The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2481—There were countless spiritual fruits within the Celestial Abode.

However, Sophie very seldomly allowed James to consume them. He was only permitted to take them once in a while during critical moments.

He needed to cultivate step by step and stay grounded to reach the pinnacle of cultivation. It would be easy for him to improve his strength by consuming spiritual fruits if he was not aiming to reach the top. Henrik suddenly thought about something and said, “By the way, I remember there being a very magical place on Mount Lutheran. There should be a Primordial Pulse that produces abundant Primordial Energy.” “Really?” James’ face lit up with excitement.

He had heard of Primordial Pulses and Primordial Energy before.

Once Earth’s seal was open, Primordial Energy would be released in abundance on Earth. It would create a prosperous and incredible age.

Henrik replied, “Of course However, Primordial Pulses are rare in the Mortal Dimension, and only a handful exist Most of these Primordial Pulses are controlled by major clans. There are a lot of them in the Divine Dimension It’ll be hard to enter the Labhrann Clan’s Primordial Vein. Even I’m unable to order them to allow you access.

Qusai interjected, “If he can’t go there openly, he can always sneak in!”

“True” Henrik nodded with a smile.

The three began to formulate a plan on how to enter the Labhrann Clan’s Primordial Vein.

Afterward, Henrik inquired around for some information about the Labhrann Clan’s Primordial Vein. He spent three days until he finally found out the exact location of it

The Primordial Vein was located in the back mountain of Mount Lutheran.

The Labhrann Clan had set up a formation to prevent the Primordial Energy from leaking outside.

Without permission, the members of the Labhrann Clan were not allowed to cultivate in the holy site where the Primordial Vein was located.

The Labhrann Clan members obeyed their clan rules very well

Thus, there was no security around the holy site at the back mountain.

"You should go now, James. After you reach the Primordial Vein, get Sophie to set up a time formation for you to cultivate there. I'm sure your strength will improve rapidly," said Henrik.

Qusai said, "I've asked around and learned they don't have guards around the area. You can easily enter. Moreover, the clan's powerhouses hardly ever go there. There's practically no danger. You go ahead. We won't be coming with you

After speaking. Qusai took out a map.

It was a map of the Labhrann Clan's back mountain.

James accepted the map and said smilingly. "Thanks, you guys."

His goal in coming to the Demon Realm was to improve his strength to neutralize Earth's Third Calamity when it struck

Since he had the opportunity to do so, he would not miss it.

James held the map and left his accommodation, heading directly toward the back mountain.

Along the way, he did not bump into any other creatures.

Soon, he reached the back mountain.

However, there was a powerful formation shielding the back mountain. With James' current strength, he could not pass through the formation.

James looked at the formation and murmured, "Henrik and Qusai didn't mention anything about a formation in the back mountain."

He tried to walk close to it but immediately triggered the formation. He was blasted away by a powerful force and slammed into the ground.

James pitifully got back to his feet and looked at the formation.

It was a barrier formation with a white glow, blocking off his path.

"Could you help me break the formation, Ms. Sophie James asked Sophie, who was within the Celestial Abode.

"Sure." Sophie's voice came from the Celestial Abode.

"It's not an advanced formation. It's a pretty average one, in fact. I can break it with the flick of my finger. I've boosted your strength already. You can just walk through it."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2482—After Sophie's reply, James sensed a powerful force in his body.

He walked toward the formation without hesitation.

This time, he easily passed through barrier formation.

After passing through the barrier formation, the scene before him immediately underwent drastic changes. A stunning landscape with beautiful mountains and clear streams appeared before him. In the distance were a few towering mountains and a breathtaking waterfall. At the mountain foot was a river surrounded by a bed of flowers.

Various flowers and plants grew around, painting the area with radiant colors.

James walked over and sensed very potent Empyrean Spiritual Energy. The pores throughout his body enlarged, and he breathed in the Primordial Energy from the surroundings, which gave him indescribable comfort.

James could not help exclaiming, "What abundant Primordial Energy

He had never sensed such powerful energy anywhere else apart from within the Celestial Abode.

James knew he could get twice the result if he practiced in this place

He advanced into the area.

Not long after, he suddenly froze

A woman sat in a lotus position in the river ahead.

She was not wearing any clothes, and her perfect figure was displayed right before James' eyes.

James was slightly flustered when he saw her.

The woman practicing in the river was Brielle.

