The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2431—Marcello had a very high standing in the Demon Race, but she was the first to be eliminated. She stood outside, watching the people in the Five—Elements Painting.

Several people were standing outside the gazebo at the foot of the mountain, and mystical inscriptions shrouded all of them. The inscriptions swam around their bodies like tadpoles, emanating colorful rays of light.

As he was engulfed by the mystic inscriptions, James did not experience any discomfort. Instead, he felt warm all over his body. It was extremely cozy.

This comfort lasted for over a minute before he felt pain. His muscles felt as though they were being torn apart by countless bugs. Then, there was a sharp pain in his head as if worms were crawling inside his skull.

The veins in his face were throbbing from the agony. He looked horrifying.

The others were experiencing the same as well. They all felt painful. However, the pain was still bearable for them.

To acquire the Elemental Inversion, the unprecedented and outstanding cultivation method, all of them endured the pain strenuously.

Several seconds passed once more.

Jace suddenly sensed a powerful force approaching him. He could no longer withstand this force and was sent outside forcibly by it.

After seeing a blur, he opened his eyes again to find himself outside.

Marcello laughed when she saw her senior appear..“Jace, it appears that the Elemental Inversion is not meant for you.”

Jace rolled his eyes and said, “What? Are you thrilled that I’ve been eliminated?”

“No, no.” Marcello immediately hid her smile, assumed a serious expression, and said, “It sure is an unprecedented and outstanding cultivation method. Even an exceptional prodigy like you couldn’t get the Elemental Inversion. I have no idea who will be able to get it.”

She continued to observe the Five—Elements Painting in front of her. There were still a few people in the painting: James, Lucifer, Nyasia, and Willibald.

Even though they were in the painting, some mysterious inscriptions could be seen flowing around their bodies. The inscriptions were like fluid lines, constantly changing.

Watching up until this point, Marcello could not help but ask, “Jace, is this the Elysian Inscription?”

“Mhm.” Jace nodded and said, “This is the simplified Elysian Inscription created by the Five Ancestral Gods. At their rank, they have the power to create worlds and set the rules.”

The Five Ancestral Gods had surpassed the Grand Emperor Rank, which was unrivaled.

The Grand Emperor rank was not attained by anyone during the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, let alone the Primordial Age.

The ultimate goal of countless Grand Emperors was to reach this rank, but since the Primeval Age, all of them could only close in on the rank indefinitely, never truly reaching it.

“In this age, an Ancestral God Rank powerhouse might actually be born,” said Jace.

Marcello nodded.

This was a glorious epoch. There were numerous opportunities. There would undoubtedly be powerhouses who would reach this rank.

In the painting, four people were still standing outside the gazebo.

At this moment, the inscriptions on the four were slowly separating from their surroundings. These inscriptions gathered in the air, forming four razor-sharp blades.

The first blade slashed at Nyasia, and her body immediately dissipated.

Then, she appeared outside the Five-Elements Painting.

The second blade slammed down, landing on Lucifer. Lucifer’s body could not withstand the dreadful force either and was immediately split into two halves. However, his body did not vanish from the Five- Elements Painting. Lucifer used an odd Supernatural Power.

His body, which had been severed, recovered once again. After recovering, he collapsed to the ground.

The third blade struck and landed on Willibald. Cracks appeared on Willibald's body. However, he was not cut in half. He did not vanish either and remained in the Five-Elements Painting.

The fourth blade hacked down on James. Before it landed on his body, a brilliant light appeared on top of James' head which blocked the blade that was coming down.

"What is that?"

Outside the painting, Marcello asked, "When the blade landed on James' body, why did a magnificent radiance appear on top of his head?"

Jace shook his head. He did not know either.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2432—This was the simplified Elysian Inscription. His rank was still far too low for him to comprehend it.

In the Five-Elements Painting, following the brilliant light that appeared on the top of James' head, blocking the sharp blade, the other three felt a very powerful force coming toward them. This force forcefully sent them out of the Five-Elements Painting.

Right now, only one person remained in the Five-Elements Painting. It was James.

Outside the painting, Nyasia said as she held out her hands, "I came here for nothing. This brat is truly powerful. He can actually withstand the trials of the Heavenly Path. He even blocked the Heavenly Path's attack in the end. It appears that, after eons of time, his accomplishment will soar to a level that is beyond our comprehension."

