

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2791

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2791-"Watch out!" James yelled.

The moment Brielle appeared in the golem formation, the golems immediately attacked her ferociously.

Standing in different positions, the golems continuously swung their stone swords, and unrivaled Sword Energy burst forth.

Though the golems' speed was extraordinary, Brielle's speed was comparable to theirs.

James could only see figures darting about.

Ten seconds later, a figure flew out.

Brielle crashed heavily to the ground and spurted out a mouthful of blood.

Maxine hurriedly rushed over to her and helped her up, asking, "Are you alright?" Brielle wiped the blood trace off her lips and shook her head slightly, saying, "I'm fine.

I just never expected the golem formation to be this terrifying.

The golems' sword techniques are impeccable, and there wasn't an opening at all.

I could only last a few seconds." Everyone else's expressions turned grim.

Qusai looked at James and asked, "James, you possess greater swordsmanship.

Did you see an opening anywhere?" James shook his head and said, "To be frank, I couldn't see anything.

The golems' speed was too extraordinary." Saying that, James shut his eyes and recalled the movements in the golem formation.

In his mind, the golems began moving.

In an instant, their positions changed, and in just a few short seconds, the golems had changed positions numerous times while attacking simultaneously.

"Impressive..." James said and sighed, "The individual who created the golem formation must be an unparalleled fighter.

I can't understand anything with my current strength." "What should we do, then?" Qusai said anxiously, "The providence is right before our eyes.

Are we going to return empty-handed?" "Maybe I should give it a try," Maxine stood up and said.

James glanced at her and asked, "Are you stronger than Brielle?" He did not believe that Maxine's strength was greater than Brielle's.

Maxine said, "I'm incomparable to Brielle.

However, when observing the golem formation, I noticed that the formation uses a Sword Formation created by the principles of the Figure of Nine Squares and Eight Trigrams.

Though the golem formation is at an advanced level, we can break the formation by mastering the Figure of Nine Squares and Eight Trigrams." All these years, James had learned many things from the Patriarch of the Azurean Clan in the Demon Realm.

Though she was not proficient in the fundamental principles of formations, she knew the basics.

"Alright then, give it a try," James nodded and said.

A sword appeared in Maxine's hand, and she charged into the golem formation.

James observed intently.

Under his watchful gaze, all eighteen golems attacked Maxine ferociously and seamlessly, leaving her no room to mount an effective defense.

However, Maxine's movements were bizarre as she continuously dodged the golems' attacks.

Though she understood the principles of the formation, the swordsmanship of the golems was too advanced and elusive.

As she had only recently become a Sage, she was no match for the golems.

She was defeated after holding up for a few minutes.

"Not bad." James praised, "You lasted for seven minutes, much longer than Brielle." Maxine rolled her eyes and said, "Stop making sarcastic remarks and think of a solution." James shrugged and said, "What else can I do? If we can't pass through the golem formation, then so be it.

There must be War Orders in some other places.

We can simply go somewhere else."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2792

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2792-James' desire to obtain the third providence was low.

The third providence was mainly about Leaping out of the Three Realms, Relinquishing the Five Elements, and Attaining an Emperor Physical Body.

Once he obtained an Emperor Physical Body, he would be spared of the Three Apocalypses and Nine Tribulations.

However, obtaining an Emperor Physical Body did not mean that his body would acquire strength that was equivalent to the Emperor Rank.

It was merely a title of sorts.

The greatest benefit of all would be that he would be spared of the Three Apocalypses and Nine Tribulations, which were the biggest obstacles on the journey of cultivation.

They were the keys to preventing all living beings from achieving breakthroughs, and countless powerful figures had perished by the tribulations.

However, there were always two sides to the same coin.

Tribulations were able to nurture an individual, thereby allowing them to grow in adversity.

"Let's think of a way," Brielle said while looking at James.

"Why don't you give it a try?" "Forget it." James immediately turned down her offer, saying, "I don't know anything about Formations.

There's no point in wasting everyone's time.

"I might not even last a few minutes." Maxine looked at James and said, "Please reconsider, James.

This is the palace of the war god of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

The war god was the most powerful individual in the Heavenly Court.

"There must be countless providences inside." James said, "But I don't know anything about Formations." Maxine said, "I'll help you out." James looked at the others.

