

REBORN WITH THE ALL SEEING EYE

Chapter 6: Six Months Later.

After some battle with the food, Aaron was taken to his room by Aurora and placed on the bed.

"Stay here Aaron, The griffins are coming, those Bastards always attack when the sun is out. You'll be safe here." She smiled at him, then walked out of the room.

'Griffins? Always attack when the sun is out? I need to know more about all the Monsters in this forest.' Aaron looked at the door.

{All Seeing Eyes.}

{Name: wooden Door. Class: Common. Info: a portal of entry into a building.}

'I need to find a way to use this eyes, I don't want to be seeing insufficient things. The only thing I have discovered so far is that it takes 3 seconds before I can see the detail of the object. I need to work harder, My Mom is out there protecting me. How to grow faster to protect her?!'

BOOM!

BAM!

"They are two more Mom! Ignis in virtute vocantem!"

[Calling the power of Fire.]

'That is Lilly's voice, it sounds like a battle is going on outside. I feel so useless! I can't do anything, just sit here and listen!!'

BOOM!.....

Aaron waited for some minutes, but heard nothing. 'It seems the battle is over.'

The Door opened, and Lilly walked inside, with blood in her hands. Aaron stared at the five Cores in her hands.

'Why is she keeping it in my room?' He thought staring at Lilly, as she placed the Cores in a 1-meter-long wooded chest.

"Baby brother, any core I place here is yours. When you grow up, you can absorb it." She said with a smile, closing the chest.

Lilly walked towards him and sat on the small bed. "Don't worry, The Griffins have all be taken care of. We are lucky, they're all Awakened-stage. So I assisted Mom."

Aaron stared at her for a moment, then turned his head to the chest. 'Any core inside is mine? That's good. I'll be able to Absorb it when I start moving.'

"Do you want me to bring one?" Lilly asked.

He nodded his head.

Lilly stood up, and quickly walked up to the chest, after some searching, she brought out two Awakened-stage Cores.

"These two will surface for now." She walked up to Aaron and placed the Cores in front of him.

Aaron stared at the blood on her hands with a slight frown, Lilly followed his gaze; seeing her hands, she gasped in shock.

"Sorry Baby Brother, I'll be back." She rushed out.

Aaron then stared at the two Cores in front of him.

{All seeing Eyes.}

{Name: Awakened-stage Griffin's Core. Class: Rare. Info: Increase +20 of all beginner's stats.}

'So I won't be able to realm up, but my stats will increase. That's still accepted.' He tried, and sat on the bed, he then placed his hands on each Core.

{Absorb? YES/NO?}

He nodded, the next Moment. The Cores shattered into particles, which then flew into his body.

{All stats increase to +40.}

He thought for a moment, then looked at his hand.

{Name: Aaron Lucian.}

{Realm: Not-Even-A-Beginner.}

{Race: Half Elf.}

{Agility: 45.}

{Defense: 47.}

Earth: 0%. Wind: 0%. Magic: 0%. Ice: 0%. Lightening: 0%.}

'Even with the +40 increase, I felt nothing change in me. It's because of my physique?'

"I'm back." Lilly walked inside. "Huh?" She was stunned.

"Where are the Cores?" She asked walking towards him.

Aaron just stared at her with a dumb look, feigning ignorant.

"Did you..." She folded her hands on her chest, staring at him. "Why didn't you wait for me before Absorbing it?" She asked.

Aaron looked towards the chest again. Lilly's eyes brighten, she quickly walked towards it and brought out the remaining Three Awakened-stage Cores.

"Come on baby brother, absorb it." She placed it on the bed.

Aaron looked at the Cores.

{You won't be able to Absorb it, You have to wait for at least 2 hours before Absorbing it.}

'Huh? This is surprising. I think it's because I'm still a baby.'

"Come on baby brother." Lilly encouraged.

'Sorry sis, I can't for now.' Aaron fell backward on the bed closing his eyes. 'I need to sleep for now, let the powers in my subside. Even though it's not even 1% of what I dreamed of.'

"Uh? What are you doing Baby brother? Don't you want it?" Lilly stared at Aaron as he closed his eyes, going to sleep.

"Eh?" She was stunned. Lilly shook her head and covered him with a blanket. "Sleep tight brother." She walked out of the room, quietly closing the door behind her.

