The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2731-The custodian neither conceded nor denied.She simply said, "You don't need to know about these right now."

"How do we put an end to the Third Calamity of the human race, then?" James asked.

He had learned the solution from the Ancestral Talisman Master.However, his current strength was too weak.

This method would not work.It could only save a small number of people. He asked the custodian right now because he wanted to hear what she had to say.

The custodian started to ponder.

After a while, she finally said, "There is no way.The curse cannot be removed.Right now, several Grand Emperors of the human race who are hidden in the dark have been formulating a solution ever since they were struck by the curse."

"Formulating a solution? What sort of a solution?" James asked.

The custodian said, "These Grand Emperors are researching the attributes of the curse's power.They want to create an elixir that will suppress the curse's power."

After hearing that, James asked, "Will it work?"

"Eliminating the curse is not possible.It will endure within humans forever from this point forward, just like the seal.However, suppressing it shouldn't be a problem." James felt relieved after hearing the custodian's words.

He said, "After I came back, I walked around Sol and Wurmstead.Humanity is in a terrible state right now.Every day, a large number of people perish.Please ask the Grand Emperors to make haste."

The custodian shook her head slightly and said, "They are already researching and developing it seriously in the time formation.Regardless, this is a curse.It is extremely frightening.It is not feasible to create an elixir to suppress the curse in a short period of time.This is a disaster for humans.There will undoubtedly be significant casualties.As long as humans do not become extinct, it is not a calamity."

Regarding these, the custodian was very accepting because she was extremely powerful.She knew a lot.

Currently, the calamity was quite mild, as the appearance of the curse did not wipe out the human race completely.

The curse was simply a slow death.

Furthermore, all of the ones who died were weak.

They had a weaker constitution.

True prodigies and true powerhouses would be able to resist the curse. It was a calamity for the human race, but it was also an elimination of the weak. The strong were the ones who survived.

“Actually, I do have a solution.” James let out a sigh.

When she heard that, the custodian looked at James with a surprised look on her face.

James said, “After I went to the Demon Realm this time, and then escaped the Demon Realm...”

He gave a detailed account of what had happened when he traveled to Planet Galileo and then the Demon Realm. He briefly talked about the Imperial Jade Seal of Sangria.

“I opened the sealed door, and the message left by the Ancestral Talisman Master in the Primeval Age was revealed to me.

“The Ancestral Talisman Master stated that he had never expected the Heavenly Path to use the Supernatural Power he had cultivated to deal with the human race. Given the gaps in time between us, he was unable to intervene and lift the curse placed on the human race. Right now, there is only one solution. And that is to take the curse of humans onto my body using the Imperial Jade Seal.

“However, with my current strength, I can only save a small number of people.

“If I save one more person, my body may completely collapse, and I may no longer be able to resist the force of the curse.” The custodian remained silent while she listened to James talk.

Only after he finished speaking did the custodian say, “Perhaps the human race truly requires your assistance in order to be saved. However, now is not the time. The Grand Emperors are already hard at work researching the curse. It won’t be long before an elixir to suppress the curse becomes available. Humans will then be able to take the elixir and suppress the curse in their bodies.

“And you are required if the curse is to be truly lifted.

“Once you become an Emperor or cross the final step into the Ancestral God Rank, you will be able to lift the curse of the entire human race.”

James nodded softly and said, "That is indeed true. However, my current strength is still very low. I can only save a small number of people. It pains me to see people die like this, but I'm powerless to do anything about it."

"Miss, what should I do next?"

The custodian waved her hand slightly and said, "Nothing. Be still and wait for the elixir to become available. When the time comes, you'll need to promote the elixir and convince the entire human race to consume it."

After meeting with the custodian, James no longer felt lost.

He knew there were powerhouses hidden among the human race, and they were constantly helping humans in overcoming their difficulties.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2732-James' anxious heart was finally at ease.

"By the way, where is my mother?" asked James.

Many years ago, he brought his mother here to let the custodian purify the Demonic Energy in her body.

The custodian said, "The Demonic Energy in Xandra's body was already purified many years ago. Currently, humans lack top-tier elite fighters and Xandra is a rare prodigy. After much deliberation among some seniors, she was sent to a mysterious location. She is cultivating there and will not be returning anytime soon."

James asked again, "Is my mother safe?"

The custodian nodded.

"Mhm. She's very safe."

James was utterly relieved by her words.

"That's all. I'm going back now."

James waved goodbye to the custodian.

"Oh, right."

The custodian asked, "When you went to the Demon Realm and saw Xandros, what did he say to you? Did he give any instructions?"

