The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2621-James thought that the Heavenly Tribulation was over.

However, the lightning tribulation in the sky did not disperse.

Sensing the lightning tribulation's presence, he lifted his head and looked at the sky.

At that moment, the lightning tribulation mutated.

What was once a black lightning tribulation was now a rainbow-colored one.

Mysterious lines and characters suddenly appeared in the sky, gathering to form a bizarre-looking painting.

James was confused.

"What's going on, Sophie? Didn't you say that there are only nine Heavenly Tribulations? I've already withstood all nine of them.

So why did the lightning tribulation not disappear but mutate instead?" Sophie's expression was grim.

She could only sense that James' Heavenly Tribulation was unique and would not end that easily.

However, she could not divine what changes his Heavenly Tribulation would undergo.

"I don't know, James.

Maybe this is where the terrifying part begins.

I won't be able to help you out from here onward.

Be careful, alright?" Sophie's voice came.

James took a deep breath.

Soon, he calmed down.

Putting aside his worries, he murmured, "I've already reached the Tribulation Rank's First Stage, and my physical strength has reached the Sage Rank's Second Stage.

There's no way I can't withstand this Heavenly Tribulation." In the distance, many were dumbfounded.

Over the past few days, the Korinthian army had arrived outside Yoruba Valley.

Among them were a few cultivators at the Sage Rank.

When they sensed someone undergoing a Heavenly Tribulation, they hurriedly headed toward the region and observed from afar.

Seeing the nine Heavenly Tribulations, they were stunned.

“What’s going on? He has already overcome the ninth Heavenly Tribulation.

Why didn’t the Tribulation Cloud disappear but mutate instead?” “I don’t know.” “How bizarre.” Many were stunned, and so did Walganus, Quinella, Winnie, Delainey, and the others.

Stunned, they had no idea what was going on nor why did the Tribulation Cloud mutate.

Under the Tribulation Cloud, James was on full alert.

At that moment, the Tribulation Cloud disappeared.

However, the mysterious linear characters in the sky did not.

They gathered to form a bizarre-looking painting, in which mountains and rivers could be seen.

The painting was suspended in mid-air like the entrance to another world.

“Watch out, James,” Sophie warned.

“Huh?” James furrowed his eyebrows and asked, “What’s wrong, Sophie?” “If I’m not mistaken, this should be a Heavenly Tribulation of the Ancestral God Rank.” “What? Ancestral God Rank?” James froze.

“That’s right.

After reaching the Grand Emperor Rank, this Heavenly Tribulation only appears when you’re trying to ascend to the Ancestral God Rank.

As these are records in the ancient texts, I don’t know much about the specifics.

If I’m not mistaken, you’ll be sucked into the mysterious world in the void.

“This is an illusory world, a world created from the Laws of Heaven.

In this world, you'll have to fight to the best of your ability to survive." Sophie's voice came.

As her father was once the war god of the Ancient Heavenly Court, she was knowledgeable in these matters.

James took a deep breath.

At that moment, an immense power came from inside the painting and forcibly dragged him into the air.

Unable to resist, he was pulled into the illusory painting in the air.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2622—An illusory painting appeared in the sky.

Suspended in mid-air, the painting was formed by the mysterious linear characters.

Like a fantasy world, mountains and rivers could be seen in the painting.

Immense power materialized from within the mysterious world and forcibly pulled James in, who was unable to resist the force.

As he entered the illusory world, he could feel strong friction against his body.

Even though his physical body was formidable, he still felt uncomfortable, and he could sense his skin being scraped off.

Then, an ancient power shredded through the air in his direction, impacting his physical body and soul.

He could feel his head spinning.

This lasted for ten seconds.

Ten seconds later, he completely entered an unknown world.

As he arrived in a mountain range, he scanned his surroundings and murmured, "Where am I?" Before him were towering trees and dense foliage.

The sky was greyish, and there was only silence all around him.

After murmuring to himself, James leaped into the air and arrived at the peak of a mountain.

Scanning his surroundings, he realized that there were only undulating mountains around him.

“What is this place, Sophie?” James tried contacting Sophie, who was inside the Celestial Abode.

“Sophie...

Sophie...” He tried calling a few times.

Then, he tried sensing the Celestial Abode.

Immediately, he froze.

James was unable to sense the presence of the Celestial Abode.

He glanced at his finger.

The ring that materialized from the Celestial Abode was still there.

“What’s going on? The Celestial Abode is still here, but why can’t I sense its presence?” James was confounded.

He had no idea where he was nor the reason why he was there.

Then, he thought back to his conversation with Sophie.

This was a world created by the Laws of Heaven.

Here, he would have to fight to the best of his ability to survive.

