The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2391—The Imperial Weapon was the Grand Emperor's weapon and the pinnacle of his cultivation. Even though Lucifer did not possess great strength, he could slay immortal beings with the Imperial Weapon.

Holding the Imperial Weapon in hand, he struck ferociously, and a wave of Sword Energy burst forth and bombarded the Magic Circle formed by the Infinity Steles.

Boom!

As battle ripples spread throughout the region, all of Mount Bane shook. Even those who were standing in the distance sensed a terrifying power and retreated to the back.

As the Infinity Stele spun, the powerful attack of the Imperial Weapon was deflected. However, powerful energy seeped through the Magic Circle and struck James. Injured, he vomited a mouthful of blood.

However, that was all.

James controlled the Infinity Steles with all his strength. Standing in mid-air, he laughed, "What can you do to stop me, Lucifer?"

Lucifer stopped and looked at James in the distance. Furrowing his eyebrows, he murmured, "What was that? Why can't even Hadean destroy them?"

"Eat this!"

James roared.

At that moment, an Infinity Stele carrying the strength of all 108 Infinity Steles flew toward Lucifer, who held his sword to resist the attack.

However, he was unable to resist the overwhelming strength and was crushed by the weight. The Demonic Armor on his body instantly shattered as he plummeted from the sky and crashed heavily into the pile of rubble below.

A few seconds later...

Swoosh!

A black light soared into the sky.

With disheveled hair, Lucifer held Hadean in his hand. It brought him immeasurable power. His face darkened as he said, "Not bad... Let's go again!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2392—The Imperial Weapon descended, striking the Infinity Stele, which plummeted from the sky and crashed to the ground.

Boom!

At that moment, the earth shook, and the surrounding region was reduced to a pile of rubble.

Lucifer was standing in mid-air from afar as he summoned his full strength to control the Imperial Weapon. However, catalyzing the Imperial Weapon severely depleted his energy. At that moment, a vein popped out on his face as sweat trickled down his forehead.

Lucifer roared.

With a wave of his hand, the huge sword descended from the sky.

This time, two Infinity Steles flew toward the sword and blocked the attack. However, they were knocked away again. This time, James’ injuries were aggravated, and his True Essence was almost completely depleted.

He lost all control over the Infinity Steles, and the Magic Circle disappeared.

James plummeted from the sky and collapsed heavily into the pile of rubble below.

Then, the Infinity Steles transformed into a flicker and entered his body.

Lying on the ground, James panted for breath. He could not even exert a single ounce of strength.

Lucifer was the same. After forcibly catalyzing the Imperial Weapon and summoning the full force of Hadean to destroy the Magic Circle, he had been completely depleted.

The Imperial Weapon shrank and entered his body as a wave of black light. Then, he crashed from the sky and collapsed to the ground.

In an area far away, many living beings were watching the battle.

“Wh-Who won?”

After seeing James and Lucifer collapse to the ground, they had no idea what was going on. However, they did not dare approach the two for fear of their weapons' lethality.

Silence fell on the battlefield.

James could not stand no matter how hard he tried. At that moment, his True Essence was completely depleted, and only a few threads of Demonic Energy circulated throughout his body, rejuvenating his injuries. However, based on the current speed, he would require a long time to heal.

"I can't lose."

He knew he could not lose. With all his might, he stood up.

"I won... I won!"

His voice was feeble.

At that moment, a thousand meters away, Lucifer stood up as well. His hair was disheveled, his body was covered in blood, and he was in a wretched state.

Staring at James, he walked toward him step by step.

Enduring the pain in his body, James did the same.

Soon, they were only ten meters apart.

As their gazes met, Lucifer said, "Can you still fight, James?"

James looked at him as he wiped the blood trace off his lips, saying, "As long as you aren't defeated, I'll soldier on."

At that moment, Sacrilegious Ascension could not be sustained any longer. In just a few minutes, Sacrilegious Ascension would dissipate, and he would be severely weakened. Should that come to pass, he would be defeated.