Aaron opened one of his eyes, he looked at the door for a moment then tried to sit again. He succeeded and sighed inwardly. 'Being a baby is really hard, I can't even sit down without going to war!'

'Now, The All Seeing Eyes. Time to master you, and rule this forest.'

[Elven Kingdom.]

[Throne hall.]

The Elves' king sat on his throne, staring at the group of people who walked in through the huge double door.

The three bowed their heads to the king and the grand priest.

"What happen?" The king asked in a deep voice.

"She ran into the Flesh Eaters' forest, My king." Mariel answered.

"I already know that Mariel, I'm asking if she killed any of my soldiers."

"No my king." The commander said, and added. "Permission to speak my king."

"Go on, Commander Visco."

"Thank you, My king. I want to know why you asked us to return."

The King was silent for some seconds then said. "I don't want my Soldiers to perish in that forest, And the grand priest have news for everyone."

The door opened again, and two people walked in. A man and woman.

"My king." The two greeted respectfully.

"Welcome my Commanders, I called you all from your posts for a very important information." He gestured for the grand priest to start.

The five turned their heads to the grand priest, who stepped forward.

"You all already figured out the Cursed Child is born."

The commanders nodded.

"I want to let you all know that the Council have made their decision. The Academy for training young warriors will be active in one year time, all the five races are allowed to attend. As long, they have unlocked their Class."

"A question grand priest." The woman in a long black robe announced.

"Go on."

"Why's the council opening the school in a year time? Shouldn't they open it right now? Or in a month time? Why a year?."

"That's a good question, As you all know. This school will be open for all the races. And some measures need to be taken care of, so when the Students attend they won't be discrimination among themselves."

The commanders nodded in understanding.

"I'm telling you five this because you all will be the teachers of the students."

"Huh?"

"What?"

"But the Soldiers?"

"Why my king."

Out of all of them only Mariel was speechless. 'I'm going to be a teacher?'

"You all can't refuse, This is what you'll have to do for your world, the commanders of the other races are also going to be teachers in the academy, You'll help the Students in any way you can. Turn them into warriors, so they could help us in the coming battle!!" The priest yelled at them.

The five raised their heads to the king, waiting for his word.

"I know you guys only know about killing, fighting and protecting the kingdom. But for now... That isn't our main priority, We need to train more fighters. Powerful and fearless ones, that's why the Council said the Students should be from age 10 to 16."

The commanders looked at each other, even though they don't like the idea of teaching. They have to do it for their world.

"When do we start?" Visco asked.

"Next year." The king stated, while they all nodded in understanding.

[6 Months Later.]

[Flesh Eaters' Forest.]

In a blink of an eye, six months have past. Aaron and his family have been living in the forest all these while. The forest wasn't the safest place to live because of the endless amount of Monsters. Sometimes when a monster more powerful than Aurora appears they'll all hid inside the house till it past.

It has been a life of survival to each one of them, even with all these dangers. The family of three benefited from it, greatly. Especially Aaron. After seeing her brother absorb the ogre's Omega-stage Core, Lilly always bring a Core to him. Even though with this help, Aaron didn't dull himself for even a second.

On the third month he started walking and talking, looking like a three years old kid, when he was just 3 months old.

After some convincing from him and his sister, he finally started his combat training with his Mom.

In the fourth Month, Aaron discovered something new about The All Seeing Eyes. This discovery made him the most feared hunter in the forest. When he's still 6 Months old.

"Aaron! Where are you?!" A young girl was moving around the forest yelling her baby brother's name, a sheathed sword was placed on her back, as she moves ahead.

"Why are you shouting my name?"

She raised her head to the silver hair young man standing 1 meter tall, putting on a long black cloak, with a sheathed sword and quiver filled with arrows on his back, and a wooden bow in hand.

Aaron stood calmly on a tree branch, staring at Lilly below, she was also putting on a black cloak.

"How did you get up there?" Lilly asked in mild confusion.

"We're here to hunt, Not talk." Aaron said, he leaped from the branch, using the three trunk to slide down.

"I found our dinner." He said, the moment his feet touched the ground.

The two siblings stood behind a tree, staring at the lynx in front of them. The Lynx warily looked around its surroundings, its red eyes glowing under the dark Forest.

"A question, Why are you always going after Omega-stage Monster?" Lilly whispered in a low voice.

