The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2457—James carefully scrutinized Henrik's face.

Although James did not recognize Henrik, the other man knew him.

Henrik claimed that someone told him who James was.

Who exactly was this informant?

It was the first time he visited the Demon Realm. There was only one person on Earth who knew he went to the Demon Realm, and that was the Chamber of Scriptures' custodian.

James did not suspect the Chamber of Scriptures' custodian as the source that shared his information and his arrival in the Demon Realm..

He had no contacts in the Demon Realm.

Technically he knew Marcello and Jace, but they were still on Earth. Therefore, they could not have known he had come to the Demon Realm.

James was slightly wary of Henrik.

On the contrary, Henrik walked up to him and hooked his arm around James' shoulder. With a friendly smile, he said, "You don't have to be so cautious, Mr. Caden. I mean you no harm and simply want us to become friends."

His intimate behavior made it seem like he had been a long-time friend of James.

James looked at the creatures around him.

It seemed they were terrified of Henrik. He must be someone highly distinguished in the Demon Realm's

Mortal Dimension.

"Who's this man, Ms. Sophie?" James asked Sophie, who was watching from the Celestial Abode.

Sophie's voice chimed out from the Celestial Abode. "How would I know?"

James did not press her further since she did not seem to have any answers.

Henrik continued to hook his arm around James' shoulder and led him directly toward the mountain.

Yalerad's cave mansion was located on the mountain. It was called the Triple Star Cave Mansion.

In the Mortal Dimension, Yalerad held an incredibly high status. He was the person closest to attaining the Sage rank. He was practically invincible when other Sages were not present in the Mortal Dimension.

The guards did not dare to stand in Henrik's path when he showed up. Everyone deliberately backed away and slightly bowed to him as if they were welcoming a distinguished guest

"The others seem very afraid of you," James said pensively.

"Of course"

Henrik smirked and said, "They're in my presence after all. I'm capable of causing havoc in all three dimensions Everyone shows respect to me regardless of whichever dimension I'm in."

Henrik began to brag about himself

"I'm not trying to toot my own horn, James, but even the Sage Dimension's Lord will bow in my presence

"I'm sure you know about the Demon Realm's greatest dimension, the Divine Dimension, right? Even the Demon Race's powerhouses in the Divine Realm must respectfully address me as Sir Henrik."

James had a look of disbelief on his face.

"Is this chubby man really that influential?"

'If he really is that prestigious, then what reason would he have to befriend me? It doesn't seem reasonable at all, thought James.

"Why did you come to me? Also, how did you know I was here?" James boldly voiced his thoughts.

"I wanted to embark on a great adventure with you. Together, we'll have a fruitful journey and leave behind a legendary story." Henrik chuckled.

James was rendered speechless.

What the hell is he talking about?"

He stopped pursuing the topic since Henrik was unwilling to elaborate further.

“Sir Henrik.”

“You’re here, Sir Henrik.”

Along the way, many of Triple Star Cave Mansion’s guards and servants greeted Henrik respectfully.

James was surprised by their reaction and was curious whether the chubby man really had such great authority.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2458—When they reached the mountainside, a group hurriedly rushed toward them.

The person in the lead was a middle-aged man who looked about 40 years old. He was a burly man with slightly tan skin and wore a blue robe.

“What brings you here, Sir Henrik?”

With a solemn expression, Henrik replied, “What’s the problem? Is it wrong of me to be here?”

“N-No, that’s not what I meant I meant to ask why you didn’t notify me beforehand so I could make preparations to welcome you in advance.”

Henrik casually waved his hand and said, “That isn’t necessary. I’m here with my friend. He personally came to treat you, Yalerad. You should be honored. What are you standing there for? Hurry up and greet Mr. Caden.”

The person who approached them was the owner of Triple Star Cave Mansion, Yalerad

Yalerad glanced at James and did not dare to overlook his presence. He bowed slightly and welcomed him with outstretched arms “M-Mr. Caden, this way, please.”

James was taken aback.

This Henrik was really someone who wielded great authority. Even the Triple Star Cave Mansion’s owner trembled before him, fearing he would accidentally offend Henrik.

With Yalerad’s invitation, James entered the cave.

The interior of the stone cave was like a completely different world. It looked like a utopia and had everything in abundance.

The Empyrean Spiritual Energy within the cave was overflowing and was rapidly changing, almost turning into Sage Energy.

Yalerad personally served James and Yalerad. He brought out some fine wine and spiritual berries. Although James had never seen anything like it, he could sense the berries were at least at the eighth. rank

Henrik raised one of his legs and propped it up on the table. He picked up a spiritual berry and began to nibble on it. With a smile, he said, "I'm not trying to show off, James, but if you mention my name in any of the Three Dimensions here, it'll definitely get you out of trouble."

