

REBORN WITH THE ALL SEEING EYE

Chapter 156 Unknown Monster

They all subconsciously turned their heads to Reaper, blinked and turned back to the 15 years old looking kid.

"Hahahahaha!! Reaper! Are you blind? There's no way this kid is a god, he doesn't even have any energy fluctuation in him." A man said, laughing out loud.

"Don't judge a book by its cover, Rahond... Reaper don't lie, and for him to know Aaron, it means Aaron knows Michael, right Aaron?" The silver hair beauty, Erika, asked; her gaze fixed on Aaron.

"Who are you guys to Michael?" Aaron asked back.

Erika raised an eyebrow: "Not everyone dare answer my question with another question, So first answer my question." She said.

"Yes, I know Michael, he saved my world with these guys." Aaron answered:

'Some of my powers have been sealed, but still, I don't want to be enemies, or have any bad blood with them... These guys might be Michael's family or team.' Aaron thought, and added:

"You haven't answered my question."

Erika looked at him for a second, turned around and walked away... But a small smile could be seen on her face.

Aaron scratched his head in confusion.

"*Let me introduce everyone to you... This is Mrs Erika Brian, Our Queen, and the Ruler's Wife.*" Reaper said gesturing to Erika.

"Uh?"

Aaron was stunned: 'Michael's wife? Well... I can have figure that out, Jennifer might be beautiful, but Erika is in another whole level... deserving for Michael.'

"*This is Jennifer, the Ruler's closest friend.*"

'Hmm... A Goddess, are all Michael's family so powerful?' Aaron moved his gaze on the rest.

"*Our Fire lord... Mr Tyson, one of the strongest, and the Ruler's friend.*"

'Fire lord? He'll be powerful, I can sense the heat from him already.'

"*Our baby, Mira... Our princess and the Ruler's younger sister.*"

Aaron observed brown hair girl for a while, and nodded his head: 'She might be the one Eris is after. I might not have my complete powers, but at least, I'll try my best to protect her.' He promised.

Aaron listened, as Reaper introduced all the members... After two minutes, Aaron turned to the remaining five players.

"I am James, she's Scarlett, and..." The muscular man went onward, and introduced themselves.

Jennifer moved her gaze on the group, and turned to the North:

"Now that everyone is familiar with one another, we can start this journey... Warning: We don't know what's waiting for us ahead... So I can only say, be on guard, protect your teammates, and be ready to run when you encounter something far stronger than you."

The group nodded with her words, and everyone marched forward, deeper into the forest.

[Thousands of miles from the conquerors' location.]

BAM!

Whoosh!!!

Mrs X was still running, even though she was old, that didn't seem to slow her speed... She was currently running through a black forest like a young teenage, who have encountered a ghost, although hers was more terrifying than a mere ghost.

"Stop chasing me!!" She yelled at the skeletons warriors, not behind her tail.

"You guys killed all my teammates, isn't that enough food! I might have left them, but that didn't mean you'll chase me!!" She yelled, leaping onto a tree, and without hesitation, leaped to another tree.

Swhoosh!!

The Skeletons weren't giving up, and instead, increased their speed.

BOOM!!

One appeared behind her and smashed down with its rusty sword.

With a move of her body, Mrs X dodged the attack, and slashed with her sword, separating the skull from the bones.

BAM!!

She landed on the ground, and pointed her sword at the 20 skeletons moving towards her without an ounce of fear.

"I have enough!!"

BOOM!!

Red mana wave burst out from her, and transferred to her sword. "AHHH!!!"

The skeletons didn't retreat, but lunged into the air, and shot down towards her.

"[Inevitable Slash]."

She disappeared afterward.

The Skeletons smashed their weapons on her previous spot, they stood up, and slowly moved their gazes around the place.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Countless wind blades moved around them, and Mrs X appeared ten meters away, sheathing her sword.

"No more running." She said, looking at the shattered bones of the skeletons.

She turned around, and walked towards the bones, squat down and picked up a core. "Hmm... A low level core, only Lv50... But at least the number is high." She said, moving her gaze on the cores all over the place.

"GRRRAAAAAA!!!"

Mrs X froze, she slowly stood up, and turned around. The abomination stood still, with more than 200 skeletons soldiers, their gazes fixed on her.

"I don't understand, you killed all my teammates, why can't you leave me alone?!!" She yelled.

"Kill!!!"

"Ok, then." She stretched her hand to the side, and before she could summon her pet.

"---SCREECH!!!!!!!!!--"

Not only her, all the monsters froze in fear. They frantically moved their gazes around the black forest

SWhooosh!!!!

Without hesitation, Mrs X used an invisibility skill, and disappeared.

Shoosh!!!

The Abomination turned around with the skeletons soldiers, seeing a dark fog moving towards them...

Swhoosh!!

It instantly enveloped them... Covering the whole forest... Mrs X, who hid behind a tree, close her eyes shut.

"AhHH!!"

"GRAAAAAAAAAA!!"

BAM!!!!!!

A huge body collided on the tree she was hiding on, causing it to trembled... She quickly held the tree tightly. Gotten her balance, she slowly looked down, seeing it was the half of the abomination... The whole upper body was gone.

"...."

She turned her head to the distance, seeing a silhouette of a humanoid figure moving around... It was so fast, and instantly disappeared... Moment next, the fog cleared.

Mrs X sat down on the tree, moving her gaze around the place, and bones.

