The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2785-Walганus wiped the blood from his lips and said, "I know.

It seems I woke up a little earlier than I should've and missed my opportunity to obtain the providences." James asked, "Is there anything you'd like me to help with?" Walганus took a deep breath to calm himself down.

"During the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, countless Supernatural Powers and Secret Arts existed.

However, the strongest among them is called the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts.

It's a unique Supernatural Power my father obtained after divining the Heavenly Path." "The Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts?" James was shocked.

Back when he was in the Demon Realm, Sophie defeated three powerhouses with the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts.

Walганus said, "Yeah.

From what I know, my father recorded the Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts in the Heavenly Book.

The Heavenly Book is the Ancient Heavenly Court's treasure.

However, it has never been found throughout history.

"Thus, I suspect the Wordless Heavenly Book is still within the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

"T have no other requests except for you to help me find the Heavenly Book.

I don't want Yahir's signature martial art to be lost." James thought awhile and said, "The Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts haven't been lost.

I've actually seen Sophie use it in battle before." Walганus snickered and said, "Ha.

Sophie's father was a War God of the Ancient Heavenly Court, so he knows the technique.

However, he did not learn the complete version of it.

Thus, Sophie's Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts must also be incomplete." "T see." James came to a realization.

James patted Walganus on the shoulder and said, "Don't worry.

If the Heavenly Book is in the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins, I'll definitely bring it out to you." "Thanks a lot." Walganus expressed his gratitude.

James said smilingly, "We're like brothers.

You don't need to be so polite with me." "All the best, James.

I hope you get the third providence." After giving James a word of encouragement, Walganus left the mountain.

James watched as Walganus left.

In his eyes, Walganus always looked so lonely.

The age when he was born was long gone, and he was the only one still surviving.

He must have been carrying a lot of burdens.

"James." Two voices interrupted James' thoughts.

James turned to the sound and saw Henrik and Qusai approaching him.

He nodded in response.

Henrik walked over and said, "I've already exceeded the age restriction, so I don't have a chance to seize the third providence and won't be able to accompany you." Qusai said smilingly, "I'm still within the age restriction.

I'll go with you into the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins.

We'll be invincible together!" James smiled.

"Alright." "I'm here too." A beautiful woman walked over.

However, James frowned upon seeing her.

It was Brielle.

Brielle smiled brightly, "Do you mind if I come along?" "Hey there, Ms.

Brielle was thrilled to be addressed as Ms.

Caden and beamed with a bright smile.

"I used to despise you a lot, Henrik.

But, now I've changed my mind.

You're quite cute." Brielle grinned, exposing her white teeth.

James, on the other hand, frowned.

He did not want to travel with Brielle.

Brielle's smile was replaced with a grim expression.

"What's wrong? You don't want me here? You're blessed to have me with you.

You should be grateful."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2787-James really did not know what to say to Brielle.

He cheated her feelings and stole her family's precious bodhi tree after their wedding ceremony.

No matter what, Brielle wanted to retrieve the bodhi tree, which was crucial for the Labhrann Clan's survival.

As for her marriage with James, Brielle had not thought about how to deal with it yet.

However, she subconsciously acknowledged James as her husband.

Despite that, James did not want to accept her, and there was nothing she could do.

Qusai said smilingly, "James, you should let Brielle come with us.

Besides, didn't Henrik mention that Brielle is extraordinary and will be the first person to reach the Emperor Rank in the Apocalypse Age? Moreover, she's very fortunate, so I'm sure you'll have a share in her blessings if she's around." Hearing this, James cast a glance at Brielle.

Henrik did say that Brielle would be the first to become a Grand Emperor in the near future.

Becoming a Grand Emperor was a big deal.

In this age, there were many Quasi-Emperors.

Sophie was also one of them.

However, Brielle was bound to become a Grand Emperor even before Sophie.

Just what did she have that was so special? Moreover, how did Henrik know that Brielle would be the first Grand Emperor of this age? After thinking for a while, James nodded and said, "Since you insist on following, I won't stop you." Brielle said disdainfully, "Don't think so highly of yourself, James.

Do you think I really want to follow you?" Henrik stepped into their conversation and tried to ease the conflict.

"Alright.

Let's not talk about this anymore.

We're in the same boat, so fighting is unnecessary.

Your opponents this time are the prodigies from all over the universe.

These prodigies aren't going to be easy opponents.

Yorick was already powerful, right? A few among these prodigies are even stronger than Yorick." Qusaid nodded and said, "Yeah, let's not fight.

