

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2361

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2361—The beasts invading the Southwest Province were not very strong. Most of them were Supernaturals, but even so, they were still much stronger than the humans trying to fend them off.

Although humans had entered the age of cultivation, they hardly had enough time to improve their strength. In general, the humans were still relatively weak and were only considered martial artists; not proper cultivators.

James swung his sword.

His devastating Sword Energy took out a significant number of beasts.

James hovered in mid-air, and his long sword continuously sent out Sword Energy, efficiently slaughtering the rampaging beasts. This scene was broadcasted live and spectated by humans and beasts all over the world.

Meanwhile, other beasts attacking different cities were bombarded by high-powered artillery and ended up suffering heavy casualties. At that moment, they were still driven to continue their attacks for a while longer.

When the Elephant King realized that his army would not be able to conquer the Southwest Province, he bellowed in rage, “Don’t let up for a moment! Send out our strongest fighters to repel the human’s missiles!”

As a powerful beast, he had knowledge of the human’s ace in the hole.

Their most potent weapons were incapable of damaging beasts above the Immortal Ascension rank. By sending out beasts above said rank, he could easily take over the cities.

“Masked Warrior, I advise you to surrender. If you comply, I’ll only occupy the Southwest Province and won’t touch the humans. If you refuse, I’ll seize the Southwest Province and leave mountains of corpses everywhere.”

The Elephant King threatened James.

Hearing this, James gritted his teeth.

He was torn at that moment.

If he surrendered, the Southwest Province would fall. Then after that, the whole country and then the rest of the world would follow suit.

If they failed to defend the Southwest Province, and the missiles are unable to stop the Elephant King's army, then the humans in the Southwest Province would definitely suffer. It was not just a handful of people but tens of thousands of human lives, possibly even billions that he would be consigning to that fate.

"What do I do?"

James had a dilemma.

He wanted to stand their ground but was afraid the humans of the Southwest Province would be doomed because of his decision.

"Masked Warrior, you'd better consider carefully. Will you surrender, or shall I continue my assault on the Southwest Province?"

The Elephant King warned him once more.

He was forcing James to make a decision.

James took a deep breath.

With a resolute expression, he proclaimed, "Even if we fall in battle, we won't concede! Do you have the guts to reveal where you are, Elephant King?"

After hearing the Elephant King's taunting, James decided to fight to the bitter end and was not willing to surrender. If he compromised, the situation would get worse and out of control.

Even if tens of thousands of soldiers had to be sacrificed in battle, he would not bow to these beasts.

He would never surrender.

"Haha, why not?"

The Elephant King was also broadcasting live. He declared to everyone watching his broadcast, "I'm on Mount Mala in the Southwest Province. Masked Warrior, if you dare to show up, I'll make sure you return in a body bag!"

"Kill him!"

"Overtake them!"

"Destroy the humans!"

A large number of beasts rushed over from a distance. The strength of these newly-arrived troops was much stronger than that of the previous troops. The leader of these beasts had reached the Immortal Ascension stage.

“After I get rid of you guys, I’ll make my way to Mount Mala.”

James’ face was serious. He held his long sword and leaped forward.

With his sword, he charged at the army of millions of beasts.

His Sword Energy constantly rushed forth, leaving corpses of dead beasts in its wake.

More beast armies also appeared around different regions. Wherever the beast army went, everything would be left in tatters.

In the beginning, human weapons were capable of resisting the beast army. However, the beastfolk’s powerhouses were now among those in the army. These insanely strong individuals used their strength to deflect human weapons. Eventually, they reached the human cities.

One of the cities, Lanbergh City, used to have a population of 8,000,000 people.

Although many of the city’s citizens died during the calamity’s onset, 5,000,000 people still lived there. Out of 5,000,000 people, only 2,000,000 of them had evacuated, and the remainder was still within the city.

The beast army rushed into the city, and the military region now hesitated to launch their missiles.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2362

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2362–The beast army went on a frenzied massacre in the city.

In just a day, they ruthlessly slaughtered 3,000,000 people.

Meanwhile, James fought fiercely the entire day. He faced thousands of beasts on his own and they all died at his hands.

“James, Lanbergh City has fallen, and millions of humans were heartlessly killed.”