"What was that? It killed a Lv80 monster like it was nothing, even the 200 skeletons didn't pose a threat, what level will that monster be on?" She said in a low voice.

"It took all the cores? Only diamonds are left behind, no weapon or potions..."
She jumped down the tree, and looked at the direction it took:

"Heading North... I think other players are located in the north, I should follow it."

She thought for a long while, before nodding her head: "Yes."

She took the in-game diamonds on the small pouches left behind by the skeletons, and chased behind the unknown monster, making sure to keep at least 2 miles distance.

---

[Four Hours Later.]

"Ok, I'm tired... Let's rest here." A lady, known as Camilla said, sitting on a log.

"Come on, Princess. Let cover some miles before having a break." Specter said, staring at the surroundings trees.

"Hey, Mr Robert... You are in the military, but we aren't... We need a break."
Helena said, also sitting down on the log beside Camilla.

"It'll get dark soon, we'll rest for ten minutes, and continue our journey..."
Jennifer said.

"We can only get to where we're going if we see the path... Look around us, these trees are too thick and huge... We can't even see if we're going the right way." Zuko said, cleaning her spear blade.

"We have a compass." Levi said.

"We aren't even sure if that's working." Deck said, staring at the Aaron.

"Come on, Don't be like that... We'll get out from this forest, and the good part is, there is no danger here." Mira said with a smile.

"Yes, Mira is right... We just need to stay calm, and we'll make it." Erika's younger sister, a beautiful blonde, added.

"That's the problem."

The group turned their heads to Aaron, who looked up from his Compass:

"You guys don't really know anything about this world... Let me make something clear, This word is known as "No Man's Land" meaning, No one can survive here... Because all the landmarks are filled with their own dangers... We haven't encountered any dangers because the danger is around us..."

"Uh?"

"...."

The group were confused, while Aaron continued:

"Think about it, why would there be a Forest without a single animal, or even a flower with another color in it? The monsters might be scared to enter this forest, Because the forest itself is the monster."

"WHAT?!!"

"....."

"That's why I like to play VRG with Michael, we wouldn't have entered this mess." Red-Encounter grumbled.

"Ok, If you're right... Remember I say, "If". How are we going to escape?" A red hair lady named Violet, asked.

"Follow the compass." Aaron said.

"Yeah, "follow the compass". What do you think we have been doing all this while?!!" Rahond yelled at him.

"Enough." Jennifer turned her head to Aaron. "Where to?"

"Well... still North." Aaron said.

"Ok, we moved after ten minutes." She said, and walked towards a location.

Tyson stared at her for some seconds, and followed.

'There must be something going on with those two, maybe in a relationship?' Aaron thought.

"Ok... What now?" James asked, turning his head to the elders.

"Nothing, just rest, but don't lower your guard." Erika said.

Maria and Mira looked at one another, and nodded... Before they could move, Reaper and the Commanders stood behind them...

"Don't worry, we aren't going anywhere." Mira said with a smile.

Reaper only nodded his head, not saying anything.

Aaron moved his gaze on the Elders, then James and his group, Mira, Maria and the walkers.

"Hmm... They are all in the same overcoat. But this guy who called himself James and his teams don't have the outfit... That means, these guys in overcoats are the main members of this "The Conquerors" maybe the Elders." He muttered in a low voice, staring at the group.

Whooosh!!

The group all turned their heads to the trees, feeling the cold wind brushing past their skins.

Jennifer removed her head from Tyson's shoulder, and the two looked around the place.

"Something is wrong."

Erika summoned her bow, her gaze sharp.

The rest of the group all summoned their weapons, and quickly surround Aaron.

'Ok, Because I'm a kid, and my powers are sealed, doesn't mean I can't protect myself!' He grumbled inwardly.

Whooosh!!!

Apate moved her crimson gaze around their surroundings, and said:

"*Everyone, Close your eyes! Don't open unless I say so...!*"

The Conquerors looked at one another in confusion, and turned to Apate.

"What is she saying?" Scarlett asked in a low voice, even Aaron was confused.

Whoosh!!!!

The wind instantly got colder, and a dark fog moved towards them with insane speed.

"*Now!!! Or you all die!!*" She yelled.

"Do it!!" Erika nodded. She rushed to Maria and Mira and covered their eyes with her palms, also shutting hers. Continue reading at empire

Aaron also closed his eyes, and the rest followed suit, leaving the walkers.

Whooooosh!!!!!!

The thick fog covered the group, and stopped around them...

"---Screech---"

Apate, Reaper, Zelus, Azazel and Abyss stared at the figure in black robe made from pure darkness, its face, and every part of its body concealed.

"---Abyssal Inhabitants? Why are you in my world?---"

A voice, which sounded like both a male and female sounded...

"*We aren't here for war, and you won't want that in your realm... Geist.*"
Apate said.

"---Oh, I won't.---" The figure walked towards them, stopping ten meters.

"---But you know my rule, Apate... I kill anyone who enters my world, and I mean anyone.---" Geist looked at Blood-Arrow, White-Death, and Dark-Angel behind the five.

"---You are powerful, Apate... But you can't defeat a Primordial, who is one step to enter the sage... You're still a child girl, So stay back from this.---"

"I know you never go back from your words, and Rules... But if you put even a scratch on any of them... This world you're so fond of protecting will be destroyed in a minute... You don't want to anger the Abyss."

Shenras opened her eyes, and walked towards the figure.

