The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2406—"In about an hour, the two armies will clash head-on."

"Understood, you're dismissed."

Jairo waved a hand. Then, he contacted Yuvaan who had remained on Mount Bane.

"Patriarch, Sol was prepared for this. They have a huge army of cultivators at the Herculean rank numbering in the hundreds of thousands. With my current strength, I'm no match for them. Could you some other powerful cultivators to reinforce us?"

Hearing this, Yuvaan's expression turned grim. A huge army of cultivators at the Herculean rank numbering in the hundreds of thousands? When did Sol amass such a large army?

He asked, "Is the intelligence accurate?"

"Yes."

"I understand."

Yuvaan hung up the phone. Then, he left the main hall and headed to the courtyard. A strange voice came from one of the rooms there.

He arrived at the room's door and furrowed his eyebrows before knocking on it.

"Who's there?" came a rebuke.

"It's me," Yuvaan said.

"Wait there," the voice said.

A few minutes later, the door opened, and a man around forty years old walked out. He was still getting dressed as he walked out of the room.

"Don't you know I'm a busy man? What's your business with me?"

Yuvaan glanced at him and said coolly, "A huge army of cultivators numbering in the hundreds of thousands has appeared near Sol. My men are no match for them. We need you to intervene and annihilate them."

The man asked, "What's their strength?"

Yuvaan said, "Around the Herculean rank."

Hearing this, the man was displeased. He said, "Are you seriously asking me to fight against cultivators at the Herculean rank? If word spreads, I'll be deeply humiliated."

Yuvaan replied, "Now's not the time to worry about that. We have to defeat Sol and Wyrmsstead to force James into taking action. Once he intervenes, we will have a reason to go after him. I believe that with your strength, capturing him shouldn't be a problem."

The man said, "That man's a freak. To think that he possesses a treasure such as the Infinity Steles... Once he utilizes the treasure, not even I can stand a chance against him. However, against me, he won't even have the time to use the Infinity Steles."

"Make haste."

The man glanced at Yuvaan and said smilingly, "Don't worry, leave everything to me. If James appears on the battlefield, I'll capture him alive. When that happens, Earth will be ours."

Yuvaan stroked his beard and said smilingly, "If I seize James' body, the treasures we will obtain will be much more valuable than Earth itself. Once we emerge as a force to be reckoned with, the whole world will come under our control."

Yuvaan was not bragging. James' physical body was too mysterious, his arcane arts were too powerful, and his Infinity Steles were too terrifying. With those in hand, he would have the world in his grasp.

"I'll head over there at once."

The man did not linger for long and hurriedly left Mount Bane and headed in the direction of the East Sea.

As he was a Sage, his speed was extraordinary. In the blink of an eye, he traversed an ocean and arrived before Jairo.

Upon discerning the appearance of the man before him, Jairo immediately knelt on one knee and greeted respectfully, "Master Bruno."

The man was Bruno Zymir, Yuvaan's nephew. Although he was a generation younger than Yuvaan, his strength was comparable to his.

Bruno waved slightly and said, "Stand up and talk."

"Understood." Jairo stood up.

Bruno asked, "What's the situation?"

Jairo answered, "A few hundred thousand Solean cultivators are headed our way. Based on current speeds, they should arrive in twenty minutes."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2407—"Twenty minutes?" A faint smile crept up on Bruno's face as he said, "Perfect timing, I would say. I'll annihilate them all in one fell swoop. I'm curious to see what else James has under his sleeves."

Bruno had heard about James' battle against Lucifer. Naturally, he knew that James' strength was weak. He only managed to defeat Lucifer by using the Infinity Steles. Faced against James, Bruno would not give him the opportunity to even summon the steles.

Upon being reminded of the immense power of the Infinity Steles, he gulped. If he could obtain them, who else would stand a chance against him? At that moment, his desire for the Infinity Steles only grew stronger.

As the two armies pressed forward, Bruno gave the order to decrease the speed.

Meanwhile, James ordered his army to advance at full speed. He had to stop his enemies on the high seas, far away from the East Sea. Otherwise, the consequence would be disastrous for the region.

Twenty minutes later, James spotted many combat aircraft in the air densely packed in a group. Based on conservative estimates, there were at least 3,000 aircraft. Meanwhile, below them was a huge vessel full of armor-clad soldiers.

