The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2761-Swoosh! Thea did not respond to Yorick.

Instead, she launched another attack.

While swinging her sword, she immediately dashed in front of Yorick.

Thea struck directly at Yorick.

Yorick remained calm.

At the last second, a sword appeared in his hand. It looked like a regular iron sword.

However, powerful energy seeped out from the seemingly ordinary iron sword.

Yorick raised his sword and parried Thea's blow.

Clank! The two swords clashed, and their potent Sword Energies collided.

At that moment, their fight intensified.

Thea felt a colossal force crash into her.

Unable to withstand the force, she was blasted away, and her Blood Energy churned.

She could not suppress her Blood Energy and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Yorick, on the other hand, floated in the sky unscathed.

As soon as the two exchanged moves, the spectators immediately saw the difference in strength between the two.

Even though Thea was powerful, she was lacking compared to Yorick.

"Is that all you've got?"

Yorick held his sword and said, "If you're that weak, there's no need to continue this match."

Thea was blasted into the distance.

At that moment, she looked desperate.

She knew Yorick's strength beforehand, but now she realized how truly terrifying he was after they exchanged a few blows.

Although they were one stage apart, their difference in strength was significant.

Thea was going all out, but she could sense that Yorick was not using his full strength.

Instead, he was only using a fraction of his power.

“It seems Thea is no match for Yorick.”

“If the battle continues like this, she’ll lose.”

The human cultivators became anxious.

There was only one person who remained calm, and that was Brielle.

Brielle had been traveling with Thea for many years.

She was well aware of Thea’s strength.

Thea still had not unleashed the Four- Quadrant Art nor had she activated the Four Holy Beasts’ blood which she could use to boost her strength in an instant.

Thea also knew she could not beat Yorick without using the Four- Quadrant Art.

At that moment, her blood began to churn, and the four different powers were drawn out from it.

With the emergence of the power, an illusion of the Four Holy Beasts appeared behind her.

The illusion was caused by the activation of the power within her blood.

Phantom figures of a dragon, phoenix, Spirit Turtle, and qilin appeared.

All the spectators present gasped in shock.

“W-What kind of Supernatural Power is that?”

“Her energy is skyrocketing!”

“She’s releasing extremely potent energy right now.”

Yorick hovered in the sky nearby.

Sensing Thea’s surging energy, he chuckled.

“Now, this is more like it. It would’ve been boring if I beat you effortlessly.”

After Thea activated the power of the Four Holy Beasts, her energy thrummed with power.

“How about parrying another one of my attacks, Yorick?”

Thea’s voice echoed through the sky, ringing in all the spectators’ ears.

After speaking, Thea raised the Malevolent Sword, and a Sword Light shot up into the sky.

At that moment, the image of the Four Holy Beast manifested again.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2762-Faced against the powerful Yorick, Thea had no choice but to turn to her strongest signature martial art skill.

After activating the Four Holy Beasts’ power in her body, she raised her hand, and powerful Sword Energy flowed forth. It shot up to the sky and formed an illusion of the Four Holy Beasts once more.

The illusory figures of a dragon, phoenix, qilin, and Spirit Turtle formed in the sky.

At that moment, Yorick looked on grimly.

Although Thea was one stage behind him, Thea’s current energy was very potent and overwhelmed his.

Thea’s sword also became incredibly powerful.

Yorick knew he would be defeated if he did not use one of his trump cards.

Right then, he put away his ordinary-looking sword.

A bright blue sword then materialized in his hand and gave off a blue glow.

Yorick held the blue sword, and his aura immediately changed.

“Ah! I-Is that the Athuran Sword?”

“It’s the divine sword of the Athurans. It used to be Grand Emperor Lamont’s sword. The Athuran Sword is also an Imperial Weapon.”

“Yorick’s aura grew stronger after calling forth the Imperial Weapon. The Authuran Sword has boosted his strength significantly.”

