The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2321—Since James' Demonic Body was no longer a secret, he narrated the events that unfolded in front of everyone.

"The Demon Race went to great lengths to resurrect someone called Lucifer Menachem. Do you know who he is?"

The Welkin Academy's headmaster stepped forward and said, "Tell us what you know, James. Justice and truth will prevail in the end."

"Understood, Headmaster." James continued, "Lucifer Menachem is the only blood kin of the Demon Emperor in ancient times. During that battle long ago, he foresaw his own death. So, he sealed away his descendant in Mount Walvern. Mount Walvern has always reeked of Demonic Energy. Anyone who has been there before knows of this. The Demon Race's Protector said that he learned an ancient arcane art, but he required the blood of many distinguished cultivators to undo the seal left behind by the Demon Emperor.

"I have no idea why the Grand Tournament was held at Mount Walvern. Someone must have arranged for this. I also feel that someone must have come to an agreement with the Demon Race to resurrect Lucifer Menachem. After learning that many cultivators had been captured, I used my Demonic Body to infiltrate the Demon Race camp. There, I saw them slaughtering the cultivators and extracting their blood with my own eyes.

"Though I could simply turn a blind eye to this, I couldn't sit by the sidelines as innocent people lost their lives. At the pivotal moment, I stepped forward and presented my token, putting an end to the senseless slaughter. I used my Demonic Energy to release the seal and resurrect Lucifer to save everyone. Only then did the Demon Race retreat. However, to prevent my identity from being exposed, I only returned to save the cultivators after a day passed."

James narrated the whole truth.

"This is the whole truth. Though I have a Demonic Body, I am not a member of the Demon Race. I could simply command every member of the Demon Race in the Ancient Realm with my token alone, yet I didn't do such a thing.

"I am a human. Every moment of my existence, I live to protect humans. Back then at the Ancient Clan, all of you would have perished if I hadn't risked my life. As for the reason why Mount Walvern was selected as the Grand Tournament's location, I'm afraid the Divinity Sect's Patriarch owes us an explanation."

James pointed at the Divine Holy Emperor, who had already taken his seat.

The Welkin Academy's headmaster stepped forward and looked at him, saying, "Holy Emperor, James has told us everything he knew. Though he possesses a Demonic Body, he saved our lives time and again. I'm afraid you still owe us an explanation about the location of the Grand Tournament."

"Explanation?" The Divine Holy Emperor smiled faintly and said, "What's the point of that? Now that it has come to this, I don't think anyone's going to believe what I have to say. In that case, I'd rather admit to my deeds."

He stood up.

"That's right. It was me.

"I cooperated with Marquis Tenzin to resurrect Lucifer in exchange for the Demon Race's supreme cultivation method."

Hearing this, the crowd was stunned. Many brandished their swords immediately.

"I knew it!"

"You despicable villain! You'll pay for my disciples' life!"

Someone brandished their sword and charged toward the Divine Holy Emperor. In the blink of an eye, he appeared before him and discharged a powerful wave of Sword Energy.

This was a cultivator who had reached the Sage Rank. However, as he had only recently reached the Sage Rank, he stood no chance against the Divine Holy Emperor. As the latter's sleeves waved, powerful True Essence materialized and blocked the attack. At the same time, he sent the attacker flying, who collapsed to the ground and vomited a mouthful of blood.

"Marquis, I'll die if you don't show up now!" the Divine Holy Emperor roared.

"Heehee..."

An eerie laughter reverberated throughout the hall.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2322—As the snicker echoed throughout the hall, a black aura suddenly appeared and gathered together, forming a man in a black overcoat.

Seeing this, everyone retreated and stared cautiously at Marquis who appeared.

“Hahaha!”

The Divine Holy Emperor roared in laughter, “That’s right, it was me all along. But so what?”

Actually, Marquis was here at the Divinity Sect to annihilate every cultivator here in one fell swoop. The Divine Holy Emperor knew that his actions would arouse suspicion after the Grand Tournament was over. That was why he made preparations in advance.