The main reason the custodian sent James to the Demon Realm was to let the human powerhouses hiding there guide James to Xandros.

She reconstructed a Demonic Body for James primarily so that he could meet Xandros.

Previously, James described some of the events that occurred during his visit to the Demon Realm, including his encounter with Xandros.

However, he did not go into detail about what Xandros had said to him.

James said, "Sir Tegan did not give any. He only said we should bide our time and that he will choose an appropriate time to leave the Demon Realm and return completely."

Hearing that, the custodian furrowed her brow.

Xandros was the Lord of the Human Race and a Grand Emperor.

Furthermore, among the Grand Emperors, his level of mastery was extremely high.

A typical Grand Emperor could not compete with him.

At present, it was the apocalypse for the human race.

Humanity was at a loss and needed Xandros' guidance.

However, Xandros remained silent.

"Alright. You may go back. I understand."

The custodian waved her hand slightly.

"Okay." James nodded his head.

Without lingering, he turned around and left the place.

After leaving the Chamber of Scriptures under Mount Tai's ravine, James made his way to Mount Bane. Mount Bane was the center of this world.

It was the location of the seal's source.

All of the cultivators who traveled to Earth from the Three Thousand Worlds gathered at Mount Bane.

Such a long time had passed. He believed that cultivators from the Three Thousand Worlds would continue to multiply.

Soon, he appeared at Mount Bane. He did not see the scene that was in his imagination.

In his imagination, Mount Bane was crowded with cultivators. It was extremely lively.

However, not a single cultivator was found along the way.

Such a vast mountain range was desolate and cold. He arrived at Bane City.

Bane City was barren as well.

Not a single person was outside the city.

The massive city gate was wide open.

There was not even a guard.

He entered the city.

It used to be lively, but now there was no one there.

James activated the Divine Sense.

With his senses, he discovered that cultivators in Bane City were all staying in their homes.

They were all cursed and in closed-door meditation, struggling to resist the negative effect brought by the curse.

Of course, this was only true for humans.

In Bane City, aside from humans, there were many Outsiders.

No curse afflicted these Outsiders.

Nonetheless, it was a critical time.

The Outsiders were all focused on cultivating and did not wander around outside.

“Abh...”

Seeing the barren Bane City, James could not help but sigh.

A once vibrant and bustling city had become so deathly quiet.

He walked along the familiar yet unfamiliar streets of Bane City.

Not long after, he arrived at the manor where Marcello once lived.

Outside the manor, there were some soldiers dressed in black armor with black longswords slung around their waists.

Despite having a human appearance, these soldiers' original forms were not human.

They were demons.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2733-"Who's there?"

As soon as James appeared, he was blocked by the guards.

Several sharp longswords were pointed at him.

These guards were not particularly powerful.

The weaker ones were at the Herculean Rank while the stronger ones were at the Mage Rank.

Such levels of strength would have been terrifying in the past, but they were now underwhelming in James' eyes.

"I'm looking for your Young Master."

As the demon guards pointed their swords at James, he did not strike back.

Instead, he spoke calmly.

"What's your name? I'll report your visit," said a guard.

"James Caden," said James nonchalantly.

When James said those two words, all of the guards took a few steps back. The name 'James Caden' was already well-known throughout the universe.

Even if one did not know James, one was bound to hear those two words.

The reason for this was that James was the most illustrious prodigy on Earth.

Among the Four Calamities on Earth, he had received the providences of the first two Calamities in a row. He possessed numerous priceless treasures.

These treasures would pique the interest of even the most powerful figures.

If it were not for the fact that the seal had not yet been opened, that the Earth had a seal, and that the powerful figures from the outside world were unable to travel to Earth, the treasures on James would have been stolen countless times by now.

Aside from powerful individuals from the outside world, even some powerhouses in the three thousand Sealed Realms were attempting to find a way through the seal to come to Earth with the intention of stealing the treasures from James.

These treasures on him, regardless of which one, were enough to make one the most terrifying powerhouse in the universe.

“y-yYou are James Caden?”

These guards looked at James in shock.

“Yes.Go ahead and report my visit quickly.”

“Yes, yes.”

The guards dared not slight him and quickly left to report his presence.

At this moment, a woman was sitting on a rock in the courtyard of the manor.She was wearing a white dress.

As she stared helplessly at the sea of flowers nearby, she said, “It’s too boring.Earth is not interesting at all.I want to go back to the clan.”

Not far away on the ground, a man in a black robe was seated in a lotus position.

