

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1985 –

Chapter 1985

After James briefly explained his intentions to Delainey, he left Mt. Thunder Pass.

His destination was Mount Bane because his mother said a divine object would appear on Mount Bane in a week, and it would be the most precious one to appear on Earth. As for what it was, he did not know yet

Even his mother was not sure what would appear this time. All she knew was that an extraordinary divine object would appear on Mount Bane in a week.

After leaving Mt. Thunder Pass, he went to Wyrmsstead and boarded the private plane Henry had arranged.

Half a day later, he appeared on Sol's Mount Bane.

Mount Bane had become a gathering place for the Overworld Outsiders.

All of the Overworld's martial artists would gather on Mount Bane in the past three years. Previously, Earth's martial artists also had access to the area.

However, Earth's martial artists were forbidden from the area after more powerful Overworld Outsiders appeared. Any martial artists that came within the range of Mount Bane would be ruthlessly killed.

In the past few years, countless martial artists from Earth had died in the Overworld Outsiders' hands.

James got off the plane in a flat area outside Mount Bane's range. Then, he looked at the mountains in the distance.

A white mist surrounded the distant mountains.

Colorful light rays could be seen shooting out into the sky through the mist, giving Mount Bane a touch of mystery.

Several more unknown mountains had appeared around Mount Bane in the past three years.

However, these mountains were sealed and could not be entered.

The seal would have to be opened to enter these mountains.

James scanned the area for a while. Just as he was about to enter Mount Bane, some people appeared in the distance

They wore ancient clothing and had long swords on their waists.

James stopped in his tracks.

“Who’re you?”

The group of people approached and immediately surrounded James

James observed the group. They wore blue robes with the word “Sacerdotal” on it

At a glance, James immediately knew they were the Sacerdotal Sect’s disciples.

The Sacerdotal Sect was established on Earth by Xain.

An intense murderous intent rose in James’ heart when he thought about how Matias had gone to Japura and slaughtered hundreds of thousands of people.

Since Xain had such virtues, James concluded the people from the Sacerdotal Sect could not be any better

They would be a scourge if they continued roaming the earth.

However, James did not act out immediately.

He suppressed the anger in his heart and looked at the Sacerdotal Sect disciples surrounding him, saying. I’m James Caden, a human from Earth. Go report to Xain that James is here.”

“James, who?”

A Sacerdotal Sect disciple said disdainfully. “Who do you think you are to see our Sect Leader as you please?”

Another disciple added, “Since you’re here, don’t think you’ll be able to leave.”

“Tsk, tsk. I didn’t expect martial artists from Earth to still dare to appear on Mount Bane after everything.

It seems the earthlings have already forgotten the past lessons we’ve taught them.

” I’ll break his legs first.”

The Sacerdotal Sect disciples started joking around.

One of them walked over, pulled out his long sword, and looked at James mockingly. Then, he said with smile, "Breaking his legs is going too easy on him. I'll sever his legs and make him crawl out of Mount Bane."

After the disciple spoke, he brandished his sword and thrust it at James.

James felt a chill down his spine.

He knew the person attacking was powerful and had entered the ninth rank.

If he were another martial artist from Earth today, his legs would definitely be cut off. Swoosh!

A Sword Light charged at him.

James slightly backed away.

Boom!

The Sword Light slashed into the ground, and the rocks nearby shattered instantly.

"How dare you dodge, bastard."

The Sacerdotal Sect's disciple had a grim expression.

The others looked at James mockingly. To them, James was already fated to die. James looked at the Sacerdotal Sect's disciples solemnly.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1986 –

Chapter 1986

"Come here, bastard. I'll cut off your legs and let you live If you don't, no one who comes here today will be able to save me from killing you. I promise you that."

The Sacerdotal Sect's disciple was arrogant.

James took a deep breath, forced himself to calm down, and said coldly, "I want to see Xain, so go and report to him that James is here to visit."

"Hmph! You're still insisting on seeing our Sect Leader?"

The disciple's expression darkened, and he quickly attacked.

Initially, James did not want to hurt them since he had come for the divine object

However, he knew ascending Mount Bane would be impossible if he did not fight today.

Just when the disciple's sword was about to land on him, James suddenly raised his hand and clasped the sword with two fingers.

“What?”

The Sacerdotal Sect disciple's expression became solemn.

He exerted all his strength, but the sword did not move

James slightly exerted some force on his fingers. Crack!

The Sacerdotal Sect disciple's sword broke instantly.

James unleashed his True Energy.

