

Reborn With The All Seeing Eye

Chapter 101 Invincible

[Second Continent!]

[Night time.]

Aaron, and Protean were still on the mountain, moving their gazes from the north, south, east, and west... Staring at the crimson light pillars hundreds of miles away.

"Master, It's time."

Aaron raised his head to the sky, seeing the red moon above them... And sighed.

"I afraid so." He said.

BOOM!!!!!!

A huge explosion sounded all over the Continent, causing the land itself to tremble.

"The Abyssal Gates are opened."

GRRRRRRRRRAAAAAAAAAA!!!

A Loud powerful roar sounded all the way to their location.

Aaron and Protean turned their heads to the east.

"Wow! It seems you can now enter the Transcendent Realm..."

"Transcendent?!" Protean was stunned, he thought for some seconds and opened his mouth:

"That means, whatever that was, is a Transcendent?! Like a Transcendent?! Who is a lot stronger than a peak-stage Beast-Ruler?!"

"Yes, That Transcendent. I'll say that's the leader of the Monsters." Aaron smiled.

"Let's announce our presence..." He looked at Protean over his shoulder. "Are you ready for this?" He asked.

"Ready!!" Protean smiled, taking his multi-fusion.

Aaron nodded, raised his hand into the sky, and released a powerful light beam, which shot into the heavens.

GRRRRRRRAAAAAA!!

SCREECH!!!

AWOOOOOLLL!!!!

RAAAAA!!!

THUD!! THUD!! THUD!! THUD!! THUD!!

"That got their attention."

He folded his hands behind his back, staring at the north.

[One hour later.]

[1:00Pm.]

Aaron raised an eyebrow, seeing a sea of Monsters rushing towards the mountain, both airborne and land.

"This is interesting." He said.

"Master, I think as long the gates are opened, the Monsters will keep pouring out."

Aaron grinned.

"That's exactly what I want... We'll see what'll happen after Killing Millions, the gates will have no monster to release."

Protean stared at Aaron's side profile for some seconds and nodded, then turned his head back to the Monsters.

"The strongest here is only in the Demon-stage... The main ones are taking their time..."
He chuckled.

"I know how to increase their pace."

He stretched forth his right hand to the side, and his sword appeared.

"I hope these things can withstand this."

Countless elements surrounded the blade of the sword, and an unknown amount of killing intent spread out from him, towards the Monsters.

SCREECH!

GRRRAAAAA!

The Monsters came to a stop, feeling the demonic energy around them.

"Hehehe... This is fun."

With a swing of his sword, four 10 meters wide, and 100 meters long crescent blade energies flew out from the blade, heading towards the four cardinal directions.

".....!!!!!!"

The Monsters were stunned and horrified.

BOOOOOOOOOOOOM!!!!!!

The whole continent trembled, as a mushroom cloud rose to the sky... All the Monsters fell from the sky, dropping dead on the ground.

Aaron's gaze remained calm, as he sheathed back his sword. He then raised his left hand and clenched his fist.

BOOM!!

Protean watched as the Monsters' cores burst out from their chests, and floated towards them.

He stared at the hundred of thousands of cores above his head in surprise, their colors shining under the night sky.

SCREECH!!!!

"Oh? You guys are finally here."

Aaron stared at the 10 meters long, and five meters tall Eagle, with red eyes and two horns, flying towards them with an incredible speed, more than thousands other eagles following behind it.

"A Peak-stage Beast-Ruler!" Protean was stunned.

"Hey you! You have two options!!"

Aaron's voice boom all over the place, causing the huge eagle to stopped on track... After some seconds, it opened its mouth.

"What Options, Demon?"

The Eagle moved its gaze on the ground, seeing the burnt bodies of countless Monsters.

"Join me, or die... These are you only options."

The Eagle stared at him for some seconds, and shook its head.

"I refuse, I don't work for kids!"

It shot towards Aaron, the eagles following behind.

"Well then."

Aaron placed his sword in his left hand, and stretched forth his right hand towards the Eagle.

CRACK!!

SCREECH!!!!

With the sound of bone breaking, the Eagle let out a painful shriek, as its chest slowly broke open, blood flowing out.

"No!! I'll join you!! Spare my life!!"

Aaron sneered.

"Do I look like a fool to you?! Someone you can change your tongue to and will just accept it?!! No! Your answer stands!"

He destroyed the Eagle's chest, and brought out the core.

The Peak-stage Beast-Ruler instantly fell from the sky, as its core flew towards Aaron, and hovered with the rest.

He moved his gaze on the horrified smaller eagles, and with a thought, hundreds of red Lightning fell from the sky, plunging them into chaos.

In less than twenty seconds, all the Eagles had been cooked, and all lined on the ground, dead.

"Who's next?"

[Half an hour later.]

Aaron moved his gaze to the distance, seeing a 15 meters tall Grim Reaper with a 17 meters long red scythe moving towards them... An unknown number of Skeletons, and souls following behind it.

"The Transcendent Monster." Protean muttered in mild surprised.

The Grim Reaper stopped 100 meters from the mountain, and fixed its gaze on Aaron and Protean.

"You must be the Child of the sky, The Light everyone won't stop talking about."

The demonic voice sounded all over the place, causing a frown to appear on Aaron's and Protean's faces.

"Who is "everyone"?" Aaron asked with a slight frown.

"You aren't worthy to know that."

Aaron just sneered, and asked:

"Do you know Michael?"

The Grim Reaper's red eyes flicked for some seconds, and stopped.

"Oh? You do know him, Do you know he'll be angry on you for attacking this world?" Aaron asked with a smile.

"We're doing this for the Ruler! He asked us to destroy your world, and we won't surrender still this realm is under the abyssal!"

"Hahahahaha!!!" Aaron laughed out loud.

"It seems you guys have been deceived, I met your Ruler, and he had no idea about this... If he knew... I think you know what'll happen."

The Reaper moved its gaze around the place, and introduced itself to Aaron.

"My name is Charon, the ferryman... I'll have to investigate your words, but if I find out you're lying in any way--"

"What are you saying, Charon?!!!"

Aaron and Protean turned their heads to the right, seeing a man with red eyes, and in black armor, appearing from thin air. He walked towards them with a smile on his face.

"What is it?" Charon asked with narrow eyes.

"This Demon is lying, let just destroy him." The man stopped in front of the Grim Reaper.

Charon moved its gaze around, and shook its head.

"The Abyssal Lords will know what's happening, For now... I'm falling back."

"I always know you're scared... Watch me take care of this Demon."

A red sword appeared on the Man's hand.

"This girl is a Transcendent." Protean whispered.

"And he looks nice!"

Aaron smiled, and added: "You want to kill me?"

"No, I'm here to destroy this realm."

With that said, the unknown man shot towards Aaron.

"Nice... [Sword king] Activated."

Aaron grew his sword, and vanished, appearing behind the man, who instantly froze.

"I thought being so arrogant, you'll be powerful." Aaron sheathed back his sword.

"...."

Charon was stunned.

"How?"

The man fell heavily on the ground, creating a crater.

Aaron sighed, and looked up at Charon.

"You're one powerful Kid... Well done... That fool was getting to my nerve... We'll meet again."

With that said, he vanished.

Aaron watched as the skeletons, and souls, started disappearing, and in less than a minute, all the Monsters had disappeared from the land.

"Master, what about the gates?"

"We'll check it out... Let's just hope Michael takes over soon... Or else, this Grim Reaper will return with full force."

Protean slowly nodded, and lowered his head to the crater, and jumped down.

Aaron looked over his shoulder, watching as Protean took out the man's core, and quickly absorbed it.

BOOM!!

A powerful energy burst out from him, causing Aaron to turn towards Protean.

"Nice!"

Protean looked at his hand, and nodded in satisfaction. "A Transcendent Realm, I can feel the Powers!"

"Congratulations."

Aaron landed on the ground, observing Protean's new appearance.

"What do you think about this Charon?" Protean asked.

"There's nothing to think about, If he attack Terra, I don't mind killing him."

Aaron kept his sword in his spatial space, and looked up at the floating cores.

"With these cores, our soldiers will have a massive growth in strength."

He stretched forth his hand towards the cores, and the Eagle's core flew towards him:

"This will be a gift to Mother, she has been in the sky realm for far too long, time for she to enter the Legendary, or better, Supreme realm."

"You know she had only been in the sky realm for 3 weeks, right?" Protean asked, staring at the core in Aaron's hand.

"I know. And you already have one, so you aren't getting this core."

Aaron looked up at the Cores which instantly disappeared from the sky.

"Good, Now come on, let's check out the gates."

The space beneath them tore opened, the two entered, leaving behind a destroyed, and bloody landscape.

Chapter 102 I'll Have My Revenge!

Whizzed!!

"Welcome, Aaron."

Aaron and Protean walked out from the portal, and stared at the lady sitting in a meditating posture, right in front of them... Her head was even lowered.

Aaron frowned, and activated the All Seeing Eyes.

Aaron smirked: "The second Lord of a Primordial god, known as Blood Ivy... What a surprise."

The figure slowly raised her head, staring at Aaron in surprise.

"You know me...? That's good, you'll die quicker."

Aaron lowered his gaze to the red sword lying in front of her with a raised eyebrow.

{All seeing eyes.}

Aaron was momentarily stunned.

"Protean, Fall back."

Protean nodded, and without hesitation, leaped backwards, landing 100 meters from the two.

Aaron stared at the huge red glowing gate behind the still sitting woman, and asked.

"Are you the gatekeeper?"

"Gatekeeper?"

Blood Ivy scoffed, she stretched forth her hands towards the sword, and picked it up.

"Can a gatekeeper do this?"

Whoosh!!

A powerful amount of energy burst out from her, throwing Aaron five meters back.

BAM!

Aaron landed on his feet, staring at her in surprise.

"With this inferior strength, you dare think of protecting this realm... How naive of you."

Blood Ivy slowly stood up from the ground, her sword in hand.

"Come on, Aaron... Show me why you're called the god of the sky."