Many prodigies present were shocked to see Yorick summon the Authuran Sword.

No one expected Thea to be strong enough to force Yorick to use his Imperial Weapon.

Imperial Weapons were weapons used by Grand Emperors.

Grand Emperors stood at the top of the cultivation ranks.

Usually, the strength of an Imperial Weapon was determined by the wielder’s strength.

Thea floated in the air.

She raised the Malevolent Sword and pointed it at Yorick.

A deadly Sword Light shot out of the sword and charged at Yorick threatening to rend him in twain.

Although it was a normal Sword Light, it contained destructive power enough to split the very heavens and earth.

As her Sword Light burst forth, the sky dimmed.

Seeing the destructive Sword Light closing in him, Yorick did not dodge.

Instead, he raised his Authuran Sword and swung it in the air to parry the attack.

His blue sword clashed with the black Sword Light.

Boom! There was an explosion in the sky.

The explosion released a powerful shock wave.

The shock wave rushed toward Thea, knocking her away and causing her to spit out blood.

Yorick was also affected by the shock wave and was pushed backward.

“That’s some impressive force.”

Yorick was taken aback.

He wielded an Imperial Weapon which should have improved his strength by a few stages. His sword attack’s power should at least be as strong as a Fifteenth Stage Sage.

To add to that, the power of his attacks reflected the strength at the peak of each respective stage.

His attack's power would be around the strength of a regular cultivator at the Twentieth Stage.

Despite this, the force still punted him back, and his Blood Energy churned.

He could not rein it in, and blood gushed out of his throat.

However, Yorick forcibly endured the pain and swallowed the blood.

'Damn it'

Yorick hissed internally.

Ever since he walked the path of cultivation, no one had ever forced him to use the Imperial Weapon.

Now that he finally wielded it an opponent, it was against someone he could not kill.

Thea was merely knocked back and only spat out some blood.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2763-« Die! » Yorick was determined to kill Thea.

Thea displayed impressive power, and he could not allow such a powerful human to live.

Yorick held onto the Imperial Weapon and charged at Thea.

As his form flickered, tremendous power was released from his sword.

One after another, Sword Energies formed from his sword.

Countless Sword Energies shot out and crisscrossed in the air to form a net of blades.

His attack charged straight at Thea.

Before Thea could recover from the impact of the earlier shock wave, Yorick had already sent an attack her way.

Thus, she was forced into defensive maneuvers.

She swung the Malevolent Sword, constantly knocking away the Sword Energies that charged at her.

The battle intensified, and the intensity forced the spectators to retreat continuously.

Langston, the Omniscient Deity, and the others watched the battle with somber expressions.

“Thea’s cultivation rank is still relatively low. She’s only at the Sage Rank’s Ninth Stage. However, she managed to unleash such immense power. Her energy right now is equivalent to a Twentieth Stage Sage’s,” Langston said with a frown.

The Omniscient Deity nodded and explained, “Yeah. That’s because she had reached the pinnacle of each cultivation stage before breaking through to the next. Thus, her True Essence is much stronger than normal cultivators. On the other hand, we reached the Sage Rank by relying on the bodhi fruit. Moreover, there weren’t any seals on our bodies while we were in Galileo. This allowed us to improve rapidly, but as a result, our cultivation bases are unstable. Our Sage Energy is much weaker than Thea’s.”

“Do you think Thea can defeat Yorick?”

“I think her chances of winning are still very slim. Thea’s Malevolent Sword is just an ordinary sword in comparison to Yorick’s Imperial Weapon.”

Many of the human powerhouses were worried about Thea.

Meanwhile, the intense battle continued in the distant sky.

Yorick was a skilled swordsman.

Every move he made contained immense force, forcing Thea to avoid his blows.

As the battle raged on, Thea struggled to block Yorick’s attacks but was managing to get through the fight.

However, she was injured.

Yorick’s Sword Energy struck her, and a bloody wound formed on her body.

