

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2491

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2491–The Divine Holy Emperor exuded great Demonic Energy. His veins bulged, and he had a terrifying expression on his face. Looking at Thea in the distance, his eyes turned blood-red.

“Thea Callahan, serve me well, and I’ll guarantee your safety.”

He beckoned at Thea.

“Hmph!”

Thea grunted coldly.

Thea raised the Malevolent Sword. It radiated a black glow, and an invincible Sword Light a hundred meters in length materialized and shredded through the air in the direction of the Divine Holy Emperor.

Undaunted, the Divine Holy Emperor unleashed Demonic Energy from his palm and blocked Thea’s attack.

However, he had gotten arrogant.

Thea’s attack was extremely powerful. As terrifying Sword Light crashed toward him, the Demonic Energy in his palm immediately dissipated. His face paled, and he transformed his body into an afterimage to dodge the attack.

In the distance, the Divine Holy Emperor’s face darkened. “I guess I underestimated you.”

Then, raising his sword, dark Sage Energy materialized in his palm and gathered to form an ancient character.

“Curse Magic! Break!”

He roared.

Under the destruction of the mysterious dark characters, even the void exploded. A crack appeared in the void, and these cracks spread toward Thea.

“What power...”

Thea’s face paled. She did not dare let her guard down and hurriedly dodged the attack. However, at that moment, she could sense terrifying power crashing toward her. Under the overwhelming power, her speed decreased drastically.

She panicked.

The void before her exploded, and a crack emerged, seemingly intended on tearing her body apart.

She hurriedly catalyzed the Four-Quadrant Art and summoned the full strength of the Four Holy Beasts to block the cracks in front of her. Then, they stopped.

However, at that moment, an ancient character descended from the sky and crashed into her. The character immediately transformed into a void cage, and she was imprisoned in mid-air, unable to move.

“You’re mine!”

The Divine Holy Emperor cackled menacingly and slowly walked toward Thea, who was imprisoned in mid-air. Licking his dry lips, he ogled her impeccable and curvaceous figure brazenly.

“James sure is fortunate to have such a gorgeous woman as his wife. Today, allow me to savor the taste of your wife, James.”

Upon seeing the evil glint in his eyes, Thea was filled with consternation. Summoning her full strength, she tried her best to break free.

Chapter 2491

However, as the Divine Holy Emperor’s Supernatural Power was too powerful, she could not break free no matter how hard she tried.

“I’m here for you, pretty.”

The Divine Holy Emperor walked toward her and reached his hands out to seal Thea’s cultivation base away.

However, at that moment, black needles suddenly materialized from her body and pierced through his body.

“Argh!”

The Divine Holy Emperor let loose an agonizing scream and was sent flying.

“Break!”

Thea roared.

As the Four Holy Beasts' power gathered, her aura burst forth. Then, the mysterious Curse Magic was broken. After she broke free of imprisonment, she appeared before the Divine Holy Emperor with the Malevolent Sword in hand and stabbed him.

The sword pierced through his body.

First, he was injured by Crucifier. Now, he was stabbed by a sword.

Powerful Sword Energy exploded inside his body, and half of his body disintegrated.

However, as he was a Sage, he could continue the fight even though he had suffered grave injuries.

"Dammit!"

He cursed.

Then, he raised his palm and struck.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2492

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2492—As he thrust his palm, terrifying characters that possessed great power materialized. As Thea was near the Divine Holy Emperor, she hurriedly tried to block the attack. However, she was too late.

A character entered her body.

The character possessed enormous power. As it exploded inside her body, she instantly suffered grave injuries. Staggering backward, she spurted out a mouthful of blood.

Then, Crucifer launched another attack at the Divine Holy Emperor once more.

Demonic Energy materialized from within his body and formed a protective barrier that blocked Crucifier.