Aaron smiled, and activated [Divine Wind Manipulation], stopping the air flow around them.

Blood Ivy grinned, and opened her mouth:

"I admit this is a powerful skill, but in presence of someone who's proficient in space affinity, this skill can be rendered useless."

'This?! She created a personal space?!'

Aaron thought in mild surprise, then smiled.

"Finally, a battle."

Blood Ivy watched in surprise, as Aaron grew in height, taking the form of a young man.

"Huh?" She was stunned.

"Let's have some real fun."

Aaron sword slowly materialized in his hand.

Blood Ivy smiled: "Good, No one will complain I bullied a kid." She unsheathed her sword, and threw the sheath to the side.

"Oh?! Then it's equal... No one will say I killed a woman."

"Fufufufu... So cute."

Blood Ivy smiled, and with a flash, she vanished.

Aaron swiftly turned around and swung his sword.

Clank!!!

BOOM!!

Aaron flew backwards. He raised his sword while in midair, and plunged it in the ground, stopping himself.

'Such energy force! From just a weapon.'

"What? Are you surrendering?"

Aaron stood upright, and stared at Blood Ivy...

"It seems you don't know me that well."

BOOOOOOOM!!!!

A powerful lightning fell from the sky, colliding on Aaron.

Blood Ivy stared as the smoke and dust dispersed, revealing Aaron in a Red armor.

"Congratulations."

With that said, he gripped the handle of his sword.

Blood Ivy knew the skill he was about to use, and quickly moved.

BOOM!!

The two shot forward.

Swoosh!

A gush of wind burst out from their contact, and the two appeared behind one another, swords upright.

BAM!!

Blood Ivy threw up a mouthful of blood, she looked over her shoulder at Aaron, a smile on her face.

Aaron raised his hand and touch his cheek, then looked at his fingers, seeing blood... His blood... Blood Ivy injured him.

"Wow, It has been so long that I have seen my blood... Amazing."

Aaron turned around with a grinned. "You survived my strongest attack... And even injured me in the process... But I think it's time I get serious."

Blood Ivy frowned seeing the cut on Aaron's cheek healing with an incredible speed, In matter of five seconds, his face healed.

"You have Light Affinity?" She was stunned.

"Stop talking."

Whooh!

Aaron disappeared from sight.

"Oh? How cute."

Blood Ivy moved her gaze around the place, listening.

Whooh!!

She turned to her right, and swung her sword, sending five wind blades with one strike

"....."

"Over here."

Whooh!

"Huh?"

Blood Ivy was stunned, seeing ten Aaron running towards her.

"Illusion? No, I don't think so."

She raised her sword, blocking the sword heading towards her neck.

BAM!!

She moved ten feet back from the collision.

"They're real?" She leaped backward, dodging the blades of the other nine.

The ten landed on the ground, all staring at Her.

"Yes, We're real."

They said in unison.

BOOM!

Blood Ivy looked up at the night sky, and chuckled.

"This will be fun."

She channeled her demonic energy into her sword... "I hope you can Dodge this, god of the sky."

She plunged her sword into the ground, sending a powerful wave of energies from below.

"How nice."

Aaron smiled, dropping the lightning on her.

Protean who stood some distance away watched as both Blood Ivy, and Aaron shot forward. Powerful attacks smashed on their previous spot.

He watched the two clashed, and was surprised:

"Blood Ivy must be really powerful, and her mastery with the space Affinity made her survive so many rounds with my master."

He watched as Aaron merged into one and sent a powerful black plasma beam from his left hand towards Blood Ivy, who dodged by moving through space.

"We must find a way to stop her... This body has the space Affinity, but I'm not so proficient as her... Anywhere! I'll have to try!"

Protean shot forward.

"You are powerful, Aaron... But you aren't ready to stop the Skull, Don't worry, It's only a matter of time, and the Skull will rise again."

Blood Ivy said, walking out from thin air, her gaze fixed on Aaron.

"Why don't you be a beauty, and tell me where I can find your kingdom." Aaron said with a smile.

"Sorry, I can't do that... At least, Not yet... Be calm god of sky, and If you're really thinking of ways to defect us, Increase... Break though the boundaries of a mortal--"

--Thanks for the heads-up."

Aaron's eyes turned crimson red.

"I'll be sending a message to your Skull... And my message is your head."

He infused all his demonic energy into his sword.

"All your attacks are ineffective against me, you're only wasting your time."

"We'll see about that... [Sword Kings' Slash]!!"

Aaron yelled, and swung his sword, sending a powerful crescent blade towards Blood Ivy.

"Pathetic."

Before Blood Ivy could move between space, she froze.

"What is this?! Why can't I move?!!"

She looked over her shoulder, seeing Protean in the man's appearance, pointing a finger at her.

"You! You're using Lasur's Primary skill; [Space Bond]. But how?"

Without hesitation, she channeled all her demonic energy, and formed a huge circular shield in front of her... Then braced herself.

BOOOOOOOM!!

The energy blade collided on the shield, instantly shattering it into particles.

Blood Ivy flew backwards, and smashed heavily on the ground, throwing up a mouthful of blood.

'She survived?' Aaron was surprised.

Blood Ivy glared at Protean, her eyes filled with killing intent... She then turned to Aaron.

"Do you think I'm that weak?"

She shakily stood up from the ground, her gaze fixed on Aaron.

"We'll see again, God of the sky, You won this round."

Aaron stared as she disappeared from the field.

"I thought I could destroy Skull with my current strength, but it seems It's not that easy... Blood Ivy, who's a second Lord Is this powerful, then what about the first Lord? Or the leader of the Skull?"

"We have to get stronger, Master." Protean said, walking towards him.

"Yes. A transcendent, and Lower God isn't enough."

Aaron sighed, and turned around to the gate.

"I need to close this. I might not be strong enough to destroy it, but I can close it."

Aaron took a step, and appeared in front of the gate... He then stretched forth his right hand towards it.

Protean watched the earth rise from the ground, and slowly surrounded the gate, enclosing it in a wall of earth.

"Come on, We have more to close."

Aaron said, and disappeared with Protean.

Swhoo!

Blood Ivy appeared, and moved her gaze on the gate.

"Aaron. Aaron. Aaron... There are only three people capable of closing these gates, and you aren't among them... No matter how powerful you get, You'll be powerless to destroy it... You can seal it, but a seal can always been broken."

She held her stomach with a painful expression, and spurted out a mouthful of blood.

"Aaron, I will kill you... For now, I need to go back, and heal."

With that said, she disappeared from the second continent.

Chapter 103 Congratulations To The Queen

"Finally Done."

Aaron said, closing the last gateway... He moved his gaze to the destroyed village 100 meters away, and sighed.

"I don't know which race resided in this village, but I hope they find Peace."

Protean who stood behind him, slowly nodded. "Yes." He said in a low voice.

WHOOSH!!

Protean's eyes widened seeing a sword flying towards him.

BAM!!

He caught the blade, and both he and Aaron turned their heads to the side.

Protean: "Huh?"

Aaron: "A fairy?"

The two were stunned, staring at the tiny Sprite before them.

Whzzzzh!!

In front of their eyes, the tiny human took the appearance of a full-grown lady, with long pink hair, and green eyes... She fixed her intense gaze on Protean, and summoned back her sword.

It flew out from Protean's hold, and landed in her hands.

"Die you Monster!"

Before she could charge towards Protean, Aaron opened his mouth:

"Hold on lady, We aren't the bad guys."

The fairy stared at Aaron for some seconds, and looked up at Protean.

"Aren't bad guys?! Do you think I'm a fool?! This man here killed and destroy my race and village! And you're saying you aren't bad guys!!"

BOOM!!

She lunged towards Protean, and slashed towards his neck, going directly for the kill.

Protean sighed, and leaped backward, landing some meters away.

"I'm not the one who destroyed your Village, I just took his appearance."

"Do you think I'm blind?! Do you think I won't recognize the one who killed my people?!"

She shot forward again, Protean summoned his sword, and collided with her.

"Hmm..."

Aaron held his chin with his index and thumb fingers.

"It seems this was her village, and that transcendent man, whose core was absorbed by Protean did all this destruction, and even wiped out her race... How cruel! But how will I make her stop attacking Protean? A Legendary realm... Such a powerful lady will make a good soldier."

BAM!!

Protean, who had been defending all this while was pushed backward... He landed on the ground, and looked up at the fairy, who turned around to Aaron.

"Your turn! I promise my father and mother that I'll eradicate all Monsters from this world, and that's what I'll do!!"

"Do we look like Monsters to you?" Aaron asked with a bored expression.

"He's a Monster, and anyone who works for a Monster, is a monster! And my enemy!!!"

Without hesitation, she shot towards Aaron, sword ready.

BOOOM!

She flew some meters back, and collided heavily on the ground... She threw up a mouthful of blood, and looked at Aaron in horror.

Moment next:

BAM!

She fainted.

"What a headache." Aaron grumbled, and walked towards her.

He stopped beside the lady, and squat down, calmly observing her.

Aaron stared at The Sleeping Beauty, and looked at Protean over his shoulder.

"I suggest you take another form, just for now... After she's stable, we can explain things more."

Protean stared at him for some seconds, and took the form of the dark elf.

"This didn't mean I'm happy with it, she'll have to compensate me for the trouble... For heavens' sake! I could kill her in minutes."

"Stop complaining, it's time we know the races' decision."

Aaron stood up, and looked at the rising sun.

"A new day."

He turned his head to the gate, and snapped his fingers... Moment next, they all disappeared from the place.

BAM!

A huge red flag with the logo of a red sun rose from the ground, moving in the wind.

[Terra.]

[Throne Hall.]

"Queen Mother, Congratulations on making the three races submit to us, but the grand priests are preparing their soldiers to attack the kingdom, and the Elves and Humans will surely aid them--"

"--Why are you so work up, Commander Egon? Do you think Terra can go down that easily?"

Aurora asked with a slight frown.

"No, Queen mother. I didn't mean--"

"--Slow down, Egon, The other races gave me this."

Aurora waved her hand, and a scroll appeared from thin air, then flew towards Egon, who caught it.

