

REBORN WITH THE ALL SEEING EYE

Chapter 1: Cursed Child.

[Elvis - Elven Kingdom Northeast Border.]

[6:00 Pm.]

"Find them!!! We can't let the Cursed Child be born!!!"

An elf putting on a silver battle Armour roared at the 30 elves soldiers behind him.

"But Commander, they went into the Forest of Flesh Eaters. I don't think it's wise to enter." The young lady looking her early 20s, said with lingering fear. Her gaze fixed on the dark Forest in front of them.

"What are you saying? We should let the Cursed child to be born, and seal the fate of our world?!" The Commander fixed his displeased gaze on her.

"I didn't say that, I only--"

"--Enough! We're going." His tone left no room for refuses.

"Let's go in!"

With that said, all the Soldiers followed behind him; entering the forest.

The forest of flesh eaters was filled with countless dangerous plants and Monsters. The trees in this forest were huge, saying huge was an understatement; their leaves were so broad that it block the rays of the sun.

50 meters from their location, two figures were running with every little strength in their body. Trying to escape from their chasers.

"Ahh! I can't. I can't. No more."

The heavily pregnant woman placed her hand on a tree, breathing heavily. It wasn't easy running from her own people because they thought her child was the Cursed child the prophecy mentioned. She as the mother couldn't bring herself to let them kill her child.

"Come on Mom! We need to keep moving." A young girl looking around 15–16 years said, her voice filled with urgency.

"Go Lilly, you should save yourself." The woman said with difficulty.

"No, Why'll I leave my yet-to-be-born brother, and you; Just for my safety?" She turned around.

Commander: "Come on! I know we're getting closer."

"Shit! Mom, We need to move." She looked at her mother who was breathing heavily, with some hesitation. She stretched out her hands towards her.

"Evocans Potestatem medendi."

[Calling forth the power of healing]

A white magic rune appeared in front of her stretched hands.

"What are you doing, Lilly?" The woman looked up at her, feeling her energy returning.

"Sorry that I can't do more, Mon." She apologized, as the rune in front of her shattered.

The woman shook her head with a loving smile. "You did great, but don't do that again. You don't have enough Sid energy in you."

"That's because I'm still weak, When I get stronger; I'll make all of them pay!! Come on, let's keep on moving." She placed the woman's hand across her shoulders.

The two continued their journey, making sure to create as much distance as they could.

[Elves' Kingdom.]

[King castle.]

Two figures stood floating above the castle, staring at Northeast with countless unreadable emotions.

"My king, we must stop the Cursed Child from being born." An old man with long white beard putting on a white robe and holding a staff, said to the Middle-age man standing in front of him.

The king gritted his teeth in rage.

"If the other races discover that the Cursed Child is born from the elves' Kingdom, what do you think they'll do?"

"Asked why you haven't killed the child, insult you. Or even worst; start a War?"

"Correct." He heaved a deep sigh.

"As far as I know Aurora, she'll never let any harm come to her child." He looked up at the clear blue sky.

"Grand priest, send this word out. Aurora is no longer accepted as a member of our race, she and her so-called Daughter's honor and titles will be removed. If you see any of them, bring them to me alive."

"But my king, Aurora is your daughter. Do you think banishing her is the best solution?" The priest asked in mild surprised.

"She made her choice, and I made mine."

Whzzzh!!

The priest looked at the orb fixed on his staff, which glowed for some seconds then returned to normal. "My king, the Commander sent a message."

"What is their situation?" The man asked, still looking at Northeast.

"Aurora decided to enter the flesh eaters' forest."

"Flesh Eaters?" The king turned to the old man, worries flashed in his eyes for a second.

"Yes." The grand priest nodded.

"Send this word back, All the soldiers to retreat. I don't want to lose any of them in that forest." He looked back at the distance.

The grand priest nodded and sent the message out. "My King, it's do--"

His word were cut short, even the king frowned slightly.

The horizon ahead had mysteriously been tinted with red, something that haven't happened in centuries.

"The Cursed child is about to be born!" The grand priest yelled with horror.