"Because they give high Cores, and... I never miss a shot." He took an Arrow from the quiver and tucked it on his bow.

"My body might not be able to wield a sword, but I can surely kill with a bow." He added, arming his bow at the 40 centimeters long Lynx.

{Name: Red-Lynx. Class: Rare. Info: Deadly, Its claws are filled with deadly poison which could stop your heart in a minute.}

{Combat Eyes (Archer).}

{Target Marked, calculating Success rate and range... Success rate: 100%.}

Seeing the success rate, he smirked and released the arrow. Lilly stared at the arrow, as it flew with incredible speed and stuck the head of the Red-Lynx, killing it on spot.

The Lynx dropped dead, without struggling.

'No matter how many times I saw this, I still can't believe it. His arrows are made of wood, but its attacks are exceptionally powerful.' Lilly walked out of hiding, following behind Aaron.

Aaron squat down in front of the Lynx, he pulled out a dagger hanging on his waist, and slowly cut open its belly.

Lilly watched his every move. 'Is it because of the prophecy? Being a six months old child, he could already move and act like a four years old. It's too unreal.' She watched as Aaron pulled out the Core and stretched it to her.

Lilly quickly took the core and stored it on the bag hanging on her waist.

"Cores can't be store in our magic space, but dead things can." With a wave of his hand, the Lynx vanished from the ground.

AWWWOOOOOO!!!!!!

Aaron and Lilly sharply turned their heads to their right. Aaron's eyes shrunk to the size of a needle, without seeing the monster that made that sound; he said.

"RUN."

Without hesitation, the two ran away, jumping and dodging all the trees and obstacles in front of them.

AWWWOOOOOO!!!!!!

Aaron looked over his shoulder, seeing the trees and leaves rustling 40 meters away from them.

"It's the same Teumessian Foxes. Don't slow down for second." He increased his speed, No matter how fast he was, Lilly was still ahead of him.

"I thought they're two? One won't attack us." Lilly said in mild confusion.

'She is right. But the other is a dog, not a fox. And they are worst of enemies.' He thought, seeing the huge tree he once stood on, he said to Lilly. "To the tree."

She nodded and followed him, she had learned the hard way to always follow Aaron's advice. He has saved her not ones but continuously.

The two quickly climbed the tree and sat on a thick branch. They moved their gaze to the thing chasing them, that was when they saw the huge Fox with red eyes and 3 Meters long. The fox slowed down, it sniffed the air looking around the place.

"I hope you used the perfume I created?" He turned to her. Lilly's eyes widened in horror.

"You forgot." Aaron almost yelled at her. "Don't you know the perfume will hide your scent from these Monsters? No! I'd told you not ones but a lot, that's why I love to hunt alone."

"Sorry, I forgot."

"One mistake can lead to your death." Aaron facepalm himself. "Ok, stay close. I just hope mine can hide your scent."

Lilly moved closer to him, too close to Aaron's liking. He could only endure. Because the Teumessian Foxes isn't an Omega-Stage Monster, but a Demon-Stage Monster. Two stage above; even their mother will have a hard time killing one, let alone them.

The huge black fox walked towards the tree and stopped beside it. It looked around, while sniffing the air. Aaron and Lilly hid as the Fox raised its head to the tree top.

BAM! BAM! BAM! BAM!

The fox sharply looked at the right, while Aaron looked down at it.

{Name: Teumessian Fox (Uncatchable), Class: Elite. Info: Extremely Dangerous, Worst Enemy: Laelaps (The Hunter).}

Whoosh!

He moved his head to the fox, as it swiftly ran away from the tree with even more speed.

"It's gone."

"Shhh." Aaron shushed her, the two lowered their heads seeing a 4 meters white dog staring straight at them.

"Crab."

{Name: Laelaps (The Hunter). Class: Elite. Info: Extremely dangerous. Note: it attacks only when it got no scent of its hunt.}

Before Aaron could think of what to do, The huge white and black Dog ran away, chasing after the fox.

"Phew... I have seen so much in this forest that nothing surprises me again."

"Thank goodness." Lilly sighed in relief.

"You won't follow me next time, I suggest you stay with Mom." Aaron said in mild annoyance.

"Mom is the one who asked me to follow you, she said I should keep an eye on you." Lilly revealed with pouted lips.

