The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2413—Hearing this, Yuvaan's expression turned solemn. He knew that James would certainly make his over here after annihilating Bruno. However, he did not expect him to be here so soon. The moment he sent his men to abduct those related to James, he was already on his doorstep.

"Damn it! Did he seriously think I'd be afraid of him?"

Yuvaan clenched his fists.

Meanwhile, hundreds of the Divinity Sect's disciples lay dead on the ground at the foot of the mountain.

The James from before would have chosen to spare them, as he was compassionate and merciful. Now, he was different. Since they decided to resort to violence, they would have to face the repercussions. After annihilating hundreds of disciples, he ascended the stairs of the Divinity Sect.

At the same time, outside Mount Bane....

Henry, the Blithe King, and Delainey were already in mid-air alongside the 400,000-strong army. Having already set up the formation, all they needed to do was wait for James' order to activate it. When that happened, the power of all 400,000 cultivators would be fused together.

The appearance of a grand army just outside Mount Bane created a sensation.

"What's going on?"

"Why are there so many human cultivators?"

"They're all earthlings. Since when did Earth have so many cultivators at the Herculean rank?"

"I just received news that this is a 400,000-strong army under James' banner. Not too long ago, James used this army to form a Formation alongside the Infinity Steles to completely annihilate a Sage. I heard that the Sage disintegrated into nothingness, and not even ashes remained."

News of a Sage's demise spread, creating a sensation.

"What's James doing here at Mount Bane with a 400,000-strong army?"

"Could he be planning to annihilate every cultivator here?"

“That’s not possible. Apart from a few individuals, some of the prodigies who appeared on Earth did not harm the earthlings at all. Besides, James isn’t that dumb to provoke the Three-Thousand Worlds.”

“Indeed... If he offended the Three-Thousand Worlds, the earthlings will be doomed once the seal is completely undone.”

“He should be after the Divinity Sect. After all, Yuvaan Zymir once captured James and struck him with lightning for two weeks. He almost lost his life.”

“How interesting... Let’s watch the show for now.”

Upon seeing the 400,000-strong army, the cultivators of the Three-Thousand Worlds were excited.

Although news of James annihilating a Sage had spread like wildfire, everyone here had never witnessed it with their own eyes. As such, they considered this the perfect opportunity to witness a Sage’s demise.

In Marcello’s residence on Mount Bane...

“What?” Stunned, Marcello said, “Jace, are you saying that James annihilated a Sage?”

“Mhm.” Jace nodded and said, “The news has spread like wildfire. The grand army outside Mount Bane is James’ subordinates. Rumors say that the four hundred thousand cultivators are capable of forming a terrifying formation that could accumulate their power, combine them together, and create terrifying power.”

“How unbelievable... What formation is it?” Marcello asked.

Jace replied, “After watching some images of James annihilating the Sage and the formation set up by the 400,000-strong army, I flipped through some classics and found out that it is called the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.”

“Tell me more about it.” Marcello was puzzled about the formation.

Jace explained, “According to the records in ancient texts, this is a formation of the Heavenly Court in ancient times. In primordial times, the Heavenly Court was the most terrifying entity in the world that ruled over the universe. Meanwhile, there was a war god by the name of Pranav Tiberius in the Heavenly Court.

“Pranav Tiberius the War God had an army numbering in the hundreds of thousands.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2414—“He used the army to create a terrifying Magic Circle called the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.”

“However, this formation should have been long lost. I never thought that it would see the light of day once more. Moreover, the ancient texts recorded that Pranav the War God met his demise during the battle in the Ancient Heavenly Court. This means that the only one who could obtain the formation was his daughter.”

Hearing this, Marcello asked in confusion, “Jace, do you mean that James knows Pranav the War God’s daughter?”

Jace shook his head and said, “I don’t know either. However, I learned everything I know from the ancient texts. Since these are the only records of this formation, I don’t know much about anything else.”

Hearing this, Marcello took a deep breath.

She never thought that James would have learned such a terrifying formation. Not only that, but the entire 400,000-strong army had completely mastered it.

Pensive, she said, “There must be someone insanely powerful helping him behind the scenes. Otherwise, there’s no way that a four hundred thousand-strong army could have learned such a terrifying formation.”

Jace nodded and said, “I agree as well. However, we have no idea who the person behind the scenes is.”