The king gritted his teeth, his fist clenched in anger.

"There is nothing we can do grand priest, we can only prepare for this calamity that is about to fall in our world... Make sure the other races never get hold that the Child was born from the Elves' kingdom, and is my daughter's first child!"

The grand priest nodded with a solemn expression.

"Halt!!"

The Commander frowned slightly.

"What is it Commander?" The woman beside him asked.

"The grand priest wants us to retreat, it's the king's order... Is the king doing this because she is his daughter?"

"No one can question the king's decision, I thought you know that?"

He looked at her. "Don't speak to me with such tone Mariel, You might be the strongest Mage in our kingdom; but that didn't give you the right to speak without thinking."

Mariel's eyes turned cold. "I dare you to say that again." Her green eyes glowed with a lustered color.

"After you two are done arguing, we can head back."

The two turned their heads to the side, seeing a young elf in green Armour, armed with a bow walking towards them.

"I thought you chose to remain silent? Why speak now?" The Commander asked.

The elf turned to the Commander. "Don't forget I'm also a Commander, if the king wants us back. There is nothing we can do about it." With that said, he turned around.

"Let's head back!" He yelled to the soldiers, walking towards the same way they entered. All the Archers in the group followed behind him.

"You can keep going if you want, I'm going back." Mariel followed behind the young elf, leaving the Commander and his soldiers behind.

After some hesitation, he heaved a frustrated sighed. "We are heading back to the kingdom."

"Ah!"

"Mom?"

"No, I can't. He's coming. Ah!"

"Eh? Why is my little brother so stubborn?! Can't he wait till we are out of this goddamn forest!" Lilly looked around the place. She stretched out her hand and chant again.

"Virtutem terreni voco, ab arena ad lutum, aedificate nobis umbraculum."

[I call the power of earth, from sand to mud, build us a shelter!]

"Ah! W-What are you doing, Lilly. That... That's a high-class spell."

Lilly closed her eyes, activating all the Sid energy in her body. The earth around them move, slowly ascending. It formed four walls around the two, after that; it moved, covering their heads with a roof. The whole small hut was built with Magic in matter of one minute.

Lilly dropped to her knees, tasting the unpleasant taste of blood in her mouth she frowned. Don't want to scare or worry her mother more, she swallowed it.

"Are you ok, Lilly?" Aurora asked, her voice filled with worries.

"Yes."

"Ahh!! Huff, Huff, Huff. He's coming."

Lilly quickly stood up, and helped Aurora to lie down on the ground.

"What should I do?" She asked out loud, she was just 16 years old. She knew nothing about birth giving.

[Same with the Author.]

"Woo... Woo... Ahh!"

[Some Hours Later.]

The soldiers finally walked out of the Forest, they all frowned deeply seeing the sky above them was bloodred.

"Is this?" Mariel was dumbfounded.

"The Cursed Child is being born, The prophecy said the Child will be born when the sky turned red." The young elf looked at the forest. "She might be in labor. Or already given birth, all we can do now is prepare."

With that said, he walked towards his armoured horse; and got on it. "Let's go back!"

Wie hie hie!!

"Hiyah!!"

The horse took race, followed by 10 more horses.

"This boy!" The Commander removed his helmet, then looked up at the sky. "But he's right, we can only prepare." He got on his horse.

Mariel summoned a staff, then sat on it. "I'll wait for you guys at the castle." With that said, she flew into the air, while sitting on her staff.

The Commander shook his head again, and followed behind the young elf.

'It has been hours now? And it's now I'm seeing his head.' Lilly thought, attending to Aurora. Blood were all over her hands.

"Come on Mom, you can do it." She encouraged.

"Ahhh!!!"

"Yes, that's it."

"Ahhh!!!"

"Yes! He's a boy!! Just as the prophecy revealed." Lilly used her Magic to clean the blood all over the baby, and after separating the last bond he has with his mother, she passed him to her.

Aurora held her son in her hands, her face filled with joy, but she was mostly scared and worried. This place isn't safe, and the scent of blood, and her screams might have surely attractive a lot of unknown things.

