

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2813

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2813-He suddenly looked at James and said, "M-Mr.Caden, I have information that might be useful to you."

James glanced at him and said, "Speak."

The creature said, "News of your appearance has already spread throughout the entire Ancient Heavenly Court.Many creatures now know that you have a War Order in your possession.There were simply too many creatures who have failed to obtain one.As such, those who do have gone into hiding."

James frowned and said, "Cut the cr*p already."

"Yes, of course."

The creature nodded frantically and said, "Have you ever heard of the Celestial Ant Race?"

James shook his head.He had never heard of this before.

The creature explained, "Let's not be hasty, Mr.Caden.Allow me to provide you with an explanation."

James looked at him and waited for his explanation.

The creature said, There were ten Superbeasts in the Primordial Age, also called the Ten Primordial Fiends.Both the Gorgers and the Celestial Ants were among the ten."

"There was also a Celestial Ant that entered the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.Though he is tremendously powerful, he has terrible luck.He has yet to obtain a War Order.Knowing of your appearance, he captured your friend, whom I think is called Maxine.He demands you head over to Mount Penyet in a month.Otherwise, he'll kill Maxine."

Hearing this, James was stunned.

Then, he calmed down and asked, "Is the Celestial Ant powerful?"

"Very."

The creature said, "A Celestial Ant's physical body is terrifying.The moment they are born, they have a physical body that possesses the rank of a Sage."

James asked, "Where's Mount Penyet?"

The creature took out a map and handed it to James with a smile, saying, "Mr.Caden, this is the map of the ruins.I have marked some of the more important places on the map."

"Thanks."

James took the map and turned to leave.His body flashed, and he disappeared without a trace.

"Hey, Mr.Caden, shouldn't you at least reward me?" the creature yelled.

However, James paid no heed to him.

He swiftly left and arrived at a secluded spot before scrutinizing the map.

The map was easy to read.

James calculated the time he took to travel from the abandoned city and tried confirming his current whereabouts.

Then, he tried searching the map for Mount Penyet.

After confirming where to go, he did not linger for long and hurriedly headed in the direction of his destination.

As more and more War Orders appeared, those without one began to panic.

Those who were here for the providence were prodigies who came from all corners of the universe, and each of them possessed terrifying strength.

Those who obtained a War Order by chance did not dare show themselves recklessly.

Instead, they concealed themselves and waited for all the War Orders to appear and the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace to open.

On the other hand, those without a War Order were desperately trying to get their hands on one by any means necessary.

The same went for the Celestial Ant.

Upon hearing of James' appearance, he immediately abducted someone close to him and demanded he hand the War Order over.

At Mount Penyet...

This was a mountain inside the ruins where there was abundant Spiritual Energy.

At that moment, two people stood outside the mountain.

They were Qusai and Brielle.

“What should we do?”

Brielle looked at Qusai and asked, “The Celestial Ant has captured Maxine. He’s trying to force James to show himself.”

Qusai said nonchalantly, “What else can we do but wait for James to arrive? We should proceed with caution. Once we show ourselves, we’ll be attacked on all sides. By then, not only will we fail to save Maxine, but we might even lose our War Orders.”

Brielle and Qusai were strong.

Over the past year, they have been incredibly lucky as well. By combining forces, they managed to obtain a War Order each.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2814

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2814-Though this was the Apocalypse Age for mankind, the opposite was true for James. He possessed unbelievable luck and was graced by the Heavenly Path.

As he was incredibly fortunate, he would receive providence wherever he went.

This was the main reason Qusai followed James around.

Throughout the universe, many chose to antagonize the human race and wanted to annihilate James and seize his providence.

However, some chose to befriend James.

Qusai was one of them.

When James first appeared in the Demon Realm, the Gael family immediately got word of it.

So, they sent Qusai to the Demon Realm to become sworn brothers with James.

As someone blessed by the Heavenly Path, James could direct the luck toward his friends unknowingly.