Hence, he had to defeat Lucifer in a short span of time.

He forcibly catalyzed the dragon bones and tried to summon their strength. However, his injuries were too grave, not to mention that his True Energy was almost completely depleted. With so little True Energy, he could not stimulate the dragon bones.

Lucifer's expression was ferocious. Then, suddenly, he charged toward James and slammed his fist against James, sending him flying. James collapsed heavily to the ground.

“I won!”

Lucifer was wearing a smug look on his face.

“I won!”

He roared.

However, as his voice was too great, his injuries were aggravated, and he spurted out a mouthful of blood.

At that moment, James sprung to his feet. He had been silently gathering his strength in search of a window of opportunity.

He charged toward Lucifer at extraordinary speed and struck his back with all his remaining strength.

Lucifer was sent flying, and he collapsed to the ground, motionless.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2393—hough James was ambushed, he had been secretly gathering strength to deal the death blow the moment Lucifer lowered his guard.

After attacking, James collapsed. Unable to hold on to Sacrilegious Ascension any longer, his spine which was formed using Emyrean Spiritual Energy dissipated. Without the support of his spine, James could not even stand.

However, he could not collapse. To collapse now would mean that he had lost the battle, or at best fought to a draw.

He tried to roll over. However, as his spine was shattered, not to mention that his injuries were grave, he felt excruciating pain throughout his body the moment he moved. Even though he had cultivated his physical body for a long time, he could not endure the pain.

So, he lay on the ground and rested.

The Demonic Energy inside his body had yet to be depleted. Threads of Demonic Energy slowly rejuvenated his injuries. However, the Demonic Energy was scarce. It was merely like a drop in the ocean. It was no use.

He lay on the pile of rubble and panted for breath.

Lucifer was the same. After forcibly catalyzing the Imperial Weapon and summoning its full strength, not to mention being injured by the Infinity Steles and ambushed by James, he was already at his limit.

The two simply lay on the ground, motionless.

Upon seeing that the battle had died down, the living beings that were observing the battle summoned their courage and slowly approached the battlefield.

After approaching the pile of rubble, they realized that both James and Lucifer were lying on the ground motionless.

“Master...”

A few beasts approached Lucifer and tried to help him up.

“Get lost!”

Lucifer roared.

However, as he was in a weakened state, his voice was feeble.

Seeing this, the beasts backed off.

“Stand down!” Lucifer said, “How can I possibly be defeated by the likes of him?”

He leaned against a rock as he stood. However, the moment he stood, he collapsed to the ground once more.

Though the beasts wanted to help him up, they did not dare to do so.

After a couple of minutes, Lucifer finally managed to stand up. Staring into the distance, he noticed that James was lying on the ground with a group of people surrounding him.

However, no one helped him up as well.

“You have lost, James.”

Lucifer walked in James’ direction, staggering and stumbling his way toward him.

James’ injuries were simply too grave, not to mention that he had lost his spine. As such, he could not stand. However, he did not lose consciousness and was able to hear Lucifer’s words.

However, he could not see him.

In fact, he could only see the sky and a few familiar faces before him-the Blithe King, Henry, Delainey, and Quincy.

As for the rest, he could not see their faces.

“Did Lucifer manage to stand?”

He asked in a feeble voice.

Seeing that no one answered him, he roared, “Answer me!”

However, his roar aggravated his injuries, and he vomited a mouthful of blood.

Quincy hurriedly said, “Y-Yes, he did.”

Hearing this, James took a deep breath. That would mean he had lost.

“No, I cannot lose.”

He felt a strong conviction rising in his heart. If he lost, all of humanity would be doomed.

He tried getting up. However, as his body did not have the support of the spine, the upper half of his body simply would not budge.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2394—“What should I do?”

James panicked.

He had to stand now. However, he was powerless to do anything.

