

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2299

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2299—James scanned his surroundings. Every plant in the region had long shriveled to death, caused by the adverse effects of Demonic Energy.

James asked puzzledly, “How weird... Why is there Demonic Energy here?”

Delainey chimed in, “I can sense terrifying power in this region. Let’s turn back and search elsewhere. It’s not worth risking our lives for this.”

Henry nodded in agreement, saying, “We should search somewhere else. Mount Walvern is huge, after all. We don’t necessarily have to search this place.”

James nodded. “Alright then, let’s turn back.”

The three decided against heading further. Instead, they changed course and searched elsewhere.

After leaving the place, they flew full speed ahead in search of powerful monsters.

Soon, they entered a marshland.

Black bubbles rose, and some black fumes flew out from the marshland where many beasts crawled, including some venomous snakes of different sizes. Some were as big as a thumb, while others were several meters long.

Boom!

As they approached, the sound of an explosion could be heard.

James and the others turned their heads and saw someone engaged in a fierce battle against a monster. The monster was a white python hundreds of meters long and covered in white scales. Flying in mid-air, it caused a raging wind that swept through the marshland below, sending debris flying. Meanwhile, it was surrounded by three people who were attacking it relentlessly.

“That’s Quintina!”

Seeing this, James stopped.

Henry said, “The python is at least at the Immortal Ascension’s Eighth Stair.”

Delainey nodded and said, “Although Yunus is also at the Eighth Stair, a monster at an equivalent rank is usually much stronger than a cultivator. It would be difficult for them to annihilate the python.”

At that moment, James noticed a group of people spectating the battle in the distance.

On the battlefield, Yunus held a purple sword in his hand and slashed it. The sword emitted a purple Sword Light, and wave after wave of Sword Light materialized, attacking the white python. However, the python had incredible defensive capabilities. As such, even Yunus, who was at the Immortal Ascension's Eighth Stair, could not deal any effective damage to it.

The python roared and swung its tail violently with great power.

Yunus dodged the attack in time. However, he was knocked back by the powerful force of the python's tail and nearly lost his balance, his body tilting sideways.

Seizing the window of opportunity, Quintina launched her attack. Appearing a hundred meters in the air, mysterious symbols materialized in her palm, descending from the sky and crashing toward the python. Struck by the powerful force, the python plummeted from the sky and crashed into the marshland, causing black mud to splash all over the area.

Seeing this, Yunus seized the opportunity and went on the offensive once more. His sword emitted a blinding Sword Light, and wave after wave of Sword Energy descended from the sky and struck the white python.

Another disciple of the Welkin Academy launched his most powerful move. Terrifying True Essence gathered in his palm to form a ball-like shape before crashing toward the python.

However, this only dealt damage to the python. It was utterly insufficient to annihilate it.

"Curse you, humans!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2299—James scanned his surroundings. Every plant in the region had long shriveled to death, caused by the adverse effects of Demonic Energy.

James asked puzzledly, "How weird... Why is there Demonic Energy here?"

Delainey chimed in, "I can sense terrifying power in this region. Let's turn back and search elsewhere. It's not worth risking our lives for this."

Henry nodded in agreement, saying, "We should search somewhere else. Mount Walvern is huge, after all. We don't necessarily have to search this place."

James nodded. "Alright then, let's turn back."

The three decided against heading further. Instead, they changed course and searched elsewhere.

After leaving the place, they flew full speed ahead in search of powerful monsters.

Soon, they entered a marshland.

Black bubbles rose, and some black fumes flew out from the marshland where many beasts crawled, including some venomous snakes of different sizes. Some were as big as a thumb, while others were several meters long.

Boom!

As they approached, the sound of an explosion could be heard.

James and the others turned their heads and saw someone engaged in a fierce battle against a monster. The monster was a white python hundreds of meters long and covered in white scales. Flying in mid-air, it caused a raging wind that swept through the marshland below, sending debris flying. Meanwhile, it was surrounded by three people who were attacking it relentlessly.

“That’s Quintina!”

Seeing this, James stopped.

Henry said, “The python is at least at the Immortal Ascension’s Eighth Stair.”

Delainey nodded and said, “Although Yunus is also at the Eighth Stair, a monster at an equivalent rank is usually much stronger than a cultivator. It would be difficult for them to annihilate the python.”

At that moment, James noticed a group of people spectating the battle in the distance.

On the battlefield, Yunus held a purple sword in his hand and slashed it. The sword emitted a purple Sword Light, and wave after wave of Sword Light materialized, attacking the white python. However, the python had incredible defensive capabilities. As such, even Yunus, who was at the Immortal Ascension’s Eighth Stair, could not deal any effective damage to it.

The python roared and swung its tail violently with great power.

Yunus dodged the attack in time. However, he was knocked back by the powerful force of the python’s tail and nearly lost his balance, his body tilting sideways.

Seizing the window of opportunity, Quintina launched her attack. Appearing a hundred meters in the air, mysterious symbols materialized in her palm, descending from the sky and crashing toward the python. Struck by the powerful force, the python plummeted from the sky and crashed into the marshland, causing black mud to splash all over the area.

