly.

It seemed there indeed were novels on the Primordial Chaos in this world--

Of course, Lin Yuan wasn't toying with Jin Mu.

If he hadn't searched the internet for information, he truly wouldn't be sure whether this world had anything about the Primordial Chaos.

He was an earthling.

The ancient Oriental mythology of the Celestial Dynasty on Earth was too scattered, and barely anyone had systematically summarized it.

It wasn't until Dreams of Divinity composed 'Buddhism was Originally Daoism' that numerous myths were summarized and incorporated into a novel. That's when novels based on the Primordial Chaos started to become popular--

By epoch, the Primordial Chaos has been regarded as the origin of Xianxia.

Thus, Lin Yuan subconsciously thought that Blue Star didn't have any Primordial Chaos related works.

Who knew the cultural inheritance on Blue Star was this robust? There was no need for Dreams of Divinity here. Through numerous predecessors' works, the Primordial Chaos of Blue Star already had a well-preserved system.

Many mythical figures had their original forms.

The entire chronology had been sorted out rather clearly.

It seemed he didn't need to write "Investiture of the Gods"--

Yes.

Originally, Lin Yuan had considered writing "Investiture of the Gods" to sort out Blue Star's Primordial Chaos system, but since someone had already sorted out similar stories, it was unnecessary.

However...

While gathering information, Lin Yuan found that the backdrop of the Primordial Chaos lacked further developmental narratives.

In other words:

There was no Journey to the West!

Whether Journey to the West counts as part of the Primordial Chaos may be debatable, but if you were to isolate it, the impact of its story can easily overshadow the Primordial Chaos stories!

Moreover...

Many characters in Journey to the West have been in existence since the Primordial Chaos era, such as The Grand Supreme Elderly Lord...

But Blue Star doesn't have "Journey to the West"!

It's a great pity for a world dominated by Eastern civilization. As a transmigrator, I must not allow this regret to go unaddressed.

In a moment...

Even the usually calm Lin Yuan could not help but feel his heart pounding!

That's "Journey to the West"!

It's one of the Four Great Classical Novels of the Celestial Dynasty!

And today, a story of such magnitude will be written by Lin Yuan, or Chu Kuang!

How could Lin Yuan not be excited?

Sun Wukong was his childhood idol!

The Great Sage Sun Wukong is the aspiration of many!

Lin Yuan was completely confident that once "Journey to the West" was out, all Xianxia novels would be overshadowed!

As to whether "Journey to the West" counts as a Xianxia novel, it doesn't really matter.

In this world, immortals are everywhere, and there are as many monsters as dogs.

The story of Journey to the West is considered mythological.

It's similar to the Primordial Chaos.

But...

The time at which Journey to the West took place is quite unique.

From the story's background settings, there are countless immortals, with the Heavenly Court ruling the world, and even the strong beings from the Primordial Chaos era work within the Heavenly Court.

Therefore...

"Journey to the West" can be understood as a story that took place after the Primordial Chaos.

Yet, it also seems to occur before all the Xianxia novels in Blue Star's timeline.

It links the past with what's to come.

After all, who would dare say that the story of "Zhu Xian" occurs before "Journey to the West"?

All the character power values in "Zhu Xian", combined, probably wouldn't even rank in "Journey to the West".

That's the way it is with mythological stories.

The earlier the period, the higher the power values; even if you put Buddha in the Primordial Chaos era, his power value wouldn't be considered high.

But let's not worry about that for now.

Lin Yuan's eyes were ablaze.

He had decided that his next fantasy novel will be "Journey to the West"!

This novel combines mythology with Xianxia civilization, also inheriting the era of the Primordial Chaos; it truly qualifies as a top-notch Eastern fantasy novel.

It is truly a story that can influence not only one generation but many!

Therefore, Lin Yuan took it very seriously!

Of course...

Since the original "Journey to the West" was written by Ol' Wu.

Wu Chengen was an ancient person, so his language was primarily classical Chinese.

Lin Yuan's "Journey to the West" would definitely need to be turned into modern text that is easy to understand.

Under such circumstances, can he still maintain the original flavor of Journey to the West?

Lin Yuan was a bit worried.

Just then...

The System chimed in:

"As the host has chosen to write about Journey to the West, the system has already converted 'Journey to the West' into a modern narrative, including small adaptations to the background."

The System highly values the dissemination of culture.

When Lin Yuan expressed his intention to write a story about Journey to the West, the System didn't even charge him, and proactively helped him!

After all...

How can one forget Journey to the West?

Chapter 587 - Xian Yu and Fei Yang

There was another reason for choosing Journey to the West:

The Journey to the West IP was enormous!

