

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2803

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2803-Jace said, Come on, let's get going already. Many powerful figures have already headed toward Mount Flames. Any later and the War Order will be someone else's."

James nodded and said, "In that case, let's go together."

James did not enter the city.

After encountering Marcello, Jace, and the others of the Demon Realm, he headed toward Mount Flames alongside them.

After flying continuously for half a day, they finally arrived in the region where Mount Flames was located.

Mount Flames was a mountain in flames.

As they approached the mountain, they could sense an excruciating heat.

Jace pointed at the mountain in flames before them and said, "That's Mount Flames. Based on my current information, this mountain has quite a history."

"Oh?"

James looked at him and said, "Pray tell."

Jace explained, "Based on the Heavenly Path's information, the flames of Mount Flames are extremely unique. They are the Flames of Samadhi from the alchemy furnace of the Grand Holy Master in the Ancient Heavenly Court Age. An accident caused the Flames of Samadhi in the alchemy furnace to spill, causing them to splash all over the area and form Mount Flames. Countless years have passed, and though the power of the flames was a shadow of their former selves, they were nonetheless still terrifying. Legend has it that true Flames of Samadhi can burn even a Grand Emperor."

Jace briefly explained the origins of Mount Flames.

They advanced toward Mount Flames and soon arrived at the foot of the mountain.

By the time they arrived, the temperature was already terrifyingly high.

Even James and the others could feel the sweltering heat and were completely drenched in sweat.

Many living beings were gathered near the foot of the mountain.

They did not dare intrude impulsively because the flames were terrifying, and they would be turned into ashes should they barge in recklessly.

Regardless, some made a few attempts.

However, the moment they reached the foot of the mountain they could no longer endure the heat and had to turn back.

James watched the mountain before him.

The mountain was tens of kilometers high, and there were flames all over its peak.

The flames burned so fiercely that even space was distorted.

Meanwhile, there was a white light floating in the air at the peak.

That was the War Order.

James and the others saw the War Order.

However, though the War Order was just right before their eyes, no one dared entered recklessly.

“Hahaha! Is there no one who dares step forward?”

A burst of laughter boomed.

Then, a fierce-looking man covered in hair appeared.

“Milo?”

James froze momentarily.

That man was none other than Milo of the Primordial Ape Race who snatched away his War Order.

Milo’s appearance immediately attracted the attention of many.

As he laughed, he strode forward and charged toward the burning flames.

“We have to prevent him from taking the initiative.”

Then, James charged toward the burning flames as well.

Milo already had a War Order in hand.

As such, James could not allow him to obtain an additional one.

“Careful, James.”

“Don’t let your guard down, James.” Maxine and Brielle said at the same time.

However, at that moment, James had already plunged into the flames.

Immediately, the flames enveloped him, and he could feel the scathing heat burning his skin.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2804

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2804-The flames of Mount Flames were the Flames of Samadhi.

Though countless years had passed and the flames’ power was no longer even a fraction of its former self, it was nonetheless terrifying.

The moment James entered the flames, he was immediately enveloped by the flames.

As the scathing heat burned his body, he felt a sense of discomfort.

However, the discomfort was merely a mild inconvenience.

With his current physical strength, he could resist the high temperature of this place.He lifted his head.

Milo was already halfway up the mountain.His physical strength was equally terrifying and he was able to resist the flames.

“I can’t let him get the War Order no matter the cost!”

Jarnes knew that the number of War Orders in the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court was limited.

In total, there were only thirty -three of them.

This time, there were too many living beings competing for a mere thirty-three War Orders in the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

As such, only a truly powerful figure could obtain the War Order.

James catalyzed Sage Energy to protect his body.

With a layer of Sage Energy protecting his physical body, the flames no longer had any effects on him.

He accelerated his speed and charged toward Milo.

At the same time, many living beings gathered at the foot of the mountain.

These were the ones who received the news in advance, and there were many more who were on the way here.

“Their physical strength is equally terrifying. They can use their physical body to resist the flames. I wonder if they can reach the peak and obtain the War Order.”

Many living beings had gathered and were spectating the race.

At that moment, James was already halfway up the mountain.

Even though his physical body had reached the Sage Rank's Seventh Stage, not to mention that he was protected by a layer of Sage Energy, he felt he could not last for much longer.

His physical body was now bright red, and the temperature on the surface of his skin had reached an unbelievable level.

Should he proceed any further, he could perish here.

Milo, on the other hand, continued to press forward.

Soon, he reached the peak of the mountain.

At that moment, his speed slowed down considerably as well.

His physical body was also nearing its limit.

James took a deep breath.

Then, he catalyzed Elemental Inversion and converted his body into the Fire Attribute.

As his body was an Elemental Holy Body, after converting his body into the Fire Attribute, his body's attribute now shared the same origins as the flames.