This place was the Labhrann Clan's holy site, but even clan members could not enter without permission. Thus, the area had become her seclusion spot all these years. The rivers were not filled with ordinary water but were formed by Primordial Energy

While focused on her cultivation, Brielle suddenly sensed something abnormal and abruptly raised her head

She immediately froze upon seeing a man standing on the shore, staring at her.

After a few seconds, she frantically shouted, "Ahh!!!"

Her body flickered, and she immediately appeared on the shore. A dress quickly slipped onto her body and covered her up

Brielle's pretty face flushed, and she cursed out, "You b*stard!"

At the same time, she moved quickly and attacked James.

Brielle was very close to becoming a Sage, and her attacks were incredibly potent if she unleashed them at full strength.

James quickly reacted, but it was already too late. Brielle appeared before him in a flash, and her slender arm thrust toward him.

He tried to dodge but could not make it in time.

James was struck in the chest and sent flying into the air. He crashed into the ground and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Although he had a robust physical body that was at the Made Rank's First Stage, he was unprepared for Brielle's attack. Thus, he sustained severe trauma despite having a strong physique and kept spitting out blood

A bloody wound formed on his chest.

This attack would have killed him if not for his Demonic Body.

After Brielle attacked, she watched James being blasted away and falling to the ground. He constantly spat out blood and could not get up. At that moment, her anger subsided significantly. She stood in the distance and murmured. "The prodigy from Earth that obtained the providence from the First and Second Calamity can't be that weak, right?"

Despite saying that, Brielle was still worried. She was afraid she might have used too much force and killed James

She walked over to check on James' situation.

However, James had already gotten up and was sitting on the ground. The bloody wound on his chest had already healed. He rubbed his chest and looked at Brielle, who was walking toward him.

Brielle wore a thin white dress and looked very alluring. James was stunned by her
“How dare you keep staring?”

Brielle’s pretty face flushed, and she was slightly angry. She raised her hand and was about to strike again.

James immediately reacted and shouted, “You’re not stopping here? If you hit me again, I might really die.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2483—Brielle was powerful, and James was no match for her without using any of his secret arts.

James struggled to get up from the ground.

Brielle raised her hand but did not make a move. She slowly lowered her hand and stared at James, asking. “Why are you in my clan’s holy site?”

James looked at her and said calmly, “As a woman, you should be more gentle. Otherwise, you might not be able to get married.”

“You”

James would have been fine if he had stayed quiet, but he just had to provoke and enrage her. Brielle jumped into the air and swung her leg at James.

He raised his hand to block the attack.

However, Brielle used a lot of strength. James was sent flying and crashed into the ground again.

When his body slammed into the ground, he felt excruciating pain and gritted his teeth.

Brielle’s body flashed and appeared in front of James again. She folded her arms and glared at James

James got up from the ground, patted off the dust on his body, and looked at Brielle.

Brielle questioned, “Our clan set up a formation here, so how did you get past it?”

“I came here to cultivate.” James did not hide his intentions.

“Ha!”

Brielle laughed and said, “You came to cultivate in our holy site? Don’t you know outsiders aren’t allowed into our holy site?”

“That’s why I sneaked in here. How would I know you would be here completely naked? I didn’t mean to see you like that either. But, it’s just skin anyway. It’s not a big deal.”

After speaking, James cast a glance at Brielle.

He had to admit Brielle did indeed have a perfect figure with not a single ounce of extra fat.

She had a stunning face and slender legs. There was no doubt that her beauty was enough to bring down an entire nation.

Noticing James’ gaze, Brielle blushed and subconsciously turned away. At that moment, she was slightly embarrassed. She took a few deep breaths to calm herself down. She pointed away and said, “Leave immediately.”

James sat down on the ground and said, “This place has abundant Primordial Energy, which is very beneficial for my cultivation. I’m currently at a very low cultivation rank, so I plan to cultivate here for a month.

“You...”

Brielle was furious.

They were in the Labhrann Clan’s holy site. No one was allowed into the area, and she was the only one that cultivated in this place.

However, James was acting as if this place was his own home.

“Don’t think that I won’t dare to do anything to you just because Henrik is backing you up, James,” Brielle said furiously

“Henrik is backing me up?”

James chuckled and said, “You’re overthinking it. I don’t need anyone to back me up. I’m not returning any of your attacks because i don’t want to fight a woman. Although I have a low cultivation rank, you might not be my opponent if I were serious.”

James was not exaggerating.

He could defeat a Sage right now, let alone Brielle, who was not even a Sage.