So big that many filmmakers only focus on making a film about the Great Sage Sun Wukong. Over and over, they made countless versions of the monkey, so much so that the monkey's 84,000 hairs were almost completely pulled out -

Let alone 84,000 hairs.

I'm afraid that even if you added the three life-saving hairs given to Sun Wukong by Guanyin Bodhisattva, it wouldn't be enough for those people to pluck.

And the audience keeps paying for it.

This attests to the influence of the monkey.

People simply can't get enough of it.

If it weren't so profitable, why would everyone compete with the monkey year after year.

Now everything has changed.

Blue Star doesn't have "Journey to the West".

All those monkey hairs, enough for Lin Yuan to pluck at leisure.

The prerequisite is that Lin Yuan must also build the influence of "Journey to the West".

This is undoubtedly a massive project.

Luckily, Lin Yuan had Starlight support.

To build the influence of the Journey to the West, TV series and animations of Journey to the West need to be made, all of which require the support of an entertainment company.

Having made up his mind.

Lin Yuan spent a huge sum of money to commission a Journey to the West from the System!

As for the cost, Lin Yuan didn't dare to mention it.

It was outrageously expensive.

When the novel was delivered, Lin Yuan was surprised to find that the system had arranged two versions for him -

One was the original version of the "Journey to the West".

The other was a modern version of "Journey to the West".

Lin Yuan felt that the money was well spent.

Of the two versions, the classical version had more rhythm and cultural richness; while the modern version was smoother to read, had a stronger story, and was easier for the average person to immerse themselves in.

It has to be said.

The system (reader) is quite considerate with this arrangement.

If you directly take out the original "Journey to the West", it would be almost impossible to please everyone, because the reading threshold is a bit high. Not everyone has enough classical Chinese knowledge to fully grasp the rhythm.

In contrast.

The modern version of the text is more in line with everyone's reading habits.

Moreover, the so-called modern version still leans towards the classical style, so it's very comfortable to read, with a bit of traditional Xianxia novel feel, and the dialogues are also sort of classical, as if finding a balance between classical and modern novels.

It also contains some adaptations.

It added some of the later interpretations of the Journey to the West.

Therefore, the entire novel's story has been enhanced and elevated.

For instance, when Lin Yuan read the opening scene of Sun Wukong making havoc in the Heavenly Palace in the modern version, he was extremely captivated.

"Write both versions."

After all, the length of Journey to the West is not long, the whole text is only about 800,000 to 900,000 words.

Writing both would be less than 2 million words.

For an author like Lin Yuan who writes at an "eagle speed", this was not a problem.

Having made up his mind.

Lin Yuan began to write.

He did not focus on writing one version but wrote both versions side by side.

He would write the first chapter of the classical version, then write the first chapter of the modern version.

Writing in this manner, Lin Yuan had a fascinating feeling, as if his entire understanding of the Journey to the West had deepened.

...

At the same time as writing "Journey to the West," Lin Yuan also made time to bring out a new script.

This script was prepared for Yi Chenggong.

Yi Chenggong's execution ability was strong so under conditions of not high camera difficulty, he could implement Lin Yuan's script intentions well.

So...

The script that Lin Yuan eventually prepared for Yi Chenggong was called "Truman's World"!

This was a movie that wasn't costly to produce, but was absolutely exploding with creativity -

The protagonist of the film was named Truman.

From birth, he became the lead of a popular reality show.

Countless viewers watched his "life".

Everything that happened around him was fake.

His family and friends were all actors.

But he knew nothing about it.

Truman's life was clearly arranged by the scripts of the reality show's director.

The turning point of the story was Truman wanting to break free and explore, which would inevitably wrest control away from the show's control over his life.

The people around him were all trying to stop him.

And in the midst of people stopping him, he sensed that something was amiss...

In terms of the quality of the script, this film was no weaker than "Life of Pi"!

Lin Yuan believed that with Yi Chenggong's execution skills, handling this movie would not be difficult.

The similarity between these two films is that they both have the attributes of an artistic film.

Indeed, making commercial films is more profitable.

The revenue from "Spiderman", which has already been released, is not small.

But for gaining Prestige Value, artistic films are more powerful, so Lin Yuan prepared two artistic films at one go.

After these two films are released, Lin Yuan will consider continuing filming commercial films.

One must strive for both money and prestige.

After handing over the completed script to Yi Chenggong, Lin Yuan does not continue to manage the rest.

He came to the crew of "Our Song".

Lin Yuan doesn't have to compete today, so he only makes an appearance in the drawing of lots at the end of the program, like a bit player.

However...

When Lin Yuan appeared on the live broadcast, the chatbox of the program instantly got lively:

"Fish Papa is here!"

"Hold down Wei Haoyun quick!"

"In the next round, Xian Yu and Wei Haoyun can't team up again!"