The cultivators stared cautiously at Marquis. Although they were some of the greatest fighters in the world, they knew how powerful Marquis was, especially his Curse Magic. The moment he performed his Curse Magic, none would stand a chance against him.

The headmaster questioned, “What do you think you are doing, Holy Emperor?”

“Me?” The Divine Holy Emperor smirked coldly, “For my strength, of course. I have been stagnant at my rank for many years now. Only by cultivating the Demonic Arts can I increase my rank.”

“Something bad has happened, Patriarch!”

At that moment, a few disciples of the Divinity Sect rushed in and said anxiously, “A bunch of Demon Race people has surrounded us.”

Hearing this, everyone felt a chill running down their spine.

James knew that the situation was dire. It appeared that the Divinity Sect had colluded with the Demon Race. If he did not leave now, he would not be able to do in the future.

Seeing that everyone was in a confrontation with Marquis, James turned and tried to leave surreptitiously.

“Leaving so soon?”

Marquis’ face darkened as he waved, dragging James back forcefully. Then, Marquis slammed him against the ground. The Blood Energy inside James’ body churned, and he vomited a mouthful of blood.

James crawled up with great difficulty and said coldly, “Are you defying my orders, Marquis Tenzin? I have the Demon Race’s Supreme Token. How dare you kill a distinguished guest of the Demon Race?”

James threatened him.

“Hmph!” Marquis, meanwhile, snickered.

“Who do you think you are fooling, James? You are just a human who just so happened to possess a Demonic Body. You won’t be a member of the Demon Race. After annihilating you and seizing your token, perhaps I might find out that the token’s actually mine!”

He walked toward James, who staggered backward.

“How lively!”

A voice boomed,

Then, a person walked into the hall.

“Farley!”

Upon seeing Farley, James hurriedly rushed to his side.

Farley nodded at James and Quintina before saying, “James, leave now with Quintina. There’s nothing for you to worry about.”

After he spoke, he looked at Marquis.

“Marquis, since my strength hadn’t recovered yet, I was defeated by you at the Ancient Clan. Let the battle recommence, shall we? I’m curious to see if your Curse Magic is truly invincible.”

Faced with Marquis of the Demon Race, Farley wore a composed look on his face. After being in closed-door meditation for a few months, his strength had reached its peak.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2323—Upon Farley’s appearance, James breathed a sigh of relief. That was because Marquis was so strong that everyone here was no match for him even when they combined their strength.

There was only one who could stand a chance against him, and that was Farley Gideon whose strength had returned to its peak.

James did not linger for long and turned to leave.

Marquis stepped forward and tried to seize James. However, Farley’s speed was extraordinary. In the blink of an eye, he appeared before the door of the main hall and blocked his path. Wearing a composed look on his face, he said coldly, "We couldn't fight to our heart's content the last time we fought. Allow me to test the strength of your Curse Magic once more."

Then, a powerful aura burst forth from within.

At that moment, James had rushed out of the main hall. Then, he heard the deafening blasts of explosions behind him. The moment Farley and Marquis fought, the main hall was instantly destroyed.

Afraid of staying for another second, James hurriedly left and arrived at where Henry and Delainey were located. Then, he ordered, "Something has happened. Return to the Celestial Abode immediately."

The two immediately complied. That was because they could already sense the terrifying battle waves from the Divinity Sect's main peak.

The two entered the Celestial Abode.

At that moment, every cultivator walked out of their rooms and gazed at the main peak in the distance.

"What's going on?"

"Why is there a fight?"

"What a terrifying aura..."

They had no idea why a fight broke out at the Divinity Sect's main peak. As Marquis and Farley possessed enormous strength, the battle waves permeated the air as the mountains showed signs of disintegration. Many began to panic.

After some searching, James found Quintina. She was standing before an independent courtyard gazing at the figures in the sky. Furrowing her eyebrows, she murmured, "What's going on? Why is Father here? I- Is that the Demon Race?"

"Quintina."

Just as she was confused, a voice came from behind.