He had learned of the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation through some images. The opposite was true for the other prodigies, who only found it hard to believe that James had annihilated a Sage.

At the same time, in the Celestial Abode...

There was a mysterious realm at the rearmost part of the city. Sophie was sitting in a lotus position on the ground while being enveloped in a gentle white light.

“Who’s calling me?”

Sensing something, she stopped her cultivation and opened her eyes. Then, mysterious symbols appeared in her palm, forming a Formation. This was an Extrapolation Formation.

Soon, she understood everything.

“I never thought that Jace Sterling of the Demon Race would learn of my existence. It appears that there are still records of the Ancient Heavenly Court in the Demon Race,” Sophie murmured.

She paid no heed to this and shut her eyes before continuing to cultivate.

At the same time, James had reached the mountainside of the Divinity Sect.

Before the main hall at the peak of the mountain, Yuvaan, who was wearing a grey robe, gazed at the 400,000-strong army in the distance. Although their rank was weak, they had already formed a Formation. As their power fused, even he could feel his blood run cold.

“What Formation is this? Why is it so bizarre? How did the aura of these people fuse together?”

Yuvaan was puzzled.

Even though he was a Sage, he knew nothing about the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

Then, he turned to look at the mountainside. James was slowly approaching him while holding a sword in his hand. Soon, he arrived at the peak and walked toward the main hall.

Standing a thousand meters away from the main hall, James looked at Yuvaan and the thousands of disciples standing behind him.

“You’re here, James.”

Yuvaan said coldly, “Though I didn’t go after you, you came knocking on my doorstep. Do you seriously think you kill me just because you killed Bruno? Do you seriously think that a formation created by four hundred thousand cultivators at the Herculean rank can annihilate me?”

Considering that James could even annihilate Bruno, Yuvaan knew that he stood no chance against James.

Now, he was merely stalling for time for the people related to James to be abducted and brought before him.

Pointing his sword at Yuvaan, James said, “A few years ago, you struck me with lightning for two weeks. just to seize my cultivation method for yourself. I endured excruciating pain and torture. Today will be the day you pay for your sins.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2415—“Today will be the day you pay for your sins.”

Hearing this, Yuvaan was so enraged that he roared in laughter.

“Hahaha! Who gave you the courage to make such a bold claim, James?”

Yuvaan was infuriated. Though he had cultivated for thousands of years, he now had a brat pointing a sword at him.

However, upon sensing the combined power of the 400,000-strong army, he suppressed the fury inside of him.

Now, he could only stall for time.

After calming down, he smiled faintly and said, “James, I don’t have any grievances against you. I passed judgment on you because you’re a descendant of sinners. However, not only did you not repent for your sins, but you even cultivated the Demonic Arts. I did that on behalf of the humans of the Three-Thousand Worlds.”

“Haha...” James laughed coldly. “What a sh*tty excuse.”

He roughly guessed that Yuvaan was trying to stall for time. Then, a thought came to mind. There was only a single possibility. Yuvaan must have known that he was coming. Knowing that he would not stand a chance against him, he planned to abduct people related to him to intimidate him.

James' body flashed as he appeared in the sky. At that moment, he completely fused with the aura of the 400,000-strong army. Now, he could transfer the power as he pleased.

Seeing this, Yuvaan's face paled.

"What do you think you're doing, James?"

At that moment, many cultivators had gathered near the Divinity Sect. They were prodigies who came from the Three-Thousand Worlds. When they saw James soar to the sky, their faces paled.

"Though Yuvaan's a Sage, James is capable of annihilating Sages. If these two fights, the battle waves will be terrifying."

"Stand back."

Everyone hurriedly retreated to avoid being pulled into the fight.

Meanwhile, James pointed his sword at Yuvaan and said coldly. "Yuvaan, you made a move against me to seize my cultivation method for yourself on that day. Today, I'll tear you to pieces. Now, die!"

At that moment, majestic Sword Energy materialized from within his sword and shredded through the air.

Yuvaan dodged the attack.

However, his disciples could not dodge in time. In an instant, the entire Divinity Sect was reduced to a pile of rubble, and every disciple died a horrible death.

Such was the power equivalent to a Sage's. Though the mountain on which the Divinity Sect was established was hundreds of square kilometers, the whole place was turned into a pile of rubble in an instant.

