The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2331—Quintina had strongly requested it, so James had no choice but to let her into the Celestial Abode.

Then, James turned around and left. After determining the direction, he moved forward quickly.

His appearance had already been leaked. If he walked around in the Ancient Realm like this, his whereabouts might be discovered. So, he made a mask.

It was a silver-colored mask that obscured half of his face. Only the bottom half of his face was visible.

A day later, James appeared in a city. Since he was unfamiliar with the Ancient Realm, he needed to purchase a map in order to locate the Welkin Academy.

Even though he was currently a cultivator, he still needed to eat. It was a habit he had picked up on Earth. After not eating for a while, his heart felt empty, as if he had lost something.

The city in the Ancient Realm was quite prosperous. There was a lot of foot traffic.

In a restaurant in the city, a man in a black robe and a half-silver mask was savoring some delectable fare slowly in a corner.

Many people had gathered in the restaurant and were chattering idly.

“Have you heard? The Divinity Sect was destroyed.”

“Mhm. I knew. I’ve heard it was destroyed by the Demon Race. The Demon Race surrounded and attacked the Divinity Sect. The battle was joined by extremely powerful cultivators from the Ancient Realm, but everyone died.”

The people who had gathered mostly talked about the Divinity Sect. However, nobody was aware of the truth behind the incident.

After hearing all this, James said nothing and took a spiritual berry from the Celestial Abode. He then casually tossed it on the table as payment for his meal.

He exited the restaurant, went to a grocery store in the city, and bought a detailed map of the Ancient Realm.

Once he walked out of the city, he looked intently at the map he was holding.

After determining his location, he discovered that it was quite far from the Welkin Academy. Even with his current strength, it would take him about ten days to arrive if he traveled as quickly as he could.

“I hope the Welkin Academy is alright.”

James folded the map and hurried off.

For the following ten days or so, James traveled quickly.

The Welkin Academy was the most powerful academy in this realm. It was not any weaker than the Divinity Sect; in fact, it was even more powerful.

Near the Welkin Academy was a city as well. Its name was Moonlit City.

James arrived in Moonlit City. However, the once—bustling city had become a ghost town. No one could be found in the vast city.

Clip clop, clip clop.

The sound of footsteps came from a distance.

James, who was standing in the city, turned to look. In the distance, a cavalry was approaching. There were about fifty cavalymen, all warriors on horses and clad in armor.

The warriors charged toward James and surrounded him.

The general in the lead shouted coldly, “Who are you? What brought you to Moonlit City?”

James was well aware that Moonlit City was managed by the Welkin Academy. The cultivators of Moonlit City had been evacuated, and only some warriors remained to patrol. This meant that Farley, the headmaster, and the others had returned.

As a precaution against the Demon Race, they had evacuated everyone.

James was also aware that these were warriors of the Welkin Academy.

He took off his mask and revealed his face. Looking at the warriors, he said, “I’m James Caden, a disciple of Welkin Academy’s Sect Elder Yoan Xenocrates. I’ve just escaped from the Divinity Sect.”

“James Caden?”

The warrior in the lead was slightly stunned. Clearly, he had heard of James. However, he had never seen him.

The warrior in the lead put away the long sword he was holding, reached out, and some symbols appeared on his palm. Immediately after, a light beam of True Energy shot up into the clouds.

James was aware that he was informing the senior authorities of the Welkin Academy.

He waited patiently

After about ten minutes of waiting, several people came flying in from the distance.

These people were fast. They were far away, but in the blink of an eye, they appeared in Moonlit City

James saw them as well. They were Farley Gideon, the headmaster, and his master.

He walked over and greeted them, "Master, Headmaster, Mr. Gideon."

Farley appeared in front of James and asked, "James, you're finally back. Where's Quintina?"

James did not try to hide anything from these people. He took the ring off his finger, and it transformed into the Celestial Abode. The Celestial Abode grew larger and larger. Then he spoke with Sophie and requested that she let Quintina out.

Everyone present was astounded to see such a treasure in James' possession. However, they were only astounded. They made no comment about it.

Soon, Quintina appeared.

"Father." As soon as Quintina appeared, she noticed Farley. She said cheerfully, her face beaming, "You're fine. Great. This is wonderful."

