The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2751-Yorick turned to see Marcello and Jace following him.

He said, "I've got a friend over.Let's talk another day.SSomeone, see off my guests."

After speaking, Yorick walked back into the mansion.

Marcello stood at the mansion gate and asked warily, "Who's that person? They seem like someone outstanding."

Jace shook his head in uncertainty.

Although he was well-informed and knowledgeable, his knowledge was only limited to the Demon Realm.He did not know much about the creatures outside the Demon Realm.

Thus, he could not recognize Qusai.

"Forget it.Let's just leave for now," said Jace.

"But..."

Reluctance was evident in Marcello's tone.

"I promised to help James ascertain Yorick's current strength."

Jace said, "There's no rush.We can come back another day.Besides, there's still a month until the battle."

"Alright." Marcello nodded.

The two left.

Meanwhile, Yorick sat opposite Qusai in the mansion's hall.

He said with a bright smile, "I didn't expect the Fiend Realm's young master to also visit Earth.It looks like I have my work cut out for me trying to obtain the third providence."

Qusai stared at Yorick.

"I heard you're going to fight James."

"Yeah."

Yorick nodded.

Qusai said calmly, "Are you trying to be the first to obtain James' treasures? All the prodigies of the universe are paying close attention to James.

Aren't you afraid other creatures will target you after you take James' treasures? Don't you fear that Athurans will suffer the repercussions?"

Yorick smirked and said, "Haha. There's nothing to fear. As long as I can obtain James' treasures and bring them back to Athuran, no one in the universe will dare cross us ever again."

Qusai said disapprovingly, "That's not necessarily true. There are still many Grand Emperors scattered around the universe. James' treasures are nothing short of amazing. They're tempting enough to attract the attention of powerhouses above the Grand Emperor rank. Now that James is here, other powerful Foreigners won't be able to approach Earth. As such, James is safe for now. If it were you, would you be able to guard these treasures after returning to the Athura Realm?"

Yorick looked at Qusai and said, "You came all the way to see me just to say this?"

Qusai shook his head and said, "I'm just running my mouth. By the way, I remember you were already a Sage when I first met you in your teens. A hundred years have passed since then. What's your current cultivation rank?"

Qusai's goal was to inquire about Yorick's current cultivation rank.

Since Yorick was a child of a Grand Emperor, he could conceal his energy and cultivation base, preventing outsiders from sensing his cultivation rank.

Only those above his cultivation rank could sense his cultivation base.

Yorick chuckled and said, "I've progressed very slowly. Despite the years that have passed, I've only reached the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage."

Yorick disclosed his cultivation rank.

He was telling the truth.

However, since he had the blood of a Grand Emperor, he was able to reach the pinnacle of each cultivation rank.

Therefore, his cultivation base was very stable.

Although he was only at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage, he could easily defeat cultivators at the Fifteenth Stage.

"Oh, is that so?" Qusai asked calmly, "How far have you honed your Athuran Combat Form?"

Yorick smiled faintly.

Instead of answering the question, he asked, "Why are you so interested in my strength?"

Qusai chuckled and said, "The Earth's third providence is about to appear soon, and you're the biggest threat to me now. Isn't it normal in this case to enquire about your strength?"

Yorick stood up and said, "You'll find out when the time comes to contend for the third providence. If there's nothing else you need, please leave."

Yorick gestured at Qusai to leave.

Qusai did not delay another second. He stood up, clasped his hands, and said, "I'm sure we'll meet again soon."

After speaking, Qusai turned around and left the mansion.

James immediately approached Qusai and asked, "How did it go? Did you manage to acquire any information from Yorick?"

Qusai nodded and said, "Yes. He told me his cultivation rank but it isn't very high. Yorick said he was at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage."

Hearing this, James sighed in relief.

The power difference between him and Yorick was not that wide after all.

They were only ten stages apart.

James could use his treasures to bridge the gap.

"However...!"

Qusai continued to speak, "Although he is only at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage. You're incomparable to him.

From my understanding, the Athurans have a Secret Art which allows them to transform themselves.

It's called the Athuran Combat Form and there are nine stages in the form.

