

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2809

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2809-Aman slowly walked on the streets.

Wearing a black robe, he had long black hair and a somewhat handsome-looking face.

He was wearing a composed smile on his face.

It was James.

Many living beings were gathered at the city gate, going in and out of the city.

James' appearance created a commotion.

"James has arrived!" someone roared.

In a fully intact building in the city, a ferocious-looking man was sitting on a chair.

He was filled with consternation.

At that moment, a man rushed in and knelt on one knee, greeting him respectfully, "Master, James has arrived."

Hearing this, the ferocious-looking man stood up abruptly and asked delightedly, "Really?"

"Yes, he has arrived at the city gates."

"Good! Inform all our powerful fighters to prepare for battle.

We will attack James on all sides and seize his War Order!"

"Understood."

Over the past year and a half during which James was in closed – door meditation, he had no idea that many War Orders had appeared.

Each appearance signaled the beginning of a fierce and bloody battle.

Countless cultivators fought against each other to obtain the War Order.

At the moment, those who had a War Order in their possession had already concealed themselves.

There were too many living beings who failed to obtain a single War Order, so the moment they showed themselves, countless cultivators would certainly seize the opportunity to steal their War Order.

The moment James arrived at the city gates, he attracted the bizarre gazes of many.

“James was one of the earliest ones to obtain a War Order, right?”

“Yep, he obtained the War Order at Mount Flames. It’s been about a year and a half. If my calculations are correct, the War Order in his possession should be the second one.”

“Milo was the one who obtained the first.”

“Indeed... However, six months ago, a few powerful figures formed a group and pursued him. Milo was gravely injured. In the end, his War Order was taken away.”

“At this moment, thirty War Orders have already appeared. Now, only three remain. Once the final three appear, the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace will be opened.”

James’ appearance caused quite a stir.

Hearing this, James furrowed his eyebrows.

How unbelievable.

Even Milo’s War Order had been seized.

James knew just how powerful Milo was.

As a member of the Primordial Ape Race, he possessed terrifying strength, not to mention that he practiced Sacrilegious Ascension.

To think that even such a being was being pursued.

To be honest, James found this hard to believe.

Now, he desperately wanted to enter the city and ask what had happened in the ruins over the past year and a half.

However, just as he arrived at the city gates, the sound of iron-clad knights could be heard.

They were riding on unicorns several meters in height and were completely covered in black scales.

On the unicorns was a group of fully armed soldiers.

They charged toward James and surrounded him.

Then, a ferocious-looking man wearing a black robe who was about 230 centimeters tall stepped forward.

Seeing this formation, the surrounding living beings all retreated to the rear.

Seeing this, James furrowed his eyebrows.

He knew that the person before him was hostile.

Looking at the ferocious-looking man, he clasped his fists and said, "What is the meaning of this, Sir?"

The man walked toward James and extended his arm, saying, "Don't say I didn't give you a chance, James. Hand the War Order over and I might just spare your life."

"Hahaha..."

James laughed.

So they were after his War Order in the end.

"In that case, show me that you're capable of accomplishing such a feat."

His smile froze, only to be replaced by a darkened face.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2810

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2810-James had only just finished a closed-door meditation which drastically increased his strength.

His rank had reached the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage, and his physical strength had reached the Sage Rank's Eighth Stage.

However, these were not the key points.

The most significant of all was that he had gained insight into the Flames of Samadhi.

This was not to mention the Sword Intent materialized from the foundations of the Flames of Samadhi.

However, James had no idea how terrifying they were since he had never used them in battle before.

He scanned the knights in his surroundings.

All of them exuded immense auras.

Through a single glimpse, James could tell that they were at about the Sage Rank's Eighth Stage.

The ferocious-looking man, on the other hand, was at least at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage according to conservative estimates.

James' face darkened as he looked at the man and asked, "What's your name? I don't fight against nameless people."

The man laughed and said, Remember my name well, James.

My name is Yorich Jareda, the Young Master of the Sword Realm, and my father's the Lord of the Sword Realm.

I hear that your sword techniques are unrivaled.

Allow me to test your true strength then."

Yorich smiled as he gave the order, "Attack!"

As he gave the order, hundreds of knights brandished their swords, and hundreds of Sword Energies struck James at the same time.

James dodged the attacks and appeared in mid-air.

