The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2781-James was not expecting Brielle to appear out of the blue.

Thea looked at James and smiled mischievously.

Then, she said, "I -I still have other things to do.

I'll take my leave first." After speaking, she stood up and left.

"Thea..." James stood up and wanted to chase after her but was held back by Brielle.

Brielle tugged James' arm and asked coldly, "Where's the bodhi tree?" "Let me explain, Brielle." James looked at Brielle troubledly.

Brielle let go of James, crossed her hands, and stared coldly at James.

James said solemnly, "You already know the situation on Earth and the trials humans are going through right now.

I didn't steal the bodhi tree for myself but for the sake of humanity.

I want to help humans rise up quickly." "Th-The bodhi tree is crucial for my clan's survival in the Demon Realm." Brielle glared at James and said, "No matter your purpose, I hope you'll return it to my clan." James said lightly, "Honestly, the bodhi tree is useless to me.

I've never consumed its fruit.

If it weren't for the sake of humanity, I wouldn't have bothered going through the effort of stealing it.

I won't return it.

Either you capture me back to the Demon Realm or let this matter go." James acted unreasonably.

"You..." Brielle was infuriated.

James had stolen the bodhi tree but was trying to justify himself.

She took a deep breath and forced herself to calm down.

It was useless for her to say anything since it had already been done.

She was no match against James with her current strength, so it was impossible for her to capture James back to the Demon Realm.

"I have a question for you.

Do you acknowledge me as your wife?" Brielle stared at James.

All these years, Brielle accompanied Thea on countless journeys to find James.

Since they had already proceeded with the wedding ceremony, Brielle regarded herself as James' official wife.

"About that..." James' face became solemn.

After a while, he chuckled and said, "Brielle, I only married you to steal the bodhi tree.

You can't take the marriage seriously..." "B*stard." Brielle raised her hand and thrust her palm at James.

Her powerful palm attack struck James' body, sending him flying into the distance.

James fell to the ground, and his Blood Energy churned.

Then, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

James got up with difficulty and returned to Brielle, saying, "Kill me or punish me.

Do as you please." Brielle gritted her teeth and said, "Am I that unbearable? Am I not good enough for you?" James shook his head and said, "It's not like that.

You're an excellent woman.

However, I've already got too much Karma.

It won't be good for you to be with me.

I'm doing this for your own good." Brielle said, "I'm not scared.

Since I've already married you, we can face whatever Karma that comes together." James roared, "But I'm scared!" He immediately calmed himself down and took a deep breath.

James had not figured out what exactly Karma was and had only heard Sophie mentioning it.

Even a powerhouse like Sophie was fearful of Karma.

Thus, James did not want to involve too many people.

Tears welled up in Brielle's eyes.

James looked at her and said softly, "You're a very good woman, Brielle.

I'm not worthy of you." "A-Are you afraid Thea won't accept me?" Brielle said tearfully, "I've been traveling with Thea all these years, and Thea has already accepted me.

She won't object to us being together." James shook his head and said, "It has nothing to do with Thea.

Alright, enough about this.

I have other things to settle.

Goodbye." James turned around and left.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2782-James knew he had wronged Brielle.

However, he did not want any more misunderstandings.

Thus, he chose to leave and return to his own accommodation.

Thea had already returned and was sitting on a chair outside the yard.

She was not surprised to see James coming back so soon since she knew James' character well.

She stood up and asked playfully, "Why are you back so soon? You should've at least spent some time with her.

For the past few years, she's been traveling with me just to find you." James walked over, sat down, and smiled troubledly.

"Back then, I only married her to steal the bodhi tree.

However, I do indeed owe her an apology.

I'll have to find a chance to make it up to her." Thea also sat back down.

"By the way, what're you planning to do next?" James thought for a while and said, "The elixir for suppressing the curse hasn't been developed yet, and there's no certainty on how long it will take.

Moreover, I have no idea when the third providence will appear.