The headmaster stepped forward and said, "Alright, let's talk after we get back to Welkin Academy."

"Mhm." James nodded.

Following that, James returned to Welkin Academy, led by the headmaster and Farley.

The Welkin Academy had become heavily fortified. Outside the Welkin Academy, there was a powerful Magic Circle. Farley and the headmaster, as well as powerful cultivators from around the world, formed this Magic Circle to thwart the attack of Demon Race powerhouses.

At Welkin Academy's main peak, the headmaster, Farley, Yoan, James, and Quintina gathered in the main hall.

Farley looked at James and said, "James, Welkin Academy will become a battlefield very soon. This place is not suitable for a long stay. You should leave."

"I'm worried something happened to the academy as well, so I came back to take a look," James explained.

The headmaster said, "In the last few years, the Demon Race has been active. The Divine Holy Emperor colluded with the Demon Race, and as a result, this realm has suffered a great deal. Many powerful cultivators were killed in the battle at the Divinity Sect."

"Mhm." Yoan agreed and said, "We've decided to fight to the death against the Demon Race. The location will be Welkin Academy. Welkin Academy students were all evacuated to a safe location. Now we're waiting for the army of the Demon Race to arrive at Welkin Academy."

Only when he learned that all of the students at Welkin Academy had been evacuated did James feel relieved. He came because he was concerned about Melany as well.

The headmaster took out a token and handed it to James.

James was slightly taken aback. He asked, "What's this?"

The headmaster said, "This is the key to the Dragon Abyss. Once every fifty years, the Dragon Abyss is opened. Welkin Academy hosted the most recent Grand Tournament, which is why the token was in my possession. The Divinity Sect was in trouble before I could hand over the token. I'm giving you the token right now. You can travel to the Dragon Abyss with the token, unlock the Dragon Abyss, and go inside to cultivate for a while."

James accepted the token.

The token was only the size of a palm. It was bronze in color and inscribed with some mysterious writings.

Farley explained, "The Dragon Abyss is a holy site for cultivation in the Ancient Realm. It has been passed down since ancient times. Many powerful cultivators have visited the Dragon Abyss and cultivated there. The Dragon Abyss is situated on an island in the Endless Sea.

"The island is surrounded by an enigmatic Magic Circle. Nobody has the ability to open the Magic Circle. Only those who have the token are able to unlock it."

"Mhm." The headmaster nodded and said, "You have now been given the token. Take Quintina and cultivate there for a while. Then, as quickly as possible, leave the Ancient Realm and return to Earth. The Ancient Realm will soon descend into chaos. You shouldn't stay here."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2333—The Welkin Academy had already made the necessary arrangements for its disciples.

The people who remained at Welkin Academy were all powerful cultivators. These cultivators came from all over the world, not just Welkin Academy.

Now that the Ancient Realm was about to fall into chaos, the headmaster and the others could no longer care about the Dragon Abyss. Instead, they gave James the token to unlock the Dragon Abyss.

The headmaster said, "The Dragon Abyss can only be accessed once every fifty years. When it's time to unlock it, the token is required. If the Dragon Abyss is not opened during that time, there will be a wait of fifty years before it can be opened again. According to my calculations, the time has come to unlock the Dragon Abyss. There's still a month before it closes. You can still make it if you hurry now. If the time has passed, you won't be able to open it even with the token."

James did not object and immediately responded, "Okay. If that's the case, I'll head over to Dragon Abyss right away."

When he said that, he looked over at Quintina, who was standing aside and asked, "What is it? Are you not leaving right now?"

"Father, take care." Quintina looked reluctant to part with Farley.

Farley's face was filled with adoration. He said, "Quintina, you're a Grand Supernatural. You have boundless potential. You don't belong in the Ancient Realm. You belong on Earth. You should go to Earth and compete with the prodigies of the Three Thousand Worlds for providence and opportunities."

Farley only gave her a few succinct instructions.

Following that, James and Quintina left Welkin Academy. After they walked out of the Magic Circle, Quintina looked at James and asked, "Do you have a magical flying tool?"

James shook his head. It was something he did not have.

After learning that, Quintina raised her hand. A green ray of light emanated from the ring on her finger, and a small airship appeared in James' sight.

This airship was not very large. It resembled a skiff.