Willibald's expression was grave. He came here for the Elemental Inversion, but he did not get anything. Marcello was beaming. She said, "Alright, let's go. The Elemental Inversion will now belong to James, and it has nothing to do with us. After obtaining the Elemental Inversion, he'll most likely acquire the Five Elements of Genesis. The first and second providences are both tailored to him."

As she was saying that, Marcello turned around and left.

"What? He received the first providence too?" Nyasia was slightly stunned.

When the first providence appeared on Earth, she was not present, so she was not sure who had acquired it.

"Yeah." Marcello blinked her large, bright eyes and said, "James received the first and second providence in a row. In the future, he will be regarded as the greatest by both heaven and earth. That's quite appropriate, isn't it?"

"This James..." Nyasia looked at James, who was still in the Five-Elements Painting, with astonishment on her face.

Without saying anything, Lucifer turned around and left. He knew that the treasures of the universe would end up in the hands of those who were meant to have them.

The Elemental Inversion was not meant for him. He did not force it either.

After Lucifer left, the others left one after another.

In the Five-Elements Painting, James noticed everyone had disappeared. He was the only one left right now. He could not help but laugh. "I'm the only one left? Looks like the Elemental Inversion is mine now."

"Haha. Good. It's not bad at all."

Laughter was heard at this precise moment. As the laughter rang out, the five elders in the gazebo reappeared.

However, they were all standing up at the same time, staring into the distance.

"Ancestral God Gold, this James is really quite powerful."

"Yes. He actually broke through the River of Time and traveled through it to reach our epoch."

While looking off into the distance, the group of people spoke in a lowered voice.

James was standing next to them. He could hear what they were saying.

"Me?" When he heard his name, James slightly furrowed his brow. "I broke through the River of Time and arrived at the Primeval Age?"

When he was still confused, a silhouette suddenly appeared in front of the Five Ancestral Gods.

James could clearly see the person. It was him. They looked exactly like him. The only thing that distinguished them was their demeanor. This person in front of him, who looked just like him, had an air of contempt for the world.

“Five Ancestral Gods, where is Thea?”

As soon as they appeared, the person who resembled him asked this question.

When he heard Thea, ‘James was slightly stupified. He was very interested in learning what had happened. He focused on listening.

However, the scene in front of his eyes started to blur. He could no longer see the Five Ancestral Gods or the person who looked exactly like him.

“What is going on?”

James stroked his chin, baffled.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2433—James gained some information when he was inside the Five—Elements Painting.

He learned that in the Primeval Age, the Five Ancestral Gods had already known that he would get the Elemental Inversion. Furthermore, he heard the Five Ancestral Gods say that the future him broke through the River of Time and went to the Primeval Age.

‘Why would I go to the Primeval Age?’

‘Why did I ask about Thea as soon as I appeared?’

‘What happened to her?’

Despite much deliberation, James remained perplexed.

However, these matters were still too far away for him, so he set them aside for the time being. The only thing he knew for sure was that the future him would be extremely powerful.

Just how powerful would he be? He would be so powerful that he could travel through time and traverse the course of history.

“I never expected the future me to be so powerful.”

James touched his nose.

After that, he looked at his surroundings and muttered with confusion, "I'm the only one left now. That means I'll be able to obtain Elemental Inversion. But where is the Elemental Inversion?"

He looked around him. In the distance, there was a rolling mountain range. A mountain path led directly to the end of the mountain range, and at the base of the mountain was a gazebo.

The chessboard in the gazebo was still there. Some odd chess pieces remained on the chessboard. He walked over and stared at it.

At this precise moment, the Celestial Abode on his finger flashed, and a woman in white appeared. It was Sophie.

Previously, Sophie was almost killed by the Heavenly Path. Fortunately, the spirit of Emperor Jabari appeared just in time and saved her. At the time, she had already recovered. Her complexion had also regained its rosy hue.

"Ms. Sophie," James called out to her.

"Mhm." Sophie nodded her head.

James asked, "I'm the only one left now. Given the situation as it is now, the Elemental Inversion belongs to me. But where is the Elemental Inversion exactly?"

Sophie looked at their surroundings as well. Eventually, her gaze landed on the chessboard.

After looking at it for quite a while, she said, "James, this chessboard is the Elemental Inversion."