The Elephant King threatened, “Masked Warrior, the humans in Lanbergh City died because of you. It’s not too late to surrender now. If you don’t, more of earth’s humans will die because of your hubris.”

“Let’s surrender, James.”

Henry watched the deaths of countless humans through satellite footage in the military region. He shed tears as he looked at the streets of Lanbergh City stained with blood and corpses heaped into rotting piles everywhere.

“The beasts are too strong. Humans are still too weak. Not everyone can fight against them like you. If you continue to battle, the entire Southwest Province might really collapse, and you’ll have to shoulder the deaths of innumerable people.”

The Blithe King also advised him, “James, I agree we should surrender. We should at least do our best to keep the remaining humans alive.”

Hearing the pleas coming from his transceiver, James’ eyes began to fill with tears.

“Surrender? Is that truly our only option?”

“Argh!!! Why has it come to this?!”

James lamented loudly.

His shout contained his feelings of helplessness and his unwillingness to simply give up.

“Stop the massacre, Elephant King. I surrender.”

With the fall of Lanbergh City, James relented to the beasts.

“Excellent choice. You’re quite sensible, Masked Warrior. I only want to occupy the Southwest Province. I don’t want to slaughter needlessly, either. I shall now take over the Southwest Province. From today onward, all the humans in this area will bow to me.”

James clenched his fists tightly as he heard the Elephant King’s bold proclamation.

Although the humans would be enslaved, they could at least survive for now.

The whole world watched the outcome battle.

Humans worldwide were watching James in his Masked Warrior appearance. Although he surrendered and consigned hundreds of millions of humans to the fate of slavery, no one blamed him.

He stood up to fight back for humanity in such desperate times and as such, was already considered humanity’s hero.

They did not condemn him and understood there was nothing he could do since these beasts had such overwhelming strength.

After surrendering, James turned off the live broadcast.

He stood on top of the pile of the beast corpses and began to cry.

He wept in sadness and frustration.

Throughout the years, he had not shed a tear. No matter how badly injured or how much he was suffering, he was never reduced to tears. However, right then, he could not help but lament miserably.

He was powerless while humanity faced a catastrophe.

"No, James. You can't give up yet!

"You still have other things you could use.

"I still have the four hundred thousand soldiers. If I deploy them, I can surely defeat the Elephant King. Even if I have to sacrifice these soldiers, I must win the battle."

James' mind spun in circles.

Two voices argued with each other in his mind, constantly agonizing over whether to fight to the end or to compromise.

James was troubled and unsure of what to do.

"What should I do, Ms. Sophie?"

James forlornly turned to Sophie in the Celestial Abode.

Sophie's voice came from the Celestial Abode. "The calamity has only just begun, James. Humans being enslaved by non-human races is inevitable. There's nothing you or anyone else can do to change it."

"What should I do then? Should I fight until the bitter end?"

The tears in James' eyes had not yet dried.

Sophie fell silent.

After a few seconds, she said, "I don't know either. It's up to you. If you want to fight to the end, then do it. If you want to give up, that's fine too. You can save your strength to deal with the next, larger crisis."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2363

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2363—Sophie did not give James much helpful suggestions.

Her only advice was for James to follow his heart.

James sat on the ground and casually took off the silver-white mask on his face, then began to ponder deeply.

He sat in place for three hours.

Eventually, he stood up.

Sol could fall and the Southwest Province could be subjugated, but James himself could not surrender.

The Elephant King was currently in Mount Mala.

There was only one way to solve this disaster, and that was to kill the Elephant King. Once the Elephant King had been eliminated, the beast army would have no leader, and would automatically retreat from the human cities.

The only drawback for James was the fact that this plan would expose his identity.

Exposing his identity was a small price to pay for a clear conscience. He was unwilling to let millions of humans fall into ruin just because he prioritized hiding his identity.

After he made his decision, James pulled out his phone and brought up a map. He scanned it and quickly found his destination. Then, he put away his phone, jumped into the air, and flew toward Mount Mala.

He mobilized his True Energy and traveled very rapidly. With a single step, he appeared a hundred meters away. In just a few steps, he had completely left the area.

Half an hour later, he arrived outside Mount Mala.

Mount Mala was a famous mountain in the Southwest Province. With the onset of the apocalypse, many unknown mountains surfaced around Mount Mala.