He signaled his army to stop.

Meanwhile, upon seeing James' army before him, a smile crept up on his face as he ordered, "Fire!"

At his command, countless combat aircraft began launching missiles toward James and the others. Not only that, but the aircraft carriers also launched a few weapons of mass destruction.

"Stand back!"

Before James could give his order, Delainey stepped forward and appeared in front of the army. Then, she exuded a powerful aura that formed a huge barrier, shielding the 400,000-strong army.

Rumble!

Countless missiles and weapons of mass destruction exploded. Deafening explosions shook the earth, and the waves below created a tsunami. The destructive power was overwhelming.

However, Delainey blocked them all.

As she had reached the Mage Rank, these weapons could no longer deal any damage to her. Naturally, the army behind her was unscathed.

Seeing this, Bruno grinned and said, "The Mage Rank... I never thought that there would be someone else at the Mage Rank on Earth besides James. How impressive..."

"Stop!" Bruno ordered.

Then, the attack stopped.

Meanwhile, Delainey retreated to the rear and dissipated the barrier that was formed using True Energy. She appeared before James and smiled faintly, saying, "How was that, James? Not bad, right?"

As James had been the one flaunting his strength all this while, Delainey did not have the opportunity to demonstrate her strength. However, she was also a cultivator at the Mage Rank. Apart from James, there was no one else on Earth whose strength was comparable to hers.

James only smiled faintly and said, "Not bad."

At that moment, Sophie's voice came from inside the Celestial Abode, "Watch out, James. The enemy has a cultivator at the Sage Rank."

Hearing this, James had a fright.

"In position!" he ordered.

At his command, Delainey, Henry, and the Blithe King hurriedly entered into their positions and arrived at the forefront of the army. A terrifying aura burst forth from within them. Then, the 400,000-strong army catalyzed True Energy at the same time.

Their True Energy seemed to have completely merged at that moment.

James was standing at the very front with the other three leaders behind him. Then, at the rear was the army.

The formation was shaped like a triangle.

As True Energy gradually gathered inside James' body from the rear, James' aura burst forth at that moment. The power immediately surpassed the Tribulation rank. However, this time, there was no Heavenly Tribulation, because it was the formation's power and not James'.

"What's wrong, James? Why are we suddenly in formation?" Henry was confused.

James said, "There's a Sage in the enemy ranks."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2408—Hearing this, the other three took a deep breath.

James gazed into the distance.

In the distance, Bruno could sense a powerful aura coming from inside the Magic Circle. Though he could feel some pressure, he paid no heed to it. That was because he was a Sage, an omnipotent existence. Looking at James before him, his face darkened, "I never thought James would be the one to lead the army this time. In any case, I'll capture him alive."

Knowing that James had the Infinity Steles, he did not dare mess around. In the blink of an eye, he appeared in the air a thousand meters away from James' army.

James asked coldly. "Who are you?"

Bruno fixed his gaze on James and the 400,000-strong army behind him. He could sense that they had merged into a single entity with their aura fused into a single collective. Then, the aura was transferred to the other three leaders before making its way to James,

"How bizarre..."

He had a bad feeling about this.

"Die!"

Without answering James, his expression turned cold, and a dazzling sword appeared in his hand. Then, he swung the sword, drawing upon the energy of heaven and earth and Sage's power, and slashed at the 400,000-strong army.

Under normal circumstances, this would have annihilated the 400,000-strong army.

However, just as the invincible Sword Energy was about to strike its target, James moved. He leaped into the air, holding the sword crafted by Sophie in his hand. Then, he slashed with his sword.

This power was not only his but rather the collective. As the power of the 400,00 strong army merged, the power increased exponentially.

Boom!

As the Sword Energies collided, there was an explosion. As the blast was too great, the 400,000-strong army all staggered backward, almost breaking the Magic Circle. However, in the end, they managed to balance themselves.

Meanwhile, Bruno could sense a terrifying power shredding through the air. Under its overwhelming pressure, even a Sage like him staggered backward, spurring out a mouthful of blood.

His face darkened, as he cursed, "Damn it! How can this be? He hasn't even used the Infinity Steles yet. How did he manage to deflect my blade? How did he send me staggering backward and coughing a mouthful of blood?"

Bruno could not believe this.

Meanwhile, countless combat aircraft in the distance also suffered the aftermath of the battle between two extremely powerful cultivators, and many were destroyed. However, some survived.

"Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation!" James roared.

As his voice boomed, everyone unsheathed their swords at the same time. Then, their sword flew forward and gathered, forming a huge sword.

At that moment, the sword was several kilometers in length and exuded a terrifying aura. As the sword descended, it was like a huge mountain crashing down.

"Damn it!" Bruno cursed. Then, he summoned his full strength to resist the attack.

Standing in mid-air, he catalyzed all his sagely powers and gathered them together, forming a huge protective barrier.

Boom!

However, as the sword came crashing toward him, the protective barrier immediately shattered.

Meanwhile, Bruno's body was struck.

He plummeted from the sky and crashed into the ocean.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2409—The swords of 400,000 cultivators at the Herculean rank flew forward and gathered together, forming a gigantic sword. The sword contained the power of 400,000 cultivators. Even Bruno who was at the Sage Rank could not stand a chance against it.

Like a stringless kite, he plummeted from the sky and crashed into the ocean.

The power generated by the sword was simply too terrifying. The vessels and aircraft carriers in the distance were struck by the battle waves and instantly disintegrated into nothingness. Meanwhile, the soldiers of the Sun Empire and the cultivators who joined Yuvaan were annihilated in a single blow.

With just one move, James had turned the tide.

“Whew!”

Even James could not help but feel a chill running down his spine.

The Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation was simply too powerful. Who on earth invented such a Formation? The power of hundreds of thousands of cultivators combined was simply too terrifying.

“Is he dead?”

Henry asked.

“I don’t think so.” James said, “The Sage Rank is not to be trifled with. Although the Nine Heavens God- Annihilating Formation is impressive enough to defeat a Sage, annihilating him with a single move is near impossible.”

James firmly believed that Bruno was still alive. He stared at the sea below him, observing the waves. Then, he spotted Bruno.

Bruno had suffered some non-life-threatening injuries.

Swoosh!

A figure flew out of the water.

It was Bruno. His hair was disheveled, and he was in a wretched state. Standing in mid-air, he looked at the formation and furrowed his eyebrows, muttering under his breath, "Dammit! How are they so strong?"

He was a Sage. As such, he never expected a Formation formed by 400,000 cultivators at the Herculean rank could injure him.

"This Formation is bizarre. As I don't know what other powers it has, I should flee for now."

At that moment, Bruno thought about leaving. Then, his body flashed and he tried to flee.

However, sensing that he planned to make his escape, James catalyzed 108 Infinity Steles. As he was the leader, the power of all 400,000 cultivators had gathered in him. As he used the Infinity Steles, the Formation could no longer be compared to the one he used against Lucifer a few days ago. Now, the Formation created by the Infinity Steles was greater in power

Blocks of the Infinity Steles flew toward Bruno and blocked his path of retreat, fiercely smashing toward him. Bruno summoned all his sage powers and gathered them before punching the Infinity Steles with all his might, creating a terrifying force that collided with the Infinity Steles.

However, James' power was simply too strong. Bruno was no longer a match for him. As James catalyzed the Infinity Steles, their power grew, and Bruno could not even make a dent in them.

Boom!

A loud sound reverberated throughout the air. The sound wave was so loud that it caused a tsunami as the sea below churned.

The Infinity Steles remained static. Meanwhile, Bruno could only feel an overwhelming power hurling toward him. Before the Infinity Steles could even reach him, he spurted out a mouthful of blood as his body tilted and plummeted from the sky. Before he hit the ground, however, the Infinity Steles crashed toward him, leaving wounds that spread throughout his body. Unable to withstand the terrifying blow, his body was torn apart

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2410–Boom!

Then, Bruno's body exploded, and he disintegrated into nothingness.

Upon seeing this, the 400,000-strong army was dumbfounded. Henry, Delainey, and the Blithe King were stunned. Even James could not believe his eyes.

“Is this the true power of the Infinity Steles? Sophie’s right. The stronger I am, the more terrifying the power of the Infinity Steles.”

James took a deep breath.

If he crossed into the Sage Rank, the Infinity Steles would no longer be blunt weapons. Rather, they would transform into indestructible weapons.

“J-James, did a Sage die just like that?” Delainey was in disbelief.

Henry chimed in, “His physical body disintegrated into nothingness. Not even ashes remained. He’s completely gone.”