Seeing that everyone's gazes were fixed on him, he realized that they were looking forward to entering the palace.

After some contemplation, he said, "In that case, I'll do my best to learn." Then, Maxine began explaining the principles of the Figure of Nine Squares and Eight Trigrams to James.

The Figure of Nine Squares and Eight Trigrams was rather simple.

However, once combined, the countless combinations would become exponentially complicated.

Maxine told James everything she knew.

James was a fast learner at his rank.

So, learning this was an easy feat for him.

In just a few short days, he had already grasped the fundamentals.

"Are you done, James?" Maxine asked.

James nodded and said, "I think so.

I'll give it a try." A purple sword appeared in James' hand.

It was the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, the Imperial Weapon of an Ancestral God.

Everyone had seen James battle against Yorick using this sword.

However, they knew nothing about the sword's origins.

Seeing James pull out this sword once more, Maxine asked, "What is this sword, James?" Qusai and Brielle were looking at James.

Though they had known him from long ago in the Demon Realm, James had yet to obtain the sword at that time.

As James held the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in his hand, purple light permeated the air, and powerful Sword Energy materialized from within it.

Wearing a smug look, he said, "This is no ordinary sword.

It's the Imperial Weapon of an Ancestral God." "An Ancestral God?!" They exclaimed at the same time.

“Yes, » James nodded and told them about the events that unfolded.

Hearing this, everyone was envious.

It was an Imperial Weapon, an object that did not exist in this era.

A single Imperial Weapon like this was enough to stir up a commotion.

“Alright now, enough chit-chatting.

Quick, give it a try.” Maxine urged James.

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, James leaped into the air and entered the golem formation.

Immediately, all eighteen golems turned to him and attacked him ferociously.

At that instant, many swords came slashing at him.

Their speed was so extraordinary that James almost could not react in time.

Fortunately, he already knew of the golems’ Sword Moves.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2793

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2793-He swiftly dodged their attacks and struck back.

However, the golems were sturdy.

Even with the Imperial Weapon of an Ancestral God in hand, he could not obliterate them.

This was not because the Ancestral God’s Imperial Weapon was weak.

Rather, it was because James’ rank was still low, and as such, he could not fully utilize the power of the weapon.

A fierce battle erupted.

The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in James’ hand clashed with a golem’s sword.

Boom! A deafening blast reverberated throughout the area, and shapeless Sword Energy shredded through the air.

At that moment, eight swords surrounded him simultaneously and struck his vital points.

In the blink of an eye, he dodged the attacks and slashed with the Divine Sword.

A wave of Sword Energy appeared, forming a circle shape that blocked the surrounding attacks.

James already knew that the golems were positioned based on the Figure of Nine Squares and Eight Trigrams.

Even so, breaking through the Formation was nigh impossible.

Though he had witnessed many sophisticated sword techniques before, the Sword Moves of the golem formation were much more complicated than he initially thought.

The fierce battle continued before the palace.

With his countless signature Sword Moves, James parried the golems' attack.

In the beginning, he was able to hold his ground.

However, after a few rounds, he began losing ground.

In the blink of an eye, he retreated from the golem formation.

Immediately, the golems stopped attacking him.

"How was it, James?" Maxine asked.

James stood beside her and contemplated briefly before saying, " Their Sword Moves were profound and sophisticated.

I have no way of breaking the formation at the moment.

Now, I need to learn the essence of the opponent's Sword Moves." This time, James fought against the golems for roughly thirty minutes.

James sat in a lotus position on the ground and shut his eyes, reminiscing about the scenery where he fought against the golems.

Their Sword Moves resurfaced in his mind repeatedly, and he kept searching for a way to defeat them.

Seeing that James was in the midst of gaining insight, the others did not bother him.

After sitting in a lotus position for the whole day, James stood up once more, grabbed the Divine Sword, and charged toward the golem formation again.

This time, he lasted for two hours.

Two hours later, he was defeated.

However, he did not yield.

Instead, he kept trying to learn the Sword Moves of the golems and use his own to break them.

This time, he spent three days gaining insight into the moves.

Three days later, he fought against the golems again.

However, he was yet again defeated.

The first attempt...

The second attempt...

The tenth attempt...