In the air a distance away, Yuvaan's expression was grim. He never thought that James would act so decisively. He did not believe he stood a chance against him.

"James, do we really have to fight to our deaths?" Yuvaan asked coldly.

"Make your move," James said.

"Hmph!"

Knowing that James had made up his mind, Yuvaan said coldly, “Do you seriously think I won’t have an ace up my sleeves? Even if I’m no match for you, your daughter will die alongside me.”

Hearing this, James was enraged.

He sheathed his sword and summoned the Infinity Steles.

108 Infinity Steles appeared in the air.

“ ... ”

Seeing this, Yuvaan’s blood ran cold.

At that moment, he could not care less about James’ treasure. Wishing to stay alive, he turned and fled.

However, the Infinity Steles had already crashed toward him.

As Yuvaan was a Sage, he summoned terrifying power and forcibly tore the void open in an attempt to flee this region. However, as the Infinity Steles crashed toward him and the void, the void immediately dissipated.

The Blood Energy inside Yuvaan’s body churned.

Before he could even react, the second Infinity Stele came crashing toward him.

He hurriedly fled.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2416—However, as the power of the Infinity Steles was simply too terrifying, they formed a powerful spatial pressure. Under this pressure, Yuvaan’s speed drastically decreased and he was struck by the Infinity Steles.

His rank was slightly higher than Bruno’s, so he only plummeted from the sky and crashed into the pile of rubble. He did not lose his life just yet.

“Holy!”

“How terrifying!”

“Yuvaan’s at the peak of late-stage Sage Rank’s First Stage. To think that he doesn’t even stand a chance against the Infinity Steles...”

The cultivators in the distance were completely stunned.

Swoosh!

From below, Yuvaan soared to the sky and stood in mid-air. At that moment, his hair was disheveled, and there were blood traces on his lips. He seemed to be in a wretched state.

“Curse you! Die!”

Enraged, a sword materialized in his hand.

As he casually waved his sword, dark clouds blotted out the sky, and lightning flashed in the clouds. Under his control, the lightning struck the 400,000-strong army.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Lightning bolts struck the army repeatedly.

However, as they had become a collective, the damage they suffered would be distributed equally among the rest. Besides, as their power had increased, the lightning did not manage to break the formation. Some cultivators were injured and spurted out a mouthful of blood.

Swoosh!

A few Infinity Steles flew toward the army and shielded them from the lightning attack.

At that moment, Henry, the Blithe King, and Delainey made their moves.

As leaders, they were able to use the formation's power as they pleased. As such, they now had sufficient strength to fight against a Sage.

Under the combined attack of the three, Yuvaan was in a wretched state.

Then, a few Infinity Steles came crashing toward him. Unable to dodge in time, he was heavily struck by them. At that moment, he was gravely injured.

Crash!

He was struck by another Infinity Stele.

As the injuries on his body grew, he was now completely fearful for his life.

"N-No more, James. I admit defeat. I'll obey your every command from today onwards," he hurriedly said.

Chapte

"Too late."

A sword materialized in James' hand. Then, in the blink of an eye, he appeared before Yuvaan and pierced through his body with the sword.

Though the sword seemed ordinary, it was in fact extraordinary.

Before Yuvaan could even react, he was pierced by the sword. His head was decapitated, and his body plummeted from the sky and crashed to the ground.

Upon seeing this, the living beings observing in the distance were stunned.

Who would have believed that James truly annihilated a Sage if they had not witnessed this with their own eyes?

Jace had been watching the battle too.

Upon seeing this, he took a deep breath and said, "As expected of the formation created by Pranav Tiberius the War Fod of the Ancient Heavenly Court... It certainly is terrifying. If the army achieves another breakthrough, James' power would increase drastically."

Marcello pursed her lips and smiled "James is really impressive. After this battle, no one would ever dare mess around with the earthlings ever again."

After Yuvaan was dead, James stored the Infinity Steles away.

The 400,000-strong army descended from the sky and landed in the pile of rubble below.

Although the formation was powerful, some cultivators had suffered injuries after being struck repeatedly by Yuvaan's attacks.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2417—As the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation was able to deflect a Sage's attack and distribute the damage equally among everyone, many were injured. However, the injuries were not severe.