Their combat strength increases tremendously every time they reach a higher stage.

"Yorick refused to tell me which stage of the form he had reached, so I don't know either."

James nodded and said, "I see. Alright, I know what to do next."

James already had a plan in mind.

He would train in seclusion for some time and try to improve his strength as much as possible to close the gap between him and Yorick's capabilities.

James looked at Thea beside him and said, "Thea, head back to Wrymstead first. I'm going to find a place to train in seclusion. Then, I'll challenge Yorick on Mount Bane in a month."

Thea thought awhile and said, "One month isn't a long time. I'll just wait for you here. I'm too lazy to make a round trip between here and Wrymstead."

James said, "Winnie is in Wrymstead right now. You haven't seen her for a long time. She told me she'd like to venture out to train she saw you again."

Thea was stunned for a moment.

Then, she immediately nodded and said, "Okay. I understand."

Afterward, Thea did not linger for long.

She left Mount Bane with Brielle and headed toward Wrymstead.

James also bid farewell to Henrik, Qusai, and the others.

After saying goodbye, he left for Mount Tai in Sol.

He planned to consult the custodian for some advice.

Since Sophie had already left him, no one else in the Celestial Abode was able to give him pointers.

Thea traveled at a breakneck pace and had already returned to Wrymstead.

News of James's battle against Yorick spread far and wide during this period.

The matter was posted on the Martial Arts Forum, and all the humans on Earth were engrossed with discussing it.

Winnie sat on a rock in Wrymstead Imperial Palace's backyard and gazed into the distance.

She knew about the happenings on Mount Bane but did not intervene because she knew James could handle them himself.

She knew that the real problem for humans had not arrived yet.

When that happens, humans would not be able to make any progress.

Therefore, she wanted to improve her strength in the shortest time possible.

However, Thea had not returned.

She was waiting for Thea to return to Earth, and had decided she would leave after meeting with her mother.

"Thea's back, Winnie."

Suddenly, a sexy woman in a red dress walked toward the rock.

The dazed-out Winnie snapped back to reality.

She jumped off the rock and asked, "Aunt Quincy, did you just say my mom is back?"

Quincy replied, "Mhm. She's in the palace hall right now."

Winnie immediately rushed toward the palace hall.

"Mom..."

Some of the Callahans were gathered around Thea.

Hearing a voice call out to her, Thea turned around and saw a young woman standing at the main hall's entrance.

The young woman wore a white dress and looked similar to Thea.

"Winnie?"

Thea was stunned by Winnie's appearance.

Winnie was still a little girl when she left.

Now, she was all grown up after all these years.

"Mom!" Winnie rushed over and wrapped her arms tightly around Thea. Happy tears rolled down Thea's face.

"You've grown so much, Winnie. I haven't seen you in so many years. I almost couldn't recognize you."

Winnie let go of Thea and said with teary eyes, "I missed you so much, Mom!"

"Don't cry, Winnie."

Thea reached out and wiped the tears that rolled down Winnie's eyes.

Thea looked at the people in the hall and said, "Dad, Mom, Grandpa. I'd like to spend some time with Winnie first."

With that said, she led Winnie out of the palace hall.

In the palace backyard, Winnie told Thea all about what she had done in the past few years.

After telling Thea everything, Winnie looked at her mother eagerly and said, "Mom, I want to go on adventures and better myself."

"You want to go on adventures to train yourself?"

Thea's brows furrowed.

Winnie nodded and said, "Humans are doomed. However, the ultimate calamity has yet to arrive. I have a feeling the Earth's Fourth Calamity will be the biggest challenge for humankind. Before it comes, I want to improve my strength to help Dad protect humanity."

Although the Third Calamity was already devastating, it still did not completely wipe out humankind.

Winnie's intuition told her that the Fourth Calamity was going to be horrific.

She wanted to improve herself as much as possible before it came.

Thea pondered deeply about this.

After a while, she said, "You're already an adult, Winnie, so I won't stop you from making your own decisions. If you want to leave Earth and venture out to train yourself, I can introduce you to someone experienced. She can help send you away from Earth."