James also looked at it. However, he could not understand it.

Sophie explained, "Right now, you're still not able to understand what these inscriptions mean. Why don't I translate it for you so you can learn it?"

"That would be the best."

James was beaming with delight. Sophie's presence spared him a lot of trouble.

Following that, Sophie began to stare at the chessboard. She seemed to look at it for a long time.

It seemed as though millions of years or only a moment had passed. The passage of time did not seem to be noticeable in this place.

“Got it,” Sophie said suddenly.

Her voice brought James back from a trance.

“James, I’ve figured it out. I’m going to relay it to you right now.”

After that, Sophie started teaching James Elemental Inversion.

While learning it, James took it very seriously. Under Sophie’s tutelage, he quickly picked up this cultivation method.

However, he had only learned how to control True Elemental Energy. To exert the true Supernatural Power of the Elemental Inversion, True Elemental Energy was required. If the Five Elements of Genesis were used, the force of this Supernatural Power would be maximized.

“You now have a basic understanding of the cultivation method, James. You may now proceed to cultivate True Elemental Energy. After cultivating True Elemental Energy, you’ll be able to absorb the Five Elements of Genesis. The Five Elements of Genesis are destined to be yours. Others wouldn’t be able to obtain it,” said Sophie.

She looked at James and said once again, “You’re really special. I know that in the future, you’ll turn out to be very terrifying. I only have one request for you in the future.”

“What is it?” James looked at her.

Sophie said, “I can’t tell you right now. Only when you’ve grown strong enough and are unrivaled in the entire world will I be able to tell you.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2434—After saying that, Sophie returned to the Celestial Abode.

James, on the other hand, looked puzzled.

From the Celestial Abode came Sophie’s voice. “James, cultivate well. I believe that even in such a harsh environment, you will be able to continue breaking the Elysian Seal, rise to become the most powerful person in this age, and protect the human race throughout the ages.”

"I will." James wore a determined look on his face. He said, "I've already died once. I promised the custodian that as long as I am alive, I will keep humanity safe. Even if it means giving up my life, I will do so without hesitation."

"Alright. You should first go outside."

"Okay." James nodded. "How do I go outside, though?" he muttered, confused.

While he was confused, a very powerful force came from within the Five-Elements Painting and violently expelled him. When he reappeared, he was already outside.

Just as he was about to leave, the Five-Elements Painting, which was hanging across the sky, suddenly shrank. It turned into a tiny landscape painting and descended from the sky. James was slightly stunned before reaching out and catching the falling painting.

"This?"

James unfolded the painting. The scene in it was the same scene from the Five-Elements Painting.

Sophie's voice came from the Celestial Abode. "James, the Elemental Inversion is inside the Five-Elements Painting. Now that you've received Elemental Inversion, this painting is naturally yours. Keep it."

"Alright." James stopped focusing on it. He kept the Five-Elements Painting and placed it in the Celestial Abode.

After that, he left.

He left this unknown area and appeared on Earth. Looking at the five energy vortexes in the sky, he walked toward one of them.

The gateway in this energy vortex was connected to the Fire Domain.

In this world, there was the Fire Genesis.

He had already improved his body into a fire elemental body. Now all he had to do was locate the Fire Genesis. Then, he could absorb and refine it.

James quickly walked toward the volcano and soon arrived there. Many living beings had already gathered in this area. However, these living beings did not know how to get the Fire Genesis. They had no idea where the Fire Genesis was either.

They were searching in the volcano. There was no heat in the volcano's outer regions, so they could come and go freely.

However, it was extremely hot in the volcano's depths. Despite the fact that these prodigies were from the Three Thousand Worlds, they dared not enter the area hastily.

James, on the other hand, immediately headed for the depths of the volcano. Under Sophie's guidance, he arrived at the deepest area of the volcano. This location was engulfed in white flames and had a very high temperature. Nevertheless, James' body had become a fire elemental body. The flames at this place did not harm him. Rather, it appeared as if they were a part of him.

"James, use Elemental Inversion and detect the Fire Genesis," instructed Sophie from the Celestial Abode.

James nodded.

After that, he concentrated his thoughts and performed Elemental Inversion. Under the control of the cultivation method, the surrounding flames seemed to have come to life, moving in accordance with his thoughts.

