The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2721-Meanwhile, the cultivators from the Three-Thousand Worlds gathered at Bane City and entered closed-door meditations, paying no heed to the earthlings.

At that moment, in Bane City... As time passed, more and more cultivators from the Three-Thousand Worlds traversed through the seal and appeared on Earth, which led to overcrowding in the city.

Despite being a medium-sized city, more than 100 million cultivators had gathered there.

The streets in Bane City were overcrowded with people.

“Argh!” Suddenly, a heart-wrenching scream came from the streets.

As the scream reverberated throughout the area, a man suddenly collapsed to the ground and rolled on the floor.

“What’s wrong?” “What happened?” Dumbfounded, many watched the man puzzledly from afar.

The man who collapsed to the ground kept scratching his body as he rolled, tearing his skin and leaving bloody marks.

His hair was disheveled, and his face was contorted with bulging veins.

Many people gathered around him but did not dare approach.

Soon, the man quieted down and lay quietly on the ground.

Under the gaze of many watchful eyes, the man’s body slowly transformed into a black mist.

This was an eerie scene.

Silence fell on the scene, leaving nothing but deathly stillness.

Horried, someone said, “A-A curse...” “A curse?” Everyone was shocked and they retreated to the rear.

However, the black mist continued to spread, and people in the surroundings were contaminated.

Some who came into contact with the black mist had their bodies corroded instantly, leaving behind only a black skeleton that emitted a black mist.

Others who were contaminated had their bodies paralyzed, rendering certain functions unusable, such as the inability to speak, loss of sense of smell, or even blindness.

The crowd on the streets fled the scene.

However, the black mist had spread far and wide, and many people were contaminated.

The contagiousness of the black mist was extremely high, and even those within a distance of ten kilometers were infected.

In just a short amount of time, over 100 million people in Bane City were contaminated.

At the same time, a black aura appeared within the bodies of almost all of the most powerful human beings in the entire universe.

This was the power of the curse, and the symptoms varied.

Some fell ill, some became emaciated, while others were able to suppress the curse with their immense power.

However, there were also those who perished instantly.

“The Third Calamity has arrived.” “The Third Calamity has descended upon us.” “This is the end of humanity...” Some powerful humans spoke.

Others showed despair in their expressions.

The heavens intended to wipe out humanity, leaving no way out for them.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2722-On the moon... James was sitting in a lotus position in a desolate area as he focused all his efforts on breaking the seal.

After trying innumerable times, the seal showed signs of loosening.

Based on his current speed, he would be able to break the first seal shortly.

However, at that moment... "What?" He suddenly sensed an extraordinary power inside his body.

This power was somewhat familiar to him, yet also foreign at the same time.

Though he had encountered similar powers before, he had no idea why this power suddenly appeared inside his body.

It was the power of a curse.

As James was earnestly breaking through the seal, he suddenly felt the curse's power emerge from within him.

This power was different from the curse others cultivated, which he could absorb.

He could not absorb this power.

'The power of a curse? 'How can this be?' James was puzzled.

Just as he was puzzled, the curse began destroying his body ferociously.

Now that there was a seal inside his body, he could not utilize much force to suppress the curse.

In an instant, he suffered severe injuries.

"What a bizarre power... Has the curse descended upon us? Has the Third Calamity arrived?" James was stunned.

Since a curse appeared in his body out of nowhere, there was only a single possibility.

The Third Calamity of the earthlings and all humans in the universe had arrived.

Since he was a human, he was cursed as well.

He suffered severe injuries.

However, as he possessed the Demonic Body which shared the same origins as the curse, the injuries stopped deteriorating once they crossed a threshold.

"The curse is terrifying, but it won't kill me just yet." James took a deep breath.

At the same time, he was worried about humanity.

Since he had a Demonic Body, he was able to resist the curse.

What about the others who had ordinary bodies? "I have to achieve a breakthrough into the Sage Rank as soon as possible.

I need to borrow the Imperial Jade Seal and bear the curse of all humans." James took a deep breath.

Putting his thoughts aside, he focused wholeheartedly on breaking the seal.

"Break!" James roared and catalyzed all his strength to break the seal.

Crack! A cracking sound came inside his body.