Thea was referring to the custodian.

Among the strongest humans she knew, only the custodian had the power to send Winnie to another planet in the universe.

"Mhm."

Winnie nodded.

Afterward, Thea and Winnie left Wurmstead and headed to Mount Tai in Sol.

At that moment, James was already meeting with the custodian.

He also explained about his upcoming battle against Yorick.

The custodian wore a white dress and exuded elegance.

Her stunning visage was somber as she spoke to James, "The Athurans are terrifying creatures. You've acted too rashly this time, James. You shouldn't have accepted his challenge. Although he evicted humans out of Bane City, he didn't kill any of them."

"But the Earth belongs to humans. Yet, Foreigners are occupying our lands and lording over us."

James gritted his teeth and said, "If we don't teach them a lesson, their behavior will only worsen with time."

The custodian looked at James and asked, "You came to see me because you want to train in seclusion for a while, I'm guessing?"

James nodded and said, "Exactly. I still have one month before the battle. I came to seek your guidance. Training for a month at a Time Formation should be sufficient preparation."

The custodian said, "It's impossible to raise your rank so quickly, especially after having entered the Sage Rank. The divide between your strength and his is too wide. I can't think of a way to quickly bridge the disparity."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2754-The difference between their cultivation ranks meant that there was a massive disparity between their respective strengths.

James could attempt to make up for it by utilizing Secret Art, such as the Sacrilegious Ascension.

He could also use other treasures like Imperial Weapons which were weapons at the Emperor Rank, to significantly improve his strength.

However, it would be hard to compensate for the gap in their cultivation bases.

The custodian knew Yorick's background.

He was the Athurans' young master who possessed a Secret Art to improve his strength.

Moreover, Yorick also had an Emperor-ranked weapon.

This man was a formidable foe with his cultivation rank along with the addition of these two aspects.

It was almost impossible for James to win.

The custodian looked at James and cautioned him, "This isn't the time for you to act rashly, James. The most urgent thing for you now is to endure this critical period and work hard on improving your cultivation. The true disaster is yet to come, so you still have time."

"What if I use Curse Magic?"

James looked at the custodian and asked, "Will I have a chance against Yorick if I use Curse Magic?"

Hearing this, the custodian turned to James suspiciously.

James took out Sangria's Imperial Jade Seal and said, "The words inscribed on this jade seal are the fundamentals of Curse Magic. Even if I can't fully comprehend Curse Magic in one month, I should be able to at least grasp the basics."

The custodian had a solemn expression as she fell into thought.

After along while, she said, "Curse Magic is an extremely malevolent art.I don't recommend you to practice it, James."

James said, "In my opinion, there such a thing as evil techniques in this universe, only evil people."

James met with the Ancestral Talisman Master in the past.

The Ancestral Talisman Master had a sacred aura around him and did not seem like an evil person.

"Ms.Custodian, I don't know much about Curse Magic and can't even read these words on the jade seal.I came to see you to ask for your guidance in learning Curse Magic.Since I have the Demonic Lotus in my body..."

James summoned the black lotus out from his body.

The black lotus spewed black mist that contained unspeakable power.

"I can feel powerful energy coming from it."

Stunned, the custodian asked, "What's going on? Why does it have such strong Curse Magic? While on Galileo, James absorbed the potent Curse Magic from a Sage at the Consolidation Stage.Although it was Curse Magic, it was far different from the Heavenly Path's curse.James could absorb the Curse Magic cultivated by living beings but could not absorb the curses inflicted by the Heavenly Path.

James looked at the custodian and asked, "What are my chances of defeating Yorick if I use the Demonic Lotus?"

The custodian closely examined James' Demonic Lotus.

She sensed that the energy contained within the Demonic Lotus was considerable and equivalent in strength to a Twentieth Stage Sage.She roughly calculated the odds of success in her mind.

"You have a fifty-fifty chance."

The Athurans were very powerful, and the prodigies from their clans were terrifyingly strong.

Even though James had a Demonic Lotus, it would still be difficult for him to defeat Yorick.

Moreover, James' cultivation rank was far too low.

