The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2531—After hearing that, Txomin's expression became solemn.

The Heavenly Path was the supreme existence.

It was in charge of everything in the universe.

Every living being was under the control of the Heavenly Path.

Was it even possible to destroy it? Even Grand Emperors were under the Heavenly Path's control and would not dare to defy it.

James let out a deep sigh and said, "Xandros said that during the Primeval Age, powerful cultivators of the human race wanted to destroy the merciless Heavenly Path and establish new rules.

However, they failed.

As a result, the human race is experiencing this tribulation, and the Elysian Seal has appeared in the human body." "So that's why." Txomin was enlightened.

He was unaware of these secrets.

Even though he was a Quasi- Emperor, he did not understand them.

"Alright.

You should first get some rest.

After you've had enough rest, you'll have the wedding with Brielle." James waved his hand slightly and said, "Lord Labhrann, that's unnecessary.

I fought Brielle simply because I don't want other races to bother me.

I already have a wife, so I won't marry Brielle." Txomin smiled faintly and said, "So what? It's common for men to have wives and concubines.

Or is it that Brielle is not good enough for you?" "No.

She's very beautiful, and she's also a genius.

I'm the one who's not good enough for her..." "alright." Txomin cut James off and said, "It's decided, then.

It will be after you have rested and healed in peace.” After he finished speaking, Txomin turned around and left without giving James another chance to respond.

“Hey.

Lord Labhrann...” James shouted.

However, Txomin had already vanished.

He sat on a chair with a look of resignation.

“what now?” He started to ponder.

He could not possibly marry Brielle.

Now, all he could do was run away, right? However, this was the Demon Realm’s Divine Dimension.

The Labrann Clan was a race in the Demon Realm’s upper echelons.

It had an abundance of powerful cultivators.

To where could he flee? Should he run away and head back to Earth? The Third Calamity had yet to appear on Earth, though.

It was pointless for him to go back now.

He still intended to gain some experience and return when he was powerful enough.

“Now all I can do is lay my cards on the table in front of Brielle.” James had no other choice.

He walked out of the room.

In the courtyard, two people were seated.

They were Henrik and Qusai.

When they saw James walk out, they both stood up.

“James.” “Mr.

Caden.” The two spoke at the same time.

James walked over and sat down.

Henrik leaned over and said with a smile, "Congratulations, James.

You're going to marry a beautiful wife soon." With a look of resignation, James said, "Marry? It's impossible for me to marry her." "Mir.

Caden, don't." Qusai said promptly, "I've talked over with Henrik.

We're going to steal the bodhi tree on the day you marry Brielle.

Even if you don't want to marry her, you must pretend to do so in order to help us steal the bodhi tree." "Yes," Henrik said, "James, think about it.

It is now the final days for the human race.

Improving one's cultivation base is extremely difficult.

And a single bodhi fruit can produce a Sage.

A large number of powerful cultivators are required for humanity on Earth to compete with the tens of thousands of different races.

"you have the Jabari Celestial Abode.

In the Celestial Abode, there is the Time Chamber.

If the bodhi tree is planted in the Time Chamber, it will take a short time to produce a batch of Sage cultivators." Henrik's words intrigued James.

He had a four-hundred -thousand-strong army and Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

The more powerful the four- hundred-thousand- strong army was, the more powerful it would be when using Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

"I-I don't know about this." With a troubled look, he said, "If it's a fake wedding, it will bring a lot of pain to Brielle."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2532—Using a fake wedding to steal the Labhrann clan's bodhi tree in the Mortal Dimension was certainly a big deal.

The bodhi tree was named the Mortal Dimension's Spiritual Root.

Even in the Divine Dimension, it was extremely rare.

It was unquestionably a priceless treasure.

Even though James was friendly with Txomin and they were both humans, the Labhrann would hunt him down if he stole the bodhi tree.

Furthermore, a fake wedding was extremely hurtful to a woman.