At the moment, all 400,00 cultivators were resting on the pile of rubble that used to be the Divinity Sect.

Meanwhile, James breathed a sigh of relief.

Yuvaan was finally dead.

A few years ago, Yuvaan was a supreme being in his eyes, a gap he could never hope to cross. Now, however, he had acquired the strength to annihilate a Sage. Although he had borrowed the strength of the formation, this 400,000-strong army was brought up by him. As such, this should be considered part of his strength.

Henry said, "At long last, he's dead."

The Blithe King said smilingly, "We annihilated a Sage! Since I contributed to the effort, I guess that means I now have the right to boast about this."

As the Blithe King was one of the leaders and a principal character indispensable to the Nine Heavens. God-Annihilating Formation, he was proud that James was able to kill a Sage with his help.

Not just him, but even the 400,000-strong army felt the same. After all, this was a Sage, a paramount being at the top of the power pyramid. Now, they had successfully annihilated one.

"You've done well."

Henry looked at Henry, the Blithe King, Delainey, and the soldiers, and thanked them sincerely. "If not for all of you, I wouldn't have annihilated him that easily."

"Don't mention it."

"You're too modest, James."

"By the way, we have been cultivating for many years, Sir. Are we allowed to have a short vacation?"

"I agree! We've worked really hard all these years."

Many soldiers spoke.

James said smilingly, "No problem at all. From today onward, you'll be given a month's worth of vacation. A month later, I want you to assemble at Wurmstead where you'll return to the Celestial Abode and cultivate. As there will be many terrifying enemies in the future, we can't lower our guard. Is that understood?"

"Yes, Sir!" their voices rang in unison.

Then, the soldiers rested and began healing their injuries using healing elixirs.

James had a short break as well.

In the meantime, many people came to greet him. Some among them were the prodigies of the Three Thousand Worlds. As James had demonstrated enormous strength, they wished to make acquaintances with him. As for James, he merely smiled and greeted them.

After a short moment of respite, the 400,000-strong army dispersed.

As James had given them a month's worth of vacation, they deeply cherished it. Some returned home to see their families, while others only wanted to relax.

After this battle, James' prestige spread far and wide. From that moment onward, no one dared underestimate the earthlings.

James did not linger on Mount Bane for long. Soon, he returned to Wurmstead alongside Henry, the Blithe King, Delaney, and the others.

After this battle, the humans on Earth were now safe from danger. James, on the other hand, could not have peace of mind.

He temporarily stayed in Wurmstead and spent his time with Winnie, guiding her through the path of cultivation. Winnie had enormous potential for martial arts. No matter the martial art, she would instantly grasp the essence the moment James taught her.

James was shocked.

Just like that, James spend a month in Wurmstead.

A month later, the 400,000-strong army assembled in Wurmstead. James sent them into the Celestial Abode and continued their cultivation.

He was bored, so he entered the Celestial Abode as well. Together with Sophie, they ate meat and drank alcohol. Sophie gnawed on a drumstick in a very unrestrained manner with grease all over her mouth, which did not match her temperament and beauty at all.

“Sophie, a long time has passed since the Second Calamity. When is the providence going to appear?”

James asked.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2418—Sophie raised her head to look at James and said, “It should arrive soon.”

“Is that so?” Intrigued, James asked, “When?”

Sophie said, “I can sense it approaching. Probably within two weeks.”

“In that case, do you know what the providence is this time?”

“Mhm.” Sophie nodded.

“Really?”

James was stunned. He was only asking casually and did not expect her to know.

He looked at Sophie in anticipation.

Sophie thought about it and said, “The Heavenly Path has already experienced fluctuations. Through the Law of Heaven, I can roughly determine what providence will be. If I’m not mistaken, the providence this time is ‘Five Elements’.”

“Five Elements”?”

James looked at her puzzledly.

She nodded, “Yes, it’s related to the ‘Five Elements’. As for the specifics, I don’t really know either. That’s because I haven’t been able to reach the rank where I can gain insight into the Heavenly Path. As such, I can only roughly sense its presence.”

“Related to the ‘Five Elements’, huh? What could they be?”

James’ curiosity was piqued.

The providence that appeared after the First Calamity was to head to the Provenance and gain insight into the secret of the three beams of light, which was in truth the Infinity Steles. Meanwhile, the providence that would appear after the Second Calamity was related to the ‘Five Elements. However, since even Sophie was not in the know, James had no idea.