It was unlikely he could unleash the Demonic Lotus' full potential.

The Demonic Lotus' strength was underutilized in his hands.

"However, you may still try."

The custodian said, "Let's go. I'll take you to the ancient battlefield to train."

After speaking, the custodian led James toward the Chamber of Scripture's underground ninth floor.

After reaching the tower's depths, they passed through a passage and entered an unfamiliar place.

They arrived at the ancient battlefield.

It was a Sealed Realm, hidden within space.

The ground was full of crevices, and the sky was gray.

The custodian brought James to a mountaintop and set up a Time Formation around the mountain for James to train.

James sat in a lotus position on the mountaintop.

The custodian held James' jade seal and inspected the mysterious words engraved on it.

Then, she closed her eyes.

The words manifested in her mind and began to shift rapidly, changing hundreds of million times.

James looked on with a serious gaze.

To learn Curse Magic, he had to rely on the custodian to decipher them and guide him.

After some time, the custodian sensed someone calling her from the outside world.

She returned the jade seal to James.

“Wait for a bit.I’ll be back.”

Then, the custodian disappeared from James’ sight.

James was unaware that Thea had brought Winnie to the Chamber of Scriptures to ask the custodian to send Winnie to another planet so she could train.

After spending some time waiting, the custodian returned to James.

“Ms.Custodian,” James called out to her.

The custodian glanced at him and said, “Thea brought Winnie to me and asked me to send her away from Earth.”

“I see.” James nodded.

He already knew about Winnie’s desire to venture the universe.

James sighed lightly.

It was uncertain when he would meet Winnie again after she left.

James hoped that Winnie would be safe until the next time they met.

The custodian did not say much about Winnie.

Instead, she brought up the most crucial topic.

“I’ve already gone through the Curse Magic’s foundation engraved in the jade seal.It’s indeed full of potential and myriads of possibilities.Even as strong as I am now, I’m unable to comprehend it completely.I’ve only understood some basics that will help you in battle.”

James listened attentively.

The custodian had inspected the core tenets of the Curse Magic.

She was a Grand Emperor that had cultivated for thousands of years.

Her understanding of cultivation was profound, yet she could not fully comprehend the Curse Magic.

After looking through it intently, she could only grasp the very basics.

The custodian began to explain what she understood.

James began to practice under the custodian's guidance.

Soon, James got the hang of the essentials of Curse Magic.

Curses borrowed a special inscription to draw upon great power to attack enemies.

Offhanded remarks wishing for bad luck to befall someone, or for others to die could easily manifest in reality through the practice of Curse Magic.

James cultivated several Supernatural Powers under the custodian's guidance.

“Confinement!”

Confinement used the curse's power to imprison the enemy and immobilize them.

It was a useful Supernatural Combat Power and could play a key role during battles.

Another profound Supernatural Power James learned was the Passage of Time which was also used profound Curse Magic.

Using the technique, the passage of time could be accelerated, and a lifetime could pass in the blink of an eye.

The Supernatural Power could rapidly age an enemy and turn a young man into an old man in a short period, significantly reducing the enemy's fighting capability.

Confinement was a relatively simple technique.

However, the Passage of Time was a more complex technique.

Even the custodian could scarcely grasp it.

She passed on everything she understood to James.

Afterward, James began to devote himself to cultivating.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2756-The days passed and soon an entire month had elapsed.

In the blink of an eye, one month had passed in the outside world.

The battle between James and Yorick was imminent.

Everyone was anticipating the battle.

This battle's outcome would determine whether humans could enter Mount Bane again.

James practiced Curse Magic on the ancient battlefield inside a Time Formation.

Since James was within a Time Formation, the time he spent training inside was far longer than the time that had passed in the outside world.

While he was there, he focused on mastering Confinement and Passage of Time.

Passage of Time was a name given to the technique by the custodian.

However, based on the Supernatural Power's characteristics, it was not an exaggeration to say that the technique was almost like reincarnation.

'It's almost time, James.'

James was absorbed in his meditation when a voice suddenly rang in his ears.

The voice interrupted his train of thought, and he stopped cultivating.