The blood in her body began to roil after she sustained the injury.

This made the power of the Four Holy Beasts stronger.

Relying on the power of the Four Holy Beasts, she deflected the Yorick's blows with his Imperial Weapon.

Multiple Sword Energies glimmered in the sky, constantly crashing into each other.

The deflected Sword Energies exploded in the surroundings and demolished the mountains nearby.

Soon, the area was reduced to rubble.

Yorick was a powerful cultivator and moreover, he wielded an Imperial Weapon.

Even so, he was unable to take down Thea.

Thea stoutly withstood Yorick's series of attacks relying on the Four Holy Beasts' blood and the Four-Quadrant Art.

Boom! Their Sword Energies collided again.

Yorick was struck by the force and was knocked away.

"Damn it! Why is she so strong?"

Yorick was shocked.

Their fight had gone on for an extended period, and he had to get rid of Thea as soon as possible.

After the force blasted him away, blue light suddenly shimmered from his body.

The light surrounded his body, and his appearance changed.

His face turned blue, and his teeth formed into fangs.

At the same time, his hair instantly grew longer, and blue armor covered his body.

"Is that his combat form?"

"Yes, it is.

Yorick transformed into his combat form."

"I wasn't expecting to see Yorick use his combat form today."

"I heard that when Athurans transform into their combat forms, they become significantly stronger.

The more times they can transform into it, the stronger they become.”

“Thea is very impressive to have forced Yorick’s hand like this.”

The Foreign prodigies were amazed.

None of them thought Thea could force Yorick to use his combat form.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2764-After Yorick entered his combat form, his strength multiplied.

Thea felt tremendous pressure coming from Yorick.

“You’re impressive, Thea. You even forced me to transform into my combat form. You are the first among those of my age who are worthy to battle me like this. You’ve made a name for yourself today.” Yorick’s voice echoed haughtily.

Then, he lunged at Thea.

His strength had improved drastically, which also strengthened his sword’s power.

Faced with Yorick’s overwhelming onslaught, Thea could no longer avoid all his blows.

After just a few moves, Thea sustained a few more injuries.

As he growled, Yorick’s Imperial Weapon pulsed with overwhelming power. He gripped the sword and charged at Thea. Then, he swung his weapon.

Thea raised the Malevolent Sword to parry the attack.

The two swords struck each other.

Clank! Thea’s sword snapped in half.

Struck by the devastating force, bloody wounds opened up all over her body.

Thea plummeted from the sky and crashed into the ruins below.

“Yorick is amazingly strong.”

“Even so, that’s just the first level of his combat form.I heard the Athuran Combat Form has nine stages.Their strength can keep increasing with each level they jump.”

“Yorick must have already mastered more than one stage.”

“Does this mean Thea lost the fight?”

Many people looked on in horror as they watched Thea’s body fall from the sky.

The spectators felt they did not come in vain as they were able to witness Yorick’s combat form.

Yorick floated in the air and held onto the Imperial Weapon.He looked like a mighty emperor as he stared down at Thea’s fragile body in the ruins.He did not bring his full strength to bear against her.

“You’ve lost, Thea.Since you were fighting on behalf of James, according to the terms me and James agreed on, you’ll have to submit to me.”

Yorick did not strike her with a lethal blow because he acknowledged that Thea was indeed a rare human prodigy.He was willing to let her live if she yielded herself to him.

The humans watching in the distance became anxious.

“Why hasn’t James come yet?”

“He’s already late by an entire day.Thea fought in his stead, yet there’s no sign of him.”

“Do you think he’s scared to fight Yorick?”

The humans from Earth and the Three Thousand Worlds murmured anxiously.

Thea struggled to get up from the ruins.She took out a healing elixir and drank it.

Then, she sat in a lotus position on the ground to treat her wounds.

She acknowledged her defeat.

“I’ll fight you.”

At that moment, a voice chimed in from the distance.