"The two of them together are just an aural nightmare!"

"No square dance, nor 'Good Luck comes'!"

"Anyone can partner with Fish Papa, just not Wei Haoyun!"

"Some kind-hearted composer, come and take Wei Haoyun away!"

The camera focuses on Wei Haoyun's face.

Wei Haoyun's face shows eager anticipation.

But Lin Yuan's face was as calm as always.

Then.

The composers took turns to draw lots.

When it was Xian Yu's turn, countless viewers in front of the screen held their breath subconsciously —

Please don't let it be Wei Haoyun again!

At last.

Lin Yuan drew his lot.

For a moment, all the singers turned to look at the card in Lin Yuan's hand.

Simultaneously with this.

The audience also had their eyes wide open.

Under the gaze of countless eyes, Lin Yuan lit up the name on the card.

"Ah, this ..."

The audience was stunned.

The singers were also dumbfounded.

Even the composers showed strange expressions.

It's not because Xian Yu drew Wei Haoyun. He didn't draw Wei Haoyun this time; he drew —

Fei Yang!

King Fei!

After a few seconds, both the live venue and the broadcast room erupted together, with many people laughing out loud:

"Isn't this a coincidence?"

"What kind of divine collaboration is this!"

"Fish Papa drew the perennial runner-up!"

"The person who made Fei Yang the perennial runner-up several times is going to collaborate with him!"

"22222222!!!"

"Is this show really unscripted?"

"Even if it is scripted, I accept it, this arrangement is epic!"

"I've always imagined this scene during each draw, and today my dream came true!"

"..."

Fei Yang, the perennial runner-up, owes it all to Xian Yu.

Including the previous "The Masked Singer", Fei Yang lost to the Prince of Lanling, Xian Yu, as the Overlord.

And now.

The perennial runner-up is actually going to collaborate with Xian Yu!

How refreshing!

Delightful to hear and see!

Exciting news for everyone!

The camera then focuses on Fei Yang's face.

Fei Yang's face is full of astonishment at the moment, he was stunned. The confusion and blankness in his eyes were felt by the audience even through the screen...

No one knows what Fei Yang is thinking at the moment.

But Fei Yang's stunned expression is making the audience extremely excited:

This pair is too interesting!

Will Xian Yu continue to take first place, remove the 'Perennial Runner-up' label that he bestowed on Fei Yang himself; acting out a case of the bell tolling for the one who tied it;

Or will Fei Yang continue to take second place, using his strength to prove just how strong the will to be second is?

Chapter 588 Voice Actors are Monsters

After the show ended.

The internet was incredibly lively.

A topic called #XianYuFeiYang# went directly into the hot search!

They're all discussing the collaboration between Xian Yu and Fei Yang!

You should know.

Before the show started, many people were fantasizing, would Xian Yu collaborate with Fei Yang...

Now!

It happened!

An internet user sighed: "This truly is a historic moment!"

Everyone felt like they had witnessed history.

Even lots of people developed a wicked sense of humor.

They're all eagerly looking forward to Fei Yang getting second place in the next round!

There were also people expressing regret:

We can't see Wei Haoyun making mischief in the next round anymore.

Despite their verbal aversion, this group of people.

A lot of people actually still liked the combination of Xian Yu and Wei Haoyun, otherwise, Wei Haoyun couldn't have won the audience vote for the first place twice in a row.

What "maternal command"...

What "Supreme Emperor command"...

If they really didn't like it, these young folks would still give it the rejection it deserved.

The truth was, their apparent disdain was merely the result of arrogance and unwillingness to admit that they actually liked the song "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style".

Lin Yuan didn't care at all.

Whether he drew Fei Yang or Wei Haoyun, it made no difference to Lin Yuan.

But Lin Yuan could understand the netizen's joy.

Fei Yang's constant second place finishes has become a running joke in the entertainment industry.

Just like the running joke about the earth singer, Wang Banbi.

Every time he was about to make big news, someone inevitably stole the headlines and grabbed the hot search!

The result caused everyone in the entertainment industry to feel a sense of insecurity...

Anytime old Wang was up to something big, some star inevitably starts a scandal.

In order to prevent Wang Banbi from making headlines, some celebrities began to run wild.

It was simply cruel.

Wang Banbi must be annoyed to death.

Although he could become a trending topic, his trending topic would always be #WangBanbiGotHisHeadlineStolenAgain#.

Fei Yang was also fing fed up.

This sh*tty draw?

He has to collaborate with Xian Yu?

In this show, the last person Fei Yang wanted to encounter was Xian Yu!

Whether it's a collaboration or a showdown!

It's not that Fei Yang disliked Xian Yu, it's just that he was kind of afraid.

With a multitude of feelings.

Fei Yang couldn't articulate it.

