

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2571

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2571-She was the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's Leader, also known as the Sword Master.

The Sword Master fell into deep thought and did not reply for a while.

Xianna continued to speak.

"Korinth is very ambitious.

Geographically speaking, they have to conquer our country to continue traveling south to attack Wushua and unify the world.

However, I have a feeling their intention isn't that simple." Hearing this, the Sword Master looked at Xianna and asked, "Did you notice anything strange?"

Xianna nodded and said, "I suspect Korinth has learned about our country's secret.

They're using an attack on our country as a cover-up and are actually coming after the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion." Hearing this, the Sword Master fell into deep thought.

After a long while, she said, "Sangria and the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's secrets have only been passed down to our country's Empress and the Crepe Myrtle Sword Master.

That is to say, only you and I are aware of them.

Are you suspecting that I leaked them to outsiders?" Xianna hurriedly explained, "Of course not.

How could I doubt you? I simply think that Korinth discovered our secret from other channels." The Sword Master replied, "That's impossible.

Our secrets have been passed down solely to the next inheritor of each generation.

Only when our positions are passed on to the next successor will it be passed on to the next person.

Other than these occasions, there aren't any other channels through which they can find out about them." Hearing this, Xianna sighed.

"I hope I'm just overthinking it." The two walked side by side.

As for the secrets the two discussed, no one else knew about them.

Xianna specifically came to the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion to remind the Sword Master to be more careful.

After their conversation, Xianna temporarily stayed in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion and paid close attention to outside events.

If Sangria were to be defeated by Korinth, she would ask the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion for help.

The Sword Master of the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion was powerful and would surely be able to resolve Sangria's crisis.

After James learned that the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion was in the center of the world, he quickly made his way over.

He traveled at full speed and did not even stop for a moment to rest.

After seven to eight days of traveling, he finally reached Mount Crepe Myrtle.

He stopped outside Mount Crepe Myrtle's perimeters.

Ahead of him was a vast mountain range.

The mountains were surrounded by white mist and looked like paradise from a distance.

"I can sense very strong Sword Intent here." As James approached the area, he felt a terrifying Sword Intent coming from the mountain range ahead of him.

The Sword Intent was like a huge wave, constantly crashing toward him.

If not for his Sword Body and his Yogacara Sword Energy, he would not be able to withstand the Sword Intent.

After sensing the Sword Intent, he also discovered the Sword Energies that had materialized from the mountains ahead.

The Sword Energies emerged from the mountains and rose into the sky, eventually vanishing into thin air.

"Huff!" James took a deep breath and murmured, "This place is definitely not that simple."

The Sword Intent here alone is already terrifying." He decided to head to the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion to get more information.

James decided to go deeper into the mountains but stopped very shortly.

As he got closer to Mount Crepe Myrtle, he sensed a formation.

It was a Sword Formation formed by the abundant Sword Intent.

The force from the formation constantly attacked him.

He fell into a trance and fell into a vast ocean while huge, crashing waves kept coming at him.

The huge waves swept toward him and attacked him.

Even though he had a Sword Body, the force was enough to cause him to spit up blood.

James was knocked away by the force.

Suddenly, the scene before his eyes changed, and he returned to reality.

He looked at the massive mountain before him and murmured, "I never expected such a powerful Sword Formation to exist here.

With my strength, I won't be able to break the formation.

Ms. Sophie is in seclusion right now, and I don't have anyone to help me break the formation.

What should I do?" After thinking about it for a while, he asked Nova for help.

"Nova, I've encountered a Sword Formation.

Could you help me break the formation? It's this world's central region, and I want to advance further to investigate." James asked Nova, who was in the Celestial Abode.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2572

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2572-The formation around the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion was potent and contained very terrifying Sword Intent.

Even though James had a Sword Body and walked the path of a swordsman, he could not resist the Sword Intent's force.

He only had Nova to turn to for help.

Nova was a lifeform born within the Celestial Abode and had been following a Grand Master's journey.