Perhaps it was due to this that Brielle and Qusai had great luck Not too long after James left, they each obtained a War Order.

Having incredible fortunes was simply unbelievable.

Countless powerful cultivators entered the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court, yet the vast majority of them could not find anything, whereas both of them obtained one.

Besides, news of who exactly has a War Order in their possession had already spread far and wide.

That was because the Heavenly Path would periodically send information to the creatures in the ruins.

This piece of information included the names of those who possessed the War Order.

Due to this, Qusai and Brielle were pursued.

However, they were both powerful.

Qusai, especially, was from the Demon Realm and the son of the Supreme Demon Lord.

As the blood of the Supreme Demon Lord ran through his veins, he possessed strength that rivaled Yorick's, or perhaps even surpassed his.

Brielle was no pushover either.

Henrik Declan even stated that she would be the first to reach the Emperor Rank among all living beings in the Apocalypse Age.

With their great strength, they successfully forced their enemies to retreat.

However, to avoid unnecessary trouble, they did not dare show themselves easily.

At the moment, they were hiding on the outskirts of Mount Penyet.

Gazing at the mountain in the distance, Qusai said, "Since James has already left his closed-door meditation, he must have gotten news of Maxine's abduction. He would surely make his way here. Let's just wait here for him to show himself. Once we combine our forces, no one can stand in our way."

Qusai did not choose to act impulsively.

Instead, he planned to wait for James to come.

Brielle nodded slightly and said, "I guess that's our only way."

Meanwhile, after receiving news of Maxine's abduction, James swiftly headed in the direction of Mount Penyet.

Soon, he arrived at the outskirts of the region.

By the time he arrived, there were already many creatures gathered there.

Some of them came from the Three-Thousand Sealed Realms, while the others came from all corners of the universe.

As they lacked strength, they were ineligible to compete for the providence.

Even so, they managed to obtain many benefits in the ruins.

At the moment, they were here to watch the show.

The Celestial Ant was the descendant of one of the Primordial Ten Fiends, whereas James was the most terrifying human prodigy of this age.

Their showdown attracted the attention of many creatures.

James did not disguise himself, nor did he conceal his aura.

So, the moment he appeared, he was spotted.

As he arrived at the outskirts of Mount Penyet, he gazed at the majestic mountain and stopped in his tracks.

Then, he pulled out the map and confirmed his direction, murmuring, "This should be Mount Penyet. Only two weeks have passed since I received news of Maxine's abduction. She should be alright."

"Hey, isn't that James?"

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2815

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2815-"James has appeared."

"Hehe... Time to watch the show."

"Since James has shown himself, those without a War Order would certainly make their way here to seize his."

"Indeed, the Celestial Ant isn't the only one without one."

“Yorick’s also on the list of people without a War Order. I believe that he would surely appear and fight against James. I feel he only lost to James the last time because he hasn’t used the ace up his sleeves.”

James was immediately spotted the moment he appeared.

At that moment, all the creatures had looks of anticipation on their faces.

They knew there would be a show there.

This would be a fierce battle for the War Orders.

This might not end that easily.

God knew how many creatures would make their way here to seize James’ War Order.

Even though James was strong, those without a War Order would not give up that easily, considering that those who had one in their possession were already in hiding.

The moment James appeared, he was also noticed by Qusai and Brielle.

Just as Brielle was about to show herself and meet up with James, Qusai stopped her in time, “Let’s not be hasty. News of us obtaining a War Order was spread, so many of them know that we were together with James.”

Hearing this, Brielle immediately understood what he meant.

She knew that Qusai was worried that someone would impersonate James to lure them out so that they could seize their War Orders. So, the two remained in hiding and observed.

After confirming James’ aura, they showed themselves.

Just as James was about to head to Mount Penyet, find the Celestial Ant, and save Maxine...

“James!”

came a voice.

James turned around and saw two figures walking hurriedly toward him.

“Brielle! Qusai!”

Stunned, James asked, “Why are you here?”

