The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2399—As James had been out and about all these years, he did not know that his daughter was a Grand Supernatural.

“I don’t know what my Supernatural Power is.”

Winnie shook her head.

Then, she jumped out of James’ embrace and catalyzed True Energy, forming a scythe. The scythe was black in color, and ancient inscriptions were circulating inside the scythe.

Winnie waved the black scythe and smiled, revealing her dimples. “As my True Energy increased, this thing suddenly appeared in my body. I don’t know what it is either.”

James stared at the scythe.

He had no idea what it was.

“Winnie, follow me to the Celestial Abode.”

Perhaps Sophie would know.

Then, James brought Winnie and Callan into the Celestial Abode.

In the City Lord’s Mansion, Sophie’s expression turned grim upon seeing the black scythe in Winnie’s hand.

James asked, “Sophie, do you know what this is?”

Sophie did not answer him..

Pensive, she furrowed her eyebrows.

About a minute later...

“The Scythe of Judgment.”

She uttered a few words.

“What?”

James did not understand the meaning of those words.

As Winnie was clueless as well, she looked at Sophie with a curious look on her face.

Callan did the same. However, though he had no idea what the black scythe was, he knew long ago that Winnie was a Grand Supernatural.

Sophie shook her head and said, "I can't be sure either. Wait here while I flip through the ancient texts."

After speaking, she turned to leave.

Winnie looked at James with innocent eyes and asked, "Daddy, is something the matter?"

James patted her head and said, "It's nothing, we just have to wait."

Though Callan knew of the Celestial Abode's existence, he had never been in it before. He scanned his surroundings curiously and said, "Is this the Celestial Abode? I never expected there to be such a treasure in this world. How rare..."

James said smilingly, "I consider myself fortunate to have obtained this Celestial Abode."

Then, the two conversed.

Chapter 399

Ten minutes later, Sophie was back.

The three stood up at the same time and looked at her.

James asked, "How did it go, Sophie? Did you find anything?"

Sophie nodded before glancing at Winnie with a weird expression on her face.

Winnie hurriedly hid behind James. James patted her head and said smilingly, "It's alright."

Then, he looked at Sophie and said, "Just cut to the chase."

Sophie sat down and nodded slightly, saying, "After flipping through the ancient texts left behind by Emperor Jabari, I can now confirm that this is the Scythe of Judgment."

James listened intently.

Intrigued, Callan did the same.

Sophie continued, "In ancient times, there was a species that was held in high regard in this world. They were called the Adjudicators, and their weapon was the Scythe of Judgment. With the Scythe of Judgment, they can pass judgment on any living being that transgresses the Heavenly Path.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2400—“In essence, those who possess the Scythe of Judgment are a walking Heavenly Path and are capable of passing judgment on every living being on its behalf. Legend has it that the Scythe of Judgment was born out of the Heavenly Path and was formed by the Law of Heaven.”

Hearing this, James was dumbfounded.

“What? Winnie’s scythe is that impressive?”

He was stunned.

The Scythe of Judgment passed judgment on everything on behalf of the Heavenly Path. What power was this?

“Indeed.”

Sophie nodded and said, “In the records of ancient texts left behind by Emperor Jabari, Heaven’s Adjudicators once existed in ancient times. They were merciless robots who passed judgment on all living beings who transgressed the Law of Heaven on behalf of the Heavenly Path.

“However, later on, the humans did something that completely rebelled against the Heavenly Path. From that day onward, Heaven’s Adjudicators vanished without a trace, and the seals that Heaven placed inside the bodies of all humans on Earth today are also related to this matter. It was something that the ancestors of humankind had done that the Heavenly Path found impossible to accept.”

Hearing this, James took a deep breath.

This was simply terrifying.

He never thought that his daughter would possess the Scythe of Judgment inside her body and that she would be a Heaven’s Adjudicator and a walking Heavenly Path.

Sophie continued, “Winnie was chosen by the Heavenly Path. As such, she’s many times luckier than Lucifer. After all, he only obtained an Elysium Inscription, whereas Winnie, on the other hand, would be able to pass judgment on all living beings on behalf of Heaven once she becomes an adult. Even cultivators at the Emperor Rank could be judged if they transgressed the Heavenly Path.”

Winnie had no idea what Sophie was talking about. She simply blinked her eyes and said innocently, “Will I be able to help my daddy slay his enemies if I grow stronger?”

Sophie furrowed her eyebrows and said, “Don’t say such gory stuff at such a young age.”

“But, Mommy said that Daddy has been trying hard to protect mankind. I want to help Daddy out and make his job easier.” Sophie said no more and gestured for James to bring Winnie somewhere else.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2401—James never thought that his own daughter would be chosen by the Heavenly Path and wield the Scythe of Judgment.

Now, he had a rough idea of what the Scythe of Judgment was. It was rather similar to the Blade of Justice, which was capable of passing judgment on all who had committed crimes and violated Solean law. Winnie, on the other hand, passed judgment on those who transgressed the Heavenly Path.

However, how did one transgress the Heavenly Path? He had no idea at all. After all, his current strength was far too weak to reach the point of understanding it.

“A bright era is upon us. Likewise, the darkest age in history has arrived.” Wearing a solemn expression, Sophie furrowed her eyebrows and said slowly, “In the era when there were still Heaven’s Adjudicators, there were countless Grand Emperors. I believe that after a period of time when these geniuses grow up and reach the Grand Emperor Rank, the world will descend into chaos.”