"Evocans Potestatem medendi."

[Calling forth the power of healing]

She turned to Lilly, and nodded gratefully at her. "Thank you, Lilly, from now onward; he'll be known as Aaron."

'So this woman is this body's mother, and I'm guessing this one named Lilly is the body's elder sister. And I'm called Aaron now, at least it's better than the ones I was called in my past lives. But... Did she just use magic? Is she a magician?'

Aaron moved his gaze from Aurora to Lilly, then at the mud hut.

'What?! Are these people so poor that not a single furniture is in this house?'

"Uh? Mom, I heard newborn children needs to cry after birth. But this little guy isn't crying."

Aaron looked at Lilly with Reproach, then smile at her son. "My Son have gone through a lot without evening seeing the world, I don't want him to cry... He'll never cry but make those who is after him cry, and beg."

'Mm... I like her already, but... What the hell did she means by, "I have gone through a lot"? And who is after me? Did I get reborn again to be slaughter before I could even speak?!'

"Ok Mon, let me get something to eat. I can use magic for anything, but can't with food."

"No Lilly, Rest. You are a mage, and you used so much Sid. Please Rest."

Lilly thought for a moment. Seeing Aurora's pleading eyes; she nodded and sat down.

'This will be fun, I will just have to wait and see what this world holds in store for me.'

Return Of The Supreme Tamer.

Let's hold on for the ride.

Chapter 2: What Family Have I Been Born Into?

[2 Hours Later.]

These two hours have been both hell and hell to Aaron. It was hell because he had lied in one position for two whole hours, staring at Lilly as she summoned all type of wood furniture that could be thought of in their Not-so-small hut. From chairs, cupboard, wardrobe, bed to even the crib he was lying on.

His beautiful Mother have asked her to stop countless times, but it seems to be falling on deaf ears.

With all the magic performed by Lilly showed him she has a huge amount of Sid energy (as the two called it), in her. Even though he knew nothing about this energy, he understood it works like Mana.

The second Hell was, out of all the spells, he couldn't remember even one. Lilly was fast when casting her spells, and with his Sharp brain he's proud of; he couldn't get a single thing.

'What the hell?! What incantations is she murmuring? It sounded like Latin... Or maybe French... No! It can't be French, it must be Latin!

And my father asked me to focus on Latin in my second lifetime... How would I have known I will get reborn in a world were you need to cast magic which are all spoken in Latin?!! But...'

Aaron stared at Lilly, who sat on a chair breathing heavily.

'She isn't yet strong enough to cast high-class magics. Something in me told me all these spells are either of the low-class or mid-class... My Mom said something about a high-class magic she cast when creating the crib. So there will surely be a low and mid-Class, I just wonder what the power ranking system is In this world... Ahh!! This is why I said being a baby is hard!

You'll have to lie on one spot for hours. If you want to urinate or shit! You won't be able to say it, just let it out!!!' Aaron moved his small head around the now big house.

'I need to find a way to solve my predicament! But how?' He looked at his Mother who was walking around with some cloths in hand.

'I thought if someone gave birth, they would be feeling pain and exhausted, but how the hell is she moving around? Is she a magician too? If magic could be this useful. I need to learn it! Think about it. You'll be able to create anything you want even water, well, apart from food; but still!

That is a good advantage.'

"You should stop, Lilly. This is my last warning."

"OK Mom." Lilly nodded and turned to Aaron. "My brother is so handsome with his sliver hair and blue eyes." She stood up and walked towards him.

"Hey baby brother." She crouched down in front of him. "Do you want me to bathe you?"

'What the fuck did she just said?! Bath me? Do I look like a baby to you?!! Wait... I do, but... No way!!' He shook his small head.

"Aww... You don't want your sister to bathe you? What If you bath with me?"

".....huh!!!!!!"

He shook his head even more vigorously.

"Mom." Lilly turned to Aurora.

"My baby brother seems to understand what I'm saying."

"Of course, he's different." Aurora kept the clothes in the 6 feet tall wardrobe.

"I mean, he can clearly understand me." Lilly clarified.