As Thea appeared high up in the sky, the sight of the Four Holy Beasts was visible behind her—a dragon, a phoenix, a qilin, and the Spirit Turtle. Then, the Four Holy Beasts entered the Malevolent Sword.

At that moment, the Malevolent Sword exuded a terrifying aura.

"Four-Quadrants into one! Sword of heaven and earth!"

Thea slashed with her sword, and a shapeless Sword Light shredded through the air at great speed.

It was simply terrifying.

As the Sword Light shredded through the air, the sky collapsed, and fragmented pieces of it fell everywhere. The ground trembled as the earth shook.

Swish!

The Sword Light traveled at the speed of light.

Before the Divine Holy Emperor could react, he was slashed by the sword.

The black protective barrier enveloping him shattered, and the shapeless Sword Energy struck him. Instantly, his body was sliced in half. Then, as the Sword Energy exploded, his body was turned into ashes.

Four-Quadrants into one. Sword of heaven and earth.

What a terrifying move!

Even the Divine Holy Emperor was disintegrated into nothingness, and no remnants of his soul remained.

After annihilating the Divine Holy Emperor, Thea descended from the sky and landed on the ground. Immediately, she collapsed to the ground and spurted out a mouthful of blood.

The Curse Magic was terrifying. After being injured by the Curse Magic, she suffered grave injuries.

She hurriedly consumed a healing elixir given to her by the custodian. Then, she sat in a lotus position on the ground and began healing her injuries.

On Earth, everyone looked at the sky.

Days passed.

"It's been three days. Why aren't they back yet?"

"Who won?"

Three days had passed. Yet, no one returned. Every earthling was worried about Thea.

Just as everyone was concerned about the outcome of the battle, a figure appeared in the sky and slowly descended, landing on Mount Bane.

“Th-That’s Thea!”

“It is her!”

“Why her?”

“Could it be that she has defeated the Divine Holy Emperor?”

Everyone was stunned upon seeing Thea.

Wearing a black dress, Thea stood at the peak of a mountain near Mount Bane. Gazing into the distance, she looked at the countless living beings as a faint smile crept up on her face.

“Sh-She’s too beautiful.”

“Damn, I’ve fallen for her.”

“Why is she smiling? Has she really defeated the Divine Holy Emperor?”

Faced with the countless living beings before her, Thea smiled and said, “The Divine Holy Emperor has been defeated and was annihilated on the moon.”

The crowd was stunned.

“Is he really dead?”

“U-Unbelievable!”

Many exclaimed.

Then, Thea hurriedly left as she still suffered injuries. She had hurriedly returned to Earth after a short period of healing on the moon. Unable to suppress the Demonic Energy inside her body any further, she had to find the custodian as soon as possible.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2493

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2493—After Thea returned to Earth, she hurriedly left Mount Bane and headed in the direction of the Chamber of Scriptures.

Soon, she arrived at her destination and met the custodian.

On the ninth floor of the Chamber of Scriptures, Thea was sitting in a lotus position on the ground. Her ruddy face was slowly turning pale.

Beside her was a glamorous-looking woman. Wearing a dress as white as snow, she was impeccably gorgeous.

“I was struck by the Curse Magic during the battle against the Divine Holy Emperor. Miss, what is this Curse Magic? Why is it so terrifying?”

Thea asked helplessly.

The custodian looked at Thea and said softly, “The Curse Magic is a Supernatural Power in the Primeval Age and is currently in the possession of the Demon Race in the Demon Realm. To my understanding, the Azurean Clan and Hadean Clan each mastered segments of the Curse Magic. However, what they learned was incomplete. The complete version of the Curse Magic had already been long lost. Meanwhile, the one the Divine Holy Emperor learned was merely the fundamentals.”

Hearing this, Thea was stunned. She asked, “Is the Curse Magic that terrifying?”

“Of course.”

The custodian nodded and said, “Even a Grand Emperor wouldn’t dare underestimate a flawed Curse Magic. Back then, the earthlings suffered enormous casualties due to the Curse Magic of the Demon Race.”