Thus, his strength was also unfathomable.

Soon, Nova responded, "I can break it.

Although it's a potent formation, it's a piece of cake to me." "Quickly help me break the formation.

I have to investigate how this place is connected to the curse," James said impatiently.

"Alright." Nova's voice resounded from the Celestial Abode.

Following that, a powerful force came from within the Celestial Abode and enveloped James' body.

"You can pass through the formation now, Master.

As long as you don't willingly expose yourself, no one will be able to see you," said Nova.

James sensed the powerful force around him that hid his energy and aura from others.

He was at ease upon receiving Nova's help.

James walked toward the formation.

The formation did not repel him this time.

James quietly passed through, entering the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

After passing through the formation, he was within Mount Crepe Myrtle.

Mount Crepe Myrtle was huge and covered a vast area.

James discovered that there were thousands of mountains, and intense Sword Intent emerged from them.

At the same time, wisps of Sword Energy also materialized out of the mountains.

James murmured, "As expected from a sword pavilion, there is so much Sword Intent in this area." After looking around, James noticed a mountain in the center.

He guessed that the mountain was the center of Mount Crepe Myrtle and the main mountain where the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion was located.

He would have to travel to the main mountain to learn more about the curse.

James silently advanced toward the mountain.

Along the way, he saw a lot of Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's disciples, all of which were women with varied strengths.

The stronger ones were at the Tribulation Rank, and the weaker ones were at the Supernatural Rank.

However, none of the disciples were capable of sensing his existence.

Soon, he arrived at the main mountain of the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

The mountain was 10,000 meters high and very steep.

The mountaintop was surrounded by white mist and looked like a paradise.

At the mountain foot was a stone tablet with an ancient script on it — Sword.

Although James could not read the word, it exuded a potent Sword Intent, and he could more or less guess the word's meaning.

James did not stay there for long and quickly ascended the stairs to the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

Many magnificent buildings stood atop the mountain, and many disciples walked around.

James did not know much about the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion or the structure of the mountain.

Thus, he wandered around the mountain aimlessly.

After advancing onto the main peak, he passed through some palaces.

Along the way, he saw many disciples of the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion, but none of them could sense him since his energy was hidden.

"where can I go to investigate the curse?" James stopped in an open space and scanned his surroundings.

Many buildings surrounded him, but he did not know where to check.

At that moment, two women came from a distance.

The woman walking in the lead wore a slim, blue dress with the word and picture of a sword embroidered on it.

She had very long hair that reached her waist.

Her face was delicate and beautiful.

The woman radiated elegance.

“Sword Master.” The woman behind her asked, “Why has the Empress come to visit the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion? What’s her intention?” The Sword Master halted, thought for a moment, and replied, “Sangria is facing a crisis right now.

The Empress is just worried that Sangria will be destroyed.

Since things are in a critical state, she came to seek my help in repelling the Korinthan Army.” “Sword Master, I heard rumors that the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion is guarding something.

Is it true?” The Sword Master glanced at her and asked, “You heard about it? From who?”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2573

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2573-The female disciple said, “It’s a rumor I heard being spread in the outside world.” “Oh, is that so?” The Sword Master was slightly taken aback.

The female disciple said, “Yeah.

The whole world is spreading that the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion is protecting Sangria’s secret.

Whoever unravels the secret will remove the curse and obtain a great fortune.” “What a joke.” The Sword Master said lightly, “It’s getting late.

You’re dismissed.

Go back and rest.” “Alright.” The female disciple turned and left.

James stood aside and eavesdropped on their conversation.

He fell into thought.

‘The outside world is spreading a rumor that the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion is protecting Sangria’s secret? Is that true? Could it be that this place is really related to Sangria’s Curse?’

Then, James looked at the woman that was addressed as the Sword Master.

The Sword Master stood a few meters away from him but could not sense his presence.

The Sword Master had a pensive expression, which was quickly replaced with a solemn look.