Each time James tried to fight against the golems, he would spend a longer time inside the golem formation.

In the blink of an eye, everyone had been in the palace for three whole months.

Over the last three months, James had been trying to break through the formation and gain insight into different sword techniques.

He had once fought against Heavenly Path Embodiments and learned countless sophisticated Sword Moves.

His swordsmanship had now reached a terrifying level.

Now, he only required a short period of time to learn any Sword Move.

After three months, James had learned pretty much everything about the golems' sword techniques.

If he could merge these sword techniques into his Sword Moves, his swordsmanship would increase by leaps and bounds.

"Is everything going fine, James? It's been three months.

If you can't, just give up already and search elsewhere.

Now that so much time has passed, the others might have already obtained many providences and a War Order," Maxine asked upon seeing James standing before the golem formation.

James looked at her while wearing a composed and confident look on his face, saying, "Don't worry.

It's going to work this time.

P"1] break the golem formation in no time!" James was confident this time.

Qusai was not in a rush.

Sitting on the doorstep, he said with a bright smile, "James' sword techniques have improved tremendously recently.

I consider this a providence."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2794

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2794-Qusai was right.

James had obtained a providence.

The sword techniques performed by the golems were top-notch, which no ordinary person could ever create.

The individual who created the sword techniques must have been distinguished.

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, James' figure flashed, and he charged toward the golem formation once more.

Immediately, the golems attacked him ferociously.

He had lost track of the number of times he challenged the golems.

By now, he could memorize the golems' attacks by heart.

Faced against the golems' Sword Moves, he was composed as he sought to break them.

His understanding of the golems' sword techniques had reached an unparalleled level.

As such, he was able to break the golems' Sword Moves with ease.

He fought for a couple of hours.

In the end, seizing an opportunity, he performed a deadly Sword Move at extraordinary speed and broke the golem formation.

The golems gradually stopped.

Upon seeing this, James was pleased.

He walked out of the formation and said with a smug smile, "It worked.

The golems have stopped attacking.

We can now enter the palace safely." "You freak," Brielle could not help but say.

She believed herself to possess enormous potential.

However, her swordsmanship was nowhere near James'.

Qusai said excitedly, "Alright now, let's get going." They traversed the golem formation and entered the palace.

"Wait." James suddenly stopped.

Maxine turned around and asked, "What's wrong?" James stopped to look at the eighteen golems.

Qusai turned around and asked, "Are you interested in these golems, James?" James nodded and said, "These golems are extremely powerful.

Even my Divine Sword couldn't make a dent in them.

If I take them with me, they might come in handy." James knew just how terrifying these golems were.

Even a powerful figure like Brielle could only go up against them for a few seconds.

This meant that these golems possessed terrifying sword techniques.

James wanted to take them along with him.

However, no matter how hard he tried, he could not store them away in the Celestial Abode.

After making numerous attempts, he could only give up.

“What a shame...” James sighed.

Qusai comforted, “It’s alright.

This is the War God Palace, the palace of the most powerful figure of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

There must be plenty of providence in here.” Now, James could only hope that there would be other providences in the palace.

Otherwise, he would have wasted months honing his sword techniques.

Maxine looked at the numerous palaces before her and asked, “ Where should we go first?” James said, “The main hall, of course.” Leading the way, he headed straight toward the main hall.

The main hall was a relatively intact place.

Hundred of meters in height, the gate was firmly shut.

As they arrived at the main hall, James pushed the door open.

As the door was heavy, it only opened after James exerted a great deal of strength.

Creak...

The door slowly opened, and layers of accumulated dust and dirt fell onto James’ shoulders.

James patted them away.

After the door opened, they walked in.

The main hall was huge.

Spacious and empty inside, there were a few stone pillars around them.

Mysterious characters and inscriptions were inscribed on the stone pillars.

However, even Brielle and Qusai had no idea what they meant.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2795

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2795-After briefly searching the area, they found nothing useful.

Just as they were planning to leave...

"What's this?" Maxine asked.

Hearing this, everyone turned around and looked straight ahead.

There was a throne at the front of the main hall.

At that moment, a glimmering white light was hovering above the throne.

They stared at the white light.

Then, everyone realized that the white light was a token.

