The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2485—James began his cultivation in the Labhrann Clan's holy site.

He aimed to advance from the Immortal Ascension's Eighth Stage to the Ninth Stage.

After reaching the Immortal Ascension's Ninth Stage, he could cultivate the Sword Energy Sophie had snatched for him.

Sophie mentioned that the Sword Energy was left behind by a peerless powerhouse from the Primeval Age. It was capable of destroying the world if cultivated to its extreme.

James focused on his cultivation.

The Primordial Energy in the area gathered around him and formed a vortex. The energy entered his pores. Then, it was refined and converted into True Essence.

James had seven kinds of True Essence in his body.

Yin, Yang, and the Elemental Essence.

All of them had reached the Immortal Ascension's Eighth Stair.

His Yin and Yang Essence could activate Cosmic Destruction.

Meanwhile, the Elemental Essence was used to perform Elemental Inversion.

These techniques allowed him to improve his strength and unleash explosive power.

While James cultivated in the Demon Realm, Thea returned to Wurmstead on Earth.

At the moment, the person in charge of Wurmstead was Quincy.

The Holy Divine Emperor appeared on Earth when James left for the Demon Realm. His task was to find James, snatch his treasures, and return them to the Ancient Realm.

However, the Holy Divine Emperor had selfish motives. He wanted to snatch James' treasures and find a place to hide with them.

Unfortunately, he could not find James after coming to Earth.

He secretly visited Wurmstead, Sol, and every other country on Earth but was to no avail.

The Holy Divine Emperor had gone to see Quincy several times, trying to inquire about James' whereabouts. However, Quincy refused to say a single word.

In the blink of an eye, several years had passed since he arrived on Earth.

However, he refused to give up.

After learning that James' wife, Thea, had returned to Wurmstead, he immediately rushed over again.

At that moment, Thea sat in the lead seat in Wurmstead's main hall, and Quincy stood beside her. Meanwhile, the Divine Holy Emperor stood below them.

Thea looked at the Divine Holy Emperor with a calm expression. His visit did not make her nervous.

"Thea, where's James?"

The Divine Holy Emperor stood in the main hall and inquired about James' whereabouts.

Thea replied softly, "I've been in seclusion all this time and have no idea where he is right now. I haven't seen him after coming out of seclusion. Go somewhere else to look for him."

The Divine Holy Emperor threatened, "I'm going to ask you one last time, Thea. Where is James? If you still refuse to tell me his whereabouts, I won't hold back against you."

"You're not going to hold back?"

Thea smiled faintly and asked, "What will you do?"

In the past, Thea would surely be terrified of him.

However, she was already a Sage now.

She was human, and it was tough to make breakthroughs under the current circumstances. One would need to reach the pinnacle of each cultivation rank to step into the next rank.

Although she was only at the Sage Rank's First Stage, her strength was equivalent to other creatures at the Sage Rank's Third Stage. Moreover, she had Exalter and the Four-Quadrant Art created by the human race's Grand Emperors from the Primordial Age.

The Four-Quadrant Art allowed her to unleash the Four Holy Beasts' power in her body, allowing her to boost her strength significantly for a short period.

Thea was no longer afraid of the Divine Holy Emperor.

"Die."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2486—The Divine Holy Emperor said with a grim expression, "If you don't tell me James' whereabouts, I'll wash Wurmstead with blood today."

"You can go ahead and try."

Thea stood up, and terrifying energy erupted from her body.

"Sage Energy? Y-You're already a Sage?"

The Divine Holy Emperor was shocked.

Under such circumstances, it was difficult for humans to make breakthroughs in their cultivation ranks. However, Thea had unleashed Sage Energy. It meant that she was already a Sage.

"Huff." The Divine Holy Emperor took a deep breath.

A descendant of sinners, a human from Earth became a Sage in such a short time. Her accomplishment and potential were terrifying. Given more time to cultivate, Thea might surpass the Sage Rank and reach the Divine Rank or even the highest cultivation rank.

At that moment, the Divine Holy Emperor had a killing intent.

However, he suppressed himself and turned to leave.

Although he was no longer in the hall, his voice resounded. "Thea, you better relay the message to James. He can hide for a while, but not forever. He'll face my wrath, and I will kill him unless he never shows up again."