'This? Who really is this Shenras?' Aaron thought.

"---Shenras?! Why are you here?--" Geist moved backward in surprised.

"I'll give you two options, Leave, or Die? Oh! Don't stop us next time." She said.

The dark harrow face, moved from Shenras, to the five walkers.

"---Your new King is exceptionally powerful, but without him here you can't stop me... Look around, this is my world, and nothing can---"

BOOOOOOOOM!!!!

A dense amount of pressure instantly fell on the Figure. Geist looked up with difficulty, seeing a vortex opening above them.

'Why did the pressure suddenly increase?' Aaron thought, and listened.

"You dare have the gut to say that?! One more word from you, and your world will be destroyed."

"---"....."---"

Geist was stunned, it moved backward in fear, at of the moment, it was the prey, while the two figures above were the predators.

Drakon and Destroyers hovered above the group, their gazes cold.

"*Let's just kill him.*" Yers said, and looked down at Reaper:

"*The Ruler received your message, and sent us here.*"

Reaper nodded. The news about the five S-Rank gates is a serious thing, so he sent a message to Michael... Which result to these two appearing.

Whoosh!!!!

"---No-No. I apologize... Please give my heartwarming greetings to the Abyssal Ruler.--- But...---"

Drakon raised an eyebrow:

"---I kill the others, And anyone who breaks my rules.---"

"As Long it's not The Conquerors, you're allowed to do whatever you like."
Shenras said.

"---Thank you.---"

'Hmm... Michael surly has a reputation.' Aaron listened more.

Geist sharply turned its head to a distance tree. It threw its hand towards the direction, and with a clench of its fist... Mrs X flew out from her hiding spot, and fell in front of Geist.

"Please..."

Whoosh!!

Her head flew into the air, and fall heavily on the ground... Then Geist turned around to the group:

"---Your really kept your word.---"

Hearing nothing for so long, a guy in Mountain's team slowly opened his eyes... The moment he saw Geist, he instantly grabbed his chest.

"AHHHHHHHHH!!!!"

He screamed in pain. Hearing the scream, the other shivered, but none dare open their eyes.

"---I didn't cause that, You do know no mortal can look at me, right?---"

"Well, he's not an elder anyway. Wait, do you know a way out of this forest?" Shenras asked.

"---Just keep going North, You're not far from the exit, It'll only take you 100 kilometers.---"

Shenras nodded, and Geist turned into smoke, merging with the fog... Which flew away from the group.

"We'll be going... Don't worry, we'll stay in the shadows." Drakon said, and both him and Destroyers disappeared from the forest.

After a whole minute, Apate finally opened her mouth:

"You can all open your eyes now."

Everyone slowly opened their eyes, and were speechless, seeing the headless body before them.

"Uh? Isn't that the old lady?" Red-Encounter asked in mild surprised.

"Lio!!"

Scarlett exclaimed seeing their dead teammate.

Everyone turned their heads to the young player, and was horrified seeing both his eyes were burnt off... You could see the holes, and blood flowing out.

"WHAT HAPPENED?!!!!"

Mountain roared, turning his head to Apate.

"*He disobeyed the instruction.*" She answered in a flat tone.

"Disobey Instruction?! I didn't even hear anything. Now I opened my eyes, and sew one of my members dead! What do you expect me to think?!!"

"*You can think anything you want to... I don't care.*" She said.

"You!!"

Before he could attack, A long sword appeared in front of him, pointing directly at his neck.

"Move, and die..."

He looked at Blood-Arrow, and lowered his gaze to the sword aiming at his neck.

"You are stopping me?" He asked with a frown.

"No one force you to follow us, he died because he couldn't close his eyes, and you dare blame others!!" She said, her gaze cold.

'This is Fun.' Aaron thought.

Mountain gritted his teeth, and turned around in frustration, walking away.

Blood-Arrow stared at Mountain's back for some seconds, and lowered her sword.

"Calm down, Erika... He gets it... But, how did this old woman appear here? And where is her team?" Queen-of-death asked.

"Maybe they're all dead." Dark-angel guessed.

"My thought exactly... But, we need to clarify." Queen-of-death turned her head to Reaper and Apaté.

"What really happened here?"

"*The owner of this world killed them.*" Apaté gave a straight answer.

"Uh?"

"..."

Everyone was confused.

"The owner? How powerful is he?" Blood-Arrow asked.

"*A Primordial, Peak stage at that.*" Reaper answered, and turned to the Northern direction.

"Then why didn't he kill us? He's stronger than all of us combined." Red-Encounter asked, standing up after observing the guy.

"*Because you're the Ruler's family... It will never do anything that will put his realm in danger.*"

"So the guild master can destroy this world?" Crusher asked in mild awe.

"*The Ruler can destroy even the core of this planet, so it'll be an overkill... The soldiers will act.*" Zelus said.

The group nodded with smiles on their faces.

'Should I try to spar with him again? Maybe I might win.' Aaron thought, and quickly removed it from his mind.

'I can't even touch him in the last battle, how can I defeat him now?' He added.

The young lady turned to Mountain. "James, have you seen the Guild Master in person?"

"No, Only on TVs, Social medias and other networks... But I have never met him." He looked at the dead guy's face for some seconds, and sighed:

"I promised to take him back safely... I promised all of you this! But I failed." He said.

The three looked at one another and shook their heads:

"What are you saying Team leader? Mrs Brian was right, It's because Lio didn't follow the instruction, that's why he died... Not because of you."

