The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2799-“Thank you, Spirit Tool.”

James was full of gratitude.

Then, without any hesitation, he swallowed the Elixir of Nine Deaths whole.

As the elixir went down his throat, a warm current circulated throughout his body.

This warm current that possessed immense and concentrated power circulated throughout his limbs and body.

James' pores opened, and golden light poured out. His body gradually floated into the air as if he was ascending to heaven.

“What immense power...As expected of an elixir refined by a cultivator at the Grand Emperor Rank and above.”

James took a deep breath.

Without any hesitation, he catalyzed a cultivation method and frantically absorbed the energy inside his body, transforming them into Sage Energy.

The Elemental Inversion Formation was inscribed in his body.

Therefore, even if he did not cultivate, Elemental Sage Energy would still increase steadily.

However, after crossing into the Sage Rank, it would be very difficult to achieve a breakthrough without obtaining a providence.

The power buried deep beneath James began to surface.

Soon, he reached the pinnacle of the Sage Rank's First Stage.

He could sense grey clouds appearing in the sky, blocking the surrounding Empyrean Spiritual Energy.

As such, he could no longer continue absorbing the energy.

He knew that a Realm Barrier had appeared.

To continue absorbing Empyrean Spiritual Energy to increase his strength, he would first have to break through the Realm Barrier.

After breaking through the barrier, he would achieve a breakthrough.

“Break!”

James raised his fists furiously, and immense power materialized as he struck with his fists.

The Realm Barrier of the First Stage was immediately shattered.

At that precise moment, a colorful light descended from the sky and enveloped him.

Then, the seal inside his body appeared.

Without the seal, this should be when his Sage Energy would soar.

However, there was now a seal inside his body, which had placed a curse on the increment and circulation of Sage Energy inside his body.

James composed himself and focused wholeheartedly on breaking the seal.

However, at that moment, the power of the curse materialized.

This time, the curse’s power was terrifying.

The scenery before James vanished, and he could feel that he had been transported to an unknown place.

A deadly silence filled the air, and his surroundings were enveloped in a black mist.

The black mist kept taking the forms of unknown beasts, which attacked him ferociously.

Soon, he began to suffer injuries.

“Dammit!”

James cursed.

“Now of all times?!”

He took a deep breath to forcibly calm himself down.

The illusory images before him vanished, and so did the unknown beasts formed from the black mist.

However, the curse’s power continued to attack him repeatedly.

At that moment, the seal inside his body had only just been activated.

As such, he could not use Demonic Energy to heal his injuries.

The only way out now was to break through the seal as soon as possible.

Otherwise, he would perish at the hands of the curse.

James did not dare let his guard down and concentrated wholeheartedly on breaking the seal.

“Blergh!”

As his injuries were too grave, he spurted out a mouthful of blood and collapsed to the ground.

At that moment, cracks began to appear on the surface of his skin, caused by the curse’s power that was frantically damaging his body.

‘What should I do? Am I going to be killed by the curse?’ James panicked.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2800-James absorbed the power of the Elixir of Nine Deaths to break the Realm Barrier.

However, at that moment, the seal appeared.

As the seal appeared, so did the curse’s power.

Under normal circumstances, he would surely be able to resist the curse.

However, now that the seal had appeared, what little strength he could summon was insufficient to activate Demonic Energy, which prevented him from healing his injuries.

His internal injuries were getting increasingly grave.

In mere seconds, cracks appeared on his body and kept increasing in size.

Based on the current speed, his physical body would soon be completely corroded by the curse’s power.

Meanwhile, he needed at least three days to break through the first seal.

Only by breaking through the first seal could he activate Demonic Energy to heal his injuries.

James was filled with consternation as his vision grew increasingly blurry.

Even so, he never forgot to strike the seal repeatedly with every ounce of strength he could muster. He wanted to break the seal and unlock more power. He collapsed to the ground and slowly closed his eyes. His pulse grew weaker as his condition worsened.

Upon collapsing to the ground, his body exuded a black aura.

“Am I going to die?”

James was frustrated.

He did not wish to die just like that.

There were many things he had yet to do.

However, he was powerless to do anything.

In the end, he lost consciousness.

A day after he lost consciousness, immense power suddenly materialized from within his body.