Under the overwhelming force of his full strength, he had broken through the first seal.

Now that he had more power he could muster, he began going for the second seal.

The second seal... The third seal... The fourth seal... The seals were slowly being broken through.

After breaking all the seals, James' Heavenly Tribulation appeared.

This Heavenly Tribulation was the most terrifying of all.

After all, James would become a Sage should he overcome this tribulation.

Dark Tribulation Clouds gathered in the skies, and there were lightning tribulations of different colors flickering in them.

Each of them contained terrifying power.

Minor fissures appeared in the surroundings of the Tribulation Clouds, caused by the clouds' overwhelming power.

Boom! The first lightning tribulation descended.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2723-James remained where he stood and allowed the lightning tribulations to attack him freely.

When the lightning tribulations struck his body, injuries began to appear on his already gravely-injured body.

However, his physical body had already undergone changes and reached the Sage Rank, and the lightning tribulations could not completely annihilate him.

As more and more lightning tribulations descended from the sky and struck him repeatedly, he was injured but could not be killed.

Soon, all nine lightning tribulations had struck James.

James knew that this would not end that easily.

As he had no idea whether he would be transported to the Tribulation World, he braced himself nonetheless.

After all nine lightning tribulations had descended, a Heavenly Path Embodiment appeared.

Seeing a shadow created by the shards of the Law of Heaven in the clouds, James breathed a sigh of relief.

Anything was better than having to be transported to the Tribulation World.

A mere Heavenly Path Embodiment at the Sage Rank's First Stage was nothing in James' eyes.

As he was invincible in his rank, he could easily annihilate a Heavenly Path Embodiment at the Sage Rank's First Stage with ease.

As his mind stirred, a purple light flashed, gathering to form a purple sword.

It was the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, James looked at the Heavenly Path Embodiment in the air and charged toward it.

Thousands of sword techniques merged into one as he slashed the Heavenly Path Embodiment.

The moment the Divine Sword struck the Embodiment, the Embodiment was instantly annihilated and turned into shards of the Law of Heaven that dissipated into the clouds.

Then, the Tribulation Clouds dispersed.

"I did it." A faint smile crept up on James' face.

What could a mere Heavenly Tribulation do to him? Storing the Divine Sword away, he descended from the sky and sat in a lotus position on the ground.

At that moment, a five-colored divine light descended from the sky and enveloped him.

The five-colored divine light that contained immense power rapidly changed James' power.

Initially, James used True Essence to recharge his energy.

Now, the power was changing True Essence into the more powerful Sage Energy.

This process lasted approximately a month.

Over the past month, James' power was completely transformed into Sage Energy, and his rank was at the Sage Rank's First Stage.

On the moon, James who was sitting in a lotus position on the ground slowly stood up.

As his mind stirred, Sage Energy circulated throughout his body.

Yin and Yang Sage Energy... Elemental Sage Energy... All sorts of powers emerged.

A smile crept up on James' face as he said, "At long last, I'm finally a Sage.

Back then when I was still weak, the Sage Rank was an insurmountable gap.

Now, however, I have become a Sage in just a few short years." As James reminisced about the past, he could not help but be slightly disoriented.

Thinking that his journey of cultivation, he felt that his efforts were worth it.

After some time, he regained his senses.

As his mind stirred, he appeared inside the Celestial Abode.

Since the curse appeared in his body, he knew that the Curse Calamity had arrived.

Worried about the safety of everyone in the Celestial Abode, he entered the abode and headed straight to the village.

Back then, this was a bustling village.

However, this time, the village was eerily silent, and there was no one there at all.

Upon seeing this, James knew that something terrible had happened.

Filled with consternation, he entered the village.

Seeing that no one was anywhere to be seen, he yelled, "What happened? Come out!" Creak... The door of the courtyard opened, and a woman walked out.

It was Delainey.

However, Delainey at the moment had lost her charisma.

Now, her face was pale, and she was emaciated, seemingly on the verge of death.

James hurriedly rushed over to her.

When he approached her, he could sense a powerful curse emanating from within her body.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2724-James sensed the power of the curse inside Delainey's body.

With great difficulty, she walked over to him and said in a feeble voice, "Y-You're here, James." It seemed that her life was hanging by a thread, and she could die at any moment.