However, he had no intentions of fighting her.

“Is that so?”

Brielle immediately rubbed her hands together and said, “Come at me. I’d like to see what you’re capable of ”

After inviting James to a duel, Brielle’s body erupted with strong energy.

James had a helpless expression

His goal was to cultivate in this place for a while.

He said in a friendly tone, “Ms. Labhrann, no, Goddess Labhrann, I simply want to cultivate here for a month. Is this really necessary? Me cultivating here for one month isn’t going to affect you anyway. Do we really have to fight?”

James compromised since he was in the Labhrann Clan’s territory.

Brielle’s expression eased up after seeing James backing down.

“It’s not impossible to let you cultivate here, but I have a few questions for you.”

James gestured for her to continue and said, “Go ahead.”

Brielle looked at James, scanning him up and down.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2484—James felt a little uneasy, being stared at by a beautiful woman. He could not help but step back slightly and remind her, “I-I already have a wife.”

Brielle looked at him contemptuously and said, “Pfft. Don’t think too highly of yourself.”

Hearing her response, James sighed in relief. “Okay, that’s good. What questions do you have? Go ahead.” Brielle said, “I heard you obtained the Infinity Steles and Five Elements of Genesis, which were providences from Earth’s First and Second Calamities. These two treasures were from the Primeval Age. At first, creatures throughout the universe were unaware of them. However, it has now gone viral. Could you show them to me?”

“That’s all you wanted?”

James smiled faintly and said, "Sure"

With a thought, he summoned the 108 Infinite Steles, and they circled his body.

James said proudly. These are the Infinity Steles. Legend has it they're unrivaled treasures that have existed since the beginning of the universe. Each one of them contains terrifying strength."

Brielle stared at the 108 Infinity Steles and could sense the power coming from them.

She murmured. "What a lucky guy."

Immediately afterward, James put away the Infinity Steles.

Then, he used his consciousness to summon the Five Elements of Genesis.

The Five Elements of Genesis contained the power of the Five Elements.

However, James' cultivation was very low, and he could not exert the Five Elements' true power. Currently, he could only use the Elemental Inversion to boost his strength for a short period.

"This is the Five Elements of Genesis."

James explained, "The Five Elements of Genesis is a treasure created by the Five Ancestral Gods in the Primeval Age

Seeing the Five Elements of Genesis and sensing its power, Brielle was envious of him.

"Why James?

"What made him worthy of acquiring these treasures?

Brielle felt it was unfair.

James put away the Five Elements of Genesis and said, "I've already shown them to you. Now, I can cultivate her for a month, right?"

"Alright. Go ahead."

Brielle did not say anything more and turned to leave.

James heaved a sigh of relief. He sat in a lotus position on the ground and asked Sophie who was within the Celestial Abode, "Can you help me set up a time formation here, Ms. Sophie?"

Sophie's voice came from the Celestial Abode. "Sure, no problem. I've been researching time inscriptions, so setting up a time formation should be a piece of cake."

Mysterious inscriptions appeared outside of the Celestial Abode and surrounded James to form a formation.

Sophie spoke again. I've already set up the time formation. As long as you stay in the formation, the passage of time is the same as in the Time Chamber. One month outside is one day inside the time formation." Thanks, Ms Sophie "

James expressed his gratitude toward her, saying, "You're really a great benefactor to me. You've been helping me so much all this while. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have been able to improve so quickly." "That's enough. You're a man. Stop being so cringey Cultivate with ease. I'll be waiting for you to reach the pinnacle of cultivation. Then, you can take care of me too."

After Sophie finished speaking, she went silent.

James put away his thoughts and sat in a lotus position on the ground. He emptied his mind and entered a cultivation state

His cultivation rank was at the Immortal Ascension's Eighth Stage.

It would take him a decade or even longer to reach the Immortal Ascension's Ninth Stage. Although Primordial Energy was abundant in this area, it would still take him a long time to reach the Immortal Ascension's Ninth Stage

However, James was not in a hurry.

He knew rushing it was not going to be good for him.

He had acquired many cultivation methods on his cultivation journey. However, the most potent one was the Elemental Inversion.

James activated the Elemental Inversion, and the True Elemental Essence within his body immediately became active. Then, his whole body's pores relaxed. Miraculous energy materialized out of his body and affected the space around him.

The Primordial Energy in the area immediately surrounded James, entering his body through his pores, mouth, and nose.