After a while, she turned and left.

James could tell the Sword Master knew about the world's secret, and he secretly followed her.

The Sword Master headed to a manor in the back mountain.

After arriving at the manor, Sangria's Empress came to greet her.

"It's quite late for you to be here, Sword Master.

Is something the matter?" Xianna wore a thin and sheer dress, vaguely showing her skin and making her look very alluring.

The Sword Master walked over and sat down.

James walked inside and stood aside.

Seeing Xianna, he was slightly taken aback and murmured, "Why is Sangria's Empress here?" He did not reveal himself and watched them from the side.

With a frown, the Sword Master said, "I just heard from my subordinate that a rumor is being spread that the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion is protecting Sangria's secret and that unraveling the secret hidden within our pavilion will remove the curse on Sangria, revealing great fortunes."

Surprised, Xianna said, "Oh, is that so? I've never heard of this before." The Sword Master nodded and said, "It's probably true that a rumor is going around.

It's very alarming, and I've already sent disciples to investigate it immediately and find out who spread the word." "Are you suspecting me?" Xianna looked at the Sword Master.

The Sword Master gently shook her head and said, "You and I are the only people who know about these secrets right now.

I don't doubt your innocence.

I'm simply wondering who else would know about it besides you and me." James carefully listened to their conversation from the side.

Hearing this, he also became puzzled.

What kind of secret were the two talking about? Was it related to Sangria's Curse? Was Sangria's Curse related to the curse on this world? James remained hidden and paid attention to the two women's conversation, afraid he would miss any important clues.

Xianna's pretty face became solemn.

"If the outside world is spreading such rumors, it will be very disadvantageous to us.

Soon, our enemies will not just be Korinth but the whole world." The Sword Master sighed.

"Yeah. Sangria has a very long history, and the curse is very extraordinary.

Once the rumors become more widespread, Sangria will be in great danger."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2574

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2574—Xianna and the Sword Master, the two beautiful women, looked at each other with solemnness.

"Could it be the fated one has appeared?" Xianna suddenly recalled something.

an The Sword Master was taken aback.

After a brief moment, she said, "Those are just myths.

There isn't any proof as to whether they're true." Xianna said, "Everything about the curse is also just a myth, is it not? I have a very strong feeling the fated one mentioned since ancient times is about to appear.

If he appears, then our country's curse will be lifted." James was very intrigued by their conversation.

However, neither Xianna nor the Sword Master continued to speak.

"That's right.

I'm the fated one you're speaking about." At that moment, a voice resounded.

James and the two women looked in the direction of the sound.

A person stepped out from the dark.

He wore a black robe and was about 180 centimeters tall.

He did not have a very outstanding appearance but was not ugly either.

However, he had a very decent appearance.

He calmly walked out of the darkness with his hands crossed behind his back.

Seeing an outsider, Xianna and the Sword Master immediately stood up simultaneously.

Both of them looked at the intruder warily.

The man walked over, looked at the two women, and said indifferently, "My name is Walganus Jaxon." Xianna frowned and asked, "Walganus Jaxon?"

What's your identity?" Walganus replied, "You don't have to know about that." The Sword Master said, "You said you're the fated one.

What are you fated to do?" Walganus walked over, sat down, and replied to her question calmly.

"I was ordered to obtain the supreme sword-fighting techniques.

After obtaining them, I'll be able to lift Sangria's Curse and acquire the Curse Magic placed on Sangria." Upon hearing this, both women felt their blood run cold.

Xianna asked, "Who sent you here?" The Sword Master stared at him and questioned, "What else do you know?" Walganus thought for a while and said.

"Once upon a time, the Ancestral Sword Master slashed this world, but the Ancestral Talisman Master couldn't bear to see this world destroyed and used a formidable Curse Magic to seal this world.

Then, he left behind a great inheritance, which is the powerful Curse Margic in the center of this world.

More precisely speaking, it's within Sangria.