Emily, Lilly, Vince, Elizabeth, John, and Kara stared at Egon, as he silently opened the scroll, and read everything.

"Queen Mother!"

He looked up at Aurora in mild surprised.

"You see. The other races will take care of the army from within, while we'll give support... Modena also said something about some Hell Demons. She said we have a total of 2,000 Hell Demons, with more than 20,000 Soldiers in the Flesh Eaters' forest... So there's no need to worry about anything, just relax, and wait for my son."

Egon gave the scroll to John beside him and bowed his head.

"The Queen is Wise."

John read everything, and nodded with a thoughtful expression.

"Queen mother, if they go on with this plan, we'll surely win the war."

"Even if they don't, we'll still win this war."

Everyone turned their heads to Aaron, who walked inside the room, with Protean following behind him.

"A Transcendent?!"

Everyone were stunned seeing Protean.

"Yes, I'm now a Transcendent... Now tell us, what's going on here? And who's attacking us?"

John stretched out his hands towards him, while bowing his head.

Protean took the scroll, read everything, and nodded.

"It seems the Grand Priests didn't get my warning... Well then, we'll have to wipe them out from this realm." Aaron chuckled, and turned to Lilly.

"There's a lady in the infirmary... Go see to her."

Lilly stared at him in surprise. "A lady?"

"Yes, A Lady, go and heal her."

Lilly nodded, and said:

"Come on Emily, let's check this out."

Aaron waited for the three girls to leave, before turning his head to the rest.

"The Queen Mother, and Commanders stay, everyone; leave us."

Kara and the rest nodded, stood up.

"Stop Vince, You'll be my next Commander of the archers, so stay."

Vince was momentarily stunned, he looked at the others, and stood still.

After everyone left the hall, Aaron turned his head to his Mother.

"Mum, You have been in the sky realm for far too long." He turned to Egon and John.

"Both of you are stuck in the sky realm for years now, I think It's time for everyone to grow stronger."

"I don't follow, Emperor." John said in mild confusion.

Aaron smiled, and snapped his fingers.

BOOM!

Aurora's, Vince's, Egon's, and John's jaw dropped wide open, staring at the hundred of thousands of cores floating around them.

"The grand priests are attacking in two days time, in these two days... I want all our soldiers to be above the Saint Realm... While you guys should be in the Legendary, and Supreme Realm."

The four were stunned.

'Master, I should be the one to give her the core, I Haven't given Mum anything, Please...'

Aaron frowned hearing Protean's voice in his head.

'What?! Then what have I gave her?' He asked back.

'You ask such obvious question?! You gave her power back to her. Make her live a simple and happy of life... You also helped increase the powers of her Battle equipments... You even took her from the Flesh Eaters' forest... Not only that, but you help--'

'--Enough! Fine then, but you must add my name when giving her.'

'Loud and clear.'

Aaron snapped his fingers, and a core appeared in front of everyone, its radiant was so powerful, that everyone closed their eyes for some seconds.

"This? This Is a peak-stage Beast-Ruler's Core." Aurora exclaimed.

"Yes, Mother... And it's yours."

Protean quickly took the core, and walked up to Aurora.

Aurora stood up, she looked at Aaron, then at Protean, and smiled.

"Accept my gift, Mother, I killed it for you."

Protean got down on one knee, and raised it above his head.

'Pretentious.' Aaron rolled his eyes. Enjoy new adventures at empire

'No one will doubt him... Wait a second! So this is the reason he took this appearance again, to claim he killed the Beast-Ruler, what a traitor!'

"Thank you, Protean."

Aurora smiled, and took the core from Protean's hand.

"This is just the beginning mother, soon; we'll return your Kingdom to you... Soon, the Elves will know of your return."

'Really?! This guy is more than a traitor!' Aaron thought.

"Can't wait, Protean... But how did you kill a Beast-Ruler?"

Protean stood up:

"It was difficult, but I did it!"

Protean said with a smile.

Aurora smiled, and looked at Aaron: "Thank You too, Aaron... Protean might have killed it, but I know you helped."

"The Queen is wise." Aaron gave a low bow.

"Fufufufu..."

Aurora chuckled, and absorbed the core.

BOOM!!!

A powerful amount of Sid energy burst out from her, pushing Egon and John some feet back.

While Aurora was feeling her new Powers, Aaron and Protean opened their mouths.

"Congratulations to the Queen for entering the Peak-stage of the Supreme Realm."

Egon and John quickly went down on one knee, and said.

"Congratulations to the Queen!!!"

Chapter 104 Jack Killed My Sister!

[Infirmary]

Lilly and Emily stared at the sleeping fairy on the bed, and looked at one another in surprise.

"A fairy? Did fairy exist in Elvis?" Lilly asked in mild confusion.

Emily observed the lady on the bed with curiosity:

"When I was a child, I heard my father and some of his soldiers speaking about some fairy race... Back then, I didn't believe such race existed... But... This just changed my perspective." She smiled.

"So what should we do now? Wake her up? I don't understand why Aaron asked us to check up on her."

Lilly said, walked towards a chair, and sat down.

Emily stared at her with a smile, and turned her head to the sleeping fairy.

"He wants us to look after her, both Her village, and race are gone, and she's still in shock... By seeing us, he believes she'll calm down."

Lilly slowly nodded:

"Her whole race, just gone... I don't know how I'll feel if My race was wiped out! Wait!! How did you know all these?!"

Lilly moved her suspicious gaze on Emily.

"No one knows about what I'm about to tell you... Aaron and I had tasted the other's blood... Who would have thought Aaron's blood is so sweet."

"WHAT?!!"

Lilly stood up in shock, while Emily chuckled:

"Didn't you wonder how I entered the Supreme realm?"

Lilly sat back down, staring at Emily in Awe.

"I have tasted my brother's blood, but he Hasn't tasted mine... And I don't want that..."
She looked up at her:

"So, that's why you increased so drastically in realm, became he drank your blood...? Wow! You're really lucky, girl!!!"

"Hmm... Mmm..."

"Oh? She's awake." Emily smiled, staring at the fairy, whose eyes fluttered opened.

Katharina stared at the two girls in front of her in confusion.

"An... An elf? And... Demon?" She was stunned.

"She knows of our races." Lilly was surprised.

"Surprising, right? While we know nothing about hers." Emily said.

Katharina moved her gaze all over the room, and discovered she was in a hospital.

"How did... How did I get here?" She asked in mild confusion.

"You attacked two people before losing consciousness, right? Try to remember." Emily said, sitting down on the bed.

Katharina thought for some seconds, and nodded.

"Yes! They're too powerful, especially the kid, he knocked me out... Wait! How did I end up in this place? Where is even this "place"?"

"Calm down, You're injured, you need to rest and heal... And for your questions... You're in Terra, our kingdom, located in the third Continent."

Katharina slowly nodded upon hearing Lilly, while she continued:

"How you got here? Well, the Kid you attacked is the Emperor of Terra, Named; Emperor Aaron, and my betrothed... He's also her younger Brother."

"Betrothed? Younger brother?" Katharina was confused, moving her gaze from Emily to Lilly.

"But! If he's an Emperor, why is he working with the monster who killed my race, and destroyed my village?!"

"Monster?" Lilly was confused.

"She's referring to Protean." Emily clarified.

"Oh!"

Lilly nodded with a thoughtful expression.

"Protean?" Katharina was confused.

"Before we continue, My name is Emily, future Queen of Terra. She's Lilly, Aaron's elder sister, and the Princess of Terra... What's your name?"

"Ka... Katharina."

"OK, Katharina... Protean isn't a monster, he has skill which made him take the form of anyone whose cores he absorbed... He's Aaron's closest, and most trustworthy ally... Think back to the battle. When you were attacking him, did he attack back?"

Katharina was silent, lost in thought, after a whole minute, she looked up at Emily.

"So you're saying Aaron, and Protean aren't the bad guys... But, you weren't there, how did you know all this?"

Emily smiled brightly at her:

"Aaron and I are linked together, If given access, we can see each other memories... Fufufufu, I don't know if he'll ask for Access when checking mine, but... You get my meaning, right?"

"I think so, but I can't stay here for long, I need to get going."

Lilly: "Get going? Where?"

Emily: "And why?"

Katharina moved her gaze on the two, and sighed softly:

"I promised my parents, I won't rest till all the Monsters have been wiped out from this world." She said with a resolute determination.

Emily and Lilly looked at one another, and both turned to Katharina.

"That's also our mission, so why don't you work for us? We'll take very good care of you."

Lilly stopped talking, seeing Katharina shaking her head.

"No, I'm doing it alone."

"Then Don't attack the Flesh Eaters' Forest, that's my territory."

Aaron said. Walking inside with Protean, and Aurora following behind.

The three girls turned their heads to the three newcomers.

"I want to apologize for attacking you two, I thought you were the monsters, who destroyed my Village." Katharina said in a low tone.

"Don't worry about that, no one was harm."

Aaron snapped his fingers, instantly healing Katharina... She looked at herself in surprise, and slowly sat up.

"I heard everything you said, and no one would hold you from your promise... To me, that's even more important, because it means you have dignity."

Katharina stared at him for some seconds, and slowly nodded her head.

"Get ready. Lilly and Emily will help you with everything you need."

"Thank you, Emperor Aaron."

She bowed.

[Half an Hour Later.]

Aaron and his family stared at Katharina, who stood before them in a black armor, and a sword on her waist.

"Take care, Katharina. Whatever you'll need is in this ring, from clothes, food, magic scrolls, and more..." Lilly said, giving Katharina a silver ring.

"Thank you, Lilly. Thank you, Emily... And thanks to the Royal family." She gave a low bow.

"For your protection."

Aaron created the alliance circle, and past it towards her.

"Place your palm on it."

"What did this do?" Katharina asked.

"When you come in contact with any monster that's under my reign, it won't attack you... And If you need mine or any ones' help, you can simply link with the person, and ask for help... They'll locate you in minutes.". Aaron said. Not revealing everything to her.