Brielle said, "We obtained a War Order soon after we parted ways. However, news of our obtaining a War Order spread, so we had no choice but to part ways with Maxine. Qusai and I then begin hiding all over the place. When we heard that Maxine had been captured, we hurriedly made our way here. All this while, we had been concealed in the shadows."

"Mhm."

Qusai nodded.

Looking at the surrounding creatures, his expression turned grim as he said, "We have to end this quickly, James."

Otherwise, once the other powerful figures arrive, we'll be forced to fight an endless battle."

James, however, could not care less.

At the moment, he was unafraid of anyone.

With his current strength, only a handful inside the ruins could stand up against him.

He looked at Qusai and Brielle and said smilingly, "If we work together, there won't be anyone who can stand against us. Besides, I have connections with a certain Gorger. She would certainly make her way here receiving news of my appearance. If all four of us work together, the ultimate providence will surely be in our hands." James was confident that the combined strength of him, Brielle, Qusai, and the Gorger could easily overwhelm all enemies.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2816

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2816-James was confident they could overwhelm all enemies that stood in their way.

However, since Feb the Gorger had yet to appear, the only thing he could do now was to save Maxine as soon as possible.

In any case, Maxine was brought up and nurtured by Tobias.

As such, she was also a Caden.

That fact alone meant that she was worth saving.

Besides, Maxine provided him with a lot of assistance.

She only made some mistakes after being led astray.

"We should first head up Mount Penyet."

Brielle and Qusai nodded at the same time, "Mhm."

At the moment, on an empty piece of land at the peak of Mount Penyet, there was a woman tied to a pole. She was wearing a black dress.

However, her dress was tattered, caused by the chains that tore at her clothing.

Her grave injuries were revealed, her face was pale, her lips were dry, and her life seemed hanging by a thread.

It appeared that she had been tied to the pole after suffering injuries and was denied any medical treatment.

A man was sitting on a rock beside her.

The man had a sturdy build and was wearing a black jacket.

Though he was ferocious-looking, his appearance was sly and bizarre.

He sat on the rock while having a bored look on his face.

His name was Maveth Emmet, an Emperor of the Celestial Ant Race.

He possessed great strength, and he also bore witness to the battle between James and Yorick on Mount Bane.

Even so, he abducted Maxine in an effort to blackmail James.

This meant that he was fully confident in his strength.

Besides, he had Maxine as a bargaining chip.

As such, he was not worried that James would not hand over his War Order.

"Boss."

A voice came.

Maveth lifted his head.

A man wearing a black robe walked in and knelt on one knee.

“Speak,” Maveth said.

The kneeling man was sent by the Celestial Ant Race to assist Maveth.

His name was Kakush Emmet, one of the strongest prodigies of his race.

Though he did not have the bloodline of the Emperor of the Celestial Ant, he climbed the social ladder through his efforts.

His strength was not beneath Maveth’s.

Kakush said, “James has arrived at the outskirts of the mountain.He will soon reach this place.”

Hearing this, Maveth was so agitated that he leaped from his seat and laughed, “Hahaha! After so long, James is finally here.His War Order will soon be mine.Then, I’ll have the opportunity to compete for the ultimate providence.That way, I’ll reach the Emperor Rank!”

“Boss.

Wearing a grim expression, Kakush said, “We should be on our guard.I just received news that James defeated Yorich, the Young Master of the Sword Realm in a few moves.”

“Hmph! That’s nothing,”Maveth said with a scornful look, “

Yorich was defeated because he didn’t have an invincible physical body.We, the Celestial Ants, on the other hand, have unparalleled physical bodies.There’s no way James can defeat me.He might not even be able to pierce my physical resistance.”

Maveth was fully confident in his physical strength.

At the same time, James arrived at Mount Penyet.

Along the way, he encountered many guards, who possessed immense strength.

Most of them were already at the Sage Rank’s Fifth Stage.

Achieving such strength at their age was terrifying.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-