As such, his resistance toward the flames rose, and he accelerated his speed.

Soon, he caught up with Milo.

Milo was resisting the flames with all his might.

Upon sensing James closing in, he could not help but turn around and have a glimpse at him.

The hair on his head had completely burned away.

He was bald, his cheeks were red, and he was in a wretched state.

Upon seeing James, he could not help but be stunned.

“Haha...I never thought that you’d be able to reach this place with your strength.I guess I underestimated your strength.”

Seeing that Milo was near his limit, James cautioned, “Be careful not to overexert yourself.There’s no point in losing your life over this.”

Then, he strode forward.

Just as he took a few steps forward, a ball of flames charged toward him, possessing immense power.

The flames sent James flying, who collapsed heavily to the ground and spurted out a mouthful of blood, which immediately evaporated the moment it was exposed to the heat.

With great difficulty, he crawled up from the ground and catalyzed Demonic Energy to heal his injuries.

“What terrifying flames...I won’t be able to reach the peak under such circumstances.”

James was stunned.

At that moment, he summoned the power inside his body once more.

A cool breeze materialized from within his body.

This was the Water Attribute.

When the Water Attribute completely spread throughout his body, he felt much better.

At the same time, he catalyzed the power of the dragon bones and Elemental Inversion.

Five different Sage Energies circulated throughout his body, and his strength rose drastically.

Then, he catalyzed Sacrilegious Ascension.

After using multiple cultivation methods in a row, and in combination with his Elemental Holy Body, he was barely only able to resist the flames.

Accelerating his speed, he charged toward the peak of the mountain.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2805

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2805-“Damn it!”

Milo cursed when he saw James’ speed accelerating.

At that moment, he no longer held back and performed Sacrilegious Ascension, the signature cultivation method of the Primordial Ape Race.

His strength increased, and a protective barrier enveloped the surface of his skin.

Accelerating his speed, he caught up with James.

At that moment, James was close to arriving at the peak. The flames at the peak burned most ferociously, especially the place where the War Order was located, where it was enveloped in flames.

At that moment, a purple Divine Sword appeared in James’ hand.

“Break!”

He slashed with his sword.

Powerful Sword Light shredded through the air and cut the flames in half.

Then, he sidestepped before charging toward the War Order and grabbing it firmly.

“Mine!”

A roar came from behind him.

As the roar reverberated throughout the area, a figure charged toward him and raised his palm to strike James.

James raised his hand and waved the Divine Sword.

A wave of Sword Energy materialized and forced Milo back.

As Milo had observed James' battle against Yorick, so he knew just how powerful James was, especially his sword techniques.

Wary of fighting James head-on, he opted to dodge his attack.

The moment he dodged, James had already retreated with the War Order.

He swiftly gave chase and struck James' back, wishing to snatch the War Order away.

James stored the Divine Sword away.

Sensing a powerful energy fluctuation behind him, his face darkened, "How persistent..."

He turned around and struck with his palm.

Their palms collided.

James could only sense an overwhelming power crashing toward him before being sent flying.

He was sent flying out of Mount Flames and crashed heavily to the ground.

Before he could crawl up, Milo had already caught up.

Standing before him, he extended his arm and said, "Hand it over."

James stood up from the ground and wiped the blood trace off his lips while saying with a faint smile, Dream on.

Before, I forfeited the War Order because I owed your race one. Now that I've returned the favor, you'll have to cross over my dead body to obtain this War Order."

At the same time, the Divine Sword materialized in his hand.

James knew that Milo was much stronger now after using Sacrilegious Ascension.

However, the same went for him.

Back then, he was only at the Sage Rank's First Stage.

Now, he was at the Fourth Stage.

Performing the arcane arts in the First Stage was entirely distinct from performing them in the Fourth Stage.

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, the aura in James' body burst forth.

"Come."

James pointed the Divine Sword at him.

Milo's face darkened as he looked at James.

After some time, he said with a smile, "Consider this my loss this time.

However, obtaining the War Order is not tantamount to obtaining the ultimate providence.

Let us meet again at the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace.

I hope you won't disappoint me.

"By the way..."

Upon being reminded of something, he cautioned, "Though your strength has increased drastically, you're still no match for me. You need to work harder from now on. I hope that your strength will increase further by the time you ascend the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace. Otherwise, you won't stand a chance against me."

Leaving that ruthless remark, Milo turned to leave.

In the blink of an eye, he disappeared from everyone's view.

"Whew!"

James breathed a sigh of relief.

In truth, he had no wish to fight against a powerful figure such as Milo. He sat in a lotus position on the ground and dispersed Sacrilegious Ascension. Then, he catalyzed Demonic Energy to heal his injuries.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2806

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2806-There was a total of thirty-three War Orders in the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

Based on Milo's calculations, he planned to seize a few more War Orders and sell them to those who needed them.