Rumble! A deep fissure appeared on the ground.

"You have a death wish!"

James' face darkened as the Divine Sword materialized in his hand.

The knights were approximately at the Sage Rank's Eighth Stage.

Though they were strong, this was nothing to James.

His rank was already at the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage.

Besides, the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword was an Imperial Weapon.

These allowed him to mitigate the power disparity between them.

After appearing in mid-air, his body flashed, and a Sword Light glimmered.

Before the knights could even react, they were already struck dead.

James had no sympathy whatsoever toward these knights who wished to seize his belonging.

So, he simply annihilated them without any mercy.

The Divine Sword in combination with his invincible sword techniques annihilated them in an instant.

Many witnessed this scene, and all of them were dumbfounded.

“James is so strong...”

“James has grown even stronger compared to when he fought against Yorick. Now, he didn't use the arcane arts that increase his strength.”

“Indeed, Yorich's knights have posed a threat to many powerful figures all this while. To think that James managed to annihilate them in a single move...”

“As expected of the man who obtained the War Order from Mount Flames.” Many exclaimed.

Seeing that his subordinates were being killed, veins bugged on Yorich's face.

These knights were the elite troops of the Sword Realm that were gathered from all over the place to assist him in obtaining this providence.

Now, however, they were being annihilated by James.

What should he say to the higher-ups if he let James go scot-free? “You're dead meat, kid!”

Yorich said coldly.

A dark light appeared and formed a black sword.

Holding the sword in his hand, Yorich's aura burst forth.

“An Imperial Weapon?”

“That’s right, this is an Imperial Weapon. The Lord of the Sword Realms is a Grand Emperor. Besides, the Sword Realm is famous for its terrifying swordsmanship. As such Yorich’s swordsmanship must be extraordinary.”

The moment Yorich revealed his Imperial Weapon, everyone could tell what it was.

James froze momentarily.

There were simply too many Imperial Weapons in this world.

Not just Yorich, but even Yorich had one.

It looked that there would be a fierce battle would erupt here today.

However, James was undaunted.

In fact, he was feeling exhilarated.

“You’re the perfect guinea pig to test my Sword Intent,”

James’ voice boomed.

“Die!”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2811

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2811-Yorich roared and raised the black sword in his hand before slashing ferociously.

A terrifying Sword Light materialized and shredded through the air, heading in James’ direction.

The Sword Light’s aura was powerful and its power immense.

Upon sensing danger, the surrounding living beings who were spectating the scene hurriedly retreated to the rear.

Faced with this powerful attack, James did not hesitate at all.

He raised his hand and slashed with his sword.

A wave of Sword Energy materialized from within the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

The two Sword Energies collided.

Boom! As the Sword Energies collided in mid-air, an explosion occurred, creating a powerful blast.

James could sense a terrifying power sweeping toward him.

Instantly, he raised the Divine Sword in his hand and deflected the incoming Sword Intent.

“Dammit!”

Yorich was incensed when he saw James was unscathed.

Leaping into the air, the sword he wielded broke free of his control and began multiplying in number.

In a short period of time, thousands of black swords had materialized, and each of them charged at James while carrying immense power.

James smiled faintly.

At that moment, his Sword Intent transformed, and the purple sword in his hand instantly turned red.

“Break!”

James slashed with his sword.

A fiery red Sword Energy materialized from within the sword.

Like a flamethrower sweeping through the area, every black sword that came into contact shattered into pieces.

In an instant, thousands of swords were shattered.

Only one remained.

The remaining one plummeted from the sky after being forced back and crashed heavily to the ground, causing great destruction to the abandoned city.

Meanwhile, the flames continued to sweep through the area, striking Yorich in the process.

Yorich’s body was instantly sliced in half.

At that moment, an immense power materialized from within his body and forcibly rejuvenated it despite being slashed in half.

Even so, his body suffered severe injuries.

He plummeted from the sky and crashed heavily to the ground.

Then, he simply lay on the ground motionless.

“Hmm...”

Upon seeing this, James was stunned.

He had just performed the Samadhi Sword Intent and he had only recently gained insight.

He never thought that its power would be so immense that even an Imperial Weapon was easily knocked away.

He put away the Divine Sword.

At that moment, Yorich stood up from the pile of rubble he crashed into.

His body was almost completely destroyed but was rejuvenated at a pivotal moment.