At the same time, in the outside world, the spectators had witnessed James being sucked into the mysterious world.

The illusory world created by the Laws of Heaven was still suspended in mid-air.

Through the image, everyone could see the scenery of the other world and an image of James, who was now inside the painting.

Winnie furrowed her eyebrows and asked, “What’s going on?” Delainey shook her head.

It was beyond her understanding.

Quinella, too, had no idea what was going on.

Only Walganus was wearing a grim expression.

After remaining silent for some time, he uttered, “This is the most terrifying Heavenly Tribulation in the records of the ancient texts.” Hearing this, everyone turned to look at Walganus.

Staring at the illusory painting in mid-air, Walganus said, “My master is a powerful figure who stands at the top of the power pyramid.

Not only that, but the sect he belongs to has a huge collection of ancient texts.

Some are from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, while others are from the Primeval Age.” Winnie hurriedly asked, “Stop keeping us guessing.

Just tell us what’s going on!” Walganus said, “In the Primeval Age, the Grand Emperor Rank is not the end of the journey of cultivation.

There’s a rank even beyond that—the Ancestral God Rank.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2623—“There were many Ancestral Gods in the Primeval Age.

However, in the Ancient Heavenly Court Age and the Primordial Age, no living being was able to reach the Ancestral God Rank.

According to the records of the ancient texts, it was nigh impossible to reach the Ancestral God Rank.

One would first need to experience a terrifying Heavenly Tribulation.

If I’m not mistaken, what James is experiencing at the moment is the terrifying Ancestral God Tribulation of the Primeval Age.” Walganus had seen records of the Ancestral God Tribulation in the ancient texts collected by his sect.

These ancient texts were not passed down from the Primeval Age.

They only came into being thanks to the efforts of several powerful figures of the sect who recorded them after much extrapolation.

What James was experiencing was identical to the Ancestral God Tribulation.

Winnie looked at him and asked, "What is the Ancestral God Tribulation?" Walganus pointed at the illusory world in the sky and said, "This world should be created by the supreme Laws of Heaven.

Meanwhile, the one meant to undergo the tribulation would be pulled into the Tribulation World.

According to the records of the ancient texts, he or she would experience many ordeals." Quinella asked, "What kind of ordeals?" Walganus thought about it and said, "According to the records of the ancient texts, the most common tribulations would be lightning tribulations.

A single one of those could annihilate even a Grand Emperor.

Besides that, there will also be countless Heavenly Path Embodiments that are as strong as the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank.

The one undergoing the tribulations would have to annihilate these Heavenly Path Embodiments.

At the same time, they will be struck by lightning tribulations." Walganus told them everything he knew.

"These are only records in the ancient texts.

It's impossible to verify their authenticity." "If even a Grand Emperor could be annihilated, wouldn't James get killed?" Quinella was wearing a grim expression.

Walganus explained, "What I described a moment ago is the Tribulation World of Grand Emperors.

James is still a distance away from that rank.

The difficulty level of tribulations largely depends on the individual's strength.

Since James has only recently reached the Sage Rank, the Heavenly Tribulation in the Tribulation World would be around his rank.

The same goes for the Heavenly Path Embodiments." Hearing this, Winnie, Delainey, and the others breathed a sigh of relief.

Walganus continued, "If James successfully leaves the Tribulation World, his future will be bright.

He will have no problem crossing into the Grand Emperor Rank and reaching the Ancestral God Rank.

Perhaps he might even be the first individual to reach the Ancestral God Rank since the Primeval Age.” Walganus held James in high regard.

That was because James’ Heavenly Tribulation was simply too terrifying.

After all, even a Heavenly Tribulation meant for Ancestral Gods had appeared.

Many discussed the matter among themselves.

Meanwhile, James was already in the Tribulation World.

However, he had no idea where he was.

He only somewhat knew that he would be facing a lot of tribulations.

As for the specifics, he had no idea at the moment.

Standing at the peak of a mountain, he scanned his surroundings.

At that moment, black clouds gathered in the sky, and countless lightning bolts were flashing through the clouds.

James turned pale when he saw this.

There were too many Tribulation Clouds.

Previously, the Tribulation Clouds would only appear in a single region.

Now, however, there were only Tribulation Clouds for as far as his eye could see.

James took a deep breath and tried to calm himself down.

Since he was already here, he might as well face the ordeal in a calm manner.

No matter the tribulation, he had to overcome them.

“Come,” James said with fiery determination in his eyes.

However, the moment the Heavenly Tribulation appeared, countless Elysian Inscriptions materialized in the sky.

These fragments of Elysian Inscriptions slowly gathered to form illusory shadows.

One...

Two...

Ten...