Quintina turned and saw James. Then, she asked, "What happened?"

"I don't have time. I'll bring you to the Celestial Abode now."

James grabbed Quintina's arm. Then, powerful energy materialized from within the Celestial Abode and dragged Quintina into the abode.

Boom!

From afar, a wave of Demonic Energy shredded through the air and struck the mountain, which instantly disintegrated.

Meanwhile, many cultivators perished at the hands of the Demonic Energy before they could flee.

James furrowed his eyebrows.

How could he simply leave them to their own fate?

After a brief hesitation, the Celestial Abode grew increasingly in size. Soon, it transformed into an abode a hundred meters in height that floated in the air. Then, the gates opened.

Standing in mid-air, James yelled, “Quick, enter the golden door!”

Upon seeing the golden Celestial Abode floating in the air, the panicking cultivators hesitated momentarily. However, as they sensed the battle aura getting stronger and stronger, they hurriedly rushed toward the Celestial Abode.

Soon, they were inside the abode.

James stored the Celestial Abode away and turned to leave.

Swoosh!

Marquis, who was engaged in a fierce battle against Farley, was distracted when he saw James flee.

Then, a black aura rushed toward James. The black aura changed constantly and formed some ancient and complex symbols that possessed mysterious and profound power. As the symbols overwhelmed James, he could feel he was being trapped in mid-air and could not even catalyze True Energy.

Just as the black symbols descended from the sky and were about to crash into James, the headmaster appeared. Powerful True Energy gathered in his palm, and he deflected the black symbols.

Meanwhile, the pressure on James dissipated.

The headmaster looked at him and said, "Leave now, James."

James obeyed.

With the headmaster's assistance, he hurriedly left.

Soon, he arrived outside the Divinity Sect. However, the entire place was surrounded by a group of men in black robes. Standing in mid-air was the Demon Race's Protector James had encountered at Mount Walvern.

"I can't leave now..."

James' face paled. There was nowhere else for him to run.

He returned to the Divinity Sect once more. However, a fierce battle had broken out. The Divinity Sect's Patriarch had joined forces with Marquis Tenzin to fight against the other cultivators.

Mount Divinity disintegrated. The battle aura was so overwhelming that even James' blood ran cold. He did not dare wander about.

After diving into a pile of rubble, he entered the Celestial Abode, which gradually shrank until it was the size of a grain of sand hidden deep beneath the rubble.

At the same time, many cultivators were gathered inside the Celestial Abode. They wore baffled looks on their faces as they had no idea what had happened.

On the mountain outside the city, everyone looked at one another.

At that moment, James appeared. Immediately, everyone swarmed toward him.

"What's going on, James?"

Among them were Harold Carmelo, the Grand Supernatural of the Divinity Sect, and others such as Loki Xabi, Demetrius Lev, and Quintina.

The moment he appeared, Quintina grabbed his arm firmly.

"Tell me what's going on, James!"

“Woah, calm down!” James gently patted Quintina’s hand and said, “A woman should be gentle, or else you won’t be able to get married.”

Quintina released her grip and said, “Cut the cr*p and tell me what’s going on!”

Everyone’s gaze was fixed on James, who narrated the chain of events that unfolded- from how he rescued Farley Gideon at the Ancient Clan, how Marquis Tenzin was scared off by his token, to the Divinity Sect’s conspiracy.

“What? It was you all along?”

Quintina was stunned.

Some who were doubtful said, “How can this be? The Divine Holy Emperor is a well-respected figure in the Ancient Realm. How could he have colluded with the Demon Race?”

Harold said, “That’s right, I don’t believe you. My master isn’t that sort of person.”

James said coldly, “Are you guys dumb or what? He was the one who chose the Grand Tournament’s location. Could he really not know that there was a Demon Race camp in Mount Walvern? It’s obvious he sent us to our deaths. If it wasn’t for me, all of you would have died long ago.

“Besides, the Demon Race has already surrounded the Divinity Sect. Do you have any idea how fierce the battle outside is?”