Aurora turned to her. "What are you saying?" She asked in mild confusion.

"Check this." She flicked her index finger, the next moment. A wisp of white energy appeared on it.

'Wow! Magic!' Aaron fixed his eyes on it.

"This is called Sid energy, everyone who have unlocked their class has it. Do you want me to teach you how to do this, Baby Bro?"

He nodded his head vigorously.

"You saw that, Mom?" She turned to Aurora.

"I did." Aurora sat down on a chair, staring at the two with a smile on her face.

"Ok baby brother, I'll teach you when you grow up."

'Is she kidding me?!! That will take at least 5 years!!!' He pouted at her.

"Awww... My brother is so cute!!" She picked him up, spinning him around the place.

'Are you crazy girl?! Drop me down!!! What is this? Do I look like I want to be carried by you?! Instead of teaching me something, you are spinning me around. If you don't drop me, I'll attack you!'

Of course, Lilly didn't know what is running through Aaron's head, so she continued spinning him around.

'That's it!!! Bladder release!!!'

A torrent of piss shot out from his little guy, instead to bathe Lilly, it socked the clothes he was warped in, socking him instead.

'Come on!! I can't even attack her with my only weapon!!!'

"Uh?" Lilly stopped spinning, feeling the wetness, She blinked at him.

"Brother, did you...?"

'That suit you right!--'

Graaaa!!!

"...."

"...."

"....."

Aurora's face turned serious, Lilly covered Aaron's mouth. The three including Aaron moved their heads to the door.

'What the hell made that sound?! How am I going to fight when I'm still a baby?! And these two women can't--'

"--Hold him, Lilly. I'll deal with whatever is outside." Aurora stood up.

Lilly nodded, not saying anything.

'What the?! Hey Mom! What are you doing? I don't want to lose such a beautiful elf Mom!! Don't go, Hey you spinner?! Why can't you stop - Huh?!'

His eyes widened, as Aurora stretched out her hand to the side, pulling out a long silver sword from space.

'What the butt?! Did she just pull out a long sword from Nothing?! Eh?!'

He was dumbfounded seeing a golden Armor appearing on her body, her long silver hair was tucked in as a helmet appeared on her head.

'I'm stumped!' Aaron stared at the Warrior in front of him totally speechless.

"Why do you look so surprised, Love?" Aurora walked towards him and pinched his nose. "Your Mother isn't weak as she seems." She kissed his head, then walked towards the exit.

"Don't worry baby brother, In all of Elvis. No one will dare face Our mother when she's in her full strength. That's why they tried to kill us when she is heavily pregnant." Lilly said, her eyes flashing with killing intent.

'Huh? What family have I been born into?!'

If you are in, stick around. 😊

Elvis was the name of the continent Aaron was born in.

It was divided into Five kingdoms, namely; The humans, Elves, Dwarves, beastfolks and Orcs... This five were always at war with each other, on whose kingdom will have the most land.

History; Five centuries ago, the world gained an energy which they called "Sid" to perform magics, some increase their attributes and more.

People being people, Used this new powers to fight among themselves; unaware of the real hidden dangers.

Three centuries later, the gate of the Abyss opened, releasing countless Monsters into the world, Monsters, whose only goal was to kill and destroy. The races have to set their ambitious aside and work together to save their world.

That was when the alliance was created, then a council was formed with each race providing a member.

After a brutal battle with the Monsters, they saved their world, and the Monsters who survived, ran Into the Forest.

These Monsters Kill any unlucky individual who entered this Forest.

The council, Discovering the high number of deaths, then named the forest; Flesh Eaters' forest; forbidding the races from venturing inside.

Peace came on the land, and everyone lived happily, then all of a sudden. The five grand priests from the five Races got a vision, a prophecy, No one knew the complete version of this prophecy apart from these old men and women.

All they knew was, "A child will be born under the red Sky, born by a pure and powerful soul, This Child will bring destruction and death to the world and in order to save their world, this child must be killed. Then came "The Cursed Child".

Lilly walked towards the window with Aaron in her hand, the two stared at the Monster 40 yards away from the house, the Monster was holding a club.