Saying that, she raised her hand, and powerful energy materialized in her palm. The energy entered Thea’s body, and the curse’s power slowly disappeared.

After some time, Thea stood up and thanked the custodian profusely. “Thank you so much, Miss.”

The custodian waved her hand slightly and said, “Don’t mention it.”

Thea looked at her, opening and shutting her mouth.

The custodian asked, “Is there something you wish to say?”

Thea said, “Now, the time bomb, the Divine Holy Emperor, has been defused. With his death, the other living beings from the Three-Thousand Worlds wouldn’t dare act with impunity anymore. So, I plan to head to the Demon Realm and find James.”

Thea missed James. She wanted to head to the Demon Realm and find him.

The custodian thought about it and nodded, saying, "Since you wish to go, I'll send you on your journey. However, I can't bring you back. Not only that, but I can't be sure when you'll return or if you'll find James in the Demon Realm."

The custodian knew that James had the Celestial Abode in his possession, which contained many powerful figures. That was why she was not worried about him.

Thea, on the other hand, was different.

"I can't leave this place, Thea. That's why you'll have to find James once you arrive at the Demon Realm. Otherwise, you'll be trapped there until the Fourth Calamity on Earth appears. Please reconsider your decision."

Thea nodded with firm determination and said, "I've made up my mind."

"Good. In that case, I'll open up a void passageway for you and send you to the Demon Realm. Before that, I'll tell you a few pieces of information about the Demon Realm.

"The Demon Realm is divided into three planes—the Mortal Dimension, the Sage Dimension, and the Divine Dimension.

"All living beings in the Mortal Dimension are at the Sage Rank or below, whereas the living beings in the Sage Rank are at least at the Sage Rank. Meanwhile, the living beings in the Divine Dimension are at least at the Divine Rank and above.

"James went to the Mortal Dimension of the Demon Realm. You won't be in any danger there. However, nothing is absolute, as those from the Sage Dimension and the Divine Dimension are allowed to descend to the Mortal Dimension."

The custodian described the Demon Realm in detail.

Thea kept her words in mind.

Then, the custodian opened another void passageway once more and sent Thea to the Demon Realm far away.

James had been cultivating at the holy site of the Labhranns. He had no idea that Thea had become a Sage, annihilated the Divine Holy Emperor, and arrived at the Demon Realm.

At the Labhranns' holy site, he was cultivating the majestic Primordial Energy in earnest.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2494

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2494—He sat in a lotus position on the ground.

In the distance stood a woman with a curvaceous figure. Stroking her chin, she looked at James, whose body was surrounded by mysterious inscriptions, and murmured, “What is this Magic Circle?”

Though she was an expert on Magic Circles, she had no idea what the Magic Circle around James was. In fact, she had no idea what those inscriptions were.

Brielle stood in the distance and observed for more than ten days.

Though ten days had passed in the outside world, a lot more time had passed in the Magic Circle.

By then, James had reached the peak of the Immortal Ascension's Eighth Stair. This was under the circumstances where he continuously suppressed his rank. Sensing he could no longer suppress his rank, he released everything and began his breakthrough.

The moment he made a breakthrough, an Elysian Seal appeared inside his body and sealed his limbs and the meridians throughout his body away. Hence, he had no choice but to rely on the power inside his body to slowly break the seals. As long as there were no Heavenly Tribulations and Heavenly Path Embodiments, he should be able to make a breakthrough easily.

Soon, he broke through the Elysian Seal inside his body and increased his rank. As his True Essence underwent great changes, his physical body was nourished once more, and his strength increased by leaps and bounds.

“Sophie, why were there no Heavenly Path Embodiments when I was making my breakthroughs?”

After making a breakthrough, James asked Sophie.