Turning toward the sound, Yorick saw another beautiful woman slowly approach him.

She wore a white dress and looked like an ethereal goddess.

It was Brielle.

Although she was not human, she was still James' wife.

Yorick looked at Brielle and asked coldly, "...And you are?"

Brielle's body flickered and reappeared in the air. She looked at Yorick and said, "I'm Brielle. I'm also James' wife.

"Haha!"

Yorick laughed.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2765-"James is too cowardly to show up himself. Instead, he has his wives fighting on his behalf. Since you're so eager to die, who am I to stop you?"

Yorick raised the Imperial Weapon in his hand and was to strike Brielle.

"This is my fight, so why are you involving yourself?"

Everyone jumped in shock when they heard the voice.

They turned toward the sound and saw a man flying from the distance, followed by a woman behind him.

"It's James! H-He's finally here!"

"W-Who's that woman with him?"

"Isn't that Maxine?"

"How could it be her? She disappeared so many years ago. Why is she suddenly appearing now?"

Many of the humans present were shocked by the two people that suddenly turned up.

James went over to Yorick hastily.

With a few steps, he appeared before Brielle.

He glared at her and said, "Back off."

Brielle bit back at him.

“Do you think I want to fight? It’s because you took your time coming here, so I had to...”

James ignored her and descended from the sky.

He landed on the ground and looked at Thea sitting on the ground in a lotus position and healing her wounds.

He asked worriedly, “Thea, are you alright? How are you doing?”

Thea cracked her eyes open.

Seeing James, she gently shook her head and said, “It’s nothing serious. I only sustained some minor injuries.”

At that moment, Maxine also landed beside her.

James immediately instructed, “Maxine, bring Thea somewhere safe and help treat her wounds.”

Maxine nodded.

Then, she brought the injured Thea away from the battlefield.

James flew back into the sky. He looked at Yorick who had transformed into his combat form.

His expression darkened, and he said, “I’m sorry. I’m late because I had some other business to attend to.”

Yorick replied calmly, “You’re still in time for the battle.”

James clenched his fists.

“I’ll make you pay for harming my wife.”

“Haha.”

Yorick laughed and said, “Go ahead, if you have the strength to do so.”

James took a deep breath to force himself to calm down.

Then, he asked, “Some humans from Earth challenged you a while ago, but you detained them. Before we fight, let them go.”

Yorick smiled and said, "Don't worry. If you defeat me, I'll let all of them go and give you full control over Mount Bane. However, they'll have to die if you lose."

After speaking, Yorick raised the Imperial Weapon in his hand and said, "Make your move."

James looked at the transformed Yorick. He felt a crushing pressure coming from his opponent.

The energy emanating from Yorick was several times more potent than his.

James knew he could not beat Yorick in his current state.

He did not choose to hide his strength and immediately activated the Sacrilegious Ascension.

He used the power of heaven and earth to shatter his spine and absorbed the surrounding energy to restore it.

After he performed the Sacrilegious Ascension, his strength leaped exponentially.

Yorick did not rush in.

Instead, he watched silently.

After sensing the increase in James' energy, he said mockingly, "Is that all, James? You're so much weaker than your wife."

James was only at the Sage Rank's First Stage.

The Sacrilegious Ascension was a miraculous technique capable of reshaping his thirty-three vertebrae.

After his spine was reformed, his strength reached the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage.

However, he was still relatively weak compared to Yorick.

The Sacrilegious Ascension improved his cultivation rank by five stages.

James knew he was still incapable of defeating Yorick with just the Sacrilegious Ascension.

Next, he unleashed the dragon bone's power in his body.

However, the dragon bone could only improve his strength to a limited extent.

The inscriptions on the dragon bone recorded the Dragon Race's signature martial art skill.

After unleashing the dragon bone's power, James' strength increased by one stage making him a Sixth Stage Sage.

"Haha! You're still too weak."