James murmured, "It's already time to face Yorick, huh?"

Previously, James carved the Elemental Inversion Formation on his body.

As such, his strength would continuously improve despite him not focusing on improving his cultivation rank.

Despite that, he only reached the Sage Rank's Second Stage even after that extended period of time.

After reaching the Sage Rank, every breakthrough required tremendous power as well as a long time.

The beautiful woman standing beside him nodded and said, "Mhm.It's almost time for your duel.How much have you understood?"

James stood up and smiled faintly.

He replied, "A decent amount."

“Since that’s the case, I’ll bring you back out now.”

The custodian led James out of the ancient battlefield.

Soon, they returned to the Chamber of Scriptures.

“Goodbye, Ms.Custodian.”

James bid farewell to the custodian and hurriedly left for Mount Bane.

Today was the day of his fight against Yorick on Mount Bane.

Since the recovery of Spiritual Energy on Earth, Mount Bane’s land continued to expand, and many new regions appeared.

Initially, these areas were sealed, and inaccessible by humans.

As time passed, the seals on these places gradually disappeared.

Mount Bane had become much larger than the it previously was with the addition of new regions cropping up around it.

This happened before Spiritual Energy began to recover in the land.

There was a mountain outside of Bane City which was more than 10,000 meters high.

At that moment, aman stood atop that mountain.

He wore a black robe, and his long black hair danced in the breeze.

His handsome face was calm and confident.

That spectacular form belonged to the Athurans’ young master, Yorick.

He was a top-notch prodigy in the Authra Realm.

Many prodigies from various communities throughout the universe gathered around the area.

All of them were incredibly strong, and many were on par with Yorick.

Just for today, Yorick also allowed humans he had previously forbidden from entering Mount Bane to come to watch the fight.

Yorick wanted to crush humankind’s only hope in front of them and leave them wracked with despair.

"It's almost noon. Why hasn't James shown up yet?"

"Is he scared?"

"Probably. Although James is Earth's champion, it's currently the Apocalypse Age for humans. The Heavenly Path has abandoned the human race. It's incredibly tough for humans to grow their cultivation base. Moreover, his cultivation rank is way behind Yorick."

"The battle's outcome is already obvious. It's not surprising that James wouldn't dare to show himself."

"He'll die if he shows up."

It was already noon, yet James was nowhere to be seen.

Everyone concluded it was because James was too afraid to show himself.

Yorick stood on the mountaintop, and the wind tossed up his long black hair.

He looked incredibly dashing, and elicited excited squeals from a number of women there.

Many humans also gathered in the distance.

Among these, humans were the strongest cultivators on Earth, including the Prince of Orchid Mountain, and the Omniscient Deity.

A few of the Callahans were also present.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2757-Many humans from the Three Thousand Worlds were also present.

"What's going on?"

"It's already noon. Why isn't James here yet? Is he too scared to fight Yorick?"

The human cultivators discussed James' absence in hushed tones.

They were all counting on James and hoped he would defeat Yorick who was a Foreigner. James' victory would mean they could return to Mount Bane once more.

Thea frowned slightly and murmured, "It's already noon, James."

Why aren't you here yet?"

Seeing that James had not shown up, Thea was tempted to take up the challenge herself.

This was a dispute between humans and Foreigners from the universe. At a time like this, humans could not stand to show any weakness.

In this conflict, humans would have to show their dominance.

"I'll fight him in James' stead."

The Prince of Orchid Mountain, Langston, frowned and asked, "You? Are you sure, Thea? Let's wait a little longer. Perhaps James is already on his way."

"I can fight him," Thea replied to Langston confidently.

Thea had already become a Sage before traveling to the Demon Realm. After her travels, her strength greatly improved.

Although she lacked any extraordinary weapons, she had mastered the Four-Quadrant Art and had the Four Holy Beasts' blood in her body which allowed her to wield tremendous strength.

The Omniscient Deity advised her, "There's no need to rush into the fight, Thea. Let's just wait for James."

Brielle who was standing to the side also chimed in. "They're right, Thea. Please be patient and wait a while. I'm sure James will show up. He's most likely already on his way here."