Shortly after, Winnie walked out.

She was in a situation similar to Delainey.

Though she had the curse's power inside her body, her condition was much better.

Other than her pale face, there was nothing else unusual about her.

Immediately afterward, more and more people walked out.

Everyone whom James had taken in was cursed.

Their bodies were showing signs of unusual symptoms, and some of them were even bedridden.

Upon seeing this, James furrowed his eyebrows.

Everyone inside the Celestial Abode was a powerful figure, the most distinguished individual on Earth.

If even they demonstrated such symptoms, this could only mean that the situation was much worse on Earth.

Furrowing her eyebrows, Delainey said grimly, "Dad, this is the curse's power.

Could it be the Third Calamity?" The others looked at James in anticipation.

"The heavens wish to annihilate us all." James sighed.

Each calamity was much more terrifying than the one before.

The Third Calamity could doom all of mankind, not to mention the Fourth Calamity which would be more terrifying.

"Let's calm down for now.

I'll help you dissolve the curse." James took a deep breath and took out the Imperial Jade Seal.

He could sense the terrifying power within the Imperial Jade Seal.

Though he already knew how to deal with the Third Calamity, he had no idea what specifically he should do.

Since Sophie was no longer by his side, he had no one to turn to.

At that moment, holding a cane, the Spirit Tool walked toward him and greeted him respectfully, "Master." James looked at him and asked, "Spirit Tool, how do I use the Imperial Jade Seal to bear someone else's curse?" The Spirit Tool glanced at the Imperial Jade Seal in James' hand and said after a brief contemplation, "If I'm not mistaken, the Imperial Jade Seal will automatically absorb the curse by itself.

Why don't you give it a try?" "Sure." James did as he was told.

Holding the Imperial Jade Seal in his hand, he approached Winnie and tried catalyzing the Imperial Jade Seal.

However, he could not no matter how hard he tried.

"Do I have to use Demonic Energy?" James murmured.

Then, he catalyzed Demonic Energy and apply it to the Imperial Jade Seal.

At that moment, he could clearly sense that he had become one with the Imperial Jade Seal, which was emitting a black light in his hand.

The moment he was connected with the Imperial Jade Seal, he immediately knew what to do.

The Imperial Jade Seal floated out of his hand and hovered above Winnie's head.

Then, the jade seal released a powerful force, which enveloped Winnie's entire body.

Immediately, a black mist appeared inside Winnie's body and was instantly absorbed into the Imperial Jade Seal.

In that instant, the black mist in the jade seal entered James' body, transferring the curse on Winnie's body to his own.

At that moment, James spurted out a mouthful of blood, and he collapsed to the ground.

"Dad!" Winnie hurriedly rushed to his side and helped him up.

Wearing a concerned look on her face, she asked, "Are you alright, Dad?" James waved his hand slightly and said, "I'm alright." He had already been cursed as well, but the curse had not caused him much harm.

Now that Winnie's curse was transferred to him, his own curse had become even more terrifying.

At that moment, he could feel a sense of foreboding, but he could not quite put his finger on what was wrong.

"How terrifying..." James' expression was grim.

Since the transfer of one person's curse already made him feel uneasy, how would it be possible to transfer the curse of all mankind? What would happen if the curse of all mankind was concentrated on one person? James found it hard to imagine and put these thoughts aside.

However, currently, he was the only person who could resist the curse.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2725-For now, he should first dissolve the curse of the humans inside the Celestial Abode.

As his mind stirred, the Imperial Jade Seal soared to the sky and exuded an immense power that enveloped the village.

At that moment, a black mist materialized from within the bodies of everyone in the village and entered the Imperial Jade Seal before entering James' body.

Immediately, James was surrounded by black mist, and his skin was corroded at a rapid pace.

"Dad!" "James!" Upon seeing James' body being corroded, many screamed.

However, as the aura James exuded was too terrifying, they did not dare approach him.

James sat in a lotus position on the ground.

After absorbing the curse of so many people, his head was spinning, and he could clearly feel his skin being corroded by the curse.

Not only that, but he could even sense his power being slowly reduced.

Should this continue, he would be reduced to a crippled with no cultivation base.