Noticing James' hesitation, Henrik persuaded him, "Mr.

Caden, think about it.

Trying to avoid hurting a woman or saving the lives of millions of humans—which is more important?" After Henrik said so, James made up his mind.

He looked at him and asked, "What is your plan?" Qusai said, "The initial plan is for the wedding to take place in the Mortal Dimension.

When the time comes, a lot of powerful cultivators will definitely attend.

Moreover, as the Labhrann Clan prepare for the wedding, they will also disregard safety measures.

Using the wedding night to our advantage, we'll go to the location of the bodhi tree and steal it." "Mihm." Henrik nodded and said, "However, the bodhi tree is guarded by cultivators sent by the Divine Dimension's Labhrann Clan.

Since the bodhi fruit is already ripe, it will soon be picked and taken away by the Divine Dimension's Labhrann Clan.

We'll need you to step in and let Sophie help when the time comes." James waved his hand slightly and said, "That won't work, I'm afraid.

Ms.

Sophie has been injured and is currently recovering in seclusion.

I don't know when she will recover either." "Huh? n Hearing that, Henrick was shocked.

He asked, "What happened? How did she get injured? She is an extremely powerful cultivator, a Quasi-Emperor.

Who could harm her?" With guilt on his face, James said, "Ms.

Sophie was harmed by the Heavenly Path because she performed a divination for me.”
“What should we do, then?” Henrik started to fret.

James shrugged and said, “I have no idea.” Henrik muttered, “Should I then ask my teacher to come out of seclusion?” “Your teacher?” James looked at him in shock.

He knew about Henrik’s teacher.

They were a Grand Emperor and were once the Lord of the Demon Realm.

However, his teacher had already passed the Lord of the Demon Realm’s position to Henrik.

Although Henrik was currently Lord of the Demon Realm, it was his teacher who was in charge.

“Forget about it.

That won’t work.” With a dejected look on his face, he said, “There’s no way my teacher will screw around with me.

We can only depend on Sophie now.

James, can you ask Sophie when she will recover?” “Okay.” James nodded.

The bodhi fruit could produce a large batch of Sage- Rank cultivators.

It would be extremely beneficial to James.

He wanted to get it as well.

He began communicating with Sophie, who was healing in the Celestial Abode in seclusion.

“Ms.

Sophie, when will your injuries heal? Henrik, Qusai, and I have a plan.

We’re planning to steal the Labhrann Clan’s bodhi tree.” Sophie only responded after James asked several times in a row.

“James, I’m seriously injured and shouldn’t intervene.

However, if there are no powerhouses guarding the bodhi tree, I should have no problem striking casually.

If there are cultivators above the Quasi- Emperor Rank, I won't be able to." James replied with a smile, "A Quasi-Emperor is the closest thing to a Grand Emperor.

Even in the Demon Realm, there shouldn't be many Quasi- Emperors.

I doubt a Quasi- Emperor will guard the bodhi tree.

At best, there will be some Divine Rank cultivators." "That's not a given," Sophie said.

"The bodhi tree is quite amazing.

It is a branch of the Primordial Root and very rare even in the Demon Realm.

The Labhrann Clan values it greatly." After giving it some thought, Sophie went on, "How about this? Do some investigations first.

If there are no cultivators above Quasi- Emperor Rank guarding it, I will step in.

If it is guarded by cultivators above the Quasi- Emperor Rank, we will call this off.

Alright?" "alright, I'll investigate." James had a brief conversation with Sophie.

Henrik looked at James expectantly and asked, "How was it, James?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2533—James said, "I've asked Ms. Sophie.

Her injuries are severe.

It's not a good idea for her to get involved.

She wanted me to first investigate whether or not there is a Quasi- Emperor guarding the bodhi tree.

If there is, we'll call this off.

If there isn't, we can take action." Hearing that, Henrik became troubled.

He got to his feet, paced around nearby, and said, "Investigate? How can we investigate? Our capabilities are limited.