Then, Hennik turned to Yalerad and asked, "Isn't that right, Yalerad?"

Yalerad quickly answered, "Y-Yes, it's true. Henrik is very well-known through the Three Dimensions. Everyone has to treat him courteously."

James was even more puzzled.

"Why would such a powerful person approach him and attempt to be buddies with him? What exactly was Henrik trying to achieve?"

"Is he trying to get close to me because he knows I have the Infinity Steles and the Five Elements of Genesis?"

James had some suspicions and decided that they were highly likely

Other than that, James could not think of any reason why Henrik would approach him.

"S Sir Henrik, you mentioned Mr. Caden is here to treat me?" Yalerad looked at James

Yalerad was well acquainted with Henrik

Although Henrik himself was not a powerful cultivator, his teacher was a peerless powerhouse famous throughout the Three Dimensions It would not be an exaggeration to say he was invincible within the Three Dimensions.

For Henrik to call someone a friend, this person must be extremely remarkable.

Hearing his question, Henrik looked at James.

"Ahem."

James recomposed himself, sat upright, and coughed a few times. Then, he replied, “I heard the Triple Star Cave Mansion’s owner was unsuccessful in his attempt at the Sage Tribulation and sustained injuries You’ve called for all doctors to attempt to treat you and are offering a divine pill to whoever successfully heals you. Coincidentally, I’m quite confident in my medical skills.”

“That’s great!”

Yalerad’s face lit up, and he said, “If you can cure me, I’ll definitely give you the divine pill as a reward, Mr. Caden!”

Henrik was immediately dissatisfied with Yalerad’s excited chattering. “Hey, is that how you should be talking to him?”

Yalerad was confused and did not know what he said wrong.

Henrik corrected him. “Do you think Mr. Caden needs your divine pill? He came here to help you out of the kindness of his heart. Don’t you understand?”

“Y-Yes, of course! I’m sorry, Mr. Caden. I made a slip of the tongue,” Yalerad immediately apologized.

James rolled his eyes and cursed Henrik’s predecessors silently.

He quickly corrected them. “My generosity wasn’t the only reason I’ve come here. I also came to acquire the divine pill. It’s going to be rather useful to me.”

Henrik glanced at Yalerad with a smile and said, “What are you waiting for? Take out the divine pill and offer it to Mr.Caden When he accepts it, he’ll definitely cure your injuries”

Yalerad did not dare refuse Henrik’s orders.

Immediately, a light glowed from his palm, and a small bottle appeared. It was a transparent bottle with a golden pill inside

It was relatively small and only about the size of a thumb.

Yalerad carefully took out the pill and respectfully handed it to James. "This is the divine pill my ancestor left behind. A person below the Sage Rank can increase their cultivation by a sub-rank after consuming it."

James took the divine pill with satisfaction. It had slight warmth to it and released a pleasant fragrance. He could sense the extraordinary power within the divine pill.

He did not immediately consume it but instead, put it away.

After Yalerad handed over the divine pill, he looked at James eagerly.

James knew what he wanted and immediately said, "I'll examine your injuries first."

"Alright!" Yalerad brimmed with anticipation.

James began to examine Yalerad's injuries.

The examination concluded quickly.

Although Yalerad looked healthy, his body was full of injuries, and he was practically at death's doorstep. Without appropriate treatment, it would not be long before he died.

"What's my condition like, Mr. Caden? Can you cure me?" Seeing James' grimace, he could not help but feel anxious.

Many reputable powerhouses have attempted to treat his injuries but were ultimately unsuccessful. The Heavenly Tribulation mangled his entire body. His Spiritual Root was damaged, and treatment would be extremely complicated.

"It shouldn't be a problem," James uttered decisively.

Crucifier was capable of treating even the most severe injuries.

James took out Crucifier.

Seeing Crucifier, Yalerad stood up excitedly and stared at the steel wire in James' hand. "That's Crucifier? It's the weapon belonging to the Ancestral Needle Master!"

Hearing his exclamation, James looked at him.

"Ancestral Needle Master?"

Puzzled, James asked, "Henrik, who is this Ancestral Needle Master? Do you know about Crucifier's origins?"

James obtained Crucifier when he was still very weak. To his knowledge, Crucifier was left behind by martial artists from Earth about a thousand years ago. However, he knew nothing else about this item

“I know a little bit about Crucifer”

Henrik sat down and slowly explained. “The Ancestral Needle Master is a prominent figure during ancient times. He crafted the miraculous Crucifier Legends state that it’s capable of curing any kind of injury, regardless of how grievous. It’s also rumored Crucifier could even bring the dead back to life.”