Perhaps before his strength was sapped away, his body would first completely be eroded.

"What should I do?" James panicked because could not catalyze the power of the curse inside his body.

Unable to control the curse's power or expel it from his body, he could only watch as the curse corroded his body.

At that moment, James was overwhelmed by fear.

If he could not even withstand the curse of so few people, how was he supposed to bear the curse of all humans on Earth and even the entire universe? James could sense his impending death.

'Am I going to die?' He did not wish to die so soon.

Besides, the Third Calamity had only just begun.

If he died right now, humanity would be doomed.

Perhaps humanity would be completely annihilated even before the Fourth Calamity.

From then on, the universe would have one race less – the human race.

"How do I suppress this bizarre power?" After panicking, James calmed down.

“Oh yeah, where’s the Imperial Jade Seal?” James thought of the Imperial Jade Seal that was left behind by the Ancestral Talisman Master of the Primeval Age.

The characters inscribed upon the jade seal were the culmination of Curse Magic.

The Heavenly Path wished to annihilate humanity by using the Curse Magic, and the only way to suppress the curse was to use the Imperial Jade Seal.

As his mind stirred, the jade seal appeared before him.

Holding the jade seal in his hand, he summoned the jade seal’s power and forcibly suppressed the curse in his body.

Under the suppression of the Imperial Jade Seal and the mysterious characters, the curse inside his body slowly died down.

Without the curse’s pressure, James breathed a sigh of relief.

Then, his mind stirred, and Demonic Energy circulated throughout his body, rejuvenating his injuries in the blink of an eye.

His corroded skin grew back.

After some time, he slowly stood up.

Many were looking at him dumbfounded.

“Are you alright, Dad?” Winnie was worried.

“I’m alright.” James shook his head slightly.

Though he had temporarily suppressed the curse, the curse still remained inside his body.

At that moment, he thought about ways to completely remove the curse.

He remembered something the Ancestral Talisman Master told him.

This was a tribulation, yet a providence at the same time.

Could it be that he needed to cultivate Curse Magic to remove the curse inside his body?

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2726—James believed that to remove the curse, he needed to cultivate Curse Magic.

However, he knew nothing about Curse Magic.

Even if he had the culmination of Curse Magic in his possession, this was nigh impossible.

Looking at everyone, he said, “We have returned to Earth.

At this moment, we’re on the moon.

We will return to Earth right now.” Hearing this, everyone was thrilled.

To James, this period away from home was not considered long.

However, to the rest, 30 thousand years had passed.

Earth was their home.

After spending 30 thousand years in the Celestial Abode, they could not wait to return home.

James did not linger long in the Celestial Abode.

As his mind stirred, he disappeared and reappeared on the moon.

The moment he appeared, he felt discomfort.

The power of the curse made him nauseous, and he spurted out a mouthful of blood.

His face turned pale.

As he catalyzed Demonic Energy to suppress his injuries, he took a few steps forward, intending to leave.

However, he stumbled and fell to the ground without warning.

He was puzzled.

With his current strength, he could not possibly trip and fall.

Now, however, he just did.

As he crawled up from the ground, his expression turned grim as he murmured to himself, "Is this a lingering effect of the curse?" Then, taking a deep breath, he put these thoughts aside and soared to the sky, flying out of the moon and returning to Earth.

There was a seal on Earth, and outsiders could not enter the planet through the universe.

There was only a single way to enter Earth, and that was through the Demon Realm, which had a connecting pathway to Earth.

Though outsiders could not enter Earth, the opposite was true for James.

That was because he was an earthling.

So, he easily passed through the seal.

As he appeared in Earth's sky, he gazed at the mountains, rivers, and continents beneath him.

It had been a long time since he had been on Earth, and the environment had changed drastically.

Many unknown areas had emerged, the surface area of the planet had increased, and there were many new unknown mountains.

Standing in mid-air, James surveyed his surroundings before flying in the direction of Sol.

In Cansington, Sol on Earth, a figure descended from the sky and landed on the streets.

Many years had passed, but Cansington remained unchanged with its towering skyscrapers.

However, the bustling streets of the past were now empty and desolate.