The Divine Holy Emperor was gone, but Thea's face darkened.

Standing aside, Quincy looked at Thea and could not help asking, "Thea, h-have you already become a Sage?"

Thea had returned for several days, but Quincy could not sense her cultivation rank.

Was she already a Sage?

Quincy was shocked.

Thea had improved so rapidly.

It had only been a short time, but she was already a Sage.

Thea looked at Quincy, nodded slightly, and said, "A powerhouse sent me to a mysterious place to cultivate for some time. Eventually, I reached the Sage Rank."

Quincy sighed in relief and said, "In the past few years, the Divine Holy Emperor has frequently visited Wurmstead to look for James. He even sent spies to constantly search the country. I've been incredibly anxious all this time, afraid he would take action against Wurmstead. I'm so relieved you've returned. More so because you're a Sage now."

Thea's brows furrowed, and she said, "The Divine Holy Emperor is from the Ancient Realm and is the Divinity Sect's Leader. Although I don't know much about the Ancient Realm, I can tell he was sent to Earth by powerhouses over there."

Quincy nodded and said, "Mhm. James knew he would be in danger and fled in advance. So many years have passed since he left. I wonder how he's doing now."

Thea sat down, and her pretty face was full of sorrow.

Chapter 2486

The Divine Holy Emperor was a ticking time bomb.

Once he exhausted his patience, he might really resort to extreme measures. It would be a catastrophe for Wurmstead.

Quincy said again, "I heard the Divine Holy Emperor is at the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage, Thea."

Thea nodded and said, "Mhm. The Sage Rank's Fifth Stage is very potent. Although I've just entered the Sage Rank, I might not necessarily lose against him."

Thea knew her own strength very well and had some understanding of the strength of other powerhouses at the Sage Rank.

Before this, there were no seals in human bodies, and many people rushed to improve their cultivation ranks. Therefore, many of them lacked a stable foundation and were pretty weak.

With the Elysian Seal, Thea had reached the pinnacle of each rank.

Even though she was only at the Sage Rank's First Stage, her strength was comparable to those who had reached the Sage Rank's Third Stage before the Elysian Seal was put on humans.

With the Four-Quadrant Art, defeating the Divine Holy Emperor would not be a problem.

Quincy asked, "What are you planning to do next?"

Thea thought for a while and said, "Earth is relatively peaceful, and the Divine Holy Emperor is the only potential threat for now. I plan to challenge and publicly kill him as a warning to the Sages on Earth with wicked intentions against us."

Quincy asked worriedly, "Are you confident in winning against him?"

Thea nodded and said, "I'm about seventy percent sure I can win against him."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2487—The Divine Holy Emperor left.

However, the shock in his heart did not subside even after a while.

The Divine Holy Emperor used to be the Divinity Sect's Leader and was also considered a prodigy.

He would never have become the Divinity Sect's Leader if he was not a prodigy.

However, despite being a prodigy, it took him thousands of years to become a Sage. Meanwhile, a youngster like Thea became a Sage shortly after Earth's Empyrean Spiritual Energy was restored.

It was absolutely terrifying that Thea could become a Sage within such a short period.

"The humans on Earth have immense potential." The Divine Holy Emperor was stunned.

The Divine Holy Emperor left Wurmstead and returned to Mount Bane.

He arrived at an unknown region on Mount Bane.

It was an unknown area that emerged from the Sealed Realm. The sky was covered by dark clouds and filled with terrifying Demonic Energy. Even prodigies from the Three Thousand Worlds could not easily enter this area.

However, the Divine Holy Emperor walked into the area.

He ascended a mountain top.

A man in a black robe sat on the mountaintop. He looked skinny, and his face was incredibly hollow. His face looked deformed, which made him look a little scary.

He was a member of the Hadean Clan from the Demon Realm.

Hadean Clan's Grand Emperor, Tigranes, sent him to monitor all the events on Earth.

The Divine Holy Emperor had already submitted to the Demon Race to obtain Demonic Art.

"Master."

The Divine Holy Emperor appeared on the mountaintop and looked at the man sitting in a lotus position. He trembled upon sensing the Demonic Energy coming from the man's body. Kneeling on the ground, he said respectfully, "James' wife, Thea, has reappeared. I went to Wyrmsstead to meet her, but she refused to tell me James' whereabouts. Also, she has already become a Sage."