Aaron heaved a sighed. "Ok then, let's go back home. The Lynx would last us for a week, I think?"

"I'll say five days." Lilly said, following behind him. "Baby brother, I want to know how you can--"

"--How I can kill anything with one shot, but I'm scared of powerful Monsters, right?" He landed on the ground.

"Huh?"

"Why surprise? You asked me this question every fucking day, and my answer is; I'm not strong enough to hunt them." He started, walking towards their house.

"When I get stronger, I'll kill that Bastard that injured Mom."

Lilly jumped down the tree and quickly followed behind him. "Don't take it hard on yourself, you aren't the reason she got injured. And that's 3 Months ago, she ok now."

"That didn't mean I won't kill that Talos."

He'll never forget the day he was sitting outside and that Monster attacked him from behind. If Aurora wasn't there he might have met his end. Even though the Talos was a Demon-Stage Monster, Aurora protected him, but end up getting injured.

With Injury, The Talos escaped back to the forest; On that Day, Aaron sworn to kill the Bastard!

Chapter 8: Aurora's Life History

"You two are back." Aurora walked out from the house towards the two.

"How are you doing, Mom?" Aaron asked with a smile.

Having lived six months with her, Aaron have come to cherish her as any Son will to his Mom. Since when he started doing things, he never let her do any single thing in the house. Lilly was an exception, he took her as his sister, But she'll have to do her own things.

"Why do you look exhausted, Lilly?" Aurora crouched down in front of Aaron.
"What happened to her, Aaron?"

"We met a Demon-Stage Monster in the forest, two, actually."

Aurora's face got serious.

"Don't worry mom, Nothing happened to us. But it seems Lilly forgot the spray, again." He glared at Lilly, who just pouted her lips at him.

"Fufufufufu... Now Aaron, forgive your sister. She won't next time." Aurora said with a smile.

Aaron nodded, while Lilly walked towards him, hugging his neck.

"You forgive me, right?"

Aaron just rolled his eyes at her. "Yes, come on now; let's prepare the food."
He grabbed Lilly's hand and pulled her inside the house.

Aurora smiled, seeing the younger child acting all grown up. 'I think it's time they know the truth and get their familiar.'

'Are you sure, Master?'

'100%.'

[Night Time.]

The group of three sat on the dining table eating their dinner. The house windows were sealed shut, without letting a single light to be seen by anyone or anything from the outside.

After they have finished their dinner, Aurora opened her mouth.

"Take the dishes away, Lilly. And come back here, I want to answer the questions Aaron and you have been asking."

The two were presently surprised, Aurora always dodged their questions whenever they ask. If they ask about things. Like Aaron; who always ask who his father was, or how to get powerful spells.

While

Lilly always asked about when she could get her Familiar, something Aaron knew nothing about. A familiar was really not in line with all his past life times.

Lilly quickly arranged all the dishes and took them to the kitchen, then returned to the table; sitting down.

Aurora looked at both of them and asked:

"What do you want to know first?"

Lilly and Aaron looked at each other, before Aaron could speak. Lilly spoke first:

"Your life, Mom. And how you get to meet Aaron's Father; we want to know everything."

"Ok Lilly." Aurora took a deep breath and started.

"As you know, I'm the only daughter of the Elven race. My mother is of royal blood while my dad isn't, but I wasn't the reigning king's biological daughter. My Mom had a one-night stand with an elf who she loved deeply... I know you are thinking it's infidelity, but she and my father were lovers. Let's say secret lovers; But the kingdom and court want a king, and a powerful one at that.

Heartbroken, she chose the king. And got married to him, but even that; she was still seeing my father. Then one faithful night, They prove their love, and that result to me. No one knew how the king found out about my dad. He sent people to kill him and make it looks like an accident. My mother was sad for a long time, but has me to keep her happy..." She sighed.

"After two years of mourning, she finally moved on. And gave birth to my two half brothers, after three years. When I was just 5 years old, she was poisoned by someone." Her eyes watered.

"After one month, she died. I didn't know that was the start of my nightmare, I was treated lower than a slave. My half brothers tortured me in any way they can, from beating, insulting and even trying to sell me to a merchant. Couldn't take it any longer, I escaped from the castle. For three years I was gone, No one search for me or miss me.

When I got 15 years, I met your father." She looked her Aaron, a loving smile on her face.