Sophie's voice came from inside the Celestial Abode, “You must have broken through too quickly and brought about the abnormal fluctuations of the Heavenly Path back then. That was perhaps why the Heavenly Path created an embodiment to annihilate you. However, after that one time, the Heavenly Path returned to normal. So, your breakthroughs shouldn't cause the appearance of a Heavenly Path Embodiment. You just have to be mindful of the Heavenly Tribulations at the Tribulation Rank.

"However, with your strength, you should be able to overcome the Heavenly Tribulations easily."

"Oh, I see."

Realization dawned on James' face.

After making a breakthrough into the Immortal Ascension's Ninth Stair, he was only a step away from reaching the Mage Rank.

He stopped cultivating and requested Sophie to remove the time formation. Then, he stood up. As he stood, he noticed Brielle standing not too far away.

Seeing that James had stopped cultivating, Brielle walked toward him and looked at him strangely. "Not bad... You made a breakthrough in such a short amount of time."

James smiled faintly and said, "It's just a breakthrough. There's nothing to be surprised about."

"Tsk!"

Brielle said scornfully, "Don't get too carried away now."

James paid no heed to her and simply turned to leave.

"Hey, you! Is this how you show your gratitude? You were the one who cultivated at my place! Hey!"

Brielle trembled in rage..

Looking at James who was slowly walking away, she yelled, "The tournament's just around the corner. Will you be participating?"

"Not interested!"

James' voice reverberated throughout the area. Then, he walked out of the Magic Circle and disappeared from her view.

Brielle gritted her teeth.

Even though the news about the tournament to win her hand in marriage had spread, she had yet to invite anyone to it. However, now that she was inviting James, he simply rejected her offer.

“What an arrogant guy! I only invited you because I believed you were worthy of me. Tsk, who cares? There are plenty of guys out there who are more handsome and talented than you.”

She comforted herself.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2495

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2495—After cultivating at the Labhranns’ holy site for some time, he had reached the Immortal Ascension’s Ninth Stair. Now, he was only a step away from reaching the Mage Rank.

Meanwhile, Sophie had made arrangements for his Yogacara, which was a wave of invincible Sword Energy left behind by a powerful figure of the Primeval Age.

After making a breakthrough, he left the holy site and returned to the accommodation prepared by the Labhranns.

It was an independent courtyard. Upon his arrival, he noticed Henrik and Qusai happily chit-chatting away. Wearing a saffron robe, the chubby-looking Henrik was leaning against his chair. With his feet on the table, he said lazily, “Brielle’s tournament is just around the corner. I wonder if James can make it on time.”

Beside him, Qusai, who was wearing a huge robe, nibbled on a tiny blade of grass, saying coolly, “I don’t think James is interested in Brielle.”

“Indeed.” Henrik said, “Brielle’s not an ordinary woman. If she was, I wouldn’t want James to marry her either.”

Hearing this, Qusai’s curiosity was piqued. He leaned forward and asked, “I heard that the Labhranns aren’t simple. Although the Azurean Clan and the Hadean Clan are the only formidable forces in the Demon Realm, the Labhranns are held in high status as well. They once had a glorious past.”

Henrik nodded and said, “But of course! Few know of the Labhranns’ history. The Labhrann Clan was once a terrifying force. Even now, they still aren’t a force to be reckoned with. The Hadean Clan is desperately trying to broker a marriage between Lucifer Menachem and Brielle because they wish to associate themselves with the Labhranns.”

James overheard the conversation.

He asked, “Did the Labhranns have a glorious past?”

Hearing this, Henrik and Qusai turned their heads.

Henrik stood up and said, “James, you’ve left your closed-door meditation?”

“Yes.”

James nodded and walked over to them before taking a seat.

Qusai greeted him, “James.”

James asked again, “Are the Labhranns powerful?”

“Very.”

Speaking of the Labhranns’ history, Henrik was exhilarated. He began narrating non-stop. “There are countless races and clans in the Demon Realm, and those strongest among them are the Hadean Clan, the Azurean Clan, and the Labhranns.

