

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2316

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2316—"O-Of course..."

"Thank you for saving our lives."

The three nodded and turned to leave.

Meanwhile, Henry brought Henry and Delainey back into the underground cavern.

Soon, they arrived at the dungeon.

In the first dungeon, many corpses were laying on the ground. Their blood had been drained.

James arrived at the second dungeon and forced the door open.

"Quintina." He hurriedly walked toward Quintina and released her seal.

"Why are you here, James?" Quintina stood up and looked at James puzzledly.

James said, "I encountered a few cultivators who were being pursued by a group of men in black robes. They said that the men in black were capturing everyone, so I hurriedly make my way here. When I arrived, I saw you being imprisoned here."

James lied as he did not wish to expose his identity.

"This place is heavily guarded by powerful guards. How did you get in?" Quintina looked at James puzzledly.

Stunned, James asked, "What? What do you mean? But I didn't see anyone on my way here."

"What?" Quintina was shocked.

"Alright now, stop the chit-chatting already. Hurry up and release my seal," Yunus said.

Quintina walked over to him and released his seal. Then, Yunus did the same to the other cultivators who were imprisoned.

Soon, everyone left the stone cavern upon being freed.

The Magic Circle and the Demonic Energy had disappeared, and the place had returned to normalcy.

Puzzled, Quintina murmured, "Weird... It's only been a single day. Why did so many Fangs disappear without a trace? Besides, why is the Magic Circle here gone?"

Everyone else was confused as well.

However, they could not care less at the moment. After experiencing despair, they no longer cared about the Grand Tournament and only wanted to leave.

They scrambled to leave Mount Walvern. However, as there was still a time limit, the passage back to the outside world remained shut. As such, they could not return to the Divinity Sect.

James followed everyone else and left Mount Walvern.

Henry asked, "What should we do next, James?"

James thought about it and said, "The Grand Tournament can't continue any longer. We'll see how it goes once we return to the Divinity Sect."

"Mhm." Henry nodded.

After experiencing such a great ordeal, no one was in the mood to exterminate monsters. They had no idea if there were remnants of the Demon Race's Fangs out there in Mount Walvern. If they were captured once more and killed, they would lose everything.

They waited outside Mount Walvern.

James, Henry, and Delainey gathered together. The three were roasting the meat of the monster they previously killed. The scent of succulent meat permeated the air.

Quintina walked over to them and took a seat beside James. She glanced at him and asked, "By the time you arrived, was there really no one else there?"

"Yes," James said while roasting his meat, "After learning that many people have been captured, I began searching around. Then, I found a cavern where you guys were imprisoned."

"That couldn't be..." Quintina was confounded. The Demon Race was cold-blooded and ruthless. Why would they simply walk away after the initial slaughter?

At that moment, she was reminded of the man with the token. He was the one who saved her life. If not for him, she would have perished.

"Could that man be the one who chased the Demon Race's Fangs away?"

Quintina was baffled.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2317

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2317—Quintina could not understand what had happened. Not only that, but no one else understood it either. However, as they had only just narrowly escaped certain death, they could not care less about the details. Though there were about 100,000 participants at the beginning of the Grand Tournament, a third had perished. The survivors gathered outside Mount Walvern for the tournament to come to an end. Once the passage appeared, they would immediately return to the Divinity Sect.

James, too, no longer went after monsters. Instead, he waited patiently alongside everyone else. Regardless, he did not disregard his cultivation and began absorbing Empyrean Spiritual Energy in earnest. A month had passed in the blink of an eye, and the passage reappeared in the sky once more. “It’s here!”

“The passage has appeared!”

Everyone stood up and leaped into the air, entering the void passage. After traversing the passage, they arrived outside the main hall of the Divinity Sect’s main peak.

Upon seeing the participants return, the Divine Holy Emperor furrowed his eyebrows and murmured puzzledly, “What the hell? Why are there still so many of them left?”

However, he remained silent.

The others also noticed that the participants’ numbers had dwindled.

“What’s going on? Why are there fewer of them now?” someone asked.

Harold, the Divine Holy Emperor’s disciple stepped forward.

Though the Divine Holy Emperor knew what had transpired, he feigned ignorance as he asked, “Harold, what happened? Why are there fewer of you?”