"He was the most handsome man in the world, even more handsome than the elves. He took me in, and started my training. I lived with him for 5 whole years, my best times in life was spent with him." She paused for a second, then continued:

"We got the news that Monsters tide was going to attack my kingdom, I hated the people I call family; but not my Kingdom. So I have to..." She smiled.

"Your father didn't want me to go, and held me tightly in his hand and kissed me for the first time, then I heard the words I have been yearning for. I think you guys know what the words it." She smiled at the two.

"Then something lead to the next, and I end up sleeping for the night. The next day I quietly left him on the bed, I got dress and moved out to help my Kingdom. After a brutal battle with the Monsters, I help my Kingdom fend off the raid. And was recognized as the lost princess, I don't really know how I became a lost princess, because they never searched for me." Her mood dropped.

"When I return to tell your father the good news, I found the whole Mansion destroyed and raze to the ground. I saw your father in the ruins, heavily

Wounded. He didn't tell me what happened or who did it, he only said. "Protect My Son, because he'll carry on my legacy." With confusion and not knowing I was pregnant I asked what he meant by that.

He didn't say anything but died in my hands..." she looked at Aaron.

"I buried your father, and took his sword with me." She waved her hand and the long sword appeared in front of them, she placed it on the table.

"I head back to my Kingdom and joined the military, I know my brothers were still hostile towards me, but I didn't let that stopped me. I trained even harder, and wish one day I'll know the people who killed my love... One month after my return to the palace, I saw a 15 years old girl on the street." She turned to Lilly.

"Even though she has such gift, no one seems to noticed her, so I took her in; and from then onward, she took me as her mother." She smiled.

"But the joy didn't last long, After I got 8 months pregnant. The Five Grand priest from the five Races got a vision, a prophecy. That a child will be born that'll put the world in danger, or worst destroyed it. After countless magic, The elven Grand priest pointed me as the Bearer of the Cursed Child. The king, who is my half father said they should kill my child.

Without other option I had to run away, and Lilly followed me, seeing I was close to labor; I chose to run into this forest, to me... It's the safest place to born my child." She looked at Aaron.

"You'll never be the one they label as the Cursed Child."

"What race is my father?" Aaron asked.

"Your father is not of any race, he is a..."

Chapter 9: Familiar

'So my father is a Demon.' Aaron sat on his seat staring at Aurora in a daze. Even Lilly was speechless.

"Demons came out of the gate with Monsters, but most demons didn't partake in the war. But hid from the races, they chose to live a peaceful life. But was still hunted by the soldiers of each race." Aurora said with a sad smile.

"Are Demons still in Elvis?" Lilly asked.

"I don't know." Aurora shook her head and said with a bright smile, pushing all the bad memories to the back of her mind.

"Now, I want to teach you how to summon your familiar."

Lilly's eyes brightened hearing Aurora. "Yey!"

Aaron looked at her in confusion, he really doesn't get what a familiar was, and why Lilly was so happy to get one.

'It might be an extra power, maybe an animal friend.'

The two stared at Aurora as she showed them a silver ring in her finger. "This is an enchanted ring, it has the power to hold your familiar. Everyone can only have one familiar, that's why it's very important to know how to summon it.

"Diamond, show yourself."

Aaron and Lilly stared at the silver ring as it glowed for a second, then a white Baby Dragon appeared in front of them.

"Wow!!" The two exclaimed.

"How are you two babies doing?" Diamond asked with a smile.

"It speaks." Lilly exclaimed in excitement.

"Don't call me "It" child, I'm not a thing; but a pure blood Dragon." Diamond corrected.

"Now, Now, Diamond." Aurora said.

Aaron was stunned staring at Diamond's Information with the all seeing eye.

{All Seeing Eyes.}

{Name: Diamond.(Ice Dragon.) Class: Legendary. Info: Mastered the Ice Affinity, Unbeatable in water and Exceptionally Loyal to its master.}

"Why are you staring at me, Aaron?" Diamond asked, walking towards him.

"Where have you been? Why haven't I seen you before?" He asked with a slight frown.

"My Master sent me on a mission, I returned a month ago. With these." Diamond turned to Aurora, who waved her hand and two golden books appeared on the table.

"This is a summoning book, I asked Diamond to help me retrieve it from the palace." She passed the books to the two.