“During the Primordial Age, the Labhranns once produced a Grand Emperor who possessed enormous strength. He reigned supreme in the Demon Realm for eighty million years. However, something unexpected happened, which brought about the fall of this Grand Emperor.”

Hearing this, James was somewhat shocked.

A Grand Emperor was a being who stood at the top of the power pyramid. Since the Labhranns were able to produce a Grand Emperor, they were not pushovers.

Henrik scanned his surroundings. Realizing they were alone, he whispered, “I heard from my master that the powerful figures of the Labhranns received half of a Curse Magic in the Primordial Age. Rumors say that they cultivated the Curse Magic to perfection. This brought about the misfortune that generated their downfall.”

James knew about Curse Magics.

“What is this Curse Magic?”

Henrik shook his head and said, “I don’t know either. I only know that this Curse Magic originated in the Primeval Age. Even then, it was a terrifying cultivation method.

“The Curse Magic had been long lost. That’s why the Curse Magic controlled by the families and clans of the Demon Race are all incomplete. However, even an incomplete Curse Magic possesses devastating power.”

Henrik described the Curse Magic. However, he did not know the details either.

James did not ask any further questions.

“By the way...” Qusai asked, “You’re about to cross into the Mage Rank, right?”

“Yep.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2496

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2496—James nodded.

Qusai asked, “Have you confirmed your Yogacara, then?”

James nodded and said, “Yes.”

“What will it be?”

Qusai asked curiously.

Henrik chimed in, saying. “James’ Yogacara is a wave of Sword Energy left behind by a powerful figure of the Primeval Age.”

“A wave of Sword Energy?” Qusai froze.

Henrik said smilingly, “Don’t underestimate this wave of Sword Energy. Though it’s only a wave of Sword Energy, it’s nonetheless the key to entering the Mound of Sabers.”

Hearing this, James was intrigued. He asked, “What key? What Mound of Sabers?”

Henrik explained, “The Mound of Sabers was left behind by the powerful figure of the Primeval Age. There are many supreme sword-fighting techniques hidden inside the Mound of Sabers. Meanwhile, Sword Energy is the key to entering the Mound of Sabers. To my understanding, from the Primeval Age to the Primordial Age, there has only been a handful who entered the Mound of Sabers There’ll be at most a person or two who have entered. However, none of them received the inheritance of supreme sword- fighting techniques.”

James looked at him oddly.

This chubby cultivator sure was knowledgeable to know of these secrets. Knowing Henrik's secrecy, James did not ask any other questions.

In the meantime, James stayed at the Labhranns' place. As the day of Brielle's tournament drew nearer, more and more living beings appeared at the Labhranns. Among them were those who descended from the Divine Dimension.

In the blink of an eye, the day of the tournament arrived.

On an empty plot of land at Mount Lutheran, many living beings of the Labhranns gathered, standing in two rows as if they were welcoming some important figure.

In the distance, many prodigies came to participate in the tournament to win Brielle's hand in marriage. Some came from the Mortal Dimension, while others came from the Sage Dimension and the Divine Dimension. At a glance, there were almost a million of them.

At the front, Brielle was standing beside a middle-aged man. Today, she was wearing a long white dress that trailed on the ground and a tiara on her head. Her stunning beauty mesmerized all who laid their eyes on her.

The man beside her was Figaro Labhrann, the Patriarch of the Mortal Dimension's Labhrann Clan.

At that moment, Brielle whispered, "I just received news that the Patriarch in the Divine Dimension will descend to the Mortal Dimension. Brielle, be mindful not to be rude toward him. He's the true leader of our clan. Although I'm the Patriarch of the Mortal Dimension's Labhrann Clan, my status is low and insignificant. Even a Labhrann from a Sage Dimension can order me around, let alone one who came from the Divine Dimension."

"Understood."

Brielle nodded obediently.