"It's underground."

James detected it and stomped on the ground with great force. Instantaneously, the mountain shook and the earth trembled.

The volcano split open. In the deepest part of the earth, a white flame appeared.

The flame was very special. The surrounding flames did not dare to approach it, leaving an empty area around it.

At the moment, outside the volcano...

"What's happening?"

"Why did the volcano split open?"

“Look. Someone is deep inside.”

“That’s James Caden.”

“Could it be that James found the Fire Genesis?”

“What if he did? It’s not like anyone who finds amazing treasures can obtain them. It is determined by opportunities and fate. Besides, remarkable treasures can automatically recognize their owner.”

“Let’s go over there and have a look.”

Everyone outside the volcano quickly rushed to the depths of the volcano.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2435–The volcano was already split open.

A chasm emerged, and at the bottom of it, there was a white flame. The flame was surrounded by empty space.

“This is the Fire Genesis?” James muttered.

At this moment, many people came rushing over.

“The Fire Genesis is mine!” A roar resounded.

A prodigy quickly flew over and charged toward the Fire Genesis, intent on keeping it. However, as soon as he got close to it, the white flame unleashed a terrifying force.

Before he could react, he came into contact with this white flame and instantly evaporated.

The others who came running over were utterly disconcerted.

‘They’re gone, just like that?’

‘Isn’t this Fire Genesis a little too terrifying?’

Even James could not help but take a deep breath. It was too horrifying.

The prodigy who dashed over was at the very least of the Mage Rank. As soon as they got close to the Fire Genesis, their body evaporated.

After the person vanished, the others did not dare to come any closer. They simply stood nearby.

Straight ahead, the white flame was floating. It was silent, and the only sound was that of the burning flame.

James knew that this Fire Genesis belonged to him. Nobody would be able to take it away from him, so he was not in a hurry.

He slowly walked over and catalyzed Elemental Inversion. Under the control of the cultivation method, the form of the Fire Genesis kept changing. It was like a wisp of smoke, swaying in the wind.

“Wha-?”

Many people were taken aback when they saw this.

“What’s happening? How does James have control over the Fire Genesis?”

Many were confused.

James, on the other hand, looked delighted. Elemental Inversion was indeed amazing. It could control the Fire Genesis directly. However, he could not refine it into his body yet, as True Fire Energy was required.

He had yet to cultivate True Fire Energy, so he did not rush to absorb and refine the Fire Energy. He sat on the ground in the lotus position, performed Elemental Inversion, and began to absorb the flames around him. He refined them, turning them into his own True Fire Energy.

Under normal conditions, a person’s body could only sustain one type of True Energy.

However, Elemental Inversion was created for the Five Elements of Genesis. The cultivation method could not only control the Five Elements of Genesis, but it could also sustain five different types of True Energy with different attributes.

With Elemental Inversion, it was very easy to cultivate True Fire Energy. It only took a short while for James to cultivate True Energy, but True Energy was relatively weak. If he wanted to enhance it, he would need more time.

However, he did not need to make True Energy particularly powerful right now.

After cultivating True Fire Energy, James stood up.

About ten thousand people had gathered nearby.

As soon as he got to his feet, the ten thousand people backed away a little and looked at him warily. James touched his nose and muttered, "Am I that scary?"

He grinned before employing the cultivation method. The Fire Genesis in front of him was promptly absorbed into his body. While being sustained by True Energy, the Fire Genesis swam about in his meridians.

Suddenly, a powerful force manifested from within the Fire Genesis. It nourished his physical body, and at this point, his physical body began to transform.

James sat on the ground in the lotus position.

From an outsider's perspective, James was engulfed in flames while his aura was growing stronger incessantly.

"His constitution is changing."

"You're right. The Fire Genesis is changing his physical body."

"I never imagined the Fire Genesis would end up in James' hands."

Many people were envious.

James, on the other hand, was engrossed in the thrill of his body's transformation..

Previously, his physical body had already been transformed into a fire elemental body, but the Fire

Genesis was currently changing his body once more. He felt that his blood, his flesh, and his bones were fire.

"James, congratulations."

Sophie's voice came from within the Celestial Abode.

"I wasn't expecting the Fire Genesis to be able to transform your body into a Fire Elemental Holy Body. If nothing goes wrong after this, you'll get another Genesis. Your body will also undergo a complete transformation, turning into an unprecedented and remarkable Elemental Holy Body."