The powerful energy swept forward like a wave and instantly blew away the surrounding Sacerdotal Sect's disciples. They fell to the ground in different areas and groaned in pain.

James looked at the Sacerdotal Sect's disciples on the ground and said calmly, “I didn't intend to hurt you guys, but you forced me to do so. Now, can you go and report my visit?”

He did not recklessly enter Mount Bane.

He knew countless Overworld Outsiders were within Mount Bane. Among them, there were a few that were not inferior to Xain.

The Sacerdotal Sect's disciples struggled to get up from the ground and backed away as they looked at James with horror

“You're dead, bastard! Just wait

Sacerdotal Sect's disciples cursed at him and left, dejected

James patiently waited in the same spot.

Xain had established the Sacerdotal Sect on Mount Bane

Xain was chatting with a man inside the manor on Mount Bane

The man was around twenty five or twenty-six years old. He wore a yellow robe and had quite a stunning appearance

He looked at Xain and said with a smile, "In a few more years, the seal will be opened Since you've come to Earth earlier, have you found the four keys?"

The man was also an Overworld Outsider and a powerful sect's disciple. His strength was not below Xain, but he had only appeared on Earth one year ago.

His name was Samarth Carter.

Xain looked at Samarth and gently shook his head, saying. "I've sent people to look into the four keys but haven't found them even after so many years. I still don't know who has the four keys."

Hearing this, Samarth had a solemn look.

"You haven't found it even after so many years? The seal will be opening in a few more years. What will we do if we don't find the four keys?"

Xain smiled and said, "There's no need to worry. It's already destined to happen. When the time comes, the four keys will also appear. As for who will appear on Mount Bane with the four keys, that isn't important."

Samarth also smiled and said, "It seems you're confident in obtaining great treasures after the seal is open. I'm curious if you've already become a Herculean."

Xain smiled but did not answer the question.

"Reporting!"

At that moment, a Sacerdotal Sect disciple entered and knelt on one knee.

Xain looked at the disciple kneeling on the ground and said calmly, "What's the matter?"

The disciple replied, "Sir, a martial artist from Earth has appeared at the mountain foot. He injured our sect's disciples and requested to see you."

"Oh?"

Xain asked out of curiosity. "Who is he? Why does he want to see me?"

"He said you'll know who he is if I mention his name. His name is James."

Hearing this, Xain's pupils shrunk, and he stood up from the chair. He grabbed the disciple up from the ground and asked coldly, "What did you say? Say it again, what's his name?"

The disciple trembled in fear.

"H-He said his name was James Caden."

Xain gritted his teeth.

How could he ever forget this person?

Three years ago, James used his signature martial art skill and severely injured him, which caused him to be captured and imprisoned for some time. If not for his junior showing up, he would have been detained for much longer

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1987 –

Chapter 1987

He was severely injured by James three years ago.

Back then, James' strength was relatively weak. He was not a Supernatural yet

Yet, though he was at such a low rank, he was capable of causing devastating damage to him.

If James grew stronger, he would definitely pose a considerable threat

He thought James was dead. He never expected James to reappear after three years and come looking for him.

With a grim expression, Xain said, "I'll see him in person."

Sitting aside, Samarth looked at Xain puzzledly and asked, "Who's James? Is it necessary to meet him in person?"

With a gloomy expression, James said, "Don't underestimate this martial artist from Earth named James Three years ago, he wasn't even a Supernatural and was only a ninth-ranked martial artist that had broken free from three shackles.

“However, he used a powerful martial art technique and seriously injured me despite his relatively low strength. I lost my combat power after being injured and was captured by Earth’s martial artists. Then, I was locked up for a long time.”

“Oh?”

Hearing this, Samarth was curious.

“He only unlocked three shackles but could hurt someone who’s reached the Supernatural Consummation?”

Samarth was shocked.

Xain stood up and descended to the mountain foot with strides.

Meanwhile, James waited at the mountain foot for about ten minutes.

Ten minutes later, a group of people entered his sight.

He recognized one of them as Xain, whom he had met three years ago.

Behind him were a few Sacerdotal Sect’s disciples. There was also a man in a yellow robe, who he did not recognize

Xain spotted James from afar

James’ appearance did not change, but he felt like he had seen a poisonous snake when he saw James, and his heart trembled.

“What happened?” Xain was puzzled.

He thought, “Why do I feel palpitations upon seeing James?”

Samarth felt the same. He felt uncomfortable after seeing James, and it felt like he was being glared at by a demon

However, he did not say anything

Xain also did not say much. He strode over to James and scanned him. With a grim expression, he asked. Is it really you, James?”