This power immediately shattered the seal inside his body, and Demonic Energy automatically seeped out to rejuvenate his grave injuries.

Meanwhile, his Sage Energy started increasing rapidly.

His rank surged from the Sage Rank's Second Stage directly to the Fourth Stage.

James slowly regained consciousness.

Immediately, he sensed an immense power inside him.

“What?”

He was stunned.

“I-I'm alive! Not only that, but I've made multiple breakthroughs in a row. What's going on?”

James was confused.

Then, realization dawned on his face.

“Oh, right! This must be the power of the Elixir of Nine Deaths. Upon consumption, the elixir would save my life as long as my life was in peril. Not only that, but it also increased my strength drastically.”

James was reminded of the elixir. He exclaimed, “What a magical elixir!”

He never thought that he would experience a near-death scenario and that he would be saved by the Elixir of Nine Deaths.

If not for the elixir, he would have been killed when the curse’s power appeared while he was making a breakthrough. He took a deep breath.

Then, he catalyzed the Sage Energy inside his body, which was much greater than it had been before.

As he was worried that his rank was unstable, he tried to suppress the power inside his body.

However, the power was pure and concentrated, and he was unable to suppress it.

“Looks like my rank isn’t unstable at the moment...”

James murmured to himself, completely relieved.

“I’m already at the Sage Rank’s Fourth Stage. Based on the current speed, I’ll soon reach the Sage Rank’s Thirty-third Stage, achieve Consolidation, and cross into the Divine Rank.”

James now had a better understanding of the cultivation ranks.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2801-In James’ opinion, he needed to at least cross into the Divine Rank to be considered a powerful figure.

All living beings beneath the Divine Rank were considered insignificant creatures.

Now, his strength was limited, and he had never interacted with a cultivator at the Divine Rank.

As such, he had no idea how powerful they would be.

After thinking for a moment, James stood up and walked out of the Time Formation.

The power of the Elixir of Nine Deaths had already been absorbed, and all remaining power was concealed inside his body.

Next time when his life was in peril once more, the power of the elixir would be activated.

After consuming the Elixir of Nine Deaths, James now had some sort of protection.

He had obtained enormous benefits from the closed-door meditation, and his rank and power had increased drastically.

If he were to face off against Milo of the Primordial Ape Race, he would surely be able to defeat him this time.

Once he left the Time Formation, he headed straight toward the war god's palace.

In a dilapidated palace, he found Brielle, Maxine, and Qusai.

"How did it go? Did you get anything?"

Hearing a commotion, everyone turned around.

They froze when they saw James.

Brielle said, "I thought you were in a closed-door meditation. It's only been a day."

Wearing a grim expression, James said, "I entered a closed-door meditation in a Time Formation. If not for the Elixir of Nine Deaths, I'd have already been killed."

Hearing this, Maxine could not help but ask, "What do you mean? What happened?"

James narrated the chain of events that unfolded.

Hearing this, Brielle said smilingly, "See? I was right to offer you the elixir. You owe me your life."

"Fine, fine..."

James shrugged and said, "I guess I owe you one now."

Qusai looked at the two.

To him, James and Brielle's relationship was different from before.

He smiled and said, "Thank goodness everything was alright. In my opinion, you should die a few more times. That way, your strength will rise rapidly. Each time you die, you might obtain a providence, and your strength would increase by two stages. If you die nine times, you will reach the Sage Rank's Twentieth Stage."

James rolled his eyes and paid no heed to Qusai. He did not wish to die in exchange for increasing his strength.

After all, the Elixir of Nine Deaths was merely insurance.

He shifted the topic and asked, "What about you guys? Did you find anything?"

Maxine shook her head and said, "We found nothing. Perhaps too much time has passed, and most of the items inside the palace have corroded with time."

Pensive, James said, "Perhaps the providence described by the Door God is the Elixir of Nine Deaths... I have a feeling that there's a providence inside the palace somewhere that we haven't found yet."

Brielle said, "Let's continue searching, then."

Then, they continued searching the place.

However, after scrutinizing every nook and cranny of the palace, they could not find anything that was useful.

It appeared that the providence the Door God was referring to was the Elixir of Nine Deaths.