After the man heard her words, he could not help but say, “If you’ re bored, cultivate.It is a crucial period right now.We can’t go back to the clan.”

“Cultivation is more boring,” said the woman in the white dress, discontented.

At this point, a guard walked over and knelt on one knee on the ground.

They said respectfully, “Young Master, someone wishes to see you.”

“I won’t see them.”

The woman in the white dress immediately declined.

“H-He said his name is James Caden.”

The woman in the white dress instantly stood up and jumped down from the rock. She appeared in front of the guard and asked, "What did you say? What is his name?"

The guard said once again, "He said his name is James Caden."

As soon as the guard finished speaking, she dashed outside.

After James waited outside the manor for a while, a woman in a white dress rushed out in a hurry. She stood in front of him, then looked at him for a few seconds before falling into his arms.

'James. It really is you.'

When the beauty fell into his arms and a sweet scent came to him, James was caught off guard.

"Marcello, what are you doing?" James could not help but ask.

Marcello finally let go of James after that.

She grinned and said, "It's just that we haven't seen each other in a long time, so I'm a little excited. I didn't mean anything by it. Don't take it the wrong way."

James awkwardly scratched his head.

"Where have you been all these years, by the way?"

Marcello asked as she looked at James.

"You're making me talk here?" James asked, a grin on his face.

"My mistake. Let's first go inside."

Marcello pulled James along and walked toward the manor.

She led him to the foyer of the manor, then instructed her subordinates to prepare the finest Emphyrean Berries to serve James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2734-In the foyer, Marcello sat next to James.

While looking at him, she could not help but ask, "Where exactly have you been all these years?"

James went to the Demon Realm. His news was spread throughout the Demon Realm.

However, Marcello never returned to the Demon Realm during all these years.

Her family did not specifically tell her about James either.

So, she had no idea James had appeared in the Demon Realm.

James smiled and said, "I set out on an adventure for a while."

"An adventure? Where did you go?"

"I went to the Demon Realm."

James did not hide anything.

"The Demon Realm?"

Marcello stood up in shock.

"Yes."

A voice came from outside the door.

Immediately after, a man in a black robe walked inside. He was Jace Sterling.

Jace walked over and sat across from the two.

He glanced at James.

He knew that James had appeared in the Demon Realm.

He also knew that in the Demon Realm, James had once again defeated the Young Master of the Hadean Clan, Lucifer, and had even married Brielle of the Labhrann Clan.

In the beginning, no one knew James was from Earth.

However, after that, many powerful figures in the Demon Realm analyzed and finally discovered James' identity.

Jace was aware of all of this because he had kept in touch with his race.

"y-Your current strength... You've actually become a Sage?"

There was a look of astonishment on Jace's face.

It was the Apocalypse Age.

There was a seal within humanity's bodies.

Breakthroughs were extremely difficult to achieve.

Every time someone broke through, they would have to break the seal.

Even breaking through a rank was a struggle in this circumstance.

However, James was constantly breaking through and had already become a Sage.

It was too terrifying.

'Become a Sage..'

James' strength used to be much lower than his.

However, he had yet to become a Sage and was only at the Tribulation Rank's Second Stage, whereas James had already become a Sage.

This cultivation speed was just too frightening.

"What? You've become a Sage?"

Marcello looked at James, surprised.

She was aware of James' strength in the past.

When they were fighting for the Celestial Abode, James was not even a match for her.

Yet, after only so many years, he had already become a Sage? Looking at the two people who were shocked, James smiled softly and said, "I merely entered the Sage Rank by luck"

"By the way, the curse of the human race's Third Calamity has already descended. Why do you seem unaffected?"

Jace stared at James with a suspicious look.

The curse had descended.

Every human was struck by the curse.

Those with lower immunity died immediately.

Those with higher immunity had more or less also experienced some issues with their bodies.

Nonetheless, James seemed to be fine.

James smiled and said, "What harm can a mere curse cause me? I am indeed struck by the curse. Moreover, the curse of numerous humans has been absorbed by my body and is now being carried by me."

Both Marcello and Jace were astounded.

"absorbed others' curses? " Marcello looked at James, shocked.

It was a long story.

James took a deep breath and slowly started to talk, "I'll have to start from when I was on my way to the Demon Realm..." He briefly recounted what had occurred when he traveled to the Demon Realm and then to Planet Galileo. He briefly talked about the curse in Sangria. He talked about some of the things that happened when he opened the gate of the curse. Marcello and Jace were surprised as they listened to him.

This experience was far too peculiar.

At the same time, they envied James' good fortune.

A complete digest of Curse Magic was in his possession.