A hundred...

A thousand...

Ten thousand...

In an instant, a huge army of shadows appeared out of thin air before him.

“What in the...” James’ eyes bulged.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2624—James’ eyes bulged as he stared at the countless shadows that appeared out of thin air.

From the shadows, he could sense a familiar aura.

“H-Heavenly Path Embodiments?” James roared in disbelief.

Indeed, these were Heavenly Path Embodiments.

Upon seeing the countless Heavenly Path Embodiments before him, James’ face paled, and his expression was full of disbelief and horror.

Then, his body shivered as his knees went limp.

For the very first time, he had no desire for a battle.

“Good heavens...” James was at a loss for words.

He knew very clearly what these Heavenly Path Embodiments were.

Once, one of them appeared after he achieved many breakthroughs consecutively.

James only managed to defeat it after summoning his full strength, which completely depleted his energy in the process.

Now, at this moment, there was not just a single one of them.

Based on conservative estimates, there must have been at least a million of them.

Horror overwhelmed James, and fear completely sapped him of his strength.

He wanted to flee.

As he scanned his surroundings in panic, he tried searching for an exit to leave this place.

However, this world had no boundaries.

Heavenly Path Embodiments gradually surrounded him.

Besides that, the Tribulation Clouds in the sky churned, and terrifying lightning tribulations flashed through the clouds.

The deafening blasts reverberated throughout this silent world.

Each roar of a lightning strike made James' soul tremble and his mind went blank.

Meanwhile, in the Celestial Abode...

Sophie was filled with consternation.

After James entered the Tribulation World, a powerful force severed James' connection with the Celestial Abode.

No matter how many times she called him, no one responded.

"What should we do now, Spirit Tool?" Sophie looked at the Spirit Tool anxiously.

The Spirit Tool was wearing a grim expression on his shriveled face.

After some time, he said slowly, "He has obtained many providences— all 108 Infinity Steles that have existed since the dawn of time, the Five Elements of Genesis, and many more.

There is a price to pay for obtaining these incredible providences." The Spirit Tool took a deep breath and continued, "Now, he can only depend on himself.

I hope he can overcome this tribulation.

If he does, his mind and body will experience tremendous growth.

This will create a strong foundation for his rise." As Sophie knew that worrying would do no good, she could only wait patiently for now In the Tribulation World...

James was horrified.

It was the first time he experienced such dread and consternation.

Alone in this world, there was no one he could call for help.

Swish! A lightning tribulation descended from the sky and struck the mountain where he was located.

As James' mind had gone blank, he could not even sense the lightning tribulation.

When the lightning tribulation struck him, he immediately suffered grave injuries.

The excruciating pain made him react, and he swiftly catalyzed the Demonic Energy inside his body to heal his injuries.

As Demonic Energy circulated throughout his body, his injuries were completely healed in an instant.

Rumble! The lightning tribulation churned in the clouds, letting loose a deafening roar.

Whish!

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2625—A second lightning tribulation descended from the sky.

At the same time, a horde of Heavenly Path Embodiments charged toward him from a distance away.

In military formation, they rushed toward him at great speed while exuding a commanding aura.

James could sense that these Heavenly Path Embodiments were at the Mage Rank's Third Stage.

Although their rank was low, they were Heavenly Path Embodiments that had reached the pinnacle of their rank and were not mere cultivators.

Heavenly Path Embodiments at such a rank would be able to annihilate cultivators at the Sage Rank with absolute ease.

Upon seeing the endless hordes of Heavenly Path Embodiments, James took a deep breath.

"Die!" he roared.

Containing immense power, his roar reverberated throughout the region, and shapeless sound waves shredded through the air, disintegrating the mountains in his surroundings.

As he roared, all his pores opened up at that moment, and Sword Energy materialized from them.

Then, they gathered to form a materialized sword.

As his Yogacara willed the sword into being, he clenched his fists to feel the Yogacara's power.

Slowly but gradually, the fear in his heart dissipated, and his desire for battle was ignited.

"No matter how treacherous the Heavenly Tribulation is, nothing will stand in my way." Holding the sword created by his Yogacara, James exuded a commanding presence, and his black hair flowed in the air.

Rumble! The lightning tribulation struck once more.

Without even bothering to lift his head, James waved his hand casually, and shapeless Sword Energy materialized and shredded through the air like a water ripple.

As the shapeless Sword Energy shredded through the air, the lightning tribulation was instantly destroyed.

Since his Yogacara was unprecedented from the get-go, its true power was truly demonstrated after he reached the Yogacara's Third Stage.

Even a lightning tribulation was instantly destroyed.

Upon seeing this, James roared in laughter.