Investigating the Labhrann Clan will be extremely challenging." Qusai started to ponder as well.

After some thought, he was suddenly struck by inspiration.

He said, "Mr. Caden, you can ask Brielle.

You're going to marry her soon, so you can use this opportunity to ask her about the Labhrann Clan." Henrik lit up as well and said, "Right.

Why didn't I think about that?" James nodded softly and said, "That's our only option now.

However, I can't go to Brielle first.

I have to wait for her to come to me." The three gathered and planned how they would steal the Labhrann Clan's bodhi tree and remove it from its roots.

After their discussion, James stayed there for the time being.

This stay lasted several days.

During this time, Brielle did not show up.

After three days, Brielle showed up.

She came to James' lodging and found James.

Brielle was in a green dress in the courtyard.

Her long hair was pulled back.

She appeared indescribably elegant.

"Mister Caden," she said softly, a shy look on her face.

"Mihm." James nodded softly and sat on a chair in the courtyard.

" Oh, right.

When will we go back to the Mortal Dimension?" James took the initiative to ask.

"Huh?" Brielle looked at James and asked, "Go back to the Mortal Dimension? Why would we go back? This is the Divine Dimension.

It is the highest plane of existence.

Its Spiritual Energy is countless times more potent than in the Mortal Dimension.

Numerous living things are vying with one another to enter the Divine Dimension.” James smiled and said, “There are far too many cultivators in the Divine Dimension, and almost all of them are cultivators of the Divine Rank.

I feel very stressed here, so I’d like to return to the Mortal Dimension.

Even for our wedding, I’d like it to take place in the Mortal Dimension as well.” Upon hearing the word ‘wedding,’ Brielle blushed.

Without giving it much thought, she nodded and said, “Mhm.

Since you want to be in the Mortal Dimension, then we’ll hold it in the Mortal Dimension.” James’ eyes darted around before settling on Brielle.

He asked, “ By the way, I heard the Labhrann Clan has a bodhi tree.

I’ve also heard that the bodhi fruit is already ripe.

Is that true?” “Mihm.” Brielle nodded her head and said, “It is indeed.” James asked, “I’ve heard that the bodhi fruit can turn a person into a Sage.

What is its history? It has such a potent effect.” Brielle started to get lost in her thoughts.

After a while, she said, “ I don’t know about that.

I only learned in an ancient book that there was a Spiritual Root in the Primeval Age.

It was named the Primordial Root.

This Primordial Root was born at the beginning of the universe.

According to rumor, the fruit of the Primordial Root can instantly transform a mortal into a cultivator of the Divine Rank.

“Because the Primordial Root was so amazing, many cultivators fought over it.

As a result, the Primordial Root was destroyed, and it turned into several plants.

“The bodhi tree was one of them.

During the Primordial Age, the ancestor of the Labhrann Clan was the Lord of the Demon Realm.

They were also the most powerful cultivator in the Demon Realm.

They located the bodhi tree in the vast universe and planted it in the Mortal Dimension of the Demon Realm.” James was listening intently.

As he listened up until this point, he could not help but ask, “The bodhi tree is so amazing.

Isn’t the Labhran Clan worried that it will be stolen?” Brielle said with a smile, “The Labhrann Clan is among the top rank in the Demon Realm.

Who would dare to steal it? Furthermore, while the bodhi tree is amazing, it is not a complete Spiritual Root.

So, it is useless to some extremely powerful cultivators.

Those cultivators have no reason to offend the Labhrann Clan for the sake of the bodhi tree.” “Could it be that extremely powerful cultivators are standing guard near the bodhi tree?” The pivotal question was posed by James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2534—Right now, James wanted to know if there were any extremely strong cultivators keeping watch near the bodhi tree of the Labhrann Clan.

If there were none, they could take action.

If there were, their plan would be canceled.

His wedding with Brielle would be canceled as well.