Henrik said smilingly, "Don't worry, Thea. James will surely show up for the battle. He'll defeat Yorick and restore humankind's hope for survival."

Henrik trusted in James.

Hearing their advice, Thea did not rush in to fight Yorick and patiently waited for her husband.

At that moment, a person approached the mountain from a distance.

He wore a black robe and was followed by a large group of guards.

"Lucifer."

"Even Lucifer has come to watch the battle."

Many people exclaimed in astonishment upon seeing the person approaching.

Lucifer's reputation preceded him. Not only was he the son of a Grand Emperor from the Primordial Age, but the Heavenly Path had also bestowed him with the Elysian Inscription. He was originally born during the Primordial Age and was supposed to be unable to have the chance to obtain any of the providences in the current age.

However, his body was sealed away a long ago which halted his growth. Thus, he was relatively young and could compete for the providences now.

Lucifer's appearance caused a commotion. He stood atop a mountain and quietly waited for the battle to start.

Time ticked away minute by minute.

Eventually, the sky grew dark as the day passed uneventfully.

Yet, James still had not shown up.

Yorick had grown impatient after waiting the entire day.

He looked around and said, "Everyone, I didn't intend to avoid the battle, but I've waited the whole day yet James still hasn't shown up. Since the battle didn't happen due to his absence, I'm the winner by default."

His clear voice reverberated through the air.

After his announcement, Thea was unable to stand idly by.

She jumped and flew towards the distant mountain peak.

"I'll fight you."

Thea's voice boomed in the surroundings before she made her appearance.

In the next moment, she showed up 10,000 meters away from Yorick. She hovered in the sky and looked at Yorick from afar.

"Haha."

Yorick smiled faintly and said, "Who are you? What's with the humans on Earth? Do you guys think just anyone can challenge me? Well, since you've got the guts to challenge me, I'll have to accept. I wouldn't want the rest to think I fear you."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2758-Yorick waited one whole day for James and did not want to wait any longer. Just as he was about to leave, Thea showed up and challenged him.

In actuality, James was indeed rushing over but ran into someone along the way.

If it were not for this person, he would have already appeared for the fight.

After James left Mount Tai, he headed straight for Mount Bane.

However, he was stopped by a woman shortly after beginning his journey.

The woman had long black hair and hovered in the air in a willowy white dress. Her back was turned to James, so he could not see her appearance.

“Who are you?”

James looked at the woman blocking his path, and his brows furrowed.

The woman slowly turned around and revealed herself to him.

“y-You are...?!”

James was shocked upon seeing the woman.

“M- Maxine? Why are you here? Where have you been all these years?”

The woman was none other than Maxine who had disappeared many years ago.

Maxine floated in the air and gave James a look of longing. Tears welled up in her eyes and streamed down her face.

She could still remember everything that happened in the past even after so many years.

In her quest to marry James, she captured Winnie and forced him to take her as his wife. Her actions led to James’ death all those years ago.

“D-Do you still hate me for what I did?”

Maxine voice shook as she spoke.

James shook his head gently and said, "It's already been so many years since it happened. I've put those things behind me. Where have you been all these years? Why haven't I heard from you all this while?"

Maxine approached James and stood a few meters away from him.

"It's a very long story."

Maxine recalled everything that had happened in the past few years.

After awhile, she explained, "A few years after you died in Floret Palace, there was a post seemingly made by you on the Martial Arts Forum. Back then, I was still in Cansington when I saw the post. To find out if it was really you, I headed to Mount Bane.

"However, I was captured when I reached Mount Bane and was taken to the Demon Realm."

James listened attentively.

Maxine continued to tell her story, "It turned out to be a blessing in disguise. After I was brought to the Demon Realm, I received great guidance and cultivated a remarkable Demonic Body. After that, my teacher and I traveled the vast universe to find me an extraordinary Yogacara. I only just recently returned to Earth."

Maxine briefly described her experiences over the years.

James took a deep breath after hearing Maxine's words.

He never expected Maxine to have gone through so much.

"Who kidnapped you to the Demon Realm?" asked James.