Curse Magic was widespread in the Demon Realm.

A lot of powerful cultivators in the Demon Realm were proficient in it.

However, the Curse Magic that every cultivator in the Demon Realm cultivated was imperfect.

Despite the fact that it was imperfect, their Curse Magic was renowned throughout the universe, making cultivators everywhere tremble in fear.

Now that James had actually received a complete Curse Magic, who in the entire universe could possibly rival him if he cultivated it to perfection?

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2735-After being astonished, Marcello reminded James with a solemn expression, "James, don't tell other people about this.If this information gets out, it may get you killed."

Jace nodded and said, "Marcello is right.Let's keep it between us three.If powerful figures from the outside world learn about this, you're doomed."

James was aware of this.

Regardless, he was not particularly worried.He chuckled and said, "I have many treasures on me, including the Infinity Stele and the Five Elements of Genesis.Every one of these things, regardless of which, has the potential to attract powerful figures to fight for them.It's just that there is still a seal on Earth, and powerful figures from the outside world are unable to enter.

"For the powerful figures from the outside world to enter Earth, the seal on Earth needs to be completely open.

"And only after the Four Calamities will the seal on Earth be completely open.Right now, the Third Calamity has only just begun.We have no idea when the Four Calamities will end.Perhaps by that time, I'll have grown to a degree that terrifies all the cultivators in the entire universe."James was very confident in his strength.His current arsenal of signature skills was sufficient to make him the most potent being in the universe.It was merely a matter of time.

Marcello and Jace exchanged a quick glance and said nothing else.

After a few moments of silence, Marcello asked, "Then what are you going to do next?"

"What am I going to do?"

James started to ponder.

This time, he came back to Earth primarily to put an end to the Third Calamity of the human race.

However, the Third Calamity was much more challenging than he had anticipated.

With his current strength, he could not do anything.

Right now, all he could do was wait.

He had to wait for the powerhouses of the human race to produce an elixir that would be able to suppress the curse.

After that, he would spread the word about the elixir and persuade every human on Earth to drink it in order to resist the curse.

James shook his head slightly and said, "There is nothing I can do. I can only wait right now."

"Do you know much about the providence of the Earth's Third Calamity, by the way?" asked Jace.

In the past, James was a nobody to him.

He was even displeased that his race had given James the token.

It was now apparent that his race's decision had been correct.

James' potential was too great.

Being on good terms with him beforehand had every advantage and no disadvantage for his race.

In Jace's opinion, since James had experienced so much, someone capable must have been guiding him from behind.

Therefore, he most likely had some knowledge of the providence after the Third Calamity on Earth.

However, James shook his head slightly and said, "I don't know much about it."

Looking at Jace, he asked, "Could it be that you know something about it, then?"

Jace nodded and said, "Following the curse's descent, and after the bodies of all humans in the entire universe were tainted with the curse, some of the top powerhouses already gained insight into the providence of Earth's Third Calamity."

Upon hearing that, James became excited.

The previous two providences had been extremely beneficial to him.

The Third Calamity was more terrifying than the previous two Calamities, so its providence would be even more incredible.

"What is the providence of the Third Calamity?"

Jace said, "This information is already spread throughout the Demon Realm."

Rumor has it that the providence of the Third Calamity is very terrifying, even more so than the providences of the First Calamity and the Second Calamity.”

“Don’t keep me waiting.Hurry up and tell me,”

James could not help but say.

Jace said, “Leap out of the Three Dimensions, Relinquish the Five Elements.”

Hearing that, James was stunned.He asked, “What does that mean?”

Jace explained, “The Three Dimensions refers to the Mortal, the Sage, and the Divine Dimension.After leaping out of the Three Dimensions, one will no longer be among the mundane.

They will not be a Sage nor a God, but a special existence.

“The Five Elements are the fundamentals of the universe.

“The general meaning of ‘Relinquish the Five Elements’ is to be free of the Heavenly Path’s control and constraints.

“Of course, these are words that have been circulating in the outside world.

As for what it is exactly, I don’t know much either.

The only thing I know for certain is that the previous two providences are treasures.

They are both Supernatural Powers.

This time, the emphasis will be on the individual instead.

“Once they obtained the providence of the Third Calamity, they will truly be extraordinary and become a unique presence in the universe.

“They will no longer be restricted by the Heavenly Path.According to my understanding, only powerful cultivators above the Grand Emperor Rank can be free from the universe’s constraints.In other words, after receiving the providence of the Third Calamity, it will be equivalent to attaining an Emperor’s physical body.From that point forward, all one needs to do is put effort into cultivating, and once their strength reaches that point, they will naturally become an Emperor.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2736-After hearing about the providence of the Earth's Third Calamity, James' interest was piqued.He was genuinely intrigued.He had to ask, "Is what you said really true?"