These mountains were directly connected to Mount Mala and were not sealed. Thus, humans from earth could freely pass through.

James looked at the towering mountain ahead. With an unusually calm expression, he took out his phone and called Henry.

“James.”

Henry’s voice replied his call.

James ordered, “Henry, evacuate along with the Blithe King.”

“You don’t have to worry about us, James. The Blithe King and I escape at anytime.”

-“Beep...Beep...Beep...”

James simply hung up without a word.

Then, he walked toward Mount Mala with a couple of strides. As soon as he entered Mount Mala, he encountered a multitude of beasts. There were many different types of beasts, but the ones primarily guarding Mount Mala were an army of ants.

These ants were not ordinary ants but had clearly evolved miraculously.

Every ant was about several meters long and had a pitch black body. They had scales all over their bodies and a menacing air.

An ant beastman found James and walked over as he demanded, “Who are you?! How dare you get approach Mount Mala? This is the territory of the Elephant King. Leave at once!”

The ant beastman had a human body and an ant head. It was the leader of the ant army and was relatively strong. It reached Immortal Ascension, and it could sense that James possessed powerful energy.

If James had been any weaker, it would not waste its time shouting at James and would have directly killed him instead.

It knew it was no match for James, but they both were on Mount Mala which was the Elephant King’s territory. Since he served the Elephant King, he did not take James seriously.

James looked at the ant beastfolk and the horde of giant ants behind him. With a level expression, he said, “I’m James, the King of Sol and Emperor of Wrymstead.”

James did not appear as the Masked Warrior but under his actual identity.

"I'm here to see the Elephant King. He sent troops to attack the Southwest Province of Sol. I'm demanding an explanation."

James spoke very calmly. It was impossible to sense the fury in his heart.

"You're the King of Sol, the Emperor of Wrymstead?"

The antman looked at James suspiciously. The ant had only recently acquired some strength and was unaware of who James was. He was also unaware of James' strength. He simply knew the humans had a powerful country and that its name was Wrymstead.

However, Wrymstead's Emperor had long vanished.

Sensing James' intimidating aura, the antman acted with caution. It replied James, "Wait here. I'll go report it."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2364

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2364—After the ant finished speaking, it left.

At that moment, a thuggish man kneeled on the ground of Mount Mala's peak.

A young man sat in front of the main hall, playing around with a dagger in his hand. He wore a black robe and had a youthful face.

The thuggish man kneeling on the ground was the Elephant King, who had transformed into a human.

Meanwhile, the young man was none other than the one who benefited the most from Earth's Second Calamity, Lucifer.

"Master Lucifer."

The Elephant King kneeled on the ground in his human form and addressed him respectfully, "The strongest human on Earth, the Masked Warrior, has surrendered. My troops from Mount Mala have already entered and occupied the Southwest Province."

Lucifer lightly gripped his dagger and said nonchalantly, "Are the humans of Earth so fragile?"

"Reporting, sir!"

At that moment, the ant man walked into the hall and kneeled on the floor.

“Elephant King, Master Lucifer, a human of Earth, has appeared outside the mountain. He claims to be Wrymstead’s Emperor and the King of Sol. His name is James. He said he came to seek an explanation for why the Elephant King sent troops to occupy Sol.”

The Elephant King, who was in his human form, immediately stood up. His thuggish face darkened, and he said menacingly, “He sounds like he wants to die!”

Sitting in front of the main hall, Lucifer smirked and said, “James has finally shown himself. I wonder how strong has he gotten?”

The Elephant King immediately rose up to the task as he said, “Master Lucifer, I’ll go kill that guy right now.”

Lucifer waved his hand and said, “Go ahead but be careful. James won’t be an easy opponent.”

“Don’t worry, Master Lucifer.”

The Elephant King was confident.

He did not consider this human from Earth a proper threat.

He would not cower even if the Masked Warrior that killed the Weasel King appeared, let alone James.

James was not in a hurry and waited patiently outside Mount Mala.

He waited for ten minutes.

Ten minutes later, a thuggish man dressed in a gray robe appeared. The man’s skin was incredibly red, as if he had been sunburnt.

The Elephant King appeared outside the mountain and looked at James, who showed a calm expression. Then, he said disdainfully, “You’re James? The King of Sol, and Wrymstead’s Emperor?”