James walked along the streets of Cansington and saw an elderly man lying on the roadside not far away.

The elderly man was surrounded by a veil of black mist, which rose up into the air and merged with the atmosphere.

James approached the elderly man only to realize that he was already dead.

He paid no heed to the corpse and scanned his surroundings.

Then, he realized there were many people lying by the roadside.

Some were already dead, while others were groaning in pain.

Upon seeing this, James could not help but sigh.

This was no ordinary illness, or else medical treatment would be a plausible option.

It was an incurable curse.

Even the entire human race in the rest of the universe would be helpless against this terrifying curse, let alone the humans on Earth.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2727-James walked on the desolate streets.He arrived at the street where Common Clinic used to be located.

This was once a bustling street, but now it has become desolate.

There were some people on the street, but they were all sickly and seemed to be on their deathbeds.

James took a deep breath.

“Looks like the Curse Magic has already swept through the globe, and all humans on Earth have already been contaminated.I have to think of a way to remove the curse.Otherwise, humanity will be doomed before long.”

After letting out a sigh, James opened the Celestial Abode and released everyone inside.

As the curse inside their bodies had been transferred to James, they were currently in good health.

Upon seeing the scenery of the streets, they fell silent.

James said, “We have returned to Earth, and I have removed the curse inside your bodies and transferred them to me.

Do as you please from now on.”

Thomas walked toward him and asked, “What do you plan to do next, James? Don’t tell me that you plan on bearing the curse of all of mankind.” James fell into deep contemplation.

The Ancestral Talisman Master told him to bear the curse of all of mankind.

However, he almost succumbed to the curse of so few people.

With his current strength, there was no way he could bear the curse of all humans.

“Grandpa, I’m going back to Wurmstead to discuss things with Thea. We’ll talk more about the curse some other day,” James said.

Thomas reminded him, “This is the apocalypse for humans, and there’s no way we can survive this era. The heavens wish to annihilate us all. You need to be strong enough to be our savior. In the Apocalypse Age, you should focus only on protecting your family and friends. There’s no need to sacrifice yourself for unrelated people.”

Thomas knew how terrifying Curse Magic was.

After all, he was tortured with Curse Magic before.

James, on the other hand, needed to bear the curse of all humans.

Whoosh! At that moment, flames suddenly ignited on James’ body.

The flames appeared out of nowhere and burned fiercely.

Even with James’ unparalleled physical body, he let out a mournful cry after being burnt with such intensity.

Knowing that this was the curse at work, he promptly summoned the Imperial Jade Seal and used its power to suppress the curse.

Soon, the flames on his body disappeared, leaving James charred black.

Upon seeing James’ appearance, everyone’s expression turned grim, especially Winnie.

Though she opened her mouth, no words came out.

After suppressing the curse, James catalyzed Demonic Energy and rejuvenated his injuries before looking at everyone and saying smilingly, “I’m fine, I’ll get used to this soon. This is Curse Magic, after all. However, I won’t die.”

Before James could finish his words, a shapeless blade suddenly appeared before him.

The blade pierced through his body, causing blood to spurt out and spill all over the ground. He collapsed to the ground and swiftly catalyzed Demonic Energy to heal his injuries.

Soon, his injuries recovered, and he stood up and said smilingly, "See? This is nothing. Besides, I'm confident that I'll be able to control the curse soon."

The Ancestral Talisman Master had told him that bearing the curse was both a tribulation and a providence.

Since this was what he said, James was confident that everything would be alright. He was fully assured that the Third Calamity would be resolved.

Many felt sorry for James.

"We have returned to Earth. With your current strength, even if the cultivators of the three thousand Sealed Realms appear, they won't stand a chance against you. You are absolutely safe here on Earth. I, on the other hand, will be heading to Wurmstead."

Then, he looked at Winnie and said, "Follow me, Winnie. We're going to see your mother."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2728-After letting everyone out of the Celestial Abode, James left Cansington alongside Winnie and headed toward Wurmstead.

Wurmstead was not too far away from Sol.

With James' speed, they should be able to arrive in a short amount of time.

However, many unknown regions appeared on Earth during the time they were gone.

This increased the distance between Sol and Wurmstead.

Even at his speed, he needed half a day to travel from Cansington to Wurmstead.