Seeing this, Yunus seized the opportunity and went on the offensive once more. His sword emitted a blinding Sword Light, and wave after wave of Sword Energy descended from the sky and struck the white python.

Another disciple of the Welkin Academy launched his most powerful move. Terrifying True Essence gathered in his palm to form a ball-like shape before crashing toward the python.

However, this only dealt damage to the python. It was utterly insufficient to annihilate it.

“Curse you, humans!”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2300

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2300—In the marshland, angry roars could be heard. The white python’s massive body rose into the air, and it spat out a Poison Gas Wave from its mouth. This was, in essence, True Essence Wave that contained terrible poison and was deadly upon contact.

Seeing this, the three hurriedly retreated.

The fierce battle ensued.

James did not intervene but instead watched the battle from afar.

The battle had attracted the attention of many, who gathered to observe the situation. Soon, there were thousands of people watching from the sidelines. These thousands of people were mostly in groups of three to five, and those who dared approach were confident in their own strength.

Upon watching the battle, James could not help but praise Quintina, “As expected of a Grand Supernatural Although Quintina has yet to gain insight into the Inscription of the Way, she was able to perform them. As these inscriptions possess enormous strength, they were able to fight the python to a standstill.”

Henry nodded slightly and said, “Indeed, the python will be defeated sooner or later.”

The battle raged on for three hours.

Yunus seized the opportunity and slashed with his sword. Sword Energy shredded through the air and decapitated the python. As the python's head dropped to the ground, the battle came to an end.

The three descended from the sky.

Delighted, Quintina said, "I didn't expect us to slay a monster at the Immortal Ascension's Eighth Stair on the very first day. If this continues, we'll certainly be in the top three."

Yunus looked at her, his expression containing a hint of admiration, and he said, "You really are impressive, Quintina! As expected of a Grand Supernatural! If it wasn't for your assistance, I wouldn't have been able to decapitate the python."

Quintina smiled faintly and said, "You flatter me, Yunus,"

The other disciple chimed in, "I owe you two my thanks,"

He also possessed great strength and was at the late stage of the Immortal Ascension's Sixth Stair.

After slaying the white python, they complimented each other.

Then, Yunus waved his sword and retrieved the elixir from the python's body.

However, at that moment, an extremely powerful force seized the elixir. By the time Yunus reacted, the elixir was already in another man's hands.

Standing in mid-air, the man was wearing a golden robe and had a somewhat handsome-looking appearance. Holding the elixir in his hand, he smiled faintly and said, "I offer you my thanks."

Looking at the man, Quintina was filled with anger as she rebuked him, "What's the meaning of this, Harold?"

The man was none other than Harold Carmelo, the strongest disciple of the Divinity Sect of this generation and a Grand Supernatural.

"What could it possibly mean?" Harold smiled and said, "There aren't any rules against snatching the possession of others in this tournament. Why? Are you displeased?"

"Curse you!"

Yunus' expression darkened as he clenched his sword.

Just as he was about to make a move, another group of people appeared.

Quintina immediately recognized them.

They were Loki Xabi, the disciple of the Infernal Emperor, and Demetrius Lev, the disciple of Emperor Tamerlan. Back then, they had appeared at the Ancient Clan and cultivated inside the Pagoda of Flames.

Quintina could not believe that they were on the same team.

Loki was dressed in a grey robe. A slight grin crept up on his somewhat handsome face as he said, "How do you do, Ms. Quintina?"

Demetrius smirked. "This elixir is now ours. Do you have any objections?"

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2301

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2301—The three were very overbearing.

"Dammit!" Yunus' expression darkened as he cursed, "Think you can bully us?"

Then, he took his sword and initiated an attack. In the blink of an eye, he appeared before the one holding the demon elixir, Harold. His sword emitted a dazzling Sword Light, he plunged it straight toward his opponent's vital point.

Harold hurriedly retreated.

Even though Yunus' speed was extraordinary, his attacks could not reach Harold. As Harold raised his hand, powerful energy materialized from his sleeves, blocking the incoming Sword Energy.

Boom!

An explosion occurred when the powerful energy collided with the Sword Energy. Both Harold and Yunus were sent flying by the great force.

Around them, a crowd had gathered.

"I didn't expect the three of them to join forces!"

"One of them is Harold Carmelo, a Grand Supernatural of the Divinity Sect and one of the strongest of his generation. The other two, meanwhile, are disciples of the Infernal Emperor and Emperor Tamerlan. Since they are working together, they will certainly reach the top three."

“Based on the information I have, they are already at the Immortal Ascension’s Eighth Stair.”

“They could even defeat a monster at the Immortal Ascension’s Ninth Stair.”

“If they have some tricks up their sleeves, they might even challenge a Mage Rank monster.”

Many conversed in whispers.

On the battlefield, Yunus was enraged.

The monster was one he had finally killed with great difficulty, but now it was seized by someone else, not to mention everything that transpired before a huge crowd. He would be deeply humiliated if he could not take back what was his.