"Afterward, the Ancestral Talisman Master and the Ancestral Sword Master fought an intense battle on this world, but it ended in a tie.

The Ancestral Sword Master built the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion and left his inheritance there.

"I'm the fated one, and I've come to collect the Ancestral Sword Master and the Ancestral Talisman Master's inheritance.

"The curse placed on Sangria will be lifted after the Ancestral Talisman Master's inheritance is taken away." Walganus parted his lips and told a story of the past.

Xianna's brows slightly furrowed.

She highly doubted Walganus's identity.

It was too much of a coincidence for the fated one to appear right after she brought it up.

She looked at Walganus and said, "Why should I believe you're the fated one?" Walganus said, "The fated one isn't affected by Sangria's curse.

Your country's curse isn't effective on me.

All I have to do is stay in Sangria for over a month, and you'll eventually come to believe me."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2575

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2575-Hearing this, Xianna and the Sword Master began conversing with each other in whispers.

Xianna whispered, "That's exactly what the former Empress told me when she passed the throne to me.

She told me the person who isn't affected by Sangria's Curse is the fated one, and he'll obtain the inheritance left behind by the Ancestral Talisman Master."

The Sword Master thought for a while and said, "When the former Sword Master passed the position to me, she said the supreme sword -fighting techniques can't be obtained by just anyone.

Only the fated one will be able to acquire it.

Also, this person isn't afraid of the curse and has two special characteristics.

That is, he will have a Sword Body and the Sword Energy of the Ancestral Sword Master.” Xianna said, “Let’s not act rashly for now and see what happens in a month.” “Mhm.

We’ll wait to see if he isn’t affected by the Sangria’s Curse.” Although the two spoke in hushed tones, James could still hear them.

After eavesdropping on their conversation, James touched his nose and murmured, “I have cultivated a Sword Body and have the Ancestral Sword Master’s Sword Energy.

Don’t I fit the description perfectly? Could I be the fated one?” James was curious.

He was clueless about all these things, but Walganus knew them very well.

What exactly was going on? James was puzzled.

He wanted to expose himself and asked them about it.

However, Walganus was present, and it was best not to show up now.

After revealing himself, he might get framed by Walganus, and it would be hard to explain the situation.

“The fated one isn’t affected by the curse, huh? Am I not affected by it?” James was curious and wondered if he would not be affected by Sangria’s Curse.

To confirm his conjecture, he would have to stay in Sangria for more than a month.

However, it would be a very risky action.

He would lose his life if he were not the fated one.

James asked Nova, who was in the Celestial Abode.

“The Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion’s Sword Master said the fated one to lift the curse has a Sword Body and the Ancestral Sword Master’s Sword Energy.

I definitely fit the description of this fated one.

Nova, do you think the fated person they’re talking about is me?” Soon, Nova replied, “I don’t know.” James said, “Now, I have a rough understanding of Sangria’s secrets.

They have a curse on their country because the person who cast the Curse Magic, the Ancestral Talisman Master, left his inheritance here.” Nova said, “It’s more or less like what I thought it would be.” James asked, “Then, what should I do now?” Nova replied, “I can’t give you a definite answer.

You'll have to figure it out yourself." "Should I stay in Sangria for a month to see if I'm immune to the curse?" "If you want to, go ahead and try it." Nova did not give James a certain answer but simply asked him to follow his heart.

James became more confused, unsure of what to do next.

He wanted to discuss things with Sophie.

However, no matter how much he called for her, she did not respond.

James had no choice but to give up.

Walganus appeared and claimed to be the fated man.

From the secrets passed down to Xianna and the Sword Master, they indeed were aware a fated one would appear.

However, neither of them could confirm whether Walganus was the fated one.

The only way to verify Walganus' identity was by letting him stay in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion for now.

The Sword Master said, "Mr. Jaxon, since we're unable to confirm your identity as the fated person, we can only have you stay in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion for now and discuss the matter after a month."

Walganus said, "I understand your concerns.

Since you're worried, I'll stay here for a month.