Aaron took the book, calmly staring at it. Then...

{Name: Summoning Book. Class: ??. Info: ??.}

'Huh?' Aaron was stunned, he looked up at Lilly's.

{All Seeing Eyes.}

{Name: Summoning Book. Class: Elite, Info: Can summon pets as strong as Demon-Stage Monsters.}

He then turned to Aurora In confusion.

"That Book was given to Me by your father, he asked me to give it to you."
Aurora revealed.

Aaron nodded staring at the book which even the All Seeing Eye couldn't see through.

"Now."

Aurora stood up and walked towards the sitting room, she crouched down and started drawing a circle. The two and Diamond stood at the side, watching her every move.

After drawing the circle, Aurora drew countless runes in it. The circle looked ordinary, it wasn't even glowing.

{Name: High-Class summoning Rune. Class: Legendary. Info: Consume a lot of Sid energy.}

'A lot of Sid energy?' He slowly observed Aurora, seeing her paled face he sighed. 'She always thinks of us without thinking of herself, what a caring mother.'

Aurora sat down on a chair, wiping the sweat off her face.

"Are you ok Mom?" Lilly asked.

"Yes, Lilly. I'm done with the circle." She smiled at them and added: "Put a drop of your Blood on the Summoning book, then step on the circle with it. It'll choose the animal you're most fond of."

"Lilly should go first." Aaron said, removing the dagger which have not left his waist.

Lilly took the dagger and cut her palm drawing blood, with a grimace, she let a drop of her blood fell on the book. Then walked forward and stood on the circle.

Diamond created a wall of Ice around her. The next moment.

BOOM!!

The Ice held back the violent Sid Energy, transferring everything back to Lilly.

Aaron stared as the ice which slowly broke apart, revealing Lilly with a white Baby Eagle in her hands.

{Name: ?? (Predator) Class: Elite. Info: Known for its speed and high magic and wind resistance, unbeatable in air.}

'I'm right, A Elite-class summoning book can only summon Elite-class Familiars, who is as strong as the fox and dog we encountered in the forest.'

"Wow!!! You are beautiful! I'll name you Snow!!!" Lilly yelled with joy, hugging the baby Eagle who was looking around with a strange expression.

"Your familiar is still a baby, the only way it could grow stronger and bigger is if you grow stronger." Aurora said, rubbing Diamond's back.

Aaron turned to her and was stunned. 'Is she siphoning Sid energy from Diamond? No one tell me it can do that?!' He smiled brightly.

Lilly stepped back from the circle. The three turned to Aaron, who smirk and walked towards it. He cut his palm and let his blood fell on the book, more than a drop.

"What are you doing, Aaron? That's a lot of blood." Aurora stood up.

"I'm ok, Mom." He stood on the circle, while Diamond covered him with her Ice.

CRACK!

BOOM!!!

The three eyes widened as the ice shattered into Pieces, flying all over the place.

"What the?" Even Diamond was stunned in place.

The three and Aaron stared at the Circular Blob in Aaron's hands.

'Are you Kidding me?!' Aaron yelled inwardly. 'Lilly got an Elite-class Familiar, while I got... Huh?' He was stunned.

{Name: ?? (The Shifter). Class: ??. Info: ??.}

'Huh?'

"Brother got a blob?" Lilly was stunned.

'A blob? I haven't seen such a familiar.' Aurora thought.

Aaron stared at the circle which shattered and vanished, he looked at the Blob in his hand totally confused, the Blob looked at him with his two big eyes.

'Why are you staring at me like I'm useless? Let me tell you, I can kill you with one bit!'

Aaron was stunned hearing the Blob's voice in his head.

'If you aren't useless show me what you can do?'

'I need to feed, I don't act without eating.'

'Are you kidding me?!'

'I'm serious.'

Aaron just rolled his eyes and turned to Aurora.

"Mom, do you have another summoning book? This guy here is useless, he only knows how to eat."

'How dare you!'

"Shut up!"

"You can understand... Wait, is it a boy or girl?" Lilly asked with widened eyes.

"This Blob sound like an over-age man." Aaron said placing the Blob on the ground.

"I'm sorry Aaron, I don't have another summoning book. You might have gained a useless familiar, but I know with time. It will prove to be something extraordinary." Aurora said with a reassuring smile.

'I like her already.'