Katharina thought for a long time, and slowly placed her palm on it... The Alliance circle shattered, and entered her body, through her hand.

"Done."

Aaron said.

Katharina nodded, bowed one last time at them.

"I'll get going."

The Royal family nodded, and watched as Katharina turned around, and walked away from Terra.

"Will she be ok?" Lilly asked, staring at Aaron's side profile.

"She will."

Aaron nodded, the next moment, a frown appeared on his face.

"We'll be back."

Before the others could say anything, both he and Protean vanished from the city gate.

"OK then. Lilly and Emily, both of you should go and assist the soldiers... Don't forget we're getting attack in two days." Aurora said.

The two looked at one another, and nodded.

"Hey, Where is precious? It had been long I saw her." Lilly said with a smile, asking of Emily's familiar.

"Precious is good, Or do you want to see her?"

"Yes, but after checking up on the soldiers."

Lilly smiled, and looked up at the sky, seeing her familiar flying high above the clouds.

"Come on."

The two girls quicken their pace.

[Flesh Eaters' Forest.]

[Dark Castle.]

Aaron, and Protean appeared in the Dark castle, right in the throne hall.

All the undead, and Lords quickly dropped to their knees, heads bowed.

"We pay respect to the Emperor!"

The lords said in unison.

Aaron nodded, and sat down: "Rise."

They all stood up, staring at him and Protean, who stood beside him.

"What's this important news you have, Levia?"

Aaron asked, turning his head to Levia. The vampire stepped forward, and opened her mouth:

"Emperor, I have something to say."

"Go on." Aaron stated.

"It's about my Mother, and my real origin."

Upon hearing her, Aaron and Protean frowned slightly.

"My real name is Levia Samuel."

Aaron's frown deepened hearing the surname.

"And My mother is Queen Adeline... The Queen of the Vampire race."

"Do you by chance have a sister called Rhea?"

Levia looked up at Aaron, and slowly nodded:

"She's my younger sister."

Aaron nodded, and gestured for her to continue. Levia nodded, and started.

"Years back, our kingdom was destroyed by the grand priests, And my Mum was captured, and locked away in the black castle... While my father, and my little sister who was still a 4-month baby bloodsucker, were taken to the second continent... I could escape because I hid when they attacked my kingdom... As of now; I don't know about my father's and sister's wellbeing. My King, I have two requests to make."

"Go on."

Levia dropped to her knees, and bowed, making sure her forehead touched the ground... Modena and the other lords were silently watching her action.

"I want the king's help to free my mother! And Help me have my revenge on my sister's murderer!!"

Aaron and Protean looked at one another in surprise, then at Levia.

"Who's your sister's murderer?" Protean asked.

Levia looked up at them:

"My innocent younger sister was murdered by a Kid named Jack!"

Aaron: "..."

Protean: "Innocent?"

Chapter 105 I Don't Negotiate With Strangers

"Yes, Jack killed my Innocent Sister."

Aaron and Protean once again looked at one another.

"Who told you this?" Aaron asked.

"The Leaders of the Beasts, Orcs, and Dwarves race."

"OK... How do you come to know those guys?"

"They came to visit my mother."

"And where is your mother?"

"At the end of the Flesh Eaters' Forest."

"Do they describe this Jack to you?"

"No, Emperor."

Aaron relaxed on his throne, staring at Levia;

"Your mother, where is she at the moment?"

"In the Black Castle."

Aaron stood up, and moved his gaze on his lords, then settled it on Levia.

"Rise, Levia."

"Thank you, Emperor."

Levia stood up from the ground.

"I need to see your mother."

Aaron snapped his fingers, and the surrounding space changed.

Levia and the Lords looked around in surprise.

Levia stared at the black castle gate before her in awe, and turned her head Aaron and Protean.

"Let's go and meet your mother."

Aaron walked toward the gate, which instantly opened up.

Adeline stood in her room, staring at the group walking inside the castle.

She fixed her gaze on Aaron, who stopped some meters from the door, and looked up, staring straight at her.

Adeline smiled, and turned into smoke.

Aaron lowered his head to the door, seeing a beautiful woman with pale skin, red eyes, and in a black dress, appeared in front of it.

"It's an honor meeting you, Emperor Aaron?" She gave a small bow.

Aaron stared at her for some seconds, and activated the All Seeing Eyes.

"Who would have thought the Vampire Queen will be trapped in such a place?"

Aaron asked, moving his gaze on the black castle. The whole castle was black, Literally.

"I think that's among the reasons the priests kept me here." Adeline said, and added:

"Please, come in."

"No, I'm not here to talk, I'm here to set you free."

"Oh? Emperor Aaron, A lot of people had tried, but no one can set me free... Mainly because, the Skull are the ones who created this prison... They're the main guys behind this issue."

"You know about the Skull?" Aaron was surprised.

"Yeah, what do you want to know about them?"

"Their kingdom."

"Oh? I know where their Kingdom is, but I don't think this is the right place to discuss this." Adeline said, moving her gaze on the lords.

"You have a point."

Aaron pointed a finger at the sky.... Moment next, a powerful beam shot out from it, collided with an invisible barrier... Before everyone's stunned gaze, it shattered into particles, disappearing from sight.

Aaron moved his gaze on the group, and opened his mouth.

"All of you should leave, Right now."

They nodded, and without hesitation, they vanished one at a time, Levia walked toward her mother.

"Come on, Mum... Let's go to the dark castle."

Adeline, who was still in shock, nodded absentmindedly, and followed her daughter, her gaze fixed on Aaron.

[Floating Palace.]

[Grand Hall.]

The five grand Priests who were discussing on how to attack the third Realm, suddenly held their chests, and...

Pifffff!!

They all threw up a mouthful of blood, then looked at one another in shock.

"It can't be!"

The first Priest yelled, and the next moment, he disappeared... The four looked at one another, and also disappeared from the hall.

POOCH!!!

The five appeared right in front of the Black castle....

They moved their gazes around, and a deep frown appeared on their faces.

"Who is so powerful that he/she or it could destroy the barrier?!" The third Priest asked.

"Adeline is gone, We must locate her!! She's the only one who knows the location about the Skull's kingdom, well... Apart from us!!" The second Priest said.

"Welcome."

The five turned around, seeing a young man with long red hair, and eyes, staring at them... This young man was sitting on a black throne; and behind him was another man, whose Realm shocked them all.

"A transcendent?!"

They were shocked... But what shocked them the most was a Transcendent standing behind this young man, who was the one sitting... This young man, whose Energy they couldn't detect.

"Who are you? And are you the one who destroyed the barrier?!" The first Priest asked with a slight frown.

The young man was silent, not uttering a single word.

"You! The first grand Priest asked a question, you should answer!!" The fifth Priest yelled in rage.

"Calm down, are you a fool, That man behind him is a Transcendent... And he's just a guard... Which means, this young man shouldn't be mess with."

The fourth Priest whispered, while the others nodded.

The first Priest folded both his hands, and said with a smile:

"I apologize for my colleague bad attitude... We are asking because the woman sealed here is very dangerous to our kingdoms, By freeing her, you'll be releasing an unknown danger to our home... So can you please hand her to us."

He said, staring at the young man.

The red hair young man who was in a red armor, moved his gaze on the five, and finally opened his mouth:

"I don't negotiate with Strangers."

The Priests frowned slightly, while the first Priest opened his mouth:

"I'm the first Priest, My name is Tibia. He's the second Priest, his name is; Calvin. She is the third Priest, her name is Malika. He's the fourth Priest, his name is; Orchard... And she's the fifth Priest, Her name is; Essie.... We are known as the grand Priests."

He introduced, as far as they know, these two people might be travelers, maybe from somewhere else... They stumbled in the black castle, and Adeline pleaded to them... Not knowing what to do, they destroyed the barrier, and released her... By acting all nice, they could show the two around, form a relationship, and maybe, they'll help them against this Aaron.

What a brilliant plan!

The First Priest stared at the young man, and asked:

"Now that we're no longer strangers, can you give us your names, and the woman's whereabouts?"

The red hair young man smiled, and slowly stood up...

"You want to know who I am?" He asked.

The five stared at him in silent.

"Show them who I'm."

The man behind the guy pulled out his sword, and swung it horizontally, sending a powerful red energy blade towards the grand Priests.

BOOM!!!

It collided on them, smoke raising into the air.... The man sheathed back his sword, staring at the smoke, which slowly dispersed, revealing...

"How dare you attack us?!!" The second Priest yelled in anger.

The red hair young man moved his gaze on the five Priests, who didn't even have a single stretch from the attack, and nodded in approval.

"Good, I only negotiate with powerful beings... I'm guessing in this word, you all are the strongest, am I right?"

The grand Priests looked at one another, and nodded at him.

"If you want to know my name, you have to survive one attack from me... Are you up for it?" He smirked at them.

The five were silent.

"Should we accept?"

"The attacked that man used was so powerful, I say we leave, or better... Attack them."

"Yes, If we show them our strength, they'll submit."

"I don't think that's wise... None of us know what realm this guy is on, So we don't know if we can win, or even take his attack head-on."

They were on a standstill. With no where else to do, they all turned to the first Priest, who sighed.

"We're the grand Priests, we shouldn't lower ourselves just because we need an ally... And besides, I heard there's a kid named Jack in the Academy, If we take him in, and personally train him, We'll have a powerful ally."

"Kara won't easily give him to us." Malika said.

"She doesn't have a choice." Tibia said with a slight frown.

"Then should we attack?" Essie asked in mild confusion.

The young man watched as the five Priests started channeling their Sid energies.

The man behind him was about to move, but he stopped him.

"Let them attack." He said with a grin.

The five Priests pointed their fingers at a point, and sent their Energies forward, creating a powerful energy ball

"The grand Priests aren't pushover, don't think because you have a Transcendent as a guard we'll back down... Letting you know, we're all Transcendent! So one, means nothing!! Release!!"

With Tibia's word, the grand Priests sent the energy ball towards the young man.

"You made the mistake of freeing that Woman... But don't worry, we'll find her, and lock her here again."