After a month, I'm sure you'll believe me." Afterward, the Sword Master arranged temporary accommodation for Walganus in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2576

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2576-Walganus was given temporary accommodation in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

Afterward, Xianna and the Sword Master met up again.

The two discussed the incident together.

Xianna said worriedly, "Sword Master, is this Walganus really the fated one from the legend?"

The Sword Master shook her head and said, "I don't know, but if he can stay in Sangria for more than a month and obtain the supreme sword – fighting techniques hidden in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion, he's the fated one."

Xianna nodded and said, "I'm already exhausted."

I really hope he's the fated one who will lift Sangria's Curse.

Then, I can finally disband the country and go on my own adventures." "We're not in a rush."

Let's see how it goes.

My teacher told me that the fated one will have to find the supreme sword -fighting techniques hidden within the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion alone." "Mhm." Xianna nodded.

"The former Empress told me that although the curse is within our country, no one knows its location."

Only the fated one will be able to find it." The two had a brief conversation.

Meanwhile, James began to piece the stories together.

However, very little was passed on to Xianna and the Sword Master as these events occurred long ago.

Thus, they only knew a portion of the truth.

James continued to lurk in the dark and think about the situation.

He might indeed be the fated one if the Sword Master's version of the story was accurate.

James decided to temporarily hide in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion for a month to confirm whether his body was affected by the curse.

Still, he was slightly worried that something terrible would happen and he would be cursed.

Therefore, he informed Nova to be prepared to immediately send him out of the country if he felt affected by the curse.

After making preparations for the worst with Nova, James felt a little more at ease.

Then, he hid within the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

Meanwhile, rumors about Sangria continued to spread throughout the world.

“Have you heard the rumor that the Ancestral Sword Master left behind a great inheritance in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion in ancient times?” “Ancestral Sword Master? I think I’ve seen that name in my family’s ancient records.

He’s an unrivaled powerhouse that existed in ancient times.” “Also, it seems Sangria’s Curse is related to the Curse Magic.”

“The Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion is located in the center of Sangria, and the supreme sword-fighting techniques left behind are connected to the Curse Magic.” Cultivators from all over the world heard of the rumor.

Meanwhile, the seal of the world had also gone viral.

No one knew who was spreading the rumors, but they were exactly like what Walganus said.

At that moment, Emperor Fritz sat in Wushua Palace’s main hall and listened to his subordinates’ reports.

“What did you say? Supreme sword – fighting techniques?” “Yes, Your Majesty.

These supreme sword – fighting techniques were left behind by the Ancestral Sword Master, a very formidable powerhouse of the past.

It’s rumored one could at least reach the Grand Emperor Rank or even the Ancestral God Rank after obtaining the inheritance.

After that, the seal on this world will be lifted, and we can lead Wushua to become the strongest country in the universe.” Hearing this, Emperor Fritz was intrigued.

He shouted, “ Immediately get our country’s powerhouses to head over to the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion and obtain the supreme sword – fighting techniques no matter what.” “Understood.” Concurrently, the powerhouse all over the world heard about the rumors.

The supreme sword – fighting techniques and the formidable Curse Magic had attracted the attention of many powerhouses.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2577

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2577-Even some hidden powerhouses that had not shown up in the outside world for many years gradually revealed themselves.

Many cultivators made their way to Sangria's Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion, eyeing the unparalleled sword- fighting techniques and the Curse Magic.

Almost all the powerhouses over the world were traveling to Sangria.

Sangria was about to face a great storm as it had become the focus of countless cultivators.

Meanwhile, James stayed hidden within the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion and did not reveal himself.

The days passed in the blink of an eye, and James had stayed in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion for about half a month.

Altogether, he had been in Sangria's territory for about twenty days.

The closer he got to a month, the more terrified he felt.

After half a month, many powerful cultivators had also entered Mount Crepe Myrtle's periphery.

The Korinthan Army had already been reassembled and was beginning their attack on Sangria's Macchia City.