Jace nodded and replied, "It was spread by an extremely prominent figure in the Demon Realm.This powerhouse was once the Lord of the Demon Realm.In the Primordial Age, they were already a Grand Emperor."

After James heard his words, he guessed the powerhouse's identity.

They were the former Lord of the Demon Realm, and thus Henrik's teacher.

James thought for a while, then he asked, "When will the providence of the Third Calamity appear?"

Jace shook his head slightly and said, "That, I have no idea.However, since the Third Calamity of humans has already appeared, the providence of the Third Calamity is likely to follow soon.Just be patient and continue to wait."

"Alright."

James nodded.He was determined to obtain the Third Calamity's providence.

Leap out of the Three Dimensions, Relinquish the Five Elements.

This was definitely a significant providence.

After obtaining this providence, one would no longer be restricted by the Heavenly Path.

In other words, there would be no more tribulations on the path of cultivation from then on.

It would be smooth sailing to cultivate all the way to the Grand Emperor Rank.

After James met with Marcello and Jace in Bane City and chatted with them about the Third Tribulation, he left.

He left Bane City and went back to Wurmstead.

Following his return to Wurmstead, he traveled to Mt.

Thunder Pass and began to meditate in seclusion at Mt.

Thunder Pass.

Right now, he could not do anything.

All he could do was wait.

He had to wait for the human race's powerhouses to develop an elixir to suppress the curse and for the appearance of the Third Calamity's providence.

James had no idea what kind of powerful cultivators would be drawn to fight over the providence of the Third Calamity.

All he could do was make every effort to build up his strength prior to that and ensure that he could obtain the Third Calamity's providence.

While James was in closed-door meditation at Mt.

Thunder Pass, the entire universe was buzzing with the news of the Third Calamity's providence.

Leap out of the Three Dimensions, Relinquish the Five Elements.

Not a mortal, not a Sage, nor a God.

No longer constrained by the Heavenly Path.

Attain an Emperor's Body.

These were circulating on countless planets.

Powerful cultivators from all over the universe were intrigued after learning about the providence of this time.

Nonetheless, all of these cultivators knew that the providence of Earth was for young prodigies.

Older generations of cultivators could not fight over the providence.

Only living beings born a hundred years before the Earth's Spiritual Energy recovered were eligible to fight for these providences.

Leap out of the Three Dimensions, Relinquish the Five Elements. It was an extraordinary providence.

If a prodigy who was their disciple was able to obtain this providence, one would eventually have a Grand Emperor as their disciple after some time.

Every powerful cultivator was tempted.

Regardless, cultivators from the outside world currently could not enter Earth.

If they wanted to enter Earth, there was only one way.

And that was to travel to the Demon Realm and enter Earth through the passage left by the Hadean Clan.

As a result, powerful cultivators from all over the universe gathered at the Demon Realm with the prodigies who were studying under them.

Many powerful figures from the Demon Realms, as well as some from other worlds, gathered in the main hall of the Hadean Clan at the Demon Realm's Divine Dimension.

The Grand Emperor of the Hadean Clan, Tigranes Xanthippos, was sitting at the forefront of the main hall.

"Emperor Tigranes, the Third Calamity of the human race has now appeared. And the providence of the Third Calamity is very terrifying. Please open the passage. Let more young prodigies travel to Earth and compete for the providence."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

"Please open the passage, Emperor Tigranes."

Cultivators from the Demon Realm and other worlds were all asking Tigranes to open the passage.

Faced with the request of so many cultivators, Tigranes started to ponder.

After giving it some thought, he said, "Since all of you wanted to go to Earth, I can't just ignore that. Alright. I'll open the Earth passage from now on. Every living being who is eligible to vie for providence may travel to Earth.

"However, they can only go there to compete for the providence. If any cultivators visit Earth with other intentions, don't blame me for being ungracious."

Tigranes' expression became solemn.

He was warning some of the people who were present, as there were certainly some who were considering using this opportunity to sneak to Earth.

On Earth, there was a James Caden.

James had attained too much providence. He had far too many treasures on him.

This had long attracted the attention of many cultivators.

Tigranes spoke once more, "The Third Calamity has already arrived. The Fourth Calamity will be soon as well. After the Fourth Calamity, the seal on Earth will be broken, and the Galactic Highway will be open. Everyone will then be able to enter Earth. By that point, I won't interfere with anything."