Anyway, he was a little resistant to collaborating with Xian Yu.

This probably has something to do with Fei Yang being someone who values face.

But what Fei Yang himself hated about himself was: While he resisted collaborating with Xian Yu, he was also harboring some kind of implicit expectation...

F!

What am I expecting?

Fei Yang wanted to slap himself.

The manager on the side teased: "If you can't beat him, join him. Chen Zhiyu has proved that this path is reliable!"

Fei Yang loudly retorted: "I was forced to join!"

Indeed, he was forced, but everyone didn't care.

Anyway, it's an irrefutable fact that Fei Yang jumped aboard Xian Yu's war chariot.

Even when posting a Tribe update, all Fei Yang could do was helplessly announce:

Yes, we have a collaboration.

On the other side.

Lin Yuan had already begun to select songs for Fei Yang.

Fei Yang's vocal range was broad, his singing skills were unfaltering.

Besides the flaw of lacking emotion in his singing, this King of Singing was pretty full of substance.

This also reduced Lin Yuan's song selection difficulty.

However.

Just when Lin Yuan was about to finalize the song, he suddenly received a phone call from Tong Shuwen.

"Due to some reasons, Fei Yang might be absent from the next episode."

Lin Yuan paused: "Did he quit?"

Tong Shuwen explained: "Not quitting, just absent for the next episode, so the program group decided to let you two collaborate after Fei Yang takes care of his things."

"Fine."

Lin Yuan didn't dig deep.

The program group understood, it meant that he really had something to deal with, Lin Yuan didn't think much about it.

"What should I do for the next episode?"

"Teacher Admirable Fish can sing by himself, I think that's what the audience is expecting."

"Sing myself?"

Lin Yuan said: "Is that appropriate?"

He didn't dare to sing more in the previous duet of "Most Dazzling Ethnic Style" with Wei Haoyun, fearing that others might think it's unfair.

"Special circumstances require special treatment."

"Fine."

Lin Yuan accepted Tong Shuwen's suggestion.

...

Several days later.

The new episode of "Our Song" was aired!

As soon as the live broadcast started, the audience subconsciously searched for the figures of Xian Yu and Fei Yang——

This is the duo that the audience is most looking forward to today!

However.

Everyone saw Xian Yu, but Fei Yang was nowhere to be found.

Where did Fei Yang go?

A lot of people were puzzled.

At this time.

An Hong walked onto the stage and announced, "I regret to inform everyone that due to personal reasons, Teacher Fei Yang will be absent from this competition, so the production team has paired Teacher Xian Yu with a new singer..."

The audience looked at each other in surprise.

Is Fei Yang absent?

No way?

Does Fei Yang not want to cooperate with Xian Yu?

Just as some people were frowning, An Hong chuckled, "The collaboration between Fei Yang and Teacher Xian Yu has not been canceled, it has just been postponed."

The audience was relieved.

Although they wouldn't see Xian Yu and Fei Yang's cooperation in this episode, as long as the cooperation between these two wasn't canceled, everyone could accept this situation and expressed understanding towards Fei Yang's circumstances.

Who will the singer partnering with Xian Yu this period be replaced with?

Mom!

Suddenly someone panicked, "It's not going to be Wei Haoyun, is it?"

No way, right?

This production team really loves stirring things up!

They might just lift Wei Haoyun up and use him as a substitute for Xian Yu!

Meanwhile, in the singer area.

The singers looked at each other.

Who's going to substitute for Fei Yang?

Wei Haoyun saw that many people were looking at him and quickly shook his head, "Not me!"

Everyone then turned to Chen Zhiyu.

Chen Zhiyu also shook his head.

Then, is it someone else from the Yu Dynasty?

Under the gaze of the singers, the Yu Dynasty collectively shook their heads.

Everyone was puzzled.

Among them.

A female singer named An'an laughed, "You guys just play dumb, I'm sure my competitor hide among you!"

Everyone laughed.

This An'an, she is a Queen of Singing, and her identity in The Masked Singer is:

An Elf!

This competition is a head-to-head confrontation.

An'an is cooperating with the composer Zheng Jing, and they are competing against the combination of Xian Yu and Fei Yang!

But now that Fei Yang is absent, even Elf An'an doesn't know who her competitor is. She can only guess that the singer working with Xian Yu is someone in this hall.

At this moment.

An Hong called An'an's name.

An'an turned around and looked at the other singers, laughing, "Regardless of who it is, I will win today!"

The singers all suddenly laughed.

However, An'an's ability is indeed strong, and everyone had no doubts about her statement.

A moment later.

An'an stood on the stage and started her performance.

At the beginning, everyone was quite composed.

But...

As they listened....

Someone's expression changed.

An'an's specialty.

Two voices!