Sophie was envious.

James was too lucky. He was truly a man of great fortune.

"Hehe." James laughed.

The Fire Genesis continued to change his body for a day. After that, the flame that erupted within his body dissipated. He stood up and clenched his fist.

After turning into the Fire Elemental Holy Body, his physical strength also increased significantly.

He looked at the ten thousand people in the distance, smiled faintly, and strode over.

When he walked over, the people around him automatically made way for him.

Next, James went to the Water Domain, which was a vast body of water.

The water there was amazing, as there was enigmatic energy in it. In the water, James improved his physical body, allowing it to transform once again into a water elemental body.

For other cultivators, this would be impossible.

However, James was using Elemental Inversion. It was a Supernatural Power created by the Five Ancestral Gods in the Primeval Age. Even though he was already a Fire Elemental Holy Body, he could use the cultivation method to further improve the properties of his body while using the Fire Elemental Body as a foundation.

Water Genesis was a spring.

From the spring, crystal-clear water continued to form. The water was not typical water. It was energy.

James absorbed it without any issues. After absorbing this spring, mystical energy emerged from it, changing James' body once more.

James' body transformed once again into Water Elemental Holy Body.

After that, he made his way to the Wood Domain.

Wood Genesis was a dead tree.

On the dead tree, a new shoot was sprouting. The young shoot continued to emit mystical energy.

Metal Genesis was an ore. It was the size of a fist, shaped like a rhombus, and shone with golden light. Earth Genesis was a type of soil that was black in color.

James traveled between the Five Elemental Worlds. Not surprisingly, after obtaining the Elemental Inversion, the Five Elements of Genesis were all his.

“Breaking news! James Caden alone acquired the Five Elements of Genesis.

“Every time he receives one type of Genesis, the Genesis will change his physical body. He is currently an Elemental Holy Body.”

“He has the Five Elements of Genesis, and his body contains five different types of energy with different attributes. At this point, who could possibly compete with him?”

As the news spread, the whole world was shocked. Not only was the Earth astounded, but so were the main Orthodox factions in the Three Thousand Worlds and some powerful divine sites.

“What? The Five Elements of Genesis was obtained by a human from Earth?”

“What? This human’s name is James Caden, and he not only received the Five Elements of Genesis from the second providence, but he also received the Infinity Stele from the first providence?”

For a moment, the entire world was astonished.

James had already made it back to Wurmstead at this time.

In Wurmstead Palace’s main hall, Henry was speaking. “Mr. Caden, the word has gotten out. All of the world’s living beings are aware that you obtained the Genesis Five Elements. Even the Three Thousand World’s most powerful cultivators are aware.”

Henry was deeply worried.

Right now, the entire Earth and even the Three Thousand Worlds all knew that James had acquired the first and second providences that appeared on Earth.

In a very short period of time, James' name became well-known throughout the Three Thousand Worlds.

Every major Orthodox faction, sect, and major power in the Three Thousand Worlds was trying to find out more about James.

James' stories quickly spread.

Now, James' deeds were known to all of the Three Thousand Worlds' major sects. They discovered he had a Demonic Body, had cultivated Demonic Art, and had an unusual connection to the Demon Race. "Die," a voice came from somewhere ancient in the Three Thousand Worlds.

A big shot had spoken.

"As a descendant of sinners, not only did he not learn to repent, but he even cultivated Demonic Art without permission. To prevent a repeat of what happened in the past, James must die."

After the big shot spoke up, many hidden powerhouses spoke up as well. All of them wanted to kill James. These people were all hidden powerhouses, and they had all been alive since the Primordial Age.

Soon after, another powerhouse spoke up, "James can't die.

"Over the years, James made significant contributions to the human race on Earth. He is dedicated to humanity. Even if he has a Demonic Body, this does not justify his death."

It caused quite a stir in the Three Thousand Worlds.

James, on the other hand, was in Wurmstead.

Nobody had bothered him in the last few days. He was at peace. However, he could guess that he would be in trouble, given that the Three Thousand Worlds were anything but simple.

In the Ancient Realm, while Farley appeared to be the top cultivator, James knew that the Ancient Realm was home to a number of hidden powerhouses. Xozarth from the Dragon Abyss was one of them.