They grinned seeing the attack only two feet from the young man.

BAM!!!!!!

".....??!!!"

"Impossible!"

Chapter 106 Their Time Will Come

"He... He caught it?!" Malika exclaimed in shock.

"Impossible! Our combined attack can destroy a whole city, how can a human hold it with his hand?" Orchard was stunned.

Tibia stared at the redhead young man in suspicion, then summoned his sword, pointing it at the strangers.

"Who are you?!!" He hissed out.

The young man stared at the energy ball in his hand for some seconds, and looked up at the five.

"I thought you guys are powerful, Guess I was wrong. Well then, I'll just have to get rid of you five."

With a clench of his fist, the energy ball shattered into particles.

"You want to know who I am?"

He pointed a finger at the five.

"I'm the one you five lied to the world of, the one who you changed his name, and made the other races despise him... The one, who his mother and sister suffered for, even before getting born... You five will pay for putting them through so much pain!"

The more he yelled, the more energy condensed on his fingertip...

"You!"

The five grand Priests took a step back in surprise.

"The Child of the sky? But... You should be a kid, Not some 20 years old man." Tibia was speechless.

Aaron scoffed, and with a flick of his finger, a tiny ball flew towards the Priests.

"Activate all defense!!"

Tibia yelled, quickly creating a protective barrier around him... The other four quickly followed his action, creating theirs.

The seemingly harmless tiny ball, flew towards them and collided on Tibia's shield.

BOOOOOOOOOOOM!!!!!!

A powerful mushroom explosion rose into the sky, destroying the Black castle into stone and debris.

Aaron and Protean stood amidst all the destruction, not moving even an inch.

BAM!!!

Tibia and the other four fell heavily on the ground, 30 meters from Aaron.

They looked up at him in horror, then threw up a mouthful of blood.

"What's your goal in supporting the Skull?" Aaron asked in a calm tone.

"The Skull will help us get rid of the abyssal gates..." Calvin said.

"And in exchange for their help? Wait, let me say it... My Death."

The five slowly, but shakily stood up from the ground, small wounds could be seen all over their bodies, which was caused by the collision.

"Yes... By killing you, They'll help us!"

"Hahahaha!!!"

Aaron burst out laughing, he laughed so loud that the grand Priests raised their eyebrows, staring at him with disdain.

"You five just told me the reason you created such a stupid Prophecy... If I'm gotten rid of, the Skull will help destroy the gates... In your worlds, you five don't want to destroy this world."

"Why would we do that?!!! This is our home! We have families, loved ones, and Friends!! And we have also lost a lot because of the gates! If you die! We'll have the chance to destroy it for good!!!" Malika yelled in rage.

Aaron stared at them for a long time, and was dumbfounded.

These guys were saying the truth!

'It seems they're all getting played by Skull... And they don't even know it... I'm the only one that can stop them, so by getting rid of me, they will have the privilege and space to destroy or rule over this world... These guys just need to open their eyes and see the truth... And there's only one why for them to know Skull's main plan... The Death Of The Cursed Child? No... That will put a lot of people at risk, people closest to me... Or I can pretend, try to deceive the Skull... That means I'll watch them invade my world, and then... The priest will see their real plan... But... There are so many things that will go wrong... Forget all this for now... I'll know what to do in the future!'

Aaron thought, moving his gaze on the five.

"Five of you are getting deceived by the grand Priests, they summoned the gates in our world, and I'm the only one that can stop them, that's why they sent you all to kill me... You can believe me if you want, but I already told you the truth... If you want to know more, investigate..."

He turned around, and walked away, his throne turning into smoke.

"Oh?!"

Aaron looked at the five over his shoulder:

"If any of you cross me again, or attack any of my family members, or Allies.... I won't mind destroying that your floating fortress."

With that said, he walked away with Protean, leaving five stunned Priests behind.

"Was he telling the truth about the Skull?" Essie asked, turning her head to the other four.

"We all know the Skull can't be trusted, and... Why would they ask us to turn the world against the child of the sky... What's their main plan?" Tibia asked, staring at the direction Aaron took.

"But... They said the Gates appeared because of Aaron, and by killing him, is the only way the gate can be destroyed."

"You don't know that." Calvin said to Malika, and sighed:

"We know how to get to the Skull's kingdom... One of us can simply sneak in, and investigate."

"What are you saying, Orchard?!!"

"The Skull said we should never enter their realm without first sending a permit... But if we go without a permit, we'll be held responsible... What if you're caught?"

The four stared at one another in silence, and after a whole Minute, Tibia opened his mouth.

"All of you head back, send word to the other races... They should hold on the plan on attacking the third Continent... I'll go to Skull, and see if I can find anything."

"But, Sir Tibia--"

Malika stopped seeing Tibia's raised hand.

"Not one is talking me out of this, Just listen... The Skull might have helped us in the past, but that didn't mean we'll stand back and watch them take over our world, or even destroy it... Remember why are created this Council... We created it, so the world will be safe, and peaceful... We didn't create it so we'll bring the destruction of our world..."

He looked up at the clear blue sky:

"Keep an eye on Kara... If she's suspicious to you guys in any way... Capture her, and wait for my return."

The four nodded, and watched as Tibia disappeared.

They looked at one another, and also disappeared from the forest.

100 meters from their location, Aaron and Protean sat on a tree, staring at the five who finally disappeared from the ruin.

"It seems they already suspected the Skull, and my words just triggered their action." Aaron said, relaxing on the trunk.

"What's your plan?" Protean asked in mild confusion.

"They won't attack us again, well... Not still knowing the truth... If they discover the Skull's plan on destroying our world, they'll turn against them... And will work with us... Let just hope they discovered the truth... It'll be sad to kill them."

He said the last part in a low voice.

Protean turned to him with a slight frown, and after staring at one another for five seconds, the two burst out laughing.

"Hahahaha!! Be sad?! Hahaha... I'll gladly kill them if they attack my kingdom!" Aaron said, amidst laughter.

"Hahaha!! The way you said it, I thought you're getting soft! Haha!" Protean joined in.

Aaron stood up, and moved his gaze on the Forest.

"We must protect our world, As for now, we have no idea about the leader of the skull, or how powerful he/she or it is... All we know is, the leader is a lot stronger than a lower god." He grinned.

"I don't care what happens, I must protect my realm at all cost, even if it costs my life!!"

His voice boom all over the forest, and at that exact moment.

BOOM!!!

A golden lightning tore the sky open, and disappeared moment next.

"Did... Did you...?"

Protean turned his head toward Aaron, a little stunned.

"No."

Aaron looked at his hand, and shook his head.

"My powers can't create such a powerful lightning..." He added.

Moment next, he saw some words appearing in front of him.

{Congratulations.}

{You have be Acknowledged by Zeus... The god of lightning.}

{Powers increase...}

{Remaining Acknowledgment to enter the True God realm: 7.}

{Acknowledgment: 3/10.}

Aaron and Protean blinked feeling their powers increasing greatly.

"Wow, It seems we're just getting started." Aaron smirked, Turing his head to Protean, who slowly stood up, standing on the tree branch.

"So are we attacking, or...?"

"Attacking who?" Aaron asked with a slight frown.

"I don't know, maybe the Skull?!"

"Their time will come."

Aaron smiled, and added:

"Come on, I have some questions Adeline needs to answer... And it's time we help Mott, I promised him we'll settle his family's matter tomorrow... And I don't like going back on my words."

"What happen then?"

Aaron thought for some seconds, and nodded: "I need someone to help control the Ning Family's wealth, If his father is a good man... He'll have the job." Aaron said.

Moment next: the two disappeared.

Chapter 107 The Beginning!!

[Dark Castle.]

"We need to check up on Aaron, and Protean."

"Calm down, Mum. Nothing will happen to Aaron." Levia said, trying to calm down her mother.

"How do you know that?" Adeline asked in mild worries.

"Because he's the emperor... And there's no one that can threaten him in all of Elvis." Modena said in a calm tone, staring at the standing Mother and daughter duo.

"Yeah, No one in Elvis... But what about Skull? They aren't in Elvis."

"Skull?"

Modena and the other Lords all frowned slightly.

"What's Skull?" Henry asked in mild confusion.

"Skull Is a powerful kingdom, more powerful then the five races' combined forces... Their target is to rule over this realm, and make us slaves."

Everyone turned their heads to Aaron, who was back in his normal appearance.

Protean following behind him.

"Emperor." They all bowed their heads.

"You know about Skull?"

Adeline asked in mild surprised, staring at Aaron, who walked towards his throne, and sat down.

"Only a small detail, what I want to know is Where they are located." Aaron said, while Protean stood beside him.

"Their Location isn't in this realm..." Adeline sighed:

"I'll have to explain everything from the start."

Aaron nodded, and everyone listened, as Adeline started.

"Millions of years ago there was nothing but void, and endless sea of darkness... In this eternal darkness, a glowing ball of light appeared, signaling peace, freedom, and creation... This light emanated an unknown energy which created the realms; the first realm; Known as Earth. Second realm; known as Amavera. Third realm; Draconian. Fourth realm; Elvis. Fifth realm; Narvik. Sixth realm; Alphavio. And so forth... These realms are filled with countless planets and Powers, and the light created the habitants in all the realms. This light is our creator... And the only one with the strongest skill in the whole universe... Which is [OmniKinesis] The Light hovered above its creation and discovered it needed beings who could help rule its creation, and then emerge powerful beings, whose Powers were only second to the creator... These beings were known as Primordial... The first; Gaea, the Primordial goddess of Earth... She gave us trees, earth and was the mother of everything moving on earth. Then followed by Tartarus: the Primordial god of the Abyss, the deepest part of hell. And Erebus; Primordial god of Darkness, Nyx, Primordial goddess of Night, and more... These beings gave birth to many children, both monsters and Humans... And everyone lived in peace... The light who created all this nodded at its work, and gave the powers to rule, to the Primordial, then went into a deep slumber..."