He could only lie on the ground motionless and gasp for breath. His body had suffered both external and internal injuries, and his meridians were already destroyed.

He tried catalyzing True Energy. Time and again, he catalyzed the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi. However, his body was completely empty inside, and not a single trace of True Essence remained.

Then, a thread of Demonic Energy materialized in his body.

Seizing the window of opportunity, he catalyzed the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi and forcibly absorbed the Demonic Energy, transforming them into True Energy.

Meanwhile, Lucifer was walking toward James one step at a time. With every step he took, he staggered. However, he did not collapse to the ground. Regardless, it took him ten minutes to traverse a short distance.

Ten minutes later, he arrived two meters away from James. Looking at James whose life was hanging by a thread and who was in a wretched state, a smug smile crept up on Lucifer's face as he said, "You have lost, James."

Hearing Lucifer's voice, James was distraught. At that moment, he had only gathered a tiny bit of True Essence. Out of desperation, he catalyzed what True Essence he could gather and hurled them toward the dragon bones.

Stimulated by the True Essence, the dragon bones glimmered with a faint golden light. Then, a mysterious inscription circulated, materializing mysterious power. The mysterious power swiftly transformed into True Essence. Catalyzing the True Essence and gathering them to form his spine, James gritted his teeth as he stood up with great difficulty.

Under the watchful gaze of every living being there, James stood up, his back straight.

"The battle isn't over yet."

James beckoned and said, "Come, Lucifer."

Seeing how James, whose life was hanging by a thread just a moment ago, was now energized, Lucifer furrowed his eyebrows and muttered under his breath, "How did he manage to recover that quickly?"

Just as he was bewildered, James made his move.

In the blink of an eye, he appeared before Lucifer and slammed his fist against his chest. However, as his strength was weak, he could only send him collapsing to the ground.

As Lucifer collapsed to the ground, he vomited a mouthful of blood.

"Can you still stand?"

James spoke in a feeble voice.

"Y-Yes..."

Lucifer tried to stand.

However, James immediately sat on Lucifer and pressed him down. At the same time, he struck Lucifer's legs.

Even though his True Essence was no more and what remained had materialized into his spine, his physical strength was still overwhelming. Each strike possessed devastating power. Hence, Lucifer's legs were broken, and he was beaten to a pulp.

"Argh! James, you...!"

Even Lucifer could not endure the agonizing pain.

Meanwhile, everyone around them had their mouths agape. They did not expect a once-in-a-lifetime battle to end this way.

"J-James... N-No more... I-I admit defeat."

Lucifer said.

He chose to concede defeat.

Hearing this, James breathed a sigh of relief. His spine that was formed using True Essence dissipated, and he instantly collapsed to the ground, spurting out a mouthful of blood.

Thousands upon thousands of living beings simply watched. None dared to approach them.

"H-Haha..."

Though his legs were broken, Lucifer was laughing.

"Haha...!"

James, who was beside him, laughed as well.

"I-I've won... Finally, I've won."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2395—The two simply laughed.

Lucifer laughed as he believed himself to be invincible within his rank. Wielding his father's Imperial Weapon, he falsely believed that he could defeat anyone. Now, however, he was defeated by a man whose rank was considerably weaker than his. He was pleased to have such a powerful rival. Besides, James' body was reshaped by his father's physical body.

James laughed because humans could live in peace from now on.

“James?”

Quincy walked over to James, who had a silly grin on his face, and tried helping him up.

James waved slightly, saying, “Let me rest.”

“Understood.”

Quincy retreated.

Some beasts also tried helping Lucifer up but were stopped by him.

The humans and beasts simply stood there and watched.

Not too far away. Yuvaan was furrowing his eyebrows. As James was currently at his weakest, this was the perfect opportunity to capture him. Otherwise, once James' injuries recovered, he would be in deep trouble. Besides, James had the Infinity Steles that were capable of fighting the Imperial Weapon to a standstill. How could he possibly stand a chance against him?