“Haha...” The Blithe King praised, “How powerful and terrifying! With James and his 400,000-strong army, Sol has nothing to be afraid of!”

James collected himself and smiled faintly, saying, “I merely borrowed their strength. Anyone of you would have done the same thing.”

Henry said, “No way! Your treasure is the key to everything. If not for the Infinity Steles, it would be impossible for us to slay a Sage.”

“Mhm.” Delainey nodded. “I agree.”

James smiled. He was extremely fortunate to have obtained a treasure like the Infinity Steles.

Then, he put them away.

The ring on his finger increased in size and turned into the Celestial Abode. As the golden door opened. James ordered, “You’ve worked hard, everyone. Though peace has returned however temporarily on Earth, there are still many crises lurking around the corner. You’ll have to work hard and cultivate. Now, return to the Celestial Abode and cultivate in peace.”

James’ voice boomed.

“Understood.” Their voices rang in unison.

Then, they took their turns entering the Celestial Abode.

Soon, only four people remained.

Henry asked, "What do you plan to do next, James?"

James was lost in thought. He firmly believed that someone had been pulling the strings behind the scenes, and Yuvaan was the most likely candidate. Although he did not have any evidence, he was sure about his speculation.

"Now that I have the ability to annihilate Sages, I'm no longer afraid of Yuvaan. He has brought about tremendous destruction of lives and property. Perhaps the mastermind behind the Sun Empire's mobilization is Yuvaan. So, I plan to head to the Divinity Sect on Mount Bane."

"Sure."

"I support your decision."

"I totally agree."

The three did not have any disagreements.

"Let's return to the East Sea for now."

James turned to leave. In the blink of an eye, he was already a thousand meters away.

All four of them swiftly left the area.

Soon, they arrived at the port of the East Sea.

Parts of Driftveil City were affected by the tsunami that was brought about by the fierce battle earlier. By the time James and the others arrived, some places were already underwater. Meanwhile, the entire city was experiencing strong gales and heavy torrents.

Seeing this, Delainey took a deep breath. "To think that the battle so far away managed to cause such devastating destruction... If we had fought in Driftveil City itself, perhaps the entire city would have been wiped off the map."

James nodded slightly and said, "The power of a Sage is terrifying. A single one of them is able to destroy Sol with a single move."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2411—Mount Bane, a mountain that came from the Sealed Realms, was located in Sol.

Ever since the seal had shown signs of weakening and Spiritual Energy began to recover, more and more unknown regions gradually appeared in the surroundings of Mount Bane. Every other day, there would be a new mountain in its vicinity.

The Divinity Sect was located on a mountain that appeared after the Spiritual Energy recovered. As there were many Spiritual Roots beneath the mountain, it had tremendous Spiritual Energy.

At that moment, Yuvaan was in the Divinity Sect's main hall waiting patiently for news of Bruno. However, no news came although quite some time had passed.

He pulled his phone out and called Bruno.

However, his call would not go through. After all, Bruno had already been killed by the Infinity Steles.

"What's going on? Did something happen?" Yuvaan had a bad feeling about this.

"Men!" he shouted.

Soon, a few guards walked in and knelt on one knee. "Patriarch."

Yuvaan stood up and ordered, "Investigate what happened on the seas near the East Sea of Sol."

"Understood."

Meanwhile, James had returned to the East Sea. After giving a few instructions to the general garrisoned there, he hurriedly made his way to Mount Bane.

Since he already guessed that Yuvaan was the mastermind behind this, he had to make his way to the Divinity Sect as soon as possible and annihilate Yuvaan Zymir. He could not provide Yuvaan any breathing room. Otherwise, if he escaped, trouble would only keep on coming. In any case, even if Yuvaan was innocent, he would have to be exterminated.

Soon, James, Henry, the Blithe King, and Delainey arrived outside Mount Bane.

There, Henry asked, "James, do we mobilize the 400,000-strong army?"

"Of course," James said. "Although I could fight a Sage to a standstill with my full strength, I won't be able to annihilate him. However, with the 400,000-strong army providing power to me, I can easily annihilate a Sage."

"Mhm."

The three nodded.

Then, James opened the Celestial Abode and released the 400,000-strong army, which was garrisoned just outside Mount Bane.

Henry, the Blithe King, and Delainey remained outside, while James headed into Mount Bane by himself.