With his hands behind him, James replied, “That’s right. It’s me.”

“Haha! You came at the right time. I’m going to kill you today.”

The Elephant King let out a loud chortle.

James raised his hand and said, “Hold on.”

“What’s wrong? Do you have any last words?” The Elephant King did not immediately launch an attack but instead, looked at James mockingly.

James said, "How about we make a bet, Elephant King?"

Hearing this, a smug smirk formed on the Elephant King's face. He replied, "A bet? I don't make bets with weaklings."

"Haha."

James also smiled faintly and said, "Are you scared you'll lose?"

Infuriated, the Elephant King immediately said, "Absolutely not. What do you want?"

James said, "The bet will be very simple. We shall both do battle. If I win, your beast army will have to leave the human cities and never appear in human territory ever again."

"Haha..."

The Elephant King laughed and asked, "What if I win?"

James replied, "If you win, Sol and Wrymstead will belong to you."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2365

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2365—James' spoke in a measured tone.

"Alright."

The Elephant King looked at James and said with a smile, "Since you've already challenged me, I'll look like a coward if I don't accept. Let's do it. If I lose to you, my troops will immediately withdraw from the Southwest Province."

"It's not just a simple match. It'll be a duel to the death."

James added an important clause.

The simply winning a match would not solve the problem at hand.

He wanted to have fight to the death and kill the Elephant King.

Only by doing so will he be able to deter the other beasts from acting.

"You've finally shown yourself, James."

At that moment, a crisp voice rang out.

James turned toward the sound and saw a young man in a black robe not far from them. He recognized the man with a single glance. It was Lucifer, the person he resurrected in the Ancient Realm.

Moreover, he was the one that had benefitted tremendously from the earth's Second Calamity.

James looked at Lucifer and asked, "Why are you here?"

Lucifer smiled faintly and replied, "That's besides the point. I approve the duel between you and the Elephant King. The beast army will immediately withdraw from the Southwest Province if you manage to kill him."

Lucifer was not joking.

It was no secret that he obtained the Elysian Inscription.

All beasts on the Earth were under his command.

A single word would be all it took and these beasts would no longer step into human territory.

James looked at Lucifer and immediately understood that the Elephant King attacked a human territory under Lucifer's orders.

Had he known this would happen, he would not have resurrected Lucifer.

However, it was useless to regret it now.

He took a deep breath, calmed down, and said, "Since we're all in agreement, make your move."

"Wait," Lucifer interrupted again.

James looked at him and asked, "What's wrong?"

Lucifer said, "After defeating the Elephant King, the beast army will withdraw from the Southwest Province. If you defeat him and also win against me, beasts will no longer appear in human territory from this day forward."

Hearing this, James cast a glance at Lucifer.

James was not overjoyed about it since he was familiar with Lucifer's background.

Lucifer was the son of the Demon Emperor. He had the blood of a Grand Emperor. Not only that, he was also a terrifying powerhouse who possessed the Elysian Inscription.

James was unable to infer Lucifer's cultivation rank.

"What's Lucifer's cultivation rank, Ms. Sophie?"

He called out to Sophie in the Celestial Abode.

Sophie quickly responded. "He isn't at a high cultivation rank. He just reached the starting point of the Mage Rank.

Hearing this, James heaved a sigh of relief.

Although he was a Demon Emperor's son, James figured he still stood a chance against him.

"Don't underestimate him, James. There's more to him than meets the eye."

"I know."

James stopped talking to Sophie.

Lucifer looked at the James who was staring absentmindedly and asked, "Do you dare accept the challenge, James?"

James replied indifferently, "Sure. Why not?"

Lucifer said again, "If you lose, you must join us and become a member of my

"Alright. I accept your challenge." James nodded.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2366

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2366—James weighed the pros and cons in his mind.

Defeating Lucifer would mean putting a stop to the Second Calamity.

He would have to accept the challenge no matter how things stood.

"Excellent. Since that's the case, let's begin. I'll broadcast both matches live on the internet."

After speaking, Lucifer casually waved his hand.

A woman immediately rushed over, took out her phone, and began filming. Lucifer's account immediately began broadcasting the battle globally.

Lucifer was very famous on Earth, and had over 10,000,000 followers.