However, he did not make a move. Instead, he nodded at a human in the distance.

The human came from the Ancient Realm and was about thirty years of age. He possessed great strength and was one of Yuvaan's subordinates. As he seldom showed himself, no one knew of his existence.

The man roared, “You massacred my family, James! You'll pay for this!”

As he said that, he charged toward James, hoping to take him away.

Swoosh!

There was a flicker. Then, a man appeared before James, blocking the aggressor's path.

Wearing a black robe, the man looked about twenty-five years of age. Not only that, but he had a somewhat handsome-looking face. His face darkened as he glared at the middle-aged man and roared, “Get lost!”

He was Jace Sterling.

Sensing that someone was up to no good, Lucifer said, "If anyone dares harm James, the Hadean Clan shall annihilate his entire sect!"

"Understood!"

A few powerful beasts said.

In the distance, Yuvaan furrowed his eyebrows as he walked over to them. Looking at Marcello and then at Lucifer, who was lying on the ground, he said coldly, "This is an affair of the human race. This doesn't concern you. Please stay out of this."

"Exactly! By cultivating the Demonic Arts, James is a traitor to the human race! He should pay for this!"

"Kill him!"

The people by Yuvaan's side said.

James, who was lying on the ground, glared at Yuvaan and the others and silently cursed, "Once my strength recovers, I'll slaughter all of you!"

"James is a member of the Hadean Clan," said Lucifer. "His physical body was reshaped by my father's Natal Primordial Spirit. He no longer has anything to do with the human race."

Jace said as well, "He joined the Azurean Clan long ago. He possesses the token of a powerful member of our clan."

Jace and Lucifer shielded James.

Seeing this, Yuvaan's hopes were dashed. Hence, he smiled faintly and said, "Since he's joined the Demon Race, he no longer matters to us. I'll no longer concern myself with his affairs."

As she said that, he turned to leave.

Marcello tossed a healing elixir to James and said, "Here. Consume the elixir to heal your injuries."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2396—James accepted the elixir. As he consumed the elixir, a warm current circulated throughout his body, rejuvenating his gravely injured body and restoring his True Essence and Demonic Energy that had been depleted.

Lucifer, too, consumed an elixir and healed his injuries.

About thirty minutes later, the two stood up at the same time.

Lucifer looked at James and praised him. "I underestimated you, James. Your strength far exceeded my expectations. If I had known the outcome of this battle, I wouldn't have given you a month to achieve so many breakthroughs.

"However, the ultimate providence on Earth has yet to appear. So, I'll be in closed-door meditation for the time being. I hope you won't disappoint me by then."

As he said that, he turned to leave, while a horde of beasts followed close behind.

James breathed a sigh of relief.

This was a hard-won battle. He had performed almost every technique and cultivation method, except for one. If Lucifer refused to concede defeat, he would resort to his trump card—the Demonic Energy inside his body.

This Demonic Energy was not his own. Instead, it was absorbed from Farley's body in the Ancient Realm. He had sealed it away in his body. Once he released the seal, he could annihilate even immortal beings with the Demonic Energy. However, as he could not control the Demonic Energy as he pleased, he did not dare act recklessly. Otherwise, the battle would have ended long ago.

"James, you improve too fast." Marcello praised him. "When I first met you a few years ago, you were weak and insignificant. However, in just a few years, your strength has increased by leaps and bounds. Currently, not even the top cultivators of the Three-Thousand Worlds can stand a chance against you."

James smiled faintly and said, "You flatter me."

"I'll be taking my leave now. Take care."

After speaking, Marcello turned to leave.

Jace glanced at James and said, "Not bad..."

Then, he turned to leave as well.

Following that, two people approached James. They were Harold and Quintina.

They had conflicting emotions.

Not long ago, James was in the same rank as them. However, his strength had greatly surpassed theirs despite him having the Elysian Seal in his body.