"...As the saying goes. Peace is just like the seasons, it comes and goes, With the Absence of the Light, who's known as the Supreme Queen, the Titans and monsters attacked the gods... They claimed they're the superior beings, who are fit to be rulers. The Primordial and gods battled against their forces, and finally sealed the Titans in the Abyssal..."

"Gaea, who was the mother of the Titans was enraged. She visited another Primordial, had sex, and gave birth to the Terror, the destroyer, and The main leader of Skull... Typhon... Typhon was a hundred heads Dragon, whose has powers of all Elements ever think of... Under such powers, half of the gods, both Primordial, and True Gods joined him and his mother... Gaea's goal was to release her children, and give them their rightful place, which is the throne, and Typhon will be their King-of-Kings..."

"...Typhon plunged the whole realms in chaos, and successfully destroyed the seventh to the Tenth Realms, turning all the inhabitants into Monsters... His personal soldiers more-stronger than any forces ever known... With so much death and destruction, the gods didn't bow down to him, they rebelled, fought for our survival, and theirs... But was all in vain..."

She sighed.

"Tartarus discovered the only person who could end Typhon's reign was the Supreme Queen, and without knowing how to find her, he sacrificed himself when Typhon's soldiers caught up to him... No one knew what happened next, but his death awakened the Supreme Queen... Upon seeing what had occurred in the peaceful world she left behind; the Supreme Queen was enraged... And with anger; she sealed away Typhon, and took 50% of energies from the realms, and gods... With anger, she disappeared into space and time... Till this day, No one knew where she is, or where Typhon is imprisoned..."

Adeline looked up at Aaron.

"Typhon is the main leader of Skull, and the one ruling is known as Eris... She's the Primordial goddess of Chaos, and discord... And their World is located in the tenth Abyssal gate, which is in the bottom of the Dead Sea... For years, this gate remained seal, and I hope it never opens... 'Cause when it does, she'll have the freedom to enter our realm, and doom to us all."

"Dead Sea?" Aaron was stunned.

"Yes, There are only two People that might help you in this, First: The Merqueen; Heartily, and second: The Sea Ruler: Mali... These two are exceptionally powerful, especially in the waters, so if you're thinking of ways to communicate with them, you must be careful."

Aaron turned to Protean, and the two smirked.

Seeing the smirk on their faces, Adeline was confused.

"Don't worry, Vampire Queen... Those two are my Allies, They'll help me with it." Aaron said.

"Huh?" Adeline was stunned, "Allies?"

"Yes... Is there anything I need to know?" Aaron asked.

"Oh?! When you're on the way, you'll have to past by the Sirens' Island, those five ladies are vicious, and kills anyone who got close to their Island, and to get to the Dead Sea... You must get close to it... So be--"

"--Hahahaha!! And I thought this will be hard." Aaron laughed out loud.

"It is hard, the Grand Priests need to use half of their energies, and conceal themselves before having the chance of passing these three territories, you should know how dangerous this is."

"You don't get my meaning." Aaron stood up with a smile.

"These three are already under me... They're all my Allies."

"WHAT?!!!"

Not only Adeline, the whole room was stunned, even the undead, hell Demons, and skeletons froze in shock.

"Don't ever think Terra is weak, Our combine force can take down even the Human Empire." Aaron looked at Adeline, and Levia.

"You said something about the death of your daughter, and sister, right?"

The two slowly nodded. .

Aaron smiled and snapped his fingers, the space tore opened, and a gateway appeared.

Everyone turned their heads towards it, and was stunned seeing Rhea, and her four elders walking out from it.

Rhea move her gaze on everyone in the room, and was stunned seeing Adeline, and Levia... She might not know them in person, but their pictures were all over her father's room.

"My Queen?"

The four elders were stunned, moment next: They all dropped to their knees.

"Greetings to the Vampire Queen."

Adeline nodded at them, but her gaze was fixed on Rhea.

"Rhea?" She called in a low voice.

"Mum?" Rhea's eyes widened in surprise:

"MUM!!!"

She ran towards Adeline, hugging her tightly.

"My baby batty!! I thought I lost you." Adeline said, tightening the hug.

"I miss you so much, Mum! I thought you and elder sister died in the war... Dad told me you guys didn't make it." Rhea said between sobs.

"Shhh... Don't cry, dear... We're together now, no one will separate our family again!"

Rhea slowly nodded.

"Baby Sister."

Levia called out in a low voice, staring at the two.

"Elder Sister."

Rhea turned her head to Levia, and both she and Adeline opened their hands for Levia to join in.

Everyone watched the family of three with a smile, as they patiently waited, till the three separated, and turned to Aaron.

"Thank you so much, Emperor Aaron. But... How? I thought Jack Killed my daughter?" Adeline asked in mild confusion.

"Jack?" Rhea was surprised.

Aaron smiled:

"Actually, your daughter was the one that tried to kill me."

"...."

Everyone was stunned.

"Kill you? Wait, are you Jack?"

"Yes, Queen Adeline, I was on a mission, so I had to change my name. I met your daughter on that mission, and she tried to kill me, she's lucky I discovered some important information, before attacking back."

Adeline looked at her daughter for some seconds, and turned to Aaron.

"Thank goodness."

"Yes, Emperor... But... Why didn't you say anything when I asked for your help to kill Jack?"

Aaron smiled, and changed the topic.

"Don't worry about that. Rhea, Lead your family to your kingdom... I have something to do."

Rhea looked at her mother, and smiled, then turned to Aaron.

"Thank you for reuniting us, Emperor Aaron... If you need anything from us, just let me know."

Aaron nodded at her.

The three bowed one last time, and walked towards the Gateway with the elders.

"Oh?"

Adeline stopped, and looked at Aaron over her shoulder.

"If you're planning on attacking Skull, please don't... You are strong, but not strong enough... So please, place that plan on hold."

With that said, she smiled, and entered the gateway with her daughters, and elders.

Everyone watched as the gateway closed, and disappeared.

Chapter 108 Something Is Coming

Aaron moved his gaze on his Lords.

"You guys have one task, which is; train... You must all get stronger. I have a feeling something is coming... Something dangerous."

The Lords nodded in understanding.

Aaron nodded, and disappeared from the Hall with Protean.

[Terra.]

[Training ground.]

Egon stood with Emily and Lilly, staring at the soldiers, who were absorbing the hundreds of Cores Aaron gave him.

"Wow, their progress is impressive."

"Yes, Princess Lilly. In matters of a day, they'll enter the Sky realm... It's all thanks to the Emperor."

"My Brother is the Best." Lilly said, while Emily and Egon smiled.

"How are they doing?"

The three turned around, seeing Aaron and Protean walking toward them.

"Baby Brother!"

Lilly rushed up to him, held his hand, and pulled him towards the soldiers.

"Look, the weakest here is in the heavenly-saint realm, and they're still absorbing the cores."

Aaron moved his gaze on the soldiers, and slowly nodded:

"They should pick up the pace, Something is coming, something powerful..."

"What are you saying, baby brother?" Lilly was confused by Aaron's words.

"Yes, Master. You said this to the Lords, what's really coming?" Protean asked.

Egon and Emily also got serious, staring at Aaron.

"I don't know yet, but it's surely coming... Just make sure they got stronger, at least stronger than a Sky realm."

The four blinked in shock.

"Sky realm?" Egon asked, hoping he misheard.

"Yes, Sky realm." Aaron confirmed.

He walked towards the soldiers, stopping 5 meters from their location.

"No matter what's coming, we must get ready to face it... Or else, I fear our fate." He said, raising his head to the sky.

The four looked at each other, and nodded with a determined expression.

"We're with you in this, Son... And together, we'll withstand it."

Aurora walked towards him. She past the three, and stopped beside Aaron, staring at the soldiers.

"I know what is coming, Son." She revealed, while Aaron smiled.

"A Monster Raid that's feared even by the gods themselves. An unholy sea of monsters, whose only goal is to release terror, blood, and death in our world... They destroy, and kill anything on their wake, till none is left." Aurora said.

"You had fought in such raid years ago, and saved your Kingdom and people, and Now..."

Aaron smiled:

"...History is repeating itself, but this time, you are not going back as a princess, but as the Imperial Mother of Terra, the backbone of our empire, and the mother of our people... You're going to take over your rightful place, and have revenge of those who killed your mother, my grandmother... And together, we'll unite Terra and the Elves Kingdom... But Mum... For the moment, You have to wait, let them face the raid, and know what's terror, then, we can get in, and save them."

"You..." Aurora sighed softly.

"You aren't stopping the raid?" She asked.

"Why would I do that? The Humans and Elves thinks they're invincible because of their high walls, weapons, runes, powerful soldiers and Mages... Hehehe... With the force coming, those are things that can be easily run over... To survive such raid, you must be the strongest."

With his word, a huge red lightning tore the sky opened, creating the logo of a red sun above the whole sky, even shadowing the Sun itself.

A red glow descended all over the world.

"Terra must use this opportunity, and take over the other cities."

BOOOOOM!!!!

An unknown amount of Demonic energies burst out from the soldiers, shooting into the sky.

Aurora and the four behind them took a step back, feeling the energies condensing.

"This..."

Egon was stunned.

BOOOOOM!!!!

The energies condensed, and shot towards them.

"Shit!! When a demon has a massive breakthrough, his/her new energies are always violent. Energies from so many demons will be more than violent, it will be catastrophic! Why didn't I thought of this?!!" Egon yelled in mild horror.

Aaron smiled, and stretched forth his hand towards the energies, and moment next, they all shot towards him, entering his body through his outstretched hand.

In less than ten seconds, he absorbed everything, and lowered his hand.

"From now henceforth, the world will know about Terra."

The soldiers all opened their crimson eyes, staring straight at Aaron.

"Welcome back." Aaron smiled.

[Protectors' Academy.]

BOOM!!!!

Kara, Angela, Aura, stellar, Mott, Sandra, Jenny, and all the students, Guardians, and Teachers walked out from their classes, some staring out from the windows.... Their stunned gazes fixed on the red sun above them.

"This? Who's strong enough to turn the sky red?" Angela asked in mild confusion.