There were many powerful cultivators concealed all over the world.

As the Second Calamity ended, many of them gained insight into the providence that would soon appear and learned that it was related to the 'Five Elements'.

In a place in the universe, an elderly man was in the midst of extrapolating. Countless inscriptions surfaced in his mind, and each of them was changing repeatedly. With each second that passed, there were a billion changes.

At that moment, the elderly man stopped abruptly.

"The Five Elements of Genesis?!"

He took a deep breath and murmured, "I never thought that the Five Elements of Genesis' power would appear on Earth. I wonder who would obtain the power of the Five Elements of Genesis. Even I could not foresee that."

"If I guess correctly, there should be a total of five prodigies who can obtain them."

"With that, there'll be five insanely powerful cultivators in the world."

"If someone with extremely good luck could obtain all five powers, he would gain unbelievable power!"

At that moment, many powerful cultivators had sensed the changes of the Heavenly Path and learned that the current providence was related to the Five Elements.

The insanely powerful ones knew that this was related to the Five Elements of Genesis, whereas the weaker ones could only sense that it was related to the Five Elements.

However, the insanely powerful ones were not allowed to compete for the providence. Only the younger generation was eligible.

For some reason, the information spread. Soon, every one of the Three-Thousand Worlds knew that the current providence would be the Five Elements of Genesis' power.

"A Grand Patriarch of someone unknown sanctuary has foreseen that the current providence would be the Five Elements of Genesis' power."

"If we can obtain even a single one, we can become top-notch cultivators overnight. If we gain all five, we'll be invincible!"

"But what is the power of the Five Elements of Genesis?"

"The Five Elements are essentially Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth. Meanwhile, Genesis is the most ancient power in the universe. As such, the Five Elements of Genesis can be truly terrifying."

"I still don't understand."

"Well, it's not like you can have the right to compete for the providence."

The cultivators from the Three-Thousand Worlds began discussing the Five Elements of Genesis power. All living beings from all worlds were looking forward to the providence so that they could compete for it.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2419—James had a rough idea that the providence was related to the Five Elements. However, he did not know about the specifics.

A few days after he left the Celestial Abode, news of the providence had spread like wildfire. Not only that, but the information was even more detailed than the one James learned of.

"The Five Elements of Genesis?"

Upon seeing the information on the Martial Arts Forum, James froze.

"Sophie, do you know what're the Five Elements of Genesis?" James asked Sophie who was inside the Celestial Abode.

Sophie asked, "Why? Could it be that the providence is related to the Five Elements of Genesis?"

"Mhm." James said, "Everyone's saying the same thing out here."

Sophie explained, "Genesis is a power that was born during the birth of heaven and earth. As such, it's the most ancient power there is in this world. Meanwhile, the Five Elements of Genesis are related to five treasures. Instead of calling them Genesis, it would be more accurate to describe them as five treasures."

"What could they be?" James asked.

Sophie said, "How do I explain this to you...? After all, I've never seen the Five Elements of Genesis myself. To my understanding, based on the records of ancient texts, there are five superpowers in the Ancient Heavenly Court in ancient times who controlled the Five Elements of Genesis.”

“Well, actually, apart from the Five Elements, there were also Yin and Yang Genesis as well.”

“In essence, Genesis is the fundamental power of the universe. It is this fundamental power that created the universe that we know today.”

Sophie explained.

However, James was confused.

Sophie said, “There’s no need for you to learn all this. You’ll naturally know once the providence appears.”

“Sure.”

James did not ask any more questions.

Now, the only thing he needed to do was to wait patiently for the providence to appear.

He continued scrolling through the Martial Arts Forum. Now, even the prodigies of the Three Thousand Worlds had joined the forum.

With the appearance of the Five Elements of Genesis, many posted threads and discussed it. However, they were shallow and lacking in depth. Simply put, they lacked the details provided by Sophie.

“James, I can briefly tell you more about the Five Elements of Genesis.”

Sophie’s voice came from inside the Celestial Abode and reverberated throughout James’ mind.

“Sure thing,” he answered.

Sophie said, “The Five Elements of Genesis were originally possessed by five Ancestral Gods.” “Ancestral Gods?” James froze momentarily before asking, “What are they?”