James looked confused. He asked, "What's this?"

"This is the magical flying tool gifted to me by my father," Quintina explained, "It flies quickly and requires very little energy."

As she said this, she boarded the airship. James followed suit. Although the airship was small, it had no trouble carrying two people at once.

After James boarded the airship, Quintina set the airship in motion. The airship rose slowly into the sky before heading towards the Dragon Abyss.

The airship was very fast. James could feel the wind force while sitting on the airship. However, such a small amount of wind resistance was insignificant to him.

"You guys certainly know how to have a good time." James was seated on the airship. He looked at Quintina and said, smiling, "I didn't expect this thing to actually fly. It can even move at such a high speed."

Quintina rolled her eyes at James. Even though the magical flying tool was uncommon, it was an essential item for a powerful cultivator.

She did not say anything else on this topic. Instead, she changed the topic and asked, "What is the Earth like? Can you tell me about it?"

As the daughter of the top cultivator in the Ancient Realm, she knew about Earth. She was also aware that the Ancient Realm was a Sealed Realm, that there were three thousand worlds just like it, and that all three thousand Sealed Realms had once been Earth's territory.

She also knew that once the seal was broken, the three thousand Sealed Realms would merge with Earth.

However, she had no idea what Earth was like.

“Earth...”

James started to get lost in his thought.

He eventually said after some time, “Earth was once in the age of technology. Humans had very little fighting ability. There were almost no cultivators. Even now, humans on Earth have yet to enter the age of cultivation. Only a small number of people became cultivators.”

James began to talk briefly about Earth. He talked about some of the technology used there and took out his phone as he spoke.

However, the battery on his phone had long since run out. He took out the power bank he had prepared and charged his phone. After about ten minutes, he turned on his phone, opened the camera app, and snapped a photo of Quintina.

Then, he gave Quintina the phone to look at.

Quintina took a look at the image of herself on the phone, and a look of surprise appeared on her pretty face. “Th—This is amazing. It looks exactly like me.”

James said with a smile, “It is you. This is a camera.”

Her question left James at a loss.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2334—He started to explain. After explaining for a while, Quintina still did not seem to fully understand.

“I still don’t quite get it.” Quintina shook her head.

James said, “You don’t have to understand right now. Everything will make sense after you go to Earth and live there for a while. In short, Earth is a wonderful place. You’ll definitely enjoy it once you’ve been there.”

The airship was flying at its highest speed.

After chatting with Quintina, James started to close his eyes and rest. Then, he entered the cultivation state.

“You’re cultivating even while traveling. Boring.” Quintina pouted involuntarily.

There was no mishap on the way to the Dragon Abyss.

After about eight days, the airship appeared at the Endless Sea. It was a vast ocean. At first glance, there appeared to be no end in sight. Now, they only needed to move forward for three days before reaching the Dragon Abyss.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

James and Quintina appeared on the island where the Dragon Abyss was located.

“James, we’re here,” Quintina’s voice rang out.

James stopped cultivating and looked up. Straight in front of him was an island. The island was massive Its perimeter was not in sight.

Some mysterious white aureoles could be seen around the island. There were some enigmatic characters in the aureoles.

“Is this the Dragon Abyss?”

James looked ahead and asked, “Quintina, what’s the origin of the Dragon Abyss?”

Quintina thought for a while and said, “I’m not sure either. I’ve only heard my father say that the Dragon Abyss has existed since ancient times. It’s always been a holy site for cultivation in the Ancient Realm.

“My father told me that there are many powerful cultivators hidden in the Ancient Realm.

“These cultivators have been around since the Primordial Age. However, these cultivators are almost entirely in seclusion and rarely venture outside.

“Father said that in the Dragon Abyss, a true powerhouse is hidden. He’s of the Dragon Race.

“He’s very strong, but I have no idea what rank his strength has reached.

“And deep underground on the island where the Dragon Abyss is located, there is the Dragon Vein. The Dragon Vein will continuously emit Dragon Energy, and the Dragon Energy will gather within the island Dragon Energy can not only enhance one’s True Essence, but it can also improve one’s physical body.”

Quintina gave a brief introduction to the Dragon Abyss.

After listening, James gained a general understanding of the Dragon Abyss.