A sweet and young voice, and a mature and tempting voice!

In the composer area.

Yang Zhongming looked at Zheng Jing, "Did you write this song specifically for her? It suits her quite well, the combination of the two voices is very good."

"I had no choice."

Zheng Jing smiled proudly, "The opponent is Little Fish. It would be quite embarrassing to lose to a junior. However, you made a slight mistake just now, this song isn't two voices..."

Not two?

Yang Zhongming was stunned.

The next moment.

An'an on stage, surprisingly sang in a third voice!

Her third voice was somewhat majestic, and when you listened, it seemed like both a male and female voice, natural yet beautiful!

In an instant!

The entire audience was shocked!

Even Yang Zhongming had a change of color, "She can sing in three voices?"

"Correct answer!"

Zheng Jing snapped his fingers, "She studied voice acting, and among the singers, not many can sing in three voices. As far as I know among all the singers I've met so far, only Little Fish can do the same. Even if other singers manage to do it, their voices aren't as natural as Little Fish's and An'an's.

So, even if Little Fish personally comes on stage without ample preparation, she may not necessarily win."

Yang Zhongming raised his eyebrows.

So, are all voice actors monsters?

Chapter 589 - Collapse of Dara

"What the hell!"

"Three different voices!"

"I always thought An'an could sing in two voices, that's her signature act, she used two voices to eliminate the robot in 'The Masked Singer', I had no idea she had a third voice!"

"Crazy!"

"You guys may not know that An'an used to be a voice actor. She can naturally produce three voices because she has practiced for many years. Most singers don't have this experience. Teacher Admirable Fish can also produce three voices naturally, so I've always been curious that if Teacher Admirable Fish has also studied voice acting."

"Awesome!"

"Just through novelty alone, An'an has won half the battle this round; Combine that with the pretty good track from Teacher Zheng Jing, I feel that Teacher Admirable Fish's singer will have a tough time."

"...."

The singers were discussing.

The audience was discussing too.

The appearance of the first two voices had garnered considerable applause, but since An'an had previously demonstrated them, everyone was not too surprised. However, she had never shown her third voice before, which left many people stunned!

"Voice actor?"

"So, Teacher An'an was a voice actor, voice actors are indeed monsters. A voice actor who has become a singer, let alone a diva, is a monster among monsters. Teacher Admirable Fish's three voices no longer stand alone, An'an is really awesome!"

"So powerful!"

"If there weren't just one person on stage, I would almost think this is a trio. An'an's three voices are too natural, they don't seem forced."

"Pfft!"

"Suddenly, I feel relieved for Fei Yang. If Fei Yang was on stage for this round, he might have ended up as runner-up. An'an's coordination of three voices is simply too powerful, I'm already planning to vote for An'an!"

"Fei Yang's smart!"

"Let us observe a moment of silence for the singer who is collaborating with Fish Papa this time, this singer took the hit for King Fei and came second. When King Fei comes back, he should bring a banner to express his gratitude."

"..."

Singers, audience, composers were all discussing, but at this moment Lin Yuan, having heard this song, said to a staff member next to him: "Change my next performance to the sixteenth song on the song list."

Staff member: "..."

At this moment, all cameras and eyes were on An'an, No one noticed what was happening in the corner. As An'an finished singing, ardent applause erupted across the venue. The stunning effect of three voices was very sharp!

An'an bowed and left the stage.

An Hong went onto the stage: "Thanks to Teacher Zheng Jing for his composition, thanks to An'an for her spectacular performance, let us welcome with warm applause, the singer from Teacher Admirable Fish's team!"

Clap clap clap...

The applause rang up.

Everyone was staring curiously at the stage, wondering who the unlucky singer replacing Fei Yang was from Admirable Fish's team. Under the focus of the camera and the audience, a slim figure wearing a devilish mask appeared on the stage!

At that moment!

The scene lost control!

Prince of Lanling appears again!

The substitute singer collaborating with Admirable Fish to replace King Fei this round, turned out to be Admirable Fish himself, and his appearance with the Prince of Lanling's mask immediately revived everyone's memories of 'The Masked Singer'!

"It's Fish Papa!"

"He's singing!"

"Oh my goodness!"

"Is this rule fair?"

"Who dares to say this rule isn't fair? Most of the singers in this show are from 'The Masked Singer', Fish Papa is also a singer in the show, he can't be forbidden from singing just because he's a songwriter, can he?"

"The production team is too good!"

"My youth has come back!"

"If someone else replaced King Fei, I feel it would not be easy to win. But if Fish Papa himself appears on stage, the result could go either way!"

"...."

Even though Lin Yuan's face was masked, everyone instantly recognized him because nobody else would wear that mask. Some people doubted the fairness of these rules, but considering Admirable Fish was indeed the Prince of Lanling, there was no problem with the rule. Besides, Fei Yang's absence was already an exceptional situation.