Even so, his body was gravely injured, and he was completely covered in blood.

He sat on a rock and panted for breath.

James kept his hands to his back and walked toward him.

Yorich glared at him.

As he possessed an Imperial Weapon, he believed himself to possess even greater strength than Yorick.

Now, however, after being defeated by James in a single move, he could not help but be stunned.

“Just do it already.”

Since he was defeated, there was nothing much he could say about the situation he was in.

James stood before him and glanced at him.

He was tempted to end Yorich's life right there and then.

However, he knew that Yorich was no ordinary man and was the Young Master of the Sword Realm.

He had never heard of the Sword Realm, and as such, it should not be one of the Seven Dimensions.

Even so, it must be a huge world where there would be plenty of Grand Emperors.

If he killed Yorich, he might create more trouble for the humans on Earth.

“Why would I kill you?” James said coldly, “I won’t kill you. I only want to let you know that I won’t provoke others unnecessarily. However, don’t think that you can get away scot-free after messing around with me. I won’t hold back.”

James’ voice boomed.

Then, he turned to leave.

Soon, he disappeared from this region.

After he disappeared, the living beings who were spectating the event returned.

Upon seeing Yorich, who was covered in blood and whose life was hanging by a thread, they could not help but take a deep breath.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2812

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2812-Yorich, the Young Master of the Sword Realm who possessed an Imperial Weapon, was certainly a terrifying being.

However, against James, he was defeated in a few moves.

Not only that, but he was only alive at this point because James was merciful.

Otherwise, he would have perished in the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

“James is too terrifying...”

“He’s much stronger now compared to when he fought against Yorick.”

“I have no idea how he cultivates. How did he manage to become so strong in such a short amount of time?”

Many, upon seeing Yorich, whose life was hanging by a thread, took a deep breath.

James, on the other hand, had left the abandoned city.

Based on the exchange between the living beings, he now knew that thirty War Orders had appeared and that only three remained hidden.

This meant that once the final three War Orders appeared, the Thirty- three Stages Celestial Palace would open.

After entering the Thirty- three Stages Celestial Palace, he would have the opportunity to obtain the ultimate providence.

James wandered about inside the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

The place was huge, with dilapidated halls littered around the place.

Besides that, there were also mountains and rivers here.

However, these places had been turned inside up, and no War Order was found.

Now, the only thing James needed to do was find Qusai, Maxine, and the others.

After walking continuously for a few days, he did not encounter anyone.

At the moment, he was sitting in a lotus position on the ground while he rested.

From afar, a group of living beings appeared.

They were discussing the latest events that unfolded.

“James appeared, and Yorch attempted to seize his War Order. He sent his subordinates, the knights, to surround James. However, James managed to annihilate them in a single move. Yorch was not any better. He was defeated in just a few moves.”

“By the way, I heard that the thirty-first War Order has appeared.”

“Yes, I have heard of that as well. The War Order appeared in Yandul, and many powerful figures flocked there and were engaged in a fierce battle. In the end, a primordial beast seized the War Order.”

“This primordial beast seems to be a Gorger. I heard that long ago, James used to have one by his side.”

As James had a good sense of hearing, he stood up upon overhearing their conversation.

His body flashed, and he rushed toward the group's location, appearing before them in the blink of an eye.

Upon seeing James, they froze.

"J-James?"

As if confronted by a demon, they had horrified expressions on their faces as they staggered backward.

James said coldly, "Am I that terrifying?"

"Are you not?" a humanoid creature with wings on its back muttered.

James looked him in the eye, and he immediately shut his mouth.

Then, James asked, "You were saying something about a Gorger?"

"Yes...It has the appearance of a young girl about seven years of age and had purple hair.Back at Yandul Sage Realm, she transformed into a Gorger and overwhelmed everyone.In the end, she obtained the thirty-first War Order."

Hearing this, James furrowed his eyebrows.

Though he had never seen the original form of Feb the Gorger, he knew that she was a female.

Based on this information, he could roughly guess that the Gorger that appeared must have been Febbecause she was the only surviving Gorger in the world.

"Where is she?" James asked.

They shook their heads.

"I don't know."

"This happened five days ago.We have no idea where the Gorger could have gone."

"Oh, yeah..."

One of the living beings was suddenly reminded of something.

□

□