He was certain that there were still hidden powerhouses in the Ancient Realm,

In the past, when he was at the Ancient Clan, Farley once told Marquies Tenzin that if he destroyed the Ancient Clan, the hidden powerhouses of the Ancient Clan would appear and destroy the Demon Race's Fangs.

When he remembered this, James became slightly concerned that he would attract more powerful opponents. With his current strength, he could easily handle a Sage, but someone stronger than that would be too much for him.

James was secretly worried. However, worrying about it now was pointless. All he had to do now was work hard on cultivating and improving his strength.

In the Cultivation Courtyard of the Celestial Abode, he was sitting in a lotus position, looking inside his body.

His body held the Five Elements of Genesis, which were one of the most powerful forces in the entire world. The Five Elements of Genesis were also five treasures.

Currently, the Five Elements of Genesis were located separately in each of his five viscera.

He concentrated his mind, and the Five Elements of Genesis produced the potent power of the Five Elements. The power of the Five Elements spread throughout his entire body, and it was charged with strength.

"After acquiring the Five Elements of Genesis and cultivating the Elemental Holy Body, my current physical strength is on par with the Mage Rank. However, my current rank is still quite low. Now that the Elysian Seal is within my body, it is extremely difficult to raise my rank."

James sighed.

Despite having exceptional physical strength, his rank was still weak.

According to his understanding, the Mage Rank had three stages. After the Mage Rank came the Tribulation Rank, and after the Tribulation Rank came the Sage Rank.

Currently, he could barely kill a Sage using a variety of tactics.

Nonetheless, if he did not rely on the army of four hundred thousand men, he was still quite weak.

Tap, tap, tap.

Footsteps were approaching.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2438—James raised his head to look. Sophie was coming in from the outside. She was dressed in white and looked beautiful. On her pretty face, there was a faint smile. She called out, “James.”

James stood up right away. With a smile on his face, he asked, “Ms. Sophie, what brought you here?”

“Why? Can’t I just come and see you?” Sophie smiled and sat down in the gazebo nearby. She crossed her legs, revealing her long, pale legs.

“You can.”

James laughed and sat to the side.

“James.” The smile on Sophie’s face froze, and her expression became solemn.

Upon seeing this, James was slightly stunned. He asked, “What’s the matter?”

Sophie said, “During the last few days, I observed the operation of the Heavenly Path and gained some information from the Heavenly Path’s operation rules.”

Looking at Sophie, James asked, “What information?”

Sophie said, “You’re going to experience a catastrophe, I’m afraid.”

“A catastrophe?” James was stunned. His face then took on a pained expression. He had already expected that he would be in trouble.

“Mhm.” Sophie nodded and said, “You’re going to have a lot of trouble this time.”

“How much trouble?” James was extremely anxious.

Sophie shook her head. “I didn’t extrapolate the details. Given that I nearly died the last time I extrapolated for a long time, I’ll be in big trouble if + dig deeper. I can only remind you to exercise caution moving forward.”

James nodded gravely. He would probably be in serious trouble next, as even Sophie was warning him. Regardless, he could not do anything right now. He had no choice but to roll with the punches.

“Concentrate on cultivating.” Sophie stood up. Then, she changed the subject and smiled while saying, ‘ You’re still quite impressive. You obtained the Infinity Stele as well as the Five Elements of Genesis. I’m not sure what the Third Calamity’s providence is, but after the Fourth Calamity, the four keys to open the seal are in your hands. You will be the one to break the seal, and the providence of breaking the seal will be yours as well.

“If you manage to acquire all four providence, your achievement cannot be understated.”

James smiled and said, “I feel like I’ve used all my luck obtaining the first and the second providence. I might not get it next time.”

Sophie smiled and said, “That’s not a given. In any case, just give it your all and fight for it. I can sense that the Third Calamity will take some time to appear. During this period, just work hard on cultivating.”

Sophie showed up and started to chat with James. They talked about a lot of things.

They talked about the Primordial Age and the Earth.

The Earth was called the Progenitor Star. During the Primordial Age, it was the most magnificent hub of this universe. A major secret was kept hidden on Earth. As a result, countless powerhouses gathered there.

However, Earth was not the only place to live.

There were many planets in the universe that were habitable by living things.