“You’re too strong, James. I don’t think I can ever surpass you in this lifetime.” Harold smiled bitterly.

Quintina looked at James. At that moment, her gaze, which was filled with tenderness and love, was somewhat different. As James’ strength grew stronger by the day, her understanding of James kept changing.

James laughed and said, “It was only with a stroke of luck that I managed to defeat Lucifer. That certainly was a dangerous fight. I almost lost my life.”

“Since there are countless providences on Earth, I’ll have to work hard from now on. Even with the Elysian

Seal, I have to rise no matter the odds.” Harold clenched his fists. He had gained motivation from watching the battle and decided that he had to work hard now.

A group of people surrounded James. They were all familiar faces.

Henry said, “You’re impressive, James!”

The Blithe King praised him. “I’m in awe!”

Thomas said, “As expected of a Caden! You’ve made us proud.”

Meanwhile, Quincy looked James in the eye with a complex expression on her face and said, “You’ve really grown stronger over time. I’m no longer worthy of you. Perhaps only Thea among us humans can keep up with your pace.”

Delainey asked, “What do you plan to do next, James?”

The smile on James’ face froze. Then, his expression darkened. “Well, I’ll have to collect some old debts, of course.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2397—There were some accounts to settle.

Sophie had created a Magic Circle after gaining insight into the Infinity Steles. Meanwhile, James was able to catalyze the Magic Circle formed by the Infinity Steles. The Magic Circle possessed devastating strength and could annihilate all that stood in its path.

However, there were still many threats remaining on Earth, and Yuvaan Zymir was one of them.

Yuvaan of the Divinity Sect was like a ticking time bomb. That was why James had to annihilate him as soon as possible.

“We’ll return to Wurmstead first.” James said.

Then, they returned to Wurmstead.

Many core cultivators of Earth gathered at the main hall of Wurmstead Palace. However, they were weak. The strongest among them were the Omniscient Deity and Langston. The others were simply too insignificant to be considered a force to be reckoned with.

“James, you have contributed significantly to the safety of all of humanity. If not for you, the beast army would have invaded us, causing great destruction and casualties.”

“Indeed! First, you slayed the Elephant King, securing the southwest region of Sol. Next, you engaged in a fierce battle against Lucifer Menachem and defeated him, winning the bet.”

“I never expected you to grow this powerful in just a few short years.”

Many spoke.

Meanwhile, James was sitting on the main seat, smiling faintly. He was pleased to have won the battle.

Henry asked, “Do you plan to make a move against Yuvaan next, James?”

Hearing this, James’ face darkened.

“That old geezer is the source of my troubles. I nearly died when he struck me with lightning at the public trial. As long as he’s alive, I can’t rest in peace.”

Yuvaan had to die.

“But...” Delainey furrowed her eyebrows and said, “James, Yuvaan is no ordinary man. As the Divinity Sect’s Sect Elder, he’s reached the Sage Rank. His information is available on the Martial Arts Forum. Although he’s only at the first stage of the Sage Rank, it’s still the Sage Rank we’re talking about. Are you confident in your strength?”

The Sage Rank was considered invincible even among the three thousand Sealed Realms. Delainey was worried that James would not be able to defeat Yuvaan.

Assured, James said, "These are different times. I've already mastered the Infinity Steles Supernatural Powers. The Infinity Steles have existed since the birth of the universe. As such, they aren't any weaker than the Imperial Weapon. With the Magic Circle, I'm confident that I can annihilate Yuvaan."

The others remained silent. That was because they believed they had no right to speak. Cultivators at the Sage Rank were supreme beings that could annihilate a city on Earth with a flick of their fingers.

James looked at the Omniscient Deity, Langston, and the others and said, "Although Lucifer has promised that he wouldn't attack us anymore, not every beast answers to him. Return now and watch the situation on Earth intently. If any beast dares to attack us, we have to stage a counteroffensive."