Many decades had passed, and Dragonville had become even more bustling, with skyscrapers towering over the sky.

James and Winnie arrived at Dragonville.

As James scanned the surrounding skyscrapers and the desolate streets, he could not help but sigh, "As the Third Calamity has swept through the globe, everyone now stays inside their homes, afraid to wander about outside."

"Dad, we should head to the palace first."

“Mhm.”

James nodded.

The two headed to the palace.

Once, the palace was heavily guarded.

Now, however, there was not a single guard by the palace gates, which was left slightly ajar.

James pushed the gate open and walked in.

Upon entering the palace, he activated his Divine Sense and scanned the entire palace.

Through his Divine Sense, he could sense that a group of guards was gathered inside.

As they were cursed, their condition was not great.

He only sensed there was a woman whose life was hanging by a thread lying on the bed in one of the palace's rooms.

It was Quincy.

Years ago, before James left, she volunteered to remain to help James administer Wurmstead.

Over the years, she worked tirelessly for the kingdom, devoting all her energy and attention to its development.

Even though this was the Apocalypse Age, Wurmstead was peaceful and prosperous thanks to her efforts.

“Let's go.”

James hurriedly rushed toward the room where Quincy was located.

In the room, Quincy was dressed in a gorgeous white dress, and the skin underneath the dress appeared yellowish. Her once stunning face also had spots on it. She was struggling to breathe, and every breath she took seemed to require all her strength.

“Am I going to die?”

Lying on the bed, Quincy shut her eyes.

The curse had swept across the globe, and the entire world had descended into chaos.

Every human on Earth was simply waiting for their impending doom.

Though it had only been two weeks since the curse had begun to spread across the world, half of humanity had perished in the meantime.

Those who were left were only biding their time for their inevitable doom.

Quincy knew that she was going to die.

However, she did not wish to die just like that.

She was waiting for someone who had yet to return.

Just as she closed her eyes and waited for death, she suddenly heard the sound of a door opening.

She struggled to open her eyes and painfully climbed out of bed to see who was coming.

They were a man and a woman.

‘James...Thea...’

Upon seeing them, her eyes brimmed with tears.

James walked over to her and glanced at her pale face.

Immediately, he took out the Imperial Jade Seal and absorbed the curse in her body, transferring them to his own.

After Quincy’s curse disappeared, her skin regained its radiance and her complexion returned to normal, once again becoming a stunningly beautiful woman.

Over the years, she had become even more gorgeous and beautiful.

“James, Thea, you’re back...”

Quincy sat on the bed, unable to believe her eyes. She could not believe that James had returned.

Many years had passed, and there had been no news of him.

Now, all of a sudden, he was in front of her.

“Aunt Quincy, I’m Winnie,” Winnie said with a smile.

“W-Winnie...”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2729-Quincy froze as she fixed her gaze on Winnie.

Then, she sighed, saying, “I remember you were still a young girl when you left. In the blink of an eye, you have already become a grown-up. You look so much like your mother, even I mistook you for her.”

“Blergh!”

After absorbing Quincy’s curse, James suddenly spurted out a mouthful of blood and collapsed to the ground before passing out. Dad! “

“James!”

The two panicked.

Quincy hurriedly stood up and moved the unconscious James onto the bed before inspecting his injuries.

However, no matter how long she inspected, she could not find out what was wrong with him.

“W-Winnie, what’s wrong with James?” Quincy asked, worried.

Wearing a grim expression, Winnie said, “The Third Calamity has swept across the globe, affecting all humans on Earth. Dad absorbed the curse for us and contained it in his own body. Just now, he helped you absorb the curse as well. Perhaps his body couldn’t bear it anymore, which is why he fell unconscious.”

“What?” Quincy exclaimed.

Then, she tried sensing her body and realized that she had indeed been cured.

“H-He lost consciousness after helping me absorb the curse?” She stood by the side, dumbfounded.

Then, she burst into tears, “H- How silly of you!”

Cough! At that moment, James who was lying on the bed coughed a few times.

“A-Are you alright, James?”

Quincy regained her senses and hurriedly grabbed a tissue to wipe away the blood James spurted out.