At that moment, there was a glow in the sky, on which stood many living beings who looked human and exuded a powerful aura.

In the distance, Henrik gazed at the glow in the sky and looked at the man before him, saying, "James, he's Txomin Labhrann, a.k.a. the Divine King of Labhrann, who's rumored to have reached the peak of the Divine Rank's Third Stage. In truth, he has reached the Quasi-Emperor Rank."

James looked at Txomin.

As the colorful glow descended upon Mount Lutheran, the Labhranns of the Divine Dimension appeared on the empty plot of land. There were only approximately a hundred of them.

Txomin looked around thirty years of age. Wearing a black robe, he was not considered handsome. However, he exuded great charisma.

“So, he’s the real Patriarch of the Labhranns who’s a Quasi-Emperor at the same rank as Sophie?”

James murmured.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2497

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2497—The Patriarch of the Divine Dimension’s Labhranns appeared alongside many powerful figures. As they came from the Divine Dimension, the weakest of them were at least at the Divine Rank and could completely annihilate anyone at the Mortal and Sage Dimensions.

“Welcome, Patriarch!”

Figaro knelt alongside the other Labhranns of the Mortal Dimension and welcomed their Patriarch who came from the Divine Dimension.

Txomin had surpassed the Divine Rank’s Third Stage and reached the Quasi-Emperor Rank. As such, the aura he exuded was terrifying. Even though he did not intentionally exude this aura, everyone could feel the overwhelming pressure upon their shoulders.

James, too, felt extreme pressure.

Faced with a powerful figure of the Divine Dimension, he held his breath.

“Is this the power of a supreme being? How terrifying...” He took a deep breath.

Txomin waved his hand slightly and said, “You may stand.”

Only then did Figaro and the others stand.

Txomin’s gaze was fixed on Brielle.

Seeing this, Brielle felt a little guilty.

Txomin said coldly, "Brielle Labhrann, do you have any idea who you are engaged to? He's the only remaining bloodline of the Hadean Clan's Grand Emperor and a Minor Patriarch of the Hadean Clan. How could you refuse him and even organize a tournament to determine your husband?"

Upon being questioned, Brielle lost her confidence. Though she was a prodigy of the Labhranns, she was merely from the Mortal Dimension. Meanwhile, only those who descended from the Divine Dimension were true talents. Her social status among the Divine Dimension's Labhranns might not even be comparable to that of a dog.

"P-Patriarch..."

Summoning her courage, she said, "As I've never seen Lucifer Menachem, I have no idea what he's like. Whoever wishes to be my husband has to be an outstanding figure."

"Haha..."

Txomin laughed and said, "Very well... Because of you, all of the Three Dimensions now know of this tournament."

With an awkward look on her face, Brielle said, "I-I didn't have a choice. I didn't even want to get married at such a young age. So, if I have to get married, I want to choose my own husband."

"Since I've agreed to your request, naturally, I won't intervene."

Txomin did not say anything else.

Then, he simply waited patiently.

Today's main character was not Brielle but Lucifer.

Txomin was waiting for Lucifer to arrive.

After approximately twenty minutes, a dark cloud appeared in the sky. As the cloud descended, it stopped right above the Labhranns.

Then, the cloud dispersed, revealing a humanoid-shaped living being on the empty plot of land.

Tigranes Xanthippos, the Grand Emperor of the Hadean Clan, was standing in the lead. Behind him were Lucifer and the other powerful figures of the clan.

"Master Tigranes..."

Txomin walked over to him and greeted him respectfully.

Although he was a Quasi-Emperor, he had to greet a real Grand Emperor respectfully nonetheless.

“Mhm.”

Tigranes nodded slightly.

Meanwhile, Brielle’s gaze was fixed on Lucifer. In her opinion, Lucifer was considered somewhat handsome. However, the aura he exuded made her uncomfortable.