'An Ogre?' Aaron was stunned.

An ogre is a legendary monster depicted as a large, hideous, man-like being that eats ordinary human beings, especially infants and children. Ogre only exists in Myth, that's why Aaron was stunned seeing one in person.

'How many Monsters are in this world?'

Graaa!!

The 8 feet ugly Ogre stared at Aurora who calmly walked towards it, dragging her sword behind her, its blade leaving a trail on the ground.

"Hey, Baby Brother. That Monster is known as Ogre, it has the strength of an Omega-stage Monster." Lilly whispered to him.

'Omega?! That sound powerful!!!' He looked at Aurora worriedly. 'Would she be able to handle it alone? And she just gave birth 2 hours ago. Would I be the reason for her death?'

Seeing his worried expression, Lilly pat his head. "Don't worry, that Ogre isn't powerful, with her full strength, our mother could kill a hundred in five minutes. One won't pose a threat to her."

Aaron calmed down hearing her, then his eyes widened in shock. 'Did she just said "She could Kill a hundred in five minutes"?!! Is she a god or an Ogre killer?!!'

"You made a mistake coming here, Ogre." Aurora said in a cold tone, her sword still tearing the ground behind her as she walked towards the ogre.

GRRAAAAA!!!

The ogre raised its club and charged towards the elf walking towards it.

'What is she doing? Won't she get in a stance? Or attack.'

Aurora kept on walking towards the charging Ogre. "Don't you know my son is inside? I'll make sure to cut you down into tiny sizes." She continued walking.

The Ogre got 10 meters from her.

'What are you waiting for? Attack!! Or dodge!!'

Five meters.

"Warrior Spirit."

Whoosh!!

Whoosh!!

Whoosh!!

Whoosh!!

"..."

Aaron froze in place, his face filled with horror. He didn't even see her move, all he saw was, Aurora standing behind the Ogre; she wasn't even facing it, blood dripping from her sword.

The ogre ran for some seconds, before its head and four limbs fell to the ground, blood flowing out like a stream.

"Oh! I forgot to close your eyes." Lilly quickly closed Aaron's eyes.

'What the?!! Remove your hand from my face!!' Aaron moved his head to the side, trying to see the fearless female warrior. No matter how he turned, Lilly's hand was still on his face. With no other option.

BAM!

"Eh!" Lilly gasped in shock as Aaron bit her hand. "Let go, Let go!" She cried out.

Aaron released her, Lilly quickly removed her hand from his face, while he stared at his mother with a wide smirk.

'I just got my mentor in combat.'

Aurora quickly rushed back to the house hearing Lilly's yell, when she saw that Aaron just bit her, she chuckled with a smile.

"What happened?" She asked.

"He bit me!" Lilly pointed at Aaron in her hand. "I thought a child this young won't have grown teeth." She grumbled.

'She is right.'

Aurora frowned slightly, she walked up to Lilly, and checked Aaron's mouth. Seeing two Incisors, she looked up at Aaron in surprised.

"Wow, My boy. You seem to be growing quicker than any other child." She said with a smile.

'Growing quicker? That is good!! That means in matter of 2 years I'll look like a ten years old kid! Can't wait!! At least... I won't be small!

Wait a second!! What if I grow up so quickly that I become an old man in age 20!!! What will happen to my life?!! I thought I have seen a good thing, instead! I got a quick way to die!!!!'

"Why the face Honey? Do you want to eat?" Aurora asked.

'I'm starving, wait... I'm still a baby, does that mean. She'll breastfeed me!!! No way!!'

"Come on." The armor on her slowly disappeared, leaving her in the long green dress she was wearing. She then took him from Lilly.

"Hmm... Mom, what about the Ogre's body?"

Aurora thought for a moment. "We haven't eaten for a while now..."

'Are they going to eat that human-like Ogre?!'

"Burn it, I'll hunt for something after feeding Aaron."

Lilly nodded and walked towards the door.

"Oh Lilly, use the fire spell I taught you. It won't draw attention to us."

Lilly nodded and walked out.

"Ok young man, time to eat."