"Oh?"

Hearing that Thea had become a Sage, the man could not help glancing at the Divine Holy Emperor.

"She became a Sage?"

"Earth's Empyrean Spiritual Energy has only been restored for a few years. How is it possible for her to become a Sage? I thought James was already a terrifying powerhouse with the treasures he obtained, Moreover, he even defeated our clan's young master. Surprisingly, James' wife is an even more transcendent existence."

The Divine Holy Emperor said respectfully, "Yeah. She's indeed reached the Sage Rank. I sensed Sage Energy from her. Since James hasn't shown himself yet, what should I do now, Master?"

"Wait for a while. I'll report back to my clan leader."

The man sat in a lotus position, and Demonic Energy materialized out of his body. He cast a secret art of the Demon Race and contacted Tigranes, who was in the Demon Realm.

At that moment, Tigranes sat on a rock in the Demon Realm. He stared at the distant starry sky in a daze. Suddenly, he sensed a force trying to form a connection with him. He immediately cast his Supernatural Power to detect the force.

A voice resounded in his mind.

"Lord Xanthippos, I've searched for James for several years but couldn't trace him down."

"There's no need to continue searching for him. He has already appeared in the Demon Realm," Tigranes replied to the voice.

"Also, I've gained intel that James' wife, Thea Callahan, has appeared. She's already reached the Sage Rank. What should I do next? What's your next order, Lord Xanthippos?"

Tigranes answered, "James is in the Demon Realm right now, so you don't have to worry about him for now. You can also leave Thea alone. Just stay on Earth and patiently wait for my next orders."

"Alright."

The man on Earth's Mount Bane ended the connection. He looked at the Divine Holy Emperor kneeling on the ground and said, "You don't have to do anything for now. Just wait for new orders."

"Understood." The Divine Holy Emperor nodded.

"That's all. You're dismissed."

"As ordered." The Divine Holy Emperor did not dare to disobey him. He quickly stood up and left the mountain.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2488—In the Demon Realm's Divine Dimension, Tigranes sat on a rock and fell into thought again.

He already knew James had arrived in the Demon Realm.

Since he was a Grand Emperor, he would obtain much information whenever there was a fluctuation in the Heavenly Path. The moment James appeared in the Demon Realm, he was immediately made aware.

James was still very weak at the moment

Although James was a terrifying human prodigy on Earth and had obtained countless treasures, he was not a substantial enough threat for Tigranes to bother with him.

The only reason he noticed James was because of an unrivaled treasure he had. Tigranes knew there was a very powerful person helping James. Even if they were not a Grand Emperor yet, this person was most likely not far from becoming one.

Moreover, he learned that another powerhouse was hidden on Earth, who had sent James to the Demon Realm.

It was impossible for one to open a spatial passage and send James to the Demon Realm.

Tigranes murmured, "From my knowledge, almost all Earth's Grand Emperors are dead. Which one is still alive to send James to the Demon Realm? What's the purpose of sending him here? Is it to warn me that Grand Emperors still exist on Earth?"

He could not understand the meaning behind all the events that were currently taking place.

Although he was a Grand Emperor, he could not predict other Grand Emperors' actions.

Meanwhile, on Earth, Thea made a post on the Martial Arts Forum after deciding to challenge the Divine Holy Emperor.

[I, Thea Callahan, challenge the Divine Holy Emperor from the Ancient Realm. Three days later, the battle will take place on Mount Bane.]

Her post immediately caused an uproar.

[What? Thea challenged the Divine Holy Emperor?]

[The Divine Holy Emperor from the Ancient Realm is already at the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage. He's currently the strongest person on Earth right now. What gave Thea the confidence to challenge him?]

[Could it be that Thea has also reached the Sage Rank?]

[Even if Thea has entered the Sage Rank, she is no match for the Divine Holy Emperor.]

The whole world was shocked to see Thea's post.

Even the Outsiders from the Three Thousand Worlds were stunned by her action.

[D-Does Thea have a death wish? Why did she challenge the Divine Holy Emperor?]

[No matter how much potential she has, making a breakthrough in a small sub-rank with the Elysian Seal is still incredibly challenging. It's practically impossible to become a Sage under such circumstances.]