The universe was vast and boundless. To traverse the universe, one would have to reach unfathomable heights. A typical living being would be incapable of traversing the universe.

“I remember that during Ancient Heavenly Court Age, there was a Galactic Highway. Every habitable planet was connected to this Galactic Highway. After entering the Galactic Highway, one could travel across the galaxy,” said Sophie.

“Galactic Highway?” James was slightly taken aback. He asked, “What’s that?”

Sophie explained, “It’s a passage that spans the galaxy. The Galactic Highway was specifically created at that time by the Heavenly Court to govern the universe. You can think of this Galactic Highway as being equivalent to the Teleportation Formation you are familiar with.”

“Oh.”

James finally understood.

He had initially believed that Earth was the only planet suitable for human life in this universe. He had no idea there were so many other planets as such in the universe.

Sophie went on, “The universe is massive. In this universe, there are a lot of powerhouses. Back then, all of these powerhouses were gathered on Earth. Many were killed in battle, but many others survived.

“The Demon Race retreated, and these powerhouses all left before the Earth was sealed.

“The Demon Realm is home to the Demon Race. And the Demon Realm is a very powerful planet in the universe.”

After Sophie explained these things to him, James slowly started to understand.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2439—Sophie provided James with some fundamental knowledge about the universe.

James had also learned that the Demon Realm was one of the most powerful planets in the universe.

The Demon Realm was very far away from Earth.

Sophie said, “The distance between the Demon Realm and Earth, measured in light—years, is three hundred million light—years.”

James was a human from Earth, but he did understand the concept of light—years. It was the speed at which light traveled.

“Three hundred million light—years?” He was thunderstruck.

Sophie said with a smile, “The universe is vast and infinite. That’s not too far away.”

“Then, how did Marcello and the others come to Earth? Furthermore, while they’re on Earth, how can they still communicate with the Demon Race from a distance of three hundred million light—years away?” James asked the questions that were on his mind.

Sophie explained, “If the Galactic Highway is open, they just have to enter it and they’ll show up on Earth. Currently, the Earth is sealed, and the Galactic Highway has yet to open. They were sent here by a Demon Realm cultivator of great power.

“As for communication, they probably used some kind of secret art or treasure.”

Hearing that, James understood. He gave it some thought and asked, "Could it be that once the seal is broken, the Galactic Highway will be opened?"

"Yes." Sophie nodded and said, "When the seal on Earth is broken, as the three thousand Sealed Realms merge with Earth, the sealed Galactic Highway will also become open. Then, the Earth will once again become the hub of the universe. Numerous powerhouses in the universe will be drawn to this location. "In ancient times, the universe had seven realms. These seven realms were the most powerful planets in the universe. The Demon Realm was one of them, as well as Earth. Earth was named Human Realm."

"Oh, I see." James was suddenly enlightened.

"In any case, this world is far more complicated than you imagine. There will be a lot you won't understand if I tell you now. When you have enough power, you will understand. In the Primordial Age, the Ten Emperors of Earth were renowned throughout the universe."

After saying that, Sophie stopped speaking. She got to her feet, turned around, and left.

Before she left, she reminded James, "Don't put too much pressure on yourself. Cultivate in peace. Just take things as they come."

"Thanks, Mrs. Sophie."

With a grateful expression on his face, James stood up and watched Sophie as she left.

Since he received the Celestial Abode, Sophie had been extremely helpful to him. Without Sophie's assistance, he would not have been able to overcome many obstacles.

Sophie quickly left in silence.

Somewhere in the Ancient Realm, there was a place called Divinity's Peak, and it was not too far from the Divinity Sect. Although the Divinity Sect had been destroyed, this place remained.

At the peak of a mountain, there was a cabin. A man was kneeling in front of it.

He was the Divine Holy Emperor, an extremely powerful cultivator who had reached the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage.

In the Ancient Realm, he was among the top ten, yet he was currently kneeling on the ground.

"Grand Sect Leader, Sir, I beg you to please come out of seclusion."

The Divine Holy Emperor was on his knees, pleading desperately.

Creak.

The cabin door opened, and an elder walked out. The elder was dressed in a white robe. He was a bearded man with white hair. His face was wrinkled. He was walking sluggishly with his cane.

“Sir, you finally appear.”