It goes without saying that Admirable Fish's presence in this show was just too unique. He came onto the stage wearing a devilish mask, wasn't he reminding everyone of his identity as a singer?

Lin Yuan did not take off his mask.

This was arranged by the program team.

An'an, who had just finished singing, was baffled. Her confident smile was instantly put away. She had never expected that Admirable Fish would personally replace Fei Yang who was absent!

An'an was panicked!

Admirable Fish, as the winner of 'The Masked Singer', still had a considerable deterrent effect on her. She did not know his identity before and that was one thing, but now, knowing who he is, she felt as if she were sitting on pins and needles. Losing would not be good, but winning would also bring high pressure because he was not just a singer...

"He came himself? My bad luck does exist!"

Zheng Jing was suddenly full of helplessness.

Yang Zhongming sitting next to him began to laugh.

This was getting interesting.

Suddenly, an audience member recalled that prior to knowing Prince of Lanling's real identity, the Elf had challenged Prince of Lanling, who commented on her performance without consideration, and even said in unison with Overlord:

"Prince of Lanling is mine!"

But they didn't encounter each other in the subsequent matches of 'The Masked Singer', and thus their wish wasn't fulfilled, but today, they accidentally encountered each other in the competition!

Delayed showdown?

The audience was completely hooked.

Amidst the diverse thoughts of everyone, the musical prelude of Lin Yuan's song had already begun.

With a pleasing chant, lyrics like narration suddenly echoed onstage:

"Long, long ago, a dragon suddenly appeared, causing disaster, taking the princess away and then disappearing. The kingdom is in great danger. Who in the world is the bravest? A brave man rushed forward and loudly shouted--"

The audience laughed loudly!

What kind of song is this?

Why does it feel odd?

The music seems to be a game background sound, it's very playful, and it carries a style of animation.

Admirable Fish is being mischievous again this round!

Furthermore....

This voice is so special!

Is this one of Admirable Fish's three voices?

Everyone hasn't forgotten, Admirable Fish also has three voices.

No time to ponder further.

Lin Yuan suddenly sings in a male voice.

This is the second voice: "I will take my best sword, climb the highest mountain, break through the deepest forest and bring the princess back!"

The audience cheered!

Both An'an and Xian Yu were singing in more than one voice.

Does this mean that the third voice of Xian Yu will also appear?

Three types of voices on both sides?

Everyone's expectations will not be disappointed, and they will even be exceeded by someone.

Because this song is called "Dalaranbaba".

And the version that Lin Yuan chose is by Zhou Shen.

When Zhou Shen sang this song on the stage of "The Singer", he made more than one vocal line stand out.

When the song rang out.

He once amazed the entire audience, hot searches, and also the major music charts -

Lin Yuan can too!

This time it is from the king's perspective.

With the tone of a conversation between the king and the brave, Lin Yuan sang in a third voice that was mature and also somehow joyfully fun:

"Ar is not tired and stubborn is not stubborn ..."

The place just erupted!

"It's here!"

"Three voices!"

"Haha, I'm going to laugh to death, what kind of broken name is Dalaranba Biluweng? Father Yang scolded him quickly, Xian Yu's lyrics have started to slack off again!"

"This song is hilarious!"

"Such a cheerful rhythm!"

"Father Yang: Showy!"

"I fucking smiled so much my stomach hurt. The princess was taken away by the dragon, the king sent a warrior to save her. Xian Yu's story in the song is simply childish. Every person spoke in a different voice. They actually sang in three different voices. This stage isn't a one on one, it's six singers on stage in a competition!"

"..."

This song is so joyful!

The audience was elated!

However, just when the audience thought that the competition would evolve into a contest between Xian Yu and An'an with three vocal lines, a fourth voice appeared shockingly!

This time it became the perspective and tone of the dragon:

"I am Quntu Kutaka Dickott Suva Silasong, come again Quntu Kutaka Dickott Suva Silasong!"

The fourth voice!

It's totally different from the three previous voices.

This voice has a heavy nasal quality to it.

It's as if a gigantic speaking Dragon is truly speaking.

The crowd absolutely flipped with excitement!

"So scary!"

"Four voices!!"

"Shocking and Funny!"

"Is he the only one on the stage?"

"I suspect my headphones are broken!"

"Mama asked why I was listening on my knees!"

"Whoever said sound artists are all monsters, in front of Xian Yu, any kind of monster would step aside. He had one more voice than An'an. When Xian Yu stood on the stage alone, it was as if he was a group!"

"..."