Everyone discussed the post.

The Divine Holy Emperor also learned about the challenge immediately after it was posted.

He laughed out loud after learning about it.

"Haha. Does she really have a death wish? I'm not causing you any trouble, but you came to challenge me? You think you have the strength to challenge me after becoming a Sage?"

The Divine Holy Emperor logged into the Martial Arts Forum and immediately responded to Thea's post.

[I accept your challenge, Thea. I'll fight you on Mount Bane in three days. I'd like to see what you have.]

The Divine Holy Emperor replied and accepted Thea's challenge.

Earth's humans and outsiders from the Three Thousand Worlds were looking forward to the fight between Thea and the Divine Holy Emperor.

One was a powerhouse that had been cultivating for thousands of years.

One was a young woman, a human from Earth.

Who would be the winner of this battle?

At that moment, the custodian was conversing with a blurred silhouette in Sol's Chamber of Scriptures.

The custodian asked, "Have you confirmed the location?"

The blurred silhouette replied, "Yes, it's trapped within the Demon Realm. I've already made arrangements to lure James there. I'll meet him there. Hopefully, it works. Otherwise, we have to acquire some information. Only then can we plan what to do next."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2489—Word of the battle between Thea and the Divine Holy Emperor had spread like wildfire.

Now, all of humanity was looking forward to the day of the battle.

Thea was a human from Earth.

A human becoming a Sage was definitely something worth celebrating.

Meanwhile, the Outsiders from the Three Thousand Worlds also looked forward to this battle. None of them really believed Thea could become a Sage in such a short period. Moreover, humans had Elysian Seals put on their bodies. Even without the seal, reaching the Sage Rank within such a short period was terrifying.

Three days flew by in the blink of an eye.

Mount Bane was overcrowded with spectators.

All the relatively strong creatures had shown up.

Mount Bane was where the seal was located. As time passed, more unknown regions appeared around the area. The area was full of mountain ranges, and it felt like there was no end to it at a glance.

Most of these regions were sealed, and no living beings could pass through them.

However, a few were unsealed and open to living beings.

The Divine Holy Emperor arrived ahead of time. Just past dawn, he had already appeared in a desolate mountain range and stood on one of the mountaintops.

He wore a golden robe and looked very vigorous. He had a calm and confident expression as he crossed his hands behind him.

The Divine Holy Emperor waited for Thea to show up.

Meanwhile, cultivators gathered in the distance.

Most were cultivators from the Three Thousand Worlds, while only very few humans had come to watch the fight.

Since it was a fight between powerhouses, Earth's humans were too weak to bear the aftermath of the battle.

"The Divine Holy Emperor has arrived!"

"He's a powerhouse at the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage."

"Does Thea really have the strength to defeat the Divine Holy Emperor?"

Heated discussions began before the battle could even start.

At that moment, a person flew over from a distance.

It was a beautiful woman with an outstanding figure and long black hair. She wore a black dress and held a long black sword. Her long sword's tip was slightly curved and looked quite unusual.

She moved rapidly and appeared at the mountain range where the Divine Holy Emperor stood in the blink of an eye.

"Thea is here!"

Chunti

"She moved so fast!"

"She must've already become a Sage!"

"Who will win this battle?"

There was an uproar in the crowd after Thea arrived.

Thea floated a hundred meters away and stared at the Divine Holy Emperor.

The Divine Holy Emperor smiled and said, "You're very punctual, but you've walked into your death on time."

Thea smiled faintly in response.

She was very confident in her strength.

The Divine Holy Emperor was only at the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage. She was confident in defeating and possibly killing him.

"I think we should fight in another location. We're on Mount Bane right now. Although it's a massive mountain range, we're both at the Sage Rank and might destroy this area during our fight," Thea suggested.

She was very aware of the power a Sage had.

Sages had very destructive power at full strength, and they might really destroy Mount Bane.

The Divine Holy Emperor replied indifferently, "Since you've initiated the battle, you can have the final say in the venue."

Thea looked at the sky and said, "We'll fight on the moon."

"Sure."

The Divine Holy Emperor did not have any objections. Regardless of where the battle took place, he would make sure to kill Thea.