As this was too distant from James at the moment, he did not wish to concern himself with this. At the moment, his priority was to annihilate the Divinity Sect that was garrisoned on Earth. Since the Divinity Sect of the Ancient Realm had been annihilated, there was no reason for the one on Earth to continue to exist.

“Sophie, as I still have matters to attend to, I’ll be taking my leave,” James said.

“Get going then. I can sense that the providence after the Second Calamity is about to appear. After you resolve the matter and enter a closed-door meditation, the providence should have emerged by then.”

Hearing this, James’ curiosity was piqued. He asked, “What’s the providence that would appear after the Second Calamity? By the way, what would be the Third Calamity?”

Sophie shook her head.

"I do not know. Under normal circumstances where the providence will soon appear, the Heavenly Path experiences fluctuations. That's when I learn what the providence and the calamity will be."

"I see." James was dismayed. He truly believed that Sophie was omnipotent and omniscient.

He looked at her, intrigued.

"Sophie, what rank are you at now?"

"Me?" An attractive smile crept up on her face as she said, "I'm probably the strongest figure beneath the Emperor Rank."

"Seriously?" Stunned, he asked, "Are there still cultivators at the Grand Emperor Rank out there?"

"Grand Emperor?" After thinking for a moment, Sophie said, "I think so. There have been many Grand Emperors throughout history. Some have fallen, whereas others have concealed themselves. Besides, after reaching the Grand Emperor Rank, one can even change fates and destinies. So, even if they fall, they can be reincarnated."

Hearing this, James had a rough understanding now. All of this was because he had insufficient strength. Once he reached a certain strength, these powerful figures would appear out of nowhere.

"I'm leaving now."

James turned to leave the Celestial Abode.

At Wurmstead Palace...

James simply remained in Wurmstead and spent his time with Winnie. He also guided Winnie's cultivation. Winnie was truly a genius. No matter what she learned, she understood it immediately. No matter what martial arts they were, she would grasp the essence immediately. Even James was envious of her talent.

Meanwhile, James knew that Thea had gone to the Chamber of Scriptures in search of the custodian to enter a closed-door meditation.

"James."

Just as James was watching Winnie perform her sword moves while sitting on a chair in the palace's courtyard, he heard a voice coming from behind him.

As he turned, he noticed a gorgeous woman walking toward him. She was wearing a blue dress, had long black hair, delicate features, a slender figure, and exuded a charming temperament.

“Hey, Cynthia.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2402—James smiled and asked, “Is something the matter?”

Cynthia took a seat beside James and said, “James, aren’t you the greatest fighter among humans? Now, every human wishes to be admitted as your disciple. I encountered a few problems while I was cultivating, so I came here to seek your advice.”

“Sure thing” James nodded.

In the following days, Cynthia asked James about some difficulties she encountered in her cultivation, and James answered all her questions without reservation. During the time when James stayed in Wurmstead Palace, some old friends from the past came to visit him.

However, he spent most of his time with Winnie.

Meanwhile, at the Divinity Sect on Mount Bane...

A few days passed following the battle between James and Lucifer.

Meanwhile, Yuvaan was experiencing sleepless nights.

The terrifying strength James and the Infinity Steles had demonstrated deeply unnerved him. If the Infinity Steles could demonstrate such strength even in James’ hands, what would happen if he seized them for himself?

Clack! Clack! Clack!

The sound of footsteps came.

A middle-aged man walked into the hall and knelt. “Sect Elder...”

Yuvaan collected himself and glanced at the man-before him in displeasure, saying. The Divinity Sect in the Ancient Realm has been annihilated. The Patriarch has betrayed mankind and become a Fang of the Demon Race. Now, the Divinity Sect on Earth is the sole remaining one.”

The man hurriedly corrected his mistake, saying, "Patriarch..."

A smile crept up on Yuvaan's face as he asked, "How did it go?"

The man stood up and said, "It's almost done. During this time, development has been rapid on Earth, and we have recruited many cultivators. We also have many disciples from the Ancient Realm coming to join us. The earthlings seldom see eye to eye with each other. A hundred years ago, there was even a world war

"The Sun Empire has been ambitious. I have met with the leader of the Sun Empire and came to an agreement with him. We'll send three hundred thousand cultivators to reinforce them, while they promise to completely occupy Sol within three months. Then, they'll move on to Wurmstead.

Delighted, Yuvaan said, "Very good. Make haste! We can't allow James to have breathing room. Invade Sol, occupy the nation, and invade Wurmstead to capture James alive."

After he spoke, he was lost in contemplation. A while later, he ordered, "Jairo, I'll leave this to you. Failure is not allowed."

"Understood."

Yuvaan, meanwhile, was lost in thought.

Now that James had a backer, he could not act recklessly. If he provoked the Demon Race, he would be doomed.

Since he knew that humans had always been at odds with each other, he planned to let them fight among themselves.

The Empire of the Sun, meanwhile, was his selected partner. He wished to annihilate Sol and Wurmstead by their hands.

Since Lucifer had ordered every beast to cease hostilities with the humans, the beasts concealed themselves for fear of antagonizing Lucifer. However, it would be a totally different matter if the humans fought among themselves.

"Oh, James... If I had known you'd rise this rapidly, I would have taken your physical body. Oh well. At least you now have the Infinity Steles. They will soon be mine."

As he murmured, his face darkened.

James was in Wurmstead. He had no idea that a war would soon break out just as the Second Calamity had ended