Thus, I plan to head to Mount Bane to cultivate." Thea nodded and said, "Mhm.

Don't worry about Wurmstead.

I'll take care of the affairs here.

Everything will be fine." James said gratefully, "Thank you." Afterward, James stayed in Wurmstead for a while.

James did not rush to Mount Bane because he had been separated from Thea for a long time and now they've finally reunited.

He planned to stay with her for some time.

Thea said, "By the way, Winnie already left." James nodded.

"Mhm.

I know.

I hope everything goes well for her." Winnie had her own goals, and James did not want to control her.

James looked at Thea and said smilingly, "Thea, I'd also like a son too." Thea's pretty face immediately blushed.

She did not reply to him.

Instead, she stood up and walked into the room.

James smiled faintly, got up, and entered the room, not forgetting to close the door.

James stayed in Wurmstead's Imperial Palace for half a month.

Half a month later, he left for Mount Bane.

During his fight with Yorick, they destroyed many mountains.

However, Mount Bane was an extraordinary place where the Human Realm's seal was located.

Thus, there was a powerful formation around the area that had magical powers.

After half a month, all the destroyed mountains and regions within Mount Bane had been restored.

James could not help but exclaim, "Mount Bane sure is a miraculous place.

The Earth doesn't have Three Dimensions yet.

I wonder if it will slowly separate into Three Dimensions after the seal opens.

Since the Earth originally had Three Dimensions in the past, it should most likely happen, right?" James murmured to himself.

Then, he headed up a mountain.

There was an open space on the mountaintop.

On the mountaintop, there was a statue.

The statue was carved in the image of an armed man.

The statue faced the distance with a domineering temperament.

Colorful lights shone from the statue.

The light rays shot into the sky and illuminated the area.

The statue had appeared a very long time ago.

However, no one knew who the statue was carved after.

James did not know either.

Many human cultivators sat in a lotus position near the statue, absorbing the Elysian Spiritual Energy and suppressing the curse in their bodies.

James walked over and said loudly, "I'd like to cultivate here." His voice resounded, and the cultivators stopped practicing simultaneously.

Seeing that it was James, they did not say a word.

They did not linger any longer and quickly left the mountain.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2783-After everyone left the mountain, the ring on James' finger fell over.

Then, it continuously enlarged into a colossal abode.

Seeing the Celestial Abode appear on the mountaintop, James was satisfied.

He murmured, "I'll stay here for now and wait for the third providence to appear as well as for the curse-suppressing elixir to be developed." James casually waved his hand.

The Celestial Abode's gate opened.

He stepped inside and appeared on a mountain outside the Celestial Abode's city.

The mountain was full of Spiritual Energy, and countless fruits were planted in the area.

All of these fruits contained great power.

Everything within the Celestial Abode belonged to James.

Seeing the things around him, James felt a sense of accomplishment.

He stepped out and descended the mountain.

Soon, he reached the city gate and walked toward the City Lord's Mansion.

After fighting with Yorick, James acquired more experience in the Third and Fourth Stages of the Five Great Sword Realms.

He planned to go into seclusion in the Time Chamber to practice his swordsmanship.

James headed to the Time Chamber.

Meanwhile, the outside world was relatively peaceful.

However, many more Foreigners from the universe had come to Earth.

There were countless planets in the vast universe.

Each powerful planet had lords that were formidable cultivators.

These powerhouses sent their most outstanding prodigies under their sects to Earth, hoping they would seize the third providence about to appear on Earth.

One month after James entered the Celestial Abode, a Divine Door appeared on Mount Bane.

The Divine Door appeared out of nowhere on a mountaintop not far from James.

The Divine Door was 100 meters high and golden in color with many inscriptions.

Its appearance immediately attracted a lot of attention, and many prodigies gathered before the Divine Door.

“Wh-What’s this?” “why is there a door here?” “Where does the door lead?” “Could this be the third providence?” Many of the prodigies from the universe inspected the Divine Door and speculated its origin.