“Mihm.” Brielle nodded and said, “In front of the bodhi tree in the Mortal Dimension, there is indeed a powerful cultivator of our clan from the Divine Dimension standing guard.” James was secretly shocked.

He could not help but ask, “Who are they? How powerful are they?” Brielle said, “I think I heard my father say that a Sect Elder of our clan from the Divine Dimension is the one watching over the bodhi tree.

They are a powerhouse that has lived a long life, and they’re very strong.” James asked, “How strong? Are they a Grand Emperor?” Brielle rolled her eyes and said, “How could there be so many Grand Emperors? It is said that they are a powerhouse at the peak of the Divine Rank’s Third Stage and are about to enter the Quasi- Emperor Rank.” “Oh.

” James let out an ‘oh’.

Following that, he had a casual conversation with Brielle.

After chatting for a while, he yawned and said, “I’m a little tired.

T’ll go back to my room and rest.” He finished speaking, then turned around and walked away.

After he went back to his room, he started to communicate with Sophie.

“Ms.

Sophie, I found out that there are no Quasi- Emperor cultivators near the Labhrann Clan’s bodhi tree.

There is only one cultivator who is at the peak of the Divine Rank’s Third Stage.” In the Celestial Abode, Sophie was in closed-door meditation.

Her complexion was pallid, and her aura was weak.

“The peak of the Divine Rank’s Third Stage?” When she heard these words, a troubled look appeared on her pale face.

She was only at the Quasi- Emperor Rank.

Moreover, she was currently injured and her injuries were severe.

Sophie did not have much confidence in defeating a cultivator at the peak of the Divine Rank’s Third Stage.

Regardless, she was aware of the importance of the bodhi tree to James.

In the shortest amount of time, it could increase the four- hundred-thousand-strong army’s overall strength.

Once its overall strength was improved, the power of James’ Nine Heavens God - Annihilating Formation would be enhanced.

She gave it some thought before saying, “James, I’ll recover my strength as quickly as possible and help you seize the bodhi tree when the time comes.

During this period, don’t bother me.

I want to continue healing my injuries in seclusion.” “Alright.” After getting Sophie’s reply, James felt relieved.

Subsequently, James stayed at the Labhrann Clan for the time being.

Several days later, James returned to the Mortal Dimension with Brielle, Henrik, and Qusai.

After they returned, the preparation for the wedding began.

Since Brielle was only a member of the Mortal Dimension's Labhrann Clan and did not have a particularly high standing in the clan, cultivators of the Divine Dimension's Labhrann Clan did not descend to the Mortal Dimension.

Even Txomin did not show up.

However, it was certainly a big event for the Mortal Dimension's Labhrann Clan.

After a discussion between the Patriarch of Mortal Dimension's Labhrann Clan and other important members, the date of the wedding was decided.

It would happen three months later.

In the following three months, James spent most of his time with Henrik and Qusai.

They discussed the following events and deliberated on how to steal the bodhi tree and how to get away.

Brielle, on the other hand, visited James from time to time.

Every time James met with her, he greeted her with a smile.

Before acquiring the item, he could not completely abandon any pretense of cordiality to Brielle.

At the Labhrann Clan, James waited for the day of the wedding.

Currently, Thea was in a city located in the Mortal Dimension of the Demon Realm.

She had been in the Demon Realm's Mortal Dimension for many years.

During these years, she had been searching for James.

However, the Demon Realm's Mortal Dimension was too big.

She went to many places and still could not find out James' whereabouts.

A woman wearing a black dress was seated on the corner seat of a tavern in a large city in the Mortal Dimension.

She wore a bamboo hat, and her face was obscured by a black veil.

Since she was covered in a veil, her face could not be seen clearly.

Only the general outline of her facial features was visible.

Even if only the outline of her features was visible, one could tell she was a stunning beauty.

The woman was holding a goblet and took a small sip.