Mountain exhaled: "It won't happen again."

The three nodded their heads.

"Hmm." Aaron remained silent.

"Ok, Everyone!! Get ready!! We move now!" Queen-of-death yelled.

The members nodded, and got ready for the journey.

"Now, to the Tree."

—————

It took the group a whole one hour before reaching the exit of the green forest...

"Finally Out!!"

Whooosh!!

The moment Niki said that, a dense amount of Abyssal energy appeared on the location of the trees, and moved all over the land.

'This?'

Shenras, Aaron and the walkers were stunned, feeling so much amount of Abyssal energy.

'This? Only the Ruler could release such energy... Wait, The blades, their connection with the Ruler is even more terrifying than the walkers? They could directly take powers from him, and use the Ruler's skills... But... What realm is the Ruler on? The blades shouldn't release so much energy?'

Shenras's eyes widened:

'It can't be?! Is the Ruler is Primordial sage?!'

---

[Hundreds miles from their location.]

Geist took off the head of a player, and turned its head to the north, and raised an eyebrow:

"---A hidden blade? I thought they're all dead?---"

---

[External Ice Mountain's Peak.]

An old man with long white hair, in a meditating posture, sharply opened his eyes... He turned his head to the tree:

"Ruler of the Abyssal, Don't interrupt my plan... You're now one of the strongest beings in the eleven realms, so you won't mind this old man." He said, and closed his eyes again.

Chapter 158 SHUT UP!

[In front of the Tree.]

The thousands of red skin winged humanoid monsters all knelt on the ground, trembling from just the presence before them.

A man, who was in a red armor and helmet, moved his crimson gaze on each of the monsters, and nodded:

***Thanks to the Ruler? We blades are now Realm-less, We could defeat anyone, as long the opponent is lower than the Ruler in Realm... And you guys are so weak, you can't withstand my presence, let alone the Ruler's.**"

He said.

The leader of the monster, who was a Lv150 monster, quickly opened its mouth:

**We won't dare go against the Abyssal Ruler, we'll follow his orders.**

***You will always bow to the strongest, but.**" He raised his sword.

***We don't need two leaders.**"

Whoosh!!

The leader's head rolled to the ground, and instantly, the body caught on fire, burning into ashes.

He raised his head to the terrified monsters: ***This is the plan.**"

---

"I don't think it's wise going to that tree." Veronica said in mild horror.

"No, That Energy... I have felt it." Erika started walking towards the tree, which stood 10 miles away from their location.

"Shit! The Blades all have the Ruler's Aura... So she could surely mistake a blade as her husband... What should we do?" Shenras asked, turning to the walkers.

"*But... Why is a blade here?*" Apate asked in mild confusion.

"Don't know, but they only follow the Ruler's command, even if he asked him to kill themselves, they won't hesitate... So he might have asked him to come here, but; what's the reason behind it?" Shenras asked.

"*We can't stop those two... The Lord asked us to protect them, that's what we're going to do.*" Reaper said.

"*Ok, So if this blade is under the Ruler, that means we're in the same team, right?*" Azazel asked, turning his head to Shenras.

"Depending on the order given."

"*But the Ruler will never order for the death of his family and members, right?*" Zelus asked again.

The group looked at one another and sighed: "I don't know If the Ruler is really in the realm I think he is... None of us will be able to stop a blade, even the tenth blade won't be easily dealt with."

"*Ok, Come on.**"

The group quickly walked towards Erika and Mira.

"What are you doing Erika?"

Jennifer quickly stood in front of Erika, holding her two shoulders.

"Think for a second! If that's Micky, he would be here by now."

"Maybe he needs help!" Erika retorted.

"Help? When has Micky ever needed help?" Jennifer asked with folded arms.

"Yes, Michael have never asked for help, Not even from us... He always finds a way." Tyson added.

"But."

Jennifer turned to Miral:

"We know, Mira... But whoever that is, isn't Micky."

"Yes, Mira... I say we change direction." Shenras said.

"There's only one problem to that."

Aaron walked forward, and opened the compass, it was still pointing North, straight at the tree.

"This... Even the map is instructing us to go north."

Zukila exclaimed, after seeing the navigator arrow pointing North. Both the Tree landmark, and Greenwood had also appeared, revealing the routes, and paths... But beyond the border was blank.

"Hmm... The more locations we entered, the more information reveal on the map." She added, looking up at the group.

They turned their heads to the huge tree miles away and sighed:

"It seems everything wants us to go to that tree." Jennifer exhaled:

"Ok, we'll just pass by, don't make any sound." She looked up at the setting sun.

"It'll be dark before we reach the tree, so you must lower your footsteps, if you can, make yourselves invisible or anything! Just make sure you've not detected."

'This energy is identical as Michael's, but the person isn't Michael, and I can't sense his or her realm.' Aaron thought in mild confusion.

"Ok, Everyone... Let's head to the demons' jaws."

With Tyson's word, the group started walking.

"Wait!!"

Aaron, and The Conquerors all turned around, seeing another group, consisting of ten individuals, running towards them; both males and females.

"Uh?"

They were stunned.

"Thank goodness we met the Conquerors!! We're saved!!" A young man in armor filled with claws marks, fell to his knees, thanking the group.

"..."

After some seconds, Niki opened her mouth:

"Guys, you saw that tree?" She asked, pointing at the huge tree, it was so tall they could see it from a hundred miles away.