“What? Do you plan to resort to violence?” Harold stored the elixir away and gazed at Harold with a composed expression on his face. It appeared that he could not care less about the Welkin Academy’s disciples.

“Don’t think about leaving if you don’t give back our elixir!”

Not only was Yunus a genius of the Welkin Academy, but he was also the headmaster’s Inner Disciple. Never had he received such treatment before. He had completely lost his cool.

Quintina, on the other hand, did not lose her rationality.

She approached Yunus and whispered, “Let’s just forget it, Yunus. There are three of them, not to mention they are at the Immortal Ascension’s Eighth Stair. Since our other teammate is only mediocre in strength, we’ll be humiliated if things escalate out of control.”

She chose to make a compromise and simply hand the elixir to them. Then, they just had to stay as far away as possible from them. Even if they could not enter the top three, they could aim for the top ten.

“But...” Yunus was disgruntled.

Quintina consoled him, “Don’t act impulsively. Harold is a Grand Supernatural who possesses great strength. None of us stand a chance against him.”

Hearing this, Yunus calmed down.

Watching this from afar, James furrowed his eyebrows and said, "Harold has crossed the line. Quintina and the others had been fighting against the monster for hours. Now, he simply appeared out of nowhere and stole the elixir."

Henry cracked his knuckles and said, "Should I intervene, James? I'll take back the elixir and return it to your crush."

James rolled his eyes and said, "She's not my crush, just a fellow disciple of the academy."

"Sure thing! Should I make a move then?" Henry grinned.

James said, "I'll do it myself."

Though James wanted to mind his own business, he promised Farley Gideon that he would take good care of Quintina. Now that Quintina was in trouble, how could he simply sit by the sidelines?

"It's really lively here, huh?"

James laughed as he walked over to them.

Just when Quintina was about to leave, she heard a burst of laughter. As she turned, she furrowed her eyebrows when she saw James.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2302

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2302—James walked toward Quintina and said smilingly, "Are you being bullied, Quintina?"

Quintina's face immediately darkened as she said, "This is none of your concern."

James said smilingly, "Why don't I help you take back what's yours?"

"You?" Quintina looked at him doubtfully. However, she was also concerned that James would steal the limelight, so she advised James, "Just forget it. You won't stand a chance against them, but we might just be able to fight them to a standstill if we work together."

"No need, just leave everything to me."

James smiled.

Just as Harold and the others were about to leave, James suddenly appeared out of nowhere. Seeing this, Harold chuckled, "Aren't you the one who chickened out? Back at the Ancient Clan, you chose to concede defeat. Now that my strength has increased once more, are you trying to stand up for them?" Harold smirked.

James did not even dare fight against him back when they were at the Ancient Clan. Now that his strength had increased drastically, James was nothing in his eyes.

James said coldly, "This is so uncool, Harold. With your strength, you should be able to defeat monsters at the Immortal Ascension's Eighth Stair without breaking a sweat. Yet, you chose to seize their elixir away, something that they spent a great deal of effort to obtain."

"So what?" Harold asked.

James extended his arm and said, "Don't make me, Harold. Hand it over to me."

Hearing this, the crowd was stunned.

"Who the hell is he?"

"Does he have a death wish? Doesn't he know that Harold has reached the Eighth Stair of Immortal Ascension, not to mention he's a Grand Supernatural?"

"He should be trying to play the hero by saving the damsel in distress."

Many conversed in whispers.

Displeased, Yunus said, "When do I need an outsider to stand up for me?"

Just as he was about to stop James, Quintina stopped him.

"Don't act impulsively, Yunus. Let's observe for now. No one knows what rank James is currently at. If he's no match for them, we'll work together and seize the elixir."

Quintina had thought about it. She would let James take the lead. Even if James was defeated, at least the enemy would be weakened as well. Only then would they seize the window of opportunity and strike back. After all, they should avoid being humiliated.

James' words made Harold freeze. Then, he said smilingly, "What gave you the courage to challenge me?"

Unwilling to prolong the conversation any longer, the Primordial Dragon Blade materialized in James' hands. Then, his face darkened as he said, "Don't say I'm picking on the weak now. I'll allow you three to attack together."

Hearing this, the crowd was dumbfounded once more.

“What? Is he trying to take on all three of them by himself?”

“Does he even know who they are?”

“They are cultivators at the Immortal Ascension’s Eighth Stair.”

“He would not be able to defeat them even if it’s a one vs. one!”

“Who the hell is he?”

As James had only shown himself at the Ancient Clan, where his performance was only mediocre, everyone believed that he was only being haughty.

Only Henry and Delainey wore composed expressions.

Henry asked smilingly, “How strong do you think James is, Delainey? How long do you think he needs to defeat them all?”

Delainey shook his head slightly and said, “I don’t know either, but his sword technique is extremely terrifying. After all, he spent twenty years in the Celestial Abode’s Time Chamber practicing his sword, so he has reached an unbelievable level. I don’t think they will be able to last long against James.”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-