The token was small, only the size of a palm.

Circle in shape, mysterious inscriptions were inscribed on the token.

"Could this be the War Order? Is this the key to reaching the Thirty -third Stage?" James murmured puzzledly.

Then, he walked toward the token and waved his hand casually.

An immense power materialized in his palm and forcibly pulled the dazzling white light in the air down.

The War Order appeared in James' hands.

Holding the token in his hand, he scrutinized the item.

Mysterious inscriptions were inscribed on it.

The others leaned forward to have a look.

However, no matter how much they scrutinized the item, they could not find anything extraordinary about it.

"Maybe this is the War Order." Pensive, James said.

Just as he was about to store the token away and start searching elsewhere, a figure suddenly flashed.

In the blink of an eye, the shadow snatched the War Order from James' hand.

James never expected anyone to be bold enough to make a move against him.

The moment the token was snatched away, he summoned his full strength and struck the figure with great force.

Their palms collided.

James could only sense an immense power spreading throughout his body, shattering his meridians and sending him flying.

Then, he crashed against the wall of the main hall and collapsed to the ground, spurting out a mouthful of blood.

Lying on the ground, James catalyzed Demonic Energy and swiftly healed his injuries.

At that moment, Brielle and Qusai had already launched an attack against the mysterious person.

However, despite being outnumbered, the mysterious person was not at a disadvantage.

Instead, his power overwhelmed theirs, and he sent them flying with his powerful Palm Energy.

“Hahaha! Thanks for the War Order!” After sending Brielle and Qusai flying, the mysterious person’s laughter boomed.

Then, he swiftly fled the palace.

“Curses!” James cursed.

This was the first time someone had dared to snatch something from him.

His stuff was forcibly taken from him, and he would be deeply humiliated if word spread.

At that moment, the injuries on his body had almost completely rejuvenated.

Then, he used Sacrilegious Ascension, the power of the dragon bones, and Elemental Inversion.

His aura burst forth.

Before activating these powers, he stood no chance against the mysterious person and was injured by a single move.

After summoning his full strength, he swiftly chased after the enemy while holding the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in his hand.

Though the enemy's speed was extraordinary, James' speed was not beneath him.

After giving chase for some time, he caught up with the enemy.

His body flashed, and he appeared before the enemy in the blink of an eye.

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, he blocked the enemy's path of escape.

At long last, James could finally have a clear glimpse of the enemy's face.

He was obese, and his black hair was long and disheveled.

As there was hair all over his face, he resembled a gorilla.

"Haha..." The ape-like man looked at James and snickered.

"I never thought you'd be able to catch up to me.

As expected of humanity's greatest prodigy." James pointed the Divine Sword at him and said coldly, "Return the token, and I might just spare your life." "You'd have to make me, I'm afraid."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2796

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2796-The man was covered in hair, his build was sturdy and huge, and he was laughing haughtily.

James could sense an immense power emanating from within the man.

It was pure physical power.

At that moment, Maxine, Brielle, and Qusai had caught up as well and surrounded the ape-like man.

Scanning his surroundings, the man said smilingly, "Ganging up on me?" James ordered, "Back off." The others obeyed.

"you have balls, I have to say." The man laughed and said, "I'll return the token if you can defeat me." Saying that, his body flashed, and he charged toward James at extraordinary speed.

Seeing that the man was unarmed, James stored the Divine Sword away and raised his hand to block his attack.

Their fists collided.

James could sense an immense power spreading through his arm and to his entire body.

He staggered backward, and the Blood Energy in his body churned at the same time.

Just as he was about to spurt out a mouthful of blood, he forcibly swallowed it back.

The ape-like man also stumbled backward.

“Huh...” Looking at James who staggered backward, he asked in shock, “Not bad.

Your power is much greater than before.” James’ arm was numb.

Looking at the ape-like man, he uttered word by word, “Who are you? Why did you snatch away the token that I so painstakingly sought?” “Listen well, kiddo.” The man looked at James, his tone full of scorn.

“My name is Milo Laszlo.

My original form is a Demonic Ape.” “A Demonic Ape?” James froze.

“That’s right.” Milo said, “I’m a member of the well-renowned Primordial Ape Race.

By the way, the Sacrilegious Ascension that you cultivate is a secret art of our race.