His words had deterred some cultivators with malicious intent.

Tigranes stood up and said loudly, "Pass on the order. My clan will open the passage to Earth. Anyone who wishes to travel to Earth to compete for the providence may do so via the passage of my clan."

Following Tigranes' order, this news quickly spread throughout the Demon Realm and the entire universe.

Upon learning of this news, many powerful figures in the universe hastened to the Hadean Clan in the Demon Realm with their most outstanding disciples in order to send them to Earth.

After spreading the word, Tigranes left the main hall and went to the Hadean Clan's holy site.

At the summit of a mountain in the holy site, a man was seated in a lotus position on the ground. His long, black hair flowed freely without any wind.

An extremely powerful aura was emanating from him.

Tigranes appeared in front of him.

When he sensed Tigranes' arrival, the man got to his feet.

The man was none other than Lucifer Menachem, the Young Master of the Hadean Clan.

Tigranes walked over and said softly, "The Third Calamity on Earth has appeared, and the Third Calamity's providence will soon follow as well. The providence this time is quite frightening. It is 'Leap out of the Three Dimensions, Relinquish the Five Elements'.

"You've changed your fate before. If you can once again obtain this providence, you will enter the Grand Emperor Rank in the shortest amount of time. You might even surpass the Grand Emperor Rank and enter the Divine Rank to become the most powerful figure in this era."

After saying that, he glanced at Lucifer and asked, "How is your cultivation going? Which stage of Super Combat Form have you cultivated?"

Lucifer looked at Tigranes and said, "It's going quite smoothly. I've already cultivated the Fifth Combat Form."

Tigranes nodded, pleased.

He said, "You've already become a Sage. With the Fifth Combat Form and the Imperial Weapon, it's unlikely that anyone will be able to compete with you for the providence. The only one you need to be aware of is James Caden."

As he talked about James, Tigranes' expression became solemn.

"This brat's luck is too incredible. I have no idea what else he might have experienced during this time. However, I have a feeling he will be your most formidable opponent in the battle for providence."

With a confident look on his face, Lucifer said, "I lost to him twice. I'm not going to lose to him for the third time. I'll definitely defeat him the next time we meet."

The Fifth Combat Form was no joke.

The strength that was increased was not simply one plus one, but rather a multiplicative increase. He was very confident in his strength. He had already become a Sage.

Moreover, he had a decent level of mastery at the Sage Rank.

He had benefited greatly from Earth's Second Calamity, obtaining the Elysian Inscription.

During these years, he studied it painstakingly and had comprehended a secret Supernatural Art from the Elysian Inscription.

Tigranes looked at Lucifer and said with a smile, "If you are confident, believe in yourself. Although the Third Calamity's providence is incredible, it is not the most powerful. The most powerful is the providence of the Fourth Calamity. Do your best. In the future, the Hadean Clan will be in your hands. You will have to lead it."

After saying this, Tigranes' body disappeared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2738-The Hadean Clan opened the passage to Earth, and prodigies from various clans in the Demon Realm traveled to Earth one after another.

Even some prodigies from the Demon Realm's Mortal Dimension and Sage Dimension were devising a way to enter the Divine Dimension with the intent of traveling to Earth via the passage.

Meanwhile, powerful figures from all over the entire universe appeared in the Demon Realm's Divine Dimension and arrived at the Hadean Clan, bringing with them the prodigies under their tutelage.

Soon, there were innumerable prodigies heading to Earth.

In the Sage Dimension of the Demon Realm, a mountain range suddenly split open.

Boom! The air was thick with swirling clouds of dust.

A woman stood in the sky.

The woman was in a black dress and wielded a black sword.

The tip of the blade was slightly curved.

Her long, black hair was dancing around.

There was a cold and detached look on her pretty face. It was Thea.

Thea was fighting fiercely with a beastfolk.

Following the drop of the Malevolent Blade, the beastfolk, who had entered the Sage Rank's Eighth Stage, was killed.

Clap, clap, clap.

From the distance came the sound of clapping.

A beautiful woman walked over, stepping on the air.

She said with a sweet smile, "Thea, your Four-Quadrant Art is getting more and more terrifying. Before they could even exert their power, you killed the beast folk."

The woman was Brielle.

Back then, after James escaped from the Demon Realm, Thea arrived at the Labhrann Clan during her search for him.

She met Brielle, and Brielle wanted to look for James with Thea.

So the two set out on a journey, eventually ascending to the Sage Dimension and continuing their adventure in the Demon Realm's Sage Dimension.