“Huff!” James took a deep breath.

He never expected Crucifier to have such amazing origins and be related to an Ancestral God.

“Is it really that strong?” James gasped in disbelief.

Henrik replied, “Of course. Paired with the Ninety-nine Spiritual Art, it’s potential is limitless.”

“What’s the Ninety-nine Spiritual Art?”

“How do I explain this?”

After thinking for a while, Henrik said, “Forget it. You won’t understand even if I explain it to you. Anyway, Ninety-nine Spiritual Art has long been lost. However, since you’ve obtained Crucifier, you’ve established a bond with the Ancestral Needle Master. I believe you could possibly obtain the Ninety-nine Spiritual Art sooner or later.”

James did not ask anymore and began to insert the needles into Yalerad’s body.

He inserted one needle into Yalerad. Immediately, Yalerad felt his whole body relax, and powerful energy flowed from the needles, quickly repairing the injuries within his body.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2460—James inserted the second and third needle.

He kept inserting the needles until the last of the 81 needles were stuck in his body.

However, Crucifier alone was not enough to cure Yalerad. Although Crucifier was remarkable, Yalerad was injured by the Heavenly Tribulation. Treating his injuries required another step, which was to infuse him with True Essence.

James mobilized his True Essence and channeled it through the 81 needles. Crucifier's miraculous powers were stimulated and immediately permeated throughout Yalerad's body, healing his severe injuries.

The entire treatment process lasted half an hour.

After that, James pulled out the needles..

Yalerad was shocked by the treatment's effectiveness and exclaimed, "A-Amazing! I never expected such a great treasure to still exist in this world. After the treatment, my body's injuries are completely healed."

Henrik also gave James a thumbs up and commended him, "You're very skilled, Mr. Caden. I got to witness you using Crucifier on our first encounter. I'm getting even more eager to see the other treasures you have on you... Like the Infinite Steles, or the Elemental Holy Body. Marvellous."

Upon hearing his words, James could not help glancing at Henrik.

He thought to himself, "Who exactly is this guy? Why does he know all the treasures I have?"

Henrik seemingly read James' thoughts and smiled, saying, "I don't have ill intentions, Mr. Caden."

James asked, "How do you know about the treasures I possess? What exactly is your purpose in getting close to me?"

Henrik smiled meaningfully and said, "Of course, I know you."

"What a strange person," James murmured to himself.

He turned to Yalerad and said, "Since you've recovered, I shall take my leave."

After James finished speaking, he stood up and left.

Now that he had obtained the divine pill that could allow him to increase his cultivation rank by a sub- rank, he did not want to waste it. He wanted to quickly leave the area to find a place to refine the divine pill and reach the Immortal Ascension's Eighth Stair.

Yalerad quickly got up and chased after him, calling out, "Wait for me, Mr. Caden! I'm going to come along with you on your adventures!"

James ignored him and hastily departed.

Soon, he made his way out of Grandwych.

Henrik chased after him.

James sat in a lotus position on an uninhabited mountain range outside Grandwych and immediately took out the divine pill.

He swallowed the divine pill, and its energy rapidly flowed into his body. A powerful force cloaked and his True Essence immediately raised to the Seventh Stair's zenith and was close to reaching

Eighth Stair

Henrik sat on a rock beside him with his eyes glued on James.

"Being able to see James' breakthrough is also fortuitous," Henrik murmured.

At that moment, the Elysian Seal appeared within James' body. However, the True Elemental Essence in his body was overpowering, and was able to easily break through the seals.

In less than a day, he shattered all the seals.

As soon as the seals were broken, his True Essence and body evolved once more. Additionally, his physical strength was further augmented. However, it would take a very long time for his physical strength to reach the Mage Rank's Second Stage. As his physical strength reached higher ranks, it would only improve slightly each time he made a breakthrough in his cultivation rank.

"Tsk, tsk!"

Sitting to the side Henrik applauded James, "You're so strong, Mr. Caden! You made such quick work of the Elysian Seal! You're worthy of being called humanity's strongest cultivator!"

James looked at Henrik, withdrew his energy, and said, "What are you trying to achieve by following me around?"

Henrik said earnestly, "I'm not trying to achieve anything. I already told you I just want to accompany you on your adventures. Rest assured, I'm rather formidable. My strength is at least on par with yours. I won't be a burden on your adventures. I'll accompany you while you seek great treasures in the Demon Realm. How I let you keep all the treasures we find?"