"Maybe it's a message from the Grand Priests?" Aura guessed.

Angela shook her head;

"No. That red sun is a message, but not from the Priests."

"Princess Angela is right, but who?"

Kara, who was previously teaching them how to wield magic, said.

Mott, and Stellar looked at one another in confusion, and surprise.

Moment Next:

BAM!!!!

"AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!!!!"

Everyone in the academy screamed in pain, and dropped to their knees... They gripped their heads with a painful expression, and the next second.

["People of Elvis, My name is Aaron... Son of Princess Aurora, and Emperor of Terra, for those of you who don't know, I'm the one known as the Cursed Child, the destroyer of your world... I'll ask this; why would I destroy the world I am born into? With that aside, I brought news... There's a monster raid appearing in Elvis soon, very soon... And the Human empire will be the first to be attack... Followed by the Elves, If you need my help, You have to first know the truth... And this is the way to know it, and safe yourselves; The Grand Priests will have to come forth and reveal it to everyone, then Terra will help... If you're thinking I'm the cause of the raid, you have to think this. If I can turn the whole sky red, and invade your mind with all your defense active, Why would I need a raid to kill you all?"]

"Ahhhh!!!"

They all screamed, as blood flow down from their ears... And the message disconnected, the sky turned back to normal.

The sweat covered students collapsed on the ground, all breathing heavily.

"W-What was that?" Angela asked, her chest raising and dropping from shock.

"I thought the cursed child was born a year ago, how the hell can he get so powerful?" Aura asked in mild confusion.

Angela sat up, and thought about the message:

"Aura! With his word, Our city will be attacked soon... What should we do? Should we believe what he's saying or not?" She turned to Aura.

"I don't know, elder sister." Aura answered, still on the ground.

Angela moved her gaze around, and frown slightly... She raised her hand and touch her ear, then brought it to her face.

"Blood?"

Hearing her sister, Aura sat up, and touched her own ears... Seeing the blood, she was horrified.

"This? He might be saying the truth!" Aura instantly got anxious.

"Calm down, Students, this issue will be address... Be calm, and don't worry, if there really is a monster raid; we'll let you all know."

Kara said, moving her gaze around the students, who were slowly getting up from the ground.

They were all shakened to the core, now scared of the grim future, and if the cursed child is already this powerful, how the hell are they going to win him?

Seeing their worried and Anxious faces, Kara sighed, and opened her mouth:

"Don't be scared, He might have used some magic spell to scare us... Focus on your studies, we'll handle the rest."

With that said, she left the class.

"Hey, Stellar. Do you think Jack."

"Shhh.... We should be lucky we know him, And wow, I don't know you're so good at pretending."

"Pretending? No, it's acting... Did you like it?" He asked with a smile.

"Superb, it's excellent." Stellar smiled.

"What should we do now? We're meeting Jack tomorrow, are you ready?"

"Yeah, I know how to leave without being detected." Mott said, and added: "Tomorrow at Midnight, we move."

Stellar nodded.

[SKULL.]

Eris sat on her throne, staring at the Commanders.

"What happened to you, Blood Ivy?! How did a kid injure you to such extent?!!" She asked in anger.

Blood Ivy who was on her knees lowered her head.

"I'm sorry, Ruler... But Aaron isn't weak, he's a Lower God."

Eris stared at her with killing intent:

"So what about you? What realm are you on?!"

The whole hall trembled with her roar.

"I'm sorry, Ruler. I'll take any punishment given." Blood Ivy said, lowering her head.

The other Commanders stood still, silently staring at the two.

Eris sighed:

"You're my first commander, so your failure can't be tolerated... You'll submit your weapon, and past the trial of retribution, then you'll be forgiven."

Blood Ivy was stunned, but still nodded.

"I accept, Ruler. Thank you for sparing my life."

Eris stared at her for some seconds, and stood up;

"It's time for the Raid, go and release the void."

The Commander stared at one another in horror:

"Ruler, sorry for my rudeness, but the raid is second to the biggest raid ever happened in the 11 realms, and the Void is a dangerous place."

Eris stared at them for some seconds, and sighed:

"You have a point... I'll have to take care of this, watch this realm while I'm gone."

The Commanders all nodded, and She disappeared from the hall.

Chapter 109 Master Plan?

[Protectors' Academy.]

[Kara's Office.]

"Dean, what do you think about this issue, Is it true a raid is coming?" Kara asked, staring at the old Dean.

"Hmm... I don't know, but the child of the sky won't be wrong, If a raid is really coming, we need to prepare."

Kara was silent, lost in thought; "What about my plan? We must take down the Priests and be the main rulers."

"I discovered a Beast Ruler... But we'll need powerful soldiers, more powerful soldiers." The Dean said.

"Really?" Kara's eyes brightened upon hearing the Dean.

"Where?"

"Flesh Eaters' Forest." The Dean answered.

"That... That forest is dangerous, even to our fighters, Hmm... We'll need Jack in this, Maybe Angela and Jenny will also help." She sighed.

"If the raid is real, The teachers will all head back to their countries, and some Parents will also carry their children away... But if I enter the Transcendent realm, They'll leave their children here, because it'll be one of the safest place."

The Dean smirked; "You're really a wicked woman. So after becoming a transcendent, you'll be able to activated your master plan... Can't wait."

Kara smiled, and stood up. She walked towards the window, and looked down at the Academy, and city.

"When I enter the Transcendent, the whole world will bow to me, even the skull themselves will show respect..."

"I'll wait for that day, Prince--"

--How many times have I told you, don't refer to me by that name... No one must know the truth, No one... When the time is right, when I gained all the Powers needed, Then I'll personally reveal who I am."

The Dean bowed his head, not saying anything.

"Please call my elders, We need to start preparing, and find a way to contact Jack... We need everyone in this, let them help us orchestrate their doom."

The Dean nodded, stood up, and walked away; leaving Kara alone.

"Supreme, We'll meet again... After I destroy this realm, I'll locate you... That's my promise to you after destroying my powers!" She hissed out, her word filled with Venom, and sighed softly.

"Aaron Is just an obstacle in my plan, And this obstacle can be removed after gaining my full strength." Her eyes glowed red, then back to its usual color.

[Elves Kingdom.]

[Throne Hall.]

"Father! What should we do?! Prince Orion hollered, his face filled with worries.

King Maxim who sat on his throne sighed:

"This is not the time to be sighing, Dad! Aurora Is alive, and her son is more powerful than all of us... He even has his own kingdom."

"Yes father! If she comes to know the truth, we'll be ruined... I say we start preparing for her, she might attack us anytime from now."

"SHUT UP!!"

Maxim yelled, smashing his fist on the handrest of his throne.

The two were taken aback by his roar. Maxim stared at them with dissatisfaction, and disappointment.

"You two are my Sons! And you're saying such things about your Sister--!!"

--Point of correction, Half Sister... And I don't know why you're supporting her, she's the daughter of some poor man, While we're your blood! Shouldn't you support us, and help take her down?!" The younger Son, Prince Callus said.

"Yes father! Think about this, If she discovered the truth about her mother death! Do you think she'll forgive us?" Orion asked.

"This?! Are you two threatening me?!" He yelled in rage, standing up from his throne, an unknown amount of pressure emanated from his body, all over the Hall.

"We won't dare threaten the King, We're just saying the truth, and bringing out the facts." Callus said with his head bowed.

Maxim moved his cold gaze on the two, and sighed:

"The death of your mother is an accident, nothing more."

"Father, how can you call that an accident, She was clearly murdered." Orion said.

"And we know who did it... It's just that we're powerless to do anything." Callus added.

Maxim sighed, and sat back down:

"I thought... I thought Aurora was dead... Try and Send word to Terra, we need to tell her the truth, she'll hate us, but that's acceptable."

"Not Happening Father! I say we kill her, and get done with this."

"Yes! And how the hell are we going to send word to a kingdom which location we have no idea of!!"

Maxim stared at the two and yelled:

"Leave me!!"

The whole hall trembled with his rage.

The two princes looked at one another, sighed, and walked away from the hall.

Maxim watched them leave and collapsed on his throne.

"Those two, I don't know why they hated their sister from the moment they were born... Why such hatred? Aurora had always been good to them, and they hated her for that, even going far to poison the drink I made for her mother... Saying I was the one who did it... Why will I poison my own wife? She might have cheated on me with someone else, even gotten pregnant; and gave birth... It's a crime punishable by death, but I didn't punish her... Because she was the last descendant of the royal family... I'm just a wealthy man who got lucky and gained a marriage agreement." He sighed.

"Why am I saying all these now, I'd also thoughts of ways to kill her, but couldn't... My Sons, because of the hatred for their elder half Sister, they put an unknown substance in her drink, expecting her to fall asleep, but it killed her... I should have punished the two but chose to remain silent, and now, this silent has led to a bigger trouble."

He stood Up:

"Aurora, I'll be waiting for you, It's time you know everything, and decide what will be our fate."

While Maxim was lost in thought, Orion and Callus were walking down the hallway, their faces cold.

"What should we do?! Father is planning on accepting Aurora, and even her cursed son!" Callus said in mild disbelief.

"That man is old, I say we take the throne from him, and attack Terra with our force!"

"Wait."

Callus stood, and stared at his brother in mild confusion:

"What are you saying, Brother? That we should kill father?"

Orion frowned at him, and chuckled. He walked to his brother, and wrapped his hand around Callus's shoulder.

"What are you saying baby brother? I didn't say we should kill him, only lock him somewhere... First, we need to have the vote of the councils, and mostly, the five commanders... Mariel will be a bit difficult to convince, but the rest will be easy."

"The Rest? Commander Visco have eyes on the throne, He's always thinking of ways to get rid of father... And you do know he's a Legendary realm... Right? Stronger than both of us."

"I know that, But even s Supreme realm can be killed.... Listen, this is my plan."

Callus nodded, and silently listened to his brother's plan.

After some seconds:

"Do you think it'll work?"

"I know it'll work.... Now come on, let's get to work." Orion said.

[Protectors' Academy.]

[Night Time.]