At this precise moment, a flurry of footsteps came from outside the door.

Shortly after, a group of fully armed guards stormed in.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2535—All of the people in the tavern scrambled to escape out of fear.

Only the woman in the black dress and bamboo hat, her face hidden behind a veil, remained seated in the same spot.

The group of guards rushed over and surrounded the woman in the black dress.

The woman was unfazed.

At this moment, a man walked over.

He appeared to be about twenty -five or twenty-six years old.

He was dressed in a glamorous golden robe and looked quite handsome.

He walked over, lifted his foot, and placed it on a stool.

Pointing at the woman in the black dress, he said coldly, “B*tch, you dared take my stuff.

If you know what’s best for you, hand it over.

Otherwise, I’ll make it impossible for you to leave Bloomshire.” “Heh! ” The woman in the black dress gave a mirthless laugh.

It was Thea, who had traveled from Earth to the Demon Realm.

After arriving in the Demon Realm, Thea traveled around, looking for information about James.

A while ago, she found a celestial plant in a mountain range.

However, there were also other living beings who discovered this celestial plant.

Regardless, Thea snatched the celestial plant with her powerful strength.

As a result, she was remembered and pursued for quite some time.

Thea looked at the man in the flamboyant golden robe, smiled faintly, and said, “Those who are capable will receive the universe’s treasures.

The celestial plant has already been taken by me.

Therefore, it is mine.

Why are you being so imperious?” “Cut the bullsh*t.” The man said coldly, “This is the City of Bloomshire.

This is my turf.

You’re actually bold enough to flee here, so I’m going to crush you for sure.” “Charge! Take down this b*tch.” The man gave a command.

Following his command, the surrounding guards promptly drew their swords.

The moment the guards drew their swords, Thea moved.

She grabbed the black Malevolent Sword from the table and drew it from its sheath.

There was a flash of Sword Light.

The surrounding guards were instantly jolted back.

As she was in the Demon Realm, Thea did not dare to kill the beings here rashly.

She simply jolted them backward.

After they were jolted back, she turned around and walked away with the Malevolent Sword in her hand.

The man had a solemn look on his face.

The celestial plant was very important to him.

A powerful individual in his family was injured.

He needed to make an elixir, and this celestial plant was the main ingredient.

Seeing that he could not snatch it from Thea, he immediately slumped to the ground and knelt.

Thea, who was leaving, turned around and looked at the man kneeling on the ground.

She could not help but furrow her brow and asked, "What are you doing?" "Miss, this celestial plant is very important to me.

My father has been injured.

I need to make a type of elixir.

And this celestial plant is the main material.

If you take it away, my father will be dead.

I beg of you, please give me the celestial plant.

I'm willing to trade something of equal value for it." Thea was a soft-hearted person.

As she looked at his teary eyes and runny nose, she felt sorry for him.

Even though the celestial plant was invaluable, it would not boost her significantly.

After giving it some thought, she took out the celestial plant.

It was a small, blue plant with blue flowers in bloom.

It was gorgeous.

The celestial plant was emanating a powerful aura.

There was also an enchanting fragrance permeating the air.

"Here.

Take it." "Thank you.

Thank you." With a look of gratitude on his face, the man accepted the celestial plant.

The moment he accepted it, his face darkened.

Taking advantage of Thea letting her guard down, he struck with great force, landing his palm on Thea.

He was not weak.

Even if he had not reached the Sage Rank, he was at the peak of the Tribulation Rank's Third Stage.

It was terrifying when he struck with all his might.

Thea was careless.

When she realized what was happening, it was already too late.

Her chest had already been struck and her body was sent flying like a ball.

She was launched out of the tavern and landed hard on the main street outside.

Before she could react, the man had rushed outside and sealed Thea's cultivation base.

After that, he removed the veil from her face.

"Tsk, tsk.

[never expected you to be such a stunning beauty as well." "You...

Curse you!" Thea's face was tinged with rage.