The Divine Holy Emperor became excited.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2440—“M—my sect was destroyed by the Demon Race.”

The Divine Holy Emperor’s face was smeared with tears.

“J—James colluded with the Demon Race and destroyed my sect. Please deliver justice,” the Divine Holy Emperor began to speak nonsense.

This elder was the founder of the Divinity Sect. He was a super powerful cultivator who had lived since the Primordial Age.

The Divinity Sect was actually a very prominent sect in the universe. During the Primordial Age, it was well -known throughout the Seven Realms. The Divinity Sect in the Ancient Realm was merely a branch. Its headquarters were not located on Earth.

When the Demon Race retreated from Earth back then, a large number of cultivators from the Divinity Sect did as well.

“What happened?” The elder walked over and sat on a wooden chair to the side. He had been sound asleep, so he had no idea what had taken place outside.

The Divine Holy Emperor said, “A prodigy named James Caden appeared on Earth. Despite being a descendant of sinners, he was in cahoots with the Demon Race. The seal on Earth is currently weakened, and I dispatched a Sect Elder to Earth.

“However, James was far too vile. He first collaborated with the Demon Race to destroy my sect, and then he killed the Sect Elder of my sect on Earth.”

“A descendant of sinners?” After hearing that, Divinity Sect’s Grand Sect Leader furrowed his brow and said, “The Spiritual Energy on Earth had run out.

If my assumption is correct, Earth has only regained its Spiritual Energy in recent years. If he's there, how did he manage to emerge in such a short period of time and even kill the Sect Elder?"

"Sir, James is simply that sacrilegious. Furthermore, he even received the providences following the First and Second Calamities. They are the Infinity Stele and the Five Elements of Genesis."

Although the Grand Sect Leader of the Divinity Sect had been alive since the Primordial Age, he might not be familiar with the Infinity Stele and the Five Elements of Genesis.

The Divine Holy Emperor also told him about the Infinity Stele and the Five Elements of Genesis. "Sir, the Elysian Seal is currently present in every human body.

James, that brat, has the ability to go against nature and achieve breakthroughs repeatedly in a short period of time. If he grows stronger and forms an alliance with the Demon Race, the human race will be doomed. Once the seal is broken, the Demon Race will quickly take over Earth."

Hearing that, the elder furrowed his brow. After giving it some thought, he said, "Don't worry. I'll talk to some seniors about it now."

The real name of the Divinity Sect's Grand Sect Leader was unknown.

His alias was Dhiteus, and he was also known as the Divine Sage Dhiteus.

The Sage Rank had thirty-six stages, which corresponded to the thirty-six levels of heaven. It was also subdivided into Sage, Sage King, Sage Emperor, Great Sage, Holy Sage, and Divine Sage. Every six stages made up a division.

The Divine Holy Emperor was at the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage. He was a Sage.

Farley was at the Sage Rank's Seventh Stage. He was a Sage King.

Dhiteus, the Divinity Sect's Grand Sect Leader, was an extremely powerful cultivator who had been around since the Primordial Age. He was a Divine Sage. His strength had reached the thirty-third stage.

As soon as Dhiteus emerged from seclusion, he used secret art to contact some of the Three Thousand Worlds' top cultivators.

Shortly after that, a large number of powerhouses gathered at the Ancient Realm. They entered the Ancient Realm through the seal.

If they went through the seal to get to Earth, they would probably have to pay a steep price. However, traveling through the seal to other Sealed Realms was not a problem.

Powerhouses from the Three Thousand Worlds had congregated somewhere in the Ancient Realm. These powerhouses were all at the Divine Sage Rank.

“Fellow cultivators, I’ve gathered you here today mainly to discuss James Caden. I believe you were all aware of James. He is a human with enormous potential. If he hadn’t cultivated Demonic Art and colluded with the Demon Race, this would have been a blessing for the human race.

“However, he cultivates Demonic Art and has colluded with the Demon Race. He has even received many providences. If he’s allowed to keep growing, the human race will face a serious disaster.

“During the Primordial Age, the human race’s Ten Emperors committed treason. As a result, the Human Realm was unable to compete with the Demon Realm, and the universe that relied mainly on the Seven Realms was nearly wiped out by the Demon Race. We can’t let this happen again.

“I gathered everyone here to devise a plan and send a powerhouse to Earth to kill James.”