And just as the barrage appeared like a waterfall, Lin Yuan's voice changed, incredibly singing in the voice of a young little girl, the fifth voice that was just as natural, pleasing, and even more shocking:

"In a distant beautiful village, open all the chests."

"Along the road, the holy moonlight that guides the path is accompanied by wind and frost, breaking into a cave, the princess and the terrifying dragon, the hero pulls out the great sword!"

This time!

The audience was stunned!

The singers were stunned!

The composers were stunned!

Everyone was completely bamboozled!

Already, it was terrifying that An'an sang in three voices. As a result, Lin Yuan managed to belt out five voices, from the side stand to the hero to the king to the little girl and then to the dragon, a man playing five roles and seamlessly switching between voices...

Is this a human?

I fucking have proof!

Xian Yu is artificial intelligence!

At this moment, everyone was just dumbfounded listening to this song!

However, during the song's interlude, Lin Yuan sang a section of high-difficulty ornamental turns with a highly gorgeous pitch and accuracy!

Show off?

Indeed, a show off!

But, the song itself doesn't make much sense, the lyrics tell a boring fairy-tale story, the lyrics were mouth-twistingly incoherent.

Sometimes slow.

Sometimes fast.

The vocal lines keep changing!

It was a personal show for Xian Yu. The stage was splendid beyond comparison. Lin Yuan couldn't keep himself from dancing slightly in line with the music.

Although his dance was messy, it had its own charm!

Backstage.

All the singers were feeling chills, with goosebumps standing up;

The composers wore exaggerated expressions, looking collectively constipated!

This song named "Dalaranbaba" applied all the high-difficulty singing techniques, such as high notes, breath changes, decorative sounds, vocal lines, etc.

In Xian Yu's performance, the combination of 5 vocal lines and extremely difficult singing shocked people and made their spirits leave their bodies!

The scene was exploding!

Chapter 590 Hua Li's Stunning Skills

The song is coming to an end!

"King heard that Dalabengba Spandebadeebdobiruweng defeated Kuntukutaktikot Suvasirason, and so he married Princess Mia Morasunadanniesherlihong to Dalabengba Spandebadeebdobiruweng..."

Lin Yuan was rattling it off!

"Princess Mia of Dalabengba and her child, who was growing day by day, lived happily ever after in a fairy tale. To avoid future trouble, the child was named Wang Haoran — his full name is quite a mouthful, why don't you give it a try..."

He didn't even pause to breathe!

Because "Dalabengba" is originally a song performed by a virtual singers in the 2D world, there's basically no pause for breath built into the composition. If not handled well, this song is pretty difficult to sing. Finally, on the last few words, it ended on a high note.

At the same time.

Lin Yuan slowly removed his mask, revealing his irresistibly handsome face with no bad angles.

The atmosphere on the scene reached its peak!

Countless people started screaming "Xian Yu's" name—

"Sorry, An'an, I prefer Xian Yu!"

"Oh gosh, these lyrics are making me feel claustrophobic!"

"If the grandmas use 'Dalabengba' as their square dance, I wonder what it would look like..."

"One person played the part of five, and one person was equivalent to a quintet!"

"What would typically be difficult to achieve in a recording studio with mixing, and you're telling me that this was a live song!?"

"Just now my mom was cooking and so she wasn't watching the TV, but then she suddenly asked me why so many people were singing together, yet the audience was only shouting Xian Yu's name..."

"Impressed!"

"Once again, Xian Yu has shown why he's the champion of 'The Masked Singer'!"

"..."

At that moment.

The camera zoomed in on An'an's face.

An'an was dumbfounded, a hand over her mouth, her eyes filled with shock...

She had said earlier that she was sure to win today.

As a result, she didn't expect her opponent to be Xian Yu, the champion of 'The Masked Singer'!

But even knowing her opponent, An'an thought her chances of winning were high because her song used three different voices, and Xian Yu could also only use the most three voices, and that was already well-known...

Turns out, Xian Yu actually delivered five different voices!

She had met her ancestor of voice manipulation!

Seeing An'an's reaction, the barrage became even more hilarious:

"An'an: Are you also a voice actor?"

"Crippling strike!"

"An'an: I take on three roles at once!"

"Xian Yu: A gang beating, huh? Okay, I can take on five!"

"Not severely damaging, but extremely insulting!"

"Xian Yu is like a human mixer, he doesn't even need to breathe when he sings!"

"People say Fei Yang is a singing machine, but Xian Yu was like the luxury version of a singing machine!"

"Luckily, An'an didn't run into Xian Yu on 'The Masked Singer'!"

"Showing off your minor skills before an expert!"

"No, it should be showing off your vocal skills before the Fish!"

"Awesome, Tianlong!"

"..."

Three voices, against five voices!

From performing difficulty to the number of voice lines — An'an lost miserably!

"Ah!"