As soon as his live broadcast began, it attracted many viewers who were beasts.

"Hello, it's me, Lucifer. Wrymstead's Emperor and the King of Sol, James, has appeared on Mount Mala to challenge the Elephant King. If he wins, the beast army will withdraw from Sol's Southwest Province.

"If he defeats the Elephant King, he'll go against me. If he also wins against me, the beasts will not lay hands on humans from today onward. If he loses, James will join our clan."

Lucifer's voice was carried forth clearly.

Many beasts paid attention to the live broadcast.

Meanwhile, Marcello was in her mansion in Bane City.

Marcello said furiously, "Damn it. Does Lucifer have no shame?! I worked very hard and even gave away my Supreme Token to gain James' favor, hoping he'd turn to us when things get desperate. Yet, Lucifer is recruiting him through such a dirty tactic."

Beside her, Jace said calmly, "Calm down, Marcello. James' body was reconstituted by the Natal Primordial Spirit that used to belong to Lucifer's father. His fate and Karma are entangled with the Hadean Clan's."

At that moment, James stood in place at the foot of Mount Mala. He looked at the thuggish Elephant King that stood at over 200 centimeters tall. He had flushed skin and a full head of black hair, giving him a brutish appearance.

Suddenly, extremely powerful energy was released by the Elephant King.

As soon as the energy was unleashed, James immediately felt crushed under the pressure. It left James out of breath.

"Such tremendous strength." James could not help but gasp in astonishment.

As expected from a beast at the Mage Rank's Second Stage, the Elephant King's energy alone made him feel like he had lost the battle before it began.

He would never be a match against the Elephant King without his extraordinary martial arts skills. The Elephant King could possibly even kill him in one move.

The Elephant King spoke with arrogance and confidence. "I won't show you mercy, human. I'm going to tear you to pieces."

James secretly brought out the Sacrilegious Ascension, and the True Essence hidden within his meridians stirred. The tremendous force broke his spine.

Immediately, powerful Empyrean Spiritual Energy entered his body and rapidly coalesced to form a new spine.

James' strength was now greatly enhanced.

He knew he would not be a match for the Elephant King if he did not use the Sacrilegious Ascension because the divide between their cultivation ranks was too great. This was the only way he knew how to give himself a fighting chance.

From his first vertebra, all the way down to his thirty third vertebra, his spine shattered to pieces instantly.

Using Empyrean Spiritual Energy, his entire spine was reformed. At that moment, he gained immense strength. His energy assimilated with the Empyrean Spiritual Energy. He felt like he embodied both heaven and earth.

Although his cultivation rank was not high, he had condensed his True Essence every step of the way.

This made his strength far beyond those of the same rank.

After he used the Sacrilegious Ascension, his strength doubled, and he no longer felt pressured by the Elephant King, who was a Second Stage Mage.

"This guy..."

Lucifer sensed James' energy continuously increasing and snickered. "This guy sure is something. He learned the closely-kept Divine Ape Race's signature martial art skill. He definitely made full use of his special physical body."

After activating the Sacrilegious Ascension, James stretched out his hand and gestured for his opponent to attack. "Make your move, Elephant King."

The Elephant King also noticed James' energy had grown more potent, but he was not afraid.

"I'll show you pure physical strength."

After speaking, the Elephant King's body flickered, and he immediately appeared in front of James. Despite his brutish and burly appearance, the Elephant King was quick on his feet. He moved as fast as lightning and instantly appeared before James, swinging his massive fist at James.

His fist was imbued with destructive force. His attack drew in the surrounding Empyrean Spiritual Energy and struck James.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2367

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2367–The Elephant King was at the Mage Rank's Second Stage and had immense strength. He could split the heavens with a single punch.

One punch from him was enough to destroy a large human city.

He attacked all his might, and his powerful energy gathered together to strike James.

Before he could land his attack, James sensed the terrifying force from the blow and quickly called upon his energy to block it.

Their fists collided.

Boom!

Two forces crashed into each other and caused an explosion in the air. A great shock wave swept across the mountain range, reducing everything into ruins and rubble.

Some of the beasts in the mountain could not bear the destructive force and were wiped out.

Meanwhile, the other beasts fled for their lives.