Stellar and Mott silently walked down the city street, in dark robes.

"Are you sure the guards are out?" Stellar asked, moving her gaze around the place.

"I am, One hundred percent sure." Mott answered.

The two walked towards the gate, and Mott smiled seeing no guards around.

"I told you, they won't be any guards."

"I would have love to ask how you did this, but we don't have time. Come on."

Stellar ran out from the city, followed by Mott.

"Where are these two going?" Mariel, who sat on her magic staff muttered, staring at the two running figures.

"I'll have found out." She concealed her energy, and flew after them.

After half an hour of running, the two finally reached the location Aaron and Emily gave them.

"Where are Aaron and Emily?"

Stellar removed the hood concealing her face, and moved her gaze around the forest.

"Yeah, This place looks empty." Mott said, slowly walking beside her, his gaze everywhere.

'What are they doing here? This is the bandits' territory.' Mariel thought, landing on a tree, 50 meters away from the two, successfully using the darkness as her shield.

"Welcome."

"Huh?"

Mott, Stellar, and Mariel were stunned seeing two men walking out from the brushes.

"Who are you?!" Stellar quickly got on guard, summoning her weapon.

"Slow down both of you, My name is Gjon, he's Fugio... I'm the leader of this land." Gjon said with smile.

"And I'm guessing you are Mott, and she's Stellar? Yeah, The emperor told us about your coming."

Mott and Stellar looked at one another, and lowered their weapons.

"He did? Then why isn't he here?" Stellar asked.

'What is really going on here? Are they planning a robbery?' Mariel was confused.

"You can put it that way."

"Huh?"

She sharply turned around, spells ready.

"Be calm."

Aaron snapped his fingers, and Mariel was stunned feeling her Sid energy stopped flowing.

"What did you do, Jack?!" She yelled in horror.

"Nothing, why don't you come with me and see for yourself?" He smiled.

"...."

Chapter 110 Questions And Answers

"What are you saying, Jack? Release my Sid energy at once! Don't you know we need to stop them?! Those two are planning something..."

Seeing Aaron's indifferent expression, she added, her tone now filled with urgency.

"Why are you staring at me with a smile? They're going to do something bad, something really bad... If you don't know, those two men are bandits, they rob, steal and are involved in so many crimes... The Human kingdom is also after them, and by taking them down, we'll be helping the Humans."

"And who said I want to help the humans?" Aaron asked with a smile.

"...What are you saying?" Mariel asked back in mild confusion.

Seeing Aaron's Smirk, she took a step back:

"No! You... You're among in this? Is this why you took a holiday from the academy?! To steal?!!"

She yelled, a little hurt... Mariel thought Jack was a good kid, who she could take as her disciple, and personally train him; but who would have thought he's a thief?

Her heart was shakened.

Stellar, Mott and the two men turned their heads to the tree, they frowned seeing Aaron and Mariel.

"I am with them, But You need to know something."

"No!! I'm not going anywhere with you!!"

Mariel moved back. Forgetting they were on a tree, she reached the edge, and slipped.

"Whoa... Woah!!"

She tried to use a spell, but instantly got pale seeing she couldn't channel her Sid.

"No!!"

"Bye."

Aaron smiled, as Mariel fell down from the tree... She instantly closed her eyes, bracing for the impact.

BAM!!!

Aaron landed on the ground:

"Open your eyes, and follow me."

He walked towards the four.

"Huh?"

With confusion, Mariel opened her eyes, only to see she was floating a foot from the ground surface.

"Come on... If you run, those two will hunt you down, and trust me, you don't want that, because if they catch you... You'll be their early breakfast." Aaron said, not even looking at her.

Mariel stood up, she stared at the two huge Dog and Fox, then gulped in.

"Demon-stage monsters!!" She was horrified.

The two Animals stared at her for some Seconds, and let out a growl.

Mariel was even more horrified, she might have a fighting chance with her energy active, but not when being a normal elf.

With nothing else to do, she ran forward, following behind Aaron.

"Emperor!"

The two men quickly got on one knee, heads bowed.

"Emperor?"

Mariel stared at Aaron in mild confusion.

"Jack, Are you also an Emperor?" She cautiously asked.

"While will an Emperor rob someone?" Aaron asked back, staring at her over his shoulder.

"This." Mariel was confused.

"Who is this?"

Mariel looked up, seeing a redhead girl, descending from the sky.

"A Supreme realm?" She was flabbergasted.

Seeing the lady clearly, Emily was surprised.

"What is miss Mariel doing here?" She asked, calmly landing on the ground.

"You know me?"

Mariel was getting even more confused, moving her gaze from Aaron to Emily, then Mott and stellar, and lastly the two kneeling men.

Emily smiled, and transformed into Lori.

"Lori?" Mariel's jaw dropped in shock.

"Hi, miss Mariel." Emily smiled, and turned back to her normal appearance.

"I was in a disguise, this is my true form."

"A... A demon?"

Emily nodded, and asked Aaron.

"Aaron, why is she here? Please don't kill her, she has always been good to me in collage... She's a good woman."

"Aaron?" Mariel took a step back in horror, her face paled from shock.

Aaron sighed, and snapped his fingers; like in sync, Mariel froze, her eyes widened seeing countless images flashing past her eyes, it took her a second before knowing these were memories, Aaron's memories... The more she watched, the more her emotions shift, from pain, Joy, sadness, and even pity... After a full whole minute, The images stopped, and she fell on her knees.

"This... So... So you aren't really the Cursed Child?" She looked up at Aaron, her palms on the ground.

"Yes, The Grand Priests lied to everyone, just to have an alliance with Skull... And now, Skull is getting ready to release a monster raid as huge as a tide in our world." Aaron said.

"What... What about my best friend...? She fought for her child, while as her friend I couldn't support her! But followed the King and hunt her down! Please forgive me! Forgive me!!"

She started kowtowing, hitting her head on the ground.

"You'll only hurt yourself by doing that, And Besides... I'm not the one you should be apologizing to." Aaron said, and turned to Gjon. And Fugio.

"Does that mean I'll get a chance to see my friend?"

Mariel raised her head, staring at Aaron's back... Her forehead reddened from the continuous impact on the ground.

"We're on a mission, You can stick along, and you'll get the chance to see her... If not, you can get going." Aaron snapped his fingers, restoring her energy.

Mariel looked at her hands, and up at him;

"Aren't you worried I'll expose you?" She asked.

"If I am, you'll not be standing here and speaking to me." Aaron answered in a flat tone.

Mariel smiled slightly, and slowly nodded:

"Then I'll go with you."

Aaron just nodded, and said to the two:

"Rise."

They stood up.

"Tell me, what did you find?" He asked.

Gjon exhaled, and started.

"The Man on Mott's father's neck is called Scar... He's a loan shark who borrows people money, and ask for 50% interest... Those desperate for money go to him and borrowed... But he always seized their properties, and belongings after the time given. Because of his high rate, no one could pay back their loan... But Behind the scene, this man is also a criminal, he has many boys and girls who steal, kidnapped, and kill for him... And many dark organizations are also working under him, the biggest in these organizations is known as the Dragon Claw... They're made of all races, and exceptionally powerful... That's not all, he also has eyes on the Human Empire Throne."

Aaron nodded:

"If he was only a loan shark, I would have go easy on him; it's all about paying him back... But all these... He needs to die... Wait, how did you get so much information about this man?" This puzzled him.

"There's a man in the Human empire, who called himself "Lord Information"... We gave him an offers he couldn't refuse. He opened up, and told us this."

"Hmm... "Lord Information"? Can this man be trusted?" He asked.

"You'll be digging your own grave by trusting him, Only those who are his number one customer that he'll protect, the rest... As long there are gold coins, he'll sell them out." Fugio said.

Aaron nodded, and turned his head to Mott, and stellar:

"It seems we'll be going to the Human Empire... We need to know some things about this Scar, before making our move."

The two nodded.

"Wait, We're thousands of Miles away from the Human Empire, if we fly, it'll take four days, on land, One week... I don't see how we'll get there early."

"Miss Mariel, We have Aaron, so anything is possible." Emily said with a smile.

"Huh?" Mariel was confused.

Aaron sighed, and snapped his fingers, moment next, they all disappeared from the forest.

[1:30Am.]

[Human Empire.]

[Lord Information's Home.]

Knock! Knock! Knock!!

"Hold on! Who will be knocking this early of the day?!"

The door opened, and Lord Information, who was a middle-age man with Short gray hair moved his gaze on the seven humans on his porch... He instantly recognized Gjon and Fugio.

"Jon, and Gio? What are you two doing here? And who are these people?" He asked with a frown.

"Lord Information, These are our friends, His name is Jack, she's Lori, Riel, and those two aren't important... Boss Jack is our leader, and want to ask some questions."

Gjon moved closer, and whispered:

"Try to Impress him with your answers, the more accurate they are, the more gold coins you receive. Just remember last time... If I, The servant can have so many gold coins, what do you think you'll earn from him?"

Lord Information blinked, and quickly opened his mouth:

"Haha! My friends, please come inside." He made way, as Aaron, whose hair was red, walked inside.

After everyone entered, Lord Information quickly closed the door, and walked up to his guests.

"Do you need anything? Tea, coffee, or snacks?" He asked with a smile.

Aaron, and his group sat down on the couch, while Mariel moved her gaze around the house.

"You live here alone?" She asked.

"Yes. I don't have a wife." Lord Information answered.

Aaron nodded:.

"We don't need anything, I just want to know something... These are the rules... I ask, you give the answer, a false answer, you lose a limb... Answer all questions correctly, I'll make you the richest man in this empire, that even the emperor will have to give you respect."

Lord Information blinked in confusion.

Can someone make a person so rich that even the Human empire will show respect?

'Who are these people?'

With confusion, he asked.

"Sir, what is your question."

Aaron smiled, and opened his mouth:

"Everything you told these two, is it the truth?"

"...."

Lord Information was stunned, he thought for a long time, while moving his gaze from Aaron, to the two men, then opened his mouth:

"Well..."