Unable to find anything else, they turned to leave.

The ruins of the Heavenly Court were huge, and the region was so spacious that it was endless in sight.

Besides, many living beings entered the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

However, up until now, James had only encountered Milo.

After leaving the ruins of the War God Palace, they entered an abandoned city.

This city was huge, and the buildings there were magnificent.

Though many had collapsed and completely reduced to rubble, one could discern the grandeur of the city just by observing the ruins.

As they arrived at the city gate, they immediately sensed many different auras.

James stopped and said, "There are living beings in this area. Be on your guard."

Qusai said nonchalantly, "Since Milo already knew about the War Order, the other living beings must have known about this as well. In my opinion, since we have lost a War Order, we should seize the others' War Orders."

Brielle nodded and said, "I agree. Seizing their belongings is much more convenient than having to search by ourselves." James grinned and said, "I share the same opinion."

James would not play fair and square against these Foreigners. He would steal their belongings by any means necessary.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2802-There had never been fairness or justice in this world where the strongest reigned supreme.

To survive in this cruel world, one must constantly increase one's strength.

James was a firm believer in this.

From the humans of the Three- Thousand Sealed Realms to the Foreigners who all came to Earth uninvited, they had been bullying the natives on Earth since the very beginning.

If he had not resolved the crisis through his strength, humans on Earth would have already been enslaved.

Thus, he had no objections to seizing the others' War Orders.

As they entered the city, a group of people immediately walked toward them.

"James..." came a voice.

James turned around and saw a few familiar faces— Marcello and Jace of the Demon Realm's Azurean Clan.

Beside them were a few unfamiliar faces.

However, they exuded terrifying auras.

It was apparent that they were prodigies of the Azurean Clan.

Marcello swiftly walked toward them and asked, "How did it go? Did you find any War Orders?"

The moment Marcello asked, James immediately knew that word had spread.

He said, "I got one by chance, but someone stole it."

"What?" Jace froze.

He knew of James' strength.

Among the living beings competing for the third providence, he was certainly ranked in the top twenty.

Who exactly was capable of seizing his belongings?

"Mhm."

James wore a bitter smile as he said, "It was a member of the Primordial Ape Race. He's powerful, and his physical strength is especially terrifying. It must have reached the Tenth Stage."

Hearing this, Marcello frowned and said, "You have to work harder, James. News has already begun to spread. There are only thirty-three War Orders in the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court. Once all of them appear, the Thirty-three Stages will be activated."

Jace nodded and said, "Indeed... Only thirty-three living beings will be capable of competing for the final providence. Without a War Order, you won't be able to compete."

James asked, "Which powerful figures have obtained a War Order?"

Jace shook his head, "I don't know myself. However, there shouldn't be many War Orders left. There's a volcano called Mount Flames at the southwest of this location. I have received news that there'll be a War Order there."

James froze momentarily before asking, "How did you learn of this?"

Back then, he entered the War God Palace and obtained a War Order. However, he had no idea that there was even a War Order there in the first place.

Jace explained, The Heavenly Path was the one who leaked the information. It will convey information to all living beings who enter the ruins by all means necessary."

"Let's head over to Mount Flames, then," James said.

Since there was a War Order at Mount Flames, James wanted to have a look. Besides, since Jace had told him that there were only thirty-three War Orders in total, he would have to hurry.

Otherwise, his efforts would be for naught.

Since his team consisted of four persons, he needed to acquire at least four War Orders.

Marcello glanced at Maxine and asked, "Maxine, did my father tell you to assist me in acquiring the third providence on Earth?"

Maxine nodded slightly and said, "Indeed, he has.

However, there are too many powerful figures competing for providence.

Even if I have obtained many providences, it won't be easy for me to help you obtain the Third Calamity's providence."

Maxine was speaking the truth.

Though she had acquired the Supreme Demonic Body and a mysterious Yogacara, not to mention that she had crossed into the Sage Rank, she was nonetheless still too weak at the moment.

She had no way to compete against the other prodigies.

Marcello said, "I'm content knowing I have your assistance."

James remained silent.

This had nothing to do with him, after all.

Maxine's master was Marcello's father.

He had no right to intervene in whoever Maxine wished to obey.