"Understood."

The Omniscient Deity said, "After such a fierce battle, your injuries have yet to fully recover. You should rest well for now and plan your next course of action when the injuries have recuperated."

"Mhm."

James nodded.

Then, the Omniscient Deity, Thomas, and the others turned to leave.

Only Langston and Tyrus remained.

Langston asked, "Where's Xandra, James? Why haven't I seen her over the past few years?"

James smiled and said, "She's currently in a safe place. Once she reappears, her strength will have reached an unbelievable level."

Hearing this, Tyrus breathed a sigh of relief.

"In that case, I'll be returning to Lothian now."

Langston did not linger for long and turned to leave alongside Tyrus, Tapio, and the others.

At that moment, only those from Wurmstead remained in the hall.

James said, "As I'm still injured, I'll be treating my injuries for now."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2398—As he said that, he turned to leave and headed toward the palace's courtyard. Then, he entered a room and entered the Celestial Abode.

In the courtyard of the Celestial Abode, Sophie, who was wearing a white dress, sat beside James. Her features were fine and delicate, and her appearance was glamorous. Wearing a satisfied smile on her face, she said, "Congratulations on winning the battle and resolving the Second Calamity. The humans on Earth may live in relative safety for the time being"

James smiled bitterly. He considered himself fortunate to be able to defeat Lucifer, whose strength was comparable to his.

"By the way..." Upon being reminded of something. James asked, "Sophie, can I defeat a Sage using the Infinity Steles Magic Circle?"

Sophie nodded slightly and said, "Of course, the Magic Circle formed by the one hundred and eight Infinity Steles is incredibly powerful. Besides, the stronger you are, the more terrifying the Magic Circle's power. However, as you have only recently gained insight into the Magic Circle, you aren't able to completely master it just yet. Besides, using the Infinity Steles severely depletes your energy Hence, I'd suggest not acting impulsively."

"I can't wait any longer."

Wearing a heavy expression, James said, "Yuvaan would've made a move against me if not for Lucifer and Jace shielding me. As Yuvaan fears the Demon Race, he won't dare to provoke me in broad daylight.

However, I'm worried that he would resort to underhanded tactics."

"Do as you please." Sophie said

She could not control James' actions. She simply glanced at him and said. "Tend to your injuries for now

"Mhm."

James nodded and entered the Time Chamber, healing his injuries in there. Soon, he was done healing his injuries, and his strength was restored to its peak.

After leaving the Celestial Abode, he headed to the palace's courtyard.

There, a young girl was twirling her blade. She looked around nine years of age, and her hair was tied up in a ponytail. Her features were fine and delicate, a sign that she would grow to be a beautiful woman.

The young girl held the sword in her hand and swung it with a whistling sound, showing her mastery of swordsmanship.

Beside her was a man, Callan Maverick

“Callan”

James walked over to him and greeted him.

Hearing James’ voice, Callan turned and greeted him with a smile, saying, “Have your injuries recovered, James?”

“Daddy!” The young girl sheathed her sword and ran toward James before leaping into his embrace

“Winnie, you’ve grown so tall.”

James hugged Winnie tightly and smiled brightly.

“In another few years, I can help you slay enemies on the battlefield, Daddy!” Winnie clenched her fists

Callan said smilingly. “Winnie has great potential in the martial arts. Though she’s young, she has already reached the ninth rank”

Hearing this, James was stunned. He asked, “Is that true?”

Being at the ninth rank would make Winnie a grandmaster a few years ago on Earth. He never expected her to be this strong at such a young age.

“Daddy, I’m a Grand Supernatural!”

James froze.

A Grand Supernatural?

To his understanding, only those who mastered terrifying secret Supernatural Arts at birth would be called a Grand Supernatural. However, Winnie did not seem to possess any of these signs.

“Winnie, what’s your Supernatural Power?” James asked in disbelief.