Lucifer, who was standing in the distance, was unaffected by the force. A man in black clothes stood before him and unleashed potent energy to form a protective shield, blocking the shockwave.

After an exchange of fists, James' arm throbbed in agony and cracks formed on his hand, quickly spreading throughout his whole body.

His body was forcibly pushed away.

After several thousand meters, he finally dissipated the shock of the impact.

Hurk!

He spat out a mouthful of blood.

James was injured right at the beginning of the fight.

Although he activated Sacrilegious Ascension, his strength was still inferior to the Elephant King. He was injured after they exchanged blows.

“Haha.”

The Elephant King laughed from afar.

“I underestimated you, James. I thought you were weak. I didn’t expect you to withstand even a single blow from me. However, this is just the beginning. I’d like to see how much more of this you can take.”

After the Elephant King spoke, he immediately charged at James again. He was as fast as lightning and appeared above James instantly.

He threw his glowing fist at James.

James’ body flickered, and he quickly dodged the attack.

Boom!

The Elephant King’s fist slammed into the ground and caused it to tremble. A crack appeared on the ground and gradually grew larger; becoming a thousand-meter-long pit.

“He’s so strong.”

James’ expression became solemn. He initially thought he stood a chance against the Elephant King with his exceptional physical strength and the Sacrilegious Ascension. He never expected the Elephant King to be such an overwhelming foe.

Although he activated Sacrilegious Ascension, he was still lacking in terms of strength.

Channeling his thoughts, he gathered his whole body’s True Essence in his chest.

His True Essence stimulated the dragon bone, causing the inscriptions to release a fervent force. The force surged through his body and increased his energy tremendously.

“Huh?”

The Elephant King was shocked.

“You’re really something. I didn’t expect you to know so many secret arts and be able to continuously improve your strength. I’d like to see how long you can last in this state.”

The Elephant King was a formidable being and knew that many secret arts capable of improving one’s strength existed.

However, the effect was only temporary.

Once the time was up, the enhanced strength would also disappear.

The Elephant King launched another fierce attack.

His fists were like powerful weapons, and every punch contained devastating strength capable of destroying the world.

James had activated the Sacrilegious Ascension and the power of the dragon bone. However, he was still barely pushing back the Elephant King. Every time they exchanged blows, he would be injured by the Elephant King’s overwhelming force.

If the Elephant King’s opponent was anyone else, they would surely be incapacitated after a few moves. However, James had a special body and could continuously recover from his injuries as long as he stayed alive.

The fierce battle raged on.

Mountains were demolished, and the surrounding area was reduced to ruins.

In the distance, Lucifer’s subordinate was televising the fight live.

The whole world watched the fight between James and the Elephant King in real time.

“My goodness. This is unbelievable. Who would’ve thought such a powerful man existed among Earth’s humans.”

“That’s the Elephant King. He has rough and thick skin. He also has terrifying physical strength. What’s more, he is at the Mage Rank’s Second Stage. With such strength, he could probably take on a powerhouse on the Third Stage.”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2368

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2368–“James deflected the Elephant King’s attacks. He’s impressive.”

Humans and beasts from all over the world paid close attention to the match.

Everyone was shocked by the strength James' displayed and was in disbelief that such a powerful human existed on Earth, especially because Empyrean Spiritual Energy had only been restored a few years ago.

He was definitely a savant since he acquired such great strength in such a short amount of time.

"It's a pity fate is no longer on the human's side. James' strength is also at its limit."

"Yeah. He has no way of improving his cultivation rank from here on out. He won't be able to get any stronger."

Many beasts secretly felt sorry for James.

Limits were placed on humans, and they could no longer increase their cultivation rank.

Meanwhile, James was still fighting a fierce battle with the Elephant King on the battlefield. They swung their fists and legs, striking at each other's bodies.

When the Elephant King landed punches, the bones in James' body would splinter and crack. Fortunately, they would also heal up very quickly.

As for James' attacks, he could only knock the Elephant King away and did not cause any substantial injuries.

"What terrifying physical strength."

James took a deep breath and quickly distanced himself from the Elephant King.

Swoosh!

A golden light began to shine.

The Primordial Dragon Blade appeared in James' hand. He gripped the long sword, and his energy was unleashed.