James smiled and said, “I haven’t seen you for many years, Xain. I came to see you as soon as I returned. I’ve kept you on my mind all these years.”

He wore a bright smile.

Those who did not know the truth would think James and Xain were good friends that could talk about anything

Xain stared at James.

Three years ago, he wanted James' cultivation method and let his guard down, falling into a trap

Back then, he would have died if the Earth's martial artists had been determined to kill him.

"Haha! Xain!"

At that moment, a laugh came from the distance.

"I heard the person who hurt you three years ago showed up."

As the sound resounded, a man quickly ran over and instantly appeared in James' field of vision.

The man looked rowdy and had long, messy hair.

He glared at James before him and licked his dry lips. Then, he said, "Is this the brat that hurt you?"

The man rubbed his palms together excitedly and was getting prepared to fight.

James looked at the man who appeared.

He recognized the man from reading the records on the martial artist forum.

His name was Matias.

After appearing on Earth, he headed to Japura to rescue Xain and caused a massacre there, killing hundreds of thousands of humans.

He had no mercy, and his hands were covered with blood.

Seeing this person, James boiled with anger, and a murderous intent rose in his heart. He clenched his fists together and stared at Matias, saying coldly, "Matias Judah, right?"

"Woah, brat. Have you heard of me?"

Matias looked at James and smiled playfully. He said, "That's right. I'm Matias."

James glared at him and said, "I came to Mount Bane to discuss some things. Since you showed up, let's settle some past grievances today."

Matias looked at James mockingly and said, "Oh? How do you want to settle it?"

"Matias, don't act recklessly."

Xain quickly stopped him.

The James before him felt incredibly dangerous. He had no idea what had happened to James in the past three years, but he could sense that he was no longer the same as he was back then.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1988 –

Chapter 1988

Otherwise, he would not feel strange palpitations from seeing James.

James must have been incredibly strong to give him a sense of danger

After Xain stopped him, Matias also sensed the abnormality. James' energy felt cold, sinister, and like a demon's

However, he was still confident because they were on Earth.

Earth's martial artists were weak, so he was not afraid.

Xain knew Matias' character and was worried the latter would act recklessly. Thus, he hurriedly stepped forward, standing in front of Matias. He looked at James and asked, "What did you come to see me for?"

James said coldly, "It can wait. We'll talk about it after I kill Matias."

"Haha! Do you think you're capable of killing me, brat?" Matias burst out laughing.

"That's right! I'll kill you."

James gritted his teeth and said, "You went to Japura and slaughtered hundreds of thousands of people Do you know what relationship I have with Japura's Emperor?"

"Well, he's my father.

“You killed my grandfather’s citizens.”

James roared furiously, and the energy emitting from his body increased to its peak.

Black mist emerged from his body, and his black pupils turned crimson. At that moment, he looked like a beast that had awakened.

Demonic Energy emanated from his body, and he showed great hostility toward Matias.

“Die!” James shouted.

Many of the disciples standing ahead were forced back.

Even Matias and Samarth retreated tens of meters away.

They stared at James.

The energy emanating from him was terrifyingly strong

James stretched out his finger and pointed at Matias. Immediately, black energy morphed out of his finger and gathered to form a mysterious symbol, which looked like a group of demons dancing around in the air.

“Come here and meet your end!” James shouted

Matias was shocked by James’ energy

After a brief shock, he returned to his sense and said coldly, “Do you think I’m afraid of you?”

“Matias, don’t Xain quickly stopped Matias and tried to grab onto him. However, it was too late. Matias had already charged over with clenched fists and appeared before James in an instant

With a tightly gripped fist, he swung at James.

His fist contained potent strength that could split mountains and the ground.

James was not afraid of the powerful punch.

He raised his hand and threw his fist to meet Matias’ punch.

Boom!

Their fists collided.

The two powerful forces clashed, and a loud sound burst out

James' body was pushed back a few steps, and he could feel a strong force permeating his whole body from his arms. His Blood Energy chumed from the shock.

Matias was also injured

His fist felt numb, and he could not help but swing his arm around

“What strong physical strength.” Matias was shocked.

Meanwhile, James glared at Matias.

Matias was strong and likely a Supernatural that had unlocked his Eighth Inner Gate

He would be unable to kill Matias with his physical strength alone.

At that moment, he used his mind to unleash his power

Black mist emerged from his body and gathered to form a black lotus flower.

As the black lotus appeared, everyone had panicked expressions.

“W-What is that?”

“D-Demonic Energy?”

Is he a demon?”

“Impossible! How could a demon show up on Earth?”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-