"Yes, we followed the tree to this location!" A lady in a silver armor said.

"Ok, But that place is very dangerous, we aren't even sure we'll survive anything there... So are you sure you're going with us?"

The ten strangers looked at one another, and remembered the monsters they faced, even the man they picked almost killed them... They took a deep breath and nodded:

"We're going, at least strength in number." A man in a huge armor, and a broadsword said.

"That's good, but in presence of a Blade, Strength in number is completely useless... As long none of you is stronger than the Ruler... You'll be toast." Shenras said in a low voice.

Whoosh!!

The cold wind blew, but surprisingly stopped, and moved backward to the Forest.

Shenras looked over her shoulder; 'It seems Geist also felt it and ran away... It might be chasing these players.' She added.

"Ok, we won't stop you for following us, and remember; your life is in your hands... Oh! We're moving discreetly... If you make even a sound, I'll kill you myself." Robert said, moving his gaze on the ten.

They vigorously nodded their heads, while Shenras shook her head... She stood behind the group with the walkers, so no one saw her action.

"You can never hide from a blade, that's why they're called the Hidden blades."

Reaper and Apate looked at one another, and nodded... They turned into smoke, and shot towards Mira.

"Huh?"

BAM!

They entered her body, merging with her; "This?"

Mira, and everyone present were stunned.

Zelus turned into smoke, and entered Erika. Abyss, and Azazel turned into smoke, and entered Jennifer and Maria, respectively.

'Hmm... These girls might be very important to Michael.' Aaron thought.

"Ok, What just happened?" Tyson asked in mild confusion.

"Michael asked them to protect us, and that's what they're doing." Erika said with a loving smile.

"Ok, Let's get moving."

They nodded with Chris's word, and the total of 44 individuals moved towards the Giant tree.

*****

[A hour later.]

[Night Time: 7:46Pm.]

Jennifer squat down, and gestured for the others to stay low... They all complied, and got on the ground.

Aaron and the team stared at the red skin monsters with red feathery wings with a frown.

"Is it me, or are all those monsters Lv100?" James whispered.

"Shit! It won't be easy! We can't easily sneak pass a Lv100 monster, let alone hundreds." A guy known as Sunny, said.

"Shh... They're above us... I think they can't see clearly at night, at least we could use our Mana and move by." Violet commented.

"That's a good idea, but you must know the amount of mana to use, unless we'll get detected." Erika said, moving her gaze around the tree.

"Come on, Stay low... If you can, lie on the ground..." Jennifer crouch, and started moving behind the monsters on the ground.

"Ok, we're right behind--"

"**--How nice!**" A Voice sounded in front of them.

"Fuck? We didn't even move five steps." Aaron cursed:

Knowing their cover has been blown, the thirty-nine players stood upright, and turned to the thousands of demons before them...

The Figure emanating the energy stood behind the demons, his arms folded in front of his chest, gaze fixed on them.

"We are just passing by, if you let us through we'll be grateful." Tyson said with a smile.

The man just stared at him for a second, and turned his head to Erika and Jennifer...

"**I am known as Eins, the first Blade; to pass, You only need to do one thing.**"

The players remained silent, waiting for the man in armor to continue:

***You'll have to defeat me.***

"Hey!! Who do you think you are?!! How dare you stop The Conquerors?!!"

"Yes!! The Conquerors are the strongest!! Don't you know they could defeat you with a single punch!!"

"This guy don't even have Mana, he is just hiding behind these Monsters!!"

"I say we dodge these monsters and kill him!!"

***....*** Eins was confused.

"AHH!!"

"...."

"Uh?!"

The whole Conquerors were horrified, even Shenras was speechless... Aaron moved his calm gaze on the ten players who joined them:

'These guys are really fools!! If The Conquerors could easily defeat this guy, why would they be sneaking?' he thought.

"Are you mad?!!"

BAM!!

Robert gave the player in huge armor a punch... Which threw the man to the ground, stunning the others.

"SHUT UP!!!" He yelled at the horrified man.

The Conquerors sighed; and turned to the man:

"Don't mind these guys, They're just ignorant... As I said, we're just passing by--"

***--And as I said, defeat me, and you're free to leave.*** Eins cut him off.

"Stop all this chatting!! You want to fight, let's fight!!"

Erika walked forward, her purple sword materializing in her hand.

'**Hmm... The first to step forward, good.**' Eins thought, staring at her.

"You dare mimic my Husband's Aura... I can't let this slide."

Chapter 159 One Vs Forty: Total Defeat!

Silver scales slowly appeared on her skin, and formed a tight silver armor on her.

'**A Immortal Realm, Impressive.**'

Eins thought, and added:

***You're good!! Show me what You're capable of!***

With his word, more than ten demons shot towards Erika.

"Weak!"

Erika's green eyes glowed, and with a swing of her sword, the ten soldiers divided into halves, falling heavily on the ground.

"If you're planning on using these things, you're doom." She looked up at Eins. Her sword tip pointing on the ground.

***Oh really.**'

Whooosh!!

Erika looked at the bisected bodies, which got engulfed in red flames...

Moment next:

BOOOOM!!

A Mini explosion pushed her some steps backward.

"....."

Erika looked up, and was stunned... The demons were now phantoms, floating above their dead bodies...