The powerful figures who came to Earth were prodigies from all over the universe who was loaded.

However, James was the one who obtained the War Order this time.

In just a few short days, his strength had increased by leaps and bounds.

As the cost of fighting James far outweighed the benefits, he opted to give up.

Meanwhile, James sat in a lotus position on the ground to rest.

There were many living beings gathered at the foot of Mount Flames—approximately ten thousand of them.

Their gazes were all fixed on James.

Now that the War Order was in James' hands, they would obtain the War Order just by defeating him.

However, James was no pushover, and defeating him was nigh impossible.

Many brushed those thoughts aside.

If they possessed the strength to defeat James, they would have no problem searching for a War Order in the ruins.

Many turned to leave, and no one made a move against James, even though he was injured.

Soon, James' injuries recovered.

When he entered Mount Flames previously, his hair had been completely burned away.

However, at his current rank, he was able to control the vitality of his body as he pleased.

This meant that he could freely control the growth of hair.

Soon, his hair had grown back.

As he stood, Maxine and the others walked toward him.

Concerned, Maxine asked, "Are you alright?"

James smiled and said, "Of course I am."

Holding the War Order up high, he said with a smug smile, "I have acquired the War Order."

Marcello, Jace, and the other living beings of the Demon Raxe approached them.

Marcello said smilingly, "Congratulations on obtaining the War Order, James. This means that you now have the right to enter the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace and compete for the ultimate providence."

James smiled and said, "Thank you."

Qusai asked, "What should we do next, James?"

James glanced at the volcano before him.

It was the perfect location for cultivation.

As nourishing his physical body here would achieve better results, he planned to enter a closed-door meditation here for some time.

After brief contemplation, he said, "Since I've already obtained a War Order, there's no need for me to take further risks. I plan to enter a closed-door meditation here and wait for the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace to open."

James' current strength was still insufficient to overwhelm the masses.

Competing for the ultimate providence at his current rank would be rather difficult.

Maxine furrowed her eyebrows and said, "Are you forsaking us now that you have obtained a War Order?"

Qusai said smilingly, "Enter a closed-door meditation if you wish, James. With our strength, we'll be able to obtain a few War Orders ourselves."

Qusai was confident in their strength.

Brielle nodded as well and said, "I agree with Qusai this time. Focus on your closed-door meditation, James. We'll search for the War Orders ourselves."

Brielle was confident in her strength as well.

Among the living beings who entered the ruins, she was certainly ranked within the top thirty.

As long as those who had already obtained a War Order would not compete for more, she had a high chance of acquiring one.

Marcello chimed in, "We have no idea when the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace will open. Entering a closed-door meditation is the right choice. You should increase your strength by as much as possible to stand a better chance for the ultimate providence."

"Mhm."

James nodded and said, "This is farewell, then."

He clasped his fists and bid farewell to them.

Maxine, Qusai, and Brielle teamed up and continued to search for War Orders elsewhere.

Marcello and Jace left Mount Flames alongside the other prodigies of the Demon Face.

The other living beings at Mount Flames also gradually turned to leave.

Soon, silence fell on Mount Flames.

Hiss!

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2807

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2807-Only the sound of hissing flames could be heard.

James looked at Mount Flames. It was the perfect location for cultivation. The Flames of Samadhi were terrifying and extremely effective in nourishing the physical body. Besides, the flames contained mysterious energy that allowed one to increase his Sage Energy rapidly.

To James' understanding, Yorick's rank was not too high. He was only around the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage, whereas some of the other living beings had already reached the Fifteenth Stage. As true prodigies, their ranks were stable and completely real.

Though James' physical strength was at the Sage Rank's Seventh Stage, his strength was too numerous and varied. After obtaining providence, he was only at the Sage Rank's Fourth Stage. Without resorting to other means, he would not stand a chance against the other powerful figures.

After brief contemplation, he stepped into the flames. Though the flames may seem terrifying, he was able to resist the flames of the outer perimeter without resorting to other means or tactics. By the time he was halfway up the mountain, he felt a sense of discomfort, and each step he took seemed to require great effort.

He sat in a lotus position on the ground.

“Spirit Tool, please help me set up a Time Formation. I’m going to enter a closed-door meditation.”

James asked the Spirit Tool inside the Celestial Abode to help him set up a Time Formation.

The ring on his finger materialized to form mysterious characters that entered the void and formed a Time Formation.

James began cultivating in earnest inside the Time Formation. At the same time, while he refined his physical body, he absorbed the power of the flames to increase his Sage Energy. The Elemental

Inversion Formation inside his body swiftly circulated, transforming the absorbed energy into Sage Energy. With the Elemental Inversion Formation, James’ power increased drastically at a speed many times that of other cultivators. Meanwhile, as his physical body was continuously burned by the flames, he kept growing stronger. Before his physical strength could make a breakthrough, his rank had already reached the peak of the Fourth Stage.