Aaron's eyes widened as Aurora tried to bring out her breast. He quickly shook his head, stopping her on track.

"You don't want Milk?" She asked in mild surprised.

Aaron nodded again. 'All the men will wish to suck those tits, but I can't! In my third lifetime, I have sucked a lot. I can't do that here, she's my mother, true. But I can't bring myself to do it. I can't even look at them when changing, to speak of suc...

Let's stop there.'

"Do you want to eat the meat I want to hunt?" Aurora asked after some thought.

'Yes!' He nodded.

Aurora smiled and said. "But, can your body handle it? Is your digestive organs strong enough for that?"

'Why so much questions?! First bring the food before asking all these!!' He frowned at her.

"Fufufufufu... You really look cute." She smiled. 'Is it because of the prophecy? I hope my son won't be so different from others. No matter what happens, I won't let him be the killers everyone labelled him to be.' She thought inwardly.

Chapter 4: All Seeing Eyes

Whoosh!

Aaron was in bliss as his mother carried him on her back, running through the forest. He had come to accept that a woman who has just given birth could be this strong and agile in matters of 3 hours.

'If I marry, I want my wife to be like this. Both courageous, fearless and powerful... Wait, isn't that the same thing?'

"How are you doing back there, Love?"

"Coo." He answered, causing Aurora to chuckled, as she ran through the forest.

'Don't think about it, I just tried to speak, and that sounded. I wonder what's so funny about it that Lilly laughed so hard that she fell on the ground. Did I sound so bad?' Aaron thought.

BAM!

She stopped.

"That is our food." Aurora pointed at a deer 20 meters from their location. Aaron moved his head, staring at the black deer. It was warily looking around its surroundings while eating a dead animal in front of them.

'Are you kidding me? Even a deer eat flesh!! Is everything in this forest carnivorous?!!'

"That is a black-Blood Deer, it's an Awakened-stage Monster. I heard its meat is every nutritious, that's why I have been searching for it." Aurora explained, slowly loosing the cloth which held Aaron on her back.

"You'll have to stay here and watch, Learn."

Aaron nodded his tiny head. 'Don't worry, I'll learn well. My eyes are fixed on your every move.'

Aurora looked around the forest, "The Sun is rising." She turned towards the Deer. "I need to end this quickly so we can head back." She drew out her sword from its sheath, and slowly but silently walked towards the Deer.

'The sun is rising?' Aaron looked up at the trees, he couldn't even see the sky to talk of the sun. 'How does she know the sun is rising? And why is she worried? Shouldn't you be happy if the sun rises?'

The deer rose its head from the meat upon hearing a sound, it looked around. Not seeing anything, it continued eating.

Aaron watched as Aurora got even closer to the Deer.

'Wow.'

He watched as she got 5 meters from the Deer without even it knowing of her existence, before the Deer could rise its head again. She lunged at it from behind. Aaron watched her every move as she easily cut off its back legs. Before the Deer could do anything, she plunged her sword in its head. Killing it instantly. It took her only Five seconds to kill the Deer.

'That is impressive - Huh?'

He stared as she got down on one knee, and tore open the belly of the Deer, then brought out a Circular orb.

'What Is that?'

Aurora stored the Deer's carcass in her storage space, and walked back to Aaron with the Orb in hand.

Aaron thought for a moment and pointed at the thing in her hand. "Coo."

Aurora smiled and squat down in front of him. "This is called a Core. It can be gotten from monsters, You remembered that Ogre?"

Aaron nodded.

"Its Core is with Lilly, this one belong to you." She placed the Core in his small hands.

Aaron looked at the Core in his hand, totally speechless. 'It's heavy, but I love her.' He looked up at Aurora with stars in his eyes. 'Thank you mom. It's not bad having such a caring Mom, but how the hell am I going to use it?'

"Don't worry, Son. When you unlock your Sid energy, you'll know. Only then will you be able to - What?"

Aurora was stunned, seeing as the Core shattered into tiny particles, entering Aaron's body.

'That feel ticklish.' Aaron chuckled.