Maxine said, "It was your good friend, Marcello, who is also the Azurean Clan's young mistress."

"Marcello?" James gaped in shock.

Maxine shook her head slightly and said, "I don't blame her. As I said, it was a blessing. If she didn't bring me to the Demon Realm, I wouldn't be where I am today.

"By the way, my teacher would like to see you."

"Your teacher?" He said incredulously.

"Follow me."

“But...” James hesitated and said, “I can’t come with you now. I agreed to a duel with Yorick today.”

Maxine said, “My teacher said you’re no match for Yorick currently. If you blindly rush into battle now, you’re going to die.”

“That’s not guaranteed.”

James was confident in himself after learning Curse Magic. In his eyes, he stood a 50 percent chance against Yorick.

Maxine urged him, “Come see my teacher. It won’t take too long.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2759-After briefly mulling it over, James said, “If that’s the case, let’s go.”

Maxine led James away to a mountain range in Sol.

The mountain range had recently appeared in Sol.

It had abundant Spiritual Energy and a captivating environment.

A simple wooden house sat on the mountaintop.

Upon arrival, James noticed a middle-aged man sitting in front of the wooden house. He wore a black robe and was playing the flute in his hand.

A melodic tune came from the flute.

“Sir.”

After Maxine brought James to the wooden house, she respectfully addressed the middle-aged man.

James looked at the man and thought, ‘Who’s this guy?’ The middle-aged man stopped playing the flute and casually placed it on the table beside him.

He looked at James and pointed to the chair next to him as he said, “There’s no need to impose yourself. Have a seat.”

James sat down and stared at the middle-aged man.

After a while, he recognized the man before him. He had seen this person before.

When he first arrived in the Demon Realm, three peerless powerhouses were fighting over the Ancestral Sword Master's Sword Energy.

Ultimately, Sophie stepped in to help him defeat them with Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts.

The middle-aged man before him was one of the three people back then.

James never expected Maxine's teacher to be so terrifyingly strong as well as a powerhouse of the Demon Realm. He guessed that this middle-aged man should be a terrifying powerhouse from the Azurean Clan.

"James, right? I've heard a lot about you in the past. It's nice to finally meet you today."

Caelum looked at James with a satisfied look and said, "You're even better than I imagined."

James smiled embarrassedly and said, "You flatter me, Sir."

Caelum said with a smile, "I asked to see you because I wanted to meet you, and also because I learned about your fight against the Athurans' prodigy, Yorick. I know Yorick quite well, and your skills are far below his currently."

James was displeased to hear Caelum's words. He did not think he was weaker than Yorick.

James questioned him, "How do you know I'll lose to him?"

Caelum said, "Believe me. I've met Yorick before and am well aware of his strength. Now that I've met you, I can easily compare your strengths against each other. That's why I can see that you're no match for him."

James did not respond to Caelum's statement.

Caelum continued to speak, "I came to see you because I heard about your duel with him. To be honest, I'm hoping you'll win. I wanted to see you and give you some advice."

"You want to give me some advice?" James reacted incredulously.

"That's right."

Caelum nodded and said, "In the past, Xacobe and I used to be close friends. He already knew his fate and predicted that a human would obtain his Demonic Lotus in the future."

“Back then, he passed me a set of techniques that I’d teach the human that obtains his Demonic Lotus.

“After you learn this set of techniques, you’ll be able to control the Demonic Lotus and unleash its full potential.

“The set of techniques is called Ten Thousand Demon Art.”

James continued to stay speechless in surprise.

‘Emperor Xacobe knew a human would obtain his Natal Demonic Lotus?’ ‘..and he left behind a set of techniques for me to learn? ‘What’s more, Emperor Xacobe also knew about the actions of the Lord of the Human Realm, Xandros Tegan”

‘Perhaps Caelum also knew about these events”

In the past, the Demon Realm attacked the Earth, and the Azurean Clan and Hadean Clan were the main instigators.

After learning this, James now suspected there was more to the demons’ decision to attack Earth.

However, all these things were much too abstract.

With his current strength, he was unable to fully comprehend them.