In the distance, James furrowed his eyebrows upon seeing Lucifer. “Huh... Why is he here?”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2498

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2498—“You know him?” Qusai asked puzzledly.

“Mhm.” James nodded and said, “He’s Lucifer Menachem, the only surviving bloodline of the Grand Emperor and the Young Master of the Hadean Clan. I fought against him once on Earth.”

Henrik asked smilingly, “You must have won, I assume?”

James nodded and said, “Yes, but barely. I almost lost, in fact. Because of that battle, Lucifer promised me that the Demon Race and the beasts would not attack Earth and the earthlings for ten thousand years.”

As he said that, Lucifer turned to look in his direction as if sensing his presence.

James smiled at him as a form of greeting.

Various prodigies and clans of the Three Dimensions were gathered here. Even the Azurean Clan was present. However, their Patriarch was not present as he had already left with Maxine to search for a Yogacara in the vast universe.

Seeing that almost everyone was there, Txomin looked at the crowd and clasped his fists. “Brielle Labhrann, a member of the Labhranns’ Mortal Dimension, is holding a martial art tournament to choose her husband. Allow me to extend my sincerest greetings to everyone present here today. As long as you’re below the age of one hundred, you’re more than welcome to participate in this tournament.

“As we have many participants here today, Brielle would be greatly exhausted if she had to fight against everyone. How about this? We’ll hold a tournament to determine the top ten. As long as you're in the top ten, you'll be given the right to fight against Brielle. If you defeat her, you'll obtain the right to marry her."

Txomin's voice boomed.

Many prodigies were waiting in anticipation.

Putting the marriage aside, getting into the top ten would get them acknowledged as the most distinguished fighters in the Demon Realm. By showing their potential, they might even be chosen to be the Inner Disciples of powerful figures. Should that come to pass, they would certainly rise as great fighters themselves.

Lucifer had no objections whatsoever. He only came at Tigranes' request. Besides, the Demon Realm was his headquarters. As his father was once the Patriarch of the Hadean Clan, he believed the clan belonged to him. Now, however, the clan remained in Tigranes' possession, and his primary objective was to read the situation and make preparations to seize back his position as the Patriarch. He could not care less about the engagement.

Txomin continued, "The tournament will be held in the Divine Dimension. In the Divine Dimension, there's a restricted area called the Great Dividing Range, in which there's a place called the Demon Abyss. A mysterious divine object called the Demonic Spiritual Herb grows there. The rules of this tournament are simple. Find the Demonic Spiritual Herb and retrieve it, and you win."

Hearing this, the participants from the Divine Dimension furrowed their eyebrows.

Tigranes glanced at Txomin and furrowed his eyebrows, saying, "Are we really going to organize the tournament at the Great Dividing Range? Are they really going to search for the Demonic Spiritual Herb?"

"Why? Is there a problem?" Txomin asked.

Tigranes said, "It's a restricted area of the Demon Realm. Even cultivators at the Divine Rank might not return, let alone those who've barely reached the Sage Rank."

Txomin said, "Brielle Labhrann possesses extraordinary potential, and she needs a husband worthy of her. If you're blessed by the Heavenly Path, you might return safely. If you're afraid of dying, don't go."

Hearing this, Tigranes fell silent.

Txomin looked at the crowd and said, "You might die on your way to the Great Dividing Range. If you're afraid of dying, simply don't go. Otherwise, feel free to try your luck."

His voice boomed.

In the distance, James asked, “What’s the Great Dividing Range?”

Qusai shook his head. As he was not from the Demon Realm, he did not know what it was.

Henrik said, “It’s a restricted area of the Divine Dimension that’s full of danger. As for the specifics, I don’t really know either. I just know that even a Quasi-Emperor might lose his life there.”

Hearing this, James took a deep breath.

If even a Quasi-Emperor could lose his life, he would perish in just a few minutes. There was no way he would go.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2499

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2499–The restricted area of the Divine Dimension was simply too dangerous, and James had no plans of going.