Harold clasped his fists and said, “Master, while we were going after monsters on Mount Walvern...”

He narrated the events that unfolded.

Hearing this, everyone exclaimed, “What?”

The Welkin Academy’s headmaster was enraged and roared, “The Demon Race’s Fangs have pushed this too far! They knew that the Grand Tournament was held at Mount Walvern. That’s why they sent men after our cultivators!”

At that moment, Quintina stepped forward and said, "Master, the Demon Race seemed to be plotting some sort of conspiracy. I overheard a conversation between a Demon Race's Protector and the man who appeared at the Ancient Clan with the black token. It appears that they're trying to resurrect a guy named Lucifer Menachem. However, I have no idea why the Demon Race retreated all of a sudden."

She narrated the chain of events. She also mentioned James.

"James!" The Divine Holy Emperor shouted.

James emerged from the crowd and looked at the Divine Holy Emperor before him. He already suspected him as the Divinity Sect was the one that chose the location of the Grand Tournament. Did they not screen through the place before making their decision?

However, he remained silent.

He spoke, "Holy Emperor."

The Divine Holy Emperor questioned, "What happened exactly?"

James answered, "I came across a group of cultivators who were being pursued and saved them. That's when I learned that the Demon Race was capturing people everywhere. So, I began searching for the cultivators who were being imprisoned. By the time I found them, the Demon Race had already left. I don't know what happened either."

Hearing this, the Divine Holy Emperor furrowed his eyebrows.

Then, the Welkin Academy's headmaster stepped forward and said, "Alright now, you're dismissed."

The participants of the Grand Tournament turned to leave.

Meanwhile, the powerful figures of the Ancient Realm gathered to discuss the matter.

In the Divinity Sect's main hall, the Welkin Academy's headmaster roared, "The Demon Race has pushed this too far! First, they appeared at the Ancient Clan. Now, they've made a move against cultivators from all over the world. We can't just sit around this time. We have to band together and deal a heavy blow to them."

"You're right!"

"I agree!"

Many agreed with his words.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2318

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2318—The Divine Holy Emperor stepped forward and said, “I agree wholeheartedly, or else the Demon Race will think we’re pushovers. However, since the Dragon Abyss’ entrance will soon open and the Grand Tournament came to an early end, we need to finish the tournament as soon as possible. That way, we can select distinguished cultivators to enter the Dragon Abyss.”

“Holy Emperor, as the organizer, I’ll leave everything in your hands.”

“We will obey you.”

“But how do we proceed?”

The Divine Holy Emperor thought about it and said, “Now, we can only hold a martial arts tournament just like in the past.”

They discussed their next course of action.

After discussion, the Divine Holy Emperor left and headed to his closed-door meditation sanctuary at the back of the mountain.

Marquis was still there.

“What the hell is going on?” the Divine Holy Emperor immediately questioned him.

Marquis sat in a lotus position on the ground as his body exuded Demonic Energy. He glanced at the Divine Holy Emperor and said, “I’ve just received news from the Protector that Lucifer has been resurrected. He was resurrected by a human. Not only that, but the human was the one who appeared at the Ancient Clan and had the token.”

Although Marquis was located in the Divinity Sect, he was able to communicate with the Protector via long-distance arcane arts.

Marquis continued, “I thought some big shots were behind the scenes. I never thought it would be a mere human. He was only fortunate enough to obtain a relic of the Demon Race. I wonder where he obtained the token from.”

Then, he looked at the Divine Holy Emperor.

"This man is a participant in the Grand Tournament. Besides, he was also there at the Ancient Clan on that fateful day. If not for him, the Ancient Clan would have been annihilated."

Hearing this, the Divine Holy Emperor furrowed his eyebrows and asked, "In that case, who is he?"

"I'll leave the investigation to you. Once you find out about the man's identity, finish him off." Marquis made a gesture to kill.

He had learned of James' identity and the origin of his physical body. However, he had no idea where his token came from. Such a person would pose a challenge to them in the Ancient Realm if he was spared.

Though Lucifer chose to spare James, the Protector wanted him dead. So, he instructed Marquis to investigate James and annihilate him.

"Understood, I'll look into the matter."