Thea put away the Malevolent Sword she was holding, smiled, and said, "I've made a fool of myself. Compared to you, I still have a ways to go."

Thea had been with Brielle for all of these years and witnessed how impressive Brielle was. She was truly a genius.

Her speed of cultivation was far too quick.

When they first met, Brielle had just become a Sage.

However, after only a few years, she had already reached the Sage Rank's Fifteenth Stage.

Her cultivation speed was too frightening.

Brielle chuckled and walked over.

She threw away the beastfolk's corpse, extracted the demon elixir, and said with a smile, "The demon elixir of a beastfolk at the Sage Rank's Eighth Stage. We can sell it for some Sage Stones."

The two chatted merrily as they left.

They headed to a nearby city.

In the city, they sold all the treasures they had found during their journey this time.

Finally, they made their way to a restaurant and began to enjoy some good food.

"Have you heard? The Hadean Clan has opened the passage to Earth. Now, one can simply reach Earth by entering the Divine Dimension and going to the Hadean Clan."

"Mhm. I have heard. However, going to the Divine Dimension is quite challenging unless your strength has reached the Divine Rank."

"There's no need for that. From the Hadean Clan in the Sage Dimension, you can travel directly to the Divine Dimension."

While the two were enjoying their food, they overheard a conversation between some cultivators in the restaurant.

When she heard this information, Thea became excited.

Brielle looked excited as well. She said, "James might have already returned to Earth. Thea, let's go to the Hadean Clan as well and travel to Earth from the Hadean Clan's passage. I've long wanted to visit Earth. I just never had the chance."

As she heard that, Thea glanced at her and asked, "Do you really want to go to Earth?"

"Yes, of course," Brielle said, "I'm already married to James. I'm his wife."

After she said that, she looked at Thea and said with a smile, "Of course, you're his first wife, and I'm his second wife."

Thea furrowed her brow slightly, then she said, "In that case, let's go." The moment she stood up, she felt dizzy.

Immediately afterward, she fell headfirst to the ground and spurted out a mouthful of blood.

Brielle promptly moved to support her and helped her up. She asked, "Is it the curse?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2739-"Mhm."

Thea nodded her head softly and catalyzed Sage Energy to suppress the force of the curse.

After a short period of time, she finally felt much better.

After her complexion had recovered its rosy hue, she opened her mouth to speak.

"Let's go."

The two left the place and made their way to the Hadean Clan of the Sage Dimension.

From the Hadean Clan of the Sage Dimension, they traveled to the Divine Dimension.

James was unaware that the Hadean Clan in the Demon Realm had opened the passage.

He had no idea that the prodigies of the entire universe had come to Earth from the passage in the Demon Realm with the intent of taking the Third Calamity's providence.

At this moment, he was sitting in a lotus position at the summit of Wurmstead's Mt. Thunder Pass.

Sword Energy was floating around him.

The Sword Energy materialized and floated around in accordance with his movements.

An extremely powerful aura was also radiating from him.

James was cultivating intently.

He was cultivating the swordsmanship documented in the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

He realized he had almost learned all of the Sword Moves recorded in the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword and had incorporated them into the First Sword Realm and the Second Sword Realm.

Currently, he was gaining insight into the Sword Heart, Sword Intent, and Singularity recorded in the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

"Urgh! When he was cultivating earnestly, the curse in his body resurfaced and began to devour his physical body ferociously. He could not help but collapse to the ground and spit out a mouthful of blood. He had grown accustomed to the curse.

James struggled to raise himself off the ground and catalyzed the Imperial Jade Seal.

Using the force of the Imperial Jade Seal, he quelled the curse within his body.

As the curse slowly settled, his injuries gradually healed as well.

Phew! He took a deep breath, then sat at the top of Mt.

Thunder Pass and stared off into the distance.

Tap, tap, tap.

The sound of high heels making contact with the ground could be heard.

James turned to face the sound.

A seductive woman with red lips and a red dress walked over and appeared in front of him.

James regained his composure, glanced at Quincy, and asked, "

What's the matter? Did something happen?"

Quincy had a solemn expression on her face.

She said, "James, you've been meditating in seclusion here for three months.

During this time, many living beings of unknown origin appeared on Earth.

They're very powerful and went around challenging humans on Earth.

Even powerful figures from the Three Thousand Worlds have all been challenged by them.

"The foreigners are very strong.

They have occupied Mount Bane's Bane City and driven the cultivators out.

"Henry, Delainey, Thomas, Sky, Tyrus, and the others couldn't stand to see these living beings' actions, so they went to Mount Bane to seek an explanation.