Seeing that you’ve cultivated the signature cultivation method of our race, I decided to let you go.

Otherwise, I would’ve done more than just snatch the War Order from you.” Hearing this, James was lost in contemplation.

Milo was strong, especially his physical prowess, which was at least at the Sage Rank’s Tenth Stage.

Such physical strength was terrifying.

Not only that, but he must have been well-versed in Sacrilegious Ascension as well.

James knew that he might not emerge victorious in a fight.

Besides, Sacrilegious Ascension had deep connections with the Primordial Ape Race.

“I don’t wanna take your life.

Leave now.” Saying that, Milo disappeared without a trace.

James did not give chase.

Qusai walked toward him and asked, “Are we letting him go just like that?” “Let him take the token.

There must be many other War Orders in the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

Let’s just search elsewhere.” James dispersed Elemental Inversion, Sacrilegious Ascension, and the power of the dragon bones.

Then, he lay on the ground to rejuvenate his shattered spine.

There were a few reasons why he did not give chase.

One, Sacrilegious Ascension, the signature cultivation method of the Primordial Ape Race, had resolved many crises for him.

James treated letting him go as giving back to the Demonic Ape Race.

Two, even if he fought, he might not stand a chance.

That was why he chose to give up the token.

Since James did not make a move, Brielle and Qusai did not act impulsively.

They knew just how terrifying Milo was.

Even if they combined forces, they might not stand a chance.

Soon, the injuries on James’ body had rejuvenated.

He stood up and said, “Let’s return to the palace and search again.” They returned to the palace.

As they had broken the golem formation inside the palace, the golems no longer attacked them when they entered once more.

They opted not to search the main hall but to search the other palaces instead.

“The Alchemy Chamber.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2797

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2797-They arrived at the gates of a palace, on which some ancient characters were inscribed.

Maxine looked at the gates and said, “ James, this should be where the war god of the Ancient Heavenly Court keeps his elixir.” “Mhm.” Qusai nodded and said, “Elixirs are useful for all cultivators.

I hope there’ll be some remaining elixirs in this palace.

If I can obtain even a few of them, it would be a great providence.” “Let’s have a look around.” James walked toward the door and pushed it open.

Creak... The door opened.

At that moment, an alluring fragrance came from inside.

The fragrance was so concentrated that it stimulated James’ body.

His pores relaxed and opened up, frantically absorbing the power contained inside the fragrance.

“This smells so good...” “What concentrated power...” The others were shocked.

James looked at the Alchemy Chamber.

The chamber was only a few hundred square meters big, and there were many cupboards inside.

On the cupboards were a few tiny drawers, on which characters were inscribed.

However, James could not understand the meaning of those words.

He walked in and casually opened one of the drawers.

There was nothing inside.

The others did the same but found nothing.

Residues of herb powder could be found inside some of the drawers.

Perhaps the elixir had dissolved after a long time had passed.

“Huh?” Someone exclaimed.

Hearing this, everyone turned to look at Brielle.

She had opened a drawer, taken out a shining bottle, and poured out a golden elixir from within.

The elixir was the size of a thumb.

It radiated a dazzling golden light and exuded an alluring fragrance.

“James, there’s an intact elixir!” She shouted.

James walked toward her, and so did Maxine and Qusai.

The two glanced at the drawer.

“The Elixir of Nine Deaths?!” Maxine said, “This is the Elixir of Nine Deaths.” James asked, “What’s that?” Maxine said, “How would I know? I’m merely translating the words on it.” James looked at Qusai and asked, “Have you heard of this before?” Qusai shook his head and said, “I’ve never heard of this.

This is an object from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age after all.” Maxine said, “Most of the elixir here has already been corroded and dissolved.

Only this elixir remained intact.

This must be a divine object.” James thought about it and said, “Hold on.

Let me ask the Spirit Tool inside the Celestial Abode.” “Spirit Tool, have you ever heard of the Elixir of Nine Deaths?” James asked the Spirit Tool in the Celestial Abode.

Soon, the Spirit Tool responded, “Yes, I have.” Delighted, James hurriedly asked, “What are its origins?” The Spirit Tool said, “Back when I was traveling with Emperor Jabari, we once went to a ruin and unearthed an ancient text, in which there were records of the Elixir of Nine Deaths.