...She observed the phantoms, and Eins opened his mouth:

"**Do you think you could kill these guys with an Epic-class weapon... Come on, when will you upgrade, Your realm doesn't even match that weapon... If you think you could do anything with that, you're 100% wrong.**"

"Huh?"

Erika looked at the sword in her hand, and looked up at Eins.

"I have gone through a lot, and this weapon helped me in my battles, and I'm not planning on letting it go!!"

She shot into the sky, her sword turned into the bow, and with a drag, she released a shot:

"[Arrows Of Dooms]!!!!"

BOOOOOM!!!

Aaron and the group took some steps back, as a see of 2 meters long arrows fell from the night sky.

BOOOM!!!

BOOOM!!

BOOOOOM!!!

BOOOM!!

BOOOM!!!

BOOOM!!!

BOOOM!!!

Miniature explosions happened all over the tree vicinity, killing more than a thousand demons... Rising a cloud of smoke, and dust.

"That's powerful, but is it enough?" Aaron muttered to himself.

***How fascinating.***

Eins waved his hand, instantly clearing the dust and smoke all over the place, revealing him, still standing on his spot, not a single scratch on his body.

"Huh?" Erika was stunned.

The whole group were speechless, staring at the spirit monsters around them... Erika's attack not only killed all the red skin demons, but it also them into phantoms.

***In these form, only Mystical-class weapons could kill them, your legendary-class are junks here.*** He said.

"Thank goodness, I have a Mystical-class weapon."

Shenras stepped forward with Jennifer.

***Hmm...*** Eins only stared at her for a second, and turned his head back to Erika.

***Attack, don't hold back!!***

**Screech!?!?!**

Whoosh!!

The whole tens of thousands of spirits shot towards the players.

"Protect Aaron!"

Jennifer yelled at James and his group, and shot forward, her scythe appearing in her hand... Instantly, the scent of blood descended on the land.

***Hmm... The blood Goddess, she'll make this difficult for the monsters.**"
Eins thought.

With a single swing of her scythe, Jennifer cut off more than 2,000 phantoms, turning them into dust.

***Hmm... Divine-class scythe.**"

Eins said in mild surprised, but his demeanor was calm as always.

"Wow, The Vice is so powerful...!!!" Shadow said in mild surprised.

Aaron stared at the group surrounding him, placing him in the circle:

'I hate to be weak.' He thought.

Whoosh!!

BAM!!

Jennifer shot into the sky, she raised her scythe above the night sky, instantly it turned bloodred.

***She...!!**"

Eins's eyes widened in surprise.

"[Blood Multiple Retribution]!!!!"

BOOOOOOOOOOM!!!

Everyone, including Aaron turned paled, seeing blades falling from the sky, all heading towards the phantoms, instantly shattering them.

"Uh? The whole team got the win?" Sunny asked In mild confusion.

'How is that? What win?' Aaron inwardly asked himself.

"That attack would have surely killed that man!" Maria said, staring at the red smoke before them.

***In all my life, only three people have made me feel this good!! And you just made the fourth!!**"

Eins stretched forth his hand, and a long sword appeared:

***You personally killed all the monsters, but that didn't mean you can defeat me. **"

"We'll see about that; [Scythe phantom blade]!"

She swung her scythe, sending a 100 meters huge scythe blade towards Eins, who stood still.

Everyone watched in anticipation, as the attack...

BOOOOOOOOOOM!!

"Yes!!! Accurate hit!!!"

"She did it!!"

They yelled in joy, while Shenras shook her head.

***Such attack makes me happy. **"

"WHAT?!!"

"HE CAUGHT IT!!!"

"HOW IS THAT POSSIBLE?!!!"

"IMPOSSIBLE!!!"

Aaron, Jennifer, Tyson, Shenras and Erika were stunned.

"How powerful is the Ruler?" Shenras asked herself in a low voice.

'Ok, we're cooked! I hate being weak!!' Aaron thought, his face dark.

***I think it's time to get serious. **"

With a clench of his fist, Eins shattered Jennifer's scythe blade, and looked up at her: "***Ready to come down? Or I should come to you?***"

"You are really arrogant!!"

Jennifer spun her scythe, and dive towards Eins, and smashed down with her scythe.

BOOOOOM!!!

She flew backward from the collision, and stabilized herself after reaching 100 meters away.

"What realm are you on?!!" She yelled in mild shock.

"**Telling you the truth, I don't have a realm.**" Eins said, Lowering his sword.

"Let's help, Jennifer!! Attack!!"

Tyson shot forward with his flaming broadsword... The whole 20 elders followed behind him.

"**Oh?***"

Eins looked over his shoulder at the charging group:

"**Attacking together? How cute.**"

Instantly, he disappeared.

"What?!"

The elders stopped on track, moving their gazes around the place.

"Shit! A Blade most deadly attack." Shenras murmured, moving her gaze around the place.

"**I'm right here!!***"

Eins appeared behind Erika, right above the group, and slash his sword, straight to her neck.

Erika was late to react, but a sword flew out from her body, and collided on Eins's weapon.

***Huh?***

Eins was stunned, he leaped backward, staring at Erika like she has grown two heads.

***A walker is inside you?*** He was stunned by the revelation.

The sword retreated in her body, and Erika smiled:

"You want a battle, let's start." She said, instantly a huge armored wolf spirit appeared behind her, armed with a sword... One of her eyes turned golden.

***Hmm... Using Goddess Artemis's and Athena's powers... Impressive.***

BOOOOOM!!