Yorick smiled contemptuously and said, "If this is your full strength, this battle's outcome is already obvious. Killing you will be as easy as stepping on an ant."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2766-Yorick could sense that James had only recently entered the Sage Rank.

Although James used two power-enhancing Secret Arts, his current strength was only at the Sage Rank's Sixth Stage.

Yorick's combat form still far outclassed James in terms of strength.

Even, Thea was no match for him.

James knew this was going to be an intense battle.

Moreover, his current strength was still insufficient to win against Yorick After using the Sacrilegious Ascension and dragon bone, James activated the Five Elements of Genesis.

Five different Sage Energies merged and inverted to form anew energy.

This energy tremendously augmented James' strength.

The energy emanating from James continued to grow at an impressive speed.

"James has some tricks up his sleeves."

"Indeed. He is only at the Sage Rank's First Stage, but was able to raise his strength significantly through his Secret Arts."

"The energy he has now should be at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage."

"It should be about there."

“That means he’s on par with Yorick’s cultivation rank before he transformed into his Combat Mode.

The crowd was shocked at how James continuously used Secret Arts to improve his strength, and it caused a huge commotion.

James had only become a Sage recently and was only at the First Stage.

However, his energy now was at the Sage Rank’s Tenth Stage which unsettled many people.

A one-stage difference in cultivation rank meant massive difference in strength.

It was already impressive that if a person used Secret Arts to increase their strength by one stage, but James managed to increase it dramatically.

James used the Sacrilegious Ascension, the dragon bone’s power, and the Five Elements of Genesis.

After the Five different energies merged, he performed Elemental Inversion.

These three Secret Arts significantly raised his strength.

At that moment, his energy was incredibly powerful.

James could sense the mighty power contained in his body.

The energy within him was potent.

He had never used all three Secret Arts together.

Now that he used them in unison, he was somewhat unable to contain his immense strength and control his power completely.

Yorick had a shocked expression on his face as he floated nearby.

“I really underestimated you, James. I wasn’t expecting you to be able to forcibly increase your strength so dramatically. However, you’re only slightly stronger than Thea. She was already incapable of fighting back against me, so how will you fare?”

Yorick was taken aback by James’ strength, but he was still confident in his own capabilities.

He believed that victory was assured.

James stretched his body, and powerful energy erupted from his being.

The force rippled through space causing the surroundings to look distorted.

Although Mount Bane was an incredibly stable place, James' strength was overwhelming and was able to shake the surroundings.

His energy spread over the land and caused many mountains to collapse into ruins.

The spectators watching the battle from a distance were forced to retreat again, afraid of being hurt by the force.

After James got used to the power in his body, he looked at Yorick with a smug smile.

"Yorick, right? For the longest time, there was only one person that made me use my full strength in battle, and that is Lucifer. Today, I'm also going to go all out against you."

Lucifer heard James' words from a distance.

He touched his nose and murmured, "It seems James has been working hard all this time. He has improved a lot from the last time we fought. I wonder if he can defeat Yorick."

Lucifer had watched the battle between Yorick and Thea.

Therefore, he had witnessed the extent of Yorick's strength.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2767-James used many methods to augment his powers but he still had a chance to lose to Yorick.

At that moment, a figure quietly appeared in the distance.

He wore a white robe and carried a long sword.

It was Walganus who had spent some time with James on Galileo.

He hovered in the distance and gradually approached until he arrived behind the current spectators.

He looked at James and Yorick.

He murmured, "James is pretty good at concealing his true power. He's only at the Sage Rank's First Stage but can raise his strength to the Tenth Stage. Moreover, his strength is of one that has reached the peak of every stage before breaking through."

Walganus used to be called Hilarius Yahir in the past and was the son of Lord of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

He was born in nobility but was sealed before the Ancient Heavenly Court Age ended.

As such, he awakened in the current age.

He was a powerhouse that was close to entering the Divine Rank.