“The Elixir of Nine Deaths is insanely powerful.

Legend has it that you will obtain nine lives upon consuming it.

Besides that, each time you die, your strength will increase by leaps and bounds.

Only a cultivator at the Grand Emperor Rank and above is capable of refining this elixir.

However, the formula of the Elixir of Nine Deaths is long lost.

This is something from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age which never once showed itself in the Primordial Age.” Hearing this, James breathed a sigh of relief.

Upon consumption of the elixir, he would obtain nine lives.

It was terrifying.

No wonder the elixir was still intact.

It turned out that only a cultivator at the Grand Emperor Rank or above was capable of cultivating it.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2798

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2798-“The Elixir of Nine Deaths is also called the Elixir of Nine Great Tribulations.

Upon consumption, you'll obtain an opportunity to increase your strength.

Each time your life is hanging by a thread, the elixir's power will be activated, and you'll obtain a providence.

You will have a total of nine providences.

This means that you'll obtain nine lives after consuming this elixir.” The Spirit Tool explained.

James now knew how terrifying this elixir was.

The others looked at James.

Brielle asked, “So, what did you learn?” James narrated the whole truth.

Hearing this, Brielle was stunned.

She asked, “S-Seriously?” James shrugged and said, “That's what the Spirit Tool inside my Celestial Abode said.

The Spirit Tool was created by a Grand Emperor.

In the Primordial Age, he traveled far and wide alongside the Grand Emperor.

As such, he's very knowledgeable..

As for the authenticity of his claims, I can't be sure.” Brielle handed the elixir to James with a bright smile and said, “ For you, Darling.” James froze.

"Mee" "Why? You don't want this?" The smile on Brielle's face froze, and she said coldly, "This is a rare elixir.

I won't give it to just anyone.

If you won't have it, I'll simply claim it as mine." James said with a serious look on his face, "Since you were the one who found it, it should be yours.

Besides, the elixir has impressive attributes.

You should take the elixir for yourself." James turned down Brielle's offer, not because he did not wish to obtain the elixir, but because he was an honest and upright man.

Since Brielle was the one who found the elixir, it was rightfully hers.

"Just take it already." Brielle forcibly stuffed the elixir into James' hand and said with a serious look on her face, "You're the greatest figure of humanity, not to mention that you possess a terrifying curse.

You might lose your life one day.

This elixir is important to you." "Miss, are you cursing me in a roundabout way?" Displeased, James said.

"Yeah, I am." Brielle said, "Alright now, stop turning me down and take the elixir already." Since Brielle insisted, it would be inappropriate for James to refuse her offer.

"I guess I owe you one, then." James took the elixir.

Only then did Brielle smile.

Afterward, the others continued searching elsewhere.

However, the elixir was the only one they could find inside the Alchemy Chamber.

As James held the Elixir of Nine Deaths in his hand, he could feel a faint warmth and the immense power contained in the elixir.

Upon consuming it, his strength would be greatly boosted.

"Consuming elixirs once in a while will not affect the foundations of cultivation." The Spirit Tool's voice came from inside the Celestial Abode.

The Spirit Tool knew that James wanted to consume the elixir.

Yet, at the same time, he was concerned that his strength would increase too rapidly, thereby affecting his foundations.

After hearing the Spirit Tool's advice, James believed he should consume the elixir.

"You guys should search elsewhere while I find a place to enter a closed-door meditation and consume the elixir," James said after brief contemplation.

As his rank was insignificant, considering that he only recently reached the Sage Rank, there was a huge disparity between him and the other prodigies in the universe.

As such, he had to drastically increase his strength in a short period of time.

That way, he would be able to compete for the third providence.

Maxine glanced at James and asked, "Right here?" "Mhm." James nodded.

"Alright then." Maxine said, "We'll take a stroll around here, I guess." James did not follow them.

Instead, he returned to the palace and arrived at the golem formation before sitting in a lotus position on the ground.

Looking at the elixir in his hand, he asked, "Spirit Tool, can you create a Time Formation?" "Consider it done." The Spirit Tool's voice came from the Celestial Abode.

Then, mysterious characters materialized on the ring around James' finger before gathering to form a Time Formation.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-