Unwilling to prolong the conversation any longer, James descended the mountain and headed toward the city.

Quintina chased after him and grabbed his arm, pleading, “James, you have to save my father.”

Upon hearing this, James stopped in his tracks and said, “You must be kidding me. Your father is the greatest figure in the Ancient Realm, whereas I have only recently reached the Immortal Ascension rank. I haven’t reached the Mage Rank.”

James had no idea what was going on outside, but he did not wish to concern himself with the affairs of the outside world. Since he had no wish to die, he did not want to leave the Celestial Abode. The moment he took even a step out, the Demon Race could annihilate him easily. At least he would be able to guarantee his own safety by remaining hidden inside. Based on his plan, he would only leave the Celestial Abode only after it was safe outside.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2325—As for the fate of everyone outside, James could not care less. He was not a savior. As for these cultivators here, he only saved them incidentally within the range of his abilities.

As this was the Celestial Abode, James disappeared and reappear in the City Lord's Mansion in the blink of an eye.

“James!”

Quintina stomped her feet.

Meanwhile, Henry and Delainey were in the courtyard of the City Lord's Mansion. Though the two entered the Celestial Abode, they had no idea what had happened.

James walked in.

Immediately, Delainey stood up and asked, “What's wrong, James? What happened outside?”

James narrated the chain of events that unfolded. Hearing this, they finally understood.

James said, “The Ancient Realm is in chaos, and there's a high possibility that this place might be conquered by the Demon Race. Meanwhile, my identity has been exposed, and the Demon Race wishes to exterminate me. I can't stay here any longer. Once the battle outside dies down, I'll find an opportunity to leave.”

He came to the Ancient Realm in search of a place to cultivate in peace. Now, he could no longer remain here. He would be able to remain if Farley won. However, if he was defeated, James would have to flee.

Over the next few days, James paid close attention to the battle outside. As he was the master of the Celestial Abode, he could sense the situation outside, where a tremendous and terrifying battle raged on.

The Divine Holy Emperor colluded with the Demon Race and even sacrificed the entire Divinity Sect to obtain the Demon Race's cultivation method.

Under Farley's leadership, cultivators from all over the world fought on.

However, the Demon Race had Marquis Tenzin, the Divine Holy Emperor, the Protector, and many others. No matter how strong Farley was, the cultivators who fought alongside him gradually lost ground.

After a few days of battle, the Ancient Realm suffered tremendous losses.

In the end, realizing the defeat was inevitable, Farley fled alongside a few cultivators.

The Divinity Sect was reduced to rubble, while the mountains had disintegrated.

The Divine Holy Emperor was covered in wounds, and he lost one of his arms. At that moment, he sat in a lotus position in the rubble and healed his injuries.

Meanwhile, Marquis and the Protector were standing beside him. Some members of the Demon Race were also cleaning up the battlefield.

Marquis said, "Protector, although we failed to completely annihilate Farley and the others, they were severely injured and no longer pose a threat to us."

The Protector waved his hand slightly and said, "Now's not the time to celebrate. Our next objective is the Welkin Academy. Once we annihilate them, we'll move on to the Ancient Clan. When that happens, the Ancient Realm will be in our hands. And when the seal is released, we will conquer Earth."

"Reporting!"

At that moment, a member of the Demon Race walked over to them and knelt, "Despite having searched the rubble, we found no trace of James Caden."

Hearing this, the Protector furrowed his eyebrows and said, "He must be here somewhere. We have completely surrounded the area. There's no way he can leave."

Marquis said, "While we were fighting against Farley Gideon, I noticed a golden building in the air where many sought refuge. If I'm guessing correctly, that should be James' treasure. He should be hidden inside it right now."

The Protector's face darkened as he said, "James Caden must die. Although he has the Demonic Body and has obtained the recognition of some among the Demon Race, as well as possessing the Supreme Token, my higher-ups ordered me to take his life. The Azurean Clan has taken an interest in him, but the clan is on bad terms with us, the Hadean Clan."