We should work together.

I'm sure we'll obtain the third providence.

Then, we'll become Grand Emperors! From today onward, whatever calamities or disasters will be nothing, and we'll easily become Emperors!" James and Brielle stopped bickering.

After the South Heaven Door was opened, more and more creatures headed into the unknown.

Soon, the crowd was almost gone.

James spotted some people he was acquainted with on the mountain.

Henry, the Blithe King, Delainey, and the others had also rushed over.

They walked toward James.

James asked, "Are you guys also planning to seize the third providence?" Henry said smilingly, "With you here, how will we have the chance to acquire it?" The Blithe King chuckled and said, "That's true.

We came over because we heard a Divine Door had appeared on Mount Bane." Tyrus looked at James and reminded him, "Do be careful, James." James nodded and said, "Alright.

I'll be careful." At that moment, a gorgeous woman in a black dress came over.

"Thea." James quickly approached her and asked, "Do you want to enter the South Heaven Door and explore the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins?" Thea shook her head and said, "I'm not planning to go this time.

There are too many powerhouses.

Even if I went, I wouldn't have a chance to seize the third providence.

Plus, we need someone to take care of the affairs on Earth." James was slightly disappointed with Thea's reply.

He knew Thea was powerful, and they might have a chance to obtain the third providence if they worked together.

Thea smiled and said, "You have Brielle with you.

She's very strong as well and isn't inferior to me.

If you work with her, there aren't many that can defeat you two." "She..." James smiled bitterly, not saying much in response.

Thea reminded him, "Be careful in there." James nodded and said, "Mhm.

I'll be careful." Thea said, "No matter what happens, you have to consider the bigger picture.

The most important thing is your life.

Even if you don't obtain the third providence, I'm sure there will be other means to save humanity." "Mhm.

I understand." "James..." A voice called out from a distance.

Hearing the sound, James turned around and saw a beautiful woman walking over.

Maxine appeared before James almost instantly.

She smiled and greeted again, "James."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2787-James looked at her and asked, "Are you also going to the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins?" Maxine said, "Of course! How could I miss out on the opportunity?" Thea looked at Maxine.

She knew Maxine's character very well.

Maxine called out to Thea sweetly, "Thea." Thea nodded slightly in response to her greeting.

Thea walked over to James, stretched out her hands, and fixed James' collar.

She tenderly reminded him again, "Go on.

Please be mindful on your journey.

I'll wait on Earth for your safe return." James said smilingly, "Don't worry.

I'll be alright." After a brief conversation with Thea, James walked toward the South Heaven Door.

Many people were gathered at the South Heaven Door, waiting for James.

"Are you ready, James?" asked Qusai.

James nodded.

"Yeah." Brielle said excitedly, "The Ancient Heavenly Court, the most terrifying existence during the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

They were the dominators of the universe and managed to gain control over the vast universe.

The Ancient Heavenly Court must've been extraordinary.

I'm looking forward to seeing what's within the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court." Maxine also said, "I've also heard about the Ancient Heavenly Court.

It's speculated the Ancient Heavenly Court's Lord was a Grand Emperor called the Jade Emperor.

He had lordship over the Ancient Heavenly Court and universe back then.

He also is the founder of the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts, which is one of the strongest Supernatural Powers throughout all of history." James nodded and said, "Let's go." The group set off into the South Heaven Door.

The golden light within the South Heaven Door surrounded them, and they advanced through the light.

The passage felt like a spatial passage that transported them through time.

After five minutes, the golden light gradually dissipated.

Ahead of them were borderless mountain ranges, rivers, and vast lands.

Abundant Primordial Energy swept toward them.

"There's very strong Primordial Energy here." "It's a great place for cultivating." "Yeah.

Even if we don't get the providence, it'll be worthwhile to cultivate here." Several of them began to discuss the place.

Meanwhile, James scanned his surroundings.

The passage had already disappeared.

They were within a mountain range, which did not seem normal.

No plants were within sight, and only a few strangely- shaped black rocks could be seen.

There were cracks in the ground with black mist oozing out from beneath.

The black mist rose and circled around the sky, making the place seem bizarre.

After scanning the surroundings, James murmured, "Are these the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court?" Maxine suddenly pointed ahead of them and said, "Look over there.

What's that?" James looked over and saw a tablet in the open space ahead of them.

The tablet slowly rose from the ground and appeared before them.

Taking the lead, James approached the tablet.

Soon, the group was close to the tablet.

The black tablet was 100 meters high, and some ancient scripts were engraved on it.