The Elephant King stood in the distance with a grin and said, "You finally decided to use a weapon, huh? I'll stand right here and let you attack me. If you can breach my defenses, I'll admit my defeat."

The Elephant King was confident in his remarkable physique.

James' strength was not enough to hurt him.

"You're courting death."

James' face darkened. He held onto the Primordial Dragon Blade and dashed in front of the Elephant King. Then, he thrust his sword at his foe.

The Elephant King did not dodge, allowing James to land the attack.

Clank!!!

A crisp sound rang out as the long sword came in contact with the Elephant King's body as if it had crashed into a rigid steel plate.

Meanwhile, the Elephant King was merely knocked back a little.

James' sword could not pierce the Elephant King's body.

"Is that all you've got?" A smirk appeared on the Elephant King's face.

James took a deep breath.

The Elephant King's physical body was too strong, and James' current strength was insufficient.

If he continued to fight on, he would die of exhaustion even with his miraculous ability to recover.

However, he was unwilling to throw in the towel.

He still had an ace up his sleeve.

Now, he had no choice but to put them to use.

James put away the Primordial Dragon Blade. He stood in place and looked at the Elephant King who stood not far away. With a calm expression, he said slowly, "I didn't want to use my last resort, but you left me with no choice."

"Haha!" The Elephant King laughed.

"Go ahead and come at me with all you've got."

At that moment, beasts all over the world watched curiously.

The battle had already gone on for so long. What other trump card did James have left?

Lucifer was also curious and watched the battle from a distance.

He knew his father's Natal Primordial Spirit reformed James' physical body. Moreover, James's fate was tied to the earth, and he acquired many extraordinary boons.

He was brimming with anticipation and was excited to see what kind of surprise James would show him. Under the whole world's gaze, a black stone tablet appeared in front of James.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2369

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2369—A black stone tablet appeared.

Initially the black stone tablet was not very big, only about a few meters long and about one meter wide. Then, it gradually grew and became a hundred meters long.

The 100-meter-long stone tablet hovered in the air before James.

It was the first Infinity Stele.

Mysterious inscriptions were carved around the stele, and in the center were names left behind by Grand Emperors.

The Infinity Stele contained power from primitive times.

As soon as the Infinity Stele appeared, the surrounding space began to warp.

“W-What’s this?”

The Elephant King was dumbfounded.

Although he did not know what James had summoned, he could feel extreme power exuded by the black stone tablet. Even he felt terrified by the force.

The whole world was watching this happen live.

The Infinity Stele was captured on camera and appeared in the live broadcast's footage.

“W-Why does that look familiar?”

“I feel like I’ve seen it somewhere before.”

Many people seemed to recognise the Infinity Steele.

“Ah! I know what that is! It’s the Infinity Stele from Infinity City!”

“It really is!”

“Woah!”

“James obtained the Infinity Stele? No wonder we got kicked out of the Provenance before anyone else got the First Calamity’s providence.”

“It turns out the real boons in Provenance wasn’t the insight at the beginning of time, but was really the infinity Stele all along.”

As soon as the Infinity Stele appeared, people began to recognize it.

James could not be bothered to hide it any longer.

This was his final resort. Without using it, he would never be able to defeat the Elephant King.

“Come at me.”

The Elephant King’s voice boomed.

Even though he felt intimidated by the Infinity Stele, he was unafraid and still placed a lot of confidence in this physical strength.

“Alright, since you insist.”

After James spoke, the Infinity Stele rushed at the Elephant King with deadly force.

The Elephant King channeled all his strength to counter the attack.

He leaped at the Infinity Stele and swung his palm at the Infinity Stele.

His powerful fist slammed into the stele, and his great strength caused it to tilt.

The moment his hand touched the stele, he was blasted forcefully and plummeted from the sky, slamming into the ground.

Boom!

A deep crevice appeared on the ground.

He immediately climbed out from the pit. At that moment, the Elephant King no longer had his nonchalant appearance from before. Instead, his face showed a rarely seen seriousness. He looked down and noticed his fist was mangled.

He could only grit his teeth in pain.

The live broadcast also captured the sight of the Elephant King's fist.

The viewers could not help but feel horror when they saw the Elephant King's mangled and bloody fist.

The Infinity Stele was a divine object that appeared when at the world's conception.