Yorick was still in his Combat Form as he emanated imposing energy.

At that moment, he still looked somewhat human.

The only difference was that his face was blue, and he had fanged teeth.

His body was clad in blue armor, and he held a long, blue sword.

James intuited that Yorick's strength was somewhere around the Thirteenth Stage.

Yorick's actual cultivation rank was at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage.

That meant this single transformation increased his strength by three stages.

Additionally, he also wielded an Imperial Weapon.

With this combined, the power of his attacks would be around the Fifteenth Stage.

"Do you have any other gimmicks or Secret Arts? Go ahead and use them all.

If you don't, you won't be able to fight toe to toe with me as you are currently." Yorick's bold voice rang out clearly. James smiled lightly and said, "It seems I'll have to resort to more drastic measures to defeat you."

James summoned a long purple sword from the Celestial Abode using his consciousness.

Purple light shone and turned into a long purple sword.

James grabbed the long purple sword and it trembled for a bit before releasing a purple light.

"Is that an Imperial Weapon?"

"It has such a powerful energy."

"I can sense terrifying Sword Intent from it."

“That weapon should also be an Imperial Weapon.”

“I wasn’t expecting James to also possessed an Imperial Weapon.”

Many prodigies were shocked when they saw James’ weapon.

Imperial Weapons were exclusive weapons for Grand Emperors and bore a frightening might.

No one would have guessed that James’ weapon was not an Imperial Weapon in fact, but an Ancestral God Weapon.

Ancestral God Weapons were used by Ancestral Gods, and it was significantly stronger than Imperial Weapons.

However, Ancestral God Weapons were like fables to the prodigies present.

To them, Imperial Weapons were the most potent weapon that existed in the current age.

Thus, they did not think the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword was an Ancestral God Weapon since it was almost unfathomable.

After a brief surprise, Yorick smiled and said, “Impressive. I really did underestimate you. Do you have anything else? Even though you have an Imperial Weapon, your strength is still inferior to mine.”

James shrugged.

He used all the Secret Arts that was able to augment his strength, and he was already in his most potent state.

James said, “Make your move.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2768-James was at his strongest state after using the Sacrilegious Ascension, dragon bone, and Elemental Inversion to boost his strength.

He had never fought in this state before.

As such, he was slightly unable to control his current strength.

Faced with Yorick in his combat form, James showed no hesitation.

He said calmly, "Make your move, Yorick."

The much-anticipated battle had finally begun.

"How many moves from Yorick can James withstand?"

"Since he dared to come to battle, he must have a few tricks up his sleeves.

Don't you remember him using the Infinity Steles against Lucifer's Imperial Weapon? Back then, he did not have an Imperial Weapon himself yet."

"This battle is going to be interesting."

"The human race is remarkable. Even with seals, many prodigies are surfacing. It's no wonder the human race ruled the universe for countless years in the past."

Many prodigies around the battlefield discussed the duel between James and Yorick.

On the battlefield, Yorick had already launched a powerful attack.

Blue lights emerged from his sword and formed blue Sword Energies continuously.

The Sword Energies' power caused fluctuations in the surrounding space resulting in distortions and ripples.

Before the Sword Energies were even sent out to attack him, James could already sense the strong Sword Intent and powerful force from them.

James knew he would be downed instantly if struck by these Sword Energies.

In terms of strength, he was still slightly inferior to Yorick.

His only hope to win this battle was by using the loot he had accumulated.

He had to avoid being struck at all costs.

His current strength would not allow him to withstand Yorick's attacks.

Yorick's Sword Energies shot out.

James raised the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword and purple Sword Energy materialized before him.

Rumble!!! Yorick's blue Sword Energy collided with James' purple Sword Energy, and made a violent explosion.

The force from the explosion forced James backward.

His arms went numb, and his Blood Energy churned.

Unable to suppress the surging Blood Energy, he spat a mouthful of blood.

"What strong force."

James was shocked.