Eins turned around, seeing a huge red goddess spirit behind Jennifer... The spirit's palms clasped together in front of her chest, her eyes closed.

***Blood Goddess?***

Whoosh!!

Eins tilted his head to the side, dodging a black fireball... He looked down, and was stunned seeing a fire overlord spirit behind Tyson.

***The fire God, Hephaestus... You guys are powerful, especially you three...***

'Whoa! Michael's family are really terrifying!!' Aaron thought, staring at the three giants spirits.

Eins looked down at the group, and turned his head to Aaron:

"**But the others are weak... If I fight you three with my own strength, I'll surely lose to that... So.**"

Whoosh!

His red armor disappeared from his body, revealing a tight red outfit.

"Oh No!" Shenras exclaimed.

"**I'll have to use my Ruler's powers... And with his strength increasing with every passing second, I'll have an infinite amount of energy!!!**"

He flicked his wrist, and a red mask appeared with the logo of a sword tattoo on its forehead.

"Don't let him put that on!!!" Shenras yelled from below.

"Uh?"

The group looked at her in mild confusion, and looked up at Eins, but was already late.

The moment he put on the mask, his friendly, and talkative demeanor instantly changed; a dense amount of killing instinct, bloodlust, and Abyssal energy spread all over the world, causing every single living things to felt a chill down their spine.

[Back to The conquerors.]

BOOOM!!!

Aaron watched as Eins single-handedly defeated the three... He flogged them out of imagination... Which shocked him.

BAM!!

Jennifer fell heavily on the ground, and threw up a mouthful of blood... Staring at Eins above them in horror.

"Such strange, can a creature be so powerful?" She thought with gritted teeth.

"He destroyed the Goddess's spirit like it was a piece of glass." She added.

"Who is this Demo!!" Tyson asked, shakily standing up from the ground.

Whoosh!!

Eins turned around, and the arrows moving towards him froze, and turned into dust.

"**Still fighting?**"

He asked in mild confusion, staring at Erika's bloody face.

"You are powerful, but we aren't going down that easily!" She hissed out.

"Yes!! ATTACK!!!"

Maria yelled from below:

With her roar, the whole group, excluding Aaron, sent countless attacks towards Eins, above them.

"**Your feeble attempts of survival is truly astounding.**"

He simply swung his Divine-class sword, sending such wind current that threw all the fighters, and Aaron meters away.

BAM!!

They all smashed on the ground, and threw up a mouthful of blood...

"What type of attack was that?!"

"Such sword attack!!" Aaron was speechless.

"This? He's playing with us!!" Zukila spat out.

"Why will you think that?!!" Niki yelled, clenching her stomach with a painful expression on her face.

"If he wanted us dead, we'll be long dead." Shenras stood up from the ground, and turned to Eins.

"He's more powerful than me... And the only way to win, is by removing that Mask from his face, but to do that, you'll have to get close to him, and that's suicidal." She added.

"...."

Chapter 160 Solemn

Eins turned his attention back to Erika, and was stunned seeing her in front of him, slashing with her sword.

"Die!!!"

***You don't have the right to ask me that.***

Erika's sword slashed an afterimage, stunning her...

***Right behind you.***

Eins said behind her, and instead to using his sword, he struck her back with his palm.

"AUGH!!"

Erika threw a mouthful of blood, and fell heavily on the ground.

"Erika!!"

The others yelled in shock, but none could move towards her.

Eins moved his crimson gaze on each one of them, and sighed:

***You're all too weak for what's coming ahead... I suggest you fight only the weak monsters, or you'll just get yourselves killed.***

He removed the mask, staring at Erika; who slowly stood up with difficulty.

***I like your fighting spirit, but without strength, it'll only lead you to death.***
He added.

Whoosh!!!

The group turned their heads to the tree, seeing a little girl, looking only 15 years old walking out... Her hands folded behind her.

***The Ruler request your presence, First Blade.*** She said with such calmness that confused the players.

***Ok, It seems the fun is over... We'll meet again.*** Eins said, and disappeared from the sky.

"...."

"This?"

They all turned to the young girl.

Zwei stared at the Humans before her, and stretched forth her hand towards them... A golden rune appeared, and disappeared afterward.

Green light enveloped, Aaron, Erika and the group, instantly healing them.

"Huh?"

"I'm healed, and my divinity fully restored? Such powerful healing skills!"
Jennifer was stunned.

Zwei turned around, and walked away.

"Wait! Who are you!" Jennifer quickly asked.

***I'm known as the second blade under the one and only Ruler.***

With that said she disappeared, leaving a stunned group of players behind.

"One and only Ruler?"

Aaron murmured to himself.

[Same Day.]

The Conquerors and players all sat around the tree, with countless emotions and thoughts moving in their heads.

Getting defeated so easily didn't sit well with them, especially Erika.

Maria moved her gaze around the group, stood up, and walked towards her sister; who sat some meters from the tree...

"Sister?"

She called out in a low voice.

Erika looked over her shoulder, and gave a small smile.

"Are you ok?" Maria asked again.

Erika turned her head to the distance:

"It's nothing, Maria."

"No. No. No, there's something wrong with you." Maria walked forward, and sat beside Erika; then turned to her side profile.

"Is it because of the battle?" She asked after some hesitation.

Blood-Arrow looked up at the night sky, and sighed deeply:

"I thought being an Immortal, I'll be able to fight beside Michael... But it seems all that was a child wish. There are more-powerful enemies out there." She turned to Maria.