Losing his life over a woman was simply not worth it.

However, the opposite was true for the others.

For them, riding on the Labhranns’ coattails would mean gaining the opportunity to emerge as a force to be reckoned with.

Even if they did not marry Brielle in the end, they would attract the attention of the Divine Dimension’s cultivators if they returned alive.

They would consider themselves fortunate to be admitted as their disciples.

Hence, this was worth risking their lives.

Henrik asked, “Are you going, James?” “Nope.” James shook his head and said, “The Divine Dimension’s restricted area is too dangerous.

Even a Quasi- Emperor might lose his life there.

I’m not risking my life for a mere woman.” “Alright, then.” Henrik said no more.

Since James was unwilling to go, he did not press the issue.

"I'm interested in going, though." Intrigued by the Divine Dimension's restricted area, a smile crept up on Qusai's face as he said, "The more dangerous the place is, the more opportunities there will be.

My strength might be able to increase by leaps and bounds." James rolled his eyes and warned, "Risking your life for a woman is a terrible deal.

You shouldn't go." Qusai shrugged and said, "Since you say so, I won't go." Then, Txomin opened a passageway that led to the Divine Dimension.

All participants were capable of traveling to the Divine Dimension via this passageway.

The Divine Dimension was the most prominent of the Three Dimensions.

The energy of heaven and earth there was countless times greater than that in the Mortal Dimension.

The Mortal Dimension had Spiritual Energy, the Sage Dimension had Sage Energy, and the Divine Dimension had Divine Energy and even Primordial Energy in some places.

Many of the living beings present were from the Mortal and Sage Dimensions and had never been to the Divine Dimension.

Now that they were given an opportunity to travel there, they considered it unbelievable providence.

Many living beings traversed through the illusory passageway and entered the Divine Dimension.

Lucifer did not head over there immediately.

Instead, he walked toward James and glanced at him.

Stunned, he said, "James, I never thought you would come to the Demon Realm." James smiled faintly and said, "Earth is at peace now, and the Third Calamity has yet to appear.

Since I have nothing much to do at the moment, I came here to train in an attempt to increase my strength before the Third Calamity arrives." Lucifer cracked his knuckles as he looked at him, saying, "I was defeated by you on Earth.

However, my strength has increased tremendously since then.

This time, I'll defeat you." James waved his hand slightly and said, "Give it up.

I'm not fighting against you.

I'm not interested in Brielle, so I won't be participating in this tournament, nor will I be going to the restricted area of the Divine Dimension." Hearing this, Lucifer was dismayed.

He said, "In that case, I don't know when I'll get to fight against you once more.

Goodbye then, I guess." Saying that, he turned to leave alongside a few cultivators of the Hadean Clan and headed to the Divine Dimension.

As Henrik watched Lucifer's retreating figure, he furrowed his eyebrows and said, "This Lucifer guy is no ordinary man." "Of course." James said, "He's the only surviving bloodline of the Grand Emperor, and his father was once the Patriarch of the Hadean Clan.

As such, the blood of the Grand Emperor runs through his veins, not to mention that he masters countless Supernatural Powers.

Back on Earth, I was only able to defeat him after summoning my full strength.

That was the most daunting fight I'd ever experienced.

I was completely exhausted, and my body could not even exert a single ounce of strength after the battle ended." "Alright now, enough of this.

Let's go to the Divine Dimension and have a look." Qusai said, "Even if we aren't participating in the tournament, we're allowed to go and have a look." "Let's go, then." James nodded.

He wanted to watch the show as well.

Then, the three entered the passageway opened by Txomin and left the Mortal Dimension.

Upon entering the passageway, they felt their vision blurring.

When they reopened their eyes, they were already in an unknown place.

There, the scenery was picturesque, energy was abundant, and powerful Primordial Energy permeated the air.

Indeed, it was Primordial Energy.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-