The Divine Holy Emperor turned to leave.

After leaving, he began investigating the outsiders that appeared at the Ancient Clan. Based on what James had said earlier, he was now sure that James was the one he was looking for.

James did not know yet that he was in deep trouble.

After learning that James was the one he was looking for, the Divine Holy Emperor immediately contacted powerful figures all over the world.

As they gathered at the Divinity Sect's main hall, the Welkin Academy's headmaster asked, "Holy Emperor, is something the matter?"

The Divine Holy Emperor glanced at him and sneered, "Headmaster, I never thought you'd be the one who colluded with the Demon Race. Why did you try to kill our cultivators? What are you up to?"

"Watch your words, Patriarch of the Divinity Sect." Yoan immediately stepped forward.

"Hmph!" The Divine Holy Emperor smirked. "I was wondering how the Demon Race appeared at Mount Walvern. Based on my investigation, one of the Welkin Academy's disciples who participated in the Grand Tournament is a member of the Demon Race."

"Bullsh*t!" Jeffery rebuked him. "Where's the evidence?"

“Evidence?” The Divine Holy Emperor’s face darkened as he said, “Yoan Xenocrates, your disciple James Caden is a member of the Demon Race.”

“Impossible!” Yoan immediately dismissed the mere thought of it.

The Divine Holy Emperor said, “The truth will be revealed soon. Men, bring James Caden here!”

Immediately, the Divinity Sect disciples left the main hall and began searching for James.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2319

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2319—As a Sect Elder’s disciple at the Welkin Academy, James was assigned a room of his own. Just as he was resting in the courtyard while discussing things with Henry and Delainey, the Divinity Sect’s disciples appeared.

“James Caden, the Patriarch wishes to see you. Follow me to the main hall of the Divinity Sect’s main peak.”

Puzzled, James stood up and asked, “What for?”

The Divinity Sect’s disciple said, “I don’t know either. There are many people gathered there at the moment.”

James turned to look at Henry and Delainey, saying, “Wait here, I’ll be back soon.” Then, he looked at the disciple and said, “Let’s go.”

“Please, follow me.”

With the disciple’s guidance, James headed to the main hall of the Divinity Sect’s main peak.

“Please enter,” the disciple said.

“Mbm.” James nodded and entered the hall.

About a hundred people were gathered in the hall. There, James spotted a few familiar faces the Welkin Academy’s headmaster, his master, and of course, the Divinity Sect’s Patriarch. However, he could not recognize the rest.

As James walked in, everyone’s gaze was fixed on him. Who would have thought that such a young man would be a Fang of the Demon Race?

Sensing the hostile gazes, James had a bad feeling deep inside. However, he remained expressionless as he clasped his fists and said, "I heard you were looking for me, Holy Emperor."

The Divine Holy Emperor who was sitting on the main seat stood up and questioned him, "James, answer us truthfully. Are you a member of the Demon Race?"

Hearing this, James' heartbeat accelerated.

Before he could reply, Yoan stepped forward and said, "Don't be afraid, James. Just tell us the truth. An innocent man like you has nothing to be afraid of."

James forcibly calmed himself down and looked at the Divine Holy Emperor, asking, "What do you mean, Holy Emperor? I'm a disciple of the Welkin Academy, and my master is Sect Elder Yoan Xenocrates. How could I possibly be a member of the Demon Race? How am I related to them in any way?"

The Divine Holy Emperor said coldly, "The fact that Mount Walvern is the location of the Grand Tournament is a secret that no outsiders would know. However, the Demon Race appeared there and slaughtered many innocent lives. Based on my investigation, you are a member of the Demon Race. You were the one who informed them of the location. You were the one who caused countless deaths." "Hahaha!" James roared in laughter. "Preposterous! How am I even capable of colluding with the Demon Race? The Demon Race is full of powerful figures, whereas I have only reached the Immortal Ascension rank. Even if I wish to collude with them, do you think they would take me seriously?"

Then, he pointed at the Divine Holy Emperor and said, "You, on the other hand, are even more deserving of suspicion than me. You were the one who determined the Grand Tournament's location. Did you not realize that there was a Demon Race camp at Mount Walvern? Or could it be that you sent us there to our deaths? You accuse me of being a member of a Demon Race, but where's the evidence to support your claims? In fact, I think it's more likely that you were the one who colluded with them!"