James' face was pale as she said feebly, "I-I'm fine, I won't be dying any time soon. The curse inside my body is already terrifying enough. Your curse changes nothing."

Then, he took out the Imperial Jade Seal and began suppressing the curse.

Thirty minutes later, James' complexion returned to normal.

"How do you feel, Dad?" Winnie asked.

James stored the Imperial Jade Seal away and said, "I'm fine. The curse's power increased all of a sudden, and my body couldn't bear it, causing me to faint."

Winnie furrowed her eyebrows and said, "If you can't even bear an additional curse, how are you supposed to bear the curse of all of mankind?"

James' expression was solemn.

Indeed, if he could not even bear the curse of an additional person, how was he supposed to bear the curse of all humans? He was filled with consternation.

Then, he asked, "Where's Thea, Quincy?"

"Th-Thea?"

Quincy froze before answering, "I thought she went searching for you. Did you two not meet each other?"

"No."

Stunned, James asked, "What's going on? Why would Thea go looking for me?"

After brief contemplation, Quincy said, "Thea returned a few years after you left. She was already a Sage at the time. Back then, the Divine Holy Emperor had been searching for you all over the world. He even appeared in Wurmstead and threatened me. When Thea returned, she fought against the Divine Holy Emperor when she heard about it. In the end, she annihilated the Divine Holy Emperor and went searching for you."

Quincy narrated the chain of events that unfolded.

"Got it."

James nodded.

Thea had gone searching for him, but he did not encounter her at all.

He had no idea where she went, so he needed to head to the Chamber of Scriptures and ask the custodian.

The custodian was a truly powerful figure.

Since the Third Calamity had arrived, James also wanted to ask her what his next course of action should be.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2730-James knew how to resolve the Third Calamity.

However, the method was described to him by the Ancestral Talisman Master, who was perhaps giving a description from his own perspective.

To resolve the Third Calamity, James needed to reach the Ancestral God Rank, a rank that was too distant from him.

At the moment, he could only remove the curse of a handful of people.

At his wit's end, he decided to look for the custodian of the Chamber of Scriptures to discuss matters with her.

"Winnie, stay in Wurmstead.I'm going out for a while."

"Understood."

After James gave his order, he turned to leave Wurmstead and headed to Sol.

Then, he headed to Mount Tai and entered the cavern.

As he had been to the Chamber of Scriptures many times now, he knew his way around here.

As he arrived at the first floor of the Chamber of Scriptures, he yelled while facing the empty place, "Ms.Custodian!"

His voice boomed.

Swoosh! At that moment, a soft white light appeared, gathering to form a stunningly beautiful woman who was wearing a white dress.

Upon seeing the custodian, James greeted her, "Ms.Custodian..."

The custodian glanced at James and smiled delightedly, nodding.

"Not bad...You have become a Sage."

"Miss..."

James asked directly, "Has Thea been here?"

"Mihm."

She nodded.

James asked, "Where did she go?"

"The Demon Realm."

"The Demon Realm?!" James froze.

"why? Did she not find you?"

James shook her head and answered, "No."

He took a deep breath.

James never thought that Thea had gone to the Demon Realm in search of him.He knew that the Demon Realm was full of powerful figures, so he was worried about her safety.

Regardless, he was confident that Thea would be able to overcome all odds.

Changing the subject, he said, "The Third Calamity has arrived."

Hearing this, the custodian's expression turned grim as she sighed deeply, saying, "Indeed, who would have thought that this would be a Curse Calamity? There's no solution to this.Even a Grand Emperor can only suppress a curse, unable to completely annihilate it."

James said, "Miss, I believe that there are many humans from the Primordial Age concealed on Earth.They won't simply sit by the sidelines and watch humanity perish."

The custodian nodded and said, "Indeed, there are many powerful figures hidden on Earth.

However, they won't show themselves that easily since the entire universe is watching Earth intently.

If they act impulsively, a war could break out once more."

"Miss, you're a Grand Emperor, aren't you?" James asked.

He had no idea what the custodian's strength was.

Back then, Sophie, who was a Quasi- Emperor, opened the void passageway and sent him back with some difficulty.

The opposite was true for the custodian, which was why James believed that she was a Grand Emperor.