{Congratulations on absorbing your first Core. You gain a God-Class skill, Known as; All Seeing Eyes.}

Aaron blinked in shock. 'God-Class?'

Aurora stared at him in confusion. 'Did he just absorbed the Core?'

Aaron tilted his head to the side, staring at her in shock.

'What the hell is this I'm seeing?!' He looked at Aurora seeing countless information about her.

{All Seeing Eyes.}

{Name: Aurora Maxim.}

{Realm: Heavenly Saint.}

{Class:(Dual) Elite-Assassin and Elite-Warrior.}

{Race: Elf.}

{Strength: 1,000.}

{Agility: 1,500.}

{Defense: 2,000.}

{Endurance: 2,500.}

{Affinity Mastered: Fire, Wind.}

{Attack: 500. Critical - 1,000.}

{Health point: 5,000.}

{Improvement: Eat any spirit plant. Gain an increase in skill: Warrior Spirit.}

'What the hell is this? What is the All Seeing Eye? And What is all this? Eat a spirit plant? What the God's name is that?!

"Come on, let's go." She picked him up. "You just keep surprising me." She started walking towards their house.

Aaron was going crazy with all the things he was seeing, anywhere he looked, he saw information about things.

{Name: Green Tree, Poisonous. Class: Common. Info: If swallowed without letting it touch your tongue, increased your poison resistance. Note: if it touches your tongue, instant death.}

{All seeing Eyes}

{Name: Blood red mushroom. Class: Common. Info: When eaten, it increased your bloodlust. Note: You'll lose 30% of your Endurance.}

{All seeing Eyes.}

{Name: Infested Rat. Class: Common. Info: When killed, it releases a gas which caused his killer to fall asleep for 10 hours. Note: When the killer resists the gas for 1 Minute, it increases their Endurance and poison resistance.}

Aaron was completely dumbfounded with so much information.

'What is... I can see everything advantage and disadvantage. With this power I'll be a god! Hahaha... I can now live in this world, and help my mom and sister. My mom need a Spirit Plant, they might be rare...

Because I haven't seen even one. But with this power I'll know everything.' He smirked. If Aurora saw this, she'll surely be stunned.

'He could already absorb a Core? Does that mean he has already unlocked his Sid energy? But still... It shouldn't be possible at his age, he's not even 1 year old. I mean 1-month-old.' She looked down at Aaron, seeing him looking around the place, she smiled. 'So curious.'

'I looked at her and saw her detail, will that also happen to me?' He looked at his hand, the next moment:

'ARE YOU KIDDING ME?!'

'This is purely an embarrassment, I know I'm a baby. But still... This profile is below Zero! Even the improvement said I'm useless. I need to get stronger, and quickly!!'

[Some Moment later.]

The two finally got to their now three-bedroom apartment.

'I have to say, Lilly is really a blessing, I wonder where she learned so many skills. Will she teach me if I ask?'

Aurora looked at the house a little stunned too. She walked towards the door, Lilly opened it and walked out with a smile.

"What do you think?" She asked with a bright smile on her face.

Aurora calmly walked towards her, not uttering a word.

'This girl is really stubborn, but the house is surely beautiful.'

Knock!

"Ouch!"

'Oh wow.'

Lilly held her head in confusion, "Don't you like it mom?" She asked.

"How many times have I asked you to stop using so much Sid energy? I know you have more in you than normal people, but still..." She sighed and walked past her, entering the house.

"You did good." She added.

Lilly smiled and quickly followed her, she stood in front of Aaron, "why is my baby brother so quiet? Didn't he enjoy the hunt?"

"Well..." Aurora looked at Aaron in her hands. "He absorbed a Core."

"Ok Mom. Wait what?! Did you just say he absorbed a Core?"

Aurora nodded. "A low stage, but it shouldn't be possible."

"As you said Mom, this young man is different." Lilly said with a smile. "What if?"

She ran into the room, while Aurora sat down on a chair in the sitting room.

'This girl is something.' She thought looking around the place.

Aaron was silent because of...