At the same time, in the Divinity Sect on Mount Bane, Yuvaan was sitting in the main seat. Below him was a man kneeling on one knee, "Patriarch, we have concluded our investigation. They are all dead."

"What?"

Yuvaan stood up.

The man pulled his phone out and entered the photo gallery, saying, "These are images captured by national satellites."

With a casual wave of his hand, Yuvaan conjured up a powerful force in his palm, which pulled the phone over to him. He looked at the phone and saw the photos inside, including the Formation of the 400,000- strong army, the gigantic sword, and the Infinity Steles.

Seeing this, his expression was unusually grim.

"Damn it!" he cursed "Curse you, James!"

He was enraged. Not only did James slay a member of the Zymir family, but Bruno was a Sage. Even among the three thousand Sealed Realms, a Sage was a supreme being. Now, he was simply dead.

"What should I do?"

He calmed himself down.

Since James managed to kill Bruno, that would mean he was capable of annihilating him as well. Besides, James had grievances against him.

At that moment, he could not care less anymore.

"Men!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2412—A few guards walked in.

“Patriarch.”

Yuvaan’s face darkened as he ordered, “Abduct everyone related to James, especially his daughter and his wife

Yuvaan originally did not plan to resort to this. Now, it appeared that he had no other choice.

“Understood “

The disciples of the Divinity Sect swiftly moved out.

At the same time, James had arrived at Mount Bane, where living beings from the Three Thousand Worlds gathered. Upon his arrival, he was immediately recognized by the crowd.

“Th-That’s James”

“He’s the one who defeated Lucifer”

“He possesses 108 Infinity Steles. Although he’s weak, he can slay a Sage.”

“What’s he doing here on Mount Bane?”

The living beings pointed at James and discussed among them.

James paid no heed to them and simply headed in the direction of the Divinity Sect. Soon, he arrived at the area where the sect was located. It was a range of undulating mountains, and at the foot of one of the mountains stood a huge stone tablet, on which the words ‘Divinity Sect’ were carved.

“Who’s there?”

As soon as he arrived, James was discovered by the Divinity Sect’s disciples. A couple of them walked over to James and blocked his path. Upon discerning his appearance, they brandished their swords and cautiously took a few steps back at the same time.

Wearing a composed expression on his face, James said coldly, “James, Caden, the Emperor of Wyrnstead and the King of Sol. I came here to settle some old accounts. Get lost if you value your life”

Though his voice was calm, he commanded an air of majesty.

These disciples were not weak and were around the Herculean rank. They knew of James’ strength.

However, as disciples of the Divinity Sect, they would be severely punished if they retreated now.

One of them said coldly. "This is the Divinity Sect, James. Yuvaan Zymir, our Patriarch, has long crossed into the Sage Rank. Leave immediately if you don't have a death wish."

The disciple brought up Yuvaan's name in the hopes of intimidating James into leaving.

"What?" James looked at them as his face darkened and said, "You don't plan to make way for me?"

"No," they roared

"Then die!"

James raised his hand, and powerful energy materialized in his palm. Then, powerful energy shredded through the air, sending them flying.

The commotion attracted the attention of other disciples. Soon, a hundred of them appeared and surrounded James. Some were at the Immortal Ascension rank, whereas others were only at the Supernatural rank.

James' expression remained composed. That was because he knew there were two types of people on Earth: Sages who possessed enormous strength and normal cultivators who were insignificant. Besides the strongest group of people on Earth at the moment were the prodigies of the Three Thousand Worlds. Since his current strength was comparable to or even surpassed that of theirs, he could not care less about them.

"Those who stand in my way shall die!" James said.

Then, a sword materialized in his hand.

"Kill him!"

"Stop him!"

The disciple brandished their swords.

At the same time, in the main hall of the Divinity Sect's main peak...

Yuvaan waited patiently for news to come. As long as he could abduct those related to James, he would be able to intimidate him. By then, James would simply be a lamb to the slaughter.

As for the Demon Race, he already had a plan in mind. Once he captured James, he would leave Earth immediately and head to an unknown world. There, he would seize James' physical body and treasures for himself and conceal himself in a secluded spot before cultivating. In the future, he would be the greatest figure in the world.

"P-Patriarch, something terrible has happened! James has made his way here to the Divinity Sect!"