In the back mountain of the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion, Xianna and the Sword Master walked side by side on a winding path.

Xianna said worriedly, "Our front lines are in a crisis right now.

The Korinthan Army is already attacking Macchia City.

If Macchia City falls, the Korinthan Army will make their way to the Imperial Capital." The Sword Master also said anxiously, "The Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's secrets have spread.

Many powerhouses are waiting outside the mountain and are demanding we disperse our formation.

It's getting very worrisome." Xianna asked, "What should we do now, Sword Master?" The Sword Master thought awhile and said, "We can only wait.

Once their stay approaches the one-month mark, they'll naturally leave Sangria.

As for the frontline battle, we'll have to stand our ground and defend Macchia City at all costs." Xianna said, "We should be able to resist the first wave of attacks.

However, I'm worried Korinth will continue to send more troops and cultivators to attack Sangria.

Our country will definitely fall if they keep on striking us." "Huff." The Sword Master sighed and said, "Let's wait for a little bit more.

If Walganus is the fated one, he'll take the supreme sword- fighting techniques and the Curse Magic.

Then, our mission will be completed, and there will be no need for Sangria to exist anymore." The two walked together and discussed the situation.

A large number of powerhouses gathered outside the mountain gate.

They kept shouting, demanding that the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion disperse the formation around the mountain.

However, the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's Sword Master ignored them.

James, who was lurking around, learned about the situation.

He never expected so many powerhouses to appear outside the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

He left the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion and appeared outside the mountain gate.

At least a thousand powerhouses were outside the mountain gate.

Most were at the Tribulation Rank, and a few were at the Sage Rank.

No matter how robust the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's formation was, it would not be able to resist these powerhouses' attacks if they chose to break through it forcefully.

After leaving the mountain's perimeters to check on the situation, James returned to the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

For the past half month, James had been secretly watching Walganus.

However, Walganus had shut himself in the room and focused on his cultivation.

He never left and completely ignored the affairs of the outside world.

James wanted to inquire about Walganus's background but did not have the chance since Walganus never walked about.

After returning to the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion, James walked around aimlessly.

After walking for some time, he found Xianna and the Sword Master.

The two chatted for a while and then separated.

The Sword Master walked toward the back mountain.

There was a nine-story tower behind the mountain.

A few disciples guarded the tower's entrance.

Seeing the Crepe Myrtle Sword Master appear, the guards respectfully greeted her.

"Sword Master." "Mhm." The Sword Master nodded in response and walked into the nine-story tower.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2578

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2578-James followed to the tower's entrance.

There were several ancient scripts engraved on the beams of the entrance.

They were from very ancient times, and James could not read or understand them.

He froze momentarily and followed the Sword Master into the tower.

James discovered that the inside of the tower was relatively vast.

The first floor was about a thousand square meters.

The place was furnished with countless bookshelves that were filled with books.

The Sword Master did not stay on the first floor but headed up the stairs to the ninth floor.

James followed her to the ninth floor.

After the Sword Master reached the ninth floor, she searched the books.

Soon, she found an ancient book on a bookshelf.

Then, she found a corner to sit down and seriously read the book.

Meanwhile, James scanned his surroundings curiously.

He picked up a book and found that the words in the book were not in a language from Earth, so it was impossible for him to read them.

After scrutinizing the book for a while, he still could not understand anything.

Thus, he put down the book.

Although he placed the book down very softly, it still caused a slight sound.

The Sword Master, who was focused on her book, sensed something and looked toward the sound.

She saw a book moving slightly and frowned.

“Am I hallucinating?” She put the book in her hand down and walked over.

Seeing the Sword Master approaching, James instinctively leaned on the bookshelf to avoid the Sword Master.

Since his aura was concealed and he was invincible, the Sword Master could not see him.

She walked over, picked up the book that James had placed down, and observed it for a while.

The Sword Master scanned her surroundings again.

After finding nothing unusual, she returned to her original spot and sat down to continue reading her book.