Zheng Jing was losing her mind!

There's no need for this contest any longer!

Yang Zhongming beside her said, "Hua Li..."

Zheng Jing looked at Yang Zhongming.

Yang Zhongming said, "Exquisite!"

Zheng Jing solemnly said, "Including the lyrics?"

Yang Zhongming paused, "What song, what lyrics — only appropriate."

Zheng Jing: "..."

The camera captured this scene.

The audience was even more amused.

"Father Yang, where's your criticism about flamboyance?"

"God, so exquisite!"

"Father Yang didn't even critique the lyrics this time!"

"Yang Zhongming, notoriously famous for double standards!"

"Father Yang, could you favor someone a little more!?"

"..."

Yang Zhongming, too, liked giving his critiques.

In this contest, there were often some bizarre songs.

Each time Yang Zhongming would ridicule, "Too flamboyant."

This includes Yin Dong's "Song of the Rabbit".

But this performance by Xian Yu is so flamboyantly gorgeous to the very extreme. Yet, Yang Zhongming defends it with an aesthetic name:

Luxurious?

Flamboyantly Luxurious!

But one must admit.

There was definitely no suspense in this performance.

Zhou Shen carried out this song in "The Singer" and it was also an undisputed win of that episode's championship.

Even though this song showcases some skills.

But when the skillful show is presented in such a joyful manner, then the audience is definitely convinced.

This song "Dala Bang Ba" is just so lively!

From the lyrics to the five different singing styles, combined with Prince of Lanling taking off his mask after singing, the whole stage effect was maxed out!

In the bullet screen, a bunch of people were even chasing to ask:

Who is Wang Haoran?

There were also viewers trying to repeat the lyrics.

Like "Dala Bang Ba Bandebedibu Dobiruweng" and so on, but no matter how they tried, they couldn't get it right...

It's too hard to remember!

And it's convoluted!

There are many similar secondary dimension songs on earth, but they are only liked by anime and manga fans, and few songs have truly broken out of the circle.

Just so happens, "Dala Bang Ba" is one of the few.

And the success of this song owes much to Zhou Shen's rendition on the singer.

The same is true on Blue Star.

After the competition, because of Xian Yu's performance, the song instantly became a hit!

All over the hot searches!

Countless people's friends circle were flooded by this song!

Meanwhile.

All major media outlets started reporting!

"Xian Yu is back with another magical earworm song 'Dala Bang Ba', lighting up the whole audience!"

"Personally performed by Xian Yu: This is the strength of a championship of The Masked Singer!"

"Xian Yu's new song shows ultimate skills, high pitched and ornamental voice without any break in breath, he's got everything you want!"

"Fei Yang couldn't make it due to some reasons, Xian Yu stepped in to replace, after singing one song, everyone went crazy!"

"Qin-Qi-Chu-Yan Square Dance Association: Considering incorporating Xian Yu's new song into square dance, but due to its high intensity, the aunties can't handle it."

"From Most Dazzling Ethnic Style to Good Luck Is Coming, to this scene's Dala Bang Ba, Xian Yu thoroughly lets himself go!"

"Xian Yu proves with his strength: To what extent can a talent be capricious!"

"Xian Yu's new song sets off a collective shake in the secondary dimension circle!"

"Secondary Dimension Circle: Fish Papa must be an 18-level member of Bilibili!"

This world also has a secondary dimension!

And the gathering place for the secondary dimension is called "Bilibili."

The enthusiasts of the secondary dimension are mostly students.

Most of these students are fans of Xian Yu.

However, Xian Yu himself doesn't have much connection with the secondary dimension, although his songs appear frequently on Bilibili.

Until he sang "Dala Bang Ba"!

This song has heavy secondary dimension attributes!

Even the most popular songs in the secondary dimension seem dull in comparison to the impact brought by "Dala Bang Ba"!

Firstly, because of Xian Yu's terrifying influence!

Secondly, due to Xian Yu's inhuman five different voice modulations!

This is an effect that machines can achieve, but Xian Yu can do it with his human voice...

As a matter of fact.

Not only Xian Yu can do it!

After the program ended, many folk singers and even some professional singers tried to mimic his performance.

The result? A small fraction of highly talented singers can achieve this.

But...

When everyone heard these performances, they could only shake their heads in helplessness.

It's different.

It doesn't have that flavor.

While everyone can imitate multiple voices, but Xian Yu does it more naturally, with more ease, and seems to be more at ease doing it!

Therefore.

Xian Yu's reputation on Bilibili skyrocketed!

Countless Bilibili anchors have since posted videos related to Xian Yu!

As long as the video includes the name "Xian Yu" and is of median or above quality, it can attract countless views!

It's a hit!

This song "Dala Bang Ba" is absolutely on fire!