'We all do.' Aaron answered, and nodded at Aurora.

"I understand Mom, This guy might be hiding his true potential." Aaron said, trying to convince himself that this Blob was something extraordinary.

'You know I can hear your thought, You might be my Master. But you also have to respect me, If you think I'm useless; feed Me and I'll show you.'

Aaron thought for a moment and said to Aurora: "Mom, he said I should feed him, then we'll see what he's capable of."

Aurora was stunned. 'This is strange, A new summoned familiar shouldn't be able to communicate with his/her Master, Is Aaron's different?' She turned to Lilly.

"Can Snow also talk to you, Lilly?"

"Uh? Nope, I haven't heard anything from Snow." Lilly answered, she and Snow stared at the red Blob on the ground with a slight frown.

'Why are these two staring at me?!'

"Shut up, You said I should feed you, I'll do just that."

Everyone stared at Aaron, as he walked into the Kitchen and brought a plate of roasted meat.

'What the hell is this, Master?! Did I tell you I'm carnivorous?!'

"What happened? Why is his eyes wide open?" Lilly asked in mild confusion.

'Master, I can feel a powerful energy in this guy. Maybe he's not so useless.'
Diamond landed on Aurora's shoulder.

'Really?'

Diamond nodded.

"Then what do you eat?" Aaron asked, not answering Lilly's question.

'I eat energy, retard! Not physical food!!!'

Aaron frowned slightly and turned to Aurora. "He said he eats Energy? How the hell am I going to find Energy to give him?"

"Energy?" Aurora thought for a moment, then nodded. "Wait for me." She walked towards her room.

"Why is this Blob what to eat Energy?" Lilly squat down in front of the red Blob.

'Don't you dare call me a Blob!'

Snow flew towards the meat and leaped on it, Moment Next; She started eating it.

"Can't you be like Snow for once?" Aaron asked in mild frustration.

'I'm a high blood, Master. I don't eat things Low-blood like this eat.'

"You?" Aaron was speechless.

Aurora walked back to them with a red Core in hand.

"Are you Kidding me?" Aaron muttered in a low voice.

{All Seeing Eyes.}

{Name: Skeleton Soldier's Core. Class: Epic. Info: Once a loyal soldier to the Demon Lord.}

"This is a Core of an Enraged-Stage Skeleton, The Skeleton is exceptional in swordsmanship and have a very high Defense. It took both Diamond and I to take it down even though I'm one realm above it." Aurora said with a smile, she crouched down and offer the Core to Blob.

"I'm giving it to you, As far as I know, Familiars aren't able to Absorb Cores; they grow stronger if their master grows stronger. But it seems you are different."

The Blob opened its mouth so wide, and swallowed the whole Core. The only thing they heard was the crushing sound of the core in its mouth.

"Wait here." He walked up to Lilly. "What about the Core I gave you?"

"Oh, It's in my bag. It's in the kitchen." Lilly quickly rushed to the Kitchen, and within 10 Seconds she rushed back with the Core.

"So..." Aaron took the Core from her and turned to his familiar. "If you absorb this, and changed to the Monster, I'll treat you to food; anytime."

"Slow down Master, I can only take the form of five Monsters with your current strength."

"My Current strength?" Aaron was stunned.

"It seems, this guy drew energy from you to be able to take more forms. So if you get stronger Aaron, The more from he could take."

"You are smart, Mom." The Skeleton said to Aurora, No one knew if he was smiling for not, because the guy was made of red bones.

"That means I have to get stronger. The lynx isn't strong enough, you'll only absorb the Cores of powerful Monsters, so you'll have all their skills and powers." He clenched his fist with a grin on his face. "We'll be feared by our enemies!" Aaron stared at the Skeleton for a moment then said:

"I'll call you, Protean."

The Skeleton thought for a moment and nodded. "I thought you are a retard, Master. But you are quite smart."

Lilly looked at Snow, who was busy eating the meat and sighed. 'What can you do Snow? Brother's Familiar is already this great. I wonder what you can do.'

'Enter the Saint Realm, and you'll find out.'

Lilly's eyes widened, she looked at Snow, who turned her head to her. "Snow just speak to me!" She exclaimed.

"Wow, That's lovely. My babies are very talented." Aurora said with a bright smile, while Aaron and the Skeleton facepalm themselves.