Quintina put away the airship.

The two stood on the surface of the sea. Just as James was about to take out the token to unlock the Dragon Abyss, a person walked over from the distance.

This person was dressed in a black robe. He appeared to be very young. On his face, there was even a hint of childishness. He looked quite handsome, but there was a slightly evil tinge to his handsome face.

This person walked over to them, step by step, on the surface of the ocean. Soon, he appeared in front of James and Quintina.

“Lucifer Menachem?”

When he saw this person, James unconsciously furrowed his brow.

Quintina heard James’ words and was secretly shocked. She had never met Lucifer, but she had heard of him. He was the person the Demon Race attempted to resurrect.

Lucifer walked over with his hands behind his back. With his gaze resting on James, he said casually, “I’ve been waiting for you for a long time.”

James looked at him and asked, “Why? Did you know I was coming?”

“I didn’t. I knew someone was coming, but I didn’t expect it to be you. I never thought you’d be so lucky. You even managed to escape from the Divinity Sect. Looks like my father made the right decision. You are a man of great fortune.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2335—James locked his gaze on Lucifer.

Lucifer was too unusual. He was the son of the Demon Emperor. He was the sole descendant of the Demon Emperor. With such an identity, he would always be a blasphemous presence, no matter where he was.

“I saved you, and you want to kill me?” questioned James.

“No.”

Lucifer's expression was calm. He said, "I never gave the order to kill you. The ones who want to kill you. are the other members of my race, because the token in your hands belongs to the Azurean Clan, and the clan I belong to is the Hadean Clan.

"We are all of the Demon Race. However, since the battle in ancient times, and after my father died in the battle, my clan's standing in the Demon Race plummeted, and my clan began to be suppressed. This caused friction between the two clans."

Only after hearing that did James understand. There were actually different clans within the DERNON Race

"Besides, I believe you won't die." Lucifer smiled faintly.

"Why?" asked James.

Lucifer pointed at the sky.

With a puzzled expression on his face, James raised his head and looked up. He had no idea what Lucifer meant.

"Destiny," Lucifer said nonchalantly. "I don't know what fortune awaits you or what opportunities you will encounter. However, given that your soul has perfectly merged with the physical body reconstructed by the Demonic Lotus, you are a man of great fortune. The Heavenly Path is on your side. Simply put, such a person as yourself is blessed by the Heavenly Path."

"Why?" James still did not understand.

Lucifer explained, "Because your body is stained with powerful Karma. When there is a cause, there is an effect It's impossible for your life to end like this. You'll have to resolve this Karma and put an end to it.

"Let's put everything else aside and simply talk about your body.

"Do you truly believe that acquiring the Demonic Lotus and reconstructing your physical body was your stroke of luck and a boon?

"Indeed, it is a stroke of luck and a boon to you. However, the moment you obtained the Demonic Body, it was predetermined what you will have to bear as a result of it.

"This is Karma.

"And your Karma is already powerful enough. If you die, the future might be fraught with some uncertainties. Thus, the Heavenly Path will protect you when you are still weak. Do you understand?"

James did not seem to fully understand.

“Never mind. Even after I explain it to you, you still don’t understand. It will make sense to you in the future,” said Lucifer.

The truth was that he, too, did not fully understand these. He was only slightly more informed because he had a father who was a Demon Emperor.

James asked, “Then why did you come here?”

Lucifer turned around to face the island behind him. He said, “I’m here for the Dragon Abyss, of course. The Dragon Vein is beneath the Dragon Abyss. I plan to transplant the Dragon Vein into my body.”

He was talking about it casually.

Quintina and James’ expressions, on the other hand, had changed.

‘Transplant the Dragon Vein into his own body? How insane would someone have to be to say something so outrageous?’

Lucifer muttered to himself, “I was born a little late. I’ve already missed the providence of the First Calamity on Earth. According to my understanding, the Earth’s Second Calamity has already occurred. After the disaster, providence will appear. I have to move the Dragon Vein into my body and quickly improve my strength so that I can fight for the providence that is going to appear.”

Lucifer was the son of the Demon Emperor.

Blood of the Demon Emperor was coursing through his body.

However, he was very young when he was sealed away. As a result, his strength was not quite powerful. James took a deep breath.