Sophie said, “Ancestral Gods are beings even greater than Grand Emperors.”

“Didn’t you say that no cultivator has been able to surpass the Emperor Rank since ancient times? Why is there suddenly an Ancestral God Rank out of nowhere?” James asked, puzzled.

Sophie replied, "They are figures who existed long ago and only in the records of ancient texts. The era where Ancestral Gods exist is called the Primeval Age."

"How long ago are we talking about here?"

"How would I know? In any case, there were no Ancestral Gods in the era I lived in. Even the strongest couldn't make a breakthrough into the Emperor Rank. However, there were still beings that were near to becoming Ancestral Gods."

"Among them was the Grand Patriarch of the Targwyn family in the Land of Tabal."

"The Grand Patriarch of the Gorgers also crossed into the Emperor Rank and was infinitely close to reaching the Ancestral God Rank. However, he failed in the end."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2420—"Oh."

James listened intently.

Sophie cut to the chase and said, "The Five Ancestral Gods each controlled the Genesis power of Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth. There were many Ancestral Gods in the Primeval Age. However, no one knows what occurred back then. They completely vanished without a trace, thus ending the Primeval Age."

"As the Primeval Age drew to a close, it ushered in the Ancient Heavenly Court Age. Some cultivators of the Heavenly Court obtained the Five Elements of Genesis and crossed into the Emperor Rank."

"I came from that era. Meanwhile, my father was a war god of the Ancient Heavenly Court."

"Many unbelievable things transpired during the Ancient Heavenly Court Age. Back then, as I was still young and my cultivation base was weak, I didn't understand much about what happened."

"I could only vaguely remember my father saying something to me before he sealed me away"

Hearing this, James could not help but ask, "What did he say?"

Sophie replied. "Before sealing me away, he told me this, 'The world is changing and no one can escape fate's punishment. The cycle of heaven and earth is inevitable. I don't want you to die, so I have no choice but to seal you away. By the time you awake, everything will be different, and you'll appear in a brand-new era.””

After she spoke, she took a deep breath.

“Indeed, when I woke up, I was already in another era.

“That was the Primordial Age where Emperor Jabari reigned supreme. It was truly a bright era where a Grand Emperor would be born every once in a while. Unfortunately, as the Demon Race invaded Earth, the Primordial Age drew to a close.”

“Meanwhile, the current era we are in is called the Apocalypse Age.”

James was listening intently.

Now, he had a rough understanding of this universe's history, which could be roughly divided into different eras the Primeval Age, the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, the Primordial Age, and the current Apocalypse Age

However, he had no idea how long each era lasted. Perhaps not even Sophie had any idea.

“The power of the Five Elements of Genesis originated from the Ancestral Gods of the Primeval Age During the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, the Five Ancestral Gods obtained the Five Elements and became Grand Emperors.”

“This means that if you obtain one of the Five Elements, you'll gain enormous potential and at least reach the Grand Emperor Rank.”

Sophie briefly narrated the history of the universe and the origin of the Five Elements of Genesis.

James listened intently.

“Why did the Primeval Age and the Ancient Heavenly Court Age end?” He asked puzzledly. “Did we humans do something to violate the Heavenly Path and bring about the Apocalypse Age? Is that why the Heavenly Path targeted humans?”

Sophie said, “I don't know either. Although I was born in the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, I was sealed away not too long after. I don't know much about the era I was born in, let alone the Primeval Age. I'm somewhat knowledgeable about the Primordial Era, but there's no need for you to know all this at the moment. The only thing you need to do at the moment is to cultivate hard and compete for providence.”

“Mhm.” James said with determination in his eyes, “I will definitely obtain the Five Elements of Genesis. I will cut down anyone who dares stand in my way.”

James had a conviction in his heart. He certainly possessed the strength to fight against the prodigies of the Three-Thousand Worlds for the providence.

Sophie warned, “Don’t let your guard down. God knows how many prodigies who were sealed since the Primordial Age plan to emerge in his etra. Perhaps you believe that Lucifer is the strongest individual you’ve ever met. In that case, I’ll have to warn you that you’ll encounter countless other prodigies who are more terrifying than Lucifer in the future.”

“Thank you for the advice. I’ll keep them in mind.”

After briefly discussing with Sophie, James continued scrolling through the feed of the Martial Arts