After speaking, his body flickered, and he flew up toward the sky. He flew out of the atmospheric layers in a flash and headed directly to the moon.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2490—Thea followed closely behind him.

"Oh, what a pity."

"I thought I could watch a grand battle. I wasn't expecting the battle to take place outside of Earth."

“Forget it. You’re still hoping to watch a grand battle? Don’t you know the strength of a Sage? A Sage can easily wipe out an entire country with just a simple move. It was a wise choice for them to fight on the moon. If the two of them go berserk, they might even destroy the Earth.”

Many people looked toward the sky as the two disappeared from sight.

Sages could travel at incredible speeds.

Traveling at full speed, they could cause voids and travel through spaces.

In less than two minutes, the two landed on the moon.

The moon had a completely different environment from Earth. The sky from the moon looked gray, and the ground was full of potholes. Many strange-shaped stones could be seen all over the ground, but not a single plant was present.

After Thea landed, she pointed her long sword at her opponent. “Make your move, Divine Holy Emperor.”

The Divine Holy Emperor looked at Thea. He agreed to fight on the moon not because he was afraid of destroying Earth, nor was it because he did not want to hurt Earth’s humans.

Instead, he was worried that his Demonic Energy might be sensed after he made a move. The creatures of the world would not tolerate him.

The Divine Holy Emperor had his eyes fixated on Thea’s beautiful face and alluring figure. A wicked smile formed on his face. “I’m not going to kill you so easily. Thea. It’d be a pity not to enjoy such a beautiful woman.

“Haha.” The Divine Holy Emperor laughed maniacally.

“You must be tired of living.” Thea’s face darkened.

After retorting him, Thea immediately drew the Malevolent Sword. She casually waved the sword, and a dazzling Sword Light formed, slashing toward the Divine Holy Emperor.

The Divine Holy Emperor’s body flickered, and he dodged the attack.

Boom!

The Sword Light crashed into the ground, causing the surroundings to shake. A crack appeared on the ground and gradually enlarged. It became an abyss that spread a thousand meters long in just a few seconds.

Since they were fighting on the moon, Thea was not worried. She exerted all her strength, fully demonstrating her power as a Sage.

The Divine Holy Emperor floated in the air with his hands behind him. He said smilingly, "Is that all you have, Thea? You're foolish to think you can defeat me after just entering the Sage Rank."

"Ha!" Thea snickered.

She knew the Divine Holy Emperor's cultivation rank was much higher than hers. Thus, she did not bother hiding her true strength and immediately cast the Four-Quadrant Arts. The Four Holy Beasts' blood in her body churned and immediately became four strands of power with different attributes.

With the four different powers, her energy increased tremendously.

Powerful energy emerged from her body, forming an invisible tornado that spun toward the sky.

"What?"

The Divine Holy Emperor sensed the invisible energy that erupted from Thea's body and could not help but exclaim, "What kind of Supernatural Power is that? How is it possible for her to increase her strength by so much so quickly?"

He was shocked by Thea.

At that moment, Thea dashed into the air and looked at the Divine Holy Emperor before her. She pointed the Malevolent Sword at him and said coldly, "You will die today."

The Divine Holy Emperor regained his senses and replied grimly, "In that case, I won't hold back either."

He immediately activated his cultivation method.

Powerful energy emerged from his body, and his long hair fluttered in the air. A few strands of black energy also emitted from his hair. At that moment, his whole body was shrouded with vigorous Demonic Energy.

With a hideous and terrifying expression, the Divine Holy Emperor grinned and said, "I'm sure you expect this, Thea."

didn't

Thea looked at the Divine Holy Emperor that was emanating Demonic Energy. She snorted and said coldly, "I never expected you to be a Demon Race's Fang. On top of that, you also practice Demonic Art."

The Divine Holy Emperor said smilingly, "I'm impressed by you too, Thea. I heard that those who consumed the blood of the Four Holy Beasts would have Demonic Energy in their body. Let's compare our Demonic Energies today and see who's better."

The Divine Holy Emperor was very conceited.

He cultivated Demonic Energy and practiced an incomplete version of the Curse Magic.

Although Thea had displayed great strength, the Divine Holy Emperor was confident he could defeat her. He was excited at the thought of playing with her after his victory.