{Name: Lilly Colin.}

{Realm: Awakened Stage.}

{Class:(Dual) Apprentice-Mage and Novice-priest.}

{Race: half Elf.}

{Strength: 100.}

{Agility: 200.}

{Defense: 250.}

{Endurance: 300.}

{Affinity known: Fire, Water.}

{Attack: 30. Critical - 60.}

{Health point: 200.}

{Improvement: Eat any Sea plant. Gain an increase in Affinity: Water.}

'She might not be anywhere close to Mom, but she's a lot better than me. Eat a sea plant? With the name, I can find it in the sea. Right?'

"This is it!!"

The two turned to Lilly, seeing her rushing towards them with a red orb in hand.

'Is that?' Aaron's eyes widened.

"What are you doing, Lilly?" Aurora asked with a frown.

"If he can absorb Cores, He should also absorb this one." Lilly said.

"No Lilly, if you are planning on giving it to him, wait still he's at least one-month-old. I won't let him absorb the core of an Omega-stage Monster, you should have it."

Lilly looked at the core in her hand and shook her head. "I don't need it. My baby brother is still weak, he'll need it."

"I know you want him to get stronger, but you can't give him something with so much energy. I'm saying you shouldn't give him, I'm saying you should hold on still he's one month old."

"Ok Mom." Lilly nodded and walked back to the room to carefully keep the Core.

'She is just a sweet elder sister, but I'm wondering why her surname is Colin, not Lucian like me. And she is also a half elf, I wondered why her ears were shorter. Now I know. But if my Mom isn't her mother, Who is? And it looks like my father is also not an elf; there is a lot I need to know.'

Aurora stood up, and placed him on his crib. "Stay here love, let me prepare the food." She gave him a smile and walked out of the room.

'Time to think. Firstly; what are these eyes I got?' He looked at the crib he was lying on.

{Name: Crib. Class: Rare. Info: suitable for a child who have overgrown a cradle. Benefit: Comfortable, give the baby a relax Slumber.}

'Rare-class, and even a benefit. That's understandable, it shows the spell she used is a high-class spell. I wonder if she has a high-class attack spell.' He thought of Lilly's profile.

'She is also a dual class, a mage and priest. That must be the reason for her high amount of Sid energy. She is also an apprentice in Mage, I don't really understand what that mean.'

Squeak!

He turned his head to the side, seeing a small lizard walking around.

{All Seeing Eyes.}

{Name: Climbing Lizard. Class: Common class. Info: Not harmful, it's completely useless; Powerless and defenseless.}

'Powerless and defenseless? I'll start practicing with you. I just got my practice dummy.' He thought.

If he could catch it.

"Hey baby brother."

He turned to the side, seeing Lilly.

"Shhhh." She walked towards him with the Core in hand.

'Oh wow, what a sister. Wait... What if; what mom said is the truth? What if I'll die if I absorb it. For god's sake, I don't even know how I absorbed the first one.' He stared at the Core.

{All Seeing Eyes.}

{Name: Omega-Stage Ogre's Core. Class: Omega Core. Info: has the power to move a beginner-realm to the Awakened-realm. Note: You won't be able to Absorb it with your current Physique. Solution: wait for a week.}

'Wow, it gave more information than I thought, even telling me when I can absorb it.'

"Come on Baby brother, you should have it; It's my first gift to you."

"Nayyy." He shook his head.

'I would like to use it, but I can't. Follow mom's advice and keep it for me. When I'm ready, I'll let you know.'

Lilly couldn't hear him, but seeing him shook his head, she sighed. "I see you don't want it, Don't worry. I'll keep it for you." With that said she took it back.

Aaron stared at her for a while, then sighed inwardly. 'Don't worry sis, even if you aren't my real sister. I'll see you as one. And look after you--'

Sniff, Sniff, Sniff....

'Oh wow! What has such heavenly smell?' He tilted his head to the side, trying to follow the smell.

"What are you doing, baby brother?" Lilly asked, walking out of the room. When she inhaled the smell she smiled brightly. "Food is ready!!" She exclaimed.

'Why is she so happy? Hey you!! Don't even think about eating everything!!!' Aaron yelled.