James' voice reverberated throughout the hall.

"Preposterous!" The Divine Holy Emperor's face darkened as he raised his arm. Powerful energy gathered in his palm, which sent James flying and collapsed to the ground.

James vomited a mouthful of blood.

The Divine Holy Emperor was strong. However, he did not kill James. He only wished to teach him a lesson.

Seeing that his disciple was attacked, Yoan stepped forward and reprimanded him, “What’s the meaning of this? How could you resort to violence? Was what he said not valid? You were the one who determined the Grand Tournament’s location. Shouldn’t you have found out about the Demon Race’s camp at Mount Walvern?”

Standing at the top of the main hall, the Divine Holy Emperor said coldly, “I’m merely teaching him a lesson for disrespecting his elders. He’s not worthy of questioning me. As for the evidence he demanded, I wouldn’t have come to this conclusion if I don’t have any to support my claims.”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2320

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2320—“Men, bring me the magic mirror!”

As the Divine Holy Emperor ordered, a few disciples of the Divinity Sect walked in while carrying a bronze mirror. The mirror was two meters in height, and mysterious symbols were carved on it.

The Divine Holy Emperor said, “This is a magic mirror. As long as you have cultivated the Demonic Arts or Demonic Energy, everything will be revealed by the bronze mirror.”

At that moment, James had stood up, and the mirror was before him. Standing before the mirror, a bronze light shone on him. At that moment, the Demonic Energy inside his body churned.

Unable to suppress the hidden Demonic Energy inside his body any longer, threads of Demonic Energy materialized. Soon, majestic Demonic Energy enveloped his body.

“What?”

“What powerful Demonic Energy!”

Upon seeing this, everyone in the main hall stood up and exclaimed.

“James, you...” Even Yoan was taken aback.

James never thought that the Divinity Sect had an object that could reveal his Demonic Energy. However, though his secret was exposed, he did not panic. In the worst-case scenario, he would simply request Sophie’s assistance. However, he did not wish to be falsely accused of something he did not do.

“Anything else you wish to say, James?” the Divine Holy Emperor said coldly.

“Hahaha...” James smiled faintly and said, “Indeed, my body is a Demonic Body. However, that doesn’t mean I’m a member of the Demon Race.”

“There’s no use talking your way out of this.”

James said calmly, “I’m not trying to talk my way out of this. I am not a member of the Demon Race. On the contrary, I was the one who saved the imprisoned cultivators.

“To be frank, I’m not originally from the Ancient Realm. I came from Earth. Many years ago, I lost my life while I was weak. However, I was saved by someone who used a Demon Race relic to reshape my physical body. That’s how I was resurrected. Then, I came across a member of the Demon Race who gave me a token upon recognizing my physical prowess.

“Back then at the Ancient Clan, it was only thanks to the uniqueness of my physical body that I managed to remove the Demonic Energy inside the Ancient Clan’s Patriarch’s body. However, the Patriarch told me that someone had colluded with the Demon Race to take his life. That’s why he wanted to fake his death to lure the Demon Race into showing themselves.

“Still, he didn’t expect that Marquis Tenzin of the Demon Race would be this powerful. That’s why I wore a mask and presented the token given to me to deter the Demon Race from continuing their slaughter. Besides, I was the one who appeared with the token and saved the imprisoned cultivators at Mount Walvern. They can be my witness.”

Looking at the Divine Holy Emperor, he uttered word by word, “Do I not have the right to live just because there’s Demonic Energy inside my body?

“Besides, the only person who knew of my identity in the Ancient Realm is the Protector of the Demon Race. Apart from the ones who captured the cultivators at Mount Walvern, no one knew anything about my Demonic Body. So how did you learn of this? Could it be that you colluded with the Demon Race to resurrect Lucifer Menachem by sacrificing a hundred thousand innocent lives?”

James questioned him and spoke with great confidence.

Everyone here was present at the Ancient Clan back then. They were wondering why Farley Gideon died all of a sudden and the Demon Race appeared. It appeared that someone had been colluding with the Demon Race.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-