Meanwhile, James was still cultivating in the Time Chamber.

Suddenly, Nova appeared.

“Master.” Hearing the voice, James stopped cultivating.

He stood up, looked at Nova, and asked, “What’s the matter?” Nova replied, “A Divine Gate has appeared on Mount Bane.

If I’m not mistaken, it should be the third providence.” James was excited.

“Really?” Nova nodded.

“Yeah.” James left the Celestial Abode without hesitation.

The Celestial Abode immediately shrunk and transformed back into a ring, sliding back onto James’ finger.

When he appeared outside, he saw a golden light shining on a mountain opposite him.

He immediately flashed over to the mountain.

When he appeared on the mountaintop, he saw the Divine Door.

The Divine Door was 100 meters high and 30 meters wide.

The Divine Door was shut closed, and mysterious inscriptions were engraved on it.

James walked over.

As soon as he got close, he sensed powerful energy from the door.

"This is a fascinating door." James was shocked.

He looked around and saw the crowd of prodigies on the mountain.

All of them were powerhouses of different races from the universe.

Among them, many were as strong as Yorick.

James murmured defeatedly, "Getting the third providence will be much more challenging than the previous two providences."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2784-The mysterious door was full of powerful energy.

"That's the South Heaven Gate." While the prodigies discussed the Divine Door, a voice suddenly resounded.

Hearing the voice, many creatures turned to look for the source.

Aman in a white robe and carrying along sword walked over.

He was not very handsome but had a decent appearance.

"Walganus?" James' brows furrowed.

He walked over to Walganus and asked, "Do you know the origin of this door?" Many of the prodigies stared at Walganus, waiting for his answer.

Walganus stared at the Divine Door ahead and harked back into his memories.

He was very familiar with the Divine Door.

In the past, he used to play around this particular door.

After a while, he nodded and said, "Yeah.

I know where it's from." "Sir, what's the origin of this Divine Door?" "Yeah.

Cut to the chase and tell us." "Ts it the third providence?" They bombarded him with questions.

Walganus replied, "I don't know whether it's related to the third providence, but I do know what it is.

This Divine Door is called the South Heaven Door.

It was the entrance into the Ancient Heavenly Court.

However, the Ancient Heavenly Court Age is already history.

"So, if I'm not mistaken, this door probably leads to the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins.

"The Ancient Heavenly Court dominated the Ancient Heavenly Court Age and controlled the entire universe during then." Walganus explained to the crowd.

A creature walked over and attempted to push the South Heaven Door open.

He used all his strength but was to no avail.

"H-How do we open the door?" Many prodigies were perplexed.

Walganus walked to the South Heaven Door slowly.

Under many gazes, Walganus raised his hand.

His palm made contact with the South Heaven Door, and he urged the energy within his body.

At that moment, the South Heaven Door's golden light grew brighter.

Creak! A crack formed on the South Heaven Door.

"It's open." "He opened the door.

Who exactly is this guy? How did he open the South Heaven Door from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age?" The South Heaven Door slowly opened, and golden light burst out.

The crowd was unable to see what was hidden behind the golden light.

After Walganus opened the door, he took a deep breath.

He attempted to walk through the door but was knocked out by the golden light.

He fell to the ground and spat out blood.

Walganus got up with difficulty and roared, "Why? Why won't you let me in?! I want to see the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court!" Walganus shouted angrily.

At that moment, another creature tried to enter through the door.

Unlike Walganus, the other creatures could easily pass through the South Heaven Door.

'It's not impossible to enter the South Heaven Door.' "Could this door really be the third providence? And those over the age limit aren't able to enter?" Many prodigies began to make guesses.

After one made it through the door, another creature tried.

Soon, many of them had passed through the door.

James stood aside, not daring to act rashly.

He did not immediately enter the door but came to Walganus.

He said, "The South Heaven Door is probably the third providence.

Since you've already exceeded the age limit, you're not allowed to obtain it."