James stared at it for a while but could not read the words.

“What does it say?” asked James.

Qusai looked at the tablet for a while and said, “It’s just an ordinary stone tablet recording some information about the Ancient Heavenly Court.” James looked at him and asked, “Do you recognize these words?” Qusai nodded and said, “I’ve learned the language before.” James asked, “What’s written on it?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2788-James did not expect Qusai to be familiar with scripts from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

Qusai looked at the massive stone tablet ahead.

After inspecting it for a while, he said, “It’s about the history of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.” James said, “Let’s hear it.” Qusai nodded and said, “In the early period of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, the universe was in turmoil, and all creatures were in dire straits.

The founder of the Ancient Heavenly Court, the Jade Emperor, took things into his hands and created the Ancient Heavenly Court.

Then, they became the most significant force in that age and took control over the universe.

“The stone tablet also records the Jade Emperor’s achievements throughout history.

“It says he went through eighteen thousand tribulations, each lasting three hundred and thirty years respectively.

After that, he became the Ancient Heavenly Court’s Lord.” Qusai briefly went through the stuff recorded on the stone tablet.

It was a tablet that recorded the milestones of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

“Is there anything else? Does it have any records on how we can obtain the third providence?” asked James.

"No." Qusai shook his head.

Puzzled, James said, "That shouldn't be right.

When I entered Infinity City, I remember there being an explanation on obtaining the providence." The Heavenly Path gave hints on obtaining the providence while in Infinity City.

Although no one could travel back to the beginning of time to see the secret of the universe, at least there were hints.

Why were there no clues this time? Qusai shook his head, unable to provide an explanation.

He parted his lips and said, "The information on the stone tablet is useless.

Let's walk around and see if we can find anything.

James nodded.

"Alright." The group left the area.

After they left, the tablet that emerged disappeared.

James' party wandered through the ruins.

After walking around for a while, they found a dilapidated building.

Most of the building had already collapsed and was buried in the ground.

However, a portion of the building was still intact.

Even after countless years, the portion of the intact building still looked very grand and extravagant.

James pointed ahead and said, "There's a palace right ahead.

Let's go check it out." The group advanced to the gate of the abandoned palace.

After they got close, they realized how grand the palace was.

The palace gates were slightly worn out with the bottom buried in the grounds.

However, the gates still stood several hundred meters high.

Qusai said, "Step back.

I'll get rid of the dirt covering up the palace." Everyone took a few steps back.

Qusai raised his hand, and powerful energy emerged from his body.

A strong breeze came from his palm, sweeping away the soil.

The palace that was covered in soil gradually appeared in their sight.

The group walked toward the gate and saw a few ancient words.

James asked, "What do these texts mean?" Standing aside, Brielle replied, "War God Palace." James turned to Brielle and asked, "You can also read these ancient texts?" Brielle nodded and said, "Of course." "Then, why didn't you say so earlier?" "You didn't ask me." James was speechless.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2789-James touched his chin and murmured, "The War God Palace? Is this the palace of the War God of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age?

Isn't that Sophie's father? So, is this where Sophie lived when she was a child?" Qusai said, "Let's go and take a look." The group approached, and James tried to push the gate open.

However, the gate did not budge.

No matter how much force James used, he could not push it open.

"Let me try." Qusai walked over and tried pushing the gate with all his strength but was to no avail.

He said helplessly, "I can't open it either.

There seems to be a formation preventing us from opening the gate and entering." James asked, "Then, what should we do?" Qusai shrugged and said, "How would I know?" At that moment, Maxine pointed to the statue on the gate and said, "Could this statue be the key to opening the gate? I once heard my teacher say that powerhouses of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age would place statues on their gates.

These statues had their own consciousness and would guard the property.

" James looked around and saw the statue on the gate.

The statue looked slightly worn out, and it was hard to identify its appearance.

James asked, "Did your teacher tell you how to activate the statues?" Maxine thought awhile and said, "He did say the guardian will appear if an external force strikes the entrance." "Let me try." James raised his palm and thrust it at the gate.

Boom! A potent palm attack struck the gate, resulting in a loud sound.

However, the gate remained shut.

Suddenly, the statue at the gate suddenly emitted a soft white light.

Seeing the light, everyone quickly retreated to a safe distance.

Soon, an armed man holding a sword formed from the white light.

The man appeared in front of the gate and scanned his surroundings in confusion.

He turned to the dilapidated palace and murmured, "It's over.

The Heavenly Court has fallen, and our reign has ended.." At that moment, he noticed some strangers nearby.