James tried to suppress his rank. However, his rank was stable. The energy absorbed by Elemental Inversion Formation was pure and concentrated, and this could not be suppressed.

“Am I going to make a breakthrough so soon?” James murmured.

After last time’s failure, he had become more cautious. He first took out the Imperial Jade Seal and suppressed the curse’s power inside his body to prevent the curse from appearing out of nowhere at pivotal moments.

Once he suppressed the curse, he chose to make a breakthrough. He struck with his fist and shattered the Realm Barrier.

Then, the seal appeared.

James began to strike the seal slowly but gradually. Nothing unexpected occurred during this breakthrough, and he easily crossed into the Sage Rank’s Fifth Stage.

During the closed-door meditation, a year passed in the outside world. Meanwhile, many long and excruciating years had passed in the Time Formation.

A day in the outside world was three months in the Time

Formation. A year in the outside world meant that he had spent ninety-one years in closed-door meditation.

Ninety-one years was close to a century. After close to a century, he was only able to make a breakthrough into the Fifth Stage, not to mention that this was under the circumstances where there was an Elemental Inversion Formation inside his body. Otherwise, he might need much more time to achieve a breakthrough.

He truly had no idea how other cultivators cultivated to increase their cultivation base so rapidly.

"I'm finally at the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage, and my physical strength is also on the verge of making a breakthrough. I'll remain in a closed-door meditation for some time. Once my physical strength reaches the Sage Rank's Eighth Stage, I'll leave this place," James murmured.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2808

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2808-Increasing one's physical strength was comparatively easier. As long as he could endure pain and allow his body to be gravely injured, his physical strength would only grow. Pain? Injuries?

James had withstood immeasurable pain and suffering all this while. His physical body burned in the flames. Ordinary cultivators would not have been able to endure the excruciating heat.

However, James had gotten used to this. Even though his skin was already bright red, he did not even wince once.

Afterward, he catalyzed the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi to absorb the energy of the flames to increase his physical strength.

Regardless, his physical strength increased at a snail's pace. James entered a closed-door meditation for another fifty years.

Only then did his physical strength increase to the Sage Rank's Eighth Stage.

A year and a half had passed in the outside world. Though he had no idea whether the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace had opened, he knew he had to leave his closed-door meditation and wander outside.

If he missed the opportunity to compete for providence, everything would be for naught.

He stood up and stretched. Sensing the immense power inside his body, he smiled satisfactorily. Then, he turned to leave.

Soon, he was out of Mount Flames. As he walked out of the mountain, he turned around to have a glimpse.

Mount Flames was tens of kilometers in height. Such an enormous and grand mountain was completely in flames, which soared to the sky.

Hiss!

The hissing sounds of the flames could be heard. Upon witnessing such a scenery, an idea surfaced in James' mind.

Whish!

The Divine Sword materialized in his hand. At that moment, James only had an image of flames in his mind. As he casually waved his hand, a wave of Sword Light burst forth from within the Divine

Sword. The Sword Light shredded through the air and landed at Mount Flames before him. However, the Sword Light was immediately enveloped in flames.

James shut his eyes. With his perception, he could sense that this region contained extremely hot energy.

At that moment, he seemed to have entered an illusory state of mind. In his state, he performed a sword dance. Unknowingly, immense flame energy gathered inside his sword. After God knows how long, he stopped and looked at the sword in his hand, which was both purplish and reddish at the moment. Seeing that the sword slowly reverted to purple, James smiled delightedly, "This is what I call a true Sword Intent."

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, he walked out of Mount Flames. After leaving the region, he casually waved his hand, and a wave of Sword Energy materialized from within the Divine Sword.

The Sword Energy struck a mountain beside Mount Flames.

Boom!

The moment the Sword Energy struck the mountain, an extremely terrifying energy engulfed the mountain. In an instant, everything was turned to ashes and nothing remained in sight.

"I guess I will call this the Samadhi Sword Intent," James murmured.

Then, without turning back, he turned to leave.

This time, he managed to gain insight into the Samadhi Sword

Intent by chance. This allowed the power of his swordsmanship to increase further, allowing him to see a glimmer of hope to compete for the ultimate providence.

“It’s been a year and a half. I wonder what’s going on inside the ruins.”

James hurriedly left the area and headed to places that were populated.

There were only thirty-three War Orders inside the ruins, which meant that only thirty-three living beings could obtain a War

Order and enter the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace. However, since this was the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court, many providences were lying in wait. Those who failed to obtain a War

Order gradually turned their sights on the providences.

Soon, James arrived at an abandoned city. He had been here before, but before he could enter the city, he headed toward Mount Flames alongside Marcello and the others.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-