Even though he used the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword to resist Yorick's attack, the force still affected him and caused him to spit out blood.

The various creatures and humans observed the battle in the distance.

Seeing James spit out blood, the humans were worried.

All of their expressions became grim.

Meanwhile, the various Foreign prodigies all regarded the duel as a form of entertainment.

"James can't handle Yorick."

"He vomited blood despite only withstanding one attack."

"Of course, he's no match for Torick.

His strength now is only on par with Yorick before he transformed.

Now that Yorick transformed, his strength far surpasses James'.

Although James has an Imperial Weapon, the same can be same for Yorick."

"The outcome is obvious."

"Thea was much stronger than him."

After the two exchanged a blow, many creatures had already pronounced the battle's result.

"Is this all you've got?"

Yorick sneered and said, "Ha.

I thought you would be powerful, but you're not living up to my expectations right now."

After speaking, Yorick lunged forward.

He charged at James at a breakneck speed.

Before he reached James, an airwave had already swept toward James.

James did not dare to resist the terrifying air wave.

Otherwise, he would be injured if he were to be struck.

He tried to dodge, but Yorick was swifter than him.

Yorick appeared before James almost instantly.

Before James could react, Yorick thrust his long sword at James' vital points.

It was already too late for James to escape at that point.

James raised the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

The two blades slammed into each other.

At that moment, Yorick put all his strength into the blow.

James sensed the terrifying power coming from his opponent's weapon spreading into the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword and then reverberating through his body.

Wounds began to form on his body, and he was punted backward.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2769-At that moment, he released his Demonic Energy and quickly treated his injuries.He had used all his strength, including the Lunar and Terra Sage Energy which he rarely used.

Despite all that, he was still inferior to Yorick.

James was forced into a corner.

While retreating, the mountains below him crumbled under the force of the attacks coming at him.

Rumble!!! The ground shook, and it felt like the end of the world had come.

The creatures watching the battle from afar backed away once more, almost leaving the vicinity of Mount Bane.

The battle's aftermath spread close to Bane City.

Fortunately, Bane City was an extraordinary existence with a strong barrier.

As soon as the force reached Bane City, the barrier would disperse it, and prevent any sort of damage.

James roared defiantly, "Come forth!!!"

He poured all his power into the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

The Yogacara Sword Energy in his body flowed into the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

The Yogacara Sword Energy infused the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, increasing its power manyfold.

Destructive energy rushed forth from the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword and pushed Yorick away.

"What happened?"

Yorick was shocked. He was much superior than James in terms of strength.

However, James' power increased yet again and this time it overwhelmed him.

The two powerful weapons struck each other.

Yorick's body was repelled backward.

At the same time, the shock of the impact ran through the Athuran Sword and into Yorick's body.

A formidable Sword Energy entered his body and injured him. His Blood Energy churned, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

"What happened?"

"How did James become stronger than Yorick?"

“Yeah.Yorick was overpowered by James.”

“That’s strange.James’ energy didn’t seem to have increased.Where did his power come from?”

The Foreign spectators watched on in disbelief.

No one knew that the Yogacara in James’ body was a Sword Energy from the same source as the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

The Yogacara Sword Energy invigorated the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword and activated a portion of the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword’s strength.

Thus, James’ strength was now unbearable.

Yorick kept retreating as he spat out blood.

He quickly raised his sword and brought it away from the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

Then, he quickly slashed at the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword’s blade once more.

Clank!!! Acrisp sound echoed throughout the sky.

James was a swordmaster and had already expected Yorick’s attack.

A loud ringing resounded when their swords made contact, and terrifying Sword Energies flew in every direction.

James’ arm lowered from exertion, and he almost dropped the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

However, he withstood the force.

Then, he seized the chance to counterattack.

His Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword slid up the Athuran Sword’s blade, aiming straight for Yorick’s arm.

Yorick quickly withdrew his hand and tilted his sword to attack James again.