"How can I be with Michael if I can't bear his pains, battle, and support him?"

"What are you saying, Sister?!" Maria asked in mild shock.

"Don't even think about it! Brother-in-law doesn't need a fighter, or a babysitter... He needs his love, and partner, who will be with him In his hard times... Because you can't defeat one enemy didn't mean you can't stand beside Brother-in-law... So remove such thoughts from your heads." She paused, and asked:

"Why are we here, Sister?"

"To get stronger." Erika replied, staring at her in confusion.

"Good... You're here to get stronger, and you'll face obstacles in the way... Just because you were thrown to the ground doesn't mean you can't rise again, and do better..." She stared at Blood-Arrow for some seconds, and stood up:

"You know Brother-in-law, I'll say you're the third person that knows him more than all of us, or even the first... So think about this; What will Brother-in-law want from you?" With that said, she walked back to Mira.

"You know she's Right."

Erika turned her head to the side, seeing Aaron standing with his heads folded behind him.

"You? Were you eavesdropping?"

"A little." Aaron replied, walking towards her.

"If it was the past, I would have separated your head from your shoulders..."

"Whoa, Thank goodness this isn't the past." Aaron said with a smile.

Erika turned her head towards him, a cold light flashed in her eyes:

"That didn't mean I can't kill you... You're our mission, that's the only reason you're alive... Tell me, why are you here?"

Aaron looked at the group around the trees, some were already asleep.

"The way you're feeling... I know what is it, doubt, worries, and even fear... All that is just the human brain. As you said, you're an immortal, and; you can't be an immortal while still using the same mentality when you were a human." He stopped beside her, and looked at the horizon.

"We don't know what is waiting for us ahead... But all I know is, it won't be easy. If you keep acting this way, you won't be of any help to us." He turned around:

"Change that, and watch the change unfold." He looked at her over his shoulder, sighed, and walked away.

Erika flicked her wrist, and her purple sword appeared in her hand, she observed the blade... And took a deep breath.

She kept it back, and looked up at the night sky:

"Where are you, Love? I miss you." She said in a low voice, as a drop of tear rolled down her cheek.

---

Mira was currently resting her head on Jennifer's laps, the two staring at Erika's back.

"What do you think, Bestie?"

"Erika will need some time alone... Micky isn't here to keep her company, and help her out with her emotional trauma... But I know Erika, she'll jump out from this before morning."

She looked down at Dark-angel... "Ok, Mira... Get some sleep, tomorrow will be a long day." She said, caressing Mira's hair.

"Hmm..."

That was all she said, and slowly closed her eyes... After a whole five minutes, Jennifer turned her head to Reaper, and Apate, who stood beside them.

"What do you think about that girl's words?"

The two looked at one another in confusion.

"I mean the second blade, what's her name again... Yes. Zwei."

"**There's nothing much to think about her, all you need to know is; she's the second blade of the ruler.**" Apate said.

"Ok, But who is this ruler? Is it Micky?"

"**HUH?**"

The two looked at one another, thinking if Jennifer had figured everything out.

"Think about it, you guys called Micky, Ruler... Shenras also called him Ruler... Now, those two said they're working for the Ruler. Most of all; the first has the Aura of Micky." She said, but was still doubtful.

"**We don't know.**"

Reaper said calmly.

"Just my thinking, It might be another creature, but if it's an enemy... Why didn't Eins kill us? He has all the opening and his attack force is even reduced... I'm just confused."

She turned her head to the side, seeing Tyson, discussing something with the male players on the group.

"Forget all that, Let's focus on the issue at hand... After the game, we can figure all this out."

The two nodded their head.

Aaron stood on a branch of the tree, slowly rubbing his ring:

"I should have brought Protean along, at least his powers... What am I saying? Anyone who enters will lose their powers. But why are these guys different?" He muttered, staring at the sleeping group below.

"Anywhere, I hope your power isn't reduced." He said, rubbing the ring.

[Next Day.]

[Second Day in the game.]

"Wake up everyone!! Get ready! We're moving in 15 minutes!!!"

Hearing the loud roar, the players jolted awake; they moved their gazes around the place, and settled it on Erika, who was standing before them with hands on her hips.

"Are you deaf!! Get up right now, we move in 14 minutes!!" She yelled at them, and walked away.

"Wait, what happened to sister?" Maria asked in mild confusion.

"She seems energetic today... What happened last night?" Mira asked, standing up from the ground.

"Ok, What is wrong with her?" Aaron asked himself, and stood up... Still on the tree branch.

"I don't know, Mira." Maria, who was beside Mira shrugged, and stood up.

"Ok, Get your things ready!! We have a long journey ahead of us!! Move, move!!" Erika yelled, her voice getting louder.

The two heard Erika's yell and looked at one another in horror.

"Why does it feel like we're in a military training camp?" Maria asked, a little terrified.

"Come on, let's get ready."

Mira quickly removed the blanket on the ground. White-Death, and the rest of the players followed suit, while Aaron jumped down.

"Move!!"

"Em... Erika, what happened?" Jennifer asked, walking towards Erika.

"Good that you're here, help me get them ready... We need to start the journey--"

"--I know, but why are you so..." She didn't complete her word, but Erika smiled.

"Last time we lose because we were weak and careless... But today! That won't happen!" She said.

"Why is that?" Jennifer asked in mild confusion.