However, all of them were defeated and they are now imprisoned."

After hearing that, James furrowed his brow.

Though Delainey's strength might be weak, she had reached the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage.

Moreover, Henry and the others were all powerful cultivators at the Sage Rank's Fifteenth Stage.

'Do these foreigners have such great strength? Even Henry and the others were defeated and even imprisoned?' "what are the origins of these foreign living beings? Where did they come from?"

Quincy shook her head and said, "I have no idea. However, rumor has it that these are prodigies from various realms in the universe. They came here to compete for the providence of the Earth's Third Calamity."

After he heard that, James' expression became solemn.

'Prodigies from all over the universe? 'Even those at Sage Rank's Fifteenth Stage are no match for them? 'How strong are these prodigies exactly?' After thinking for a while, James stood up from the ground and said, "I understand. I'll personally travel to Mount Bane."

Quincy said, "There are many people at Wurmstead Palace right now waiting for you to return and discuss this matter."

James said, "There's no need for a discussion. I'll go to Mount Bane right away. Regardless of where these prodigies came from, since they have come to Earth, they must abide by Earth's rules."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2740-The universe was vast and endless.

Humans on Earth had always been researching the universe in the past, but they had yet to have a clear understanding of the solar system, let alone the universe.

With scientific and technological means, even if thousands of years went by, Earth's humans still could not understand the universe clearly.

In the vast universe, there were seven Greater Realms.

One of the seven Greater Realms was destroyed by humans during the Primeval Age.

Now, only six realms were left.

These six realms were named Greater Realms because all of these six realms were divided into three planes of existence.

The three planes of existence were respectively Mortal, Sage, and Divine.

Other planets did not have different planes of existence.

However, although many planets were not divided into different planes of existence, they were still very powerful.

In the vast universe, there were innumerable habitable planets for living beings.

The providence of Earth's Third Calamity was about to arrive.

This drew the attention of powerful figures all over the entire universe.

All the powerful figures in the universe traveled to the Demon Realm with outstanding prodigies under their tutelage and headed to Earth from the passage in the Demon Realm.

The Athura Realm was one of the six realms.

In the Athura Realm, there was a very powerful race, the Athurans.

They were a belligerent race.

After the Athuran prodigies appeared on Earth, they began to go around and challenge others.

However, Earth's humans were too weak and were no match for them at all.

So, the Athuran prodigies took over Bane City and ousted all the human cultivators from Bane City.

This infuriated many powerful figures of the human race.

Thus, some prominent figures, led by Henry, traveled to Bane City.

Nonetheless, they were beaten up.

They were even imprisoned as if they were slaves.

In just a few short days, these incidents were spread across the entire planet.

However, all humans on Earth were struck by the curse.

They were barely able to save themselves.

How could they possibly intervene? Moreover, even if they wanted to intervene, they lacked the strength to do so.

The same was true of prodigies from the Three Thousand Worlds.

After being driven out of Bane City, they were not at all crossed.

As for the other races, the Athurans did not give them a hard time, instead allowing them to live freely in Bane City.

When James learned about these incidents, he rushed to Bane City without pausing.

He had no idea where these foreign races had come from.

However, since they had come to Earth, they must follow the rules of the planet and should not commit atrocities on Earth.

If these foreign races were not taught a lesson, and all other foreign races began to imitate them over time, the Earth would be in chaos.

Humans on Earth were already subjected to disaster after disaster.

They should not exacerbate the situation.

Shortly after, James appeared outside Mount Bane.

He came across many human cultivators outside of Mount Bane.

Most of these human cultivators were from the Three Thousand Worlds.

Previously, they had been living in Bane City, but they were driven out of there.

They gathered outside of Mount Bane because it was the location of the seal.

There were countless times more Empyrean Spiritual Energy here than anywhere else.

Even though they were unable to enter Mount Bane, cultivating outside of Mount Bane was more effective than elsewhere.

Besides, they now had to suppress the curse.

Powerful Spiritual Energy was required.

Spiritual Energy from other places could not support them in suppressing the curse.

The area outside of Mount Bane was teeming with people.

James appeared and quickly glanced over these people.

Among these people, he noticed some familiar yet unfamiliar silhouettes.

They were familiar because he had previously met them.

They were unfamiliar because he had not seen them in a very long time.

Seeing them again left him in a daze.

After being slightly stunned, James walked toward a woman wearing a green dress.

The woman was sitting in a lotus position on a rock.

Her face was slightly pale.

She looked exhausted as if she was gravely ill.

"Quintina," James called out.

The person was Quintina.