James parried the attack.

The two fought viciously in Mount Bane’s territory.

It was a duel between two spectacular swordsmen and a contrast between two supreme weapons.

Every blow they shared was intense.

James poured his Sword Energy into the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

Currently, he was much stronger than Yorick, and the two exchanged a few more moves.

“Woah! How exciting!”

“I didn’t expect James’ swordsmanship to be so profound.”

“Same. He forced Yorick to use Athuran Sword Techniques and his Athuran Power.”

He plummeted from the sky but caught himself before he reached the ground.

James landed steadily on a massive boulder on the ground.

The boulder immediately shattered the moment his feet came in contact with it, and countless shards of rock burst into the sky.

James reached out his hand and wiped the blood from his lips.

“He’s powerful.”

James wore a solemn expression.

Although he was currently more powerful Yorick, he sustained many injuries after only exchanging a few moves despite his physical body being at the Sage Rank’s Seventh Stage.

He would have been defeated long ago if he had not honed his physical strength.

After their confrontation, James was fully aware of Yorick’s terrifying strength.

James stood on the ground and gasped for breath.

Swoosh! The sound of a Sword Energy piercing the air came from the sky above.

James sensed the danger and quickly dodged.

Right after he escaped, a blue Sword Energy collided with the area where he previously stood.

The Sword Energy levelled the area, and a gigantic pit formed on the ground.

James had leaped into the distance just in time.

He looked opposite him.

Yorick's blue face and long fangs along with his disheveled hair made him look frighteningly hideous.

After their previous exchange of moves, Yorick looked beaten down.

He never expected James to be so strong.

Although James had a much lower cultivation rank, he could unleash such explosive strength.

Despite already using his combat form, he still did not have the upper hand against James.

"You're going to lose soon, James."

Yorick grimaced and said coldly, "Among my generation, Thea is the first to force me into my combat form. However, you're the first to force me to use my second combat form."

When he heard this, James' blood ran cold as he expected the worst.

He saw blue light shine from Yorick's body.

The blue armor on his body gradually changed into a light blue color, with white light shining through the gaps.

Yorick's energy became stronger.

At the same time, a pair of wings grew out of his back.

The wings were slightly translucent, and veins could be seen through them.

“Is that the Athuran Combat Form’s Second Stage?”

“I can sense the strong energy from him.”

“His energy is really overwhelming.”

After Yorick transformed into the Athuran Combat Form’s Second Stage, many of the universe’s prodigies were shocked.

His energy was imposing, and all of them could only feel pity for James.

“argh!!!”

After Yorick transformed, he let out a thunderous roar.

A powerful sound wave shook the surroundings and caused the mountains in the area to disintegrate and collapse.

The surrounding terrain was instantly turned into ruins.

Just sound wave from him was capable of such devastating destruction.

After roaring, Yorick said, “James, you forced me into my Athuran Combat Form’s Second Stage. I can wield lightning at this stage. I’m curious how you’ll stand against me in this form.”

After speaking, he flapped his wings.

The veins on his wings released blue lightning that spread across the sky.

Then, they struck down from the sky like rain.

Every lightning strike contained unspeakable power and was capable of instantly killing James.

James was well aware of the risk and knew he had to avoid getting hit.

His body was not able to withstand any of the attacks.

Faced with the devastating lightning attack, James darted around to avoid them.

James’ body swayed through the space between the lightning strikes.

Yorick’s lightning attacks were fast and close together but could not manage to strike James.

James had gained extraordinary movement skills after training in the Tribulation World for 30,000 years.

Thus, he could avoid the intense onslaught.

It was a conditioned reflex his body had developed.

“What in the world?”

“What kind of Supernatural Power is this?”

“That’s some unusual skills.”

James moved through the gaps between the lightning, and the spectators watching were shocked.

At that moment, his body flickered through the sky like an afterimage.

A multitude of afterimages appeared in the sky.