"Hahaha! I'm invincible!" Then, holding the sword created by his Yogacara, he made a move and charged toward the horde of Heavenly Path Embodiments in the distance.

Immediately, the Heavenly Path Embodiments attacked.

Illusory swords materialized in their hands as they charged toward James at an extraordinary speed comparable to his.

James could see figures flashing before him before he was struck by the thousands of swords.

Countless illusory swords had pierced through his body.

“How powerful...” James was stunned.

However, at the same time, he struck back, knocking back the Heavenly Path Embodiments that approached him.

Not only that, but he also catalyzed Demonic Energy and swiftly healed his injuries before catalyzing True Elemental Essence inside his body.

Inside his body, the Five Elements of Genesis steadily materialized True Elemental Essence into being.

As True Elemental Essence gathered around him, they formed a protective barrier on the surface of his skin.

With the True Elemental Essence’s protection, not even the Heavenly Path Embodiments could deal any damage to him.

James’ desire for battle grew.

Holding the radiant sword in his hand, he charged toward the horde of Heavenly Path Embodiments and engaged in a fierce battle against them.

On the other end of the Tribulation World...

There was another fierce battle taking place here.

An individual was fighting ferociously against a horde of Heavenly Path Embodiments.

He was a man clad in black armor that was now in tatters.

He was covered in blood, and his hair was disheveled.

At that moment, he seemed to have sensed something.

Gazing into the distance for a brief moment, a faint smile crept up on his face as he murmured, “I never thought there’ll be others in this world.” Then, his body flashed, and he dodged the attacks of the Heavenly Path Embodiments before vanishing without a trace.

In the next instant, he was already in the region where James was located.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2626–At Sangria’s border.....

Everyone who was watching the event unfolding before their eyes witnessed James being pulled into a mysterious world and engaged in a fierce battle against countless shadows.

However, at that moment, the illusory world created out of the Laws of Heaven gradually became more illusory.

Soon, the world vanished without a trace.

“Where did James go?” “Why’s that thing gone?” Everyone was puzzled.

Winnie and Delainey unconsciously glanced at Walganus, who furrowed his eyebrows and shrugged, saying, “Don’t look at me.

I don’t know what’s going on either.” At the same time, in the Tribulation World...

James charged toward the horde of Heavenly Path Embodiments.

With the protection of True Elemental Essence, they were unable to deal any damage to him for now.

Since he had an invincible Yogacara and Sword Energy that materialized from it, he kept knocking back the Heavenly Path Embodiments.

However, the Heavenly Path Embodiments were not living beings and were not capable of dying.

Since they were made out of the Laws of Heaven, it was impossible to annihilate them.

In the beginning, James was unstoppable.

However, as the battle dragged on, his True Essence was slowly being depleted.

‘This can’t go on.’ As his True Essence was slowly being depleted, he sensed a looming threat.

If this battle dragged on, his True Essence would be depleted.

Should that come to pass, he would perish in battle.

‘What should I do?’ James panicked.

The moment he was distracted, countless Heavenly Path Embodiments attacked him ferociously.

Their sword techniques were unique, preventing James from mounting an effective defense.

In an instant, he was struck by thousands of swords.

Even with True Elemental Essence shielding his body, he suffered injuries.

In the distance, a man silently appeared.

He was wearing tattered black armor, and his disheveled hair blocked his face.

Regardless, it was apparent that he was exhausted.

“How interesting...” When he saw James, who was engaged in a fierce battle, a smile crept up on the man’s face as he murmured to himself, “I never thought that a human who has yet to reach even the Sage Rank could enter the Tribulation World.

What’s wrong with the world? Could the outside world have changed after I spent too much time here?” As he watched James’ battle...

“He’s not bad...

“However, resistance is futile.

It’s impossible to overcome this tribulation when faced with the endless hordes of the Heavenly Path Embodiments.

Once his True Essence is depleted, he’ll perish in the hands of the Heavenly Path Embodiments.” The man had foreseen James’ fate.

He would not be able to leave the Tribulation World alive.

“That being said, he sure has a lot of treasures in his possession.” He had completely seen through James and everything he had in his possession.

“What a terrifying Heavenly Tribulation at such a cultivation rank! His future is bright, and his potential knows no boundaries!” The man was wearing a grim expression.

He knew very clearly what sort of Heavenly Tribulation this was.

It would only appear when someone was about to cross into the Grand Emperor Rank.

Once he overcame this tribulation, he would become an Ancestral God.

However, as James had not even reached the Sage Rank, this was simply unprecedented.

“Perhaps the opportunity has arisen for me to overcome the Ancestral God Tribulation.”
The man looked at James, trying to see through him.

However, James’ future could not be determined.