After thinking for a while, James said, “I don’t have the time to practice this Ten Thousand Demon Art right now.I have to go fight Yorick immediately.”

Caelum said, “It won’t take long.You should be able to grasp it ina few days.After you master the Ten Thousand Demon Art, you’ll be able to activate the true power of the Demonic Lotus.Delaying the fight for a few days shouldn’t be a huge issue.”

James contemplated for a moment.He decided to stay back and practice the Ten Thousand Demon Art and increase his chances of winning the fight.

After he had acquired a basic understanding of the techniques, he would rush to Mount Bane to fight Yorick.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2760-Since James followed Maxine to meet Caelum, he ended up late for his battle with Yorick.

Seeing that James had not shown up, Thea took it upon herself to fight in his place.

Thea hovered in the sky and held onto the Malevolent Sword. She had a general understanding of Yorick's strength and knew her opponent was a Sage at the Tenth Stage.

However, she was not a weak person either.

Before departing to the Demon Realm, she had already become a Sage.

The Empyrean Spiritual Energy in the Demon Realm was much stronger than on Earth.

After adventuring and training in the Demon Realm for many years, she had reached the Sage Rank's Ninth Stage.

Additionally, she had to reach the peak of each stage to break through the Elysian Seal in her body.

Thus, she was only one stage lower than Yorick.

Her long black hair fluttered in the wind, and the Malevolent Sword glowed with black Sword Energy.

At that moment, the energy from her body grew stronger and caused the surrounding space to distort.

Initially, Yorick did not take Thea seriously.

However, he was startled after sensing the energy emanating from her.

His face lit up, and he said, "I underestimated you. I wasn't expecting you to have such strong energy. You're a worthy opponent. Before we fight, I have a question for you."

Thea looked at him flintily and asked, "What's your question?"

Yorick asked, "Who are you? I only know about James, the only person on Earth worthy of being called a powerhouse. The other humans here are just a bunch of weaklings. When did someone like you exist on Earth?"

Yorick was powerful, and he could sense Thea's cultivation rank.

Thea was definitely worthy of being called a prodigy as she possessed such intense energy at her cultivation rank.

Thea replied slowly, "My name is Thea Callahan. I'm James' wife."

Yorick said smilingly, "James sure is lucky."

After speaking, Yorick gestured for Thea to make the first move.

"Go ahead."

Thea did not waste any time.

She raised the Malevolent Sword, and black Sword Light flowed forth, charging straight at the mountain Yorick was standing on.

Yorick remained calm.

His body flickered, and he disappeared.

Shortly after, he appeared in the sky and easily evaded Thea's attack Boom! The black Sword Light crashed into the mountain, causing it to collapse instantly.

Under normal circumstances, Sages could cause a lot of damage to their surroundings if they were to engage in battle.

Fortunately, Mount Bane was where the Human Realm's seal was located.

Thus, Mount Bane gradually became an extremely stable region on Earth as time passed.

As a result, powerful Sages were not capable of causing large-scale damage within Mount Bane's territory.

Thea put all her strength in her attack but only destroyed one mountain.

However, the damage she caused was terrifying.

Cultivators that had not reached the Sage Rank could barely shake a boulder in Mount Range even if they went all out.

Yet, Thea shattered a mountain with just one Sword Light.

Her strength immediately caused an uproar in the crowd.

Many prodigies from throughout the universe watching the battle were shocked by Thea's display of strength.

"Did she say her name was Thea Callahan?"

"She's James' wife, right? She seems to be crazy strong."

“This battle is getting interesting.”

Initially, no one was optimistic about Thea's odds.

The prodigies from all over the universe thought the battle had already been decided. However, their expressions all changed after seeing Thea's strength.”

“Interesting.”

“Let's see how much Thea can push back Yorick.”

“It would be exciting if she could force him to use his combat form.”

Many of the prodigies were thrilled to watch the fight.

Meanwhile, the humans were also ecstatic at seeing how strong Thea was.

In the distance, Yorick hovered in the air with his hands behind him. He maintained a calm demeanor as he said with a smile.

“You're quite strong. It's no wonder you dared to challenge me.”