Although James did not understand what the Infinity Stele was, he knew it was a powerful weapon that could crush anything with its weight.

James' killing intent grew stronger.

Tons of humans died tragically because of the Elephant King.

Today, he wanted to kill the Elephant King in front of the whole world.

"B*stard."

The Elephant King's face was baleful, and he let out a roar. Immediately afterward, hostile energy erupted from his body. He immediately transformed into his bestial form, a colossal elephant that was as large as a mountain.

Pawoo!

The Elephant King let out a loud trumpet.

He reared up and began charging at James.

James immediately avoided the attack.

Boom!

The Elephant King's massive body crashed to the ground. The land began to quake violently.

Right then, the Infinity Stele fell from the sky and slammed down on the Elephant King.

The Elephant King's leaped into the air and thrust its tusks into the Infinity Stele.

Even though the Infinity Stele contained great power, it was still knocked away. With a loud bang, the Infinite Stele landed in the ground crookedly and sunk into the soil.

In the distance, James stood with his mouth agape.

The Elephant King had become more deadly after transforming into his bestial form and the increase in strength allowed him to resist the Infinity Stele.

James was unwilling to expose the fact he had all 108 Infinity Steles.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2370

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2370—The appearance of one of the Infinity Steles was enough to cause a sizeable uproar. If he were to show all 108 of them, he would surely get targeted by powerhouses everywhere.

He controlled the Infinite Stele with his mind, and it shot back into the sky. It became smaller and turned into a little pinprick of light. Then, it melded into his body.

James' immediately shot up into the sky.

He looked down at the Elephant King who towered over everything like a mountain.

"Take this, Elephant King!"

James raised his hand.

Two different energies swirled around in his hands.

In his left hand was True Heavenly Essence, and in his right was True Demonic Essence.

At that moment, the two streams of True Essence quickly merged together.

The fusion of yin and yang created an incredibly turbulent, new force. The surrounding space warped and distorted, making it hard to distinguish whether it was real.

"Cosmic Destruction."

James flicked his hand.

The energy ball in his palm shot out and rushed at the Elephant King with tremendous power.

“Ha.” The Elephant King snorted disdainfully.

He was assured in his own strength, so he charged head-on at James’ ultimate weapon.

When he collided with the energy ball, the destructive amalgamation of True Essence exploded.

Boom!

A deafening explosion tore through the air.

The explosion caused the mountains to crumble and the ground to shake.

The terrifying force blasted the Elephant King’s enormous body and ripped through his gray skin.

Immediately, wounds formed on his body.

The Elephant King thought too highly of himself. He was cocky and underestimated Cosmic Destruction’s sheer power.

His huge body fell from the sky and smashed into the ground.

Boom!

With a loud bang, he plunged deep into the ground.

It was as if time had stopped at that moment.

Cultivators all over the world watched the scene in shock and awe. No one expected James to gain the upper hand over the monstrous Elephant King.

“Is he dead?”

Everyone held their breaths.

James’ attack was powerful. Even watching through a screen was enough to grip them with fear.

Under their watchful gaze, the Elephant King slowly got up from the rubble on the ground. At that moment, he was bloodied and covered in wounds. His breathing was also shaky.

“Die!”

James wanted to kill him.

Summoning it with his mind, the Infinity Stele appeared again.

The Infinity Stele continued to enlarge until it was 100 meters in length.

The Infinity Stele fell from the sky with terrifying force.

“Ahh, no...!”

The Elephant King let out a defiant growl.

He wanted to dodge, but James’ Cosmic Destruction gravely wounded him and made it difficult for him to move.

The Elephant King’s eyes widened, and he shouted for help, “Save me, Master Lucifer.”

However, Lucifer merely ignored him from afar.

Boom!

The Infinity Stele flattened the Elephant King’s body.

The Elephant King’s body was crushed into the ground.

The Infinity Stele crashed down on him again.

This happened over and over.

Rumble!

The earth trembled from the impact, and a deep crevice was formed.

The Elephant King was pounded by the stele hundreds of times repeatedly.

Every time he was struck, the beasts watching would feel a shiver down their spine.

When James finally sensed that life had left the Elephant King’s body, he put away the Infinity Stele. Then, he slowly descended from the sky and calmly stared at Lucifer in the distance.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-