James quietly walked over and watched her from aside.

He made sure his footsteps were light and almost completely silent.

However, the Sword Master was not an ordinary person.

She was incredibly strong and had become a Sage many years ago.

Previously, she was not paying attention, so she missed it.

However, she sensed something was definitely wrong this time.

The sound of James' footsteps did not go unnoticed by her.

She did not raise her head but used her Divine Sense to scan her surroundings.

Despite so, she did not sense anyone around her.

'Who's following me?' The Sword Master thought to herself.

At that moment, she felt the footsteps getting closer, as if the person following her was standing right before her.

She could tell the person was standing half a meter away and looking right at her.

The Sword Master put down the book in her hand and looked directly at James.

Although she could not see anything, she pretended to be calm and said lightly, "Since you're already here, why don't you reveal yourself?" Hearing this, James was startled.

'Could she have discovered me?' After a brief shock, he calmed down.

Nova had reassured him that his aura was concealed and he was invisible.

No one could see him as long as he did not reveal himself.

Thinking of this, he felt relieved and took a few steps backward.

The Sword Master could not find James, nor could she sense anyone around her.

However, she could indeed hear the footsteps.

She stared right straight ahead and said, "Why are you hiding? What exactly do you want? I won't hold back against you if you don't show yourself." James did not feel threatened by her and casually turned to leave.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2579

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2579—The Sword Master sensed that James had left.

Although she could tell James' precise location from the footsteps, she did not take action against him for fear that the hidden person was overpowering.

Otherwise, she would have definitely been able to sense his aura.

After James left, the Sword Master frowned and wore a solemn expression.

"who the hell was that? We have a formation protecting the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

Ordinary people aren't able to pass through it.

How can an outsider enter the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion and secretly follow me around? What exactly is this person's goal? The Sword Master was perplexed.

She did not know the identity of the person following her or the person's motive.

The Sword Master quickly left the tower and headed to see Xianna.

At that moment, Xianna was by a manor in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion where she stayed.

She sat on the grass field outside the manor and stared at the sky in a daze.

The Sword Master rushed over and told her about someone following her in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

Shocked, Xianna asked, "Are you saying that someone has been following you around?" The Sword Master nodded and said solemnly, "Yeah.

I could clearly hear footsteps but couldn't see anyone nor sense any energy around me." "You're already at the Sage Rank's Seventh Stage and are a Sage King.

You're almost invincible in our world.

How can even you not sense this person's aura?" Xianna was in disbelief.

The Crepe Myrtle Sword Master was already at the Sage Rank's Seventh Stage.

Cultivators at the Sage Rank's First to Sixth Stage were called Sages.

Meanwhile, cultivators at the Sage Rank's Seventh to the Twelfth Stage were called Sage Kings.

The Crepe Myrtle Sword Master was considered the strongest person in this world.

However, her status as the strongest person was a surface matter.

Other strong cultivators stayed hidden and seldom exposed themselves to the world, which caused them to be forgotten by the world.

Despite that, the Sword Master was still the strongest among the known cultivators.

It was hard for Xianna to believe someone could follow the Sword Master without being discovered.

"I'm very serious." The Sword Master had a grim look.

Xianna said, "The Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's formation was set up by one of your ancestors many years ago.

If I remember correctly, your ancestor was a powerhouse that became a Divine Sage.

Who could pass through the formation unscathed?" "Walganus," The Sword Master and Xianna spoke simultaneously.

The Sword Master nodded and said, "Mhm.

The Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's formation has existed since ancient times, and outsiders aren't capable of breaking through it.

However, Walganus passed through it without breaking the formation.

The person following me must be Walganus." Xianna asked puzzledly, "Why would he follow you? Could he be trying to obtain the supreme sword-fighting techniques hidden in Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion?" The Sword Master shook her head.

Meanwhile, James was completely unaware the Sword Master had mistaken Walganus as the person secretly following her.

At that moment, he wandered among some of the mountains in the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion.

The Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion was massive, and it had 1008 mountains in total.

Disciples were scattered among all of these mountains.

James leisurely wandered on the mountains.

He could sense the Sword Intent coming from the mountains.

At the same time, Sword Energies would emerge from the mountains.

Although the strands of Sword Energy were weak, they were potent when they gathered.

Ever since he entered the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion, his Yogacara Sword Energy had been stimulated, and it was absorbing Sword Energy from the surroundings.

However, James forcibly stopped it from absorbing the Sword Energy.

"This is a nice place." James climbed to one of the mountain's peaks and sat on a rock on the cliff.

He began sensing the Sword Energy around him and murmured, "The Sword Energy here is the best nourishment for my body.

If I cultivate here for some time, I'll definitely be able to increase my Yogacara's rank to the Third Stage."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2580

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2580-The Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion was a good place to cultivate and improve his Yogacara rank.

However, James was not in the mood to cultivate.

He waited for one month to pass.

If he could make it through the one-month mark and was not affected by the curse, he would cultivate at ease.

Although he would not reach the Tribulation Rank, he could at least reach the Mage Rank's Third Stage.

James sat on the cliff of the back mountain.

Bored, he took out a cigarette and lit it.

At that moment, he felt homesick.

He missed being on Earth and wanted to see Thea.

So many years have passed, and he wondered how Thea was doing on Earth.

Meanwhile, many powerhouses continued to gather outside of the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's mountain gate.

Since the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion was protected by a formation set up by a powerhouse of the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion many years ago, powerhouses of the current age could not break through it with their strength.

Initially, almost all the powerhouses that arrived outside the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's mountain gate were at the Tribulation Rank.

However, many more powerhouses began to arrive.

Those that showed up recently were at the Sage Rank and had reached very high stages.

While the crowd gathered outside the mountain gate, a red sedan chair appeared in the distance.

Four women in red dresses carried the sedan chair.

They advanced rapidly and appeared outside the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's mountain entrance in the blink of an eye.

"Wh-Who are they?" Seeing the red sedan chair carried by four women wearing red dresses, the cultivators waiting outside the Crepe Myrtle Sword Pavilion's mountain gates were stunned.

The four women carrying the sedan chair had the exact same appearance and clothes.

They were even dressed in the same way, like they were carved out of the same mold.

"Could they be the legendary Four Saints?" "According to ancient records, four identical women appeared in our world one hundred thousand years ago.

They were known as the Four Saints and served the Blademaster of Mount Grinch." "That's right.

It must be the Blademaster of Mount Grinch." When the four women were pictured together, the identity of the person seated in the red sedan chair became obvious.

Some people were unfamiliar with the Blademaster of Mount Grinch and asked, "Who's that?" "He's someone who's existed since a hundred thousand years ago and was already a Sage King back then.

He has unparalleled swordsmanship and is one of the greatest in the world.

Surprisingly, he's still alive after a hundred thousand years." "Huff." As information about the Blademaster of Mount Grinch was revealed, many powerhouses present gasped.

"He was a Sage King one hundred thousand years ago? Now that so much time has passed, what rank is he currently?" An old man sitting on a rock in a corner nearby said,

Regardless of one's talent and potential, one will be cursed after reaching a certain age and will never be able to enter the Divine Rank because of the seal on Planet Galileo." His words immediately attracted the crowd's attention.

Almost everyone had heard of such legends.

However, no one had ever reached such heights in cultivation or lived long enough to confirm them.

Thus, no one really paid much attention to the legends.

A young cultivator asked, "Sir, is the curse you speak of real? Is it impossible for anyone on Planet Galileo to reach the Divine Rank? Will people that live to a certain age really be cursed?" "Yes." Before the old man could answer, a voice came from the red sedan chair.

Everyone immediately turned to the red sedan chair.

One of the women lifted the curtain covering the red sedan chair, and an old man walked out.

He was a very slim man with a wrinkled face, and he was wearing a red robe

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-