James' party approached him.

James cupped his hands and said, "We came here through the South Heaven Door." The man in armor looked at James' party.

He nodded gently and said, "I know." "you do?" James was taken aback.

The armed man nodded and replied, "After I was awakened, a lot of information appeared in my mind.

I learned about everything about the events after the fall of the Heavenly Court and the purpose of your visit.

"There is a War Order within the War God Palace.

After you acquire it, you'll be eligible to challenge the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace.

You'll obtain a great treasure if you ascend to the last heaven.

It will allow you to leap out of the Three Dimensions, relinquish the Five Elements, and attain an Emperor's Body." The armed man looked at James.

After a while, he said, "I sense my Young Lady's aura from you.

Have you met her before?" James was taken aback.

'Young Lady? Is he talking about Sophie?' After a brief surprise, James nodded and replied, "Yeah.

I heard from Sophie that her father was the Ancient Heavenly Court's War God." "That's good." The man nodded in relief.

Immediately afterward, his body started to fade and completely disappeared.

After he vanished, the statue on the gate cracked, and the gate opened.

Although the armed man had disappeared, his voice still resounded in their ears.

"Not only can you find the War Order, which will allow you to challenge the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace, but there are numerous other boons within the War God Palace.

Whether you can obtain them will depend on your own luck." The voice gradually became weaker and dissipated.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2790-Door Gods were special existences created by the property's owner.

Just like Nova, they were not real living beings but had their own consciousness.

"What's a War Order?" After the Door God disappeared, James was puzzled.

Qusai said, "If I'm not mistaken, the Heavenly Path passed on information to the Door God when he was awakened to pass on to us."

Maxine expressed her opinion, "If that's the case, the War Order in the War God Palace is the key to ascending up the Thirty-Three Celestial Palace, where the third providence is probably hidden." James asked, "Then, what's the Thirty-Three Celestial Palace mentioned?"

Qusai explained, "During the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, the Thirty-Three Celestial Palace was a representation of power.

It was the accommodation of powerhouses in that age.

The stronger one was, the higher one could stay.

It was speculated the Jade Emperor lived in the highest level of the Thirty-Three Celestial Palace.” James said, “Then, isn’t that strange? The War God was most definitely a terrifying existence in the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, so why is his residence here instead?” Everyone shook their heads, unable to answer his question.

Brielle said, “We shouldn’t worry about this now.

Our priority now is to find the War Order.

If I’m not mistaken, War Orders must be scattered throughout the Heavenly Court’s ruins.

It’s probably like a ticket to enter the Thirty-Three Celestial Palace.

It gives us the chance to obtain the third providence.” Maxine nodded and said, ““Mhm. I agree.

Apart from the third providence, there must be many other treasures hidden within the ruins.

Didn’t the Door God also mention other treasures could be found inside the War God Palace?” James put the questions behind him for now and said, “Let’s check out the inside.” The group entered the War God Palace.

After walking through the gate, there was an open field.

The area was the size of a football field.

After passing through the field, they saw some collapsed buildings.

James took the lead, while Qusai, Maxine, and Brielle followed behind him.

The group proceeded cautiously through the War God Palace.

Swoosh! Shortly after they entered the palace, they heard an object piercing through the air.

James quickly dodged.

A stone blade had struck the area where he was previously standing, shattering the ground.

“what?” The group exchanged confused looks.

Qusai reminded, "This is the War God Palace from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

It won't be easy for us to advance, so be on the lookout." James sighed.

"It would be great if Sophie was here.

This was her residence when she was a child, and she must be incredibly familiar with this place.

It's a pity she left while I was still in Galileo." James missed Sophie.

When she was around, nothing could pose a problem.

No one present knew Sophie, but they did not ask any questions.

Qusai looked at the stone blade on the ground and carefully scanned the surroundings.

Then, he said puzzledly, "Where did this stone blade come from?" Qusai tried to advance.

He walked to where the sword blade had landed and tried to take another step forward.

Suddenly, several golems appeared.

These golems had consciousness and held stone blades in their hands.

James scanned the area and saw a total of 18 golems.

He questioned, "Do we have to get through this golem formation to advance further?" Qusai nodded and said, "That's most likely the case.

Since there's a War Order and other good fortunes here, it's definitely going to be challenging for us to proceed.

The War God Palace must be full of traps, so be careful." Brielle stepped forward and said, "I'll test the golem formation's power." After speaking, she jumped toward the golem formation.

The golems launched fierce attacks at her as soon as she got close.
